Local School To Undergo Remodeling

James Caldwell School, 40 year old Springfield elementary school will shortly undergo a general face-lifting job at an estimated cost of $60,700, the price quoted Tuesday night to the Board of Education by Emil A. Schmidlin, East Orange architect. Schmidlin had recently been requested by the school board to draw up the tentative remodeling plans and estimates.

The architect's proposal calls for a complete change in the exterior of the building to conform with colonial architecture in the area and the use of prismatic glass in place of windows on the left side of the building.

Gifford Hale, chairman of the board's school government committee told the board that the Township Teachers' Association has requested an increase in the maximum pay schedule for teachers with B.A. degrees from $5,400 over a 16 year period to $5,700 over a longer, unspecified time. No change was asked for the minimum of $3,200. The Teachers Association also asked for two days personal leave each year instead of one.

Planning Board Hopes To Set Early Date For New Zoning Ordinance

KEEP IT RESIDENTIAL!!

We've been sitting on the 50-yard line at the two public hearings for the proposed Springfield zoning ordinance for 1954 and watched the A-Residential team bewilder the Planning Board squad, with point-scoring, forward passes, off tackle plays, right end sweeps and other dazzling ball handling. The Planning Board team seemed to have no defense. At least, there was no evidence of any in the first two meetings.

This is not intended to be a facetious approach to a serious problem affecting Springfield's future. Residents in the immediate area of Shunpike Road, the section marked for rezoning from Residential A to "limited business," have done an excellent job in presenting their objections to any change and there has been so little to justify the apparent sentiment of the Planning Board that many, who attended the public hearings with an open mind and no fixed opinion on the good or evil of the proposed zoning ordinance, came away from Monday night's public hearing convinced that, right at this moment, there isn't much to say for the idea of changing Shunpike Road to anything but residential.

Members of the Planning Board, inspired only by the well-accepted fact that Springfield must grow, were faced with a very difficult and voluminous task of setting up zones in a Township that was, practically, all residential.

Naturally, it would be difficult to satisfy everybody and necessary changes in an expanding area will have to step on some toes. However, there hasn't been any convincing argument or explanation on behalf of the Planning Board in the discussions on rezoning that section of Shunpike Road and Baltusrol Way.

Too much fine work has been done by the Planning Board, the consulting engineers and others in the various Township offices, in preparing this proposed zoning ordinance and nothing should jeopardize or even delay too long, the legal processes in having it adopted in Springfield. There are so many other features—other changes aimed at the future of the Township in the ordinance—but all the attention in the two public hearings has been centered on this one controversial section of the ordinance.

Sentiment in all sections of Springfield has already crystallized—and there are even a great number who were very articulate and made themselves heard at the public hearings—that the zoning ordinance recommendation should restore Residential A to that particular Shunpike Road section and let this very comprehensive municipal legislation be adopted.

Springfield will need a firm interpretation of such an ordinance for the future. We understand there is an old Planning Board recommendation gathering dust in the files of the Township Committee. This one should be adopted, passed and become a part of the Township laws—and all it needs, unless we are mistaken—is that change on the Shunpike Road area.

We're not trying to be coy about not mentioning Daystrom and its plans to construct executive offices on the particular portion of Shunpike Road, known as the Baltusrol tract. But, we are inclined to believe that

Don Eick Writes Sizzling Letter on Zone Controversy

The proposed new zoning ordinance for Springfield and the controversy stirred up by the Planning Board in changing a section of Shunpike road from Residential A to "limited business," has flooded Springfield with letters—mostly opposed to the zoning map as shown at Monday night's hearing.

One letter, admittedly written by and sent over the signature of Donald J. Eick of 194 Henshaw avenue, one of the spokesmen for that group of objectors, was addressed to Thomas Roy Jones, President of Daystrom, Inc., and copies to President of Baltusrol Golf Club, Mayor Albert G. Binder and several others, it is understood.

The letter which Mr. Eick says he wrote and mailed, describes, in detail, the objections of residents to what he calls "spot zoning" and accuses the Baltusrol Golf Club of being in a deal by writing that "we found that within the last ten days the Zoning Board had changed the residential classification of the tract in question—ostensibly at the request of the Baltusrol Golf Club because of a tentative commitment to your company."

Mr. Eick's letter is rather lengthy but part of it reads as follows: "Some of the members (of the Planning Board) however, particularly Mayor Albert Binder, had attempted to 'spot zone' this tract two years ago and, having been rebuffed, have continued the fight. Since then,

Frank M. Kerr, chairman of the Springfield Planning Board, and other members of this much harassed Township body, are in Atlantic City this week, primarily to attend the annual meetings of the state planning boards and to enjoy a little respite from the two week's bombardment at the public hearings for the proposed new zoning ordinance for 1954.

Mr. Kerr has taken a brief case, jammed with notes, protests and hurriedly prepared minutes of the two public hearings, and hopes to discuss some of the problems confronting the planning board.

Daystrom Asks Springfield To Await Details

"A quiet, attractive location where property values can be maintained and where we can make a definite contribution in beautifying the neighborhood" is Daystrom's aim in seeking to locate on Shunpike Road.

In a letter to residents of the area, William C. Stafford, Daystrom's community relations director, said, "We feel that Daystrom can be an asset to Springfield. Our aims in establishing the long-term character and beauty of the area and maintaining property values are the same as yours."

Daystrom's architect will have detailed plans, typographic sketches, plans for landscaping and shrubbery and other material ready about December 1, Stafford said. The company would like to develop the area into a park-like atmosphere, so that abutting property owners would have properly landscaped and improved adjoining land, he said.

Daystrom has written to 19 of the city's neighborhood and civic organizations offering to meet with the groups to discuss in detail Daystrom's plans for development of the Shunpike road tract and to seek suggestions and ideas from local residents. "Several groups have said they would like to go over our plans when they are ready," Stafford said yesterday.

Stafford said Daystrom's plans had apparently been confused with previous projects considered for the tract. "Daystrom does not contemplate any large office building. Our present plans call for an attractive headquarters structure of approximately 11,000 square feet. Our headquarters organization comprises about 40 people in all. Furthermore, this development is in no way to be confused with manufacturing, as one of our objectives is to have a quiet spot which will facilitate the planning and conference activities required of our executives."

The company plans that at some time in the future, electric and electronic research facilities will be located in a separate building. The research building would house Daystrom's top level research and development engineers and their technical staffs, Stafford said.

"It was realized by the people that if such an installation as proposed, was good for Springfield, surely these wealthy, headheaded-business men would naturally want such a plum to beautify, provide an additional source of employment, reduce taxes, etc., in their own towns

Out of the Atlantic City stay may come the date of the next meeting of the Planning Board at which time the members will consider all the objections and make changes in the proposed ordinance for recommendation to the Township Committee.

While next week has a holiday there is a very good chance that the Planning Board will meet early since it is Mr. Kerr's desire to get the matter before the Township officials as soon as possible. The next regular meeting of the Township Committee is December 8.

Monday night's second public hearing on the proposed new zoning ordinance for 1954 practically jammed the gymnasium of the Florence M. Gaudineer School and the objectors to the proposed rezoning of the Shunpike road area, near Baltusrol way, left no question in the minds of the Planning Board that they mean to oppose changing this residential

Mayor Suggests Naming 3 To Sit On Board

Mayor Albert G. Binder who has his sights set on a "better Springfield" presents an idea that may save the much battered new Township zoning ordinance from further punishment. With the consent of the Planning Board and the advice of the legal department, Mayor Binder would like to appoint three citizens—all located in the area displaying the most aggressive objections to the ordinance—to sit in with the Township Planning Board at its next meeting and help iron out many of the problems.

Mayor Binder suggests two names—David L. Keplan and Donald J. Eick, both articulate representatives of the Henshaw-Hawthorn Association, but he would be willing to consider appointing any three men.

Following is Mayor Binder's statement in reference to this matter: "The two prescribed public hearings have been held by the Springfield Planning Board on the recommended map and text for the zoning ordinance of 1954.

"The proposed changes, as set forth by the Planning Board, in conjunction with the services of a consulting engineer, was the result of approximately a full year study of facts, figures, conditions and circumstances. The ultimate conclusions were based on long range observations for the future welfare of all Springfield and not on partisan, sectional or selfish pleas by individuals, groups or combination of both."

"It is very true that all these factors were taken into consideration, but, in addition, it is likewise the duty of the board to promote and protect the public health, safety, moral and general welfare of the Township of Springfield in accordance with a comprehensive plan with long-term objectives, principles and standards deemed beneficial to the interests and welfare of all the people in Springfield. This the board has attempted to do in its humble but conscientious efforts."

"In view of objections to the proposed plan which, through

Arrest of two youngsters in Maplewood who are said to have admitted a series of burglaries, including a recent one in Springfield, told the police that "they never try to burglarize a house where there is a single light burning" which is the advice passed along by the local police department to all residents of the Township.

Detective Vincent Pinkava announced yesterday that not only was the recent burglary at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Pushtnik of 23 Sherwood road on October 19 cleared up with the arrest of two teen-agers in Maplewood last week end but that some of the "loot," especially important and valuable papers, have been recovered. A local angle to the alleged confession of the two youngsters who are said to have admitted a series of robberies including the one in Springfield, is the turning over of Anthony Joseph Marini, age 20, of 33 Battlemill avenue, to the North Plainfield police on a warrant from that municipality charging him with being the driver of the car

Broadway, Hollywood and television talent scouts may discover the star of 1954 in the cast of the musical and variety show being staged in the St. James School auditorium tomorrow and Saturday evenings at 8:15 and Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rehearsals in the past few days indicate an almost perfect and professional performance with a well trained precision chorus of 35 members, specially trained with stage effects, songs of both classical and popular selection and all kinds of dancing numbers, including acrobatic, tap, group and couple specialties.

The entire cast is made up of amateurs but the stage presentation has been moving along very well and tomorrow evening's opening performance should reflect the enthusiasm of the actors and actresses. A great number of tickets at $1.25 each have already been sold and packed houses are expected for all three shows. Sun-those who are objecting to the present zoning of that area from Residential-A to "limited business" would be in a more receptive mood or, at least, they will have had an opportunity to learn exactly what Daystrom intended to do with this property. Then the request for a variance would be decided on the merits of the application made by Daystrom and not on what the special uses permitted under limited business categories would do to the values of the property.

Daystrom is just as interested in preserving the beauty of the area as are the residents in the neighborhood of the site being considered for the construction of the Colonial design executive office. Baltusrol Golf Club is also interested in property values and certainly wouldn't enter into any future plans that might affect their own club house and golf course. As a matter of fact, we understand the option given by Baltusrol to Daystrom contains so many restrictions that even the most avid and vociferous objectors would never think of all the confining limitations on whatever is planned there.

We still want to sit on the 50 yard line—keep score and watch the contest—but it is our thought that the most important thing at this moment is to get a new zoning ordinance for 1954 passed and, if it means changing Shunpike back to Residential-A, it should be done. If there are good reasons for variances, any hardships or any ideas that might help any particular area, all that can be done when tempers have cooled off and not everybody will measure it by "how will this affect me?"

History of Springfield's Reserve Fire Corps

A little known but decidedly active group among Springfield civic organizations is the Springfield Reserve Fire Corps. Originally established for World War II, as strictly a civil defense unit, and reorganized in December, 1950, by the late Fire Chief Charles A. Pinkava, for the Korean War, it has gradually become an integral part of the local fire department organization, with "Reserve" substituted for "Civil Defense" in its designation. Under the new State Disaster Control program, it appears likely to continue as an active unit indefinitely.

Meetings, known in fire department parlance as "drills," are held twice a month, on the first and third Monday evenings, at Fire Headquarters and members receive instruction in the operation of fire apparatus, the location and use of equipment carried on the trucks, first aid, methods of fighting various types of fires, etc. Much of their training has been under the guidance of Herbert Fay, veteran member of the Volunteer force, with the able assistance of members of the regular department. At the invitation of Chief Charles Schilling, the Reserves respond to alarms whenever possible and work with the volunteers and paid men at fires to acquire actual experience. A report recently compiled showed that during the year 1953 the Reserve Corps was represented at 77 fires out of the total of 107 for which alarms were sounded. Supplementing their training and experience in Springfield, some of the members have attended sessions of the Union County Fire School, in Roselle, where they heard lectures by men prominent in fire department circles in Union and Essex counties.

In addition to regulation helmets, coats and boots, the Reserves are equipped with gray uniforms, regulation blue caps and special badges. In the Memorial Day parade this year, they had nearly 100 per cent attendance; and on September 25 more than half of the group joined the Springfield contingent in a huge parade in Jersey City, to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the City's fire department. The Reserves have one piece of apparatus which they regard as their own—a two-wheeled trailer known as the "C. D. Pumper." Contributed by the U. S. Government, during World War II, it consists of a gasoline engine and a powerful pump, capable of throwing a two 2½ inch streams under high pressure. It can draw water out of a brook or pond if the usual hydrant supply is not available, and more than one Springfield resident has had reason to be grateful for its efficiency, when he had a cellar full of water. This trailer can be hauled by the Fire Department's "Jeep," but more often the motive power is furnished by a garage wrecker belonging to one of the Reserve members. Residents in the Springbrook Park section will probably recall seeing this combination in action, on an occasional summer evening, on the Baltusrol avenue bridge over Stony Brook, pumping water out of the brook and returning it through fire hose lines held by Reserve men.

Two public hearings on the new zoning ordinance, as prescribed by statute, have now been held at which time no defense in behalf of the Shumpike limited business clause affecting 18 acres, with the exception of one, has been made. Why? Because the feeling and attitude is preponderantly against such a change. No doubt there is a small minority (they were afforded the same, equal opportunity before the Town Planning Board at the public hearings) who see the taxes for the trees, the financial relief for the burden of a built-up area. Let us therefore keep our pride in the natural and residential appearance of Shumpike road and our town as well by the Town Planning Board's heeding to the wishes of the people. A daily newspaper of Nov. 10, 1954, quoted Mr. Frank Kerr, chairman of the Town Planning Board, as saying at the first of the public hearings, when charged with spot zoning, "If the people choose it we will change it." We hope so.

Woman's Club News

The Ways and Means Department's first project of the season, a Dessert-Card Party, was held Tuesday, November 9, at Koss Bros., Rahway. Everyone who attended enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon. Mrs. Robert W. Hamilton, department chairman, expresses her thanks to all the members of her committee who worked so diligently towards making the card party a success and especially to Mrs. Louis James and Mrs. George Wilson who were the chairman and co-chairman respectively of this event.

Twenty-two members of the American Home Department shared in a Cookie Exchange at their meeting on November 9 at the home of Mrs. Elmer Arnold, 36 Severna ave. Chairman, Mrs. Ostrom, reported that many dozens of home-made cookies of every variety were brought to the meeting. There were filled cookies, coconut, nut, crunchy kinds and many, many more. Members sampled each others cookies and exchanged recipes. Work was continued on the embroidered tablecloth and some members worked on their Christmas gift project so that the meeting was a true "work-session" in addition to being a delightful social affair.

Mrs. Arnold was assisted by Mrs. Victor Brink and Mrs. J. Frank Jakobsen as co-hostesses.

Mrs. John Pitney, 52 Woodcrest Circle, was hostess at an afternoon meeting of the Youth Conservation and Civics Departments on Friday, November 12. Some 10 members gathered to discuss plans for the next two Pre-Teen Dances on November 19 and December 10. These dances sponsored by the Departments and the Springfield Recreation Committee are meeting with huge success. They have been held for seventh and eighth graders from Springfield in the Gaudinier School and have been supervised by representatives of the Springfield Woman's Club and the Springfield Recreation Committee. The next dance will feature an "After the Game" theme.

Any member of the Springfield Woman's Club who is interested in joining the department is cordially invited to attend the next meeting of the group scheduled for Friday afternoon, January 7, 1:00 p.m. to 2:30. The place of meeting will be announced later. Civics Department Chairman, Mrs. Pitney has announced that a new schedule of dates for department meetings will be formulated and that all dates will be announced in this column from time to time.

"The Christ Child," a Christmas Cantata by C. B. Hawley will be presented by members of the Music Department as part of the special Christmas program they have arranged for Club Night, December first, in the Caldwell School. The group has been working this year under the leadership of Chairman Mrs. Vincent Bonadies, and an especially beautiful seasonal program is promised. Club members will have the privilege of bringing their husbands as guests to the special meeting. State Federation President, Mrs. Wilson Y. Christian, and Fifth District Vice-President, Mrs. Stanton H. Davis, will be among the honored guests at this meeting which is our Federation Guest Day program.

Music Department members have been rehearsing since September under the direction of Mrs. William Osborn, teacher of music in the Springfield Schools. Several solo interludes in the cantata and a number of lovely choruses make this melodious work one of the most impressive presentations ever attempted by the Music Department. Piano accompanist will be Mrs. John S. Trout.

Club members are reminded that the "White Gifts" will be continued this year. Each member is requested to bring to the December meeting a gift for a child, wrapped in white paper on which is written the sex of the child for which the gift is intended and the age of the child. These gifts will be distributed to Springfield children during the holiday season by Miss Florence Gaudinier.

A lively, interesting evening was spent by members of the Garden Department and guests on November 15 at the home of Mrs. Louis Schneider, 249 Bryant Ave., when Mrs. Rhumba Beard of Flemington, presented a General Merchandise Demonstration. Christmas shopping was begun in earnest by many of the women attending the meeting, for the articles shown were of very high quality, varied, and very moderately priced. Toys, jewelry, hats and matching handbags, woven baskets of every description, etc., were exhibited. Department chairman, Mrs. Christian Anderson was very pleased with the response of the group especially since 15 per cent of the total sales will benefit the department's treasury to be used, among other things, towards donations to Federal projects.

Department member and any interested club members are reminded that aprons for Greystone Hospital patients, handkerchiefs, and sachet packets are to be given to Mrs. Anderson by December 1.

On Monday evening, flower containers made by the department members were returned to the girls after firing. The results were splendid and very original and decorative.

Co-hostesses for this meeting were Mrs. Robert Madsen and Mrs. George Rau who together with Mrs. Schneider prepared very delicious refreshments of homemade cookies, tea and coffee.

A large and important project will soon be undertaken by members of this active, energetic department. Corsages will be made for all special guests at the December 1 Club Night and for club officers. Also, the members will assist the Music Department with stage decorations. Mrs. Anderson hopes that most of her girls will be able to devote some time to helping with these tasks. Special dates are announced for the making of the corsages. The group will meet at Mrs. Anderson's home on N. Overlook 20, at 7:00 p.m. on December 1 at 9:30 p.m. Remember the date and the place, 32 Lyon Place. On December 1 at 3:00 p.m. Garden Department members are requested to meet at the James Caldwell School to decorate the stage for the evening's performance.

Mrs. Donald E. Shimkus

The wedding of Barbara Gail Benhoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Benhoff of 116 South Maple avenue and Donald E. Shimkus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony E. Shimkus of 47 Myrtle street, Cranford, took place in the First Presbyterian Church on Saturday, November 6. The double ceremony was performed by the Rev. Bruce Evans. A reception followed for the immediate families at the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Rita Haussman of Springfield, was the maid of honor and Donald O'Brien of Garwood was best man. Robert Shimkus of Cranford, brother of the bridegroom, ushered. The organist was Charles Sills and the soloist was Donald Flemer. Mr. Flemer sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because."

Mrs. Shimkus wore a winter white brocade dress and a shoulder veil from a white sequin and pearl cap. She carried a white sweetheart rose nosegay. Miss Haussman wore a peacock blue taffeta dress with pink accessories. She carried a pink and wine rose nosegay.

The couple are both graduates of Regional High School. Mrs. Shimkus is employed by Chubb and Son, Short Hills and Mr. Shimkus is employed by Singer Mfg. Co., Elizabeth. After a trip to Atlantic City, they will reside on Madison avenue, Elizabeth.

area to what has been defined as "limited business."

Representatives from four of the five civic associations in Springfield strongly voiced their objections and petitions, with more than 500 signatures, were reported ready to be delivered to the Planning Board.

The meeting gave the various spokesmen an opportunity to register their objections but there were none of the heated exchanges that sparked the first public hearing.

The Planning Board is now to consider all the protests and suggestions at a meeting and their recommendations, relayed to the Township Committee. The ordinance, with the changes made by the Planning Board, is then to be introduced by the Township Committee but, before it is passed on its final reading, a public hearing is held in compliance with the law.

—but such is not the case. The people know the obvious answer.

"The attitude of the Baltusrol Club management has aroused the curiosity of many of the people in the community, as to the golf club's worth to the township and has raised the question of whether or not this enterprise is wealthy, out of town people pays its just, fair and equitable taxes for the very valuable township acreage it occupies. You can be assured that this will be a subject for special study in the future."

"It was also brought to light that Baltusrol has received offers from contractors and builders for the sale of their land for the erection of fine homes—and any such offers have been refused."

"In short, the Baltusrol Golf Club is now regarded as a BAD NEIGHBOR to be watched with suspicion."

The canals and underlined BAD NEIGHBOR in the above sentence is shown in Mr. Eick's own duplicate of letter he says he wrote and mailed.

Mr. Eick's concluding paragraph of the very long letter states: "I hasten to add, however, that for your company's public and community relations, we ask that you not persist in having the golf club prevail upon the politicians in the wish to 'spot zone' the Baltusrol tract. If the venture were to be successful, you would be a very unwelcome neighbor and your company would start with three strikes against it."

Mayor Suggests

orderly procedure and impersonal approach. I now propose the following:

"With the consent of the members of the Springfield Planning Board and the Township Committee, I will invite or appoint three representative citizens from the area which appears to be the most controversial, to sit with the Township Planning Board and lend their talents and efforts to effect a solution of this pressing problem."

"It is to be understood, however, that those selected will accept such responsibilities on the basis that they will divorce themselves of any sectional objectives and act in a truly representative manner for ALL the citizens of Springfield. They will have the benefit of all facts and figures, conditions and circumstances that time and place did not afford at the public hearings."

"I make this offer on a purely conciliatory and cooperative basis, and I am sure the Planning Board and Township Committee will welcome their comments, advice and opinions, and incorporate them in their ultimate decisions."

"If agreeable, permissible and legal, I would like to appoint three citizens, namely David L. Kaplan and Donald J. Eick and one other gentleman to be selected by the aforementioned. Or, if this is not acceptable then, with the advice and recommendations of the civic groups in the disputed area, three citizens of their choice will be named."

Edgerly, Drake Enroll

Mr. Norman Edgerly has enrolled as a senior in the Ministerial course at Northwestern Bible Institute. The Institute also announced the enrollment of Mr. Vernon Drake as junior in the General Bible course.

Both men reside at 631 Mountain Avenue.

OUR 30TH ANNIVERSARY...

Yes, it is a very important landmark for us.

When we first came here—it seems so long ago—we established not only a business but a principle.

A simple principle: to give to our customers every advantage in service, in know-how, in equipment and facilities, keeping step with the March of Progress in a dynamic and fast-changing industry.

We serve today many families whom we served 30 years ago. And as their sons and daughters branch off to establish homes of their own, they follow the example of their parents and also "buy from Woolley."

We serve industry too—the many fine firms who appreciate the way we do business and serve them.

To all of you, thanks so very, very much. We pledge in the future to maintain the Woolley tradition so scrupulously built in the past.

SUNNING SPORTS

By BOB DUBOW

As we go to press for our next Thanksgiving edition we find Regional's footballers still getting kicked around, the basketballers starting their training, and the grapplers also beginning their pre-season warm-up drills.

At these three seasons run into each other we find that football still holds the limelight. During their last contest the Bulldogs put up a most gallant effort but mistakes on their part were cashed in on by the other team and meant the winning 28-14 score.

The school they faced, Linden, is supposed to be a leading contender for sectional honors but the spirited Bulldogs almost pulled a real upset.

Beside beating the Bulldogs on the gridiron, vandals descended on the Meisel Avenue Field Friday night and made a shambles out of it. The field house was painted with pink paint and read LINDEN GO. YEA LINDEN, and others. The soccer goal posts were taken out of their stays, the goal posts were torn out and painted, the fence around the field was also given a going over. One perturbed Regional fan quipped at the big L. H. S. sign painted on the door of the field house, he said it must stand for Lascivious High School!

RECAP OF LINDEN GAME
After holding their formidable opponents even in the initial period, the Bulldogs managed to grab the lead in the second quarter. Joe Galini, pierced the defense and blocked a Linden punt, Curt Merz, Bulldog end who played a terrific game picked up the oval and trotted the remaining 20 or so yards for the touchdown. Bob Wyckoff then split the up-rights with the extra-point placement and the Regionals held a 7-0 margin. Late in the period, however, with only a minute to go until the half, the Lindeners tallied on a play which was the carbon copy of the Bulldogs earlier scoring effort.

As the second half opened the Lindeners drove to the Regional where they pushed over another tally and took the lead by a 14-7 score.

Lengthening their margin, the Lindeners scored on the sixth play of the final quarter on a 15 yard jaunt. With the score at 21-7 the Bulldogs came right back with a tally of their own on a pass to end Curt Merz, from Ed McCarthy. Bob Wyckoff again added the extra-point. Late in the period with the score at 21-14 the Bulldogs regained possession on their own 20 yard strike. On the first play from scrimmage Art De Blasio attempted an aerial but it was intercepted and turned into another touchdown for the Linden squad.

Stars In Latest Papermill Show - 'Goodbye My Fancy'

Katherine Meskill

Katherine Meskill and Conrad Nagel, co-starring in "Goodbye, My Fancy," Fay Kanin's brilliant comedy about college and Congress, currently delighting audiences at the Paper Mill Playhouse, in Millburn, are contributing distinguished performances to the Paper Mill's newest hit of its Fall Festival of Plays.

As the opportunistic head of the Good Hope College for Women, "James Merrill," Mr. Nagel brings a wealth of characterization and a striking stage-presence to the role he so successfully created in the original Broadway production. Katherine Meskill as "Agatha Reed," the lovely lady from Congress who gets into both romantic and ideological complications when she pays a visit to her Alma Mater, furnishes a stage portrait that is irresistibly alluring and she is a fascinating figure to watch as she wends her way through the play's situations.

Looking glamorous and chic, Miss Meskill also brings authority to the more dramatic moments; tenderness and warmth to the more sentimental episodes.

Frank Carrington and Agnes Morgan have directed the production with vigor and pace in a handsome setting provided by Herman Rosse.

A bright and intelligent comedy, with some electrifying performances on the part of its cast, "Goodbye, My Fancy" provides a wonderfully entertaining evening at the Paper Mill Playhouse, where it will be on view through Sunday, November 28.

LETTERS

November 6, 1954
To the President of the PTA, Springfield, N. J.

In passing thru Springfield today, we had to stop for a red light in front of the garage where your organization had their cake sale, and fortunate were we.

I bought the most delicious things - hot candied-nut-buns, pumpkin-pie and a delicious coffee cake. I wish I had bought one of your lovely cakes. I have never seen a finer display of cakes anywhere. Please let me know when you will again have a sale and I will surely be there.

Mrs. E. H. Kuber,

An area teaching conference for the Bahais of Southern New Jersey will be held this Sunday, November 21 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Loas, 141-Salter St. Similar conferences will be held over the world, at which time methods for promoting the teachings of the Bahai World Faith will be discussed.

The Bahai Faith which began in 1844 is a Universal religion based upon the teachings of Baha'u'llah (Glory of God). These teachings are:

1. The oneness of man kind.
2. Independent investigation of truth.
3. The foundation of all religion is one.
4. Religion must be in the cause of unity.
5. Religion must be in accord with science and reason.
6. Equality between men and women.
7. Prejudice of all kinds must be forgotten.
8. Universal peace.
9. Universal education.
10. Spiritual solution of the economic problem.
11. A universal language.
12. An international tribunal.

There are Bahais in 235 countries of the world promoting the above teachings. After the conference a public meeting will be held starting at 5 p. m. Aaron Bowen of New York will be the guest speaker. His subject will be, "What the Bahai

SCHOOL NEWS

JAMES CALDWELL
Kindergarten
Mrs. Anne Bean
Miss Dolores Weber

With the advent of winter weather the kindergartners have been talking about the preparations that people and animals make for the cold weather ahead. They have been learning about foods and how they get to a local food store, and making play food. They have planned a visit to a nearby food store.

Mrs. Ottile Corby
Mrs. Mary Edna Snider
Mrs. Yola Hanan

Our mothers came back to school one night. Just imagine that! We saved some of our papers to show them. We made folders to put the papers in. They saw some of our number papers, writing papers, and reading papers. Some of us made paper cut-outs of our houses and all of the people who belong to our family. Others made cut-outs of Dick and Jane's family. We put our "Think and Do" reading worksheets and our number worksheets on our tables so that our mothers could see what we do. Our teachers told our mothers about the plans for the year. We hope that our mothers liked "Back to School" night.

Grade Two
Mrs. Audrey Shaffer

With the coming of winter weather we are beginning to get into a holiday mood. We have been reading holiday stories and learning little holiday songs and poems.

Our room looked so cheerful this month with the many pictures of pilgrims, turkeys and pumpkin pie. The boys and girls had such fun making them.

We never get tired of writing our numbers from one to one hundred since we have been using number square after writing our numbers. We make colorful designs with them. So far we have made a toy man, a black cat and a boat.

We are to be first in guessing the design.

In reading, we have been writing our own stories and illustrating them. Many of our interesting pictures of the group is also making a rhyme book. The rhymes are about characters in the reading book. Some of them are as follows:

Grade Two
Miss Marilyn Mae Honey

A Health play Johnny Toothbrush was presented for the Assembly on November 10th. The play was the culminating activity of the Health Studies for the preceding week. The adventures of Johnny pointed up the important role of caring for teeth properly. The action was done in pantomime with a reader presenting the background. The costumes were made by the class during their Art period.

A group of children have begun writing and illustrating their own stories based upon their reading stories. These stories were displayed and made available for the whole class to enjoy at the library table.

The Thanksgiving spirit was very much in evidence during November. Songs, stories, and poems helped set the stage for the children to express what things they are thankful for. Some of the class presented a model Pilgrim dinner in the classroom to show how the first Thanksgiving was held. It was based upon pictures and stories discussed in Social Studies.

Grade Two
Miss Harriet E. Smith

We have been trying very hard to do good work in our room. Many of us have had perfect spelling test papers. Some of us have had our own writing papers on display. Many of us have done some nice work in art class.

We enjoyed our Halloween party. We paraded, had refreshments, sang, heard a story and played games. We discussed proper Halloween behavior. We were careful not to hurt anyone or to damage anything belonging to anyone else.

Grade Two
Mrs. Joanne Holak

We have made a mural about Thanksgiving. First we discussed what Thanksgiving means to us. Then after much planning we got to work and began painting. We are really proud of it.

We need lots of practice in arithmetic. To help remember, we made charts for ourselves. To show one half and one quarter some of us made large bells, squares, and other pictures and actually cut them in halves and fourths. At home, we practiced counting the pennies in our piggy bank. We know the difference between nickels, dimes, quarters, and half dollars because our parents let us handle money when we go shopping.

Grade Three
Miss Patricia Brunetto

Our class has been studying Indians. They have taken names of Indian chiefs, Scouts and Squaws. Geonimo, Sacajawes, and Pocahontas have been settling in our desks. We have planned a pow-wow, a war dance, and may even consider selling Manhattan Island to Peter Minuit. In a moon we have planned going up the Great River with Henry Hudson, through the land of the Mohawks to Alabiv. Anyone brave enough to face a Mohawk is invited along!

Grade Three
Mrs. Mabel D. Stearns

Members of Mrs. Stearns' third grade class have been watching our selves and each other in order to improve our health and posture. We want to keep from appearing giraffe. We want to stand and sit tall, and keep our bodies nice and straight. We celebrated National Book Week in November by adding apples to our Book Tree which says "Reading Beans Fruit." Each apple stands for book we have read.

Grade Three
Mrs. Margaret Burns

The Class finished their Unit on Indians by doing a dance for Assembly. We have been talking about the early history of Springfield. In connection with this we took a walk around the town to visit some of the historic places.

Grade Four
Mrs. Isabella Huff
Mrs. Helen Hyder
Miss Rose Marie Di Napoli

Our class gave a play in the auditorium. Our play told the meeting of the Junior Red Cross and how the Junior Red Cross serves others. We closed our program with the American Red Cross song. This play was an introduction to the Junior Red Cross Drive which will begin on November 15th. During the rest of the year, favors for the various holidays will be made and sent to the Veterans Hospital at Lyons.

Ennie Alibell told us his aquarium. We planted it with mosses, ferns and other plants that Mrs. Spencer brought us from her farm in Sussex. Jerry Scourzo provided the pebbles, sand and charcoal and Dirinda Witcher and Lianne Eger found some pretty stones. A piece of wood covered with fungi makes a nice background for the turtles in her tank. Our terrarium looks like a small forest and it will last all winter.

Grade Five
Mrs. Constance Bilewicz
Mrs. Edna Pursel
Miss Frances Wahl

There has been much rivalry between the baseball teams in Miss Pursel's class. The boys have played a little World Series. Miss Pursel's class has won two out of three games.

The batteries have been Robert Baker and Robert Kirk in 5 P and Lawrence Strick and George Barlett in 5 W.

We have made three-dimensional faces in Mrs. Wahl's class. Some of the Indian faces in Miss Wahl's room are very life-like.

Class "B" has planned the publication of a class magazine. You will hear more of this in the near future.

League of Woman Voters Discusses Election Laws

"The Administration of New Jersey State Election Laws" will be the topic of two unit discussion meetings planned by the League of Women Voters of Springfield. This topic is also currently on the State League's agenda for study by their local groups throughout New Jersey. The League in New Jersey has been interested in election laws improvement ever since it was founded in 1920. This non-partisan organization has worked for and consistently supported four major changes that have been adopted during that period: state-wide permanent registration; the direct primary; the permissive voting machine law; and absentee voting for civilians as well as military personnel. By studying this topic, the present membership and their friends will have an opportunity to consider which improvements are most essential, and at what points the League can be most effective in obtaining an election system that will reflect the wishes of the voter and prevent fraud.

The first meeting was held on Tuesday, November 16 at 8:15 p.m. in the Reading Room of the Springfield Public Library; and an identical meeting is being held today, November 18, at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Henry Wasung at 65 Woodcrest Circle. Mrs. Edwin Bebout of Cedar Grove will be the guest speaker. Mrs. Bebout is an associate of Mrs. G. Derwood Baker, State Election Laws Chairman, who gave a fascinating talk at the April meeting of the Springfield League. The meetings have been planned by Mrs. David T. Stammel, Unit Organization Chairman, in cooperation with Mrs. Kenneth Bandemer, Election Laws Chairman. Mrs. W. Lewandowski was the discussion leader at the evening meeting and Mrs. Henry Wasung will act in that capacity at the afternoon meeting.

Local Girls Represent

The Junior Red Cross representatives of the Kent Place Primary School, Sally Champlin and Merriam Booth, both of Springfield, attended a large meeting and tea given by the Summit Red Cross Chapter at their local headquarters recently. The meeting included delegates from all of the Summit Schools who assembled for the purpose of exchanging ideas for their individual fall and winter school programs, and to hear interesting reports of the current widespread activities of the Summit Red Cross.

Visits Springfield

J. Edward Hoagland, now of Indianapolis, spent the week end visiting with his mother, Mrs. J. T. Hoagland of 151 Tooker avenue, and for a little hunting trip in his home state with his two brothers, Robert of Westfield and Kenneth of Frenchtown. The present Indiana resident is well known in Springfield, having been very active in Boy Scout affairs when he resided here and served as Scout Master of Troop 66.
