Scarlet Is 2 TD Choice As Officials Prepare For Crowd of 10,000

(Special to The Sun)
RAHWAY—More than 10,000 frenzied fans from seven Union County municipalities will gather at Riverside Park this morning to watch an unbeaten and stalwart Spantown gridiron machine make its bid for a second consecutive sectional championship with its traditional Turkey Day enemy, Regional High School, as the opponent.

Sentiment is heavily in favor of the Scarlet, many persons offering odds as high as three to one that Rahway will turn back the Bulldogs from Springfield. That fraternity apparently has established Rahway as a two-touchdown favorite.

However, opinion in this traditional battle was not overwhelmingly for Rahway. Hundreds of fans, skeptical of the Rahway record, insisted that the defensive skill of the Bulldogs would stop the Scarlet scourge. They pointed out that only one team, Somerville, has managed to score more than one touchdown against Regional, and that was early in the season before Regional had hit its stride. Somerville, incidentally also is unbeaten.

Upset In Today's Regional-Rahway Tilt Would Not Surprise Prognosticators

If an underdog Regional eleven should upset heavily favored Rahway at Riverside Park, Rahway, tomorrow it would not be out of keeping with the twists and turns which have featured this traditional Turkey Day gridiron series.

The first game started a series which on occasions has seen potential champions rudely treated and dumped from their pedestals as they stood on the threshold of pigskin immortality. Probably no scholastic event draws the contingent of faithful followers that marks the annual battle of the Scarlet and the Orange and Blue.

The first game, played in 1937, which was Regional's first year as a high school, saw a heavily favored Rahway eleven shut out Regional 25-0. John Kobesky, a big Rahway tackle, and Charley Shupper, a shifty end, each scored two touchdowns, as they cashed in on Regional mistakes.

The following year saw Regional making a closer fight with Rahway triumphing 12-7. Kobesky again was the Scarlet star, blocking a kick to score the winning touchdown in the final period.

In 1939 the game was played in Linden with the Scarlet rallying in the final period to win. The final score was 19-14 with Nick Colonna scoring the three Rahway touchdowns, two on passes.

Rahway completed its first undefeated and unified season the following year by turning back Regional 13-0. In 1941 the Scarlet again achieved an undefeated season and set a new mark for the series as it crushed Regional, 44-0. Regional failed to score a victory that year.

In 1942 Rahway continued its victory string as it coasted to a 33-0 victory over Regional. It also stretched the Regional winless streak to seventeen. George Keller scored three touchdowns for the one-sided contest.

This 1943 game found Rahway again a victor by the score of 27-7. Dave Taylor ran 55 yards for a touchdown and Pete Huger tallied twice on punts blocked by Andy Ingram.

Regional scored its first victory in 1944 when it won 6-0. Mal Aldridge tallied a first period touchdown. The following year, Rahway was the winner 9-4. The winning score came in the last forty seconds with Walt Gage kicking a 33-yard field goal.

An undefeated Regional team in 1945 was upset by Rahway, 12-7. Dick Keller and Don Applegate were the stars.

The following year an unbeaten Rahway club, heading for the sectional championship was routed by Regional, 35-0. In what probably was the outstanding upset of the series as the game returned to Springfield for the first time since 1937. Ken Belliveau and Ray Volden were the stars. Frank Chornetewy ran 90 yards for the first touchdown.

In 1948 a once-beaten Rahway team upset unbeaten Regional 13-7 before 12,000 at Riverside Park. For the Scarlet and Chornetewy Norm Davis and Les Kirby scored ran 85 yards for a touchdown for Regional.

The peak was reached in 1949 when two undefeated teams met. Regional annexed sectional honors as it overwhelmed Rahway 27-7. Ken Belliveau and Frank Vicoesce were the stars.

In 1950 Regional's second consecutive unbeaten club was held to a 7-7 tie by unbeaten Rahway. Last year the Scarlet triumphed, 23-7.

RAHWAY HOLDS BIG MARGIN IN SERIES

Already holding a large edge in the Regional-Rahway grid series, Rahway is favored to post victory number 12 in the sixteenth renewal of the feud today. Previous scores follow:

1937—Rahway 25, Regional 0
1938—Rahway 12, Regional 7
1939—Rahway 19, Regional 14

1941—Rahway 44, Regional 0
1942—Rahway 33, Regional 0

Regional Meets Two Top Scorers

The football game today in Rahway pits Regional against not only the top-rated Group III team in this section, but also with two of the top three in the Union County scoring parade.

Operating in the Scarlet backfield will be Joe Cygler, runner-up to Plainfield's Ole Ryan, with Matt Campbell, and third-place man, Russ Davis. Cygler trails Campbell by 50 points and does not figure to wrest the lead from the Queen City ace. Davis is a mere six markers in back of Cygler.

Campbell has an excellent opportunity to erase the county scoring standard of 125 points, held now by Nate Smith, formerly with Rahway. Campbell has averaged 14.8 points a ball game and if he can equal that mark, a new record will have been set.

Regional's highest scorer is Jack Keith with 18. Several other Bulldogs have one TD apiece.

The scoring leaders:

Unable to raise bail, the youth was taken to the county jail. Saliko was arrested by Mountaintop Police at 3 a.m. Monday, within 18 minutes after he allegedly took a car from the driveway at the home of Louis Rodriguez, 906 Mountain avenue, and went for a wild ride in Route 29, according to police.

Magistrate McMullen processed seventeen traffic violation cases, with penalties totaling $125. Largest fine, $55, was against Peter Diegel, 20 Marshall street, Irvington, found guilty of allowing an unlicensed driver to operate his car.

They said his car was in collision with a vehicle operated by Miss Lois Weber, 25 of 445 Morris avenue. They said her vehicle was struck from the rear sending it onto the lawn of the Smith and Smith Funeral Home.

A neighbor of Miss Weber's, Clifford De Borja, of 372 Morris avenue, set out in pursuit of Williams. He found him in Bryant avenue where Williams' car had stalled. He told police and the Newark man was apprehended.

Those adventurous souls who scale the heights, search the jungles and reach what is left of the world's frontiers, lose no time in putting down their experiences in black and white. The resulting books cover a wide field of interest and rate with the best-sellers in popularity.

Modern writers of non-fiction have assumed a definitely lighter touch, that insures their readers against boredom no matter what the subject. New biographies that prove this contention are "Jan Christian Smuts" written by his son J. C. Smuts, "The Youthful Queen Victoria" by Dormer Creston and "Dear Dorothy Dix" by Harnett T. Kane. New autobiographies include "My Island Home" by James Norman Hall which is the story of his life on a South Sea island, "Crazy-White-Man" by Richard Morenus—a tale of years spent in the Canadian wilderness and "The Woman with the Whip" by Maria Flores, the life of Eva Peron. Others include a fascinating description of big game hunting in Africa, "Hunter" by J. A. Hunter, life among the English people in India, "Invitation to Tea" by Monica Lang, an intense story of human drama, "Brain Surgeon" by Dr. William Sharpe and "The Giltter and the Gold" by Consuelo Vanderbilt Balsan. Other new books in demand are "East of Eden" by John Steinbeck, "A Stranger Came to the Farm" by Mika Waltari, "Queen's Gift" by Evelyn Waugh, "The Pilgrim Soul" by Anne Miller, Downes and "A Path for Our Times" by Harry Emerson Fosdick.

Woman's Club News

The November meeting of the International Relations Department was held on Thursday evening, November 6, at the home of Mrs. Charles Heard, 7 Alvin terrace. Mrs. Gilbert Mann was hostess. Members enthusiastically discussed their successful charity sale which they had held at the regular meeting of the club, on November 6.

Due to the loyal and generous support of all club members, the department realized a profit from the sale which enabled them to send two Care packages; one to new Layette package for Israel, and the other, the Baby Food package for West Germany. Another charity, the Lozere (French) Foundation for the prevention and cure of tuberculosis, especially among orphaned children, received its annual donation. Since the Pan-American Scholarship Fund had already received a donation for 1952, department members decided to set aside a sum of money for a contribution in 1953. The balance will be used for other worthwhile charities as the occasions arise.

The program of the evening concerned Art Appreciation. Russell Post, our town's famous art teacher, gave a very interesting talk on European art and artists and showed us the relationship of the development of art to economic progress. Members were a little surprised to learn that most of the famous artists did not live in cold, dark garrets, but were wealthy men, gentlemen of leisure, and that the art centers of Europe were established only after great fortunes were made. Post illustrated his talk with pictures by the great masters and pointed out that objects in the pictures usually depicted the wealth and possessions of the person whose portrait was painted. The other form of art during the Renaissance was religious art, the greatest example of which, perhaps, is Leonardo's "The Last Supper". Post, with tongue in cheek, casually mentioned that women seldom became great artists for one reason or another. All were downcast until he restored our good spirits by telling us that there were one or two women who had made the grade, chief of whom was Mary Cassatt, and that her work was good enough to be classed with the very best masters. We all glowed with reflected pride in her achievement.

The December meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Hamilton. The program will present the story of Christmas from an international viewpoint.

Mrs. Eric W. Pedersen of 233 South Springfield avenue was hostess to members of the American Home Department recently. Mrs. Pedersen served Swedish cakes and cookies.

The theme of the evening was Christmas gifts and there were many busy fingers working and needles applying. It was decided to contribute five dollars to the Home Economics Scholarship of the New Jersey College for Women, to be used by a freshman girl majoring in home economics.

The General Federation of Women's Clubs has asked that from November 23 to November 30 be known as "American Home Week."

The Literature Department held its meeting at the home of Mrs. Melvin Gillette. Mrs. Lemuel Stevens, co-chairman, gave a review of the book "Windows for the Crown Prince" by Elizabeth Gray Vining. The author tells of her experiences as teacher to the Crown Prince of Japan. It was a very timely report as Crown Prince Akihito was proclaimed heir to Japan's throne on November 10 in a ceremony which dates back to the eighth century.

The group was delighted to have as its guest, Mrs. Robert Hayes who told us many interesting things about the Orient. Mrs. Hayes has lived in both China and Japan and her knowledge of these countries is accurate and first-hand.

Mrs. Edwin Davenport outlined the rules for the Creative Writing Contest sponsored by the Literature Division of Fine Arts of the General Federation. The contest is open to all members of the Federated Clubs of New Jersey. The contest rules for 1953 are as follows: 1. All entries are due February 1, 1953. 2. Entries must be typewritten on standard size type-written paper (8 1/2 x 11). 3. Each entry must be signed by a pseudonym and accompanied by a sealed envelope containing the real name of the writer. 4. Send manuscripts to Mrs. Frank Lewis, 600 Lawrence avenue, Westfield, N. J., with entrance fee of 25 cents in coin, for each type of entry. 5. Regular contests include: (a) Poems—not more than six by a contestant. (b) Short Story—limit 3,000 words. (c) Essay—limit 3,000 words on the following subjects: (1) Biography of a Great American (2) Great American Tradition (3) What My Country Means to Me (4) A subject of your own choosing on the following: (1) The New Bible—Books of Psalms and Proverbs or Books of Four Gospels. (2) a classic (3) a current book. (c) Only one entry will be accepted from a contestant in (b, c and d). 6. Entries awarded first prizes will be published in the literary number of the New Jersey Club Woman. 7. Please make a duplicate copy for yourself.

The next meeting of the Literature Department will be held on December 8 at the home of Mrs. Evelyn Porter. Mrs. Melvin Gillette will be the reviewer.

Mrs. J. Frank Jakobsen and Mrs. Lois James were guests at the annual President's Day at the Elizabeth Women's Club on Thursday afternoon, November 20.

Mrs. Robert Talbot of 131 Claremont place was hostess to the Youth Conservation Department on Tuesday evening, November 18. Guest speaker was Mrs. Sylvie Woodward, director of volunteer services at Overlook Hospital.

The Executive Board met on Wednesday evening, November 17, at the home of Mrs. Herbert Bailey, 98 Henshaw avenue. Co-hostesses were Miss Alice Rieg and Mrs. Kenneth Bandomer.

The Music Department met on November 13 at the home of Mrs. Robert Anderson, 5 Prospect place. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Frederick Handville and Mrs. Samuel Griffith. Special guest of the evening was Mrs. John Kennedy who will leave for California on December 15. The department presented Mrs. Kennedy with a gift.

The Drama Department will meet on December 8 at 8:15 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Robert Hayes, 175 Short Hills avenue. Mrs. Kenneth Bandomer will be co-hostess. The theme of the evening will be readings for the evening of "Candy Wine" a three-act play, to be presented by the group on Hug-band's Night in April. The readings will be open to all members of the club.

The Club will observe President's Night on December 3 at 8:15 p.m. at the James Caldwell School with a music program. The theme of the evening will be "white gifts" and every member is requested to bring a small gift wrapped in white paper and tagged to indicate the age and sex of the child for whom it is suitable. The Senior Girl Scout troop, which is sponsored by the Club, will participate in the program.

In August 1951 the Youth Conservation Department of the Springfield Woman's Club contacted W. Richmond Tracy of the Union County Park Commission in connection with a path and footbridge along Meisel avenue from the intersection of Riverside drive and Linden avenue to the location of the Florence Gaudineer school. In October, 1951, the department received a letter from Mr. Tracy stating that the plan for the path was under consideration by the Union County Park Commission. Work was started on the path and footbridge in the Spring of 1952 and completed in October of 1952.

This worth-while project is not only scenic but also practical. It makes the athletic field available to all and will be invaluable as a safe and convenient route for students going to and from the Florence Gaudineer School.

SET DEPARTMENT MEETINGS The Art Department will meet on December 1 at the home of Mrs. Gertrude Sala, 468 Morris avenue. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Joseph Zidonik and Mrs. Alfred Kirby.

To overcome a temptation you must first overcome the habit of thinking about it.

Lutheran Guild Plans Xmas Party

The Ladies' Guild of the Springfield Lutheran Church will hold a Christmas party on Wednesday, December 3, at the home of Miss Von Kampen, 50-C Wabeno avenue. The group will participate in carol singing with Bette Haselmann at the piano.

The guild which had its initial meeting in May is still in the process of organization. A committee has been formed to draw up a constitution for the group. The officers who have been elected are Mrs. Alexander Simon, president; Miss Alma Vogt, vice-president; Mrs. Theodore Naumann, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Oswald Thello, recording secretary; and Mrs. John Haselmann, treasurer.

Census Bureau Lists 5,449 Rise in Town Population

The township has had a population increase of 5,449 since 1920, it was revealed today by McVittie J. Welas, district supervisor of the New York District Office of the U. S. Census Bureau.

Bureau officials said population figures indicate the township has seen an increase of 321 per cent. The total population in 1950 was 7,214. During the same period the growth of Union County has been only 90 per cent.

In 1920 Springfield had only 1,716.

Each decade the township's growth has been steady and consistent, figures indicate. From 1,715 in 1920, the population increased to 3,725 in 1930; 4,148 in 1940 and 7,214 in 1950.

The growth of the township has been steady but in the past decade it has bordered on the sensational. The increase has approximated 80 per cent since 1940.

Developments in numerous sections of the municipality have marked its sensational growth. There also has been an increase in industrial activity with accom-

Regional, Rahway Vie at Scarlet Field Today

Home Side Is Favored to Cop 12th Series Win

 beaten and Regional, once beaten and twice tied, could score an upset.

However, Regional won't be able to do it with mirrors and it will take an aggressive, hard charging team with a good set of ball carriers and an alert defensive club to turn back Rahway. The Spunk-towners do not give the appearance of a team which will beat itself.

In Brown's winged T-formation full Heriman plays an important part. The speedy halfback probably will be the most versatile back on the field today. He can pass, run and kick and if he breaks away he could conceivably run away from any Rahway defensive back. Another danger spot for Rahway is Richie Betz, an excellent broken field runner, who could score if he is shaken loose. Don Reid, a blocking back, and Jack Keith, who passes out of the "T" complete the Regional backfield.

Although Regional will be outweighed in the forward wall, probably ten pounds to the man, there are several men up front who conceivably spend a good part of the game in the Rahway backfield. They include John Nadasky, a bruising tackle; George MacKenzie, a pass-catching end who is a fast man going down under punts; Harold Boliek, hard-hitting guard and Ed Ruby, a versatile tackle.

Joe Cygler is Rahway's backfield ace. This senior back is second among Union County ball carriers trailing only big Milt Campbell of Plainfield. Stopping him may be the key to victory for Regional and if the Orange and Blue falls

Rahway likely will have its perfect season.

Other Scarlet backs who figure to give Regional plenty of trouble are Russ Davis and Doug Lewis. Formidable in the Scarlet line are Ron Wood, a guard; Ron Cherubini, a tackle and Jack Foulks, a center.

A record-breaking crowd is expected here. Regional adherents will pour in from Springfield, Clark, Mountainside, Kenilworth, Berkeley Heights and Garwood. The ancient field probably will be packed to capacity and the Standing Room Only sign is expected to be up long before game time.

Boston Symphony Concert Dec. 2

A program of unusual merit has been arranged by Pierre Montoux and the Boston Symphony Orchestra for the opening concert of the Griffith Music Foundation's Symphony Series at the Mosque Theatre, Newark, on Tuesday evening, December 2. It will contain Cesar Franck's great D Minor Symphony and Scriabin's symphonic "Poem of Ecstasy," as well as Beethoven's "Lenore" Overture No. 2, and Wagner's famed "Siegfried Idyl."

Greatest interest is expected to center in the performance, under Montoux, of the two masterpieces of Franck and Scriabin. Both composers were regarded as two "modern mystics" of their own time in the realm of music but otherwise they were musically dissimilar in style and outlook.

As one of the greatest conductors of the French school, Montoux may be expected to give a luminous reading of the symphony of his great compatriot, Franck. It was, in fact, the only symphony Franck composed.

ODDS AND ENDS OF SPORT

Today marks the sixteenth time that Regional has met Rahway in varsity football. . . It also marks the seventh straight season in which the climactic game of the year pairs the two rivals. . . Officials expect a large crowd and late arrivals are likely to have a most difficult problem finding a seat (period). . . The oldest Thanksgiving Day rivalry in Union County is the Roselle Park-Roselle affair. . . The borough feuders meet for the forty-sixth renewal of their thrill-packed series.

Regional Coach John Brown, who weekly introduces the up-coming grid game to the student body at its pep rallies, has a way of summing up a ball game. . . He says that Regional could not have licked a three-cent postage stamp if the Bulldogs had put on a lackadaisical performance the week prior, but if the locals give a good showing the Bulldog mentor raises the price of the stamp to six, eight, and sometimes 10 cents. . . One week, he went as far as to say that he had wished he was playing Rahway on the day his charges engaged Westfield. . . Must have been confident. . . Today, he gets his chance to meet Rahway. . . Guess he hopes it's a 10 cent day!!

Amidst all the pre-Rahway frenzy, may we remind you of the Regional Booster Club dance in the high school gym on Thanksgiving night at 8 p.m. . . Proceeds go to Booster Club's fine work on behalf of Regional's athletic teams. . . Above all, have a grand time at the traditional battle today and we hope you can enjoy that turkey with the knowledge of a Bulldog upset victory. . . We know of one person who would enjoy not only his turkey, but his birthday Sunday as well should the Bulldogs fool the experts—that would be Coach Lou DeRosa. . . There's a rumor being circulated that two Regionalites have made the All-County team. . . The rumor's well-founded and concerns George MacKenzie and John Nadasky.

QUESTION OF MILLIONS

How many teachers are needed to handle a given number of pupils?

The answer to this question appears to be one of the keys to the puzzle of school finance.

Dr. Clarence E. Ackley, nationally known educational consultant, discussed the question of teacher-pupil ratios before the Annual Meeting of the New Jersey Taxpayers Association. He pointed out trends existing in some states in which the ratio of pupils to teachers is declining while school costs are increasing.

Among 15 states with enrollments of more than 600,000 pupils, New Jersey stands 14th in teacher load as reflected in terms of pupils per professional employee in the schools, Dr. Ackley said. He cited figures reported by the U. S. Office of Education. These showed that in 1950 New Jersey had an average of 23.7 pupils per professional employee in its schools. Among the 15 states in which the teacher load was greater were the industrial states of New York, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan and California. The latter had a ratio of 29.4 pupils per teacher.

Dr. Ackley characterized as "research by palaver" various claims as to what constitutes a "reasonable" teacher load.

He declared that "insistence that class sizes must not exceed 25 or 30 or some other such diction is, as yet, purely a matter of opinion. There simply has not yet been a scientific determination of maximum size of class beyond which good teaching results cease or seriously decline."

On the other hand, he showed that, statistically, a variation of even one pupil more or one pupil less in the ratio of pupils to professional employees could mean either substantial savings or greatly increased costs which, within a single state, might run into millions of dollars annually.
