New Organ For Local Church Is Being Built

As the initial step in a projected program of renovation, expansion and improvement of its Main street facilities, the Springfield Methodist Church this week announced the purchase of a new, $10,000 Moller pipe organ, with delivery and installation set for a year hence. Construction will commence shortly in Hagerstown, Maryland, plant of M. P. Moller, Inc.

The organ will be a two-manual instrument consisting of the great, the swell and the pedal organs. There will be approximately 450 pipes, ranging in size from 16 feet to eight inches in length. Some of the pipes, such as the bass and flue notes, will be of wood, while others, such as the diapason, strings and trumpets, will be made of metal. The wind blowing the pipes will be supplied by a blower unit requiring a one and a half horsepower motor. The console, or control center will be all-electric and several miles of wiring will connect it to the pipe unit.

Before installation date, the church will have to prepare sufficient quarters for the instrument. Wilfred Barz, organist and choir director, Rev. Marvin Green, pastor, and representatives of the organ company as well as the church and architectural firm retained by the church, will meet to map plans for installation.

The organ will be custom-built, designed specifically for the local church after a meticulous study of the acoustics, seating capacity. (Continued on page 2)

Baby Parade Highlights Annual Springfield July 4 Program

Record Crowd Sees July 4th Program Here

Springfield staged its greatest and most successful Fourth of July program on Monday, the elaborately planned and enjoyable celebration ending with a spectacular display of fireworks in the evening on the grounds of the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School.

Various estimates of the crowd on hand for the big finale give figures up to 10,000. Vincent J. Bonadies, general chairman of the committee on arrangements, believes there were 10,000 people watching and participating in Monday night's feature which included the fireworks—community singing and square dancing in the school parking lot. Automobiles jammed all the streets in the vicinity of the high school grounds and every available space on the lawn or near the display was crowded with watchers. The fireworks display climaxed a full day's program, highlighted by the baby parade and the crowning of Christine Callahan of Baltusrol as queen of the 1954 parade. She was winner in the younger (Continued on page 2)

Until the showers came, the picnic took place in the new grove in back of the church. There are tables and benches and a fire place built by Walter Morowski, "Bob" Miller and "Jim" Temple. Rev. Father Aloysius Carney was the "cook" for the 50 people present in charge of the hamburgers and franks. Father Edward was in charge of the games, with Father Daly, assisting.

Among the workers and their families present were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mullin, Mr. and Mrs. Al Meslar, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Schuss, Mr. and Mrs. James Temple, Mr. and Mrs. Al Niedermeier, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Conway, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kaye, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Walter, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Trishman, Mr. and Mrs. Al Kirby, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rancker, Mrs. Helen Patton, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Graziano, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Tuma, Mr. Dick Barrett and Dr. and Mrs. John Triolo.

Lyons Bros. Start New Arcade Shopping Center

THE NEW ARCADE SHOPPING CENTER—Architect's drawing of structure to be erected off Center street, in the rear of the Morris avenue Lyons building. Ample parking space will be available. Two of the four stores being planned are already rented. Work is expected to start at once.

Construction of a unique arcade style shopping center will start in a few days off Center Street in the rear of what is known as the Lyons Building—with leases already signed for two of the four stores.

It is to be known as the Lyons Shopping Center and the present plans call for the four store unit to face north and with enough depth to give shoppers plenty of parking space off the street. Each of the present four stores will have 16 foot fronts and 50 feet in depth.

Actual work is expected to start in a very few days and, according to Harry Maslow, the architect, the building should be ready for occupancy by the middle of October. It will have contemporary Colonial design features and the structure will be of brick and stucco. There will be wrought iron pillars supporting a canopy as a permanent cover for the walk.

Thomas and Russell Lyons, who have been planning this shopping arcade for some time, hope to eventually enlarge the arcade to include all the property they have in the rear of the row of Morris avenue stores which is now being used for parking. The Lyons brothers plan to alter the rear of their present Morris avenue stores so that there will be fronts and entrances on the arcade to match the four new stores now to be built.

Parking for shoppers will be permitted in the arcade.

division of last year's contest. Mrs. Amy Bandomer had charge of the baby parade feature and, despite the keen competition with 85 attractive entrants in the three divisions, the selections met with the approval of the large crowd watching this feature of the morning.
The judges of the contest were Dr. Irving Kimche of Millburn, Irving Fanti, an Irvington industrialist and treasurer of the Lions Club in Irvington; and Major Karl B. Ross of Staten Island.

PRIMER FOR AMERICANS

You live in the United States of America. You are an American.

Real Americans like their country. They are proud of it. They think it is a good place to live. And they want to keep it good—to keep it getting better all the time.

Why is America the way it is? What makes it a good place to live? The answer is simply this:

Throughout our history most Americans have believed that every person has certain rights and duties and responsibilities.

Americans have believed that there are certain things people should do, and things they should not do. They have also believed in certain things that people are, and are not.

These things that people believe are called principles. This book is an attempt to state the Principles of America in simple, primer fashion so that you can understand them, learn them, and remember them.

This is important. It was because earlier Americans believed in these principles and guided their lives by them, that America has grown to be the good place it is.

If all of us learn and remember these principles—if we also guide our lives by them—then we can help to keep America growing better, and better, and better.

And if we follow these Principles of America, we can help make the world a better place to live in, too.

The Principles of America are these . . .

1. Each Person is of Importance and Value as an Individual.

This is the cornerstone . . . the foundation of all our other beliefs in a person's right to live his own life, to speak for himself, to choose and change his leaders.

From it comes our hatred of those "isms" under which the individual has no value or importance as a person, but is only one of many unimportant people who have to live the way their leaders tell them to.

Coming directly from that first principle are two others that are also part of the foundation of Americanism.

2. We Believe that All Men should Enjoy Personal Freedom.

3. We Believe that All Men are Created Equal.

It is worth noting that the Declaration of Independence expressed the belief that "all men are created equal." It did not state or imply a belief that men develop equally or have equal ability, or that they should ever be forced to an exact equality of thought, speech or material possessions.

That would be equality without freedom. Americans have always believed the two should go together.

In our Constitution, and in other laws of our land, there are set down principles to protect the rights and freedoms and equality of individuals.

4. The Right to Freedom of Speech.

This includes freedom of the press, of radio, of motion pictures, of every means by which man may express his thoughts.

5. The Right to Freedom of Assembly.

As we believe in the right of individual action, so we believe that individuals should be free to act together.

6. The Right to Freedom of Worship.

Not only is the individual free to worship as he will, but religious themselves are free and equal.

7. The Right to Security of Person and Property.

Not just one, but three Amendments to the Constitution (4th, 5th and 14th) protect against illegal search and seizure, or loss of life, liberty, or property, without "due process of law."

8. The Right to Equal Protection before the Law.

As individuals are equally important, so laws must apply equally to all, without special privileges for any group.

9. The Right to Freedom from Slavery.

This includes "the right to quit," for no individual may be forced to work for another.

10. The Right to Petition the Government.

The right of the individual to "petition the government for redress of grievances" is evidence of the American belief that government is the servant, not the master, of the people.

11. The Right to Vote for people of your choice.

This is the individual's most potent weapon in the protection of his rights and freedoms . . . a weapon that to be effective must be constantly and wisely used.

Other Principles hold that every man has . . .

12. The Right to a Good Education.

13. The Right to Live where he pleases.

14. The Right to Work where he wants to.

15. The Right to Belong to an Organization.

16. The Right to Own Property.

17. The Right to Start his Own Business.

18. The Right to Manage his Own Affairs.

19. The Right to Make a Profit or to Fail, depending on his Own Ability.

There are other, similar rights of individual action which are Principles of America, but all of these individual rights may be combined in these two broad principles . . .

20. Every Man is entitled to Freedom and Equality of Opportunity.

21. Every Man may Earn his Living When, Where, and How he wants to.

There are also Limiting Principles . . .

Principles of individual freedom sometimes clash with those of individual equality. Therefore our rights as individuals must be limited, and those limitations are themselves principles.

22. The Rights of any Individual shall not Interfere with those of Other Individuals.

Your right to swing your arms stops where the other fellow's nose starts.

23. The Rights of any Individual shall not Interfere with the Welfare of the People.

Freedom of speech does not give the individual the right to "shout fire" in a crowded theatre.

24. Every Individual owes Obedience to the Laws under which he Lives.

The individual has the right to talk against a law, to work and vote to change that law, but NOT to disobey that law.

Principles that are Patterns of Behavior . . .

Many of our principles of individual freedom and equality are guaranteed to us by law. But we have other beliefs, other general rules of action and conduct that have grown to the status of principles. And these too, are foundations of Americanism.

25. A Man shall be Judged by his Own Record.

A man's family background, his race or his religion, is not as important as what that man himself can do, for Americans believe a man must stand on his own feet.

26. A Man is Free to Achieve as much as he can.

We believe that where any boy may become President, where any man may achieve greatness, there is the greatest incentive for every man to do his best.

27. To Achieve anything, a Man should be Willing to Work.

Americans have always known that "you don't get something for nothing," that to get anything takes a willingness to work.

28. Achievement also Depends upon the Ability to do a Good Job.

Add to "willingness to work" the ability to produce results and the combination is the basis for most individual achievement in our country.

29. Every Man has the Right to a Fair Share of the Results of his Work and his Ability.

Because of this belief, America has not only produced more goods, but they have been more fairly and more widely shared by more people than in any other country.

30. Security is the Ability of a Man to Provide for himself.

The only true security for any individual is the opportunity, the ability, and the determination to work and plan and save for his own present and future. Self-reliance is vital to individual independence and personal freedom. No man can be "proud and free" who depends on others for his security.

31. When an Individual cannot Provide his own Security, the Responsibility should be Assumed by Others.

We believe that no one should starve, or be without adequate clothing and shelter, so those who have more than their basic needs share the responsibility of providing the essentials of security for those who need help.

32. Each Individual must Deal Fairly with others.

Honesty, fairness, and personal integrity are virtues that help free and independent individuals get along with each other without losing their independence.

33. Fair and Free Competition is a Good Thing.

Americans have always believed that competition among individuals or groups encourages greater effort which in turn brings greater benefits to all.

34. Cooperation among Individuals is Vital.

President Eisenhower has said: "The freedom to compete vigorously accompanied by a readiness to cooperate wholeheartedly for the performance of community and national functions, together make our system the most productive on earth."

Principles of Individual Responsibility . . .

Freedom for individuals carries with it an equal responsibility to use that freedom wisely. If we wish to remain free, we must faithfully fulfill this responsibility.

35. The Individual is Responsible for himself and his Family.

He must protect them and provide for their present and future well-being.

36. The Individual has Responsibilities to the Groups of which he is a Part.

He must give of his best to his community, his church, his employer, his union, and to every group in which individuals cooperate for their mutual benefit.

37. The Individual has Responsibilities to his Country.

He must be an active citizen, interesting himself in local, state, and national government, voting wisely, thinking and speaking and acting to preserve and strengthen freedom, equality and opportunity for every individual.

38. The Individual has Responsibilities to the World.

Man's horizons have expanded. What happens in the world affects him, and his actions can affect the world. Today, therefore, each man has a responsibility to act—and to encourage his country to act—so that freedom and cooperation will be encouraged among the people and the nations of the world.

For America's Future

Most of us have faith in our country's ability to move forward, to improve, to grow, to provide more and more individuals with more and more of everything they want and need in life . . .

If we, the people of the United States, want to have more material benefits, we must believe in and follow these two principles:

39. The only way we can Have More is to Produce More; and

40. As we Produce More, we must make it possible for More and More People to Enjoy that which we Produce.

If we, the people of the United States, want to have a better life, spiritually as well as materially . . .

41. We must stand firmly for our Beliefs, our Rights, our Principles.

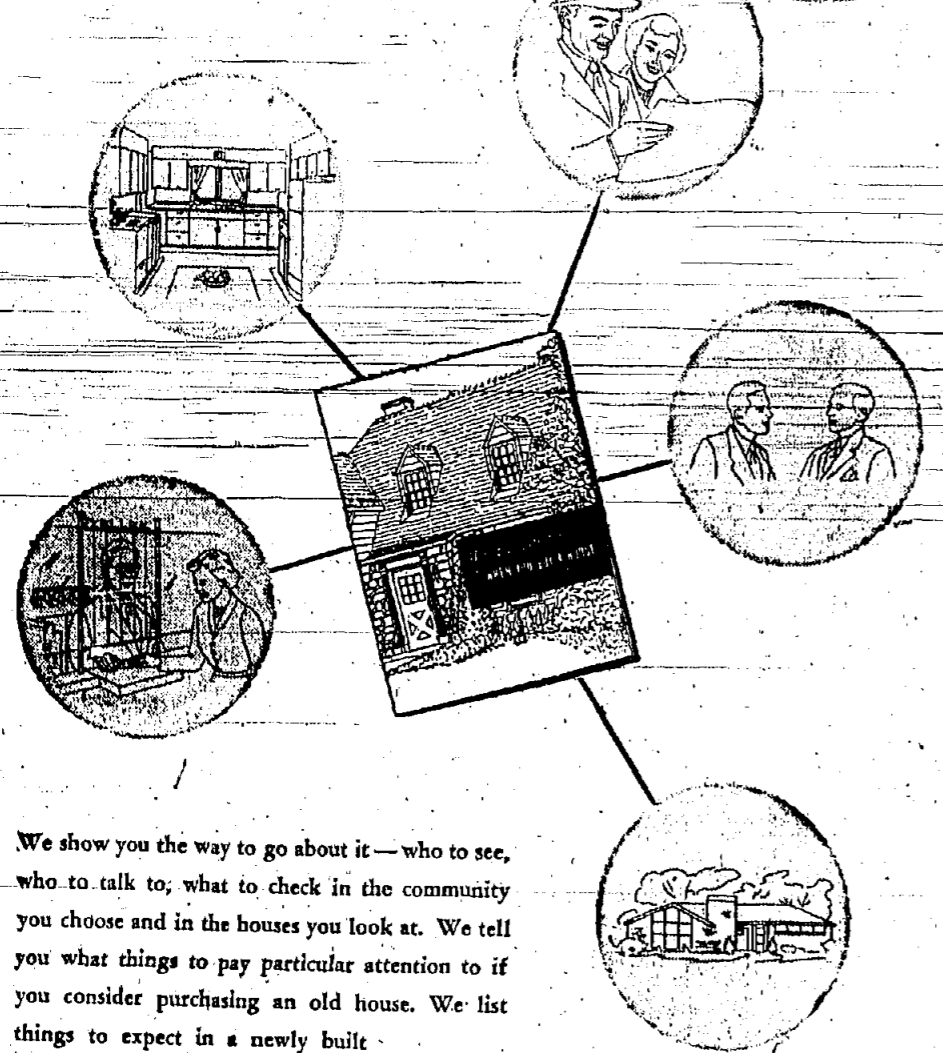

There are those who would chip away our confidence so that their special brand of tyranny might creep into America. They must not succeed. So, let us ask of every plan, or act, or idea . . .

Is it With or Against the Principles of America?

On behalf of the Fourth of July Committee for 1954, I wish to extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to all the townspeople who so generously responded with their contributions and moral support. It's this kind support which truly exemplifies the true and meaningful spirit of our Independence Day celebration.

With a great feeling of gratification the Committee trooped through out the day to make possible one of Springfield's best celebrations. To the Committee I extend my sincere thanks for a job well done and for the atmosphere of complete cooperation and unselfish devotion to their obligations.

To the Springfield Sun, the merchants of town, the Police Department, and to the Fire Department, go untold amounts of credit for their contribution and cooperation. Without it, we could not have achieved any amount of success.

Truly this is our American way of life.

Buser - Richelo Nuptials Held

St. James Church was the setting on Saturday afternoon, July 3, at 3:30 for the wedding of Miss Eleanor Grace Buser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Buser of Ridge Drive, Berkeley Heights and James J. Richelo, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Richelo of South Springfield avenue. Rev. Thomas Daly officiated and a reception was held at the Hotel Suburban Summit.

Matron of honor was Mrs. LeRoy Boufflette of Denville, sister of the bride and the bridesmaids were Miss Mary Richelo, sister of the bridegroom and Miss Ethel Belswinger, both of Springfield. Katherine Buser of Denville, niece of the bride, was flower girl. George Richello of Indianapolis was best man for his brother and the ushers were Gerald Richelo, another brother and John Temple, both of Springfield. The bride wore a gown of em-broidered organdy and a finger-tip veil draped from a cap of seeded pearls. She carried a bouquet of Eucharis lilies and stephanotis. The matron of honor and bridesmaids wore pink or gandy gowns and pink flowered halos with little veils. They carried bouquets of pink anemone roses and babies-breath. The flower girl wore a dress of net over pink taffeta. She carried a miniature old fashioned bouquet.

The couple are graduates of Regional High School. Mrs. Richelo is a receptionist in the Medical Department at Bell Laboratories, Murray Hill. Mr. Richelo is owner of the Gage Poultry Farm, South Springfield avenue. After a wedding trip to the Thousand Islands, the couple will reside at their home on August 1 at 745 South Springfield avenue.

Mrs. Mary Basini of 84 Keeler street, Mrs. Frederick Handville of 129 Salter street and Mrs. Hans Nielsen of 36 Clinton avenue attended the Union County Convention of the American Legion Auxiliary in Railway on June 18 and 19. Mrs. Nielsen was Sgt. at Arms throughout the Convention. The ladies are members of the Springfield Legion Auxiliary.

PRIDE OF SERVICE
Funeral expenses sometimes go beyond the reasonable limits of the family, because of their own sensitiveness and lack of experience, but in our display rooms every casket is marked in Plain Figures... Our pride of service is honest dealings... fairness and the best possible service, combined with a systematic understanding.
