Jewish Group Buys Chateau Baltusrol

Chateau Baltusrol, one of Springfield's old landmarks, passed out of the picture as the scene of many local functions and public meetings with the announcement that the property has been sold to the Springfield Jewish Community Group. Negotiations for the sale of the property were started early in March but the deal was not consummated until this week when all the necessary papers were signed and the group now has permanent facilities.

The Chateau, on a plot of ground approximately 5 1/2 acres, was adapted to serve the local Jewish Community Group's needs including a place of worship, Sunday school, social functions and recreational programs. Terms of men and women, all members of the (Continued on page 5)

NEW HOME OF JEWISH COMMUNITY GROUP—Announcement was made yesterday that Chateau Baltusrol, shown above, has been sold to Springfield organization.

Antique Fanciers Flock To Exhibit

Springfield literally was a mecca for all antique lovers this week. The twelfth annual Antique Show and Sale, sponsored by the Ladies Benevolent Society was held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week in the Presbyterian Parish House. Lunches were served and dinner on Tuesday and Wednesday while tea and baked goods were available throughout each day.

This exhibit is the oldest one in the Springfield-Millburn area. A few years ago this show received nationwide publicity through a special article published by the "American Home" magazine.

Because of its fine setting, this show has always attracted exhibitors from distances. Twenty-one exhibitors participated in the show representing shops in Montclair, the Oranges, New York City, Whippany, Calton and Millburn. Mrs. Donald Maxwell will mark her twelfth consecutive year with the show. An added attraction to the show this year is Mrs. Alice Beatty of Montclair with a hooked rug display. Mrs. Emil Meyer and Mrs. Rodney Smith, chairman and co-chairman, have again done an excellent job of securing dealers.

The Ladies Benevolent Society of the Presbyterian Church will meet on Wednesday, April 7, in the Parish House. Guest speaker will be Mr. Armand Divas of Guatemala, presently a student at Princeton Theological Seminary, who will speak on his motives for entering the ministry. Mr. Divas came to this country originally to study engineering. Miss Mary Ruth Muffley, also a student at the Seminary and presently serving this church as student advisor in Christian Education, will also address the group. Special music will be provided.

Plans are under way for the annual May luncheon to be held at the Millburn Inn on May 5 at which time all new members will be honored.

Congressional Record Prints Editorial Taken from Sun

An editorial taken from the Springfield Sun issue of February 25, 1954, has been reprinted in the Congressional Record as part of the proceedings and debates of the 83rd Congress on Wednesday, March 17, 1954, at the request of Senator Estes Kefauver.

Senator Estes Kefauver, of Tennessee, in the Senate of the United States, Wednesday, March 17, 1954, on page A2226 of the Congressional Record-Appendix: "Mr. Kefauver. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to have printed in the Appendix of the Record an editorial entitled 'Meet Your Congressman' in the Springfield Sun, Springfield, N. J., which gives an excellent descriptive picture of a new, intelligent and progressive young Representative in Congress, Mr. Harrison Williams. It is a refreshing editorial about a fine young man."

Lions Club To Honor Regional Varsity Squad

The Lions Club of Springfield will honor the regional high school varsity basketball squad and coaches at the Orchard Inn this Friday night. A suitable program has been announced which should be of interest to the Lions and their guests.

Lion Joe Focht speaking as a member of the Board of Managers of The American Cancer Society of Union County was pleased to announce that, even though the forthcoming drive for funds to be conducted in town is not one of the Lion Club's many projects, all of the male members comprising the committee for local fund raising is a member of the Lions Club. He asked for continued support in this worthy project.

At a recent meeting the Lions had as their guests approximately 35 Den Mothers and Fathers of the local Cub Scout organization. All packs were represented and stayed to enjoy a very worthwhile piece of entertainment provided by Jack London who had a full bag of magical tricks.

First Vice President "Tim" Shevan speaking at last week's meeting in behalf of the program committee for the forthcoming Lions Club annual Varsity Show reminded the members that the time is drawing close for an accounting of the sales of advertising and tickets in connection with the show.

LET THE WORK PROCEED

No one has been a more enthusiastic or aggressive advocate in the idea that all future construction in Springfield should conform—wherever possible—to Colonial design in architecture as the Springfield Sun. We still believe in it but not to the point of hysteria or to obstructing or delaying a development that has been months—years in the making.

Last week Building Inspector Reuben H. Marsh issued the necessary permits for the construction of the shopping center at the corner of Morris and Flermer avenues. Springfield's officials have approved the plans, the police and fire departments inspected them thoroughly and everybody signed them. Word from the office of Nicholas Angleton, head of the organization that will build this shopping center, announced that ground will be broken on this worthwhile project, probably, this month and the work rushed so that the lessees can aim at Fall openings.

Some discussion has been heard in Springfield deploring the fact that the plans, as accepted and approved by the Township, do not show any Colonial design. Some of the more ardent devotees of this traditional style of architecture have asked for a meeting of various civic groups to discuss the possibility of requesting that blue prints be changed so as to conform, in some degree, to Colonial design.

The Sun still believes Springfield deserves permanent examples of historical values—but the timing is bad. Picking up all the loose ends in such a project as the proposed shopping center entailed considerable patience—selling and details. The package is complete—all the necessary signatures are on the papers—and NOTHING SHOULD BE DONE TO HINDER OR DELAY THIS JOB. The time to have insisted when the plans were being drawn, when the architect started preparing for all the details in handling the many leases.

We have never met Mr. Angleton and we haven't discussed this matter with him or any of his representatives. But we have gone through the back files of the Springfield Sun and there is every reason to believe that he wouldn't stand for being tripped up again—or even delayed at this point. Neither would we. If Grand Union, J. J. Newberry, Miles Shoe Store, Morey LaRue and the other tenants have decided on the style of store fronts—they want—and the leases were signed with those plans made a part of the contract—Mr. Angleton has every right in the world to proceed without any sentiment being cooked up against the center. And, it is hoped that Springfield will encourage and accept this spending of a half million dollars here without repeating another All State Insurance—or any of the other big ones that got away.

Former Sun Editor Enters Campaign for Bob Marshall

Support for the candidacy of former Mayor Robert W. Marshall for the Republican nomination for the township committee today came from an unexpected source as Ray Bell, for many years editor of the Springfield Sun, endorsed the former chief executive.

Meanwhile the primary campaign increased in intensity as members of the other faction of the party made frantic efforts to head off the Good Government division led by Marshall and Township Committeeman Charles Remlinger.

Political observers conceded today that the Marshall-Remlinger-Good Government group was making pronounced progress in presenting the program of the former Mayor to the people. Reports were to the effect that Marshall workers have been lining up support in all of Springfield's six districts.

Meanwhile voters studied the letter of Bell, which is printed today in the Sun. The former newsmen, who is well known here as a result of his six years of tenure as editor of the Sun prior to sale of the newspaper nearly eighteen months ago to its present owners, came out for Marshall with no reservations.

The former editor was outspoken in his communication when he expressed agreement with the content of the program outlined by Remlinger that "Springfield cannot afford to be without a man of Bob Marshall's experience on the governing board."

Bell struck a blow at those who have been opposing Marshall when he said, "In my opinion Marshall's devotion to his work as a township committeeman, his knowledge of the township and his administrative ability to date.

Martin who lives at 445 Morris avenue is employed as an engineer by the Bell Telephone Laboratories in Murray Hill. He is a member of the Springfield Lions Club.

Official opening of the campaign, Pocht said, will be Thursday, April 1st which is in conformity with the month of April being designated as Cancer Month. A full list of the committee members will be announced shortly.

Policemen Receive Special Diplomas

Detective Vincent C. Pinkava and Patrolmen Germit Tompkins and Lucille Bell, recently received certificates from the fingerprint identification school sponsored by the Union County Police Chiefs Association.

The course which ran for five weeks was conducted under the leadership of Alfred A. Little, Union County Identification Officer.

Nenninger Backers Reply To Marshall

Marchev Makes Statement With Marshall As Target

Former Mayor Robert W. Marshall who is opposing Robert G. Nenninger for the Republican nomination as Township Committeeman, is made the target of a very biting statement by George B. Marchev, as follows:

"For several years and through two hard fought campaigns, my friends and I have done our best to bring fresh air and light to our local government. As independents we were clearly part of no faction, with no ambitions, and with nothing to gain but satisfaction of our political beliefs."

"Whereas I still believe the full campaign should provide a contest where the people will name the best man as their choice, it is imperative that the voters be given an intelligent choice, rather than the lesser of two evils. Therefore, the issues and personalities of the primary become important. I would not be consistent in my conviction if I stood by and watched this particular primary. The selection of Bob Marshall would, in my opinion, be turning back the clock, and a blow to our new found lease on progress. The very record he runs on is the overwhelming reason for his position; never have I seen such consistent lack of decision, or more skillful fence-straddling. We, the people, know his record; hear it in mind."

"Like the practical political purist that he has learned to be, Bob Marshall infers that he was honest and that others were not. This (Continued on page 5)

C. E. Huntley Promoted By Western Elec.

Clifford E. Huntley

An organization change affecting the Western Electric Company's Kenney, N. J. Works and general headquarters in New York will become effective April 1 with the promotion of Clifford E. Huntley of 101-A Forest drive, in the post of eastern installation manager of the company. He has been Kenney Works superintendent of equipment engineering since September, 1952.

Huntley will be succeeded by Kenneth G. Griggs, Westfield, an assistant superintendent since 1947.

In his new assignment, Huntley succeeds Siegmund P. Schwartz of Maywood, who becomes assistant project manager—logistics in the radio division of Western Electric at 120 Broadway, New York City.

Huntley is a graduate of Syracuse University with an electrical engineering degree. He has been with the company since 1923 and has held a variety of shop and engineering assignments at Kenney since his transfer from the Hawthorne Works in 1928.

NOTICE TO THOSE WHO WANT TO VOTE ON BINGO

Springfield citizens may vote on the question of permitting bingo to be played here on April 20 without declaring themselves—which means without stating to the election officials whether they are Republicans or Democrats.

You can go to the polls—the polling place in your district—on Tuesday, April 20, and simply ask to vote on the bingo and raffish question. You don't have to vote for any of the candidates running in the primary. You will just vote "yes" or "no" on the bingo question and no one need know of your political party leanings.

Naturally, if you want to participate in the primary election and vote for your own candidates on the ticket, you must state that you wish to vote in the Republican primary—since there are no contests on the Democratic ballot. You can then also vote on the bingo question.

But you DO NOT have to declare that you are either Republican or Democrat in the coming primary, April 20, if you just want to vote on bingo. Go to the polls and cast your ballot on this one question if that is all that interests you in this election.

To Present Water Fountain To Town

The Springfield Jewish Community Group will honor the memory of one of their charter members on Sunday, April 4, at 2 p.m. when they will present a water fountain in the Trwin Street Playground to the Township.

The dedication ceremonies, in memory of Ida Shepard, will include the singing of the Star Spangled Banner by Irving Krammerman, the group's cantor and a eulogy by Mrs. Sanford Kessler, a close personal friend of the late Mrs. Shepard.

Mayor Albert Binder will accept the fountain on behalf of the Township, which will be presented by Raymond Remlinger, Boy Scout Troop 62 will form an honor guard. The public is invited.

Jay Levins, one of Springfield's most articulate boosters, takes former Mayor Robert W. Marshall to task not only as a private citizen but also as Chairman of the Committee for Harold Nenninger, for statements made in last week's issue of the Springfield Sun as part of the campaign for Township Committee in the forthcoming primaries.

"Mr. Levins' attack on the kid gloves in aiming his verbal guns at Marshall which should increase the tempo of the campaign to nominate the man who will be on the Republican ticket for Township Committee in the general elections this Fall.

Following is the complete text of Mr. Levins' statement:

"If there were any evidence of dishonesty," said Mayor Binder, "Marshall should have told his story to Springfield residents when he discovered it. He should have named people involved and he owed to those whom he represented to speak out at that time instead of condoning whatever he says he discovered."

"Bob Marshall should be called upon to prove his charges or retract his accusations or bring nothing but political fodder. These are insinuations I don't have to take and all people who know me resent it. It wasn't fair."

"The writer feels drawn into a personal issue with Robert Marshall on his release to the Springfield Sun. It was my belief that the campaign of the Republican Party of Springfield was between two candidates who should prove their qualifications for the Township Committee. I find Marshall tying and hanging onto the coattails of a great man rather than use his own popularity.

Legion Post Urges "Yes" Bingo Vote

"Tin Hats," official publication of the Springfield American Legion Post, asks its members to vote "yes" on the bingo question in the coming primary election April 20.

"At the last election," the bulletin states, "we all voted for legalized bingo and raffish. This was an issue which all veteran organizations backed and voted for. As everyone knows the bill was passed. Now it is up to all of us, who voted 'yes,' to vote 'yes' again to legalize bingo and raffish in our town. Don't let your fellow veterans down now. Vote in the rest of the ballot. Vote your own party—choice, Republican, Democrat or Independent, as long as it isn't Red."

Will Stage Show For 1st Aid Benefit

IN PREPARATION OF FIRST AID BENEFIT—Mrs. Norris Donagan, end-man of the Women's Club minstrelers, puts on more make-up as Miss Evelyn Porter, interactor, lends a hand with a mirror in the women get set for the show to be presented tomorrow night in behalf of the Springfield First Aid Squad.

A jammed house is expected at the James Caldwell School tomorrow night when "The Year Of Jubilo," a minstrel show with members of the Springfield Woman's Club in the cast, is to be presented for the benefit of the Springfield First Aid Squad. This hit was first presented for the annual husband's night on March 1 and so many people were unable to get in the auditorium that it was decided to repeat the entire show but for a benefit.

All the proceeds tomorrow night will go to the local First Aid Squad with tickets selling at $1 each.

Practically the same show will be presented with all the original members of the cast. Miss Evelyn Porter as Mr. Interactor whose performance was one of the big hits of the first show, will play that same role in tomorrow night's benefit.

Coles Visit Corning Plant

Mr. & Mrs. V. Cole of 78 So Maple Avenue recently visited the Corning Glass Center at Corning, N. Y. where they watched the actual hand-making of Stouvenor crystal and inspected the giant 200-inch mirror, the successful twin of which is in the Hale Telescope, Mt. Palomar, California.

ON THE HIT PARADE—A duet by Mrs. John Brown as Ruth, left, and Mrs. Dor Hesselgrave as Marian, singing "It's A Common Occurrence But, Gee, It's Nice" heard us one of the song hits in the 2-night "Capt. of Marring Marins" staged by the Fireside Group of the First Presbyterian Church last Thursday and Friday. Capacity crowds attended both performances and plans are being made to produce another show next year. The cast, spouses and friends were entertained at a party following Friday night's performance with Rev. and Mrs. Bruce Evans and Mrs. James Stewart heading the committee of hostesses. William Sweeney was director and Herbert Kern, musical director.

ROUND TWO...

NENNINGER

If I have not made my position perfectly clear, I should again like to remind the citizens that regardless of the tactics employed by my opponent and his organization, I will not abandon moral principles for the sake of reaching any goal. I have no fear that the people can see through the cloak of fictitious claims and false accusations and will rise to any challenge of their intelligence.

MARSHALL

This week I plan to use this column to familiarize you with various aspects of Springfield's municipal government—particularly as they concern me. Some readers have questioned me about a statement in my last week's column relative to an expression of doubt as to the sincerity of some of my former competitors in government. I am not backing down on that statement. Before this current campaign is completed I shall present to you specific facts. Township voters are entitled to this information and I can guarantee they will receive it before election day.

As I promised last week, I should like to use this column as a means of informing the public regarding my aims and beliefs because I sincerely believe in our town, its people and its institutions.

To constantly tear down, undermine and malign our town is to destroy its spirit, its faith, its pride and tradition, all of which have been created and preserved not by self-serving politicians but rather by the efforts of many unselfish men and women who have given their time and energy for the betterment of Springfield. I refer to the men and women who have served and are serving on the many non-paying organizations, such as the Zoning Board of Adjustment; the Planning Board; the Board of Education; the P. T. A.'s, Recreation Committees; Red Cross; the Veterans Organizations; the Chamber of Commerce; the Boy and Girl Scouts; the Cubs and the Brownies; the First Aid; the Volunteer Firemen; Civilian Defense; the Service and Civic Clubs; and many others, including members of the Township Government past and present who have served with honor.

We are the beneficiaries of the combined untiring efforts of these many groups, and to them should be given the credit for the progress of our town. My only desire is to be given the opportunity to make my contribution to government in the same spirit and towards the same end: to make our town a better place to live in. I believe in order to improve our government we must pattern it to business because that's essentially what it is. In any field of endeavor in which we may be engaged, we constantly seek and should seek methods of improvement. Sometimes, however, some of us are not concerned with the research and development of new and better techniques as applied to the solution of our public problems. The failure of business principles who see no value in the fact that sometimes we perhaps fail to realize that government is a business and should operate as such.

To run a government by good business methods, we must have men who not only have a knowledge of general business but the courage of their convictions to execute techniques that are accepted business practices. The individual stakes involved in the business of government are far too serious to each of us to permit the election of a candidate merely as an opportunity for him to admittedly indulge his hobby.

Your Township governing body is the Board of Directors of a $1 billion dollar corporation. All of us are stockholders in this corporation because government affects the lives and destinies of all; it functions on our money; it has no other source of income. Can we then afford to ignore it? In any business venture in which we have a stake, we must strive to elect a Board of Directors whose fitness for office was proved by factual accomplishment. Our interest should prompt us to be concerned as to how expensive and diversified a knowledge the particular candidate's business experience embraces. Your inquiry into the qualifications would include the latitude and range of his business experience, integrity, adaptability to modern methods and procedures; as well as the all-important quality of honesty and stability. Why not, therefore, the same search and concern in determining whom you would place in control of your government? Here, too, we all have a great stake for ourselves and our children.

SCRAP DRIVE, SUNDAY
This Sunday, April 4, is date set aside for the monthly scrap drive conducted by the Continental Post No. 328 of the American Legion.

Letters to Editor

Editor, The Sun:
I read with interest last week's statement in the Springfield Sun by Township Committeeman Charles Remlinger to the effect that Springfield cannot afford to be without a man of Bob Marshall's experience on the governing board. I am certainly in complete agreement with that contention.

I feel that possibly I am in the unique position of being able to view the Springfield political situation from an unbiased viewpoint. Living, and having my real estate business in Union Township, I have no axe to grind in Springfield. However, as many township residents recall, I was editor of the Springfield Sun for more than six years. During that time I feel that from a "behind the scenes" position I learned much about what actually goes on in Springfield.

During most of that period Bob Marshall was Mayor. Seldom in my twenty years as a newspaperman had I seen an elected representative so devoted as much time to his work on the township committee as did Bob Marshall. He may have made some mistakes at the start but what man in government doesn't when he is first feeling his way? However, Bob's asset was that he learned from his errors. My impression of other leaders in Springfield was that they continued to repeat their mistakes indicating they either were extremely stubborn or that they just weren't very bright.

Bob Marshall's devotion to his work as a township committeeman, his knowledge of the township in which he has lived most of his life, and his administrative ability to make clear-cut decisions (possibly something he learned as a captain in the Infantry) in my opinion stamp him without question as the best qualified man in either political party to succeed his friend and co-worker, the late Fred A. Brown, as a committeeman.

If I were a resident of Springfield I certainly would vote for Bob Marshall on April 20. In doing so I would feel that I had made a notable contribution toward assuring Springfield of a competent administrator on the township committee as well as an experienced and conscientious member of the governing board.

As I see it a vote for Bob Marshall is in iron-clad guarantee of good government for Springfield. RAY BELL.

Nenninger Backers

Nenninger's campaign committee quote "the group that refused to endorse Congressman Case when he announced he would seek the gubernatorial nomination last year" is untrue. This smacks of guilt by inference, which the record will show, the American public despises.

Both last year and this year my signature can be found on Case's petitions. I am speaking only of myself but I am certain, should Marshall spend the time before accusing, he would find many names of those on Nenninger's committee that also signed Case's petitions. I might also add: "Is it a sin to have a preference other than that of Marshall's? Must one always straddle the fence and later side in with favorable reaction?"

"May I again quote from Marshall's same release, from the fourth paragraph in honesty and efficiency in government. My only regret is that on occasions those who have been associated with me have not had the same standards," is untrue. If Marshall knew of any dishonesty and condoned this for six long years, it is my humble opinion that this alone should be enough for the people of Springfield to see that Marshall never again holds public office. It is also his duty to name names.

Both Nenninger and Marshall set on the Township Committee with the same members. Nenninger has a proven record of accomplished deeds with this committee. However Marshall states he could not get along with this committee. At a later date with new members on our Township Committee he was selected as their chairman. It is apparent that Marshall was given full support to do something for Springfield.

In the same issue of The Sun, it is also noted that Marshall is the perfect candidate. Let's not be so naive as to think of any man as perfect, lest he burst with his own importance.

"Again I say this campaign is between Nenninger and Marshall. Let's stick to facts."

Until the gutter perchab was introduced in 1848, golf balls were stuffed with feathers.

Woman's Club News

On Tuesday, March 23rd, the Clio Club of Roselle-Roselle Park was hostess to the Fifth District Spring Conference of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs. Nine members of the Springfield Women's Club attended the event. They were Club President Mrs. Merton D. Williams, past-president, Mrs. J. Frank Jakobsen, Mrs. Adam La Sota, Mrs. Carl Ledg, Mrs. Henry Ostrom, Mrs. Louis Schneider, Mrs. Christian Anderson, Mrs. Vincent Bonadies, and Mrs. John S. Trout.

The all day conference, which was divided into two sessions was presided over by Fifth District Vice-President Mrs. Stratton H. Davis, of Plainfield. Mrs. Davis used as her theme "Fellowship and Teamwork." Beginning promptly at 10:15 a.m. the conference opened with the singing of the National Anthem and the Pledge of Allegiance led by Mrs. Lyman H. partment Chairman. Mrs. Robert W. Cornelison of Somerville, a past president of the N. J. State Federation of Women's Clubs gave the invocation after which the visiting club women were welcomed to the Clio Club by its President, Mrs. F. A. Starkweather.

An address, "Freedom's Flowers" was delivered by Mrs. John E. Volkman, State Art Department Chairman. Mrs. Volkman stressed that "Art is for fun-Art is for everyone. The Fine Arts are Freedom's Flowers. Cultivate them well!"

Achievement reports were next given by club presidents. These were reports of accomplishment. It was gratifying to see how much the club were able to incorporate in their own groups from suggestions given by Department Chairman in their Five-Minute Forecasts at the Fall Conference held here in Springfield last October. From these, Achievement Reports new ideas were presented which might lend themselves very easily to club projects.

After a humorous skit presented by members of the Clio Club's

Dramatic Department, an address, "Everything Is On the Up and Up" was given by Miss Grace M. Freeman, State Education Department Chairman. The "Everything" in Miss Freeman's topic referred to the nation's birthrate, school enrollment, classroom requirements, shortage of teachers, cost of education, and the use of educational facilities through the media of radio and television. All of the afore mentioned subjects are definitely higher than at any other period in our national history and they are still soaring.

The morning session was adjourned for luncheon which was served in the First Presbyterian Church of Roselle by the members of the hostess club.

The afternoon session was opened by the Clio Club's Piano Quartette playing Von Weber's "Invitation to the Dance" and Fritz Kreisler's "Sobon Romanina." Mrs. Ralph C. Heath, State Historian led the reorganization of the Club Collect. Once again, Mrs. Davis presided and welcomed honored guests who included many State Federation officers and department chairmen.

Mrs. Bertram E. Stewart, of Union, who is a Convention Committee Member, gave a preview of

Local Optician Cited for Reducing Workers' Injuries

J. NORWOOD VAN NESS fitting safety glasses in program to cut down injuries of workers.

J. Norwood Van Ness, of 14 Alvin terrace, Springfield, and one of the prominent Guild Opticians of New Jersey, announced the opening of his new office at his residence where he plans to maintain a complete prescription laboratory. He will continue his offices at 570 Clinton avenue, Newark, but the better parking facilities at his Springfield residence will permit better service to those in this area.

The office hours for the Alvin Terrace service are from 9 to 12 noon and 1 to 5 p.m. every day except Wednesday and Sunday.

Mr. Van Ness is secretary of the State Board of Examiners of Dispensers and Technicians which is part of the New Jersey Department of Law and Public Safety, Division of Professional Boards. He is also president of the Guild of Prescription Opticians of New Jersey.

The February, 1954, issue of the Guild Guide, official publication of the Guild Opticians, printed the following article in which Mr. Van Ness is given quite a boost:

"If you are a camera fan and take your hobby seriously, there is a pretty good chance that you use a Weston Exposure Meter, for it has long been a high-quality product, much-favored by shutterbugs.

"The Weston people themselves, whose main plant is in Newark, are also quality-minded in what they require, at least in the way of services, for when it comes to their protective goggles program the dispensing is in the very capable hand of J. NORWOOD VAN NESS, Guild Optician.

"The success of this program, with the fitting in the hands of a competent person, is shown by the almost startling decline in the ratio of eye accidents.

"Van has not yet completed the job on all employees, but in just one department where eye injuries were averaging twenty-four per month before the safety program was set up, after the program was completed, the number of eye accidents has dropped to one per month.

Jerome J. Donovan, owner of the property cooperated fully with the comparatively young group because he was impressed by the sincerity and earnestness of the committee dealing with him in the purchase, and offered many concessions to make it possible for the Springfield group to close the deal. Bernard Lyons, of 129 Hawthorn avenue, is chairman of the group's land committee which consists of Milton Kappstatter, Nat Sherman, Raymond Baumrind, Abner Gold, H. Leo Sarokin, the Freedman, Elliot Mandel and Mrs. Morris Josephs.

Max Sherman, Springfield, Township Attorney, offered his services to the Jewish Community Group in negotiating with Mr. Donovan and took an active role in handling some of the legal aspects of the purchase.

Ephraim Wejninger, president of the Springfield Jewish Community Group, asserted that the membership enthusiastically endorsed the land committee's recommendation for the purchase of this property, and indicated strong support "in making the major goal of the local group a dream realized and an asset to the Township."

The group has been organized only about ten months and the purchase of this property as the home of all local activities achieves a major goal. Monthly meetings are now held in the American Legion Hall, Sabbath Service at the new Parish House of the First Presbyterian Church and Sunday School at the Raymond Chisholm building. Social functions have been curtailed because of the lack of housing but the purchase of this property will enable the group to arrange a fully integrated program to include a full schedule of adult cultural studies and seminars, a well rounded schedule of children's events as well as plans for religious observances for all occasions. Emphasis will be placed on a school designed to prepare children for traditional Bar Mitzvah ceremonies and instruction in the principles of Judaism.

is a "backneyed political trick; if he knows of the least fire behind this verbal smoke screen, the very oath he has taken for six years, articles out that he expose such irregularities. Your move, Bob Marshall.

"Why else did I oppose Bob Marshall? Unfortunately, in our political system, when a man, no matter how inept, gets beyond a certain level of success, our modern world of press agency and salesmanship make it hard to stop his political progress. We see it too, too often at state and national levels. How then do we stop such men?

"Right thinking people stop them at the local level. The voters of Springfield spoke their mind once on Bob Marshall. Let him not think we have gone back to sleep. Recent majority votes against the administration as headed by Mayor Marshall are a matter of record. Now, at last, we are showing some intelligent progress. Let's keep the ball rolling!

"Oh, yes, I judge from friendly press releases that Bob Marshall is a veteran. Well, so am I, and someone should tell him the war is over. He did a fine job in the army; so did millions of others, including men and women on the home front. Military service is no measure of ability to cope with the problems of our town."

"My second plank," the former Mayor said, "is the posting of an agenda in the Sun and at public places to be followed at meetings of the township committee. On occasions this may be impossible but generally we should let residents know what we are going to discuss. After all, it is township business. In my opinion democracy flourishes when we have an informed public and if elected I shall urge posting of these agendas."

Marshall listed his No. 3 point as a program which will attract industry to the area set aside for it in Route 22. He pointed out that no municipality can prosper unless it has industrial resources. He said failure to attract enterprises which will give employment to persons in this area constitutes a setback in the township's economic development.

The former mayor said his fourth point is traffic relief from the thousands of cars which pass through Morris avenue every day. He said this can be gotten through construction of a by-pass through the township center. Further relief can be obtained through construction of an additional parking lot on the north side of Morris avenue, he said.

A feature of this year's conference was the District Judging of Art Department Project, "An Illuminated Page." Winners were: first prize, Somerville Civic League; third prize, Westfield Woman's Club; honorable mention, South Plainfield Suburban Woman's Club.

...for that Rainy Day!

The wise man doesn't wait 'til the rain falls before he gets himself an umbrella. Same sound sense applies to financial "rainy days." The money you meant to save—but didn't—won't do you a bit of good. Only money that will count is what you DID save . . . regularly, systematically, every pay day. Let your ever-growing savings account be your "umbrella" . . . and you can take life's "rainy days" in your stride.
