FRIENDS!!

Complex situations are nothing new to Springfield with the result that the setup as it pertains to the local postmastership is attracting no more than the usual political interest. . . if an acting postmaster in any other community failed the examination for permanent appointment and his most bitter political opponent had passed the exam, as was the case in Springfield, you probably would never hear the end of it. . . but here in town last week's banner headline is just yesterday's news by now. . . peak interest in the situation has virtually disintegrated in all places except the post office itself and this newspaper office, where Tim Sheehan's rosters appear to outnumber George Turk's followers by overwhelming majorities. . . We promise to keep you posted on developments.

With just a couple of weeks of the summer doldrums left, plans are reportedly underway by new officers and directors of the Chamber of Commerce to launch an unprecedented fall schedule with emphasis on rejuvenating local business. . . efforts to stimulate buying in Springfield have been tried on scores of previous occasions with limited results, but this time we are told there are a few new concrete ideas on the subject which will be given serious consideration. . . We are also told that parking meters and the parking ban will again come up for major discussion.

It is not too late to register for presidential election next November. . . anyone not registered may do so at the office of the Township Clerk in Town Hall Monday through Friday during regular business hours from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. . . September 25 is the last day for registration before the November election.

Fire officials say that several complaints have been received from residents objecting to the smoke nuisance during the summer months. . . even though a fire permit has been obtained, the permit does not allow anyone to burn papers or other combustible material daily or regularly in a portable metal container or outdoor fireplace. . . the intention of the fire permit is to allow residents to burn leaves and underbrush during the spring and fall months. . . the permits do not pertain to charcoal fires for cooking in outdoor fireplaces. . . if you occasionally burn papers be certain that you observe the requirement that metal containers be located 30 feet from a building. . . however, why burn papers at all? . . . the township provides trash collection which if used properly would eliminate all necessity of back yard incinerators and would also eliminate the smoke nuisance complained of by your neighbors.

The daily performance of "Springfield Charlie" at the bank corner is reported to be quite a show. . . he is the township's latest "volunteer" policeman. . . "Charlie" keeps the business center traffic moving swiftly with his arm motions just like the real thing.

Springfield Pilot Rests In Europe After Making Oceanic 'Copter Flight

4,000-Mile Trip Listed As First In Air History

Capt. Vincent H. McGovern today is resting in Europe after completing the first trans-Atlantic helicopter flight last week. The Air Force captain, who is the son of Mrs. Cecilia McGovern of 21 Edgewood avenue, now is at Wiesbaden where he will teach the American Air Force pilots the little tricks of operating helicopters.

The helicopters, manned by McGovern and four other fliers, landed at Prestwick, Scotland, Thursday. On Saturday the mission flew to Amsterdam at the invitation of the Dutch government. It completed the 4,000 mile rotor flight to Wiesbaden Monday.

The objective of the mission was to prove it was practical to fly "copters to Europe rather than transport them there. The Military Transport Command now is convinced of the feasibility of the project. For the history-making trip, the Sikorsky H-19's were loaded with heavy supplies of gas and were accompanied by a C-54 transport. A pilot and co-pilot flew each plane, and expert helicopter mechanics went along in the transport.

The expedition took off from Westover Air Force Base, Massachusetts on July 15. The helicopters used on the flight were the "Hopalong" and "Whirlaway." Captain McGovern flew as pilot in the lead helicopter. He did much of the early planning for the Atlantic crossing.

The air route traversed eight countries. Overnight stops were made at Presque Isle, Maine; Goose Bay, Labrador; Narasnuak, Greenland; Keflavik, Iceland and Prestwick.

In order to make the flight all equipment that could be spared was removed and extra fuel tanks installed. McGovern said that the flight was "a little rough in spots." Off Greenland visibility was near zero and they landed on a tiny island off the mainland. They had to wait for several hours for a launch to pick them up.

The actual total flying time to Scotland was 42 hours and 25 minutes. Maj. Gen. Francis Grieswold, commander of the U. S. Third Air Force in Britain flew to Prestwick from London to welcome the helicopters. He pointed out that this was the world's longest combined helicopter flight.

Captain McGovern received his commission in March, 1944 as a twin engine airplane pilot at Scott's Field, Arkansas. At Charleston, South Carolina, he received further multi-engine training and was assigned to the 68th Bomb Group as a B-24 pilot. He flew 48 missions with the 514th Squadron, Fifteenth Air Force in Italy and came home in January, 1945.

After the war he flew fighters, photo reconnaissance, F-51's and F-26's. He attended the helicopter school at San Marcos, Texas, March through May, 1947, and served with the 362nd Liaison Squadron, which is the Air Force's only helicopter squadron, at Marshall Field, Fort Riley, Kansas, until August, 1948. Then he was sent to Japan and was assigned to the Third Air Rescue Squadron. When the Korean outbreak started he was transferred to a rescue detachment in Korea where he flew ninety-six missions in B-17's, B-5 helicopters, L-5 liaison planes and C-47 cargo planes.

In addition to his rescue and evacuation missions McGovern volunteered to fly a difficult and dangerous intelligence mission and for the successful completion of this he was decorated with the Distinguished Flying Cross.

On completion of his tour with the Third Air Rescue Squadron, McGovern was assigned to Headquarters Air Rescue Service in Washington and has served on an operations officer since April 26, 1951. He and his wife the former Jane Kennedy, of Orlando, Fla., and their two daughters Kathryn Mary, 15, and Nancy Jane, five months, have been living at Silver Springs, Md.

CD Routes Set In Town

Springfield will figure prominently in the setup of Union County highways which may be used for civil defense, it was revealed today.

More than twenty miles of Union County highways with five or ten miles of municipal streets, have been included in the State-wide system of "500" or civil defense roads, all now marked rectangular numeral plates of black figures on a white background.

The longest is No. 609. It crosses the county line from the Hillsdale-Irvington line in Chestnut avenue along Forence street and Liberty avenue, Hillsdale, Salem road in Union and also has a spur from East Broad street, Westfield, along Mountain avenue, Fiemer avenue and Main street into Millburn.

No. 527 crosses the county from Morris and Millburn avenues, here along Springfield avenue and along Springfield avenue, Glenside avenue and Valley road through Summit.

Regenerated Heat Waves Condense Township Again

With Springfield residents still staggering from the terrific temperatures of last month, a new heat wave this week struck the municipality and started a new run on confectionery stores with copious quantities of ice cream and soft drinks being sold for home consumption.

With the temperatures each day mounting to the high eighties, farmers in the area faced a real problem as the drought continued to virtually burn most of their crops. Despite the fact that weather forecasts predicted rain almost every day, aside from a few brief showers Saturday the long, dry spell continued. Farmers pointed out that more rain than usual is needed because of the extremely high temperatures which marked the past six weeks.

The problem was less acute for other persons but the picture was not an encouraging one. Scores of merchants found that people apparently thought it was too hot to purchase many items in stores. Even food sales dropped. Hundreds of township residents left the township for vacations at the shore or the mountains or recreational spots in Pennsylvania, Florida and Cape Cod.

Persons who had not planned to vacation until late August or early September in many instances changed their decisions and left this week to escape the intense heat and the terrific humidity.

Children looked forward to the semi-weekly swimming sessions at the Union County Park Commission pool in Rahway. The trips are sponsored by the Springfield Chapter, American Red Cross and the Recreation Commission.

Others who were unable to leave Springfield did their utmost to keep cool—something which apparently approximated the impossible. Many slept on outdoor porches and others swung hammocks between trees in their yards. Some claimed they didn't sleep at all.

Needless to say there was heavy use of electric fans and showers which brought smiles to the faces of utility and water company stockholders. Apparently it was the type of heat which was doing someone some good.

After weeks of sweltering temperatures, the weather bureau expects that this section of the country will enjoy several days of cool weather with the thermometer registering somewhere in the 70's.

Regional Breaks Ground For $1,300,000 Addition

Ground Breaking Ceremony

Bertram J. Bartolamy, president of the Regional High School Board of Education, is shown turning the first spade of earth in connection with construction of the $1,300,000 addition to the school. Others in the photo include Warren W. Haley, principal; Dr. J. M. Murray, assistant principal; Fred W. Elssasser, architect; Mayor Lister of Kenilworth; Mrs. Helen Smith, secretary of Regional Board; board members and contractors. (Swan photo)

HS Officials Participate In Ceremony

Another milestone in the history of Regional High School was marked off Tuesday night when ground was broken officially for the giant $1,300,000 addition which was authorized by voters in a special referendum last November.

Members of the Board of Education, school administration officials, members of the contracting firm and civic leaders were among those who attended the ceremony. The first shovelful of earth was turned over by Bertram J. Bartolamy, of Garwood, board president. He used a silver shovel which also was used when ground was broken for the present building more than sixteen years ago.

The shovel is the property of Fred A. Elssasser, of Union, who was architect for the high school building. He also has designed the addition.

The board president in turning over the earth pointed out that it marks a step which has been the culmination of many months of planning by Board of Education members. He expressed the belief that the new building will be adequate to house the expanding school population for several years. Others who assisted were Richard N. Southgate of Berkeley Heights, board vice-president; Warren W. Halsey, supervising principal; Elssasser; Mrs. Helen Smith, district clerk, and other board members.

The general construction will be by the Daniel J. Cronin Company Inc., of Newark. Other firms will do the sub contracting. The addition will have twenty-one rooms. There will be a new gymnasium, a special purpose room, a manual training and a home economics room; physics and chemistry laboratories. There also will be alterations to the school cafeteria. The tentative date for occupancy of the addition is September, 1953. However, materials shortages or labor troubles conceivably could delay the opening for several months, it was pointed out.

Postmastership Puzzling As DC Gets Exam Results

Turk's Chances Seen On Upgrade As New Civil Service Test Looms

NEW YORK—Edward Kenny, chief investigator for the U. S. Civil Service Commission today said that the Springfield postmaster situation currently is up in the air. Results of the examination have been passed on to the Postoffice Department in Washington and action must await the decision of the Postmaster General, he revealed.

The Postoffice Department in Washington today is studying results of the recent examination taken by the four aspirants for the position of Springfield postmaster. Timothy J. Sheehan, was the only one of the quartet who finished with a passing grade. The trio which failed to complete a mark of 70 percent or better included Acting Postmaster George M. Turk.

Whether or not a new examination would be ordered, hinged on the Postmaster General. If he decided he did not want to submit a list containing only one name to the President, the likelihood was that he would ask the U. S. Civil Service Commission to hold a new test. The examination consists primarily of a listing of the business and civic experience of a candidate, and the list as it is now constituted be presented there appeared to be little doubt but what Sheehan would be the new postmaster. However, observers here familiar with Springfield politics have no doubt that there is considerable action behind the scenes to have another list compiled. The theory behind this would be that Turk would benefit in a new examination since he has had fifteen months experience as acting postmaster.

Indications were that if Turk received a passing grade in a new examination he probably would receive the appointment. If the present list stands Sheehan apparently would be in.

But considerable power hinges on the result of the presidential election. If Eisenhower becomes the new chief executive January 20 both Turk and Sheehan may as well forget their aspirations and seek Republican ultimately will receive the appointment. One name which has been mentioned prominently in event of a GOP victory is that of former Mayor Wilbur M. Selander. However, Eisenhower may have a Democratic Senate and in such an instance there could be increased complications. There also was the possibility that Gov. Adlai Stevenson may win in November. In that case the new

Bill Jensen Will Display Pastels at Paper Mill

William C. Jensen of 126 Meisel avenue, will open an exhibit of 21 pictures at the Paper Mill Playhouse on Monday. His pastels, all of which are mounted and framed, will be on display during the run of "The Student Prince."

The subjects which Jensen covers in his art work are varied as the titles of those to be exhibited will show. The titles of those pastels are: Old Coat Miter, Moonlight Beach, Cypress Garden, Bit of New Jersey, Windjammer, Vermont Evening, Florida Sunset, Sunrise, Red Cardinals, Moonlight Brook, Old Mill, Forest Fire, Tree and Rock, Swiss Canal, Lone Wave, Portland Light, Wave and Gulls, Winter Shadows, Arizona, English Garden and Fishing. Forest Fire and Lone Wave, an unusual study in browns, are exhibition pieces. A copy of "A Bit of New Jersey," a New Jersey shore scene, was sent to one of the world's best known amateur painters, Prime Minister Winston Churchill while he was visiting at Blair House, Washington; last winter. Jensen received a letter from the prime minister's personal secretary extending the British statesman's appreciation. Jensen, who averages about 40 hours work on each picture, prefers water scenes. Among his collection are ocean, lake, river, and tiny brook scenes. If the subject looks like a suitable place to fish, Jensen selects the spot where he would like to be and paints himself in that spot. The pictures range in size from 38 1/2 inches x 33 inches to 21 inches x 15 inches.

Rotarians Hear Talk On Baseball

A talk on "Baseball" by Larry Keefe, Jr. of South Orange, sports columnist, featured last night's luncheon meeting of the Springfield Rotary Club at Baltusrol Golf Club. Mr. Keefe, who writes for the Maplewood-South Orange Record and Newark Sunday-News, was introduced by Judge Felix Forlenza of South Orange, substituting for his son, Felix, Jr., who is vacationing in Virginia, and arranged the program.

By keeping in contact with New Jersey boys playing in minor leagues, Mr. Keefe pointed out, he corresponds frequently and in this way gathers material for his newspaper work. He cited several cases of "bonus" players from this area who are in organized baseball. While baseball reporting is his side issue, Mr. Keefe is professor of English at Seton Hall University.

Carl Helmers, club president, announced that a joint meeting with Millburn and Kenilworth Rotary Clubs will be held on Tuesday, August 12, at the Chanticleer, Millburn. He also disclosed that the club finished fourth during July in attendance among the district

The lesson-sermon entitled "Spirit" to be heard in Christian Science churches this Sunday brings out how worshipping God spiritually, enables mankind to demonstrate a useful and practical Christianity.

The golden text is from I John: "We are of God: . . . Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit." (4:13)

Among the selections from the King-James Version of the Bible to be read will be the following: "God is a Spirit; and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth." (John 4:24) "For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God." (Rom. 8:14,16)

From the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, the following will be read: "Whatever materializes worship hinders man's spiritual growth and keeps him from demonstrating his power over error. . . We worship spiritually, only as we cease to worship materially. Spiritual devoutness is the soul of Christianity." (pp. 4, 140)

Playground Activities

Raymond Chisholm
Mary Beth McKee

Fair weather has brought increased enrollment to our playground. Our membership has reached a total of 115.

Dodge Ball and Twentynine were popular games last week. However, tether ball games, which have just begun, are sure to surpass all other games in popularity.

Our annual checker tournament was held at the playground during last week and on Friday featured Charles Johnson, "King," and Pat Carney, "Queen." Both are excellent players and would prove a threat to any competition.

Arts and crafts work was a favorite with many boys. Work cards were made by Ed Klein, Dick and Charles Johnson, John Bradley, Marilyn Schroeder, Sindy Smith, Lorie Roetger, and Charlotte Bolner. Paul Battelle, Della Sperling, Judith Shohota, Maria Innamorato, Richard Johnson, Delcie Zdravko, Arlen Strayer, John Bradley, and Mary Lee Moran made colorful and attractive pot holders. Rosalie Sherman and Arlene Strayer made bracelet key chains.

On Friday, August 1, our annual Costume Show was held at the playground. Costumes ranged from humorous to colorful and it was great fun to see. Prizes were awarded to Maria Innamorato, who was dressed as Cinderella, and Danna McDermott and George Haupt, who were dressed as old women.

Six weeks of playground activity have now passed, our contests again being of interest. Contest winners included Allen Timpan and Norman Muller (Pick-up-sticks) and Bob Shaw (tether ball).

Arts and crafts took place on Monday and Wednesday afternoons. Making lanyards were Bob Shaw, Phyllis Kaplan, Roger and Barry Smith, Philip Little, Bob Schwartz, and Tom Conlon. Richard Utz, Wade Maxwell, Jim Donovan, Marilyn and Norman Muller, Lydia Hernandez, Lorella Pirker, Sharon Hunt, and Phyllis Kaplan made rings. Pot holders were made by Jack Schwartz and Allen Timpan. Bob and Jack Schwartz made bracelets of metal and gimp.

Our regular yearly Costume Show took place on Friday afternoon, August 1. We had nineteen entrants, including Kathy Eick, Marilyn Muller, Karen and Arlene Kauer, Madeline Calawas, Jack Louise and Marilyn Triolo, Jack Ann and Jim Conlon, Sharon, Elaine and Pam Hunt, Paul Laddo, Phyllis and Toby Kaplan, Alison and Nettey Kalem, and Alan Arrell.

Prizes were awarded for the following categories: prettiest, cutest, most original, and funniest. Prettiest was won by Madeline Calawas, who was dressed as "Madame Butterfly." Cutest was awarded to Toby Kaplan as "Miss Trading Card." Toby had various cards pinned to her dress and she wore a crown of cards on her head. Most original were three people: Arlene and Karen Kauer and Marilyn Muller as characters from Uncle Tom's Cabin—Arlene as Topsy, Karen as Uncle Tom, and Marilyn as Little Eva. Funniest was Phyllis Kaplan, an organ grinder. She carried a small hand organ and wore a large straw hat, dungarees, checked shirt, and had a cat, Sandy, at the end of a leash as a monkey.

On Friday, August 8, our annual Scavenger Hunt will be held at 2:30 p.m. All children registered at this playground may participate.

The highlight of last week's activities was a Scavenger Hunt held on Friday afternoon.

The children, working in pairs, were given a list of objects to find. Some of the objects included a tea bag, an oak leaf, a human hair at least three inches long, and an ice cube. The couple that gathered all of the objects first won the prize. Those participating were: Barry

Shapiro and Charles Stevens, Mary Ann Pettinichio and Candy Logan, Bruce Goldstein and Irene Pancani, Jay Gladstone and Richard Pancani, David Allardyce and Paul Meade, Tommy and Michael Geoghegan.

The winners were Jay Gladstone and Richard Pancani. David Allardyce and Paul Meade came in second.

Many multi-colored rings were made. Lanyard making is also very popular. Tom Geoghegan, Martha Klisch, Barry Shapiro, David Allardyce, Paul Meade, Charles Stevens, Richard Pancani, Mickey Pettinichio, Robert Lynn, and Bruce Goldstein made 100 yards this week.

Pot holders were made by Martha Klisch, Ann Marie Wood, Bruce Goldstein, and Tommy Geoghegan.

Last week's show at the playground was the costume show, held in our gym on Friday afternoon. The voting for the winners was long and close, but the following victors were finally announced: Cutest—Chryslie Jo Landrigan as "Pussy Cat," Prettiest—Shirley Temple as "Gypsy," Funniest—Richard Coan as "Frankenstein," Most Original—Ed Coan as "Bald Tramp," Honorable Mention—Barbara Thompson, Margo and Sandy Penard, Helen Mittnacht, and Marty Menkin.

On Monday, July 28, the foul shooting and softball throwing contests were run. The winners were:

Boys foul shooting—1. Richard Coan, 2. Eugene Haggerty, 3. Ward Landrigan. Girls foul shooting—1. Kathy Slipek, 2. Barbara Redding, 3. Betsy Barr. Older boys foul shooting—1. George Coan, 2. John Barr.

Boys softball throw—1. Richard Coan, 2. Billy Haggerty, 3. Ward Landrigan. Girls softball throw—1. Betsy Barr, 2. Kathy Detrick, 3. Ellen D'Andrea. Older boys softball throw—1. George Coan, 2. Gary Smith, 3. Ed Coan.

The show this week will be the Scavenger Hunt. All children may enter in pairs. The hunt list will be uniform for all playgrounds. All children are urged to come and enjoy the fun.

Plans are being made this week for an inter-park tether ball contest. Boys and girls for each age from 7 to 14 are to be chosen from each park to play against each other. The contest will be held at James Caldwell next Monday afternoon, August 11.

The playground A.A.U. tournament was finished the week of July 28. The softball throw for distance in the intermediate class was won by Fred Benhoff with Ron Maguire and Ken Schroeder runners-up. In the junior class, it was Fred Puntigam with Rich Cagliano and Joe Zellers right behind. The midget class was captured by Allen Wyckoff with Clark Plingle a close second. In the horseshoe throw for accuracy, Ron Maguire proved best with Hal Waters second. In chinning, George Zeoll won the midget class; Joe Zellers, the junior class; and Hal Waters, the intermediate class. In the softball throw for accuracy, Ken Schroeder, Les Lawn, and Joe Gallini tied for first place in the intermediate class. The midget and junior classes were won by Bob Zeoll and Randy Sandbach, respectively. The basketball throw for distance, in which only girls competed, was won by Arlene Wyckoff, Judy Sandbach, and Patsy Wood in that order.

The week of August 4 started off with a watermelon race. In the junior class George Zeoll slurred his way to victory in what seemed like record breaking time. Eric

Social Security Increases Due In October

Nearly every family in Union and Somerset Counties now getting old-age and survivors insurance payments will receive more money beginning with the September payments due about October 3. If the increase does not show on a check when it arrives early in October, and an increase is deferred, it is not necessary for people already receiving benefits to apply for the increased payments.

Leonard P. Sawvel, manager of the Elizabeth social security office, stated yesterday that the recent amendments to the law will mean monthly payment increases ranging from $5 to $8.80 for practically all of the 9,101 retired insured workers in the two counties.

The average increase for retired workers will be about $8. In general, benefit payments to widows, widowers, children or parents will be increased proportionately. Mr. Sawvel pointed out, however, that the increases for dependents and survivors would be less than those for retired workers. In most cases, these increases will be about $2 to $5. In a few families the increase will go only to the retired insured worker.

"The reason for this," Mr. Sawvel explained, "is that the law has always provided limits to the total of benefits which may be paid to any one family in a month. In some cases, the increased benefit of the retired worker alone will absorb all of the permissible increase. Under those circumstances the full increase will be given in the check to the retired worker and the benefits to the remaining members of his family will remain unchanged."

The 1952 amendments to the law also provide for larger payments to future beneficiaries, Mr. Sawvel declared. Until now, the law has provided for payments to most such newly retired persons, equal to 50 per cent of the first $100 of his average monthly wage after 1950, plus 15 per cent of the next $200. The new law just passed provides for a benefit of 65 per cent of the first $100 of average monthly earnings, plus 15 per cent of the next $200. The effect is an increase of up to $5 a month. Proportionate increases for dependents and survivors' benefits will be based on that of the worker. This revised formula will apply generally to most persons who will become eligible for benefit payments in the future, Mr. Sawvel said.

The Elizabeth office at 1143 East Jersey Street is open Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Representatives of this office are in Room 4 of the Plainfield Post Office every Tuesday from 10:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. and in Room 3 of the Somerville Post Office every Thursday between the same hours.

GROWING PAINS

WHO COULD FORESEE New Jersey's growth? Yes, the highway system is having growing pains—but new roads built and under construction (such as the Turnpike and the Garden State Parkway) are catching up with the terrific increase in traffic. However, it takes time. And like automobiles...

HOMES HAVE MULTIPLIED, TOO. 175,000 new homes and apartment units have been built in New Jersey just since 1945. And nearly all these homes wanted telephone service. Voice highways, too, require time to plan and build.

MEETING THIS DEMAND for telephone service is taking $1,300,000 in new construction a week. For seven years we've added more than 2,200 telephones a week. Plans have had to be changed, time and again, as growth exceeded expectations.

IT TAKES TIME, but you can be sure of this: your Telephone Company is building as fast as critical materials are available to give a growing New Jersey more and better telephone service.

Crown Is Prize as PBA Meets Chrysler Tonite

Sheet Metal Splits Pair

The PBA, unbeaten rulers of the Springfield Softball League have an opportunity to wrap up the circuit crown at the expense of Chrysler-Plymouth, and four other teams, in a fray at the Meisel avenue diamond tonight. Last night's game between Bond Electronics and Whitey's was rained out.

If the PBA can finish out the schedule undefeated, it will be the first team in the three-year history of the local loop to boast an unblemished state throughout the season.

After nine innings of battling, darkness set in last Thursday night to leave the PBA and Whitey's in a 2-2 tie. If it had triumphed, PBA would have won the championship because a day earlier, Chrysler upset Springfield Sheet Metal, 4-3. It was SSM's fifth reverse, Tuesday evening, Sheet Metal dropped Marcel's, 10-6.

Sports In The Sun

By DONALD ROSSELET

The fellow who has "lived, breathed, and eaten baseball" since he was five years of age finally has been presented with a golden opportunity to make good in organized baseball. Charlie Schaffernoth, who received all-county and all-state ratings in both his junior and senior years at Regional High School, has signed a Chicago White Sox contract for the 1953 spring training campaign.

Hailed as the best baseball player ever developed at Regional by head Coach Bill Brown, Charlie batted over .300 for three straight seasons and was the Bulldog's varsity catcher for four years. Charlie won the Union County Conference batting crown in 1951 with a sporty .500 average, but lost out to Lindner's Joe Miller last year. Miller hit at a .524 clip, while Schaffernoth batted .237.

This writer watched the husky backstop in action during the last two campaigns. In 1951, Charlie's importance—to the Regional club was not as emphasized as it was this past season, due mainly to the fact that Regional in '51 was a championship unit as compared to last year's outfit. That situation brings to mind several similar cases in the major leagues today. With due respects to Bobby Shantz, Ned Carver, and Murry Dickson, we do not believe that their feats on the mound would be as widely publicized if they were playing for a first division club.

Charlie Schaffernoth's value to Regional's baseball team was inestimable. He was the hustle, the drive, and the spirit behind a club which surprised almost everyone with that six-game victory string at the close of the campaign.

The box scores proved that when Charlie was hitting, the Bulldog's consequently were a good ball team; and vice versa. That in itself is a tribute to Schaffernoth.

A six-footer, weighing about 185 pounds, Charlie possesses great natural ability. He has tremendous possibilities and with careful guidance and coaching, some day could attain his lifelong ambition—to play in the major leagues. The up-and-coming White Sox, under the Commission's general manager Frank Lane, manager Paul Richards, and a host of minor league mentors, certainly can help Charlie. Now, it's up to him!

UC Course Opens Revised Layout

A revised layout on the single nine at 27-hole Galloping Hill Golf Course, operated by the Union County Park Commission, was placed into play last week-end.

The changes in the course, according to Jarvis E. Badgley, Superintendent of Construction and Maintenance, were necessitated by the State Highway Commission's purchase of a portion of the golf course for the Garden State Parkway.

The work, which was done with the regular park force, included constructing three new fairways, renovating one old green and development of two new greens as well as new tees. The greens were seeded last fall, to ready them for play this summer. Yardage of the single nine is now 3282, as compared with 3329 under the previous layout, with par remaining at 36.

Basement Showers Convenient, Practical

A great convenience to the family which contains several active young people is a basement shower. This is particularly valuable in the summer when it can be used by persons returning from the beach, from outdoor games, or from working in the garden.

Inexpensive steel shower cabinets now available in a number of different sizes and styles are practical.
