ON THE SUNNY SIDE

Even though this is National Nook Abatement Week, there will be very little, if any, observance in Springfield. The chief offender, of course, will be politics, the hectic sham-bang Republican primary scrap which reaches an air-splitting crescendo this week.

Georges' challenges, stunts, accusations, denunciations and imprecations fill the busy Springfield zone and Spang Knights, in white armor, have appointed themselves as modern St. Georges who will slay the "dragon" of unscrupulousness and "duplicitous" single-headedly.

The king makers, the men who would like to pull the strings behind the scenes are not too happy with the tempo of the current campaign and will take a heap of political penicillin to heal these wounds.

However, these are growing-up people and the bitterness of a wild swinging campaign usually breaks off into a back-slapping sarcasm. This is a new kind of political scrap. Springfield has too much at stake—there are too many growing-pains-to-be-foreclosed—and there's no doubt that the older heads, the more experienced men, will measure the future only in terms of what is best for Springfield.

As proof that the bitterness and seriousness of the current campaign hasn't affected all of Springfield below is what is lazily called "a poem," which should help break the tension a bit. The meter wouldn't get a very high mark and there is no end of poetic license in the rhyming, but it will have to do until better poems are submitted to us. Here it is:

"There's Still November"
Mr. Editor, Mr. Editor, some respite, if you please
From party claims and counter-claims and hyperboles.
When Tuesday next is come and gone
(March to our station)
Don't let this campaign go on
At least, till after vacation.
Let's cut them off and shut them out,
And don't let's have these letters
That politicians, with heads so soft
Inflated upon their betters.
"Fighting Bob," our only war vet,
Saved us from the Hun,
And all those other guys you met,
Must have been from World War One.

"Honest Harold built the parks,
He was one of five;
The other four were out for lurks,
Harold was really alive.
"Miracle" Ylves, who's lying low,
Hopes to make friends with the loser,
If a county job should call him, though,
He won't have the heart to refuse her.

Now Bonadies, Baudomer, and Beardsley, too,
Marshall, Bierstumpf, twenty-three, skidoo;
Benninger, Argyris, Nenninger, you
And Bell, Marchev and Levin, shoo-o-o!

July 4th Group Planning Program

A small local group hopes to be heard in spite of the clamor of our turbulent political scene. A spokesman for the group goes on to explain if it is not heard now, it may not be heard later, and that could be serious for the group is none other than the Springfield Fourth of July Committee.

Actually the committee held the first meeting for the coming celebration on April 9, but needs more help. Residents willing to help in the planning and organization for the annual program are urged to attend the next meeting at Bond Electronics, 60 Springfield Avenue, Friday, April 23, at 8:30 p.m. Clyde and service groups are again requested to send representatives.

A willingness to share in this endeavor can make the 4th an outstanding occasion for the families of Springfield. For further information contact Mrs. L. L. Andrews, secretary, ME, 6-0731.

Civic Groups Endorse New School Plans

A very well done color painting of the new proposed elementary school to be built on Mountain Avenue is attracting considerable attention in the First National Bank of Springfield lobby where it has been on exhibition for over a week.

Schroeder To Get Training In Ordnance

Private Richard C. Schroeder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Schroeder of 112 Linden Avenue, today entered the Ordnance School here at Aberdeen where he will receive training to qualify him as an Ordnance Supply Specialist. Graduates of the Ordnance Supply Specialist School are familiar with all items which Ordnance provides for the Army. These include such things as tanks, rifles, trucks and artillery. In addition, each Ordnance Supply Specialist must know the best way to store and transport each of these many items of issue. Following graduation, students who successfully complete this course are assigned to units throughout the world where they will put to practical use the training they have been given.

TO THE RESIDENTS OF SPRINGFIELD

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the President of the United States and the Governor of the State of New Jersey, have proclaimed the month of April

CANCER CONTROL MONTH:

WHEREAS, one of every six deaths in this state was caused by cancer last year and medical authorities estimate that half of those who develop cancer, could have been saved by early diagnosis and prompt proper treatment, and

WHEREAS, the American Cancer Society is conducting its annual Crusade during April to provide the funds for vital research, education and service, and

WHEREAS, we should all redouble our efforts to support this worthy humanitarian work.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Albert G. Binder, Mayor of the Township of Springfield, do hereby proclaim the month of April, Cancer Control Month and request the citizens of Springfield to observe it as such by learning all they can about the disease, cancer and by supporting the 1954 Cancer Crusade of the American Cancer Society.

Given under my hand and the seal of the Township of Springfield this 8th day of April, 1954.

ALBERT G. BINDER,
Mayor

Fire Fighters Called Out 8 Times In Day

With sixteen fire calls answered by the local department in three days, Fire Chief Charles A. Schilling is urging residents of Springfield to be alerted against the spread of brush fires which are causing an unusual number of fires in the township.

"Because we have had very little rain," said Chief Schilling, "fires can start very easily if some careless person drops a lighted cigarette in the dry brush. Children especially should be warned not to play with fire where the dry brush might be ignited."

Eight of the calls were answered on Saturday, said Chief Schilling, and five alarms brought the fire fighters out on Friday. The quick response of the fire department has kept down any damage, said the chief, and he hopes the volunteers will get a little rest if the youngsters and even the adults, are more careful with lighted cigarettes. One of the brush fires got out of hand on Pratt Avenue by the time the firemen arrived on Tuesday, and threatened a garage nearby, but it was soon under control. None of the other brush fires caused any damage.

War Hero May Ask For Job As Policeman

Sergeant Phillip N. Latoris, Springfield's only prisoner of war, who was given a hero's welcome here last October when he returned home after being reported missing for over a year, will soon receive his discharge from the United States Marine Corps and come to Springfield to live with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Latoris of 95 Mapes Avenue. It is now Sgt. Latoris and he is scheduled to be out of service in a few weeks.

The Marine who spent that year, during which he was reported missing in action, in a Korean prison camp, may offer his experience as a soldier to the Springfield police department. It is understood that he contemplates making formal application for one of the vacancies on the local police force and there is no doubt that all members of the Springfield force will extend their official welcome. Sgt. Latoris is at present finishing his hitch with the Marines at Earle, N. J.

Seek Relief From Air Pollution

Residents in the neighborhood of Mountain, South Springfield and Henshaw avenues are planning to march on the Board of Health officials in Springfield for some relief from what they claim is caused by smoke and soot from industry in that area. Ben Yarrow, who lives at 17 So. Springfield Avenue, plans to do something about the petition presented to the Township Committee and Board of Health last year with 25 names signed requesting that smoke abatement ordinance be passed to remedy the situation. "It so happens," said Mr. Yarrow, "that I am allergic to dust and air pollution in general but this isn't a personal matter. The other day, rooms where windows had been left open were covered with soot. Our local Health Board and the Township Committee received our petition for a smoke abatement ordinance but it was tabled and nothing has been done."

Bitter Campaign Closing; Marshall Gaining Support, Nenninger Very Confident

Former Mayor Robert W. Marshall today closed his campaign for the Republican nomination for the township committee by asserting that the selection of his opponent by Charles Beardsley, anti-Good Government Republican leader, and three members of the township committee was part of an overall plan to keep control of the township government for the Beardsley-Binder clique.

Mayor Marshall cited the revelations in this week's issue of the Springfield Sun by Township Committeeman Charles Benninger as proof of the unethical methods the group has been using in an effort to keep him from joining Benninger as part of the minority faction on the governing board. "Actually I've found it necessary to wage my campaign against Beardsley, Binder, Handville and Dannelly," the former Mayor pointed out. "They were the group that machine picked my opponent after several others rejected their request that they run against me. They realize that my nomination and election will be the beginning of the end for their effort to keep control of Springfield's government."

"It's amazing to what extent this group is going to try to defeat me," Marshall said. "Their leader, Charles Beardsley, who constantly blasted Congressman Clifford P. Case when he attempted to run for governor last year, now is making half-hearted speeches in Case's behalf. He certainly is getting on the Case bandwagon fast—apparently in view of the fact that Case has no opposition in his senatorial bid this year. Neighbors in the vicinity of the 'Roll Trade' do you realize the 'close call' Mr. Donnelly tried to hand you?"

"Was 'Beatway Products' ever told about the already established Industrial zone on Rt. 22?" "What about this 'Mr. Industrial commissioner'?" Now, Mr. Donnelly would have one of his political stooges going about talking out of both sides of her mouth to the effect "that it was all a mistake."

Plan Ground Breaking For Shopping Center Shortly

"Ground for the new General Green Shopping Center will be broken in a week or two—definitely this month," was the information given by Nicholas Angleton, head of the organization that is building the group of nationally known stores at the corner of Morris and Piemeer avenues. All the loose ends have been picked up, the plans and specifications approved by all Township officials and permits given so that construction can now start any time the contractors move in their machinery.

Presbyterians Plan Easter Services

An unusually beautiful display of Easter flowers, together with traditional Easter music will feature the identical services to be held this Sunday in the Presbyterian Church. The sermon theme of the Pastor, Rev. Bruce W. Evans, will be "Life's Questions Answered." Following the services these flowers will be distributed to the shut-in friends of the congregation, thus extending the happiness of this day.

Both the Junior and Senior Chorus will present special anthems entitled "Resurrection" by Cain and "The Lord, He Is Risen" by Williams. The Junior Choir will present an old Dutch chant entitled "Awake, Thou Wholly Earth." At the first service of worship, the Sacrament of Baptism will be administered by the Pastor to the children of the congregation.

Springfield Voters Hear Most Primary Candidates

Candidates' Night of the Springfield Republican Club held in the American Legion Hall Monday night brought out practically all primary contestants with approximately 150 attending. Former Mayor Robert W. Marshall and Harold G. Nenninger, primary opponents next Tuesday for the Republican nomination for Township Committee, met on the same platform but none of the expected fireworks materialized.

Pre-School Check Advised By P.T.A.

The Pre-School Section of the Springfield P.T.A. has volunteered to conduct the summer Round-Up Program for children entering kindergarten in September. Many other communities in this area operate the program in this manner. During the week of April 12-16 forms will be mailed to those persons having children eligible for entrance to kindergarten in September. Anyone having a child who will be 5 on or before December 1, 1954, and who does not receive these forms, may call the school.

The purpose of the Round-Up is to see that each child has a complete medical and dental check-up before entering school. It is preferable that this be done by the date of registration so that the completed forms may be turned in at that time. This type of Round-Up is strongly endorsed by school medical authorities. It is felt that a child is more receptive to the family physician and that a more thorough check-up might uncover a defect that would otherwise go unnoticed. The better the health (Continued on page 4)

KERR ASKS FOR NENNINGER VOTE

Frank M. Kerr, one of Springfield's leading citizens, joins the ranks of those who want to do something to help name Harold Nenninger as the man who will carry the Republican fight against the Democrats for Township Committee in the regular elections.

THE WINNER?

MARSHALL

This will be my final opportunity to present my views to the residents of Springfield through the columns of The Sun. I appreciate the courtesy of the Sun's editor as well as the spirit of civic-mindedness which motivated his making this space available.

NENNINGER

I wish to express my heartfelt appreciation to the citizens of Springfield for the many courtesies extended to me during this campaign. My only regret is that time did not permit me to meet more of you face to face so that in the discussion of our mutual problems, we might interchange ideas.

Final Blast By Remlinger Crushing To Opponents

Township Committee Chairman Charles Remlinger today called on the opponents of former Mayor Robert W. Marshall for the Republican nomination for the township committee to either repudiate Committee members—Donnelly, Binder and Handville—or to get out of the race.

The hard-working committee men, who in today's Springfield Sun made revelations which virtually blew the local anti-Marshall political campaign to bits, called on the candidate, whom he described as the "Binder-Donnelly-Handville bid for insurance of political control" to withdraw from the political contest if he failed to publicly disavow his sponsors.

In a public message to the candidate who he charged is the No. 6 choice of the Binder-Beardsley faction, Committee Chairman Remlinger said the stalling of the political machine obviously is an attempt to publicly shield the mantle and tell the voters he will have nothing to do with the group.

Self-serving, irresponsible, double meaning catch phrases are a type of political trickery calculated to deceive the voter by sensationalism. I know that you the voters of Springfield will reject them just as you would reject unproven charges scattered in handbills on the 11th-hour as an insult to your intelligence and as repugnant to our fundamental ideals and principles of fair play.

Yes, you the voters will render your decision on the issues of this campaign next Tuesday, April 20, 1954, at the polls—that is right and proper.

I have no doubt that your decision will be, for just as I have faith in our American way of life and its institutions, so also do I have faith and confidence in the American people who are conscientiously striving to keep our government, good and wholesome.

For the past three weeks I have kept partnership out of this column. However, I finally at a voter will compare two candidates generally on three bases: his experience, his availability and his program. I am both a homeowner and local business man and I want to serve you as your representative on the local governing body.

On the point of availability—I made my own decision to run and was not the choice of a group of politicians who sought in many directions to get a candidate. And if elected I will be in Springfield every day—day and night and I have found that this is invaluable to the taxpayer.

And no one should overlook the deception practiced on the late Fred A. Brown, Reibold asserted. "Here was a man who loyally devoted many hours to helping Springfield residents in every manner possible. While he was lying helpless in bed in a hospital Mr. Handville told him funds had been included in the township budget for a roller and trowel. This was equipment which Brown desperately needed for road work in his department. Yet he was deceived on the point at a time when he was unable to investigate the apparent chicanery which was going on."

CHARLES A. REMLINGER

230 Riverside Drive
Springfield, N. J.

April 14, 1954

To All Residents of Springfield:

The following facts will demonstrate undeniable evidence of unethical practice, bad faith and wanton disregard of the rights of voters by the faction which has hand-picked a candidate to oppose former Mayor Robert W. Marshall for the Township Committee.

On Sunday, December 6, 1953 and on the following Sunday, Albert G. Binder and Frederick A. Handville, members of the Township Committee, and Eugene F. Donnelly, a member-elect of the governing board who had not yet been sworn-in, held secret meetings in Town Hall. Despite the fact that I am a member of the Township Committee and had been serving in that post for over a year, I was deliberately not notified of these meetings.

Several township officials were interrogated. This was absolutely unjustified. There were inferences that some might not be reappointed. Meetings of this type obviously should not be conducted without full representation of the Township Committee. The fact that I, an elected representative, was not invited, was quite obvious. People do not hide such matters if they are aboveboard. Obviously there is no place for clandestine legislation in Springfield. This is not the Kremlin.

However, there is little doubt that there was a Kremlin-like atmosphere about these star-chamber sessions. Employees who were interrogated were given the impression the sessions were official. Actually it cannot be said that any of them were threatened. But in order to gain support for future political campaigns, the objective can be gained without the use of direct threats. When an organization tries to gain complete control, its leaders naturally will brook no interference. That is why these meetings were called and I, an elected representative, was not told about them.

This procedure is typical of what has been taking place as this Binder-Donnelly-Handville faction has dominated administration policies. It has been reflected in their frantic efforts to get former Mayor Robert W. Marshall to testify regarding his statement that his former associates did not show a respect for honesty and efficiency. After these disclosures, you can judge for yourself whether Mayor Marshall knew what he was talking about.

This trio of politicians, bent on gaining complete domination, interviewed several candidates for the Township Committee. Their objective naturally was to make certain their candidate was "safe"—that he would see eye to eye with them. They finally found the person who fitted the bill.

Should this sixth-choice candidate finally selected by this group to oppose Mayor Marshall be nominated, there is no doubt in my mind that the cause of good government will have suffered a severe setback. In view of the unethical procedure that has taken place, he will not be in a position to protest any further demonstration in view of the fact that he will owe his nomination to them. What can I do against such a combination—for I will face this group alone if Mayor Marshall is not nominated.

This is the first opportunity I have had to call this situation to the attention of the voters. I am fully convinced that this "closed-door" type of operation can be stymied only through the nomination next Tuesday of former Mayor Robert W. Marshall. When he again takes his place on the Governing Board, he and I can take the initial steps to again provide good government for Springfield.

Respectfully yours,

CHARLES A. REMLINGER.

(Continued from page 1) planning of a kind that will benefit our town in all ways, both from the standpoint of protecting our present home-owners and at the same time, encouraging the right type of industry in the proper location.

"Recent history in this field has not been good - the Short Hills Apartment affair and the so-called Industrial Tract on the highway glaring examples of ineptitude in this important area of township government. The recent elections helped to bring planning into focus, and as a result the Township Committee hired a Planning Expert to do what is sorely needed. This, of course, is just what the Planning Board has wanted for many years. We now have an opportunity to select a man to whom planning is important, so important in fact that he was one of the first to propose it officially, way back before his term on the Township Committee. I know that Harold Nenninger still feels the same on planning and would support the plan of our Board.

A vote for Nenninger is a vote for sound constructive town planning.

Woman's Club News

A large turnout assembled in the Church School on April 11th for Club Night and was rewarded with one of the most thought-provoking talks ever made to the group. Captain Edward Durning, Supervisor of the Irvington Special Service Bureau and President of the Juvenile Officers' Association of New Jersey spoke to members and guests of the Springfield Woman's Club on "Youth and Crime."

Prior to Captain Durning's address, Mrs. Merton D. Williams, Club President, presided at the regular business meeting. A detailed report of happenings at the Fifth District Spring Conference was given by Mrs. John S. Trout. Announcements of future events were made by several department chairmen, notices of which will be made in this column. It was decided that a contribution be sent to the Independence Hall Restoration Fund. The name of our Club will then be permanently inscribed on a scroll to be housed in this historic building. Continuing with New Business, the membership body voted to endorse the referendum concerning the school expansion plan.

Spring Convention plans were announced. Three delegates will be sent from our Club: President, Mrs. Merton D. Williams; First Vice-President, Mrs. Edwin G. Davenport; and Northern Vice-Chairman of Youth Conservation, Mrs. William Cosgrove. Named as alternate delegates were Mrs. Watts D. Chasula and Mrs. John S. Trout. The Convention will be held in Atlantic City from May 11 through May 14th.

Don't forget the Fifth District Drama Festival to be held Monday, April 26th, beginning at 10:00 a.m., in the Westfield Masonic Temple. Mrs. J. Frank Jakobsen and Mrs. Henry Ostrom will serve as hostesses. Admission to the Festival will be seventy-five cents and luncheon will cost one dollar. Tickets may be secured from Drama Chairman, Mrs. Lee Andrews, Jr., 450 Meisel avenue. This is always an entertaining day and very worthwhile. Why not plan your own "theatre party" and attend this year's Drama Festival?

Nominating Committee Chairman, Mrs. Frank Haller presented the suggested slate of officers for the next Club year. Elections will be held at the May Club meeting. Mrs. Watts Chasula and her hospitality committee once again performed a most gracious task of serving refreshments. The pastel green and yellow lining on the tables complimented the lovely coloring in the Spring centerpiece so artistically created by Mrs. Christian Anderson. Mrs. Anderson's table arrangements are always unusual and beautiful, but her Easter bonnet display was unquestionably the piece de resistance. A mixed Spring flower bouquet was settled in the middle of a straw bonnet and was surrounded on the brim with varicolored plastic foam eggs, each one wearing a miniature Easter bonnet made of sequins, feathers, maline, and flowers. Faces of sequins peered out from beneath the tiny hats. To complete the Spring picture, a butterfly was perched on a flower stem in the bouquet. For those who would like a second look at this masterpiece, it is on display in the shop window of Michael's Beauty Salon in Millburn, attracting many passersby hourly.

The speaker of the evening, Capt. Durning, was introduced by Program Chairman, Mrs. Edwin G. Davenport. He came to the club with a background of experience having spent more than 25 years in the field of Juvenile Delinquency. He is the founder and director of Red Arrow Camp for children in Schooley's Mountain, Morris County, now in its seventeenth year. Captain Durning's talk was sparked with shocking, true anecdotes of juvenile delinquency and he pointed out that the causes of mounting juvenile delinquency are to be found in the weaknesses of our civilization. Some of these basic causes are lack of proper discipline in the home, lack of parental interest in their children or in the activities of their children, lack of cooperation between home-school and church, lack of neighborhood recreational facilities.

Juvenile delinquency knows no certain station of life nor a certain neighborhood. It can, and does, occur in every town. Captain Durning spoke at great length on the harmful influence of obscene literature, and of the danger of alcohol to family life. The ferociousness of gang fights and of the weapons used in these bravos was almost unbelievable.

Captain Durning was assisted in setting up a table display of confiscated material by Max Deutsch also of the Irvington Bureau of Special Service. Iron studded belts, chains, lead filled clubs, razors, and other tools used in gang fights were on view. In addition to examples of obscene literature, photographs of neglected children and homes from which these children came, forged documents and many other articles of interest.

The Music Department was honored recently by a visit from State Music Chairman, Mrs. Lyman H. Ware, of Hillside. Mrs. Ware attended the department's meeting on April 8th at the home of Mrs. Vincent Bonadies, 12 Sherwood road, where she discussed plans for the Northern State Music Festival to be held May 4th at the Orange Woman's Club, Orange. There will be two sessions, the morning program centering about "The Courtship of Miles Standish" and the afternoon's entertainment concerning the life and music of Stephen C. Foster. The Springfield Woman's Club will receive added recognition as members of the Music Department have been selected to portray characters in a series of tableaux to depict the story of "The Courtship of Miles Standish." These women and the roles they will play are as follows: Prindle, Mrs. Anthony Pillar; John Alden, Mrs. Stanford Hettiger; Miles Standish, Mrs. Vincent Cinquina; Indian, Mrs. Robert Hayes; Two Women, Mrs. Louis Schneider and Mrs. James Crowley; Two Men, Mrs. Lisle Rector and Mrs. Harold Blehof. The Music Group will be heard in the selection, "Stout Hearted Men." The Festival will commence at 10:15 a.m. and if you plan to stay for lunch bring a box lunch. A small charge of sixty-five cents will entitle you to dessert and beverage. Everyone is invited to why not plan to come out and support your own Music group?

What a busy department the Garden group is! Fourteen members toured the Jakobsen Greenhouses on April 6th at 8:00 p.m. On April 19th the group will hold their meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Madsen, 22 Dunbar drive, Summit, at 8:00 p.m. "Flower Arranging" will be the project for the evening.

Mrs. Christian Anderson, Chairman of the Garden Department, requests that each member bring a flower container and flowers or branches from shrubs or flowering bushes which she plans to use in creating her own floral arrangement.

The Ways and Means Department's annual Theatre Party will be held this year on May 8th. Chairman, Mrs. Daniel Lucy, and her Co-chairman, Mrs. Charles Heard, have diligently taken care of all details and a successful day is assured. The bus will leave from the Municipal Parking lot at 11:15 a.m. and take the group to "The Three Crowns" restaurant in New York City famed for its smorgasbord. After luncheon, many of the women will attend a performance of "Kismet" at the Ziegfeld Theatre and some will be fortunate to see Audrey Hepburn in "On the Beach" at the 54th St. Theatre. The bus will pick up all passengers at designated stations and return to Springfield after the show. There are still a few tickets available for "On the Beach." If anyone is interested please contact Mrs. Lucy at her home, 41 Tower drive, or call ME 6-5331-J—but act quickly as seats are not to be disappointed! The Luncheon-Theatre Party will bring the activities of the Ways and Means Department to an end for this year. Chairman, Mrs. Robert Hamilton and all her committee members express their appreciation to all club members who helped make their many projects a success. Mrs. Russell Post and Mrs. Rupert Humer will report on the Legislative Luncheon they attended recently in Trenton to Civic Department members when the group met on April 20th at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Eno, 83 Denham road, at 8:15 p.m.

Looking ahead to the May Club Night which is "Hobby Night," Mrs. Anderson suggests that her department members have a project ready for display. Any dry materials such as pine cones, acorns, Christmas decorations, which members might desire to use in their displays may be secured from Mrs. Anderson. For further suggestions or information please contact Mrs. Anderson at her home, 32 Lyon place or call ME 6-1353-M.

Twelve members of the department have registered for the course in Flower Arranging to be given by Mrs. Guy Young of Montclair every Thursday evening for four consecutive weeks beginning April 22nd, at Mrs. Anderson's home, 32 Lyon place. Each person is requested to bring a flower container, notebook, and pencil to the first meeting.

Letters to Editor

Editor, Sun: Inasmuch as Mr. Marshall didn't show up at two special meetings of the Township Committee to explain his statement about those who had been associated with him in government not having the same standards of honesty as he, I must take my position clear because I worked with him on the Township Committee for three years.

Should Mr. Marshall have concrete proof of dishonesty against me or any other member of Government in Springfield, he should bring it out. I have said in public, "I have nothing to hide" and I shall always use this statement as long as I am in public office.

I do not say Mr. Marshall is dishonest, but I do say, He is a Champion at double talk.

The greatest and most recent display of this is in the April 8th, 1954 issue of the local paper, page two, his article paragraph three, says in one breath—He is too busy to confer with the Township Committee, in the second breath, he says he will be very interested to confer with them.

Then he further clouds the issue by accusing the supporters of his opposition as anti, his statement as political strategy. Did you ever see such double talk? He, Marshall, made the statement and now can't find time to back it up.

I repeat his statement is unfair and should be answered by him to the public. He has cast aspersions on his former associates.

Frederick A. Handville, Township Committee.

It has a lot of confidence in the future of Springfield and has gone to considerable expense in modernizing the store and the producing end of his establishment in the rear with the latest in refrigeration and other necessary equipment.

What has made Mr. Nagel so successful is the quality of his meats and other meat products. Wholesalers who have been dealing with Nagel for many years, say he will buy only the best quality—and that is the key to his success. "Give Springfield shoppers what they want," said Mr. Nagel, "and we don't have to worry about them going out of town. I want to thank all my friends and customers for those fifteen years in Springfield. I like Springfield; it has been good to me."

Democrats Looking Toward November

Vincent J. Bonadies, who will carry the Democratic colors against the winner of Tuesday's Republican primary battle in the regular November elections, issued a statement yesterday in which he wanted it definitely understood that members of his organization "are keeping hands off in this primary scrap of the Republicans and no matter which one of the candidates win, the Democratic organization plans to wage the kind of a battle in November that will definitely break the strangle hold of those who have been riding high, with smug and assured complacency, in running Springfield."

"Of course," said Bonadies, "we regret that the primary campaign of our opponents has done such a miraculous job of political surgery and apparently split the local Republican organization wide open, but we regret that the real objectives, the future and best interests of Springfield, have been pushed aside in favor of personal and political expediency. The Democrats have a forward looking platform to offer the voters of Springfield and we plan to go to the people with a constructive program that will include a variety of improvements we need to keep pace with our rapid growth and needs."

Bonadies further urged that "all voters—regardless of party affiliation, go to the polls and exercise the greatest privilege born to free men—the right to express by ballot their choice of representation. Despite the fact that we do not have a local primary contest in the Democratic ranks, come out and cast a vote of confidence in the Democratic principles of your township committee candidate whose primary interests are in the welfare of the people of Springfield first and last."

(Continued from page 1) sley-Binder religion? Would the report which has been rife throughout the township to the effect that he will receive the township attorney's post next year be the answer? Just what promise has been made to vote this self-righteous apostle of independence into the fold which jumps at the command of Beardsley? Beardsley could better use his influence to get one of County Wheeler to enhance the County Parks within Springfield.

"I have not criticized my opponent in this campaign aside from pointing out that he lacks my experience and has been away from township governmental affairs for many years. I have pointed out that he does not have the time to give to Springfield during the day as I do. That is unfortunate for him but it so happens that my business is here and I can concentrate on investigation of complaints which must be checked immediately."

"However, my opponent has made considerable about giving Springfield a recreation board. This board, through the efforts of me and other members of the township committee, completely re-organized this recreation board giving them almost autonomous power to better serve you."

"He also has mentioned schools with the obvious intent to make voters believe that he will give them additional school facilities. There are few voters who do not know that the township committee has nothing to do with schools and that decisions on such matters must be made by the board of education. Incidentally school board members are supposed to stay out of politics."

"Another so-called independent, George Marchev, also has jumped on the Beardsley-Binder cart with the hope of a township job. This political monkey has twisted his tail around the limb of a rotten political tree and is doing his customary tricks for his newly found political friends, by hanging in mid-air. Even J. Fred Muggs would envy this political somersault."

"I already have presented a platform which has earned the commendation of a number of unbiased voters. I have reiterated my support of a program of tax relief by attracting more desirable industry to Route 22; a policy of good and drainage relief through county and state aid; public posting of agenda of township committee meetings and a workable traffic relief plan."

"In contrast my opponent has said merely that he is not 'hand-picked.' He has been so busy denying the obvious truth of that charge that he has failed to offer any program to assure Springfield of a progressive future. I feel township voters want a candidate who is going forward and sent the Good Friday Cantata "The Star of Nazareth" written by James H. Rogers. Three Hundred Attend Father-Son Baseball Night

A very enthusiastic gathering of fathers and sons attended the Springfield Recreation Commission Father and Son baseball night at the Florence Gaudiner School last Thursday night. The program opened promptly at 8 p.m., with Recreation Commissioner Edmund Hoffert greeting the group, a sound film on Ted Williams, Boston Red Sox outfielder, following.

Commissioner Hoffert then went over in detail the organization plans of the Springfield Youth Baseball League, explaining how the baseball tryouts would be held starting Monday evening, May 3rd, as well as the sites of the tryouts. Each boy must be registered prior to April 20th, with the boy's parental permission granted prior to his participation. Registration blanks were distributed, with additional forms available this week at the Florence Gaudiner, James Caldwell and St. James Schools. The blanks are to be filled out and returned to League Director Edward J. Ruby.

George Bauer, Supt. of the Millburn Recreation Department spoke on the "Little League" baseball program which is extremely popular at Millburn, also projected a 15-minute color film on the opening day ceremonies of the Millburn Little League. George T. Cron, of the Union County Park Commission, original organizer of the Union County Baseball League spoke to the assembly explaining how 600 boys of various ages try out each year for the midge, youth, and senior baseball leagues. Eugene Donnelly, Township Committee member was an interested spectator, commenting on the enthusiastic turnout.

The program was concluded by the Bayview rollers, a bicycle act which has appeared on TV several times. The entertainment was well received by the group, which also included several interested mothers as well as the fathers of the many boys present.

The next meeting of the Springfield Youth Baseball League will be held at the Springfield Municipal Building, "Thursday" evening, April 22, with only adults permitted at this meeting. The purpose of this meeting will be to organize the "Youth Baseball League of Springfield" draw up a League Constitution and a playing schedule, with the election of Officers the following week. The group will then decide on the number of men to supervise the baseball tryouts starting Monday evening, May 3rd. Plans at present call for the pitching and catching hopefuls reporting to the Washington Avenue Field, with the outfielders and infielders reporting to the Regional High School athletic field on Meisel avenue. The installation of a new backstop at the Florence Gaudiner School field may make possible another playing site.

The committee would like to clarify several phases of the tryouts. First, the tryouts will start at 8:30 p.m., Monday evening, May 3rd, with ten week-day tryout sessions planned. Ordinarily, five days should be sufficient, but with rainy weather a possibility—and in fairness to the boys trying out, a ten-day period is advisable. Any boy who fails to make the grade as a pitcher or catcher, may then try out as an infielder or outfielder. Boys who do not survive the player cut, will then be given an opportunity to work out with the minors, with the possibility of eventually getting into league play. The boys who show sufficient playing talent will then go into regular league play the following week, with plans calling for two games each week by each club. A four-team league is planned, playing a 12-game schedule which would probably end by July 4th, weather permitting. It is definite that the league will attempt only two games a week by each club, this in order to make way for betterment of play through practice sessions, as well as giving the other boys an opportunity to play. The Springfield Recreation Commission also plans on baseball for boys over the 12-year age group, as well as softball for boys out of school and adults seeking diversified recreation, this all dependent on the talent available and the interest shown by attendance.

The Springfield Recreation Commission is not permitted to accept any funds for the operation of the Youth Baseball League, but any save clubs, associations, or industries who would care to furnish or supply equipment may submit their offer at the April 22 meeting at the Town Hall.

The Springfield Recreation Commission wish to gratefully acknowledge the assistance of Willie Wagner of the Florence Gaudiner staff, who not only projected the film, but also helped in handling the large crowd.

An open invitation is extended to all fathers as well as men interested in the Springfield Youth Baseball League to attend the April 22nd meeting.

The Father and Son program committee consisted of Director of Leagues Edward J. Ruby, Commissioner Lester Lawn and Edmund Hoffert.
