Annual Clean Up Week Starts Here on Monday

The annual clean-up, paint up, fix up week for Springfield starts next Monday, April 30 and continues until Saturday, May 12.

The Township asks the cooperation of all residents to help in this annual drive to help beautify, preserve properties, eliminate fire hazards and improve the general appearance of Springfield during these clean-up weeks.

The scavenger contractor will help in this drive and are asked to join in the clean-up by checking each home from cellar to attic and outside, too. Here are some of the questions you can check:

1. Have you cleaned your attic of all trash?
2. Have you cleaned your hallways of rubbish?
3. Have you cleaned your cellar of all trash?
4. If your garage free of trash?
5. Are your front and back yards neat and clean?

This is the time of year to get rid of all trash and the scavenger contractor is ready to pick up every day. It is part of the agreement with the garbage contractor which reads as follows:

"The Township Committee, in conjunction with the Board of Health, may designate two weeks in each year as 'Clean Up Weeks' during which the contractor will remove from the curb any and all premises in the Township all rubbish or other materials placed there for collection, of which, however, no single piece shall weigh more than 100 pounds. The contractor shall not ask for nor shall he receive any extra compensation from the Township or from the occupant for the collection of such rubbish and material presented for collection during 'Clean Up Weeks'."

"Collections required of the scavenger by this paragraph shall be made during the regular collection periods required under this specification to wit: Twice during each clean up week designated. Collections during 'Clean Up Weeks' shall not be limited to or qualified by the work hitherto defined under the caption of ashes, garbage, refuse, rubbish."

In addition to the usual entertainment program, each person attending the show will be presented with a directory book which contains all important data regarding municipal officials and departments with up-to-date phone numbers as well as an extensive handy directory of merchants, professional men and other business establishments, fully classified for prompt and efficient usage.

This directory which may be kept close to each user's telephone, will save countless hours and eliminate many daily annoying delays when intelligently used for obtaining local phone numbers.

The Lions Variety Show itself with its galaxy of outstanding T. V., Radio, and Stage Standout performers, embracing a wide variety of entertainment including comedy, music, and novelty acts, promises to be the best Springfield has yet been privileged to enjoy.

All proceeds of this big annual extravaganza are used by the local service organization solely for the purpose of furthering its already extensive civic and charitable projects in addition to inaugurating new worthwhile projects such as the "Student Aid Fund" from time to time.

According to Ticket Chairman C. Roderick Gibbins, although the major portion of tickets have been sold, a few are still available for those who may still wish to "jump on the bandwagon." These tickets may be obtained by applying at the door at Regional Auditorium immediately preceding the performance.

Here's Chance For Easy Job For Retired People

If there are any retired people in Springfield—either male or female—who want to work a few hours in the open—there are three jobs now open as special school guards in the Township.

All you have to do is to apply to Chief of Police Albert A. Sorge at Police Headquarters. Chief Sorge believes this is a fine opportunity for some retired people to add to their incomes with only a few hours work on school days.

Chief Sorge wants to repeat that there are now three jobs open and he would like to fill them as soon as possible.

To Plant Trees In Celebration Of Arbor Day

Civic organizations throughout the entire nation will be celebrating Arbor Day, tomorrow April 27. In the Township of Springfield the Shade Tree Commission as well as the school children and civic organizations will be participating in this celebration.

Each year the Shade Tree Commission, after due deliberation, chooses a site to beautify. Last year, on Arbor Day, five Japanese cherry trees were planted along the brook in the municipal parking lot. Choosing a site to beautify for the Arbor Day ceremonies this year was again undertaken by the Shade Tree Commission whose membership consists of Felix Gold, Nathan Hart and Edward A. Cardinal, Chairman. After discussing various locations, it was decided that the Henshaw-Hawthorn playground was in great need of shade trees, and that six shade trees should be planted here.

These six shade trees will be planted at the Henshaw-Hawthorn playground at Arbor Day ceremonies on Friday, at 10 A. M. Mayor Binder is scheduled to be the speaker, as well as representatives of local civic organizations. In event of rain, the postponed date is April 30.

Beardsley Again Local Chairman

Charles F. Beardsley, now member of the Union County Board of Elections, was again selected as municipal chairman of the local Republican County Committee at the regular organization meeting held Monday. Mrs. Amy Bandomer was again named the executive member of the local GOP group who represents the Springfield Committee at the county meetings.

Martha J. Sherman was selected as this year's secretary, and Daniel Gerber will serve as treasurer.

Members of the local committee enthusiastically agreed that the most important job this year will be to give President Eisenhower an even greater vote than he received here in 1952 and to work for the election of all Republican candidates in the general elections.

Mrs. Myrtle Post who has served as secretary of the local Republican committee for some time requested that she be relieved and Mrs. Sherman was elected to that position in her place.

The Democratic Municipal County Committee met for its organization meeting Monday night but voted to postpone its selection of a chairman and other officers of the committee until the eight places on the committee are filled by appointment.

Township Committeeman Vincent Bonadies said the Democratic committee members decided to fill the eight vacancies before naming officers.

Bonadies said the vacancies will be filled by appointment. He expressed belief the committee will reorganize in two weeks.

Group's Annual Meeting

St. Stephen's Evening Group will hold its annual dinner at the Friar Tuck, Cedar Grove, on Tuesday, May 1st, at 6:30 p. m. All members desiring transportation are requested to meet at the Church at 6:00 p. m. Dinner reservations should be made with Mrs. Robert Esler prior to the date of the affair.

The annual meeting will follow the dinner. Committee chairmen will make their reports and the election of officers will be held. The slate for the coming year will be presented by Mrs. Robert Smith of Springfield, chairman of the nominating committee, who has been assisted by Mrs. William Stoeckle of Millburn and Mrs. Albert Pfirrmann of Irvington.

Members are requested to bring their UTO boxes to this meeting.

Township Officials To Take No Action Now On Sunday Selling Matter

Local Men Victors In Boycott Suit

Springfield residents played an important part in a suit before Superior Court Mark A. Sullivan, Jr., in Newark this week which resulted in a verdict for local owners of a meat market who had charged that the Essex County Kasher Meat Federation had imposed a boycott against them.

The plaintiffs, Harold, Leonard and Ronald Seroff, local residents and operators of a meat market in 29 Mill road, Irvington, were given the verdict after a two-day trial, and the Federation and its officers ordered to pay damages amounting to $1,700 to cover the costs they said they incurred in fighting a boycott by the wholesalers of their establishment.

H. Lee Sarokin represented the Seroff brothers in whose favor the suit was decided and Edward R. McGlynn conducted the case for the defense.

Ordered to pay damages were the Federation and its officers, Samuel Stein, Max Orenburg, and business agent, Matthew Shulman. The defendants were held "jointly and severally" responsible for the damages.

The Seroffs successfully proved that they were the victims of a boycott during a 17-week period commencing March 4 last year by the federation and their officers. The plaintiffs testified the boycott resulted from their putting price tags on meat displayed in their shop. They said the federation's officers insisted they remove the price tags and when they refused "pressure" was brought to bear on meat wholesalers to cut off their source of supply.

Springfield doesn't intend to do anything about the matter of Sunday closing "until there is a widespread crystallization of opinion by our citizenry" according to a statement issued by Mayor Albert G. Binder and the Township Committee last night.

Dr. Simon, Dentist Opens Offices Here

Dr. Ben S. Simon, who has been in the general practice of dentistry for some time in Newark, has moved to Springfield and opened dental offices in his home at 81 Cain street, corner of Meisel avenue.

Dr. Simon is a graduate of the University of Michigan where he also received his dental degree. He has been practicing dentistry in Newark since his graduation except for four years service as captain in England for the United States Army.

Gov. Sets Dates For Mental Health

Leonard E. Best, President of the Richard Best Pencil Company and head of the Mental Health Fund Drive in Springfield, announced that Governor Robert B. Meyner yesterday proclaimed April 29 to May 5 as Mental Health Week, and asked all citizens of New Jersey to work in behalf of improved and expanded treatment facilities and for increased research into methods of treatment and of prevention of mental illness.

"In the meantime, I might suggest that those of us who are averse to shopping on the Sabbath, use that age old persuader—customer resistance."

The statement is as the result of discussion of a plan that the various municipalities on Route 22 join in passing some local legislation that would prohibit the sale of certain commodities on Sundays. It appeared to be the general opinion of the Township officials that no action be taken until the residents of Springfield have expressed their feelings as to whether or not Sunday selling should be prohibited by local ordinance.

Following is Mayor Binder's statement in full:

"Local authorities have been requested to join with neighboring towns in adopting an ordinance prohibiting sales of certain commodities on Sundays. There has been very little response from the general public, either pro or con, on this controversial matter, and few merchants have expressed their feelings on the subject.

"The effect of a Sunday ban on sales of certain commodities are by no means confined to the local merchants. The citizens of Springfield are a prime factor for our consideration. It is my personal opinion that such an ordinance to date would be unworkable and impractical, and are, in many respects, discriminatory and arbitrary.

"It is the unanimous opinion of this Board that until such time as there is a widespread crystallization of opinion of our citizenry on this matter, that no action will be taken at this time.

"In the meantime, I might suggest that those of us who are averse to shopping on the Sabbath, use that age old persuader—customer resistance."

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the people of the Township of Springfield appreciate the importance of planting more trees and shrubs to maintain and beautify the residential aspects of the Township, and

WHEREAS, the Shade Tree Commission of Springfield is anxious to make all residents aware of the programs for tree planting on Arbor Day which is to be observed in New Jersey on Friday, April 27, and

WHEREAS, the observance of Arbor Day by schools, civic organizations and clubs usually include programs designed to stress the importance of trees and their effect in improving school grounds, streets and highways, and to encourage the planting for soil and water conservation, and

WHEREAS, Arbor Day can have real meaning to the people of Springfield if they will not lose sight of the fact that if every school child planted just one tree, it would make a great difference in the landscape appearance of our community.

THEREFORE, I, Albert G. Binder, Mayor of Springfield, do hereby ordain and proclaim Friday, the twenty-seventh of April as and FURTHERMORE, I request that all residents of Springfield participate in observing this day especially set apart and consecrated to tree and shrub planting in the Township.

Done under my hand and seal this 26th day of April, 1956.

ALBERT G. BINDER,
Mayor

SRO Crowd Sees Dramatic Group Do "The Fifth Season" in Regional High

LEADING PLAYERS—The two stars of "The Fifth Season" which filled the house last Saturday night are shown above in one of the many laughter-filled scenes of the play. Left is Billy Fisher, who portrayed the role of the clothing firm's lovable partner, Max Pincus. On the right is the other partner and "Outside Man" Johnny Goodwin, portrayed by Julian Sarokin. Other show pictures on page nine.

It could very well be "The Search for Bridey Murphy" or just the childhood memory of large doses of sulphur and molasses—but spring has always been a brittle chink in my armor and I can only attribute it to dramatic workshops and little theatre groups who raise their little defiant heads in and out of the spotlight during this time of the year.

Last Saturday they literally hauled me off to the Regional High School auditorium where the Dramatic Workshop of the Springfield Jewish Community was staging its second performance of "The Fifth Season."

In a weak moment I had agreed to forsake the pleasure of television and the usual trips to the refrigerator, and before I could get a good hand hold on the railing, I found myself seated in the

Letters to Editor

Editor, SUN
 Last week, I learned at first hand what wonderful help Springfield has for a person in need. Thursday evening, April 13, I became violently ill and could not breathe. My wife called for help and within a very few minutes, we were being helped by the Police Dept. and the First Aid Squad. The First Aid Squad administered oxygen and Dr. Mond arrived shortly afterwards. Everyone concerned was very efficient and very kind and considerate. My family joins me in thus publicly expressing our gratitude.

 Sincerely,
 J. Julius Schaffter

Editor, SUN
 Inasmuch as I am a graduate of Regional High School and have resided in Springfield for a large portion of my life, I am deeply concerned with the welfare of the Youth.
 In your paper recently I read an article from which I acquired the assumption that we have in our community an overgrowth of vandalism. The local citizens seem to be puzzled as to how to deal with this problem. I saw much criticism of our youth in this article, but I saw no curiosity as to the background of their behavior.

 Every mature person knows, or should know, that a youth in his adolescent stage should be beneficially occupied. There are two decisive characteristics which are born with every human being—creation and destruction. If there is a lack of facilities in our community by which young people can do something beneficial and creative, he will undoubtedly acquire the tendency to become destructive. A good example of this was the graveyard incident.
 I took particular notice that the case involving one of our communities most outstanding member of the feline family was made a great issue. We all know that the average boy between the ages of 14-18 has an overwhelming yearning to participate in the use of firearms. If our community does not have such facilities as rifle and archery ranges, we can expect our youth to fulfill this desire by some sinister means.
 The criticism in the article I have referred to describes today's youth as being the founders of this vandalism. I am inclined to believe that if we grownups would look into the past we would find this problem prevailing in our own childhood. It is my belief that the answer to our problem lies in showing our young people that we have an interest in them with recreational activities which will keep them beneficially occupied in their spare time, and which will give them a better outlook on life.
 Yours very truly,

Garden Show Is Drawing Crowds

Record crowds streamed through the doors of the Westfield Armory this past weekend as the House, Garden and Hobby Show opened its doors. Special interest was shown in the swimming pool and the U. S. Navy Program and a number of the travel displays evoked considerable comment.

Frank Williams, president of the Westfield Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsors of the show, expressed satisfaction with the response. He said the exposition was the most complete of any ever staged in the area and "the public apparently appreciated it." One of the unusual features of the show is the number of new products and services being introduced to Union County for the first time, Williams said. He pointed out that there is something of interest for every member of the family.

The exposition, under the direction of Arthur Le Cour, will be open each evening this week from 6:30 to 10:30 p.m. and Saturday, from 2:30 to 10:30 p.m.

Women's Club News

Last Friday evening's Dessert Card Party and Fashion Show at the Hotel Suburban was indeed a treat for the hundreds of club members, husbands and friends who attended. The lovely decorations in pink and white, the delicious dessert, the beautiful fashions presented and modeled so well by members of our club, the musical background provided by Mrs. Raymond Forbes, and the many, many gifts and table favors tallied up to a wonderful, memorable evening for everyone.

Adding to the success of the event was the showing of bathing suits and play clothes of the past generation, modeled by Mrs. Henry Bultman and Mrs. William Geitz. The preview of hilarious fashions to be seen at the forthcoming Convention of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs at Atlantic City (May 8-11) proved to be a show we shall never forget. Past Presidents Mrs. Kenneth Bandemer, Mrs. Robert J. Hayes and Mrs. Merton D. Williams presented "The Federation Forward-Look" in a gala "boardwalk parade." Not to be overlooked was a showing of fashions of the racoon-coat era, during which the Charleston was capably executed by Mrs. Edward Murdock (in case anyone couldn't recognize her in the dress and headband so typical of the fashions of the day).

To all who were responsible for such pleasant evening may we once again say, "Thank you!"

Seven members of the Springfield Woman's Club attended the Fifth District Drama Festival at the Paper Mill Playhouse in Millburn last Tuesday, where they had the pleasure of seeing short plays presented in competition by Drama Departments of Women's Clubs in the Fifth District. Mrs. Michael Tatusko and Mrs. John G. Williams of the local club were among the hostesses at the event. "The Roof," a one-act comedy by Marlene Brenner and presented by the Evening Department of the Woman's Club of Bound Brook, won first-place award for the best club performance. Another one-act comedy in three scenes, "Apple Pie Order," by T. B. Morris, presented by the Evening Department of the New Market-Dunellen Woman's Club, was awarded second prize. Miss Mary Woldin, whose Irish brogue as Mrs. Clancy in "The Roof" won her the title of "Best Actress" at the Festival.

Approximately 180 Past Presidents in the Fifth District attended the Fifth District Past Presidents' Annual Spring Luncheon in the Winfield Scott Hotel in Elizabeth last Wednesday. Among them were two Past Presidents of our club, Mrs. Kenneth Bandemer and Mrs. Robert J. Hayes. Mrs. Edwin G. Davenport as Fifth District Program Chairman, presided during the Fifth District program reports at the all-day Northern New Jersey Program Conference held at the Newark Contemporary Club last Thursday. Of the many districts represented, the Fifth District is to be commended for the largest representation of Club Program Chairmen in attendance. Mrs. Charles F. Heard, First Vice-President and Program Chairman of the Springfield Woman's Club, presented a report of the programs our club has enjoyed during the 1955-56 year. Others from the local club who attended were Mrs. Watts D. Chaplin, Mrs. Amy Bandemer, Mrs. Albert O'Neill, and Mrs. Merton D. Williams.

During this coming Saturday afternoon, April 28, twelve members who were received into membership of the Springfield Woman's Club during the past year will be entertained at a Membership Tea at the Cannonball House, beginning at 2:00 p.m. These new members are Mrs. Walter Anderson, Mrs. H. E. Callahan, Mrs. William Faltoute, Mrs. DeForest Willyer, Mrs. George Hussey, Jr., Mrs. John Moore, Mrs. Stephen Paulick, Mrs. John Quinn, Mrs. Edward Reichel, Mrs. Charles Schaffernoth, Mrs. Edmund Sikorski and Mrs. Joseph Zasa.

Among other guests expected at the Membership Tea are State and District Officers, Past Presidents and all members of the Executive Board. Mrs. Gilbert E. Mann, Chairman of the Membership Committee, has announced that the event is sponsored by the Membership Committee for the purpose of acquainting the new members with the work and activities of the various departments within the club. Other members of her committee are Mrs. Victor Brink, Co-Chairman, Mrs. Arthur Buckley and Mrs. Charles Miller. They will be assisted by Mrs. Edward J. Schubert, Chairman of the Garden Department, and members of the Hospital Committee of which Mrs. Adolf Shum is Chairman. Past Presidents Mrs. Robert J. Hayes and Mrs. Merton D. Williams have been asked to pour at the tea table where the gleaming appointments on an appropriate background of green and gold, the club colors, will provide a lovely setting for the occasion.

Members of the Springfield Woman's Club who are planning to attend the 62nd Annual Convention of Women's Clubs in Atlantic City from May 8-11 have been invited by Mrs. Ford A. Starkweather to an informal "Fifth District Get-Together." The affair will be held in the Mandarin Room on the Tower Floor of Haddon Hall on the opening night of the convention following the evening session.

The Literature Department recently presented a donation of $15 to the Florence A. Gudineer School to be used in the purchase of books for the school library. (Continued on Page 9)

New York Sunday Times Boosts Newberry Stores

A story in the New York Sunday Times gave the J. J. Newberry Company considerable space in quoting its officials as being very optimistic concerning the future of retailing in the future.

The story, written by Glenn Fowler, reads as follows:

costs so little to phone anywhere

Pittsburgh . . . 75c
Montreal . . . 75c
From NEWARK after 6 PM and Sundays, 3 min. station rates, 10% tax not included.

At a time when many merchants are forecasting the decline of downtown retail districts, a major store chain is staking a good deal on the growth of its downtown trade.

The J. J. Newberry Company operates 476 variety stores across the country—in cities and towns of every size, and in a number of suburban shopping centers as well.

A month ago, Newberry renovated its store in Providence, R. I. One competing chain had closed its store there, and another was being double or tripled in size.

ing its store by 50 per cent, completely refurbishing the interior and putting a modern facade on the old building.

At present, forty Newberry stores are being enlarged and modernized, and twenty new ones are being built.

'Won't Give Up' on Potential
John E. Nelson, Newberry's president, explains the expansion program this way: "When we have a nucleus of personnel and a good customer following in a downtown store, we try to improve its sales by expanding it and bringing it up to date."

5,000 to 6,000 square feet of space for, using the measure customarily in the chain-store field, 700 to 800 feet of counters.

Newberry is moving into the self-service field; eighty-six of its stores now operate that way.

Mr. Nelson reports that expenses go down and profits go up when a store is converted to self-service. But part of the improvement must be ascribed to the fact that the self-service stores also get more space.

Mr. Nelson does not consider self-service a panacea. Each locality must be analyzed individually. In some cases more, rather than less, service is needed.

variety chains, which until comparatively recently specialized in smallwares.

Large stores can do a better job on style merchandise, Mr. Nelson says, because they have fewer markdowns than do small units.

Newberry gives a great deal of responsibility to its store managers. Contrary to the widespread misconception that "multiple-unit organizations must be strongly molded from the top, Newberry lets its managers order 90 per cent of the merchandise they sell.

They receive a "guide" to pricing, but can price as necessary to meet competition. They are also responsible for the sales performance of their stores, their inventories, and gross and net profit.

Mr. Nelson says, "Our superintendents and central office people try to help him as much as they can. Our merchandise people in New York are not buyers, but selectors, and they try to get merchandise each store wants, not to force on the stores what New York thinks should be sold."

The average sale in a Newberry store is 40 cents. But in common with other variety chains, Newberry has moved upward in price coverage in recent years, and now sells rugs for $69.95, women's coats for $59.95 and cameras for $50.

Mr. Nelson, who at the age of 53 heads the fifth largest variety chain in the country, believes its sales will rise from $190,000,000 to $200,000,000 this year.

If Newberry makes it, Mr. Nelson will give much of the credit to the expansion and modernization program, which will cost more than $8,000,000 this year.

Your Library

Recently the television networks have presented several programs about Africa. Their approaches have been different.

In Springfield, the Free Public Library has made a list of some of the many titles about Africa on its shelves. Most of these are new books published within the last year or two.

Stuart Cloete in "African Giant, the Story of a Journey" has a similar emphasis, but spends his time mostly on South Africa.

These are just a few of the books which can be found in the Springfield Library. There are others, describing the country and the people, to be found in the Children's and Youth Sections, as well as others for adults.

out the lighter side of life in Africa. A few years ago Martin Johnson and his wife, Osa, wrote a famous series of books about wildlife.

Novels about Africa tend to be rather serious, although some of them include hair-raising adventures. "Cry the Beloved Country" by Alan Paton is fast becoming a classic.

Leonard Best, chairman of the Mental Health Drive here in town, announced today that "we have been notified that CBS will re-broadcast 'Out of Darkness' on April 29 from 8 to 6 p.m. as part of Mental Health Week kickoff."

The chairman urged that every person view this program, and particularly the campaign workers since it is one of the best means of acquainting them with the problem of mental illness and prepare them to tell the story when they solicit for funds.

Off to Europe
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rothlisberger of 196 South Springfield Avenue are leaving for a business pleasure trip to Europe on May 31.

The one thing they have in common is a quality of warmth. However, you don't have to leave the States to find rare woods. Pecan, which comes from Louisiana, is durable and decorative. Though once used only for trim it is now seen in living, dining and bedroom pieces.

The sun makes golden patterns across the tiled floor, and there seems something ageless and of wondrous beauty in the vaulted arches of solid stone. Here there is sanctuary, freedom, at least temporarily, from the worries of the outer world.

In every great life, there have been times of reflection and meditation. There have been moments of solitude to renew a flagging spirit with the infinite power of God, to find an inner peace which comes from another world.

In every life, there are times when sanctuary is needed. There are moments when the quiet witness of the Holy House is more eloquent than all the words in the world.

Often a step into the shadowed quiet of a church brings a resurgence of faith and courage that sets life on a new and greater course. This is the miracle of sanctuary—a miracle that can happen TO YOU!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

ARTICLE VII
WHAT THE BIBLE TEACHES ABOUT DEATH

Death is probably the most unpleasant and unpopular subject in the world. The word seems to call no happy thoughts to most minds. Death speaks of sorrow and loss. It calls to remembrance warm, mobile bodies—made cold and stiff and silent, laid away under the earth never to be seen or heard again.

Death means separation. In the realm of the natural: separation from life and the living. In the Spiritual realm: separation from God, the source of life, and from those who have Spiritual life through faith.

The Bible teaches that a man can be dead while he lives. (Ephesians 2:1, Colossians 2:13) Men who live in sin are dead to Spiritual things. They can be made Spiritually alive by faith in the Savior of Men. Then physical death can hold no fear. There should be no sorrow for one who exchanges this life for life with God. John 11:25, 26.

THE FIFTH SEASON—Scenes pictured above are some of the highlights of the show presented last week-end by the Dramatic Workshop of the Jewish Community Group. The first panel shows designer Ferrilli, played by Joe Bender watching carefully as Pincus, played by Billy Fisher takes measurements on the firm's dummy. Secretary Edith Krueger waits patiently to have the skirt measured. Middle panel shows Pincus and his newest love, Miriam, played by Selma Seroff, enjoying a Bermuda cocktail. The right panel again shows Pincus, Marty Goodwin, played by Richy Schwartz and Johnny Goodwin played by Julian Sarokin after a truce was declared in a family squabble.

SRO Crowd Sees

With all polling districts in, the consensus of opinion was that "this was the best; as good as the original New York cast."

As a conscientious objector in the matter of amateur theatricals, I was in no mood to drool about the performance, but, I must make it unanimous; it was good, perfect, very entertaining.

It is difficult to point with pride to all the high spots of the very entertaining presentation but

William Fisher who portrayed the very hilarious part of Max Pincus, the partner with a big heart, should win the Oscar or whatever the equivalent is in Springfield. All the other members of the cast are close contenders for the honor after Saturday evening's performance and, while we can't devote too much space to pinning medals and back-slapping, there are those who have been shouting "hurrays" for Edward Scharf and Julian Sarokin, both of whom had leading parts.

Scharf portrayed the role of Miles Lewis, proprietor of a chain of shops and one of the most active accounts of the ladies garment manufacturers, and did it very convincingly.

For obvious reasons, we have been attempting to de-emphasize the part played by Julian Sarokin in Saturday's hit show but we cannot avoid bumping head-on into the fact that he had a leading part and played it like a pro.

When we first saw his name opposite Johnny Goodwin, the eager-beaver outside man of the Goodwin-Pincus firm, we surmised that Sarokin was probably given the role because he had the most complete wardrobe and the gaudiest pair of shorts which, as it later developed, was one of the high spots of a scene. But his performance floored us. It was actually good, very good.

But, as they say on Broadway, "Bill" Fisher "stole the show," with every member of the cast doing a wonderful job. "The Fifth Season" is a hit play from Broadway.

way with a lot of laughs and built-in models, and the pace of the presentation was a credit to "Jerry" Hotchkiss who directed the entire presentation.

Special mention should be given Sari Hockstein, as Lorraine McKay, the combination model and home wrecker, who appeared to like her role and so did everybody in the audience. Edith Krueger gave another brilliant performance as Shelly, the secretary; and Joseph Bender, as Ferrilli, the designer displayed just the proper temperamental mood in his part which deserved the plaudits of large crowd.

Ruth Gold, as the wife of the outside partner, portrayed her role well enough to satisfy the severest critic, and Richy Schwartz, as the son of the Goodwins, did a very artistic job. Selma Seroff gave a fine performance as the new secretary and the three models, Irene Weiss, Adrienne Gold and Bobbie Kessler, paraded in and out the scenes like real professionals.

It was a big financial success as well as artistic. Considerable credit is also due the production staff, all of them members of the Dramatic Workshop, who handled the scenery, props, lighting and other things that usually goof in amateur productions. But they worked like a charm—Saturday night. When a switch was turned to light up the entire stage, it actually worked which is a credit to Seymour Weinstein who had charge of the lighting because electrical work happens to be his business. Ephraim Weiniger, business manager and in charge of tickets, was perfectly happy that it was an artistic success but he was just as interested in the financial success, and he did something about it. He appointed committees, named telephone squads, bombarded people with bulletins urging them to purchase tickets, and the jammed house reflected the work done by him and his staff.

All the scenery was built and tied down by members with Joseph Bender and Robert Hockstein in charge of the construction. Lorrie Lewis, Sylvia Bender and Ray Baumrind were down as members of the production committee but they helped in whatever chore popped up. Lou Lambert was stage manager, Thelma Ottenstein was responsible for the costumes and Corrine Greenstein and Della Weinstein had a long list of duties to perform as the house committee. Rabbi Reuben Levine, Ruth Menkin, Anita Breier, Frank Brown, Thelma Ottenstein and Lydia Sherman all helped with the make-up.

Women's Club

Proposed revisions to the Club By-Laws will be voted on at the next club meeting on Wednesday evening, May 2, in the James Caldwell School at 8:15 p.m. With the hope of making the necessary voting as simple and brief as possible, the By-Laws Revision Committee has mailed, during this past week, a copy of the proposed revisions to each club member in order that they can be studied prior to the meeting and voted on without too much ado. For the splendid work they have done, in revising our By-Laws and in facilitating the execution of their adoption, the Springfield Woman's Club is grateful to Mrs. Merton D. Williams, Chairman of the Committee, Mrs. Edward Murdoch, Co-Chairman, Mrs. Henry Bouchard, Mrs. Eva Brown, Mrs. R. D. Hardgrove, Jr., Mrs. W. J. Malick, Jr., Mrs. H. M. of the activities—of the various departments in the club, we shall forego the customary oral Annual Reports of Department Chairman at the May Club Meeting. Instead, mimeographed copies of all department reports will be distributed to each club member in attendance on May 2. It is felt that more time can be devoted to these reports if they are read during leisure moments at home by the club members, and better insight can be gained to the departments' many activities by so doing. All department chairmen have compiled their own reports and the tremendous task of making them available to the club members has been undertaken by Mrs. Michael Tatusko, Yearbook Chairman, Mrs. Robert D. Hardgrove, Jr., Co-Chairman, and Mrs. William Wagner.

Next year's officers of the Springfield Woman's Club will be elected and installed at the next club meeting on Wednesday evening, and many departments are planning displays in observance of "Hobby Night," so be sure to attend! MEET THE NEW BOSS in the Performance Department!

Come in and Drive the Surprise Car of the Year!
The word's getting around fast—the big, handsome husky you see here is the big surprise that caught the industry a year or so off balance! But it didn't come as any surprise to Pontiac engineers that they had the year's performance sensation. They knew all along that it would be, because they started from scratch and designed the most modern and efficient high-compression, high-torque V-8 engine in America!
Then they tailored an all-new Strato-Flight Hydra-Matic* especially for Pontiac's high-stepping Strato-Streak power plant—and for nothing else! The blazing action of 227 horses is yours in a flash with the positive, no-lag action of gears—plus an amazing liquid coupling for a smooth, uninterrupted flow of power to the wheels. Bring yourself up to date—come in and pilot the surprise car of the year—you'll soon see what the talk's all about!
And don't be afraid to ask about price, for that's another pleasant surprise—the one that will let you boss the best on the road for a great deal less than you probably think! *An extra-cost option.

The car says 60 and the price won't stop you!

SUNNING SPORTS

By RITCHY SCHWARTZ

A great many high school pitchers come up with no-hit no-run tilts at one time or another in their school-boy careers. But just how many have turned the trick pitching their third game of varsity ball? — Not too many. Len Ratski came up with the honor last week when he blanked St. Mary's of Elizabeth in a thriller.

Lenny opened the contest calm and collected. In the fourth his third-sacker Rocky Letteri made a great stop on a grass cutter to preserve the blond hurler's string of goose-eggs.

The Baseballers on a whole are not doing quite as well as we expected. They have some hitters who are coming along. These sluggers include Ron Golcher, Neil Rothweiler and the surprise of the season Les Lawn. But the Regional Nine have not been consistent in their quest of a good year of ball.

The Cinder Boys have embarked on what may very well be their best season. Curt Merz recently broke a few records in various field events and is a good bet to break the records he just made by breaking the old records (pew!)

There are other youngsters who shine on the cinders. Bucky Brown, Tom Scriba, Butch Anderson, Carl Ford and Joe Sista.

Taking into consideration their opponents, their weak points and their potential strength we predict a 7 won 2 loss record for the Tracksters.

MAJOR LEAGUE JOYS—In our opinion—Brooklyn has won before they started. The Red Sox were over-rated if their performance against the Yankees was any indication of future traits. Jerry Lumpe, new Bomber second-sacker and shortstop is a good glove man but can't throw and is unable to hit the size of his hat. Don Buddin, new Soxq sensation at short looks like an old pro out there on the diamond. Al Rosen of the Indians appears to be head-

News of Local Troops

Girl Scout Troop No. 5

Leader: J. de Azevedo
In January we continued to work on our Needlecraft and Dabbler badges. Mrs. Zidonice came and under her direction we made a clay pinch pot, while we were working she told us many interesting things about the history of ceramics. Many thanks to Mrs. Zidonice!

We decided to learn a song in Spanish to be sung at the Music Festival and want to thank Mrs. Numer and Mrs. Oliver for the help they gave us.

The big event was our overnight trip to the Scout camp at Surprise Lake. We went on a long hike in the woods and were able to identify some of the ferns peeping through the snow, we made walking sticks and climbed ravines, saw many different types of birds' nests, discussed types and locations for firebuilding. At the cabin a kaper chart was set up and the girls were soon organized a great fire was made in the fireplace and one in the small wood stove, over these we prepared the evening meal, the cooks and all their eager helpers did a fine job and it was fun.

In the evening after finishing our badge work marshmallows were toasted and songs were sung around the open fire. Please don't tell, but at ten o'clock we were eating delicious cake Mrs. Mendes had sent and telling ghost stories! We want to thank all those who helped with the transportation.

In February the girls elected new patrol leaders. Several girls gave a puppet show which we liked because there was a moral to it. We also sent a letter to the Juliette Low Birthplace to be placed in the "Wishing Chest". This has been acknowledged with a picture of the birthplace. We have also received a letter from the secretary of the World Association of Girl-Guides and Girl-Scouts telling us of the dedication of the Cabana in Mexico.

Just now we are busy preparing articles for the Strawberry Festival, some "thank you" gifts, finishing our quilt and preparing a program to be presented to our mothers showing them how we acquire our Adventurer badge, we hope they will come to our meeting on May 15th.

We are all very sorry Mrs. Sperling has moved from Springfield.

Hearing Problems To Be Discussed

Mrs. Sidney Feldman, 155 Wentz Ave., Springfield, a member of the Parents Organization For Children With Impaired Hearing, announced that all Springfield residents interested in hearing problems are invited to a special demonstration to be held Tuesday, May 8, at the Crescent Ave. Presbyterian Church, Plainfield, N.J.

The free tests and exhibition of the latest hearing aids are sponsored by the Plainfield Hearing Society in celebration of National Hearing Week.

Mrs. Sidney Feldman, who is also P.T.A. president of the Bruce Street School for Deaf Children, Newark, announced that a benefit card party will be held Thursday evening, April 26, at the Club Diana, Union. Proceeds will be donated for group hearing aid equipment at the school.

Our 'Go To Church' Pages Win Awards

For the second time, the Keister "Support the Church" series, which is currently running in the Springfield Sun (page 8, this issue), has won a national award from the Freedoms Foundation, Valley Forge, Pennsylvania.

In April, 1954, the "Support the Church" series was honored by receiving the George Washington Medal for "an outstanding achievement in helping to bring about a better understanding of the American Way of Life."

Now, again, in 1956, the "Support the Church" series has received the Certificate of Merit from the Freedoms Foundation, and this newspaper is proud to be among the over 950 newspapers throughout the USA, Canada and Alaska which presents this outstanding series to its readers.
