

What Do YOU Think?

Beverly Rappaport

Question asked by your inquiring reporter: "What do you think would be the ideal way to spend a summer vacation and how did you spend yours?"

Miss Pat Binder, 37 Tower drive
"Spending it down the Jersey shore. The ocean, the beach and the men are the main attractions. Unfortunately I stayed home and worked."

Mrs. G. Hine, 23 Clinton avenue
"I spent my vacation at home. Ideal or not. However, if I had my choice I'd take the mountains. It's nice and cool there."

Alice McGuire, 366 Morris avenue
"The ideal vacation would be a cruise to South America. It would be such a complete change and a novelty and it's always exciting to see how other people live. My vacation was a motor trip through New England. It was quite a treat for me since I've never been there before."

Mrs. Joseph Tuzsuk, 494 Mountain avenue
"My ideal is to spend week-ends down the shore and that's exactly what I did this summer at our own bungalow."

Mrs. Leonard Kasper, 68 A Warren avenue
"Of all the vacations I've had the best were those spent in Florida. The weather was just beautiful. I haven't taken my vacation yet this year but I doubt if I'll get to Florida."

Mrs. Harry Zauser, 78 Hawthorne avenue
"Actually it depends on how much money you have. Personally I like the shore. We took day trips there and went to the races. We lost our shirts but had an awful lot of fun."

Mrs. Robert Whitish, 76 Denham road
"It depends on whether one has young children or not. With children it's best to go to one place and stay put like the shore. Without children one can take trips and move about a lot. I've done both."

Mrs. Hermann Trimbora, 86 Hawthorne avenue
"We usually go to Florida but this year we stayed home. We have our own back yard and make good use of it by having picnics and barbecues. We also went to the beach."

Shunpike Civic Association to Seek Members

The Shunpike Civic Association has launched a membership drive with the hope of enrolling all property owners from Warwick Circle, Shunpike road, Kew drive and surrounding neighborhoods. A membership committee was recently appointed by Robert Madison, president of the association, and indications are that the next meeting will find a great number of new members as the result of the current drive.

The association meets the second Wednesday of each month at Baltusrol Golf Club and, as the committee puts it, the meetings are short, interesting and social which gives the neighbors an opportunity to know one another and the means of discussing common problems. All ordinances and matters pertaining to the future growth of that particular section of Springfield are carefully watched by the association and the idea of enrolling all property owners in this area is to be more articulate and show great strength when and if some matter arises which might, in some manner, affect the investment of the property owner.

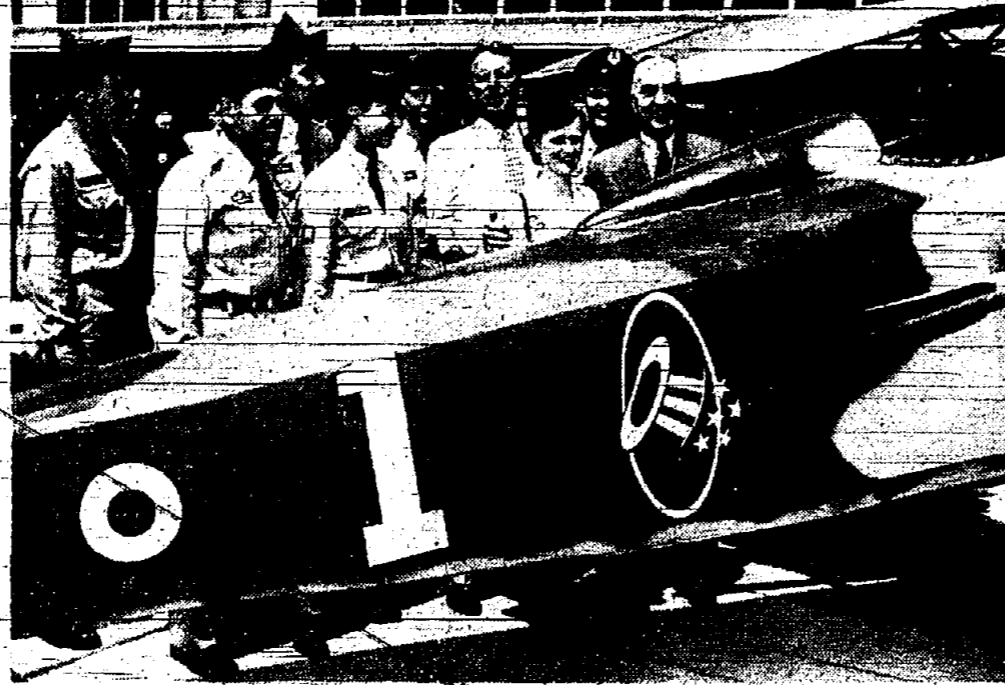

As an inducement to join with this association, Frank Wherle of 22 Shunpike road, who has taken the job as chairman of publicity for the Shunpike Association, announces that he will be glad to make arrangements to bring any new member to the first Fall opening meeting and see to it that he is returned home after the evening's program.

The cost of membership is very nominal, the dues being a small amount each month. Any property owner in this neighborhood, wishing to become members of the Shunpike Civic Association, may contact any of the following membership committee either by a personal visit or by telephone:

From Warwick Circle: John Kennedy, No. 1; Werner Bothe, No. 7; Edward Lillian, No. 15; Nicholas Montanoni, No. 49; Joseph Siegel, No. 48; Mrs. Edith Carroll, No. 69. Tel. MI. 6-5155.

Shopping Center Signboard Dismantled; Work May Start

The big sign board at the Morris, Flemer and Main street corner, announcing the General Green Shopping Center at that location, was dismantled early this week which could mean a great many things, one of which is that there will soon be breaking of ground for this project.

However, no one seemed to be able to give any good reason for taking down the sign this week. William O. Mellich, the exclusive renting agent for the center, was reached at his office yesterday and he pushed aside the question of the signboard with the announcement that two or three new leases are very close to the signing stages and, as soon as these were on the dotted line, he felt certain there would be actual start of work on the center. Mr. Mellich said some of the leading variety stores and national chains are considering leases in the shopping center and the actual announcement of the names is expected in a week or so.

N. Angleton, of 4 Forest Drive, the developer of the General Green Shopping Center, could not be reached yesterday to explain why the signboard was dismantled at this time and no one in his office was able to furnish any information.

Industry of Springfield

Springfield can be proud to claim an industry which has pioneered many of the improvements in the manufacture of pencils and which has the most attractive pencils in the industry.

The Richard Best Pencil Company, Inc. was established in 1890 by Frederick and Richard Best in New York as a pencil importing firm. In those days the best pencils were made in Europe and the company imported them from Johann Feber of Nuremberg.

This business was carried on until 1907 when the company built its own factory at Irvington and began building a reputation for making quality pencils. Shortly thereafter, in 1911, equipment for the manufacture of rubber erasers and of metal ferrules was added so that the quality of these parts could be controlled and improved. Many of the other materials for pencils were still imported, but the advent of the First World War forced the company to develop domestic sources of tools and other materials so that it became entirely independent of foreign suppliers.

In 1927, to insure a steady supply and improve the quality of pencils, the company acquired an interest in the Oregon cedar mill and began treating and staining its own wood.

During the Second World War the "metal" division was greatly expanded for the production of aircraft ignition parts—especially which was later used to produce a variety of metal parts for other manufacturers as well as new products for the company.

The Irvington plant was maintained until 1945—Best Pencils had outgrown its facilities. The present owners, Leonard E. Best of Summit and Alfred H. Best of Watchung, together with their sales manager, H. M. Heath of Convent, saw the available property in Springfield, liked it and proceeded to build a new and modern plant, designed for maximum efficiency. Operations began a year later when all manufacturing was transferred from Irvington. Equipment from the old plant was either modernized or discarded completely and replaced with new and more efficient machinery.

Best Pencils manufactures pencils, erasers and metal specialties. As pioneers in the industry, they have originated the hexagonal pencil with rounded corners, Tryx, an entirely new and exclusive pencil shape was developed in 1944. Six sided, with three round

Marcel's Closing For Week's Rest

Vacation for Marcel's this year will mean a vacation for the entire staff—beginning Tuesday and continuing for a week. At four o'clock sharp on Tuesday, the hamburger griddle will be folded away, the toaster plug disconnected and the Marcel staff will forget about ham and cheese sandwiches and bananas—split for a full week, while some attention is paid to a little fishing, some sun tanning and general rest.

Tuesday, September 8, the crew will be back on the job, still wondering why a week on vacation is so much shorter than a week on the job.

P.B.A. Edges Out Bond Electronics

Behind 4 to 1, the P.B.A. scored four runs in the bottom of the sixth inning of first game of the playoff Tuesday night to edge out Bond Electronics 5-4. Scot Donington held Bond Electronics in the seventh for the win. Harry Nussbaum took the loss after a brilliant five innings in which he allowed only two hits.

Bond jumped ahead 2-0 in the first on a walk, two bunts and an infield out. The P.B.A. got two hits in the bottom of the first, but could not capitalize. In the fifth the P.B.A. tallied on a delayed steal with Bednarik scoring from third.

In the bottom of the sixth, Heathstone walked, Mascaro singled and Collicchio walked, leading the bases. Monroe then reached first on the third baseman's error and the score was 4-2. Bednarik then lined out to center and Collicchio scored. Solander bunted and the tying and winning runs scored on an overthrow to first.

OTHER KIDS MAY LIKE FISHING

But Morgan Kellogg, known to all the gang as "Morry" of 38 Forest Drive, says he gets a big kick out of collecting stamps, but if still gives him time to root for his favorite ball club, do all the things all the other boys do for fun and deliver the Springfield Sun every Thursday. Here Morry gives some inside tips on how to go about collecting stamps.

By Morgan (Morry) Kellogg.

Stamp collecting can be fun for anyone over eight or nine years old. More people collect stamps as a hobby than any other hobby in the world for it is inexpensive, educational and interesting. Through stamp collecting one can learn history, geography and other educational data.

A collection should be started by gathering common stamps such as those on mail coming into the home. Neighbors and friends could be asked to keep an eye out for the collector.

There is a definite method for removing the used stamp from the envelope. The stamp should be torn off with some of the paper surrounding it so as not to damage it. Next it should be soaked in a pan of warm water with a pinch of salt added until the stamp can easily be removed from the paper. The stamp should then be allowed to dry, preferably face down, on a sheet of newspaper. Another piece of newspaper should be placed on top with heavy books piled on it. Two hours drying time should be allowed.

One can buy packets of stamps to increase his collection. Stamps could also be bought on approval from the biggest and most well-known companies.

A certain amount of equipment is necessary for starting a collection. One of the first things needed is an album. One can make his own album from a scrapbook or old notebook preferably with graph paper. A small worldwide album is good for beginners. Later other albums can be bought if one decides to specialize in a particular area or country.

In mounting stamps one should use only stamp hinges. Glue, paste or tape should never be used for they could ruin both the stamp and the album.

Good working conditions have kept labor turnover low at Richard Best. Many operators have been with the company for as long as 25 years. The plant is one of the most modern and newest. The printing shop is air-conditioned and the plant is cooled often by blowing water across the roof. There are shower baths for girls and men and a lunch room with refrigeration and cooling facilities. This Card Means Faster Long Distance Service For You

The strange-looking card that you see here is a small part of one of Bell Laboratory's latest developments, an "electronic brain" called a card translator. Working with modern dial switching equipment, it helps speed long distance calls—makes the operator's job easier, your telephone service faster!

The new switching equipment recently was put in service in Newark. Initially it greatly increases the number of long distance calls operators can dial directly and is part of an improvement program, leading—in years to come—to both operators and customers being able to dial calls directly to most any telephone in the country! It's typical of what we're doing to build better, more efficient telephone service—keep costs down and make your telephone more useful.

Here's how it works:

1. Let's say you're calling San Francisco. The Long Distance Operator dials a code for San Francisco and the telephone number you're calling in that city.
2. A card for San Francisco falls into place in the card translator, which decodes the card and operates switches which
3. In a split second, picks the proper long distance lines to San Francisco (or alternate routes if circuits are busy)—and in a matter of moments, the telephone you called is ringing.

Is Engaged to Theodore Johnson

Mrs. Steven Karlik

Springfield Girl Wed in Newark

Miss Lenora Mary Johnstone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter W. Johnstone, 16 Millburn street, Millburn, announced the engagement of her daughter, Lenora Mary, to Ronald Theodore Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anna M. Johnson of 68 Mountain avenue, and the late Francis T. Johnson.

Holy Trinity Church, Newark, was the scene Saturday of the wedding of Doris Claire Sohan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sohan of 113 Maple avenue to Pfc. Steven Karlik, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Karlik of Newark. Rev. G. J. Chermansky performed the double-ring ceremony. A reception followed after the ceremony at the Parish Hall.

Miss Johnstone, a graduate of Millburn High School, attended Bethany College, Kansas, for three years and was graduated from Newark State Teachers College. She is on the faculty of the Springfield School System.

The couple plan an October wedding.

Citizen Will

(Continued from page 1) backgrounds should be an important factor in asking for the ballot this November and the two men who take their seats after the coming election should serve as the pattern for selections by Springfield in the future.

One very important factor which no one would make as part of a statement but which has become a measure for deserving the support of this group is that members of the Township Committee should, at all times, be available for any emergency or any call of duty that may come up any time of the day. This, it was explained, means that they would like to support those candidates who would not have to conduct the affairs of Springfield by remote control and be available only after business hours, evenings, and week-ends.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a chapel length gown of imported French Chantilly lace over satin with a sweetheart neckline. Her fingertip illusion veil was held by a tiara of seed pearls and rhinestone. She carried a cascade bouquet of Eucharis lilies, white roses with an orchid center.

Miss Joan Jurich, cousin of the bride was maid-of-honor and Miss Hildegard Pross was bridesmaid. Their gowns were made of lilac satin and nylon tulle. They carried old-fashioned bouquets of roses and mixed flowers.

Jerry Karlik, brother of the groom, was best man. Serving as ushers were Richard Sohan, brother of the bride and John Drzik of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Karlik is a graduate of West Side High School, Newark, and the Newark Teachers College. She is on the faculty of the Saybrook School in Hillside.

Mr. Karlik is a graduate of East Side High School, Newark, and attended the Newark College of Engineering. He is in the Signal Corp. stationed at Fort Monmouth. He is assigned to the Development Detachment and works at Cobs Engineering Laboratories, Shrewsbury, N. J.

The couple are taking a motor trip through Canada.

be reached by the four Independent and Democratic candidates to reduce the field to the two strongest men, the November elections might be the start of real political fireworks.

Paper Mill Prepares "Merry Widow," Plan Non-Musicals Later In Season

Two interesting innovations were announced by the Paper Mill Playhouse in Millburn this week.

The subscription drive is one of the results of the Paper Mill's official transition to a permanent 42-week winter theatre which will offer in addition to the musicals for which it is famed—two non-musical comedies during the coming 18-week fall season.

To Give Non-Musicals. The two plays without music are the first to be staged at the Playhouse in almost twenty years.

A third noteworthy trend at the Paper Mill Playhouse this season is the new emphasis being placed on opening nights.
