Sorge Gets Chief's Post By Thompson's Retirement; Plans No Quick Changes

Veterans' Groups Reported Active Behind Scenes

Albert A. Sorge today was functioning as chief of police with indications of improved morale in the department following the series of developments of the past month which resulted in the retirement of Chief William S. Thompson and elevation of Sorge to the top post. Thompson's retirement became official Saturday.

Chief Sorge, discussing the situation today with a Sun reporter said he contemplates no changes. He pointed out that as lieutenant, a post he has held two years, he was second in command and was in charge of the department when Chief Thompson was on vacation.

"I'm quite familiar with departmental details," the new chief observed. "I realize that as time goes on there may be additional problems confronting me but all police department heads on occasions face them. I think, generally speaking, I have inherited a good department."

Making Close Survey
It is no secret, however, that Chief Sorge has been making a close survey of the needs of the department. It is quite likely he has called in certain members and told them exactly what he expects of them. Of course, today, the Springfield Police Department is on a five-day, forty-hour week. Most police officials concede it is now more difficult to obtain the service which featured departmental operations of another era when patrolmen were on call virtually twenty-four hours a day. In other words the new chief faces problems which never confronted Chief M. Chase Runyon, who is generally credited with building up the department to its present level.

Discussion also is being done relative to the recent action of the governing board in withdrawing Sorge and promoting Wilbur C. Selander to lieutenant and Leslie Joyner to sergeant. Officers who claim to be "in the know" say there are several reasons for the change in attitude on the part of the Township Committee.

There appears to be little question that many members of Continental Post 228, American Legion, were not altogether pleased at the prospect of a non-veteran being promoted over two veterans who had seniority. Both the new chief and new lieutenant are veterans, the chief of World War I and Selander of World War II. Chief Sorge knows he has the full backing of Police Commissioner Albert G. Binder and other members of the Township Committee who stood firm for his elevation, pointing out that recognition of seniority meant much to departmental morale.

The new chief is a relatively young man, being only 63. So he encounters any problems he will have plenty of time to work out solutions since he will have a tenure of at least twelve years.

DEFENSE CHAIRMAN SPEAKS AT DINNER
Mrs. Lawrence Gullett of Upper Montclair, State Chairman of National Defense, was guest speaker at the "Defense" February 24 meeting of the Church and Community Center, Daughters of the American Revolution. She urged the members to take a greater interest in the government and to write their Congressmen in regard to legislation in which they were interested.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. A. B. Anderson, 99 Maple Avenue, and Mrs. Milton P. Brown, Mrs. John Kulp and Mrs. John Gajack acting as hostesses.

Seven bills contain proposals to carry out recommendations of the Legislature-created State School Aid Commission for an additional $60 million in State School Aid. Two of the proposals are bills to repeal present school aid arrangements, which are revised in the newer measure.

Binder Advocates Charter Study

Springfield may soon follow the lead of other municipalities and start exploring a change in the form of government if the present plans of an interested group materialize. Police Commissioner Albert G. Binder, who today announced that he was a candidate for re-election, is the prime mover for such a study and a formal motion will be made in the very near future to have a Charter Commission elected to study the Springfield form of government and consider changes or improvements in the present Township charter.

Eight Towns Will Discuss Highway 24

High Costs Seen Bar to Building Alternate Road

Eight municipalities are scheduled to meet shortly to seek a method to eliminate the increasing traffic congestion in Route 24, which is Morris Avenue here.

Acting on the suggestion of Mayor Clarence A. Hill, of Millburn, Mayor Robert W. Marshall today revealed he plans to seek a session which would be attended by representatives of Union Township, Springfield, Millburn, Summit, Chatham, Madison, Morris Township and Morristown. Several years ago there were several discussion sessions at which Union Township Henry Kreh, Jr., submitted a plan for a parallel highway to draw much of the traffic off Morris Avenue. The earlier sessions resulted in a general outline but no agreement on an actual plan for an alternate route. State Highway personnel also participated in the meetings.

Binder Candidate For Primary Renomination; Another Slate Is Hinted

Police Head Makes Bid; Will Run on Record

Police Commissioner Albert C. Binder today announced he is a candidate for renomination to the Township Committee on the Republican ticket. He is completing his fifth year on the governing board, having been elected to a two-year term in 1948 following the year of the famous tie vote and was named for a full three-year term in 1950.

The police commissioner has been known for his forthright attitude about many municipal matters. On occasions his frankness has disturbed some people but he never has left anyone in doubt about his stand. It is generally believed it was his unceasing efforts that resulted in the recent appointment of Albert A. Sorge as chief of police and of Wilbur C. Selander as police lieutenant.

County GOP Gathers Here To Launch Tour for Forbes

Many familiar faces from the Springfield-Union-Elizabeth area were missing yesterday as State Senator Malcolm S. Forbes, of Somerset County, opened his Union County campaign here with a breakfast at the Howard Johnson restaurant, Route 29. However, more than seventy-five Union County residents, most of them from Plainfield, Westfield, Mountainside and Scotch Plains attended the session.

The group heard the candidate reveal that Paul L. Trout, chairman of the New Jersey Turnpike Authority, has accepted his challenge to a televised debate on financing of the New Jersey Turnpike. He said such candidates will share a portion of the television show.

Despite the fact that the kickoff of the one-day county tour took place here there were numerous Springfield GOP leaders who did not attend. This was understandable in view of the fact that Charles F. Beardsley, county chairman, has endorsed "Forbes and Mayor Robert W. Marshall and Mrs. Amy Bandomer, Republican municipal chairman, have climbed on the bandwagon for Congressman Clifford P. Case.

Binder in Race, Reveals Statement

Commissioner Albert G. Binder, in announcing his candidacy for the coming primary election, issued the following statement:

"I have indicated my intention of filing a petition as a candidate for the office of Township Committee in the coming Primary Election.

"I have made this decision after long and careful deliberation, and I have been prompted to seek an extension in office because I firmly believe that the next two or three years will present important decisions to be made that will vitally affect the future of Springfield.

"I have had in the town governmental affairs, plus my plans and ambitions for the future, will enable me, I believe, to meet this challenge.

"I offer my past record in township affairs as a basis for the voters' decision, my plans for the future are generally known. I have nothing more to offer."

years. "Since that time," Commissioner Binder continued, "we have grown from a relatively small group of pioneers to the present day enterprising community of approximately 10,000 population, with a total number of municipal employees, full and part time, numbering 78, and costing the taxpayers an annual sum of $530,000 for the operation of the municipal government alone, which, as you know, does not include the operations of the Board of Education.

"I firmly believe that, in view of these facts, our present form of government should be patterned to better meet the requirements of our present enlarged operations. candidates, former Fire Commissioner Francis J. Keane and Thomas A. Argyris, recently announced their candidacies. However, their names will not appear on the ballot until the General Election in November.

There have been reports, nevertheless, of other G.O.P. township committee nominations. One whose name has appeared is Eugene Donnelly of 260 North View Terrace. A Republican leader, who is known to be urging opposition to the incumbents told the Sun today that no announcement of candidacies will be made until next week. The deadline for filing is Thursday, March 12.

Meanwhile there has been no sign of activity in the Democratic camp. Last year the Democrats failed to nominate prior to the primary and their two candidates were nominated by write-in vote. There have been suggestions that the Democrats this year may not nominate any candidates and instead may support the independent nominees in November.

Democratic leaders to date have been silent in the face of this report.

ON THE SUNNY SIDE

THE POLITICAL POT IS BEGINNING TO "BERL"

Even though the two-platoon system has been ruled out for 1953, the Republican organization may go into the coming primaries with more than just one full team. Both present incumbents, Mayor Robert W. Marshall and Police Commissioner Albert G. Binder have already announced that they will be candidates for the Township Committee in the coming primaries, Marshall having tossed his homberg in the ring several weeks ago while Binder makes formal announcement in today's issue.

But a rumor, coming right out of left field, has it that there was one of those conferences held last Sunday with several VIP's of the local GOP organization attending, who talked about this and that—"that" being that there may be other candidates who will try for the two spots on the Township Committee. There's nothing definite, the rumors say, but with next Thursday as the deadline for filing, the palpitating public should know the final score by then.

Politics is the vehicle through which civic pride and interest in municipal affairs can go places and it's a healthy sign when citizens will devote their time and energy—and expose themselves to the turbulent and exciting slugging match of a campaign—in an effort to remedy or improve municipal affairs.

Mayor Marshall and Police Commissioner Binder have the big advantage of being able to present themselves to the electorate on the basis of experience, which may or may not be good for the home team. But both of them have made friends while in office—they must have—and opposing candidates will have to come into the arena with enough ideas to build a real blazing fire under the complacent television seats of the Springfield voters.

This is not intended to cast aspersions on the voters here because they do break down fences and batter in the gates when the cause is right and they have been aroused—but just to get the "ins" out of office won't ring any bells.

If there are two such candidates who have a lot of the answers and can point with pride to ever so many things they would like to do for the future of Springfield then, we say, Mayor Marshall and Police Commissioner Binder had better do a lot more road work and bug pinching. But, unless this mysterious little political quiz show of last Sunday can produce a couple of red-hot and clear talking aspirants for the nominations, everything will be right where the parade started.

None of this is intended as a complete wrap-up for Marshall and Binder as far as we are concerned—but we only like to ring in on evenly-matched teams and the script calls for stout-hearted men in a political scramble. We're not going to change the ribbon of our typewriter until we can take a good look at the "other" candidates.

And while all this is going on in the Republican camp, there is talk of deals, fusion tickets and coalition candidates by the Democrats—who have been courageously showing their heads above the hedge for the first time in years. They're beginning to drool because of a threatening old-fashioned doneybrook in the Republican camp which, they hope, will only add to the confusion of the Springfield "Treas," the Case and Forbes followers. And, unless there is some way of mending fences in a hurry, there is always that chance that some one, who wasn't even invited to the party, will sneak in because they left the door open in the excitement.

DON'T FORGET TO REGISTER—IF YOU WANT TO VOTE

Mrs. Eleanor H. Worthington, the Township Clerk and ambassador of good will who has made it her business to be nice to everyone, is much concerned that many newcomers to Springfield will not be eligible to vote in the coming primary elections unless they register—and the last day is March 12. The office in the Springfield Town Hall is open during regular business hours and Mrs. Worthington will remain at her desk until 9 o'clock in the evening the final four registration days—Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

We had occasion to need Mrs. Worthington's assistance on a matter when we first became residents of Springfield and long before we thought of being affiliated with the Sun—which we mention merely to prove that there was no ulterior motive in her fine services. She gave freely of her time—her advice and proved to be very cooperative, helpful and delightful.

Mrs. Worthington is a very busy person but, we're confident, no one can ever come to her office without getting a complete and willing response to any question—any problem or even an errand to be run. Those who haven't registered and can think of no better way to become acquainted with this nice person, drop in the Town Hall and see how willingly and enthusiastically your request is handled.

PITY THE POOR BUDGET MAKERS

Last night was the date set for the public hearing on the proposed budget for Springfield and since this is an important election year, there was the usual barrage of critical questions directed at the town fathers even with the lowered tax rates. It is true here in Springfield, as well as in other parts of the state, that there is little, if any, public sympathy for the hard-pressed municipal officials who must decide the make-up of the budget. We're not talking about what caused any budget to move in either direction but, it is a fact, that the same groups who shout the loudest for a reduction in the tax rates, just as vociferously demand increased services that usually mean more taxes.

There is no defense for official squanderers or wasters either in public office or in private enterprise. However, as long as costs of materials and services continue to rise there isn't too much that can be done. The municipal fathers certainly would not want to hike tax bills—if there were any other way out.

NICE LITTLE HOMES FOR THE MOSQUITOES

While the Union County Mosquito Commission is preparing all out war on the pests in Springfield, some one in the camp of the Steeter is undoing much of the good work by digging some nice breeding holes right in the center of the town.

Top soil removal—which we understand is violation—is making parts of the Morris-Flemmer avenues corner look like part of Sniper Hill No. 9 in Korea. As soon as the rains come and those holes become nice and gooey, you can imagine the tough little pests will give the Mosquito Commission a hard time.

FURTHER TRIBUTE TO A GREAT LADY

Miss Florence M. Gaudineer, one of Springfield's most beloved citizens, basked in the sunlight of the town's affection when the school named in her honor, was recently dedicated with formal and very impressive ceremonies. Those who attended the exercises, heard then the esteem and love in which Miss Gaudineer is held by all those who know her.

G. Mercer Guerry, Supervising Principal of North Hempstead who knew Miss Gaudineer a great number of years, adds another tribute in a letter which we have taken the liberty of printing below:

Dear Miss Gaudineer:
 Yes, sir, I heartily agree.

I saw your picture in the newspapers and have several copies of the dedication ceremonies. My only regret is that I was not there to offer congratulations first.

I believe that the people of Springfield have been lucky for some thirty years to have you as their school nurse and that they certainly were wise in dedicating their new school to a real friend; a friend who is there when needed, and one who always gives more than her share of time, services, kind thoughts, and responsible acts.

I don't believe that the people of Springfield can ever pay you-in-wardly-words for what you have done for them and what you will continue to do for many years to come, but I feel very sincerely that you have received your payment in the fact that you, yourself know that you have done a splendid job.

My only regret, aside from a personal one, is that your mother was not there to see you honored, and I am sure there is little that I can say to add to what has already been said by the good people of Springfield, your friends and neighbors. I hope to see you on the television program, "This Is Your Life", some day, because you are certainly worthy of national recognition.

Finally, I wonder if you were not a "Jet Pilot" at one time in your life, because in flying through the heavens some of the angel dust must have rubbed off on you, and I am happy to call you my friend.

Most cordially yours,
 G. M. Guerry,
 Supervising Principal.

WRITES POETRY WAITING FOR THE SUN

Howard Morgan Kellogg sounds like a very impressive name—and it is—but the little clear-eyed eleven year old youngster who will use that signature when he goes, perhaps, to Princeton or Dartmouth would please have you mind your business and address him as "Morry" because that's how the other Sun-newsbyte editors know him.

"Morry" is a typical American boy and selling the Springfield Sun is merely the beginning of his own life's story since practically every successful man, he says, sold newspapers at one time.

"Morry" does real well at selling and delivering the Springfield Sun because his smile could break down practically any kind of resistance whether you want to buy the newspaper or not. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Kellogg or 38 Forest Drive and when he's not playing ball, or selling the Sun, Morry is writing poetry. The other kids think it's a waste of time but Morry gets quite a bang out of rhyming "June" and "moon" and so do we.

None of these poems below will be considered for Parlipter Prizes for 1953 but we think they're cute even if the meter is all out of line.

P. S. Does this do us credit? (This is Morry's question).
 The carriers of the SPRINGFIELD SUN
 There's several of them — more than one,
 They'll take the paper up to you
 They know that the paper must go through,
 On through rain or snow or sleet,
 They're paper boys that can't be beat.

POEM NO. 1

That man on the street
 Looking nice and neat
 Who has the right
 To change the light
 To stop you and your bike
 Going on a long hike
 Who makes you stop
 Why — he's the cop!

 From time immemorial the theater, in some form, has been a part of every community large enough to support it. The Egyptians, the Greeks, the Romans and the Aztec countries, too, have a history of drama that has formed the basis of the theater as we know it. Though historians believe it originated as a religious ritual or dance of thanksgiving at different seasons of the year, through the centuries it has changed and since Shakespeare's time has been continued solely for entertainment.

And for the poor actors — they have changed too. Once they were condemned as being socially beyond the pale and only during the present century have they come into their own. Present day actors are courted and honored as much or more than people of any other profession. Their lives and loves

Budget Adopted Without Change

The 1953 proposed budget for the Township of Springfield was adopted unanimously last evening at a public hearing at the Town Hall.

Before a large crowd of interested taxpayers, the Township Committee put before the people the expected expenses, revenues, appropriations that the township will incur for the coming year.

Questions were raised concerning the salary and wages of the building inspector. From the budget reading, it appeared that the building inspector was receiving monies far in excess of the actual work of the job. Not unjustly however, since it was clarified by the Township Committee that he receives a retainer of $230 per year plus $1 per $1,000 on permits. The Township Committee agreed, however, that some action will be taken to establish a fair ceiling on the amount of money the building inspector may earn.

The item of tree removal, which has been allowed $2,000, caused considerable discussion, since this item was $1,700 over last year. Mayor Marshall stated that tree removal has recently become a local function and is no longer handled by the county. This involves additional men and equipment.

There was no objection concerning the amount set aside for the codification of ordinances, which involves a complete indexing of all ordinances, a job sorely needed, since it deals with ordinances as far back as 1927. This will help to clarify the entire legal situation by replacing obsolete, outdated ordinances.

The 1952 budget was also approved by the members. The money, which comes from the proce-gessors administration expenses as follows: Officer Expenses $50, Insurance $45, Public Relations $30, Training $125, Organization $100, Program $60, Juliette Low $15, Camp $150, Contingency $75.

The 1952 Cookie Sale netted $1031.47. After setting aside the $850 for the budget, the balance of $281.47 was voted to the Little House Fund.

The 1952 Strawberry Festival netted $1148.87 and was disbursed as follows: Troop adjustments $424.50, Camp fund $173.54, Lumber reserve $25.00 and Little House $525.83.

The balance of the unused portion of the 1952 budget was also approved by the members.

Education Board Names Committees

The board meeting expanded its public relations committee and made it a public relations committee. It was indicated the committee will cover a more expansive scope in the board's relation with the public.

Mrs. Mildred Hillier was named to head the committee. Other members are Thomas Doherty and Gifford Hale.

Other committee appointments found Hale being named chairman of the important school government committee. Other members are Mrs. Margaret Pfitzinger, Alan Cunningham and Mrs. Gretchen Forbes.

The finance committee head is Robert Smith. The other members are Mrs. Pfitzinger and Alan Cunningham.

The building and grounds committee includes Howard Smith, chairman, Robert Smith, Doherty and Mrs. Gretchen Forbes. Heading the supplies committee is Doherty. Hale and Mrs. Hillier are the other members. The lunchroom committee consists of Mrs. Pfitzinger, Robert Smith and Mrs. Forbes.

Doherty was named the board's representative on the recreation commission and Mrs. Pfitzinger the Association of School Boards representative. Hale is the alternate.

It requires an investment of about $8,000 to create a job in a manufacturing plant.

Auto Security Law Study Urged

New Jersey residents should study the new motor vehicle security responsibility law thoroughly for their own protection, the State Bar Association advised as a public service today. The new law, which affects everyone who drives in New Jersey, will go into effect April 1.

George P. Moser of Union City, State Bar Association president, pointed out that leaflets explaining the new statute are available at motor vehicle inspection stations, at many insurance offices, and through the Division of Motor Vehicles in Trenton.

"Motorists who find themselves in violation of the new rules after April 1 and lose their driving privileges as a result will have nobody but themselves to blame," Mr. Moser said. "Ignorance of the law is no excuse. The state has given ample advance notice and an adequate explanation of the new statute in pamphlet form, and it is now up to each individual to study the rules for his own protection. Motorists should remember that the authority to drive is a privilege, not a right, and they are under the obligation not to abuse it."

The legislation orders all motorists involved in accidents causing personal injury, death, or property damage exceeding $100 to make official reports and then prove financial responsibility or face their driving privileges.

IODINE BOMBS
 Miscellaneous atom bombs in the form of radioactive iodine are being used by doctors at Memorial Center for Cancer and Allied Diseases in New York to destroy cancerous thyroid tissue by which iodine is absorbed at a rate 100 times greater than by other tissues.

Recapping the Tourney

One of the most intriguing queries in the air as the Union County Conference basketball tournament commenced its seventeenth annual circus last week was: Can the Elizabeth representatives retain their five-year hold on the championship? Observers got the answer sooner than was expected, as the Betsytown schools all bowed out before the finale.

Sacred Heart, St. Patrick's and Edison all were eliminated in the initial games. The Hearts trailed Plainfield, 51-51. St. Pat's dropped a 74-38 verdict to runnerup Union; and Edison was ousted by Regional, 66-52. Top-rated Jefferson and hitherto undefeated Pingry were next to go, the Tee Jays being upset by Plainfield, 55-52, and the prep school losers succumbing to Union, 76-60, in the second round.

That left St. Mary's, which had won the two previous years, as the final Betsytown hope, but Linden eased the Eagles out in the semi-final course, 51-40.

Crown Shifts to Big Five

While Elizabeth was dropping its control on the county title, the Big Five Conference—Regional, Plainfield, Linden, Union, and Rahway—was returning to prominence. Prior to the beginning of the Betsytown rite in 1948, BFC quintets had captured nine championships in 11 attempts. Big Five agents won the seven straight tournament titles until St. Patrick's cracked the ice in 1944 and Jefferson continued the crown in Elizabeth by winning in '45.

Regional, which shows four tourney victors along with Rahway and Jeff, returned for two successes in 1946 and 1947, before the Jeffs brought the crown back to Elizabeth, where it had been stationed 'til Linden sent it back to BFC hands by stopping a fellow Big Five unit, Union, 59-38.

That the county seat schools would encounter difficulty in their bid for six consecutive titles was evidenced in the very first round. Of the half-dozen Elizabeth entries, three were readmitted in their initial appearances, while Jeff had to come from behind to halt Westfield, 59-51. Pingry had it easy with Cranford, 65-52, and St. Mary's romped over Roselle Park, 63-39.

Jeff and Pingry moved no further, but St. Mary's kept the Betsytown fire burning in nipping Scotch Plains, 53-45. Champion Linden extinguished the last flame, however.

It is significant that the Big Five Conference secured three of the top four berths and four of the top eight positions. Elizabeth schools seized three of the first eight spots, while Four-County Conference champion, Scotch Plains won the other place. Indeed, the future of the Big Five seems bright, because several of the BFC clubs have underclassmen on the varsity.

Tourney Sidelights

It has been a long time since Regional athletic director Bill Brown has been a basketball coach or player, but his officiating still keeps him in close contact with the activity of the surrounding schools. He usually predicted the winner of the quarter-final Regional-Linden battle, would win all the trimmings. The conqueror did!!!

The roster of champions in the UCC affair is quite exclusive. Only Regional (4), Rahway (4), Jefferson (4), St. Mary's (2), Linden (2), and St. Patrick's belong to this distinctive group.

The Linden-Union score was the largest final-round rout in the tourney's history.

Championship game also decided the Big Five Conference winner, as Union and Linden finished in a deadlock for BFC laurels.

Little League Baseball

We understand that there have been numerous inquiries about the proposed "Little League" baseball program from interested Springfielders. We will devote next week's column to explaining the details this worth-while movement. Watch for it!!!

Regional, Westfield to Clash In NJ Tourney Tomorrow Nite

It will be "Operation Westfield" for Regional's basketball forces Friday night in the NJSIAA tournament as the Group 3 Bulldogs and Blue Devils join scores of teams throughout the State in launching the annual NJ jamboree.

Coach Lou DeRosa's club goes into action at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow night at the Elizabeth Armory against the Westfielders, with whom they split a two-game season's series with each team triumphing on its home floor. Union and Woodbridge square off in a Group 4 struggle at 7:15.

Regional and Westfield are part of a seven-team Union County delegation, from which three will have been eliminated following tonight's Hillside-Summit fray. The loser will unite with Edison and Rahway on the ousted roster.

The Regional-Westfield struggle looms as one of the most interesting Group 3 fight in the section, although Summit's outing with Hillside also should be close.

Hillside won in a regular season game, but the general opinion is that the Comets cannot repeat.

The Bulldog-Blue Devil test is strictly a toss-up. Regional got a 19-point performance from George MacKenzie in the first tilt—Regional won, 59-38—but George missed the second go as Westfield turned the tide, 63-55.

Coach DeRosa indicated that MacKenzie's absence plus the strange court aided Westfield's cause considerably.

Regional operates out of a deliberate "possession" offense. With Tom Luckie, an ace ball-handler, setting up the plays along with MacKenzie, the Bulldog mentor has two of the better back-court men in the area. Luckie and MacKenzie are expert ball-stealers and both are sharp set shooters. The locals probably will use a zone defense.

The Bulldogs have one of the youngest pivot men in the county in sophomore Joe Schaffernoth, who is big and shows promise, though still green.

The first five-rounds out with Judd Herman and Jack Keith, both efficient scorers. Herman and Keith also help out on rebounding.

The Bulldogs will contend with one of the district's top point men in Carl Horning and one of the better floor men in Rogelio Diaz. Westfield's starting array, also lists Walt Zubawicz, Harris Mosher, and Dick Dunn.

Lined up with Regional in the sectional final are Morristown, Linden, Caldwell, Dover, and of course, Westfield, Hillside, and Summit.

Linden and Summit are ranked as co-favorites in the tourney, mainly on the strength of their winnings. Summit successfully defended its Suburban Conference crown and Linden walked off with the Union County Conference and Big Five Conference titles.

The Suburban Conference opposition must be considered, since it is not recognized as the best in the area. That would tend to diminish the Hilltopper rating, but they still have a top-flight team with height.

Linden had trouble with Regional in the county tourney, but made it look easy against Union in the finale. The Tigers seem to blow hot and cold.

The North Jersey Section 2 draw is set up in this fashion: 1. The first bracket pairs Caldwell and Dover, both winners in preliminary tests.

2. Morristown, with a long winning streak going, and Linden are matched in the second bracket.

3. Hillside and Summit occupy the fourth bracket, and 4. Regional and Westfield are in the final bracket.

That would mean that the Caldwell-Dover and Linden-Morristown victors would meet in the semi-final round at the top of the "draw" while the Regional-Westfield and Hillside-Summit winners would collide in the semi-final contest in the lower half of the draw.

The survivors then would engage in the sectional final, with that victor moving off to meet the champions of the three other sections of the State.

With only Caldwell-Dover and Morristown among the outsiders in the sectional playoffs, it would appear that Union County teams have a good chance of keeping the sectional title here, where it

Springfield, W. Orange to Vie in Revolver Match

The Springfield Revolver Club will shoot against the West Orange No. 1 team in West Paterson this Sunday afternoon, March 8, at 1:30 p.m.

Members of the local club are Frank Porrelli, Jr., William Porrelli, William Pierce, George Ruz, Jerry Pernicola, and Sam Rosenberg.

Bulldogs Set for Big One

County Champs

Richie Scorese (left) and Tom Thompson, Regional's county wrestling champions, will return to competition this week-end in the Elizabeth Armory in the annual State matches. Thompson got a referee's decision over Jefferson's Howard MacKenzie to win the 168-pound title and Scorese gained the 123-pound crown by beating Roselle Park's Al Wallace, 7-4.

Thompson, Scorese Score For RHS in UC Mat Event, Will Enter State Meet Sat.

ROSELLE PARK—Scoring 17 points, their highest total in the history of the Union County wrestling eliminations, Regional placed two representatives on the team which will represent the county Saturday afternoon in the Elizabeth Armory. The host side triumphed here last Saturday with an astounding total of 42 points and five individual victors.

Regional's two triumphs came in the 123-pound class, with Richie Scorese gaining a 7-4 decision over the Park's Al Wallace, and in the 168-pound division, with Tom Thompson scoring a referee's decision over Jefferson's Howard MacKenzie.

The Bulldogs lost out in the 106-pound class when the Park's Howard Burt outscored Al Hector by 13-7 and also in the 130-pound pitting, when the Panthers' Bob Hennessey, nosed out Wray Bailey, 4-2.

The strangest thing about Hector's loss is that he had pinned his conqueror twice in two seasons. Bailey surprised by advancing into the finals by beating Union's Paul Altman, 9-6, Altman defeated Bailey in seasonal activity, 5-1.

Union finished in second place with 25 points and Regional ended third. Plainfield tallied five points and Jefferson three, while Rahway's State tourney runner-ups were blanked.

Union picked up points on triumphs by Harvey Weiss at 115, Nick Biondi, a defending titlist, at 136.

Roselle Park got off to a bang-up start with Burt's success and Hennessey at 130, Don Guicker at 141, Tom Williams at 148, and Joe Yeats at 157-pounds wrapped it up with wins.

Charles Dell Bene of Plainfield Hall, a film, which also will be available to interested groups at that time, will be shown in all local schools on April 10.

The commission has been seeking a site for the program, because none of the present diamonds in Springfield would be available for "Little League," which has all dimensions reduced.

The movement has to be well-organized to be able to take effect this year, but a youth baseball program will be run this summer. This will start on March 28 with a baseball clinic, styled after the recent basketball affair.

Springfield Drubbed in Grade Tourney

Springfield's grade school basketball quintet—representing the Gaudinier School—bowed out of the Regional Grade School tournament last Tuesday afternoon, and quite abruptly. The locals trailed Kenilworth, 48-10.

Announcement on the status of the Recreation Commission's proposed grade school should develop out of tonight's meeting of that body. Indications are that if the Board decides in favor of the school, it will begin in the latter part of March.

All organizations which might be interested aiding the formation of "Little League" baseball have been urged to apply for the brochure, available from Commissioner Edmund Horoff at Town

RECREATION BASKETBALL LEAGUE Standings of the Teams

Table with columns: Team, W, L, Pct., GF, GA. Rows include Lakers, Knicks, Nationals, and Olympians.

Last Week's Results: Lakers 80, National 23; Olympians 42, Knickerbockers 30 (over-time).

Saturday's Schedule: Olympians vs. Lakers, 2 p.m.; Nationals vs. Knickerbockers, 3 p.m.

Thanks to the Olympians, who scored their first league victory last Saturday in Springfield Recreation Basketball League action, the unbeaten and league-leading Lakers have a chance to clinch the championship this Saturday as they face the Olymps at 2 p.m.

The Nationals and the Knickerbockers square off in the wind-up at 3 o'clock.

Les Lawn, who has been making and breaking loop records at a reckless pace, set two new marks as he paced the Lakers to an 80-33 triumph over the Nats. Lawn battered his previous high of 11 field goals with an 18-goal production and also topped his scoring standard of 24 markers with a 37-point tally.

Big Karl Beard, who passed off offensively in the play, slipped in 26 points for the Lakers, who also received 10 from Bob Andrew. Dismittive Karl Utzart tossed in 13 points for the Nats, who couldn't match the Lakers in scoring or rebounding.

The second game was far more exciting and more important in the standings. Before the Knicks and the Olymps engaged in the circuit's initial overtime trial, the race figured to go right down to the final game between the Knicks and the Lakers, but it now appears that the Lakers will sew it up Saturday.

Bucky Brown's last moment applied the battle after regulation time, following an Olymp rally. In the overtime, the Olympians got their winning margin on shots by Richie Ernst and Tom Keane. Curt Merz snapped out of his lethargy to pace the Olymps with 10 markers, while Bob Bolles, 14 and Joe Gallini's 10 topped the Knicks.
