Woolworths To Open Store In Springfield

SPRINGFIELD—Official announcement has been made by developers of the new Echo Plaza Shopping Center here that the Woolworth Company will have approximately 20,000 square feet of space for its unit — to be ready late in the summer.

In addition to the two-story Woolworth store, the Save-On Drug Company is building approximately 8,000 square feet for its operation in Echo Plaza and Miles Shoes will also have a unit in Springfield's new shopping center. Work on the new Woolworth unit has been moving along rapidly but no date has been given as to the possible completion of the job and the planned opening. The parking lot is ready for the opening of the first unit scheduled for May 27 which includes a large Acme, a liquor, cleaner and laundramat.

The new shopping center is located where Route 22 and Mountain Avenue join in Springfield and is easily accessible from either the highway or Mountain Avenue. Both residents of Springfield and Mountaintide.

May 27 Set As Date For Acme Opening Here

SPRINGFIELD—The opening of the first section of the new Echo Plaza Shopping center, located at the junction of Mountain Avenue and Route 22, has been definitely set for May 27.

This will include the new and most modern Acme Store, the featured unit of the entire shopping center; the Echo Cleaners which will be operated under the supervision of Alvin Schneider, a local resident—Spring Liquors and a laundramat.

The second section is still under construction but contractors are rushing the work and the other units of this new shopping center should be ready in a few months.

Opening day ceremonies are being made by the four units ready for the May 27 target date with ribbon-cutting and presence of officials and store executives as part of the program.

New Ordinance On Swim Pools Is Introduced

SPRINGFIELD—The Township Committee last night introduced for first reading a very comprehensive ordinance to "provide for the construction, regulation and use of swimming pools."

The ordinance calls for an application to permit the construction, etc., shall be made to the Building Inspector and shall be accompanied by two sets of plot plans showing property lines of the premises, all existing houses and specifications for the proposed private swimming pool. (The complete ordinance appears in another page of this issue.)

One section of the new swimming pool code states that "no private swimming pool or wading pool shall cover more than 20% of the rear of the lot involved." Another important section demands that "all pools, with a water depth of more than one foot, shall be provided with a drainage outlet... no discharge of water from such pools will be permitted into a storm sewer unless the Township Engineer shall determine that the capacity is adequate."

Merchants To Run Promotion May 23 to 29

SPRINGFIELD—The Merchants Committee of the Chamber of Commerce announced today plans to run a "Springfield Sales Days" promotion during the week of May 23 to May 29.

According to Wesley Lewandowski, chairman of the Merchants Committee, the sale program was adopted by many of the local merchants in an attempt to bolster business along Morris Avenue.

Plans include, in addition to a cooperative effort by the merchants in advertising, free gifts to all children, window streamers, merchandise signs. Attempts to get all the parking meters covered for the event was turned down by the Township Committee.

According to an official source, covering of the parking meters will only be done around Christmas, as has been the custom. The source disclosed that "we do not wish to set a precedent with any group because it might mean requests will come pouring in from many other worthwhile groups."

Police Asked To Stop State As Trespassers

SPRINGFIELD—Last week's story in the Springfield Sun, under a three column headline "Springfield Invaded By State Highway Surveyors" evidently inspired an enraged Township Committee last night to threaten the State Highway Department with trespassing.

The angry Township Committee also sent a bristling message to Gov. Robert B. Meyner in the form of a resolution asking the state's chief executive to "give Springfield some idea what's going on in the matter of the highways."

Springfield was fairly swarming with engineers from the Highway Department last week, who were apparently staking out where the highways would cut through this community. The Township officials are angry because no one in authority will give Springfield any actual information regarding the route of the highways and no notice was given that the surveyors and engineers would be in the Township.

Palmer Is Silent
Highway Commissioner Dwight R. G. Palmer has refused to recognize or respond to letters from the governing body regarding the route of the new highway through Springfield. Township officials are still disturbed by Commissioner Palmer's refusal to do anything about the exposed obsolete trolley tracks and they "see red" when the Township sees surveyors "trampling through backyards, uprooting trees."

They will face trespassing charges, Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies said at the executive meeting Tuesday night, "and we're going to let state officials in Trenton know just how our residents feel about this."

The story that Springfield intended to charge Highway Department surveyors with trespassing on private property received front page publicity in the Newark News under the heading "Police Warn Curb Surveyors, Springfield, Warns Rt. 78 Crews of Trespassing."

The Newark News article said that the mayor said complaints have been received that surveyors have been walking through backyards with their stakes, without the owner's permission, and in some cases have uprooted and knocked down trees on private property to make room for their

County Chairman To Attend Dems Dance

SPRINGFIELD—James J. Kinneally, Democratic Chairman of Union County and one of the leaders in the State, will be master of ceremonies at the dance to be held by the Springfield Democratic Club at Shaekamaxon Country Club, Scotch Plains, Thursday evening, May 28.

Several outstanding Democrats throughout the State have already accepted invitations to attend and the committee in charge looks for a record crowd to celebrate the victory won in Springfield.

James Caldwell P.T.A. Wins Publicity Book Honors

SPRINGFIELD—The James Caldwell School P.T.A. Publicity Book has received the highest honors in Union County and will be one of the three to be displayed at the annual display to be held in the Fall at the State Convention.

The Caldwell P.T.A. publicity award was won competing against approximately 300 other P.T.A. books and the excellence of the coverage and presentation brought the local school into the ten finalists. These ten books were further narrowed down and James Caldwell P.T.A. was one of the final three, the two others being outside of Springfield, all receiving the same award and selected to be displayed at the annual convention.

Mrs. Alan Cunningham, president of the James Caldwell School P.T.A., congratulated Mrs. John Schoch, publicity chairman, for her outstanding work in winning this award. Mrs. Schoch was assisted by Mrs. Walter Gaestel who has taken over the job as publicity chairman for 1959.

The executive committee of the James Caldwell School P.T.A. met on Monday evening, May 11, in the Kindergarten room of the James Caldwell School with Mrs. Cunningham presiding.

The President reported on the Board Of Education Plans New 18 Rm. School; June 23 Date Set For Referendum

SPRINGFIELD—The battle of a new school site here is over.

The issue in the Township which split the community and resulted in a most bitter and interesting school election last December is now history.

An announcement made by the Springfield Board of Education states:

"The Board of Education at a meeting this week initiated arrangements to build an 18 room school with all facilities for kindergarten through sixth grade classes on the Walton, Township and Harenberg properties which have a frontage on South Springfield Avenue. It will be built and equipped for $875,000.

"Cooperation of the Township Committee with the Board, and the acquisition by option of the Harenberg property, makes possible a centrally located school in a rapid growth area of town.

"The present Kotzen play field will be replaced by better facilities on a different location on this property before the present one is disturbed by construction.

"The Board of Education in arriving at its decision acknowledges the considerable help received from the citizens of Springfield. Detailed information will be released by the Board as their planning progresses."

Smith Site Rejected
The Board of Education selected the Smith Farm as the site for a new school but considerable opposition developed throughout the Township and various groups were formed to work on both sides of the question.

When the voters finally went to the polls to ballot on the referendum—the question was beaten by a vote of 1,723 against the Smith site and 828 in favor.

The School Board later suggested that a committee be formed to include all factions and the Springfield Citizens Advisory Committee was organized to survey the situation thoroughly.

This week's announcement that the new school be constructed on the Walton, Township and Harenberg properties was exactly the recommendation given in the majority report.

The referendum date for approval of this new site and the expenditure of $875,000 for an 18 room school, has been set for Tuesday, June 23.

24,000 Sq. Foot Plant Here To House Printing Firm
New offices and warehouse space covering approximately 24,000 square feet is under construction in Seven Bridges Road, better known as Springfield avenue, just off Morris Avenue. The building is set far back—about opposite to the Bond Electronics plant in Springfield avenue.

The name of the firm is, Fravessi Lamont, Inc., classified as commercial printers, and now located at 55 Gouverneur Street, Newark. It is understood that 50 or 60 people will be employed when the plant here is in full operation.

Work on the new plant—a one story building—is being rushed so that the Newark firm can come here in the fall.

The Springfield branch comprises several thousand square feet of floor and display space leased by Vim in the new Safeway Supermarket, Morris Turnpike. This is the first move in a program being considered by the managements of both Vim and Safeway which would lead to the opening of other Vim branches in Safeway stores throughout the Eastern market area.

Food Retailer Sets Up Club Plan To Save 20%

SPRINGFIELD - MOUNTAIN SIDE—The tiny Puritan Super Market at 762 Mountain Avenue near the Springfield-Mountaintide border will start a "Club Plan" soon that may revolutionize local food buying.

The idea behind the "Club Plan," which is being pioneered in the Mid-West by the Piggly-Wiggly stores, is that the retailer cuts out all his profit in exchange for a $2.00 weekly membership fee. Shoppers can then purchase all of their groceries at wholesale prices.

The Plan will cut a family's food expenses by 20 per cent, Puritan proprietor Robert Weinstein claims.

He explains that the "Club Plan" is sure to save money on any weekly grocery bill over $10. First, the housewife must sign up to join the club. Each week she agrees to pay a $2.00 membership fee. Then she is permitted to have the run of the store buying whatever she likes at wholesale prices. (Continued on Page 2)

CLUB PLAN—Robert Weinstein, proprietor of the Puritan Super Market at 762 Mountain Avenue, Springfield, stands behind a stack of groceries to illustrate the savings possible under his new club plan. At present rates in chain supermarkets, the food items illustrated could cost $10.00. Under Puritan's Club Plan the whole stack would cost $8.00. Puritan is accepting members now for the plan-to-go into operation soon.

Here Are Some Things You Should Know About Roads

SPRINGFIELD—Below is the second and final installment of the procedures used by the New Jersey State Highway Department in land acquisition, necessary for the coming of new roadways through this area:

Assign Appraisers

When it is apparent the property to be acquired has a total value of about $10,000 or more, two Department appraisers are assigned to work independently and each come up with an evaluation. At least one additional "outside" appraisal is also obtained by the Department. This appraisal is made independently by a "free appraiser"—usually a qualified local realtor experienced in evaluating the particular type of property involved in each instance.

Properties having a market value of less than $10,000 are customarily appraised solely by the Highway Department appraisers. However, if circumstances warrant, "outside" appraisals also are obtained.

With these appraisals at hand a Department negotiator then calls on the property owner, generally in the evenings or on Saturdays or Sundays when the owner of the property is at home. Often three or more calls are necessary before a transaction terminates in agreement as to price and a date when the buildings, home or business may be vacated.

As an aid to property owners who must relocate, the Highway Department evolved a new plan. Under it the State will pay, shortly after an agreement is reached and approved by the Highway Commissioner, up to 25 percent of the agreed upon price—provided the 25 percent does not exceed 75 percent of the owner's equity in the property. If it does, this initial payment is sealed down until it does amount to 75 percent of equity.

The benefits of this plan are that it provides the owner with ready funds to make his down payment on a new property. Formerly, although an agreement was reached no money could be paid until the title was searched, proper papers filed and cleared, and the payment check authorized and drawn by the State Treasurer's office. This procedure frequently consumed weeks and months in some instances.

Sometimes the owner may prefer to move his house to another location. In the instance of one new freeway section it is estimated that 80 percent of the agreements will be reached on this basis. In such cases the purchase price makes a substantial allowance for the value of the house and the owner makes his own deal with a mover. In such instances the State insists on the agreement including a date when the structure will be off the property.

If the owner does not desire to move his house the agreement total includes full value for the house and land—the specific date when they will be vacated, and turned over to the State. The State then offers the buildings, usually along with several others in the vicinity, for sale at public auction. Failing its sale at the auction—which in most instances is held in the same town as the property's location, it is torn down as part of a Highway Department road construction contract.

Agreements Easy

It is worthy to note that on a Statewide basis amicable agreements are arrived at between the Department's negotiators and property owners in better than 90 percent of all cases. About six percent of all cases cannot be settled because of legally involved titles, ownership by a minor, unknown owners, extreme illness and similar instances where the law requires the courts to set the price and hold payment in escrow.

In less than 5 percent of all acquisitions, price is the barrier to reaching an agreement. Occasionally the owner sincerely believes he should receive more than was offered because of some unusual feature of his grounds, or building's architecture. Where a vacant piece of land is concerned, failure to reach agreement is usually because of some special purpose to which the owner intended to put his property in the future. Sometimes it is simply an effort to make an extra profit.

In these instances the Highway Department acquires the property by filing a complaint for condemnation in the State Superior Court. The court then appoints a three-member commission to establish the price to be paid by the State. The commission members view the property, hear testimony from both sides, and then arrive at their evaluation. If either the Highway Department or the property owner is dissatisfied with the price set by the commission, the matter is tried before a Superior Court judge and jury. The jury verdict is binding.

Studies show that in most cases that go before a condemnation commission or even as far as a jury decision, the difference between the Highway Department's offer and the final price set is not material. In some instances the final price was even less than that offered originally.

Be Patient

As far back as 1919 it was recognized by the New Jersey laws that in some instances a considerable period of time might be required before an amicable agreement might be reached between the Highway Department and property owners. Rather than have individual negotiations unnecessarily delay the date when a new facility could serve the general public the law provided that: "The State Highway Commission shall have the right and power to enter upon and take the property in advance of compensation therefor in any case where it cannot acquire land or other property by agreement with the owner." In 1923 the New Jersey Court of Errors and Appeals supported this right, and its application to contractors of the Highway Department on its construction projects. This right of entry prior to compensation is restated in the revision of New Jersey statutes under N.J.S.A. 27:7-22.

Do Not Force Entry

In the interest of maintaining harmonious relations with all property owners affected by its construction projects, the Department's policy is to enforce these rights of entry over individual objection only when absolutely necessary in the public interest. Where possible, prosecution of the work is arranged to by-pass buildings not yet vacated when construction must begin before acquisition is completed on agreement reached with all property owners.

The reasons why construction operations must often begin before acquisition of all necessary rights of way has been completed are basically time and money. Because of the relatively limited funds and limited staff the Department can ill-afford wasteful effort. Therefore, it must definitely know funds will be available to carry a project through before it can concentrate on developing the construction and right of way plans that will be necessary for a given project.

In anticipation of the fiscal year that is to begin on the suc-

Letters to Editor

Editor, SUN:

I would appreciate your publishing this letter in the "Sun" so that I may publicly express my sincere thanks and appreciation to the many Civil Defense workers for their efforts during my tenure as Director of Civil Defense & Disaster Control in Springfield. I would also like to thank Mayor Bonadies and the Township Committee for their backing and encouragement.

To my staff and the members of the various Civil Defense divisions should go any credit for any progress we have made during the past few years. Many of these people have devoted considerable time and effort for something they sincerely believe in and recognize as a necessity in these trying days.

Unfortunately Civil Defense does not command the position it should with our average citizen. In Springfield, as in many of our communities throughout the nation, there is a general feeling of apathy and the thought that "It cannot or will not happen". Certainly we in Civil Defense pray that they are right but we must never lose sight of our enemy's avowed dedication to bring about our destruction. Civil Defense should rightly be at the top of our list of civic responsibilities. It could be the means of surviving a nuclear attack and is second only to military might as a deterrent to such an attack.

In view of the serious state of international affairs, I believe it is most essential that all give their full cooperation to the newly appointed Director, Saul Freeman. We are most fortunate in having a person of Saul's dedication in this post. With a little assistance and with Saul's leadership, Civil Defense in Springfield should reach its maximum level of effectiveness.

Sincerely, ROBERT G. PLANER

Editor, SUN: I want to thank you for the services you rendered to me last week. The write-up you gave me asking for a witness to my acc-ceeding July 1, early each year the Highway Department submits to the State's Chief Executive an extensive listing of essential state highway system improvements and additions needed.

With this as a basis the Chief Executive then recommends to the State Legislature, in his annual budget message, the extent of funds he believes should be appropriated for highway purposes.

It is often June before Legislative action definitely sets the amount of funds that will be available to the State Highway Department. The Department then, for the first time knowing its financial resources for the next fiscal year that is but a scant few weeks away, recommends to the Chief Executive specific projects to be undertaken. After review and possibly revision by the Chief Executive, the final listing constitutes the Department's construction program. Because of this compressed time element—work on both construction drawings and right of way plans must often proceed simultaneously.

Another factor enters when the Federal Government shares in the cost of a construction project—as is the case in most major highway construction jobs. In these instances there is a mandatory review, parcel by parcel, of all proposed Highway Department acquisitions—on the project's right of way by the Federal Bureau of Public Roads Right of Way representatives before actual negotiations for properties may be undertaken. This review may extend several weeks.

As a result of these combined circumstances the acquisition of at least a portion of the right of way then frequently becomes concurrent with actual construction operations. In the vast majority of such instances the Department finds the property owners to be understanding and cooperative. Only occasionally is it otherwise.

Why can't something be done about the exposed rails on Morris avenue? I skidded on them one day recently and how I avoided an accident is still a mystery to me.

It was early in the morning and there had been no rain to make the exposed tracks dangerous. But I applied my brakes coming to a corner and skidded so badly that only the fact that there were few other cars on Morris avenue at that early hour that I got away without crashing into other cars. Who is this Mr. Pelmer, State Highway Department Commissioner, who refuses to do anything about it? Why can't the Township insist that he use some of our taxes—money we pay to help maintain the state roads—to remove or cover up these dangerous exposed trolley tracks?

I would like to know how many accidents have already been reported to the police because of these slippery tracks—not counting the hundreds, like my own who didn't have enough damage to tell the police.

Mr. Palmer and his Democratic bosses bet I do something about these old trolley tracks. Oh, have I already read somewhere that the Highway Commissioner has stated "there hasn't been a death yet!"

I know there is an ordinance in Springfield which compels owners of dogs to obtain licenses each year.

Why not include all cats in the Township and insist on their owners procuring licenses for these pets?

I happen to like dogs better than cats and agree that the Township authorities have the right to regulate and supervise the licensing of pets. But why exempt cats? Please do not use my name but I will appreciate it if you publish this in your paper.

Bonadies warned that if more complaints are received—and property owners are willing to sign the complaints—a formal charges of trespassing will be made by township police.

The order is effective, he said, and highway personnel will be evicted from the property if the charges are made.

Still in Dark

Bonadies said the town still has received no notice from the Highway Department that the new road is either state or federally approved and now we're being subjected to trespassing—an invasion, no less, with no official word on anything.

At the same time the Township Committee directed Weinberg to draw up a resolution to Gov. Meyner demanding "official word as to the status of the new highway—where it is going and who's doing what."

Lucy said: "It's time we look off the kid gloves and started pushing. The Highway Department has pushed us around too long... We've gone to the congressman and everyone else around here and still can't get any answers. It's ridiculous."

'Little Tin Gods'

"Dwight Palmer (state highway commissioner) and Otto Fritzsche (chief engineer) have set themselves up as little tin gods... authorities on who's going to know what," Lucy continued. "We have no official word, yet these surveyors are in town telling everyone that this is where the highway is going to go and that's it."

LOCAL ARTIST EXHIBITS. Melvin Klapholz shown with a self portrait and other examples of his ability. His paintings have been exhibited in many art centers.

Klapholz Exhibits Art At Library

SPRINGFIELD — The paintings of Melvin Klapholz are now being displayed at the Springfield Public Library in the exhibit sponsored by the Springfield Woman's Club.

Mr. Klapholz, who resides at 112 South Maple Avenue, has lived in this area all his life. He was born in East Orange in 1928 and grew up in Newark. He studied at Newark School of Fine and Industrial Art and at the Art Students League in New York. At present he is art director at Schur-Appel, industrial designers in Short Hills.

Although Mr. Klapholz began painting less than three years ago, his work has drawn considerable attention. He has exhibited at the Art Center of the Oranges and for the past three years at the annual art exhibits sponsored by the Springfield Woman's Club. In the 1956 Woman's Club art show his oil painting of a Negro, entitled "Bill," was voted most popular. Mr. Klapholz is represented by Fine Arts Gallery in Newark.

At the end of this month, Mr. Klapholz and his artist wife, Jacqueline, whose paintings were displayed at the library during April, will have a long-time dream come true. They and their two children will leave for Mexico, where they plan to spend a year devoted entirely to painting.

MORRIS TURNPIKE AT RIVER ROAD... DRexel 9-3000

YOUR LIBRARY

Good weather weekends reveal the roads spotted with cars topped with small boats, or looking larger ones. Each year boating becomes a more popular sport. Boating enthusiasts stretch from the Atlantic to the Pacific Ocean, and their interests include craft on all the rivers and lakes. New Jersey is fortunate in having a long shoreline and, in addition, some very fine lakes.

Just as the enthusiasm for boating grows, the book collection in the Free Public Library of Springfield has been growing. Someone asks for a book on one phase, then on another phase, until now this collection includes more than twenty books; a group large enough to make the hearts of local residents swell with pride.

It is only possible to suggest the different types of boats and sailing that this collection covers. First there are four books about boats with outboard motors. All are very good, but perhaps the most attractive is "The Complete Outboard Boating Manual" by Ernest Venk.

Then there are four books devoted to cruising: (1) "The Complete Cruiser," (2) "Cruising Boats Within Your Budget," (3) "We Took to Cruising," and (4) "A Boating We Will Go!" This last has the subtitle "A Cruising Manual for Women."

Sailing is covered by "Learning to Sail," "Small Boat Sailing," "Learning to Race" and "Sailing to Win."

Some of the books on small boats already mentioned tell about the care of boats and their equipment, the Army, has the weight structure, "Boating, A Beginning Guide" by J. J. Allen and "The Boatowner's Handbook" by W. H.

deFontaine are especially good on this phase: "Operation of Small Boats and Harbor Craft," a pamphlet published by the Department of the Army, has weight of government authority behind it. "Canoeing" by C. W. Handel will be of particular interest to those who enjoy the streams and small lakes. "Water Skiing for All" and "Water Skiing" take up a recent development in water sports.

Humor has not been forgotten in this group and "I Married a Boat" by the wife of a boating enthusiast will touch familiar cords in many ladies' hearts.

All of these books will be in the usual display place in the hallway of the library; and so that the youngsters will not be forgotten, some of their very attractive books have been included. "Boats on the River" by Marjorie Plack is famous for its wonderful illustrations of New York harbor. Another famous book is "The Book of Boats" by Margaret Gosset. A new one is on "How Boats Go Uphill" by Roger Pilkington. Anyone interested in boats or boating should find much of interest in the collection of books on display this week.

Plans, Committees Announced, AAUW

MOUNTAINSIDE — Plans for the coming year and committee appointments were determined at an Executive Committee meeting of the Mountain Side Branch of the American Association of University Women held May 8th at the home of Mrs. Edward Perrine, 324 Longview Drive.

Among the committee assignments decided upon at the meeting were chairmanships of the study groups. Mrs. Harold M. Tulchin, 336 Longview Drive, acting program chairman, explained that for the first year of the new organization's existence the number of study groups would be limited in order to establish the program on a sound basis and to enable it to become a meaningful part of the overall program of the Mountain Side branch of the AAUW.

The branch grows, more study areas may be added. Projects for the coming year will be comprised of four areas: The Arts, Education, International Relations and Mass Media. These were selected on the basis of a survey of the membership which was made to assist in planning the program and were the areas which evoked the greatest interest.

Those named to head the study groups were: The Arts, Mrs. G. W. Siefen, 1285 Knollwood road; Education, Miss Miriam Elsenring, 1350 Wood Valley road; International Relations, Mrs. E. Klingsberg, 1257 Cedar avenue; Mass Media, Mrs. R. J. Becker, 301 Hyslop avenue, Westfield.

Other chairmanships announced by Mrs. Perrine, presidential nominee, were: Mrs. Richard Freeman, 220 Evergreen Court, Hospitality; Miss Rowene Miller, 1377 Stony Brook Lane, Publicity; Mrs. P. L. Beckius, 328 Cherry Hill road, telephone; Mrs. Alfred Salmini, 1058 Sunny View road, Fellowship and Scholarship.

In announcing plans for the meeting, Mrs. Edward Perrine, 324 Longview Drive, one of the organizers of the Mountain Side group and nominated for president for the forthcoming year, said that the new group was fortunate in having Mrs. Preston as its speaker. Her presence will give the Mountain Side organization a closer sense of affiliation with the national body and the occasion will in a sense be a welcome from the State Division to the 37th branch in the State.

Mrs. Perrine also stated that in seven weeks the Mountain Side group has become a full-fledged organization with a membership of over 40, a set of by-laws and a slate of officers to be elected at the May 21st meeting.

TAKING CARE OF YOUR GARDEN

Chairman, Springfield Shade Tree Commission
By Edward A. Cardinal

Many plants were badly wind-burned this year. Hemlock, fir, cypress and many other evergreens now look rather shabby and should be trimmed severely as soon as possible to encourage new growth. Fertilizing will help them recover, if they are not completely dead. Broadleaved plants are not so easy to treat, because severe trimming will make them unsightly. It is usually best to transplant them to the rear property and cut them back almost to the ground. In a few years the plants will be nice and full and probably better looking than they were originally.

It should be safe to plant annuals at this time, unless we still get a late frost. Vegetables can be planted, although many farmers prefer to wait as late as Memorial Day. The cost involved is so slight that it is worthwhile taking a chance, because you will harvest a crop before vegetables get too plentiful on the market.

Q—My tulips are almost through blooming and would like to know how to care for them?
A—As soon as the blooms fade remove the flower and stem. When possible, leave the leaves untouched until they turn yellow and then they can be removed. The bulbs can then be left in the soil for another season. If the leaves are in the way, they can be cut down to about five inches and left to ripen, or the entire tulip can be dug up and replanted in the rear until the tops die. The bulbs can then be dug up and replanted in the fall.

Q—I plant gladiolus every year, but the blooms don't last long enough for me, yet I see some people with blooms all summer. What shall I do?

A—Start planting now, but only a half-dozen at a time. Plant some each week, or two so that you get a longer blooming period.

Q—Are perennials better than annuals?

A—Not necessarily. Annual flowers must be planted every year from seed, or seedling plants and bloom profusely all summer and early fall. Perennial plants are planted from seeds, or plants and will live for many years, but the blooming period is usually much shorter. Some perennials bloom for only a week or two. One advantage of annuals is the fact that after the blooming period is over you can rip them out and clean-up thoroughly.

Q—I have seen some beautiful rock gardens in some areas of New York, but since coming to Jersey I have yet to see one. Why are they more popular out of state?

A—Good rock gardens are costly, and the area you mention is filled with wealthy people. There are many good rock gardens in Jersey, too, but you will not find them throughout the development, because the flat ground is not the best location for one. If you are interested in a good rock garden, and have the money to spend, write to me and I will send you the names of men who can do this work.

Joint Swim Pools Called Feasible

SPRINGFIELD — Jerome V. Rudolph, President of the United States Pool Corporation and a resident of Springfield, was quoted in the New York Sunday Times at length on the feasibility of joint swimming pools.

"Pool pooling may in time become the new suburban fashion," the Times article stated in its opening. "In the opinion of this manufacturer of swimming pools for residential use, joint ownership and maintenance may be the answer for neighboring home owners who do not wish to bear the expense of an individual pool. At present only about one-half of 1 per cent of the 125,000 residential pools in use in the country are jointly owned, he estimated.

The fear that joint ownership may impair the marketability of property titles or complicate insurance problems is behind the reluctance of many home owners to have group pools, according to Jerome V. Rudolph, president of the United States Pool Corporation. Until now, he says, there has been no definite study of the motivations that have inhibited common ownership.

Simple Pact Involved
Mr. Rudolph's concern has checked into the technicalities involved when two, three or more neighboring owners buy and maintain a swimming pool jointly. He believes that many suburban families would prefer such an arrangement to the community facilities that have been established in many housing developments.

Mr. Rudolph says that title to a home need not be adversely affected. The basis of joint ownership is a covenant of agreement under which the participants outline the conditions that regulate the pool's purchase, use and care.

The manufacturer contends, on the basis of checks with title companies, that in the event of one or more of the homes involved, the ownership of the swimming facilities can be passed along to new owners.

If a new owner does not care to join in the maintenance and use of the pool, the agreement provides that he can sell or rent his rights or arrange to use the facilities at specific times. The title to the property is never impaired by this procedure.

To help home owners arrange such a plan, the United States Pool Corporation has prepared a model agreement that offers interested home owners. The contract may be changed to meet the needs of the group planning to buy a pool.

Mr. Rudolph explains that joint ownership of a pool—like individual ownership—does not affect the home owner's insurance coverage. Package policies, which cover liability among other things, are sufficient for pool owners and need no special riders and involve no extra costs, the manufacturer says.

One thing home owners must find out for themselves when considering a joint pool is the effect of local zoning regulations. Mr. Rudolph points out, however, that since most pools, especially those jointly owned, are installed in the inner boundary areas of homesites, the chances are slim that zoning would normally interfere. Most zoning rules are concerned with the outer boundaries.

The manufacturer believes that a trend to joint ownership may develop when home owners become acquainted with the economies of such arrangements. One of these is the likelihood that two or more neighbors can afford to buy a larger, more luxurious installation than one can afford alone. Shared maintenance also costs each user less.

Cash Saving Cited
Moreover, with the cost split among several families, it may be likely that sufficient cash may be mustered to buy a pool without financing. This reduces the cost of the pool, though manufacturers usually arrange financing for purchasers who desire it, Mr. Rudolph says.

The idea of joint pool ownership has been used widely in community pools installed by builders for the use of home buyers. These facilities are normally much larger than private ones and of necessity cannot be close to every dwelling in the area. Pools shared by adjoining homes, however, have this advantage, Mr. Rudolph notes.

The United States Pool Corporation produces the Gertrude Ederle Dive 'N' Swim pools. The company has set up an advisory and service division that offers recommendations on the size, type and placement of communal pools. Copies of the model covenant of agreement may be obtained from the company by mail at 27 Haynes Avenue, in Newark.

SCHOOL BEAT

By Marsha Wilson

Doings At Regional High School

Four senior speakers were recently elected by the senior class. The students were chosen from the seven top ranking seniors. The students elected were: Judy Vance, Springfield; Johanne Hartz, Springfield; Don Booker, Springfield; and Todd Sheldon, Berkeley Heights. I think it is interesting to find out a little about each of the speakers.

Judy Vance is President of the National Honor Society, a member of the National Forensic League and had the lead in the senior play. Judy will attend Colby College in Maine, where she plans to major in sociology. Johanne Hartz is Secretary-Treasurer of the National Honor Society, captain of the cheerleaders, and a member of the Student Council. She will attend Wilson College in Pennsylvania, where she has received a $2,000 scholarship. Don Booker is President of the Senior Class, a member of the Advanced Math Club, Vice-President of the Key Club, and active in church affairs. Don has been accepted by Massachusetts Institute of Technology, but hopes to attend Princeton. He received a National Merit Scholarship of $1,000. Todd Sheldon is Vice-President of the National Honor Society, President of the Student Council, Treasurer of the Key Club, and a member of the Advanced Math Club. Todd will attend Franklin and Marshall College in Pennsylvania where he has received a $3,600 scholarship. The students have not as yet decided on a topic for graduation exercises.

This Friday and Saturday evening, the music department of Regional is presenting the "Student Prince." Tickets may be bought at the door for $2.00, but come early as there are no reserved seats. This production will be more than worth your while, for the costumes (authentic from the New York cast), orchestra (professional), and scenery (designed by the boys in our shop classes) are really terrific!

For those who enjoyed the senior play, you will see many of the same faces in the operetta, such as Judy Vance, Tex Nolen, Diane Ashfield and Mike Hendricks.

Ellen Southgate of Berkeley Heights was crowned queen of the junior prom last Friday night. Her attendants were Gail Guenther, of Berkeley Heights and Sonja Fuller of Kenilworth. The day after the prom saw many Regional students invade the Jersey shore.

Don't forget, the Student Prince, this Friday and Saturday evenings, May 15 and 16, at Regional High School. Curtain time is 8 p.m. Let's really support this project!

What's in it for me?

If he'll work, there's faith in his future.

Nothing...and everything

It will demand your free time—often when you want that free time for other things. It will demand sincere enthusiasm and concentration. It will demand money, perhaps... certainly hard work and the sacrifice of some personal pleasures and whims. In return you'll have nothing you can hold in your hand... or put in the bank... or stick up over the mantelpiece. Nothing but priceless faith. Hardly a specific. But faith is not a specific thing. It comes when you need it most... and where. That's part of its strength—a strength that's as strong as you want to make it.

Find the strength for your life... worship together this week

Salvation Army Funds Lagging SPRINGFIELD—The Salvation Army's Annual Drive is running 20 per cent below the amount received at this time last year, it was announced today by Mr. Harold C. Oakman, chairman and Mr. Arthur H. Smith, Jr., treasurer of the Salvation Army's Springfield Service Unit.

"This is particularly regrettable," said Mr. Oakman, "for never before in the history of this organization has it been called upon to do so much." Mr. Smith requests that checks be made payable to the Salvation Army and sent to him at The National State Bank of Elizabeth.

It was a grand week for Regional's athletes. The baseballers brought their winning streak to four by winning three games last week. The track squad won both of its meets.

On Monday the Kiwanis beat the Rotary 7 to 4. Buckley—the winning pitcher, Froggy Freedman pitched a good game for the Rotary until the Kiwanis got onto him in the last inning, and Tricky Multaugh had to come on in relief. Larry Anthony of Kiwanis hit a home run in the second inning with no one on, he also made a fine play in left field by running to his right and pulling down a line drive.

mal progress toward graduation. Reading improvement and development of sound study habits will come in for major emphasis in the summer session which will be available without charge to residents of the six communities comprising the Union County Regional High School District. Two courses are offered in each of these areas; a thirty-hour, three-week course for those needing to advance already well developed skills and a sixty-hour, six-week course designed to teach the basic fundamentals to those students who need this kind of assistance.

Several brand new courses are to be offered. Two of these are Creative Writing and Music Theory. Neither of these subjects has been available before this session. Another original program will be an offering titled "Introduction to College Life." This study will attempt to help its participants understand the whys and wherefores of the transition from life at home to living at a college campus. It is expected that graduating seniors will make up the major portion of students.

An unusual feature will be a dramatic workshop where students will produce a complete stage presentation. Help will come in constructing settings from the shop areas of the school which will also be in session.

The school will offer transportation from the towns of Berkeley Heights, Kenilworth and Mountain-

Guidebook

- AUTO BODY WORK
ELLEY — (155 Morris Ave., rear of Chrysler-Plymouth agency Springfield). When your rear end is out of shape look for: (1) a firm with the necessary fancy equipment, (2) a firm with the know-how of experience, and (3) a firm with the integrity to do the best job at the lowest rate. On all 3 counts, the SUN recommends Elley Auto Body Shop.
- FLOOR COVERINGS
LINOLEUM & CARPET FACTORY OUTLET—(Route 22, Springfield, DRexel 6-5220) Mel Horn's linoleum tile and broadloom emporium sports a vast range of floor coverings at low budget prices. Almost all of the nation's leading manufacturers are represented on the big display floors. The Outlet is particularly respected for the quality of its installations.
- FOOD MARKETS
SPRINGFIELD MARKET—(272 Morris Ave., Springfield) DRexel 6-4431 If you're an expert shopper, or just a modest appetizing food-seeker, these boys take phone orders and deliver free of charge. Jim Juncoski and Les Schumann have only top quality foods at prices that can't be matched anywhere.
- FOREIGN CAR SERVICE
LARRY'S GULF SERVICE (179 Mountain Avenue, Springfield, DRexel 9-8877) —Larry Goodwin, a member of the Scuderia X Sports Car Club, has put his lifetime interest in mechanics to good use in Springfield. He brings a foreign car enthusiast's devotion to his job as a foreign car specialist. He has quite a collection of tune-up equipment to help out.
- GARDEN SUPPLIES
CARDINAL NURSERIES—(272 Milltown Road, Springfield, DRexel 4-0440). This is the time of the year when Ed Cardinal's garden center is just about the most popular place in town. He will install a split-rail fence for you, tell you how to grow a perfect lawn, and sell you a power mower to handle it. It's the combination of merchandise and know-how that makes it worth while to stop here.
- HI-FI & SOUND
STEREO SOUND CORP.—(173 Mountain Ave., Springfield, DRexel 6-4547) You too can play an important part in helping to sound the story of high fidelity sound reproduction is largely an effort to add another ear to the traditional one-ear speakers. This development, called stereophonic sound is available for home listeners as well as the Radio City Music Hall. This firm can set you up with either dual recorded tape sound systems or AM-FM radio binaural sound.
- HOME IMPROVEMENTS
CHANNEL LUMBER CO.—(Route 22, Springfield, DRexel 6-5000) Channel's charge account system makes it possible to buy just about anything under the sun (or as advertised in the SUN) and take 18 months to pay for it. This, of course, includes lumber, home improvements, housewares, paint, hardware, and so on. A service to the community is Channel's standing offer to loan extra chairs for card parties, club meetings, etc., absolutely free of charge.
- INSURANCE & REAL ESTATE
BUNNELL BROS.—(8 Plover Ave., Springfield, DRexel 9-2400) Springfield without the Bunnells would be like Boston without the Cabots or Bohers and Richard Bunnell have been writing insurance of all kinds in town since 1916. Their big friendly office is in the bank building near all that big friendly money. Their advice on insurance matters, though it is a good deal more than friendly, their years of experience show in the soundness of their advice.
- RESTAURANTS
CHINA SKY—(Springfield Shopping Center, DRexel 9-3010) Here's a random sampling from the menu showing that there's practically everything under the China Sky SAM GOP TAI — sliced lobster meat, white meat of chicken, Chinese roast pork prepared with imported Chinese mushrooms, snow pea pods, waterchestnuts, bamboo shoots and hearts of bok choy. All this for $2.75 in Jack Chin's cheerful dining room.
MOUNTAIN AVENUE LUNCHEONETTE—(549 Mountain Avenue, Springfield, Next to Walton School) There is only one thing better than good German cooking and that is Mrs. Germann's German cooking. She is running the prettiest breakfast, lunch and snack headquarters in town. The SUN recommends trying any of her homemade delicacies.
- RESTAURANTS
SIP & SUP DRIVE-IN RESTAURANT — (Corner of Morris Avenue and Springfield Avenue, Springfield, DRexel 6-2009) Here is a smooth blending of traditional colonial decor with the clean lines of modern comfort. Jack Bullock has placed a charming dining room in a restaurant which offers all the 20th Century conveniences of drive-in ease. The food, on the other hand, has an old fashioned quality that brings people back for more.
- TV SERVICE
SPRINGFIELD RADIO & TELEVISION CENTER — (173 Mountain Ave., Springfield, DRexel 6-4545) Five mobile repair trucks, six mobile repair men, and enough testing equipment to man the CBS master control room, make this a logical choice when Lawrence Walk gets bleary. The service is quick and all work is guaranteed. The good of the pudding is in the mix. This firm has expanded in recent years.
