Bardy Farms New Market Opens Wed.

Bardy Farms, a landmark situated just down the road on Morris avenue, over the Union line, opens its new fabulous super market a block from the present place of business, 2589 Morris avenue, next Wednesday morning with the usual fanfare and official ceremonies. The new Bardy Farms building is one of the most modern, constructed with every new convenience to take care of the shoppers.

The opening ceremonies next Wednesday morning will include the cutting of the proverbial ribbon by Mayor Bierbaum with stars of television, radio and stage participating in the program. The rapid growth of Bardy Farms is one of the miracles of local enterprise and "know how," with four brothers, Joseph, Edward, Philip and Jack Bardy, building up the highway super market to the point where they could no longer take care of their rapidly increasing list of customers.

The new building, an architectural dream, has a most attractive exterior of a modern colonial design but the real facilities are inside where the finest hand merchandise will be offered. The Bardy men have always been great believers in parking and the new store offers that convenience to a great number of cars right in front of the doors. Because of its proximity to Springfield, the Bardy Farms management is confident that shoppers will find every reason to continue coming to their place, just across the Union line.

17 New Members Join GOP Club

The regular monthly meeting of the Springfield Republican Club was held Monday night at the American Legion Hall and some of the enthusiasm, generated by last Friday night's dinner-dance at the Baltusrol Golf Club, was still evident as 65 members attended what "Bill" Jensen, who was in charge of everything called a "Garden Night." The meeting hall was decorated to carry out the garden idea with green streamers pointing to

G. O. P. Annual Dinner Dance Attracts Crowd At Golf Club

The high water mark of the current social season was reached Friday night when approximately 200 guests attended the annual dinner dance of the Springfield Republican Club held at the Baltusrol Golf Club. The committee in charge of arrangements emphasized politeness as much as possible during the evening but there were so many of the "top-drawer" county office holders, leaders and candidates on hand that it was impossible to ignore the forthcoming primary campaign entirely.

The list of guests included the "who's who" in county and Springfield Republican circles and there were Sixth District Congressional candidates scattered all over the banquet hall. The principal speaker of the evening, Lee White, Under Secretary of the Air Force, with his several military aides which gave the affair considerable color and distinction, Col. H. G. Boneh, Mr. White's executive officer, and Major F. L. Paulson, the secretary's private pilot, accompanied the Air Under Secretary to Spring-

BIG OAKS FROM LITTLE ACORNS GROW—BARDY FARMS, the new, fabulous market, situated on Morris avenue a block from its present address, will be officially opened for business next Wednesday, at 10 a. m. It is conceded to be one of the finest and most modern buildings of its kind and the Bardy brothers say the merchandise will match it in quality, price and the usual fine service, of course. Republican Candidates Prepare For Campaign

Harold G. Nenninger, candidate for the Republican nomination for Township Committee in the April 20 primary elections, has named his campaign team and a very aggressive and positive drive is being mapped out to have him named by the Springfield voters.

Mr. "Jay" Levin has been named chairman of Mr. Nenninger's campaign committee with Thomas Argyle taking charge of the publicity. T. Wesley Compton is treasurer, Mrs. Gladys Boardley, secretary; and Mrs. Georgia McMullen is in charge of the women's activities in the campaign. Mr. Nenninger defined the scope of the coming campaign by announcing that his candidacy "will adhere to the finest principles of the Republican party" and that he hopes to present a positive program with the sole aim always being directed toward the best interests of Springfield and its citizens.

Mr. Nenninger is no newcomer to the political scene, having served as Township Committee member beginning with 1934 when he received the highest vote ever polled by a candidate up to that time. He has always retained his interest in Springfield and its problems and consented to run for office only after groups and individuals prevailed on him to run for the vacancy on the Township Committee.

Other military personnel attending the dinner dance were Lt. Col. Frank Johnson, Deputy Wing Commander of the New Jersey Wing of the Civil Air Patrol; Lt. Col. Arthur A. Hertel, Director of Operations, and Major John E. Sasse, Director of Public Information.

Township Committeeman Eugene P. Donnelly acted as toastmaster of the evening and did a real professional job in keeping the program moving at all times. James M. Gwily, Commander of the local American Legion Post, opened the evening's program by leading the singing of the National Anthem with Mrs. John Billings leading the song and Mrs. Raymond Forbes at the piano. Rev. Father John Mahon of St. James Roman Catholic Church gave the invocation.

Everett R. Spear, president of the Springfield Republican Club, set the tempo of the evening by quickly and warmly welcoming the guests and giving much praise to the members of the dinner committee.

Report Cases Of Mumps On Increase Here

A mild epidemic of mumps with several adults affected, is giving health authorities some concern in Springfield although there seems to be very little chance that the spread will continue. Several grown-ups have been reported in the past few weeks as being confined to their homes with mumps and the reports have it that a great number of the youngsters have "come down" with German measles, chicken pox and mumps.

There is no official report on the number because, according to Township officials, the New Jersey State Board of Health no longer requires that cases of mumps, chicken pox and German measles need be reported. This relaxing of the health regulations, according to Dr. Henry P. Dengler, Springfield Health Officer, is causing considerable concern since there is no quarantine of the affected children.

It has been suggested that the Springfield Board of Education reinstate the regulation prohibiting children to attend school despite the ruling of the State Board of Health. It was further pointed out that the State Board of Health has relaxed the rules only for German measles, chicken pox and mumps and only those three need not be reported. All other communicable diseases must be reported immediately.

There is no cause for alarm because of the number of mild cases of mumps, both children and adults, but local health authorities should be reportable and the seriousness measured by the proper health officers in the township.

Swimming Club Seeks Members

The announcement that a swimming pool is being planned for Springfield brought in such a fine response from those who indicated a desire to belong to such a club, that the organizing group is already exploring several sites for the outdoor pool.

The announcement in last week's issue contained a coupon which appears in today's Sun on page 5. The organizing group is anxious to get the names of all people interested in such a swimming pool so that there might be some idea as to the area needed for all summer recreation facilities.

Women Voters In Springfield Form League

Mrs. Elliott Mandl, temporary chairman of the steering committee, presided at the pre-organizational meeting of the League of Women Voters of Springfield at Town Hall last Thursday evening with a very enthusiastic gathering present.

Mayor Albert G. Binder extended a warm welcome and stressed the importance of women becoming more interested in civic affairs. He also urged better attendance at township meetings. Mrs. Kenneth Bandomer, program chairman, introduced Mrs. M. E. Strieby, past president of Millburn-Short Hills League, who discussed some of her experiences as a League member and of the necessity to know how to vote and not just where to vote. She described the Voters' Service which gives complete information on all candidates with questions and answers on important issues. League members also notify all new residents in town of where and when to register and vote. The League is represented at all Board of Education meetings, township meetings, and state legislative meetings. Mrs. Strieby expressed the keen satisfaction in working in a democratic, non-partisan organization like the League toward a better, more efficient and responsible form of government.

Mrs. Rome Betts, of Summit, state chairman and third vice-president of the League of Women Voters of New Jersey, briefly told how a temporary League was formed after the first World War by a group of women eager to know more about politics, candidates, and primarily how to use their newly-won privilege of voting. Their three objectives: to educate women to vote, to work for needed legislation, and to arouse citizens for the need to know their government ultimately led to the formation of what is now known as The League of Women Voters of the U. S.

In an effort to step up strict adherence to the Springfield sanitary regulations, Dr. Henry P. Dengler, health officer here, is supervising a rigorous inspection campaign to make certain that all local restaurants, candy and ice cream stores and establishments, handling food, comply with all local health rules. Inspectors, assigned by Dr. Dengler, have been making spot calls on all establishments and taking samples of laboratory tests.

Date Set for 8th Annual Lions Show

The 8th edition of BROADWAY VARIETIES, an annual Springfield family get-together sponsored by the local Lions Club, will soon be here again. Timothy Sheehan, 1st Vice-President and Show Chairman, has announced that the 1934 edition will be held in the Regional High School Auditorium on Friday evening, April 30th.

Committee Chairmen, announced are: Al Bowman, Entertainment; Frank Kerr, Auditorium and Ushers; Arnold Hutcheson, Tickets; Clifford Zimmer, Programs; Jay Longfield, Publicity; and Charles Huff, Treasury.

Ticket sales are being handled in a novel manner under the leadership of Majors Charles Quinzel, Engel Hershey and William Rein, each head of a team group. Each Lion is a member of one of the following teams headed by its own Captain: Bonus, Robert Briggs; Wildcat, Edward Wronsky; Jaguar, Charles Justice; Gnu, George Glim; Kangaroo, Herbert Kern; Minx, John Martin; Gazelle, Joseph Gallini; Buffalo, David Brost; Percupine, William Perelli.

In spite of the excellence of previous shows, Al Bowman, general entertainment Chairman, guarantees that this year's extravaganza will be the best ever.

The results of these tests are processed by the Board of Health and the establishment then receives a letter either stating approval of the inspection or instructions to eliminate whatever is not up to standards.

The campaign for a complete sanitary check up of every establishment will continue with the idea that all those places where food is intended for sale for human consumption shall be provided with adequate facilities for the treatment of cooking utensils by boiling water, or steam under pressure, or by other means which shall yield the same results; and all utensils such as pots, pans, dishes, plates, saucers, glasses, and other containers used for food, and all knives, forks and food implements shall be subjected to treatment with boiling water or steam under pressure, for at least three minutes after each service, or by such other method that effective sterilization of each article shall be properly carried out.

This particular section is the object of inspection at the moment and any violation, if not immediately corrected, may cause the revocation of the permit which entitles the establishment to do business in Springfield.

The Board of Health inspectors make swab tests on all glasses, cups and other utensils which are sent to the laboratory. Those whose tests meet the Board of Health requirements receive a letter to that effect.

You Can Vote on Bingo Without Declaring

Those who want to vote on the bingo and raffles referendum in the primary elections here, April 20, can do so without casting their ballots for any of the candidates, according to Township Clerk Eleonore Worthington.

Many voters keep away from the polling places in a primary because they have to declare themselves by asking for either a Republican or Democratic ballot. The voting machine is then adjusted so that the selection for either party will be registered on the machine.

If a voter wants to cast a ballot for or against the bingo and raffles questions, he can come to his polling place and ask merely to vote on these special questions without declaring himself.

Hadassah to Hear Guest Speaker

Mrs. Max Schenk, chairman of the national Hadassah Medical Organization, will be the guest speaker at the Millburn-Springfield Hadassah's donor luncheon March 24 at the Condo. She will speak on "Present Day Israel."

Mrs. Schenk was a former president of Sidney, Australia where she served as the vice president and president of the New South Wales Council of the Women's International Zionist Organization. She was also national vice president of the International Zionist Organization. During the summer of 1932, Mrs. Schenk visited Israel for four months.

Former Mayor Robert W. Marshall, who seeks the Re- publican nomination for the spot on the Township Committee in the coming pri- mary scramble, announced yesterday that he is organiz- ing the kind of a campaign committee that will fight for the nomination right to finish.

"I want the people of Springfield to know, said Marshall in a statement issued last night, that I am in this primary campaign to win. I have had six years' experience with the governing body and I know what Springfield needs—our problems and how to cure some of the ills. My future is here—my business is here and I want my many supporters to know that I will give them the kind of government we need if they nominate me and elect me in November.

"I'm not in this race just to offer taken opposition. I want to win—I want to be on our Township Committee and we're going to stage the kind of a campaign that will acquaint every voter in the Township with the kind of a job I can do with the right kind of cooperation from the other members of the governing body."

Marshall promises to name members of his working committee early next week at which time, he says, his own campaign will be in full swing. Marshall's supporters point out that he lost in last year's primary by a scant eight votes and it is their contention that most of these supporters will again be on his team on April 20. Workers are being enlisted in all districts and door bell ringing on behalf of Marshall will start immediately, according to one of his spokesmen.

ON THE SUNNY SIDE

There used to be a well worn political axiom—usually, drooling from the mouths of the old-line machine bosses— which pointed to the very logical conclusion that "if you can't beat 'em—join 'em."

Which, when interpreted by the public-relations man, meant that those leaders of splinter factions that have been stubbornly throwing obstacles in the path of campaign successes—would eventually give up the lone fight and join the organization.

All of which brings us to the question which inspired the above—"what will the 1200 citizens who voted the Independent ticket last November—what will they do this year?"

With Francis J. Keane, one of the Independent candidates who polled 1081 votes in last November's election, coming back for action with the regular Democratic organization in Springfield, and with Thomas A. Argyris, Keane's running mate as an Independent who received 1209 ballots in November, taking a very active role in the Republican party campaign this year—where are those Independent voters going?

However, Springfield still has a two party system which is very healthy. The scramble to win the support of this large Independent group will start with the coming primary, although the real decision may be reached in the regular elections.

Waiting for the dessert to be served Friday night at the Baltusrol Golf Club where the Springfield Republican Club held its dinner and dance, we had an opportunity to look around and be impressed by the array of political talent and "top brass" still engrossed in the main course.

And the thought occurred that there must be something in Springfield that attracts Freeholder "Al" Benninger, Senator Kenneth C. Hand, Assemblywoman Florence Dwyer and a host of other Union County "big wigs" especially since there were four or five other functions throughout the county on the same evening.

Even the candidates in the coming primary evidently think Springfield is an excellent campaign battle ground because they were all present Friday night and wherever you looked, you were pretty sure to see, at least, one candidate for Congress.

Which brings us down to the real crux—when do these leaders "tap" some one from Springfield and ask him to run for office. Certainly there must be any number of capable men in the Township who should be given a chance to try for one of these places on the ticket. Congressional and freeholder candidates from every part of Union County—but the leaders still scout up Morris avenue, by-passing Springfield in their haste to get to Summit or Union or Elizabeth—but never stopping here to see what the Township has to offer.

Morris avenue merchants, as a rule, are pretty good housekeepers but some of them depend too much on the strong winds to brush away some of the scrap paper accumulated during the day. The result is that a great deal of this scrap paper is scattered all over Morris avenue and very often collects in a messy looking pile—usually in front of a residence or the door of some innocent storekeeper who makes a great effort to keep the front of his place "ready for inspection."

The rules might have changed—but in the old days, the last thing the errand boy or the boss himself used to do before closing the door, was to get on the business end of a broom and do a real sweeping job in front of his place. And it wasn't pushed out into the gutter to let the Gulf Stream wait it up or down Morris avenue.

The National Open golf championship is coming to Baltusrol this June—and ten or twenty thousand people who have never been to Springfield will see our township during that tournament. It is hoped that civic pride will inspire everyone—businessman, industrialist, and all residents to do some real window dressing and always be prepared for visitors. Pieces of paper, picked up by every gust of wind, can spoil all the window dressing.

Voters elect local officials to run their municipalities, boards of education to conduct the operations of their school districts, and freeholders to direct their county governments, but the State Legislature each year enacts more bills taking away from local officers more of the authority and responsibility to do the jobs for which they were elected by their neighbors.

The current Legislature, reports the New Jersey Taxpayers Association, has before it many bills proposing to tie further the hands of the men and women who were elected to run the local governments.

Under various measures now pending—
—All school districts with more than 1,000 pupils in daily attendance would be required to hire a full time school nurse;
—Local school boards would be required to pay and promote school teachers in accordance with a state-imposed minimum teachers' salary schedule;

—Local school and county officials would be required to pay the cash equivalent to employees who do not use the sick leave granted under present state law;
—Local and county offices would be required to close on Saturdays throughout the year under one measure, while another would close them on Saturdays during the summer months only;

—Monmouth and Atlantic counties would be required to pay their sheriff, county clerk and surrogate $10,000 a year each under one bill, while other measures would adjust salaries of various county officers throughout the state;
—A 40-hour week would be established for county, municipal and school district employees;

—A 56-hour week would be fixed for firemen in local, paid fire departments.
Behind these and other similar bills, the Association points out, is a question that all citizens should ponder—whether the time honored rights of local self government are to be preserved.

The Intermediate Group, in the Brookline Group Mrs. Gold's Troop 18 won top honors with Mrs. Hoppling's Troop 15 a close second.

Major Albert G. Binder, in a very interesting talk, gave official welcome to the gathering and then introduced members of the official family as well as the two candidates for the forthcoming primary contest in Springfield, former Township Committee member Harold G. Nenninger and former Mayor Robert W. Marshall, all of whom received enthusiastic rounds of applause. County and Springfield Republican Chairman Charles G. Beardsley introduced all the "top brass" of Union County as well as the current candidates for office.

The high spot of the evening was the very interesting and enlightening address by Mr. White who was introduced by Hon. Florence P. Dwyer, member of the New Jersey Legislature, and a great favorite in Springfield. Mr. White told the gathering of the job being done by the administration in streamlining the Air Force, cutting down on the costs while increasing the efficiency of the department. He knew his subject very well and, despite the fact that he had to deal with figures and statistics, his delivery was perfect and the topic very timely.

Swimming Club

project is not connected with the plan announced in the Springfield Sun several weeks ago concerning a Westfield group's promotion of a swimming club in Mountainside.

The enthusiastic response to that request for members was responsible for the forming of a Springfield group to explore the possibilities of a swimming pool in the Township.

Last week's issue brought a flood of coupons with names and addresses of those who are interested. Another coupon appears in today's issue and the organizing group wants to make it clear that it is not yet ready to divulge details and that no one is obligated in any way or committed to membership even though they do send in their names. As soon as enough names have been received, a meeting will be called and the entire plan discussed.

Those who are interested and have not yet sent in the coupon with name and address are asked to do so at once.

GOP

mittee who made the affair possible, "Bill" Jensen, who is also first vice president of the Republican Club, was chairman of the committee on arrangements with Jane Hutchinson, Mrs. Amy Bandemer, Mrs. Myrtle Post, Mrs. Ann Binder, Mrs. Georgia McMullen and Mrs. Jeanne Haas as members.

Major Albert G. Binder, in a very interesting talk, gave official welcome to the gathering and then introduced members of the official family as well as the two candidates for the forthcoming primary contest in Springfield, former Township Committee member Harold G. Nenninger and former Mayor Robert W. Marshall, all of whom received enthusiastic rounds of applause. County and Springfield Republican Chairman Charles G. Beardsley introduced all the "top brass" of Union County as well as the current candidates for office.

The high spot of the evening was the very interesting and enlightening address by Mr. White who was introduced by Hon. Florence P. Dwyer, member of the New Jersey Legislature, and a great favorite in Springfield. Mr. White told the gathering of the job being done by the administration in streamlining the Air Force, cutting down on the costs while increasing the efficiency of the department. He knew his subject very well and, despite the fact that he had to deal with figures and statistics, his delivery was perfect and the topic very timely.

Daly Will Run For Freeholder

Eugene E. Daly, of Summit, who is a candidate for the Republican nomination for both Freeholder and member of the Common Council of Ward 2, yesterday issued a statement declaring that he was "definitely" in both races despite efforts being made to have him withdraw.

Daly said, "I have been urged to withdraw from the Freeholder contest by Victor Samuel of Summit, a member of the Good Government Republicans of Union County. The suggestion he made that I quit the primary election to me seems in very bad taste."

"Mr. Samuel urged that I concentrate my efforts on my campaign for the Summit Council but I intend to wage a vigorous campaign for both nominations and told Mr. Samuel so," Daly said.

The BULLDOG BENCH

By Morris Weckstein

THE WESTFIELD GAME

Even though they were outscored from the floor, Regional led by the first period shooting of George McKenzie, beat the Westfield five, 51-45.

In the first period the squad from Westfield went ahead and were not overcome until the last quarter when the Bulldogs scored nine points. Regional had only fifteen two pointers to Westfield's seven-point, but they sank twenty-one foul shots, while Westfield only scored fourteen.

In the first three quarters Regional scored a total of thirty-two points to Westfield's thirty-seven, but in the last quarter led by George McKenzie and Fred Buehner the Regionals gained the lead and kept it to the final buzzer.

Fred Buehner and George McKenzie were tied for high scorers each with twelve points.

By beating Westfield, Regional got to play Linden where the Section two and Big Five championships were at stake.

THE LINDEN GAME

Linden went ahead to stay with less than two minutes remaining in the third quarter, after shifting back and forth with the Bulldogs for the lead. Tied 29 all, the Linden Tigers rallied on field goals by Don Winn and Bob Relesner and foul shots by Sam Pilot and Bob Hoffer to out-lead the Bulldogs by a seven point lead.

Regional pulled up to 37-31 as the final period opened and to 47-40 with two minutes left to play. Though Linden held on, freezing the ball, Regional cut the difference to 49-47 with 23 seconds to play. Then Sam Pilot of the Tigers dropped in two foul shots and the game ended with Linden ahead 51-47.

In this game the Bulldogs outscored Linden on field goals sixteen to fifteen, but this time Linden making 21 out of 32 extra points led Regional who had only fifteen extra pointers.

In this game Fred Buehner was high scorer with sixteen tallies while Tom Luckie had second with eleven markers.

LETTER MEN

Of the nine courtiers who have earned their letters this season there were five from Springfield. They are: Joe Schaffernoth, Ray Reiff, Les Lavin, Bob Bolles, and Curt Merz. The other boys who will receive their letters will be Tom Luckie, Fred Buehner, George McKenzie, and Bob Arthur.

BASEBALL

As the practice for baseball gets under way there are 60 freshmen and sophomores, and 65 juniors and seniors who came out for the team. As of yet Coach Bill Brown hasn't decided who will comprise the first team, and so far only five men are known probable starters. They are Joe Schaffernoth, Ray Reiff of Springfield who will play pitcher and infield respectively, George McKenzie will have an outfield post, and Ed Ruby and Bob Bauer will cover two infield berths.

In the first week of the season there will be six games, three varsity and three Jay Vee. The first game will be with Summit at home on April 6, the second away at Scotch Plains on the 8th, and then back for the third game on the 10th with Woodbridge.

SCHOOL WRESTLING

At this time in Regional High, a policy of student wrestling training is being instituted. The athletic department has supplemented for a period of five weeks, wrestling instruction, in place of the regular physical ed. program.

After the instruction all the boys in the school are classified by weights and given a time when they will wrestle. If the student wins his match in his gym class then he gets a chance to wrestle winners from the other gym classes. The winners in each weight class for all the gym classes will be awarded a medal. So far the contents are still going on, but by next week a list of winners will be published.

NOVICE WRESTLING

In the Union County Novice Wrestling Tournament that was held at Union High on March 9, Regional sent seven representatives, of whom four placed. Curt Frenzel came in first in the 148 pound class, Ed Bles of Springfield took a second in the 114 pound class, while Ike Williams and Bob Schwarz both took seconds in the 121 and 140 pound classes respectively.

Nats Nip Knicks in Overtime 44-42 As Celtics Overcome Lakers 73-55

The most interesting double-header of the Springfield Recreation Youth Basketball program was played last Saturday afternoon at the James Caldwell School which was witnessed by a score of girls and boys, plus several parents. The attendance was remarkably large in spite of the heavy rain, but those that came to see the play-off finals, were impressed with the caliber of basketball played by our Springfield youth.

In the first game of the twin bill Carl "Sonny" Haubold, Bobby Keith, and big Ray Hawryluk, high scoring trio of the Champion Celtics, clicked for the top scoring effort of the basketball campaign, racking up seventy-three points, while the Lakers with Al "Ace" Parker, scored fifty-five. The combined points of the two clubs amounted to one hundred and twenty-eight, which gives you an idea of how well the boys were hitting on their shots. Last week the Celtics missed their shot artist Sonny Haubold who was out due to illness, being their only game of the season to the Knicks. With Haubold back again the Celtics were on the beam, scoring twenty or more points in the last three periods after opening with eleven in the first. The score at halftime was 31-28 with the Celtics ahead, but the Lakers defense collapsed in the third quarter, the Celtics scoring twenty-two points on fast breaks, but for the most part on a fast break for the basket.

The top game of the season followed as the Nats staged a hang-up finish to snatch play-off honors with a great clutch set shot by Capt. Butch Rubin with one second remaining, Jim Funcheon scoring on a short side court set in overtime to give the Nats a hard earned 44-42 victory. It was a tough loss for the Knicks as they looked like sure winners with about a half minute to go, but let the ball on a center jump, the Nats trying hard to work the ball into a scoring position. Capt. Butch Rubin then called time, with the time clock showing one second remaining. On the throw in to the keyhole, Rubin caught the ball, wheeled and let the ball ride, the ball swishing the net. In the two minute overtime, Funcheon scored on a short side court set, the Knicks missed several shots, the Nats then gained possession to freeze for the remaining moments.

Basketball Note—The smallest boys in the Springfield Youth League (5'3") were: Bill Brown, 5'3"; Tom Luckie, 5'3"; Ray Reiff, 5'3"; Les Lavin, 5'3"; Bob Bolles, 5'3"; Curt Merz, 5'3"; George McKenzie, 5'3"; and Bob Arthur, 5'3".

Other members of the Springfield Junior Rifle Club who competed in the Connecticut State Rifle and Revolver Club tournament at New Haven last Saturday and came home with five Lyman Merit medals.

The following who fired in the Junior class received the medals: Douglas Bell, Willard Fischer, William Lynn, Edward Bles and William Coomb. Bell received an additional medal for shooting the high score on the junior team while Bill Kealey was given a medal for high score in the sub-junior class.

Other members of the Springfield Junior Rifle Club who competed in New Haven were: Jack Schwartz and Theodore Morgan.

The Springfield Junior Rifle Club sharpshooters, sponsored by the Springfield PBA, Local 76, gave a pretty good account of themselves in a three way match with Mountain Lakes and the Randolph clubs recently on the latter's Mine Hill range although the scores show that the team finished third.

Lack of practice was attributed by Patrolman John Wentz, club instructor, for the low scores of some of the local shooters. Plans are being made to bring the same three teams together for a match on the Springfield range.

Following are the scores of the match:

Mrs. Dominic Casternova, 158 Hillside avenue; Mrs. Wilfred Cleworth, 60-A Wabeno avenue; Mrs. Marietta Parkhurst, 162 Hill lane, Mountaineer; and Mrs. Mathew Simmons, 166 Short Hill avenue. It is a pleasure to have these women become affiliated with our club and we hope they soon will become active in our various departments.

The Springfield Woman's Club was honored on Club Night by the presence of Mrs. State Federation officers, Mrs. Merle Unger of Maplewood, State Drama Chairman, and Mrs. Vivian P. La Sala of Springfield, Fifth District College Chairman, were introduced to members of the audience by Club President Mrs. Morton D. Williams.

Once again, Mrs. Watts Chapin and members of her Hospitality Committee made the refreshment part of the evening a memorable one. Using a St. Patrick's Day motif, the table was attractively arranged using the colors of green and white. Small pots of shamrocks were set on the table. A variety of Danish pastry was served with tea or coffee by Mrs. Chapin and her co-workers, who on this occasion were Mesdames Joseph Hill, Bertram Fahs, Bruce Cameron, and Arthur Deuser. As a surprise to members of the Ministerial Show east and Production Staff, Mrs. Chapin prepared a most refreshing bowl of punch which was ready and waiting after the evening's performance. Mrs. Chapin and members of her committee are more than worthy of the many expressions of gratitude extended them for their gracious hospitality.

Thanks, too, are in order for Mrs. Christian Anderson and her Garden Department members for the beautiful floral table arrangement used on Club Night and for the attractive corsages of red gladiolus which were presented to Mrs. Morton D. Williams, Mrs. Merle Unger, and to all the members of the Production Staff of the Ministerial Show. In addition to the lovely red tulip centerpiece, Mrs. Anderson had made a miniature replica of the stage showing Mr. Interlocutor, the "End Men" and some of the "Mummies" and from all reports it was a real work of art.
