

No Parking On Meisel Avenue Not Approved

The New Jersey State Highway Department proposed to Springfield that "the hazardous, exposed trolley tracks on Morris Avenue would be removed on condition that the Township would BAN ALL PARKING 24 HOURS A DAY."

Now the Union County Board of Freeholders has made a somewhat similar offer to Springfield governing body, requesting that the Township "adopt a resolution approving no parking regulations on Meisel Avenue" so that the County can receive Federal Aid Funds to be used in the reconstruction of Meisel Avenue from Morris to South Springfield Avenue.

The Township immediately sent a letter to the County Freeholders rejecting the resolution on the basis that the present governing body "cannot bind future Township Committees."

Federal Funds are made available to the Freeholders for the reconstruction job on Meisel Avenue but only on condition that the Freeholders be given the authority "to regulate parking on this street when such restrictions become necessary."

Following is the proposed resolution submitted by the Board of Freeholders which the Township Committee refused to adopt:

WHEREAS, the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union have made application for Federal Aid Secondary Funds to be used in the proposed reconstruction of Meisel Avenue from Morris Avenue to South Springfield Avenue; and

WHEREAS, Approval of this application by the Bureau of Public Roads is contingent upon the establishment of parking restrictions during rush hours if and when the volume of traffic makes such restrictions necessary;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That this Committee go on record as approving the establishment of "No Parking" regulations on this street during rush hours if and when such restrictions become necessary and are

D. F. Fisher, Local Contractor, Dies

David F. Fisher, builder of the Woodside Homes development, died Sunday in Beth Israel Hospital Newark after a short illness. Fisher, who resided at 43 Forest Drive, was 52 years old.

Born in Newark, Mr. Fisher moved to Grand Forks, North Dakota and returned to Newark in 1923 and was graduated from the New Jersey Law School in 1926. Earlier he had attended the Universities of North Dakota and Minnesota.

He had been active in the contracting business in the northern New Jersey area and for the past three years had been president of the Fisher Contracting Co. of Springfield.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Anita Markman Fisher; a sister, Miss Sally Fisher of West Orange and a brother, William Fisher of Springfield. His mother, Mrs. Fannie Fisher died two months ago.

Realty Corner Goes Over 5 Million In Sales

If there's any question about the "role of women in business," the male doubters and scoffers haven't been watching the Realty Corner, Anne Sylvester's all women sales organization, working out of a charming office at 649 Morris Avenue.

For those "strong men and skeptics" it will be news that Anne Sylvester's all woman sales staff has hit a volume exceeding Five Million—yes, $5,000,000.00 in real estate in the three years this office has been in operation.

Mrs. Sylvester, president of the firm, attributes the sensational success of her sales force in hitting this sales volume to the rule that each member of the staff must be well versed in the various problems of transferring residential property.

Realty Corner confines itself to residential selling, the record making volume being made up of residential sales in Essex, Union and Morris Counties. Mrs. Sylvester believes in a well planned advertising schedule with interesting

Baltusrol Swim Club Will Be Ready May 30

Springfield own pool—the Baltusrol Swim Club—will be ready to open next year, Decoration Day.

This information was given yesterday by Gene Consales, president of the club, who announced that everything is ready for the start of the construction this fall.

"Everything is ready," said Consales. "We have our permit from Springfield and we hope to start breaking ground very soon and pour cement before the freezing weather starts. We are aiming at a May 30 opening. In fact, we have accepted a great many memberships already with the understanding that the very elaborate pool we are planning to build will be ready for that date."

The location of Springfield swim club on Shunpike road should make this very attractive to residents in this area and memberships are already being accepted. As the brochure reads—"New Jersey's most exquisite swimming pool site on the north side of Shunpike road, situated on a high plateau at the peak of the Baltusrol mountain. This ideal location offers a magnificent view which encompasses the entire eastern valley clear to the New York skyline. It is diagonally opposite the Baltusrol golf course within a few minutes drive of New Jersey's finest suburban residential area."

Consales announces that the season will start May 30 and extend through Labor Day. Baltusrol will have an L-shaped pool conforming to A.A.U. standards with adequate shallow water for beginners and non-expert swimmers, equipped with the finest sterilization and filtration equipment. There will be one and three meter diving boards in the deep water area. It will have a separate supervised pool which will be used for the youngsters and one of the many features of the swim club will be swimming instruction at no extra charge.

Contracts Set On Addition To Gaudineer

Contracts totaling $410,674 were awarded Tuesday night by the Springfield Board of Education for the construction of an addition to the Florence M. Gaudineer School.

A. B. Anderson, board secretary, said work on the addition should begin early next month and require a year for completion. The addition will provide room for about 200 more students, he stated.

Awarded the Zwigard Construction Co. of Millburn was the general construction contract for $270,126. Other contracts included for steel and iron work, Breen Iron Works, $13,950; E. S. Hammond Inc., Bloomfield, heating and ventilating, $55,975; Albert F. Ruelh Co., Newark, plumbing, $36,488; Carl Schmitt, Inc., Newark, electrical, $27,125; Federal Kitchen Equipment Corp., Brooklyn, kitchen equipment, $7,010.

Construction To Start Soon On New Town Hall

As soon as all contracts have been formally signed and all the legal loose ends picked up, a date will be set for the ground breaking ceremonies as the start of the construction of the new Springfield Town addition, the Public Library annex and the new public garage.

Contracts for the work were awarded at a special meeting of the Township Committee last week and William G. Chirgolis, the architect who will supervise the expansion program, hopes to have actual construction work under way very shortly.

The total of the contracts awarded came to $355,423 with $189,106.00 for the municipal building expansion. Bids had been received previously which exceeded the original appropriation of $325,000 and that was without a bid for the needed steel. The ordinance was then amended, adding $60,000.00 more to be made available for this program.

Delaware Valley Engineering Construction Co. of Flemington was awarded a $189,106 contract for the new Town Hall, lowest of four bidders.

Other contracts were as follows: Town Hall electrical, Acme Electric Co., 221 Bond St., Elizabeth, $23,532; heating, Ben Yarrow, 17 S. Springfield Ave., $15,124; plumbing, Albert J. Colandrea, 30 Millburn Ave., $13,800; steel, Delaware Valley Engineering Construction Co., $33,781.

Library—General construction, DeVenja Construction Co., Morrisstown, $36,971; heating, Ben Yarrow, $2,817; electrical, Acme Electric Co., $4,949; plumbing, A. J. Colandrea, $2,875; steel, DeVenja, $2,830. Municipal garage—General construction, Cerami Construction Co., Belleville, $23,100; plumbing, A. J. Colandrea, $1,600; heating, Ben Yarrow, $900; electrical, Acme Electric Co., $1,878; steel, S. Ackerman & Sons Inc., Newark, $2,160.

Saks Officials Meet Today To Set Work Date

A conference is being held in the offices of Saks Fifth Avenue in New York City today to make definite plans for the start of the construction of the new retail establishment in Springfield and set a target date for opening in 1957.

Saks Fifth Avenue has purchased the tract of land known as the Anderson property, with the frontage on Millburn avenue, all of which is in Springfield, where a new retail establishment is to be constructed. The request for a variance, changing the zoning in that area to enable the Saks organization to construct this new modern store, was granted but only after a series of public hearings. All the objections are now cleared away.

Today's conference has been called, it is understood, to consider several changes in the design for the proposed building. The new Saks store will have all the best features of the first plan submitted to the Township Committee, with several new ideas added to the beauty of the building.

It is also understood that the matter of widening Millburn Avenue is also being explored, a matter which will be submitted for consideration to the Essex County Board of Freeholders.

Test borings and soundings have been made on the property by the construction company's engineers and, as soon as a few more legal loose ends are tied together, work is expected to start.

Tax Receipts Ahead of 1955

Charles H. Huff, Springfield's Tax Collector, has revealed in his latest report that receipts this year are running ahead of 1955. For the month of July he records a total collection of $269,393.99, which is $81,180.70 more than the July totals in 1955. So far this year the township has received $965,686.23 of its 1956 assessment, running $132,305.79 ahead of the total collections at the same date in 1955.

Taking into account the payment of delinquent taxes, interest, fees, etc., the township collected $273,997.32 in July and $1,030,192.97 to date. This compares to 1955 totals of $195,523.91 and $912,830.72.

Report New Sale Of Marmon Tract

Attempts to verify what appears to be an authentic story were in vain—but the report persists that the Marmon property, located on Morris avenue at the Summit line, has been sold to a well known New Jersey developer.

This tract of land had recently been reported sold by a New York real estate organization but the plan for developing it ran into a snag when Summit failed to grant a variance to enable the new owners to use that portion in Summit for parking.

Principal Turns Mechanic; Gives Up Books for Bolts

Forsaking books and blackboard for a grease gun and Allen wrenches is probably the extreme in vocations, but evidently the transition has its rewards.

When school closed down for the year at Robert Treat Junior High School in Newark, Vice Principal Raymond Baumrind of 71 Kipling Avenue packed up his chalk, erasers, pencils, zipped up his briefcase and headed for home and a summer of lawn care, house painting and re-arranging furniture to satisfy his wife.

Mr. Baumrind, a man of boundless energy, rolled through these miscellaneous chores in something short of a record and thought to himself "How does a vice-principal of a school remain occupied through the lazy, warm summer days?"

Some people yearn to be bird watchers, others to collect butterflies, but Schoolmaster Raymond always had a yen to work on cars. A lack of knowledge of the complex workings of an automobile didn't deter him so he walked up the street to Seal's Springfield Heights Garage.

Milton W. Seal owner of the Heights garage for the past twelve years, saw the opportunity to be the first repairman in town to grab off some high-class college talent. With the care and patience of a kindergarten teacher making his student feel at home in class, Professor Seal methodically taught his prodigy the basic rudiments of the business and according to the latest reports, Baumrind will soon graduate into the advanced class of motor tune-up and brake tightening.

Another Letter Asks State To Remove Rails

Springfield officials are still trying to get the New Jersey State Highway Department to do something about removing the dangerous, exposed trolley tracks on Morris Avenue which have caused many accidents in the Township.

Arts & Crafts Featured At C.Y.O. Camp

Arts and crafts instruction is among the high points of the daily schedule for the 175 campers at the Union County Catholic Youth Organizations day camp at St. James School in S. Springfield Ave.

Under the direction of James Regan of Jersey City, an Elizabeth school teacher, the boys and girls at the C.Y.O. installation are learning how to handle simple tools and materials. Ash trays, plywood figures and brightly-colored ceramics are the most popular products in the summer workshop.

The St. James camp is one of two operated by the county C.Y.O.—the other is located at St. Michael's in Elizabeth, headquarters for the county organization. The Elizabeth camp has a slightly larger enrollment than the Springfield facility.

In addition to arts and crafts, the boys and girls at the camp, all between the ages of 7 and 14, are instructed in swimming and other sports. Periodic masquerades and doll and pet exhibitions highlight the program. Weekly excursions to North Jersey lakes and amusement centers also are planned.

The day camp program, now in its second year at Springfield, will continue until Aug. 25. Bus service is provided for youngsters who live outside Springfield.

Not Getting Your Mail? Here's Why

If you have recently moved into one of Springfield's new developments—don't think the local post office has forgotten about you. If you haven't started receiving your mail regularly, there's a good reason for it. Postmaster A. V. Del Vecchio has the explanation.

Postmaster Del Vecchio has received a great many inquiries concerning the delivery of mail to new homes—especially in the Briar Hills Circle and Woodside Homes areas. The Postmaster announced that when post office requirements for city mail delivery service are met in each development, the regular delivery would start at once.

Here are the requirements for extension of existing city delivery service as set forth by the post office department:

1. Fifty per cent of the new territory to be served must be occupied.
2. Territory must have good continuous sidewalks, surfaced streets and street signs.
3. Residents must provide house numbers, mail receptacles.

There have been exchanges of correspondence between State Highway Commissioner Dwight R. G. Palmer and members of the governing body but nothing has been done. Since Morris Avenue is a state highway, nothing can be done about removing the hazard except by the State Highway Commissioner.

Commissioner Palmer, some time ago, did offer to start work immediately on removing the rails but only on condition that Springfield passes an ordinance "PROHIBITING PARKING ON MORRIS AVENUE AT ALL TIMES."

Mayor Albert G. Binder and members of the Township Committee would not agree to this stipulation and, since then, there has been very little apparent interest on the part of the State Highway Department.

The Township Committee is again knocking on the door of the State Highway Commissioner. Another letter, dated July 30, 1956, was sent to Commissioner Palmer but, up to this writing, there has been no answer and nothing has been done. Except that all the direction signs have been repainted which is part of a statewide project.

With the approach of bad weather the Springfield officials are hoping that the Highway Department Commissioner will discuss (Continued on page 7)

Mountain Ave. Site Approved For Retail Use

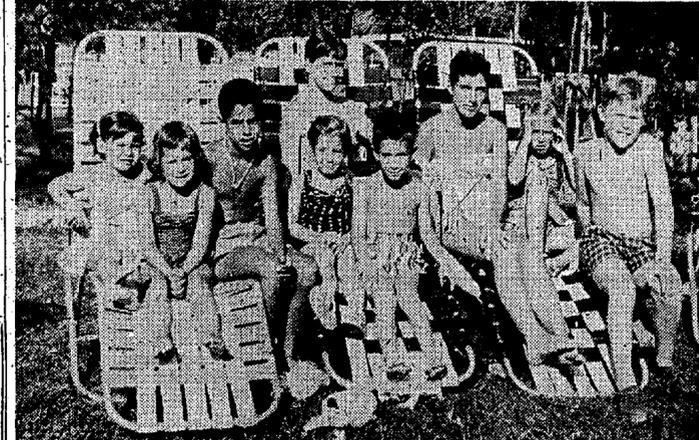

Approval was given at last night's regular meeting of the Township Committee for a change in the zoning of the property known as the Ciccia tract, placing it entirely in a general business district. The property is located where Mountain Avenue and Route 22 meet.

Change of the zone will mean, according to informed circles, that this approximately eight acres will be the site of a shopping center with one of the leading super markets as the main unit, and will include a variety store as well as other retail establishments.

The Township Committee also adopted a resolution last night denying the appeal of Baltusrol Top, Inc. from a decision by the Planning Board in disapproving a request for the subdivision that would permit this company to construct homes in that area. The Township Committee's resolution pointed out that the applicants had not complied with various requirements and provisions of zoning ordinances, the Board of Health regulations as to drainage and sewage disposal facilities and the Township plumbing code.

The resolution upholding the Planning Board's denial of the application further pointed out that the proposed site is not accessible for fire equipment.

Because of the annual vacation period the regular scheduled meeting on August 22 will not be held.

Arabian Stallion Bought By Springfield Merchant

Friends of Ernie Nagel, the genial proprietor of Nagel's Meat Market, 230 Morris Ave., Springfield, are beginning to call him "Hopalong Ernie" and not without good reason. Over the past few years Ernie has shown an ever increasing interest in the breeding, raising, and riding of horses. It all reached a climax last week with his purchase of Aah-Abu, a nationally acclaimed reserve champion Arabian stallion.

The growth of Ernie's most interesting pastime had rather a modest beginning. He had ridden horses for pleasure in Europe and America without catching the "bug." One night in 1952 he attended the National Horse Show at Madison Square Garden, and was deeply impressed with the beautiful hearing and superior breeding of the horses on display. Ernie's companion that night was Charles Ruby, a former resident of Springfield, who will be remembered as a charter member of the volunteer fire department, and a lifetime member. Mr. Ruby owns the Silver Spur Ranch at New Vernon, N. J., which has grown to one of the eastern seaboard's more popular stables, housing 38 horses. With Mr. Ruby's encouragement, Ernie bought a pony, intended for use in pleasure cross-country riding.

The passing of the years saw Ernie acquire three Palominos, Lady (whom he rode in the recent fireman's parade), Bucky, and Queeny, all of which he boarded at the Silver Spur, but this served only as a prelude to his latest and greatest acquisition, Aah-Abu.

Aah-Abu was purchased at a showing of ranch near Washington, D.C., dealing exclusively in Arabian stallions. One look and Ernie fell in love. This horse had won the Reserve Grand Championship in March, 1956, and two Diamond Jubilees. His spirit and form had everybody at the show showering their very highest superlatives. Ernie entered the competitive bidding and at 11:30 that evening found himself with the bill-of-sale for Aah-Abu. After a sleepless night involving a trip back to New Vernon and another to Washington, Aah-Abu and his new owner finally settled down for a nap at Silver Spur.

It isn't all pleasure, as Ernie explains it. There are rather involved business angles. For instance the arranging of stud fees entries in competitions and the sale of colts. He has literally been deluged with inquiries and propositions regarding Aah-Abu, which sometimes force him to take two trips a day to New Vernon. None of this business, Ernie adds has anything to do with pari-mutuel racing, a sport of which he disapproves.

Any weekend will find Ernie preparing for a visit to the Silver Spur. Aah-Abu works out every Sunday with his trainers for the public, and Ernie has invited all friends interested in horsemanship to take the trip out. Aah-Abu has been entered in the Patomac Md. show on August 29. Ernie is keeping his fingers crossed.

Have You Considered The Advantages of Living Trusts?

One of the most important, and least understood, types of trust arrangements is the Living Trust. Such a trust can be set up without the necessity of court procedure to help achieve many objectives such as these —

- To provide you or another beneficiary with a regular income at once — one not dependent on the risks of your business or profession.
 - To provide regular income for beneficiaries after the death of the creator of the trust.
 - To save part of the settlement expense in an estate.
 - To qualify the funds placed in the trust for the marital deduction or to eliminate a complete set of Federal and State death taxes on at least part of the estate.
 - To set up tax-saving gift arrangements for children and others.
- Our trust officers, in Millburn, invite you and your attorney to visit our Millburn office to discuss the advantages of a Living Trust in your personal situation.

requested by the Board of Chosen Freeholders of Union County. Following is the letter dated July 31, rejecting the resolution: Board of Chosen Freeholders, Court House, Elizabeth, N. J. Gentlemen: Mr. Meizell, your engineer, forwarded to our Township Engineer a copy of a proposed resolution with reference to the reconstruction of Meisel Avenue from Morris Avenue to South Springfield Avenue.

This resolution provided for the establishment of "no-parking" regulations on this street during rush hours, if and when such restrictions become necessary and are requested by the Board of Freeholders. The Township Committee does not feel that it can adopt such a resolution as they cannot bind future Township Committees. However, the Committee would appreciate the opportunity to discuss this matter with the Board of Freeholders or their representatives.

Would it be possible to arrange such a conference? Very truly yours, Eleonore H. Worthington, Township Clerk.

New Shiny Red Auto Makes Owner 'A Vip' in Township

That sleek, bright red-Chrysler New Yorker you see sliding along Springfield's avenues, just within the Township's speed limits, is "Ike" Freedman's defiant answer to the oft repeated question, "how's business?"

Freedman, president of the Springfield Chamber of Commerce and proprietor of the Springfield Hardware on Morris avenue, purchased the flashy car from Charlie Mayer's Morris Avenue Motors this week and there is nothing that will make the neighbors pull aside the living room curtains slightly and take a look at a new car faster—except, perhaps, the same man's wife in a brand new mink coat.

All of which brings to mind an article recently in the New York Times, under the heading of "Topic of the Times," which started by saying "there is no step that will catapult a man into neighborhood prominence more quickly than the purchase of a new automobile."

"One day he is practically a nonentity, a faceless figure that gravitates between home and business in a vehicle of ancient vintage. The next day—with a sleek, two-tone sedan on his driveway—he is The Man with the New Car. The neighborhood becomes astir with comment."

"The make, the model and the colors of the new acquisition are lobbied to and fro across the bridge tables and the dinner tables. There are some who praise his judgment and others deprecate it—no one is neutral. Whatever it was, before the Man with the New Car has become the center of attraction."

Reaching to Decision
"What led to this momentous decision? At what point did our protagonist reflect: 'I really could use a new car?' In at least some cases he probably did not think of it at all."

"The purchase of a new car usually represents a victory for the collective will of the rest of the family over the complacency of the nominal head of the house. An old car is like an old shoe, comfortable and relaxed. It has a personality and responds to the touch of its master. What if it becomes balky in winter's cold, or reacts stubbornly to summer's heat? The man of the house is satisfied. Only after an incessant campaign of attrition does he waver. His wife's enthusiasm over the sparkling 1956 colors pierces his armor and the children's pleas for the new model crush the final ramparts of his defense."

"A decision—having been reached, the family sets out in quest of an automobile. There are minor differences of opinion over the color selection, but these are quickly resolved in the eagerness of everyone to eliminate the sweet pain of anticipation; the weeks of waiting in which every new car of similar make and color to the one selected evokes expressions of admiration from the family. "The younger children especially are enthusiastic over the prospect of the new car—and the parents enjoy the same exhilaration, but in a more dignified manner: There is, of course, the sadness of parting with the old ja-

Kravetz and Seymour Cohan with all the trimmings—cake, flowers, and champagne.

The friendly folks who now reside at 14 Park Lane are Mr. and Mrs. Donald T. Jones, formerly of Paoli, Pa. The Jones' have 2 daughters, Adrienne age 4 years and Clara age 7 years. Mr. Jones is the manager of Industrial Raw Materials Corp., Linden.

"Claggle" celebrated her 7th birthday at a family dinner party on August 7th. She was also feted at a birthday party before the family moved from Paoli.

urday night dates is suddenly removed. The weekly polishing tapers to a monthly dust-off. Then, one day, a neighbor down the street drives home with a new automobile and the cycle is completed. The man with the new car evaporates again into the wings and the spotlight shifts to a neighboring driveway. Sic transit gloria."

The Day Arrives
"The joy over the arrival of the new car is quickly tempered by a view of the maze of knobs and dials on the dashboard. Every little movement has a meaning all its own and the ragged individualist who clung to the manual shift is appalled at first view of the automatic transmission."

"A forward movement of the shift lever, which once meant reverse, now puts the auto in forward motion and there are tense moments while the car bolts to and fro until the new shift is mastered. The ease of operating the new cars brings a sneer of disdain to many driving pioneers. They feel that the operation of an automobile, which once was looked upon as a highly skillful task, has become too simple. Now anyone can drive, they complain."

First Scratch
"During its early days the new car is watched and coddled and eased into the garage with the care of the Queen Mary being shepherded by tugs into her harbor berth. This tender concern continues until the first scratch. The first scratch is a family catastrophe, a milestone that makes the new car the old car."

with school teachers, college graduates, athletic coaches serving as counselors to teach and guide the various activities planned.
The new club will have a completely modern bathhouse with private dressing facilities and warm showers. There will also be sun decks, multi-decked lounging terraces with pool furniture, plenty of shade, a lot for supervised activities for children, sport facilities, a snack bar, private parking and many other features for the comfort of the members.

Since the permit for the construction of the swim club limits the number of members by the Township authorities, Mr. Con sales announces that applications for membership are being accepted now for the 1957 season.

A great number have already been signed and recommendations are being accepted from these members.

REPORT NEW SALE

retail stores are named in connection with the newest rumored sale of the Marmon property but none of the firms would confirm the reports. The names of both Bonwit-Teller and Bloomingdale have been connected with the newest reported sale of the Marmon property but no confirmation has come from either store.

The name of Bonwit-Teller was also connected with a report this week that this New York retail store holds a ninety day option on the purchase of Chanticleer Restaurant property. This rumor had it that the option was for only the part of the restaurant property fronting on Millburn avenue.

The Gideons, whose real name is Christian Commercial Travelers Associated of America, was

Playgrounds Run Town Tournament

Last week tournaments in tether ball, horseshoes, quoits, ping tennis, checkers, chess, jacks, hopscotch, and foul shooting were held in the various playgrounds throughout the town. These were the annual City Championships, held to determine who will represent Springfield in these various events at the on-coming County Playground Championships in Elizabeth. In tether ball, a contest with two divisions, Marilyn Montecello representing Riverside Playground became the girls' Tether Ball Champion. Norman Mueller from Henshaw Playground was victorious in the boys' division. The Horseshoe and Quoits Championships were won by two representatives of Regional Playground. Bob Reeve won in horseshoes and Bob Burt was the winner in quoits. The Ring Tennis Championship was won by Lenny Schoffenberger, who was representing Irwin Playground. Checkers, another event with two divisions, saw a sister and brother win both the girls' championship and the boys' championship. Robert Shubert from Henshaw Playground was the boys champion, while his sister Nancy, the Regional Playground representative, was the girls' champion. Lenny Gerber, from Irwin Playground, won the City Chess Tournament to become the Playground Chess Champion. A little girl from Arron Glesner Playground, Betty Watkins, received the right to represent Springfield in the County Jacks Championship by being victorious in the City Jacks Championship.

The foul shooting tournament saw Barbara Niegel, from Regional Playground, and Norman Lown, from Irwin Playground emerge as the two champions in the girls' and boys' divisions. All these boys and girls will travel to Elizabeth in the near future to compete in their respective events for county honors.

PBA Softballers Win Another 12-6

Last week in the Springfield Softball League the P.B.A. continued its winning ways by downing Strubbe's 12-6. The big hit of the game for the P.B.A. was provided by Curt Merz, who hit a bases loaded home run in the second inning. Other home runs for the P.B.A. were hit by Ralph Cassio and Scott Donington. The Strubbe attack was paced by John Rahnkamp with three hits, one of which was a home run to deep center field.

The Carpenter Steel team overcame a 4-0 deficit to defeat the American Legion 6-4. Bert Jones pitched the game for Carpenter Steel and emerged as the winner.

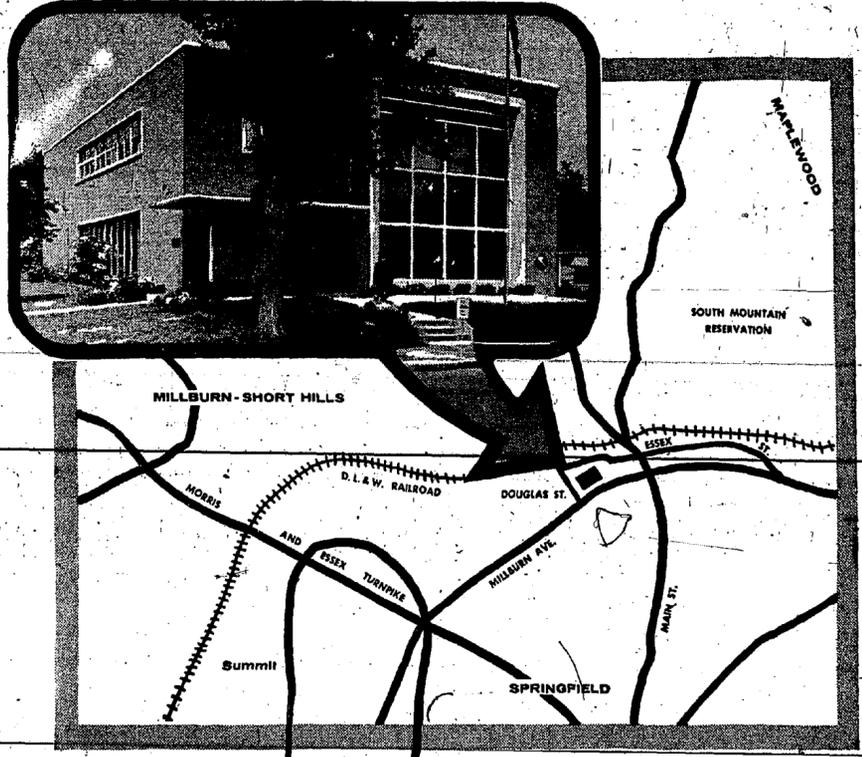

The Fire Department staged a seventh inning rally to down General Electric 12-9. The Fire Department rallied for six runs in the seventh to turn the game in their favor.

Next weeks games are as follows: American Legion vs. Strubbe's on Tuesday, P.B.A. vs. Fire Department on Wednesday, and General Electric vs. Carpenter Steel on Thursday.

Regional Schools Change Opening

The opening of the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School has been changed from September 6 to September 10, it was announced today by Superintendent of Schools Warren Davis.

Mr. Davis said the move will give the administration and faculty additional days to prepare for the opening of the new Johnson School in Clark as well as the Springfield school. He said the change also was made so students will be able to observe the Jewish holidays.
