INDUSTRY IS WORRYING

The lot of a township official is not an easy one—but the path could be made much smoother if there were some way to slam the door on some of the eager-beaver real estate operators.

The earned commission on the deal, we know, is most important but when it co-mingles with a little illegal influence peddling and even some top drawer pressure, it's time to do some spanking.

Right at the moment there are some industrialists in the Brown Avenue area who maintain that they were brought into Springfield with the assurance that there would be no conflict with zoning problems. They purchased property, these industrialists insist, in what was represented to them as an area for factory operations.

Now comes the unpleasant switch: instead of the home owners objecting to the encroachment of industry into a residential zone, the industries are very much concerned with the Township permitting new homes to be built within 60 feet of the factory buildings.

All this, they say, is part of a real estate deal with many interesting ramifications. These included an alleged attempt to have the industries purchase some of the property at a very high mark-up which was to serve as a buffer zone against the development of homes. The industrialists say they were willing to purchase the land but the price was out of line.

There is nothing the industrialists can do, we understand. The developer has been given the proper permits to construct these homes but the factory owners are bracing themselves for the storm of objections which certainly must come.

All of which reminds us that some very high and articulate voices were heard regarding this back-to-back zone approval in 1955 when the Township was considering the town-wide zoning ordinance. Mayor Albert T. Binder tried to lead the fight against having the residential area right smack against industry. But his arguments did not prevail and there is now a must come running battle between the industrialists and those who will live right next to the factory operations.

TOUCHING ALL THE BASES

We suppose it is all part of good government to compel everyone to comply with the rules and regulations of the municipality.

But having a business man like Jack Bullock, of the Sip and Sup drive-in restaurant, into a meeting to answer a neighbor's charges that "the radio was too loud" is stretching it quite a bit.

Bullock, who was an officer in the United States Marines, understands all there is to know about discipline and obeying the rules and his drive-in restaurant is conducted with the same care and efficiency he demanded of the Marines under his command.

"Our radio loud speakers," are turned off at 10 o'clock. But patrons, driving in with their cars, very often have their own radios going. Until our attendants reach them, the volume may be a bit too high. However, we ask them to turn it down and they usually respond because we have encouraged only the right kind of people to patronize the Sip and Sup. We don't want the noisy, boisterous customers.

"We have a 'don't serve' list posted in our restaurant and try, if possible, to have those objectionable people stay away from our place of business. And when a car is served without beverages as part of the order, our people are trained to look for alcoholic drinks which are definitely taboo at the Sip and Sup."

Bullock has spent considerable money in the operation of the Sip and Sup restaurant and recently added another wing. He insists that he is as considerate as possible of the neighbors and will do everything to eliminate any unnecessary noises. He is especially proud of the type of diners attracted to his place, catering, as he says, to "where the right crowd meets to eat."

LOSER BY 2 FEET

While we're on the subject of ordinances and compliance with the strict letter of the law, there must be some lesson in the news that the Atlantic Paint Company of Route 22 was fined $55. At Monday night's session of the Municipal Court for erecting a sign 12 feet square even though their variance was for 10 feet square. The company was given 10 days to have the sign taken down.

It isn't our intention to say this wasn't the proper thing to do but there are now so many questions popping out of the typewriter. Haven't individuals been given some "hardship" considerations where the foot rule measurements aren't exact? Is it possible that industry is being given the heave-ho whenever possible? Have all off-street parking rules been observed in some of the construction plans? How about the house still with the front porch on stilts?

A BLIND SPOT IS EXPLORED

We were just reading the obituary notice of a publisher of another newspaper. We haven't read as much purple prose in one sitting since our youth when we curled up with a couple of pulp magazines.

After reading the story we came to the conclusion that here was a giant among men—a man whose passing would leave an entire section of a state deprived of leadership. In fact, after reading the story we wondered how the nation could survive.

Residents Will Be Asked To Help Overlook Drive

Residents of Springfield will be asked to give "a fair share" of the costs of expanding Overlook Hospital to care for the community's sick, Charles A. Remlinger, of 230 Riverside Drive, said Tuesday at an organization meeting.

Appointed General Chairman of the fund-raising committee for Springfield by Hugo B. Meyer, General Chairman of the campaign to raise $3,074,000, Remlinger explained that rising population figures in the areas served by Overlook have necessitated an extensive construction program for the hospital.

"Overcrowding at Overlook has reached such a point," Remlinger said, "that as many as eight non-emergency patients are turned away daily, while bed occupancy figures have reached above the saturation point of 100 per cent in the medical and surgical departments."

"Laboratory and X-ray services have been strained to the breaking point by a tripling of the work in the last five years. Maternity services, too, need new rooms as well as nurseries to function to perfection."

"Springfield citizens are well aware of the security found in the excellent services rendered by Overlook. We realize that we, too, must put the shoulder to the wheel to assure continued safety for every family."

"We can assure this safety margin by joining all other communities in Overlook's service area in this campaign. It is not just a matter of community duty to give our 'fair share'—it is as much a matter of pride. Remember, since 1950, Springfield's use of Overlook has increased from 338 to 664 admissions annually or over six per cent of the total service facilities of the hospital."

Meeting with Remlinger were Hospital Trustees Raymond W.

Charles A. Remlinger

Forbes and Charles Heard, Herbert Kern, 224 Ballusol Avenue, Chairman of the Memorial and Special Gifts Committee; Ike Freedman, 407 Milltown Road, Chairman of the Corporate Gifts Committee; Elliot Lichtenstein, 525 Ashwood Road, Chairman of the Professional Committee and John G. Grausam, 16 Marion Avenue, Chairman of the Business Committee.

All will start immediately on enrollment of volunteer solicitors for a concerted campaign. General solicitation of all families of Springfield will be undertaken in the fall, Remlinger said. He added that campaigns in other communities have already brought in almost the first million dollars of the needed $3,074,000.

Morris Avenue Needs Another Gas Station??

Gasoline Alley in Springfield is growing.

Another 3 or 4 pump gas stations will come to the corner of Morris and Mountain avenues if the Township Committee approves the recommendation of the Board of Adjustment in granting application of such a new service station.

The members of the Board of Adjustment approved an application for a variance made by Joseph and Bertha Pinkas at last week's meeting which asked for permission to demolish the present service garage at that busy corner and erect a new station on the property.

There is now a service garage at that intersection with gas pumps on the Mountain Avenue side of the building. According to the plans, the present building would be razed and the gas station would have an entrance on Morris as well as Mountain Avenue.

Members of the Township Committee have been confronted with the problem of traffic jams caused by so many gas stations on Morris Avenue which has been given the name, "Gasoline Alley" because of the great number on Springfield's business street.

There is very little the governing body can do, one official stated, but the new proposal for a gas station will be subjected to a lot of discussion.

Town Garage Holds Lively Night Court

A policeman charged with using a blackjacket, a sign two-feet too big, and a 19-year-old's abusive language were features of Monday night's lively Municipal Court, held in the Municipal Garage and presided over by Magistrate Henry C. McMullen.

The magistrate adjourned until next week a case involving a charge of speeding against Loy M. Strother of 512 Morris Ave., Elizabethtown.

The Elizabeth man charge Patrolman John Baber struck him with a blackjacket. The patrolman testified he does not carry a blackjacket.

The Atlantic Paint Co., Route 22, was fined $55 for violation of the zoning ordinance. Building Inspector Wilbert J. Binder said the company erected a sign 12 feet square but had a variance only for a sign 10 feet square. The company was given 10 days to have the sign taken down.

Raymond Lo Sapio, 19, of Madison, was fined $55 for using abusive language to Special Officer George Rau at a Route 22 restaurant.

PRIZE WINNING FLOAT: Springfield's entry in the Union County Centennial parade Saturday was selected as the best in the historical category. To Represent Woman's Club At Douglass

Barbara Heerwagen

Miss Barbara Heerwagen of 27 Lewis Drive, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard F. Heerwagen, was chosen to represent the Springfield Woman's Club at the annual Citizenship Institute held at Douglass College, New Brunswick, in June.

Miss Heerwagen is Vice President and Treasurer of the Future Teachers of America, a member of the Leaders Club, P.T.A. representative of Student Council, and has been elected to the National Honor Society.

She is active in all sports and has also served two years in the Junior Volunteer Corps at Overlook Hospital which is sponsored by the local Woman's Club.

Miss Nancy Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Anderson, has been selected as alternate.

Springfield Is Top Winner In County Parade

Springfield's participation in the Union County Centennial Celebration which ended with a dazzling two mile parade last Saturday resulted in winning first prize for "most historical floats."

More than 60 floats, with every community in the county represented, and 17 bands were in the caravan with Springfield float attracting considerable attention all along the route of the parade.

The prize winning float was sponsored by the Township Committee and prepared under the supervision of Township Committeeman Vincent J. Bonadies by the Louis Kessel Studios of North Bergen.

The theme of the float depicted the historic episode in which Rev. James Caldwell on the steps of the Presbyterian Church tore pages from the hymn book for gun wadding. It was here that history relates he said, "Give em Watts, boys, give em Watts."

The float also showed the interior of a house opposite the Presbyterian Church where three colonial women tended the wounded from the battle that was going on at the steps of the Presbyterian Church.

"I wish to express my gratitude," said Bonadies, "to those who aided in making possible this float which captured first prize in the Union County Centennial Parade. To Mrs. P. Tallau, who graciously loaned us an antique spinning wheel, to Mrs. Gladys Beardley for the loan of kettle and blankets, to the Springfield Historical Society for the use of a Colonial flag, and to Bill Jensen, who aided so magnificently getting the boys and girls ready for the float—go my sincerest thanks."

Reform Jewish Group To Pick Leader & Name

An important general meeting of the Reform Jewish Congregation will be held Monday, June 3rd, at the American Legion Hall, North Trivet street, Springfield.

A vote will be taken to determine the official name of the organization. Election of officers will follow. The constitution will also be presented to the membership. Plans will be presented for the formation of the religious school and for the High Holiday services. Complete committee reports will be given by committee chairmen.

This is an open meeting and all persons interested in Reform Judaism are invited to attend. An eminent figure in Reform Judaism will address the meeting and will be available to answer any questions from the group. Refreshments will be served.

Woman Wins Prizes On NBC Quiz Show

Mrs. George Lord of 46 Denham Road is the latest Springfield personality to make a splash nationwide television.

Mrs. Lord put her keen sense of merchandise value to work to win three big prizes on NBC's "The Price Is Right" a week ago Tuesday.

Attending the morning program as a member of the audience, Mrs. Lord won the competition to appear on the show and then become top winner for her first day.

M. C. Bill Cullen asked her to guess the price of a tape recorder and 2 Israel Jugs. She was the closest of the contestants and won them all. As a bonus she was given a 2 piece dining room breakfast. The next day Mrs. Lord was defeated.

Baby Parade Leads July 4th Events

The annual baby parade will again be the morning feature of the 4th-of-July program according to an announcement by the committee. This popular and colorful event, including the crowning of a King and queen, will be under the direction of Mrs. Anna Schaffernoth who will be remembered for the outstanding affair last year in spite of a shower during the program.

Residents are urged to enter their children up to five years of age. As for last year, there will be separate groups for boys and girls in the up to two years class and the two to five class. There will also be a float division for up to five years.

Complete details, including prizes and the basis used for judging, will be published in an early issue of the Sun.

Civil Defense Post To Planer

Robert Planer of 2 Perry place was named director of civil defense and disaster control for Springfield by Mayor Albert G. Binder at the last Township Committee meeting.

Planer succeeds Daniel Lucy who recently resigned from the post.

Local Team Wins 13-5

The first game for the Brandies A. Z. A. in the New Jersey A. Z. A. League proved victorious. They beat Linden A. Z. A. at Warnaco Park, Sunday, May 26. The score was 13-5. The team expects to go to the top in this league.

New Homes To Be Slums Say Industries

One of Springfield's newest housing developments will soon become a slum area according to neighbors in the Brown Avenue industrial section.

"The industrialists say that the $20,000 homes being built in the New Brook Estates tract near the Brown Avenue industrial community are "destined to deteriorate fast because of irreconcilable conflicts with the industries."

They blame township officials for failing to provide a buffer strip between the residential area and the industries. Homes are now being built 60 feet from Investment Casting Co., Metals & Residues Inc., and Springfield Welding Co.

Lester D. Supiro, president of Metals & Residues, declared this week that there are five problems that cannot be completely overcome when a home and industry are right next to each other. According to him, they are:

- (1) Lights will be on all night in plants like his which employ three shifts.
 - (2) Machinery noises will be heard all day and night.
 - (3) Oily odors will always escape where there are machines.
 - (4) Fumes from smoke stacks may create a health hazard.
 - (5) Rumbling of trailer trucks making night and day deliveries.
- PROMISED BUFFER ZONE
- Supiro says that his firm has spent many thousands of dollars trying to lick the fume problem and that they will do all they can to ease the other causes of friction. But, he says, they will continue to be a problem.

Supiro says that when his firm decided to invest all their money in a Springfield plant in 1954 the township planning board stipulated that a 500 foot buffer zone must be left between the industrial area and any future homes. He says that on April 7, 1955, the planning board reversed itself, despite a plea from his attorney, and allowed contractors to build right up against the industries.

The only stipulation was that the builder should provide a buffer of trees between the homes and the industries. It is now planned, according to Ed Cardinal, chairman of the Shade Tree Commission, to plant 18 small weeping willows 30 feet apart across the 400 foot frontier. Cardinal says that it will take 5 to 8 years for these trees to grow to sufficient height to provide even moderate protection.

Walt Sommers of 62 South Maple street and president of Springfield Welding said "I've lived in town all my life and I'm telling you this makes me sick."

He says he's willing to plant more trees himself if it will prevent trouble with the home owners. But he will have to continue to make loud noises in his plant off and on during the 8 hour working day.

Sommers quotes a township official as saying "people who buy the houses near the industries will obviously know what they're getting into and so should have no complaints."

However, Sommers reports, he has already received complaints from residents who haven't even moved in yet about the fact that he parks his truck in the rear of his plant.

SLUM AREA THREAT

Supiro predicts that the same pattern will repeat itself in Springfield, that has occurred in other factory-residential areas. As he sees it, the initial homeowners will get fed up with the noise and odors from the industries and sell their homes below their original cost. The same thing will happen to the next buyers. Eventually Springfield will have a slum area made up of one time $20,000 homes.

Supiro says that all three of the bordering Brown Avenue industries were willing to make "substantial contributions" toward the development of a park or playground in the area for the buffer zone. He says however that the owner of the land was asking $50,000 for the property which has 135 frontage on the street in the development.

At this point, Supiro feels, the situation is hopeless. The homes are already under construction and the weeping willow trees will do little to prevent friction between the industries and the home owners.

SCRAP DRIVE

The American Legion announces that they will pick up all scrap paper this Sunday, June 2. All residents are requested to tie the old newspapers and magazines and have them stacked by the curb for pickup. . . That's this coming Sunday, June 2!!!

Harvey Deurer Retires From Pru Insurance

Harvey T. Deurer

Harvey T. Deurer, of 11 Cambridge terrace, retired from the Prudential Insurance, following nearly 50 years of service.

Mr. Deurer joined Prudential in 1908 as a mail boy. He has been associated with the company's ordinary policy department for more than 40 years.

Both Mr. Deurer and his wife, the former Cecile Nicolet, were born in Newark. They have one son, Robert H., of Murray Hill; a daughter, Mrs. Edward Iversen of Westfield, and two grandchildren.

Mr. Deurer enjoys doing oil paintings of landscapes and other country scenes. He and Mrs. Deurer are members of Springfield Presbyterian Church.

Act To Keep Homes From Being Alike

An ordinance was introduced by the Township Committee last week to prevent Springfield from becoming another Levittown.

The measure is designed to eliminate sameness in home construction, making it illegal to construct, alter or enlarge a house in a manner to make it similar in design to the next two adjoining homes. A design schedule is established in the ordinance. Hearing is set for Wednesday, June 12.

The governing board passed on final reading an ordinance providing a buffer zone for lots which are in both residential and industrial zones. There were no objectors.

Parking Is Hot Topic Again

The battle of "parking on Morris Avenue" is on again. The merchants, backed by John C. Grausam, president of the Springfield Chamber of Commerce, want all parking bans lifted on the Township's business thoroughfare.

The ordinance at present bans parking on Morris Avenue during rush hours in the morning and evening and the merchants want this ordinance rescinded which might become an important issue for the next campaign.

Mayor Albert G. Binder does not like the idea of rescinding the present "no parking" ordinance but Township Committeeman Vincent J. Bonadies takes the exact opposite view.

"Springfield, like any other town," said Bonadies, "is entitled to a 'Main Street.' Union, Chatham, Madison—every municipality along Route 24 has a business street and there's no reason why Springfield should cater to those who just ride through the town."

"By permitting parking," continued Bonadies, "the local people could stop on Morris Avenue pick up some groceries and make other purchases. Those who are rushing to get home, would lose very little time coming through Springfield even with a single line of traffic. As it is now, two lanes of cars come roaring into Springfield from Chatham and Madison and suddenly find parking permitted on the south side of Morris Avenue. This causes a jam since the two lanes must now converge. And, where else is there a ban against Sunday parking on both sides of the street from 2 to 9 o'clock in the evening.

The Newark-Sunday News, in a special article by Staff correspondent John B. Lauria, covered the subject last week under the heading "New Attack Set On Springfield Parking Restrictions." Following is the story from the News:

"Lines are being drawn for a new battle over whether rush-hour parking restrictions in Morris Ave., which is also State Highway 24, should be lifted.

"John C. Grausam, president of the Chamber of Commerce, said yesterday that the restrictions are hurting business. He added that the merchants are 'pretty hot about it.'"

"On the other side, Mayor Albert Binder said if the restrictions are lifted in the congested artery, there will be 'chaos in Springfield.' He said he will oppose any move to have the current ordinance rescinded.

"Under the nine-year-old law, parking is banned from 7:45 a.m. to 8:45 a.m. on the south side of Morris Ave. from Morrison Rd. to Springfield Ave. and from Millburn Ave. to North Hills Ave. Parking is banned from 4:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. between those same streets.

DANGEROUS

"Binder declared that with no parking restrictions, Morris Ave. would be dangerous to drivers. He has been after the State Highway Department for some time to cover over the trolley tracks in the thoroughfare. The Highway Department said it would not do this unless the township bans parking in Morris Ave. on a 24-hour basis.

Binder and the Township Committee refuse to do this. A 24-hour ban is not necessary, the mayor said.

"The mayor declares there is ample off-street parking in the center of the township to take care of residents who desire to shop in the four-block area around Morris Ave. and Main St. The General-Greene Shopping Center, at that intersection has room for at least 750 cars, and other lots, including the municipal lot behind the property fronting on the south side of Morris Ave. have room for at least 200 cars.

"A State Highway Department traffic estimate at Morris, Ave. and Seven Bridges Rd. (Springfield Ave.) showed that about 25,000 cars pass there daily. About 17,000 daily travel Morris Ave. the rest of the way in the township.

NEW HOPE

"Merchants have tried in the past to have the restrictions lifted, but failed. They have new hope, Grausam indicated, since the borough of Madison, which is also bisected by Rt. 24, recently lifted the same type of parking ban there.

"Grausam said Madison Chamber of Commerce officials told him that local merchants kept after the Madison Borough Council and in addition obtained signed petitions from residents asking that the ban be lifted.

"Grausam said, however, that before Springfield merchants begin circulating petitions, they will attempt directly to have the Township Committee rescind the ordinance.

Bill Jensen Is Leaving Springfield For Florida

Bill C. Jensen, Springfield's drum beater, public relations expert and champion of the "do-it-yourself" philosophy in civic service, is leaving town.

After 35 years of dedicated and unselfish service to the community, Mr. and Mrs. Jensen are packing their hi-fi library of classical records, the fishing gear and the bulging scrap book, and moving to Sarasota, Florida.

The Jensens leave a week from Friday, June 7, and "already," says Bill, "we're not so sure we want to leave Springfield where we've made so many dear friends, so many heartwarming associations."

"It's going to be very difficult to replace Bill Jensen because, paraphrasing the sentiment of Winston Churchill, 'never has a single individual done so much for so many.'"

Bill's services, always apparently available, were enlisted for practically everything. For fund drives, for church needs, for real pro jobs as master of ceremonies, for publicizing the 15th anniversary of the Battle of Springfield, for helping the show last Saturday when the Township float was awarded first prize in the Union County Centennial parade, for many things.

Anytime there was a job to be done — whenever a speaker was needed — or an announcer for a public affair, the shout invariably went up, "Get Bill Jensen." And Jensen would willingly volunteer to do the job. Not as the general, the window dressing type of captain. Bill actually did the work.

He didn't appoint committees and then pose for the photographers. Jensen dressed himself as the "town crier" and spotlighted the Springfield battle anniversary; he "barked" at the Girl Scout strawberry festivals and baby parades; he "m-c'd" the Methodist Men's Club amateur shows; he did everything possible for the youth of Springfield; he rode in the broiling sun Saturday and announced, through a public address system, the meaning of the Springfield float in the Centennial parade. Bill never delegated the jobs to be done if he could possibly do them himself — and usually Bill did them very well himself.

Good Salesman
 Jensen's unusual ability to get things done didn't stop in Springfield. Bill is a born salesman.

Bill C. Jensen

the kind who "sells the sizzle as well as the steak itself." It was he who has practically sold merchants in Springfield "to smile and greet everyone, whether you know the person or not."

"The best thing Springfield ever did in the way of public relations," said Jensen while on the subject, "was placing covers over all the parking meters during the Christmas season and inviting all shoppers to park their cars free as a gift from the Chamber of Commerce. That attracted more publicity than anything the merchants could have done and I know it will help business — if it already hasn't done so."

Jensen is an active member of the Sales Executives' Club of New Jersey, an international organization of executives, having become affiliated with this group when he was sales manager in New Jersey for Park & Tilford.

Very few people knew that Jensen has been an instructor at Rutgers University in Newark, teaching for the past eight years such subjects as salesmanship, management and promotion.

Bill's hobbies — when he finds time from his many assignments — include pastel painting and many of his works of art have been exhibited. Photography also interests him but speaking and lecturing are very high on his list. Bill has never refused an assignment to speak before, Rotary, Kiwanis, Optimists, Chambers of Commerce and wherever he had a message. He has been an auctioneer, master of ceremonies and his adult classes in many of the surrounding towns have attracted many who were interested in his particular subject, that of Sales Personality Development.

Built Up Business
 Old timers will remember Jensen when he first came to Springfield about 35 years ago and started a business with his brother-in-law, Rudie Feder. It was the Kree-Mes Fudge Company, located in the present National State-Bank building which, in the first three years, became one of the most active sales organizations in this area. More than 20 salesmen operated out of the bank building offices.

Like many very busy men, Jensen was ordered to take things easy, but Bill wasn't the kind to just sit in the easy chair and watch television. He was always interested in the youth of Springfield and took an active part in scouting as representative of the Lions Club, his favorite service organization. Jensen is a charter member of the Lions and tried to resign when he became ill. The Lions wouldn't hear of it and made him the only honorary member of the service club.

Last Friday night the Lions gave Mr. and Mrs. Jensen a farewell dinner and presented him with a plaque for his many years of service to Springfield and this

THIS WEEK

This is, of course, a lot of foolishness. We would imagine that the next issue of the paper came out much as before, that children still laughed in that community — paychecks were written, that women did their shopping and that a healthy, happy community went on just as it did before the paper antinoted in huge black headlines that the great man had gone to the little-old cityroom in the sky.

This is just the kind of thing that some newspapers do with the end result of 1) they look foolish 2) they invite criticism over the way they have handled obituary stories of other citizens 3) the editorial judgment of the paper has been shown to be a capricious thing subject to pressure and distortion of fact, and perhaps more important, subject to bias.

We have collected a few of these examples — from metropolitan dailies through the circulation ranks to small newspapers — and we cite the following:

A newspaper runs editorials and pious news stories about traffic safety at the same time its circulation trucks are breaking every traffic law in the community.

A publisher goes away on a long vacation and for weeks his local paper is full of accounts of his trip. (We wonder what a door-to-door poll of his readership would show; how many people read the stories, how many readers gave the slightest damn that the publisher had gone; how many readers who were also advertisers wondered what the relationship between his trip and increased rates were; and how many readers, advised too often of the increasing cost of newsprint, wondered how a man who tells them in print that he is fighting for economic survival can afford such a trip?)

A newspaper builds an addition and makes no mention of costs, how much the property cost, reasons behind it, at the same time it is badgering other concerns in its community for this same type of information on the grounds that the "people have the right to know."

A newspaper builds an addition or buys a new plant and goes to the other extreme. For weeks the readers are advised of every new development in the project. Yet, when a concern in that same community builds a bigger building — one that could have a greater economic effect on the community the story is dismissed with a small cut and a few paragraphs.

We could cite several more examples but we don't think it is necessary.

We hear everyday that newspapers are being pushed in a era of competition from television, magazines and radio.

It is this type of editorial treatment of the news that is, in our opinion, of great help to the competition.

 "I don't want to be too sentimental about leaving my hometown, the place we love so much," said Bill, "but I can't erase the devotion and comfort given me by friends when I was ill and was going through some very discouraging times. I was fortunate to know such swell fellows as Dean Widmer, Bert Flemer, Hans Deh, Jim Duguid, Henry Gparbarz, Tim Sheehan, Ernie Nagel, Cliff Zimmer, Joe Galini, Gene Donnelly, Everett Spear, Bert Dwyne, Bob Voorhees, Capt. Salander and a long list of many, many others."

"I can count any number of friends in the membership of the First Presbyterian Church, Methodist Church, St. James, Jewish Community Center, veterans' organizations, none of whom will I forget."

Jensen becomes very emotional when he talks about his "his dearest friends, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Meisel, better known as the Pete Meisels. When I became ill and things were breaking badly, we were invited by the Meisels to take their house on Meisel avenue and live there as long as we needed the place. 'One couldn't have better friends,' said Bill.

Bill is celebrating his 65th year but he is looking forward to "conquering new worlds in Florida." He will miss the people of Springfield but arrangements will be made to have him get the SUN from Springfield while he's enjoying the sun in Florida.

LORRIE LEWIS

Birthday greetings to Kenneth Max, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Max of 40 Glenview drive. What better way could Kenneth have chosen to celebrate his 10th birthday than for mom and dad to take his friends to see the Yankee-Senator game on May 25. Kenneth's guests were Robert Reis, Fred Sussman, Doug Kapstatter and Ricki Zegar.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Snider of 41 Profit avenue had as their weekend guest Mr. Snider's sister, Mrs. John Gorman of Wovurn, Mass. To complete the happy family reunion they also entertained Mr. Snider's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Snider and their daughter, Cathy, of New Providence, N. J. Mr. Snider's mother, Mrs. Alex Snider, also of 41 Profit avenue, returned to Mass. with Mrs. Gorman where she will attend the high school graduation of her grandson, John Gorman Jr.

Beverly Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ross of Archbridge lane, had a belated Valentine's Day party on Friday eve, May 17. Reason for the delay—Beverly broke her leg and the party originally scheduled for the February date had to be cancelled. The Valentine-in-May celebrants were Elaine Bouchard, Judy Sloboda, Judy Di Blase, Karen Kauer, Virginia Doege, Sue Rivkind, Jerry Scurozo, Jimmy Carson, Ronnie Kordalski, Paul Biddelman, David Bonislawski, and Herbert Drawlsnagen.

Barbara Myrberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Myrberg of 2 So. Derby Road, is to be congratulated upon her winning of the Senior Honeycup and a year's scholarship to Miss Bunny's School of Dance in Springfield. In the two years she has been studying, Barbara has shown remarkable accomplishments in dancing and has received four promotions before reaching her senior status and achieving this award.

Among our newer residents are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Goldberg of 77 Laurel Drive who moved here from Irvington. They have two sons—Norman age 15 and Harvey age 12.

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Mond of 545 Morris Ave. hosted at an evening of bridge and a celebration of the birthday of Mrs. Bobby Kessler of Springfield. Also on hand to wish a happy birthday to Mrs. Kessler were her husband, Dr. A. Kessler, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sarokin, Mr. and Mrs. E. Reichman, and Mr. and Mrs. R. Baumrind—all of Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. G. Staimer and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Siegelbaum of Westfield; and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Westerman of Summit.

Robert Lyons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Lyons of 125 Hawthorne Ave., was feted on his 5th birthday at a barbecue party held on May 19. Robert's party guests were his brother, Bruce; Martin and Hank Josephs; Donald Buehrer, Barry Mitterhoff, Sandy Jacobs; Bobby Warhoff; Shelly Gold; Larry Weinstein; Jimmy Sarokin; Gary, and Larry Jay; cent J. Bonadies, the only Democrat on the committee is adamant in his stand that the parking restrictions should be lifted. The rest of the committee is understood to be behind Binder.

"Bonadies said yesterday that he believes there should be no parking restriction in Morris Ave. at any time, except for meter regulations."
"FIND ANOTHER ROUTE"
"Binder said the main reason for the ban is to help speed the heavy morning and late afternoon commuter traffic which daily jams the township. Bonadies said: "If it holds up traffic, fine. We're not interested in traffic, but in that residents should be able to shop." He contends that if the State Highway Department finds this theory inconsistent, it should find another route—and the same goes for the commuters. Rt. 24, our Main St., belongs to us, and we should have control," Bonadies remarked.
"The first skirmish in the battle presumably will take place June 13 at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce. Grausman said his organization has invited the mayor

Miss Howard Dies After 40 Yrs. Here

Miss Lou Frances Howard of 25 Salter street died Monday after a long illness. She was 81 and was retired principal of Saybrook School in Hillside.
Born in Elizabeth, she lived in Springfield the past 40 years. She was a member of the Springfield Methodist Church.
Miss Howard was principal of Saybrook School from 1917 to June 30, 1946, when she retired. She started in the Hillside school system in 1906 as a teacher.
Her only survivor is a sister, Mrs. Ella May Lushear of Westfield.
Services will be at Young's Funeral Home, 149 Main street, Millburn.

Deimling To New Post

Announcement was made this week by Colgate-Palmolive Company that Joseph A. Deimling, 34 Tower drive, Springfield, has been named product manager in the marketing organization of a new division of the company. Mr. Deimling will be in charge of all Lustr-Cream products.
Under the new divisionalization, the Product Managers, who report to Irvin W. Hoff, Marketing Manager, will be responsible for the advertising media, sales promotion, packaging, pricing and in general, all those facets of marketing necessary to the movement of products to the consumer, with the exception of sales.

ARTIST TO ENTERTAIN
Conedy will be in evidence at the next meeting of the Springfield Woman's Club on Wednesday evening, June 5, 1957, at the Edward G. Walton School, Mountain Avenue, Springfield, New Jersey. Miss Lucille Rockefeller will entertain the group with her "Suburbia U.S.A." which is a character skit of Mrs. America at her best and funniest in every day tickling situations. P. T. A. Meetings, The Uninvited Guest, Proper Behavior at Teas, Lunches and Cocktail Parties, The New Maid, and Mr. and Mrs., a characterization of a married couple ten years apart are some of the plights Miss Rockefeller demonstrates.
Miss Rockefeller's characterizations are clever and witty and her style fresh and vigorous. You will see yourself and laugh in spite of yourself. Beside numerous club engagements, Miss Rockefeller has appeared at the Waldorf and As-

"and just wait 'til you see inside... it's the prettiest car we've ever owned!"
ANNIE: It certainly is beautiful... from any angle!
BETTY: But what I like best is the wonderful feeling I get when I'm driving. Heavenly comfort! And the things they're doing with colors and fabrics these days! Honestly, I feel just like a queen!
ANNIE: You should! I'm not trying to pry, but I'll bet it cost a king's ransom.
BETTY: Wouldn't you be surprised! It cost a lot less than we expected. And, Ed says it will cost less in the long run, too, because an Olds holds its value.
ANNIE: Leave it to you to have your cake and eat it, too!
BETTY: And why not? Ed, bless his practical streak, wanted an Olds for its extra value and the Rocket Engine. So, who am I to say "no" to the prettiest thing on wheels? You ought to pass the word along to John!
ANNIE: You can say that again! I will tonight!

P.T.A. NEWS

The omission of a name from the Annual Report has been noted. Mrs. E. Weibiger's name should have been added to the report of the Finance Committee. The error is regretted.

Mrs. B. P. Yuckman, the retiring president of the former Springfield Parent-Teacher Association; Mrs. Alan Cunningham, president of the James Caldwell School P.T.A.; Mrs. Niles Christensen, president of the Raymond Clatsop School P.T.A.; Mrs. Joseph Bender, president of the Edward V. Walton School P.T.A.; and Mrs. J. F. Patterson, president of the Florence M. Gaudineer School P.T.A. attended the arithmetic demonstrations presented by the teachers at the meeting of the Springfield Board of Education held on Tuesday, May 28 in the Florence M. Gaudineer School. Each P.T.A. president was accompanied by an invited guest who was also interested in the demonstrations.

Mr. Harold Oakman, treasurer, announces that the books of the Springfield Parent-Teacher Association were officially closed on Monday, May 27 as previously announced. The balance of the funds in the treasury was equally divided among the four separate P.T.A. organizations by the officers.

From the president emeritus of the recent Springfield Parent-Teacher Association comes this message to all P.T.A. members: "As your president for the past year I have tried to carry out the wishes of the members of this organization and to coordinate all phases of P.T.A. work relating to school and community.

My thanks and appreciation are for many—to all of you who have supported us by coming to meetings and by making your wishes known—to the Executive Board for the hard work and dependability that has characterized the year—and to all of the school personnel who have at all times been ready and willing to help us. I am especially grateful to Mr. News-wanger for the encouragement he has given us; to Mrs. Forsyth, who has been our vice-president; to Mrs. Sandmeier and Mr. Murray; and to Mrs. Stevens who has so willingly prepared countless flyers and reports for distribution. Our meetings have been made more inspiring by the clergymen who have asked God's blessings on our work.

The officers and committee chairmen have represented the Springfield P. T. A. at many meetings among them are the State P. T. A.—Convention, County P.T.A. meetings, P. T. A. Schools of Instruction, Union County Institute meetings, program planning conferences, leadership training courses, town council meetings, Citizens Advisory Committees, Board of Education meetings, conferences on Hungarian Relief, safety and town recreation, Founders' Day luncheon, International Relations' tea, County Legislators' dinner, and Board of Education dinner.

This year—for the first time—we have given two scholarships for Springfield residents graduating from Regional who are planning to pursue a teaching career. We have contributed to Miss Gaudineer's Welfare Fund, to the school instrument fund, and to the film library used by all the schools. We will present four awards at Gaudineer graduation for scholastic achievement, and will give a graduation party for the eighth grade this June.

A Pre-School survey was undertaken at the request of the Board of Education and the Summer Round-Up aided in the enrollment of kindergarten students. School concerts, class parties were given and chaperones provided for class trips.

As a direct result of your wishes, individual school P.T.A.'s have been formed. The help of each and every parent is needed to make this new venture a success. We are all striving to do the best we can for our children—so offer your time and your enthusiasm to your school P. T. A.

Sincerely,
Winifred D. Yuckman
President

From the P. T. A. Publicity Chairman and the Co-chairman: "We wish to thank the officers, the committee chairman, the news reporters, all P. T. A. members, and the school personnel who worked either to make news for us to report or who helped in gathering the news and organizing it for publication. On behalf of the Springfield P. T. A., we extend a vote of thanks to the staff of the local newspaper—the Springfield Sun—for the generous space permitted for the general news items, special news, and the regular "P. T. A. News" column. To the editor and the members of the staff of the Springfield Sun, we express sincere appreciation for the courteous news suggestions and the consistent spirit of cooperation which we enjoyed throughout the year. It was through the cooperation of all that the "Convention Award" for good publicity was achieved for the Springfield P. T. A. in the final year of existence."

Gratefully acknowledged by
Mary Edna Snider and Rosemary Sageser

Childhood is a brief span in the bridge of life. Yet it is during the early years that we lay the foundation for all that is to come.

Church School is ever, and Eileen and Johnny linger on the church steps, talking about the lessons they've learned this morning. They both are excited because, under their teacher's guidance, the stories of the Bible are beginning to come alive for them.

We're not going to predict a "happy ever after" ending. We're not going to say that having met in Church School, Eileen and Johnny will go on seeing each other in church each week and that ultimately they'll grow up, fall in love, and get married. (Though, who knows? Maybe they will at that!)

But we are saying—and deeply believing—that through Church School these children and thousands upon thousands of other children are receiving religious education, an ever-expanding lesson in good fellowship, wisdom, kindness, and tolerance.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Table with 3 columns: Book, Chapter, Verses. Lists Bible readings for Sunday through Saturday.

C. W. Ougheltree Succumbs At 68

Charles W. Ougheltree of 47 Forest drive died last Thursday in East Orange General Hospital of a heart attack. He was 68. Born in Newark, Mr. Ougheltree lived in Short Hills for 20 years before moving here two years ago. He retired three years ago after about 35 years as a district sales manager for the General Foods Corp., New York. He was a member of Roseville Lodge, F&AM.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. J. Pearl Ougheltree; a son, Charles E. of Mountain Lakes, and three grandchildren.

Services were held Monday in the Cole Funeral Homes, 145 Roseville avenue, Newark.

20 To Attend ORT Luncheon

On Monday, June 3, the annual regional planning conference of Women's American ORT will be held at the Irvington House, 925 Springfield Ave., Irvington. An early bird luncheon will be served at 11 a.m.

Chairmen representing 14 chapters of the North Central Jersey Region will meet to exchange ideas and plan for the coming year their patterns of action.

Twenty Women from the Springfield Chapter will attend. Any other ORT members who would like to attend can make reservations through the Planning Conference Chairman, Mrs. Walter Canter, 22 Lynn drive, DR 6-1620.

Evening Group Finale Tuesday

St. Stephen's Evening Group will hold their final meeting of the season on Tuesday, June 4th at 8:15 p.m. in the Parish House. This will be an all business meeting. Mrs. Robert Esler the group's new president will be in charge. At the May meeting held at the Mansard Inn in addition to Mrs. Esler the following officers were elected and installed. Mrs. William Peacock, vice-president, Mrs. William Stockie, treasurer, Mrs. Anthony Catapano, recording secretary, and Mrs. Thomas Hunt corresponding secretary.

Plans for working during the summer on articles for the annual bazaar will be discussed. Mrs. Albert Pfirrmann is chairlady of this affair, which will be held in November.

New committee heads will be appointed and assume their duties on Tuesday. The group is planning an extensive work and means program for the new year.

Mrs. Philip Fitting the retiring president entertained at luncheon at her home on Saturday, May 18th for her executive committee.

2 Local Boys To Attend Workshop

Arnie Greene of 187 Henshaw avenue and Dave Freedman of 407 Milltown road, officers of Brandies A. Z. A., have been chosen to attend the District No. 3 A. Z. A. B.-B.-G. Convention and leadership workshop at Cam Akiba in East Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania. The session will be held from June 24 to June 29. Also attending is their advisor Mr. Al Smotroff.

Mr. Smotroff, who is known widely on the Atlantic Seaboard for his extensive activities with B. B. Y. O., will be the only advisor from Union County teaching at this convention.

Schaibles, Angletons Tie for First By Posting Wins in Babe Ruth League

Another week has elapsed in the Springfield Babe Ruth Major League and with two games completed to report upon, some more changes are evident in the standings. With the Schaibles defeating the Drakes 5 to 2 and the Angletons victors over the Channel Lumber team, both clubs moved into a two way tie with four victories each against three defeats.

The Channels now have a three and three record and were dropped down into third position while the Drakes are close behind in fourth—with two victories against four defeats.

The rules of the league allow for a draft of players to take place from the minor league at this time and Jack Brink has brought three men up to strengthen his team. Peter Kent who plays short stop and utility infielder for the minor league leading Lions has been brought up along with young Ed Nuttal who pitched and won two games for the Bunnels in the minors. Mike Pisanio who represents outfield and pitching strength was brought up from the Nagels and will be given a major league uniform.

"Gramps" Molitor, manager of the Channels, has brought up Soriente from Ab Weinersberg Lions to give Bill Franklin some help in the catching department and Johnson, the first baseman from the Bunnels.

The batting race is an interesting one. Peacock who led the league for one short week went hitless in three times at bat and fell below the 300 mark. Scofield and Walker went hitless in their two trips to the plate and dropped them below the 300 mark too.

Lennie Arnold collected two hits in four trips to the plate and he squeezed into the list of those hitting over 300. There are still twenty-six boys hitting over 300. Batting averages in general are dropping. Billy Franklin who is leading the league went one for three and dropped twenty-five points to an even 500. Dribnaly joined the first five and raised his average 17 points with two hits in four trips to the plate. He is now in second place. Tom Marino dropped forty-five points with one hit in four trips to remain third. Batting averages in general are dropping.

All in all, the league is well balanced and there is terrific rivalry and enthusiasm being displayed on the diamonds in Springfield. Parents and friends are urged to attend to witness the keen competition and entertainment that is taking place each playing day.

SCHAIBLES 5, DRAKE FUEL 2 Behind—the superb four hit pitching of Vinnie Caprio, the Schaible nine came up with their fourth win of the season by the score of 5 to 2 over the Drake half of the first, Marino singled and stole second. On an overthrow to the bag Marino was able to score to tie it up.

Marino thrilled everyone by striking out Bell Walker and Weiss swinging in the second. Again in the fourth-inning, after Franklin had singled and advanced to third by steals and a wild pitch, he struck out Lord, Bell and Walker to stop the threatening tie breaking run from coming home.

Lord added to the thrills by striking out Bloom, Gibbons and Peacock in the bottom of the fourth.

In the fifth inning, the Angletons broke open the game. Selander singled between first and second, Lynch was hit by the pitcher. Utzat's intended bunt rolled into right field scoring Selander and Lynch. Arnold scored Utzat with a single and in turn scored by Bloom's single after he had stolen a base.

Peacock and Keppel scored in the sixth to complete the scoring for the day.

The Angletons now hold a two to one edge on the Channels and have only one more meeting for the season which will be played on Saturday June 8 with the Channels as the home team. This game is set to produce a lot of fireworks. The box score follows:

On Wednesday evening, May 22 at Gaudinier Field, Manager Bill Dougherty fielded nine strong Angletons and defeated "Gramps" Molitor's Channel Lumber team 7 to 1, to take over first place together with the Schaible Fuel Oil team, both having four wins and three defeats.

Tom Marino who is one of the outstanding players in the league pitched the gem of the season striking out 14 men while only walking two Channel-men who boasted eight men on their roster batting over 300. Marino was credited with his third win against one defeat. Dave Lord pitched a creditable game striking out six and was charged with his first defeat of the season.

Lennie Arnold who was the only batter on both sides with two hits boosted his average to 300 for the season. Both teams fielded well and with the game going into the last half of the fifth all tied up 1-1, it was touch and go with the spirit very high.

Billy Peacock's presence in left field for the Angletons has greatly strengthened his team. Smith started the game off by flying deep to utzat in centerfield. Stu Chesler slammed the third pitch which rolled all the way to the school wall for a home run. Ertzold singled but Marino struck out Franklin and Lord.
