

Lions Present Eyetester to School System

At a general assembly held yesterday morning at Florence Gaudiner School, Lion president George D. Harrison, Jr., presented to the Springfield school system a new modern telebinocular machine for testing eyesight. Benjamin F. Newschwager, superintendent of schools, accepted this valuable addition to the medical department of the school system.

Dr. Walter Oelschlaeger, also a member of the Lions Club of Springfield, then delivered a very interesting lecture on slight education and the benefits that would be derived through the use of this machine. Among the tests afforded by the telebinocular are those for simultaneous reception, depth perception, color, visual accuracy and eye movements.

He further stressed the importance of attention to vision, particularly during the formative school years. This included the modern improvement in the present day environment of school rooms which now have scientific lighting, improved blackboards with colored chalk, planned seating for the children and desk arrangements. All of these improvements are important in the development of vision.

Later in the day Dr. Oelschlaeger visited James Caldwell School and Raymond Chatham School where he also lectured and explained the use of the machine to the assembled bodies of school children, and their teachers.

Local Soldier Receives Award

Pfc. Anthony B. Rizzuto, a Springfield soldier, was recently awarded the Bronze Star Medal for saving a wounded buddy's life during Korean action.

Pfc. Anthony B. Rizzuto, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Rizzuto, 147 Baltusrol ave., is a medical aidman with Company B of the 70th Infantry Division's 22d Regiment.

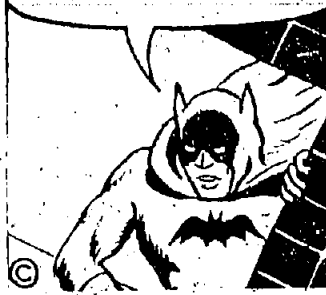

He was cited for heroic achievement with an emblem patrol on July 4 near the Punch Bowl. As the patrol approached its objective, an exploding enemy booby trap wounded both Rizzuto and one of his comrades.

Rizzuto, with complete disregard for his own personal safety, refused medical attention... as he went to the assistance of his comrade, his citation relates.

He "conspicuously administered first aid to the wounded man and still refusing attention for himself, assisted in his evacuation. Rizzuto's gallant actions were directly responsible for saving the life of the wounded comrade, the citation continues.

Pfc. Rizzuto's First Class Ribbon earned the Army last September, completed basic training at Fort Benning, Ga., and arrived in Korea in May. He also wears the Purple Heart for wounds received in action.

PTA Attracts Big Crowds At Meeting

"It is truly gratifying to see such a large number of parents in attendance tonight," said Mrs. L. E. Skoussen, President of the Springfield Parent Teacher Ass'n at the first Fall meeting held Monday night in the Florence Gaudiner school. To the more than capacity crowd which attended the meeting she explained the meaning of the oak leaves which were given the parents to wear as they entered the school. The oak tree being the symbol of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, every member wore a colored leaf, the different colors indicating officers and Board, Faculty, class Mothers, old members and new members. She also announced that the tent an open house party to will center around the theme, "Their Future is in Our Hands," and said that subsequent meetings will cover some phase of the subject.

Prior to the flag salute, singing of America, the Reverend Eric Rieker of the Holy Cross Lutheran Church gave the invocation.

Benjamin F. Newschwager, Superintendent of Schools, then introduced the new and special teachers who outlined some of the instruction covered in their courses. Miss Florence Gaudiner, school nurse, announced that examination of the children's teeth was under way and physical examinations of sight and hearing would be started in the near future.

George D. Harrison, president of the Board of Education, explained the functions of the Board and (Continued on page 5)

Welcome Latora Friday Night

Youths Fined for School Loitering

Superintendent Warren W. Halkey accused three youths of loitering at Regional High School. They were sentenced to ten days in the County Jail and fined $3 each by Magistrate Henry C. McMullen. The jail sentences were suspended.

Those penalized were Anthony Martini, 16 years old, of 23 Battle Hill avenue; Vincent Landori, 16, of 2018 Glass avenue, Union; and Mario Martini, 21, of 9 Harvard street. Summit Patrolman Otto Sturm arrested them last Monday.

Three men taken into custody by Patrolman Daniel Madding at the New Jersey Quarry, Thursday at 8:40 p. m. were found guilty of gambling and fined $12 each. Patrolman Madding testified the men were engaged in a dice game. The men are Benjamin William, 41, of 189 South Orange avenue, and Charles P. Wilson, 27, of 352 Ridgewood avenue, both of Newark, and John Morris, 37, of 47 Summit avenue, Summit.

Magistrate McMullen processed 22 traffic violation charges, levying penalties totaling $581.14. Barre and Schuck, 19 Ross street, East Orange, and Anthony DiCicco, 318 Valley street, South Orange, were fined $20 each for overloading.

Among others were: Vincent Durso, Hotel Suburban, Summit, $5 for driving without a license, and Lydia C. Thery, 1085 Salem road, Union, $10 for speeding.

Friday will be "Latora Day" in Springfield—and all residents are invited to attend an open house party to be given in honor of the returned prisoner of war—Marine Pfc. Philip N. Latora—in Chateau Baltusrol, Baltusrol Way, tomorrow night. The gala public welcome for the local hero will get under way at 8 p. m. with all township officials, all local civic groups, veterans associations, Chamber of Commerce and service clubs participating.

Latora has been home for several weeks but the public welcome was postponed until tomorrow night at his own request. Tomorrow he will be the guest of honor, with an official police escort for him and his family to Chateau Baltusrol where Mayor Robert W. Marshall will be master of ceremonies and official greeter.

Committeeman Arthur N. Handeville, appointed by Mayor Marshall to make arrangements for tomorrow night's welcome program, announces that there will be plenty of food, entertainment and dancing following the ceremonies welcoming the former prisoner of war.

Latora is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Latora, of 85 Maple avenue. Philip was first reported missing in action but later a returning prisoner of war informed the parents here that he had seen their boy in a prison camp.

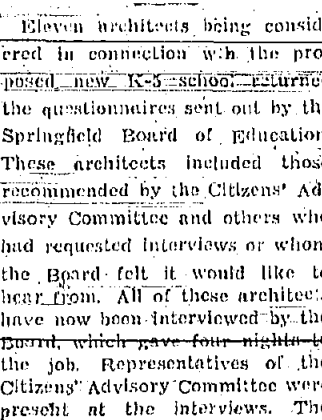

RELAXING BEFORE THE BIG CELEBRATION—Pfc. Philip N. Latora, Springfield's only returning prisoner of war, takes advantage of the sunny weather to shine up his brother's car before the town honors him at a buffet-dinner reception to be held at the Chateau Baltusrol Friday evening.

School Board Considering 11 Architects

Eleven architects being considered in connection with the proposed new K-5 school, returned the questionnaires sent out by the Springfield Board of Education. These architects included those recommended by the Citizens' Advisory Committee and others who had requested interviews or whom the Board felt it would like to hear from. All of these architects have now been interviewed by the Board, which gave four nights to the job. Representatives of the Citizens' Advisory Committee were present at the interviews. The architects interviewed were Alfonso Alvarez, Jr., Montclair; Frederick Blasauer, Union; Green, Daniel & Daniel, Short Hills and Tarrytown, N. Y.; Kely & Geuzen, Newark and New York; David Ludow, Summit; McMurray & Associates, Mickleton; Mountford, Union and Trenton; Alexander Merchant, New Brunswick; Elliot Noyes, New Canaan, Conn.; Emil A. Schmullin, East Orange; Arthur N. Stein, & Associates, Easting Ridge; George M. Vinnich, Englewood Cliffs. All were asked an identical series of questions and given the same amount of time to make their presentations. The opportunity to hear from so many architects with such wide and varied experience in school construction was very much appreciated by the Board. For each interview contributed to its better understanding of the situation.

Rev. S. Moffett Men's Club Speaker

The Men's Club of the Presbyterian Church will resume its fall activities on Monday, October 5, with its Annual New England Dinner which will be cooked and served by the men themselves, according to the announcement by President Lee Schwalm. An interesting and informal program has been planned with the Rev. Samuel H. Moffett, Ph.D., as the guest speaker.

Local Woman's Club to Hear Rutgers Professor

"Let's Tell Our Story Well" will be the topic for the evening when Professor Richard C. Reager of Rutgers University addresses the Springfield Woman's Club at their first Fall Meeting on Wednesday, October 7, at 8:15 p. m. in the Raymond Chatham School.

DAR to Visit Valley Forge

Clubs and organizations of all kinds have been urged to stress American history as their theme for the work of the coming year. The many historic sites and buildings scattered throughout the eastern states are a tangible part of our priceless heritage and paying homage to one of more of these famous shrines is a pleasant and rewarding way of meeting this request.

Big Reception for Meyner Surprises Old Timers

Springfield raised its political eyebrow when more than 300 enthusiastic supporters of Vincent J. Bonadies and Leo Moran, Democratic candidates for the forthcoming Township Committee elections, crowded into Evergreen Lodge last Friday night to greet their favorite and Mayor Robert B. Meyner, the Democratic standard-bearer for the office of governor.

Church Group Set For Colonial Fair

The best indication that the summer fall is really over is the hum of activity which surrounds the Presbyterian Parish House these days as plans proceed for the Colonial Fair to be held October 23 and 24. Every day seems to bring new additions to the long line of booths and attractions already planned for the two days.

The High Cost of Living To Hold Meeting Oct. 5

Those who like their glass of beer will have to pay 15 cents a glass in Springfield beginning with today. This announcement was made yesterday by local members of the Union County, Suburban Tavern Owners Association. There will be no more 10 cent glass of beer, the increase in price coming with the raise in wholesale costs.

No Deal for Old St. James Church

Reports, circulating Springfield for weeks, that the Jewish Community Group was considering the purchase of the former St. James Roman Catholic Church property at the corner of Morris and Linden avenues, brought the statement yesterday that "there is to be no deal since the building was completely inadequate for their needs."

A committee representing the Jewish Community had looked at the property and reported back to the group at a regular meeting at which time it was decided not to consider this site any further. The need for a building to house the many activities of the Jewish Community still prevails and a committee, appointed to explore the situation, has been looking at other properties and a building is being contemplated to meet their own specifications.

Furniture Course Given for Women

A Furniture Refinishing Course will be given to the Women of Springfield under the supervision of the Home Economic Extension Service of Union County. Mrs. John Rawlins of 27, Evergreen avenue will be the instructor.

The course will be held Wednesdays, Oct. 7, 14, 21, 28 and Nov. 3 from 9:30 a. m. to 3 p. m., at 35 Warner avenue. Enrollment is limited to 14 members.

Bring Furniture to Springfield

Even some of the seasoned Democratic veterans who have been watching for strong spots in the current gubernatorial campaign were surprised at the number of people present at Evergreen Lodge for what was advertised as an ordinary barn dance under the auspices of the Springfield Democratic Club. The word had been passed around that "Bob" Meyner, the Democratic candidate for governor, and his campaign work-

Woman's Club News

Emily Hahn's partial autobiography, "China to Me," will be reviewed by Mrs. Henry Ostrom at the first meeting of the Literature Department at the home of Mrs. L. S. Stevens, 778 Mountain Ave., on Monday, October 5, at 8:15 a.m. "China to Me" is a candid account of Miss Hahn's life in China during the crucial war years of 1935 to 1945. The author is well known for her biography, "The Soong Sisters," and for another partial autobiography, "England to Me." She has written other books, both non-fiction and fiction, concerning life in China.

Mrs. Eva P. Brown, department chairman, would be happy to welcome any new members to her department meeting.

"Copper Tooling" will be the project for the evening when the Art Department meets on Monday, October 5, at 8:15 at Miss Gertrude Sala's home, 408 Morris Ave. Lovely and unusual objects such as wall plaques, box lids, and trays will be created from ordinary copper sheets under Miss Sala's guidance. If you'd like to employ your "creative instinct," why not join this group next Monday evening?

Mrs. Edwin Davenport, in her capacity as program chairman, has planned an exceptionally entertaining evening for Club Night, October 7, at the Raymond Chisholm School. She has arranged for Professor Richard C. Reager of Rutgers University to address the group. "Let's Tell Our Story Well" will be his topic. Professor Reager should know how to tell HIS story well, for he is in charge of the public speaking and debate program at Rutgers.

When the Music Department meets at the home of Mrs. Vincent Bonadies, 12 Sherwood road on October 8, rehearsals will be resumed of the selections to be sung by the group at the Fifth District Fall Conference at Beltsford Golf Club on October 20. It's not too late to join in the chorus for Mrs. George Lancaster is always ready to welcome a new member into her department. This group has been fortunate in having Mrs. Ruth Osborne, teacher of music in the Springfield School System, direct them and help them in their interpretation of the new songs they have been learning.

The speaker for the General Assembly Session was Dr. Ashley Montagu, Chairman of the Department of Anthropology at Rutgers, and a prolific writer. Dr. Montagu spoke about "The Natural Superiority of Women," which happens to be the title of his latest book published in the spring of this year.

An accomplished flutist, Mrs. Patricia Bonadies, was accompanied by Mr. Walter N. Hewitt on the organ. This provided a most enjoyable interlude for the afternoon session.

A highlight of the meeting was the presentation of the sixth annual award of merit. Mrs. Mary Veronica Fieldson, institutional charge attendant at the State Colony for Retarded Boys, New Lisbon was the recipient. In honoring Mrs. Fieldson, the Federation of Women's Clubs of New Jersey State presented her with a certificate of appreciation.

Eleven clubwomen from Springfield attended the Fall Conference of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs on Friday, September 26, at New Jersey College for Women, New Brunswick. Mesdames Merton D. Williams, William Casanova, Louis James, Henry Ostrom, Elmer Arnold, John Pitney, Ripper Hummer, Harold Edsall, Edwin Davenport, Adam LaSota, and Christian Anderson represented our club. The women attended the various department and committee workshops in the morning. This enabled them to discuss their work and the aims of the Federation with members from all over the State.

The selection of an architect is the first step that must be taken in planning a school, for his plans must be approved by the State and... determines the amount to be voted on in referendum.

On the basis of these interviews, the Board then agreed on five whose work seemed best suited to our needs. Finding it would not be possible to make a final decision without seeing schools, these architects have designed, the Board is currently engaged in problems of school planning.

BULLDOG

BITS

By DON HALSGUT

Congratulations to the Bulldogs for their fine showing last Saturday. Ed Ruby, Harold Bolick, Jack Wyckoff, Don Minias, George Mackenzie, Bob Hull, and Company held Hillside to no first downs off the ground. In fact the Comets gained only two first downs, both incidentally, coming on passes. There won't be many who will pierce that Bulldog goal.

The offensive play of the week should have no doubt in anyone's mind. It started offensively for Hillside and ended offensively for Regional. I'm talking about the sensational punt return of Mackenzie's, who first cut to his left, then reversed his field and raced 60 yards to tally, behind the best downfield blocking witnessed by this writer since 1950. It was by far a real team play.

The defensive play took place early in the fourth period when the would-be Hillside passer was thrown for a 22 yard loss by the Bulldog line led by Ruby. That's a boy, Ed!

Harold Bolick becomes the first "Lineman of the Week." Hal played the entire game and was responsible for knocking down five Hillside passes from his line-backer slot. The "Back of the Week" is Don Reid, whose line-backs picked up strenuous ground. It's team spirit like Don's that will carry the Bulldogs far.

Another county pops up in that bath of last week's coaches, Regional's John Brown and Hillside's "Chub" Ferrigno had played together in high school and college. The Bulldogs have now beaten Hillside three out of three, two being shutouts.

Morristown High will have an opportunity to meet Regional's record, and rest assured, John Brown and his staff are very wary of Bill Flynn's high-flying Colonials. This is Morristown's first game against the Orange-and-Blue and they'll be facing the strongest line in these parts. With Soph Ernie Bearfield, Ruby, and the rest, this writer doubts very much that many opponents will gain much ground. However, either Bolick or Brown—better to something about a conversation artist. Those extra points might some day be needed, and now is the time to do something about it.

THIS WEEK'S PREDICTIONS

Morristown at Regional—Opener for the visitors. Bulldogs show great defensive power. Regional 13-0.

Cranford at Millburn—The Millers are in the rebuilding stage. Cranford 25-6.

Linden at Weequahic—A real close game but Linden gets the nod. Linden 14-12.

Plainfield at Columbia—Another toughie. Both were upset in their openers. At this time Columbia appears the strongest. Columbia 7-6.

Kearny at Hillside—The Kardis are just too strong for the Comets. Another shutout. Kearny 19-0.

Somerville at Roselle—Two future Bulldog opponents. Tradition be an interesting game. Somerville 14-6.

Westfield at Rahway—Rahway has nothing but tradition this year, but I'll go along with that. Rahway 13-7.

Union at Cartersville—Union is an up-and-coming club. Union 19-7.

Highland Park at Roselle Park—The Panthers appear to have more than an average Group II team. Roselle Park 13-6.

LAST WEEK—6 Right—8 Wrong.

China he taught church history at Yenching University in Peking, and later at Nanking Theological Seminary. In Nanking he carried out his duties as pastor of both mission and local parishes and was active in a city-wide youth program.

Dr. Moffett is a graduate of Wheaton College and of Princeton Theological Seminary, and holds a Ph.D. degree from Yale. Before going to China in 1947 he had served the Board of Foreign Missions as one of the secretaries for youth work. He has visited, in Thailand, India, Egypt, continental Europe and Great Britain. In preparation for his future work in Korea, Dr. Moffett has spent the past year studying the Korean language at the Institute of Far Eastern Languages, Yale University. He is serving temporarily as visiting lecturer in economics at Princeton Seminary, and as the representative of the Board of Foreign Missions to the Philadelphia Presbytery.

Meyner

William Dowd, Union County Democratic chairman, was especially intrigued by this unusual display of strength and, no matter what the results of the coming Township Committee elections may be, Bonadies, Moran and the club workers will bear watching, a spokesman for the head man stated.

A great number of those present were new faces which indicated that Bonadies and Moran had done a good job at enlisting many of the newcomers but there was a sprinkling of independents and even some Republicans who came to get a look at Mr. Meyner and hear what he had to say.

Mr. Meyner spoke very briefly but, turned on his charm enough to make certain that the enthusiasm of the crowd held until election day. He shook hands warmly with everybody near him, danced with several and was given a rousing ovation when he said "good bye" to rush to another meeting.

The Democratic candidate came to Springfield with a police escort and was accompanied by many of the County leaders. Those introduced to the crowd by Bonadies and Moran included Harrison A. Williams, Jr., of Plainfield, candidate for Congress; and Ralph De Vito, of Union; candidate for Register; John Banyass, of Garwood, candidate for sheriff; Assembly aspirant, Leo Kaplowitz, of Linden; Lawrence Bellusola, of Elizabeth; and Richard Pettit, of Cranford; and freeholder candidate, James McTernan, of Elizabeth.

PTA Attracts

asked for the cooperation of the parents in the interest of the schools. He said that "the attendance at Monday night's meeting indicated that Springfield's parents are actively interested in the welfare of their children."

Beginning October 12, a PTA membership drive will be launched with the intention of enrolling the parents of all children attending Springfield Public Schools. Mrs. Skousen indicated that the goal this year is 1900 members. Last year's enrollment reached 1857.

Mrs. Danell Lucy, co-chairman of Finance announced that it will be necessary to hold several fund raising projects this year in order to meet our budget. The first will be a cake sale, possibly in November. A more definite date will be announced later. The annual card party at Baltusrol Golf Club, which has become a tradition in Springfield, will be held again this year, in spite of the fact that no prizes can be given. She asked for the full support of all of the parents in these projects.

Both the Raymond C. Chisholm school for the lower grade teachers, and the Florence Gaudineer school for upper grades were open for classroom visitation after the meeting and parents had the opportunity to meet their children's instructors. Refreshments were served at both schools by the eighth grade class mothers under the direction of Mrs. H. A. Keller and Mrs. C. J. Varga, Hospitality Chairmen.

The All-Electric Age

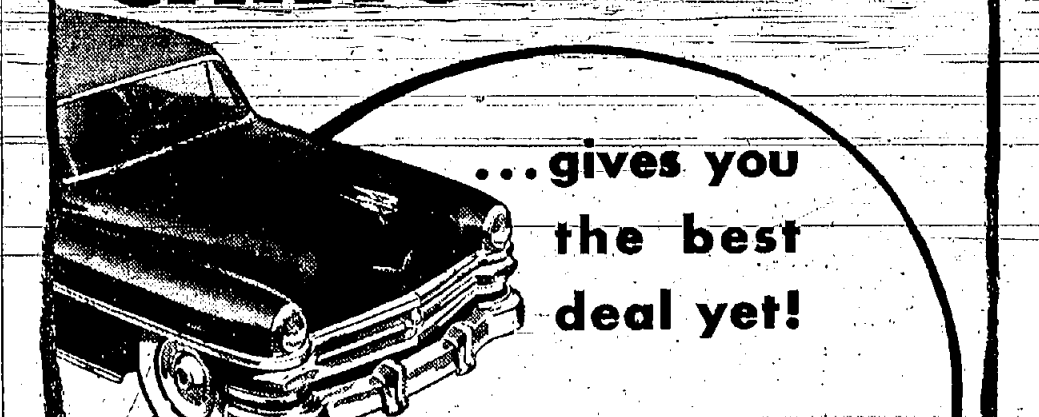

Today, the use of electricity is 2 to 3 times what it was before World War II. Look around you and you will see why — the All-Electric Age is here in a big way.

With the many electric conveniences on the market to make life easier, more comfortable it's no wonder the use of electricity is skyrocketing. And so are the new supplies of electric power. Your electric company has already added two new power units since 1945 and is now in the process of adding still another. By 1955 JCP&L will have 2½ times the power capacity it had just ten years earlier.

This power expansion activity, part of your electric company's $100,000,000 post-war construction program, is bringing everyone more electricity for better living. Best of all, electricity remains the biggest bargain in the family budget.

Industry of Springfield

Another Channel "Do-It-Yourself" supermarket, this one the only store of its kind in the country, opened its doors Saturday, September 26 and it opened in Springfield! This beginning marked another expansion step of the Channel Lumber Company of Newark and Port Newark.

Louis Stater

Channel Lumber had its start in 1909 when Morris Charin and Abraham Levy began a lumber and millwork plant on South 2nd street in Newark. These men took the first steps in an industry that has expanded to great proportions. In 1920 a branch was opened in Belleville and in 1939 a 14-acre wholesale lumber yard in Port Newark. Lumber comes in by ship from the west coast and to day Channel's special lumber carriers take it directly from the ships' side to the yard. From there it is distributed all over the country.

Channel's first retail store was opened in the Newark yard in 1931. This property also includes a large warehouse and main office. Twenty-two trucks operate daily from Newark and Port Newark.

Regional Top Comets 12-0

It was all Regional on Saturday afternoon, as the Bulldogs checked up Hillside 12-0, scoring their second straight victory over the Comets, before a crowd of 1,000 here.

Both scores were on the sensational side and utility both players carried the same 60 yard distance. After a quiet first quarter in which the ball changed hands five times, George MacKenzie took a Hillside punt on the 20 yard line and raced 60 yards down the right sideline, behind terrific downfield blocking, to score the first touchdown. Harold Bolick's conversion attempt was wide.

Then followed a sensational Bulldog line stand as the Comets attempted to run inside the regional ten yard line; five inside the four yard line; but failed to cross that last stripe to paydirt.

Miss Johnstone Nuptials Oct. 10

At an afternoon ceremony October 10 in Wyoming Presbyterian Church, Millburn, Miss Lenora Mary Johnstone of Millburn, will be married to Ronald Theodore Johnson, 68 Mountain Ave., son of Mrs. Francis T. Johnson and the late Mr. Johnson. Rev. Luther P. Powell will officiate at 5 o'clock and a reception will follow at the Wyoming Club, Millburn.

Mrs. L. Douglas Oakes will be her sister's matron of honor and brother Bill Oakes of Auburn, New York, cousin of the prospective bridegroom, will be junior bridesmaid. Mr. Johnson will have George Wesley Pultz of Springfield as best man. The ushers will be L. Douglas Oakes of East Orange and Richard Briggs of Garwood. Junior ushers will be Peter David Johnstone, brother of the bride and William M. Charles of Springfield, cousin of the bridegroom.

Miss Johnstone, who is on the faculty of the James Caldwell School in Springfield was honored at a surprise shower given by the teachers of that school.
