HOW ABOUT CUTTING SALARIES

The railroads are crying for the curtailment of their commuter service as well as using New Jersey Turnpike surplus funds to carry them over their "hard times."

But WE STILL DON'T HEAR OF PRESIDENT PERRY M. SHOEMAKER and his group of vice presidents at the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Co., taking little cuts in salary.

Mr. Shoemaker is drawing $90,000.00 in salary despite the fact that the road has been yelling for help.

In every other business—when things get a little slow—the boss will grab a little less "take-home" pay. But not Mr. Shoemaker—when he can get the State of New Jersey to come-up with an idea that will call on the taxpayers' money to help. But no reduction in the pay of these high priced railroad officials.

The Elizabeth Journal, in an editorial, said that the first bold, forward stride toward the solution of New Jersey's tormenting rail transportation problem was taken Monday at Trenton when the Legislature gathered in summer session to hear the suggestion of State Highway Commissioner Dwight R. G. Palmer and the Division of Rail Transportation.

What the legislators heard was a plan, supported by Governor Meyner, to tap New Jersey Turnpike cash surplus over a period of years to the extent of $430 million dollars. The plan was received with mixed emotions, which doesn't for a second alter the bald truth that here, finally, after months of floundering were the first concrete proposals.

There were those who in their relief and enthusiasm would have accepted the program carte blanche and gone home to peaceful slumbers. And yet for all the appeal so soothingly phrased and for all the hope, the snarl isn't as simple of untangling as that. Snarls of such magnitude never are.

A far more realistic note was struck by Sen. Robert C. Crane of Union when he contended: "A $430 million program, even one directed to the most emergent need of the state, is not one to be lightly considered, nor granted quick approval no matter how well intentioned and sincere its sponsors."

Let that be the track to the ultimate solution of New Jersey's transportation difficulties—with rails of frankness and cooperation. Granted that here is the first, firm unafraid step forward in a situation where there has been so much uncertainty and diffidence. Granted, as well, the sincerity of the plan architects, yet involved is a vast sum of money that could be used by the state advantageously in various other ways.

Here is a disruption of the order of bond payments that has prevailed since the turnpike came turbulently into being—and here in the immediate offing is a question for referendum in which the people of New Jersey would be pledging their financial integrity toward the payment of turnpike bondholders should revenues ever fail.

Are these reasons enough then—that the members of the senate, returning to session on Aug. 31, should have access to every last shred of information for guidance in the major decision that will be theirs if the proposal is to be passed on to taxpayers at the general elections in November?

This must be conscience, caution and courage all at work as a single team for the legislators. Conscience is a proper understanding of what the elected office holder owes to his constituency. Caution is recognition of the pitfalls along the way and courage is that quality without which public servants so often fail in both conscience and caution.

Before sending along to the public the question of releasing turnpike surplus for conquering or alleviating rail transportation ills it is up to each legislator to have the facts so firmly insisted on by Senator Crane even as he compliments the Division of Rail Transportation and Highway Commissioner Palmer on the course they so valiantly have outlined.

Why shouldn't a senator demand unbreakable guarantees that any easement turnpike surpluses might provide will actually result in benefit to the citizen taxpayer through help given the railroads?

Why shouldn't there be "qualifications and standards for the railroads" in their relations with the state and the Interstate Commerce Commission? Why shouldn't there be more pin-pointing concerning how the flood of dollars that would be released if the plan carries will be used?

Once more and finally, here brought into the open is an outline of action which may be built up to a lasting frame of result. It is a diagram to hold interest of every major state office, but an interest qualified, as Senator Crane's interest is qualified, when he says, "there should be no question as to my desire to act affirmatively once the matter has been brought into clearer focus." Certainly there is nothing in these terms that can not be met by Aug. 31.

PARENTS ROLE IN BIKE SAFETY

Accidents due to collisions between bicycles and motor vehicles resulted in the deaths of five cyclists in New Jersey this year up until the end of June, according to New Jersey State Safety Council.

During the 12 months of last year in the state 19 cyclists were killed in collisions with motor vehicles. 1,096 others suffered injuries, and 12 of the 19 killed were under 15 years of age, the council reports.

While some of the blame for these deaths may have rested on motor vehicle drivers, this does not alter the fact that parents have the responsibility of familiarizing youngsters with the fundamental principles of safe bicycle riding and also of insisting on observance of the regulations.

Statistics show that more than 70 percent of the bicycle riders injured or killed in collisions with motor vehicles were violating some safety practice or regulation when the accidents happened, and that in about one-fourth defective bicycles were a factor.

The Police Department takes cognizance of the important part parents can play in bicycle safety. Lack of headlights or rear lights are reported as frequent causes of night accidents, and other common causes of mishaps are improper turns, carrying an extra rider and collisions with open auto doors.

The Safety Council cites the following state regulations governing the use of bicycles:
A bicycle used at night shall be equipped with a front lamp that shall emit a white light visible from a distance of at least 500 feet to the front, and with a lamp on the rear which shall emit a red light visible from the same distance to the

Trolley Rails A Problem Back In 1930

For years, Springfield's governing body has been begging the New Jersey Highway Department to cover up the exposed trolley tracks in Morris Avenue—the cause of more than 148 accidents reported to the police.

Highway Commissioner Dwight R. G. Palmer is evidently too busy with the plan to help the railroads maintain their high executive salary schedule, abandon rail commuter service and dip into the funds collected for the Turnpike bondholders. (No mention has been made that the railroad presidents are willing to cut their salaries during these "hard times.")

"At any rate—Mr. Palmer has ignored all pleas to have the dangerous rails removed.

Just to prove that this isn't just a recent idea, the following excerpts have been taken from the minutes of the Township Committee meetings held February 11, 1930, and February 26, of the same year. It shows how many years Springfield has been screaming for help and how NOTHING has been done.

Minutes Feb. 11, 1930
On motion of Mr. Leslie, seconded by Mr. Geiger, and carried, the Township Clerk was directed to communicate with the State Highway Department and request that the trolley tracks on Morris Avenue be filled with a tar compound so as to eliminate the existing hazard to traffic.

Minutes Feb. 26, 1930
On motion of Mr. Leslie, seconded by Mr. Macarney, and carried, letter from the State Highway Commission dated Feb. 20, 1930, advising that an investigation would be made in connection with filling of the crevice in the trolley tracks on Morris Avenue, was received and ordered placed on file.

Minutes Feb. 26, 1930
On motion of Mr. Leslie, seconded by Mr. Macarney, and carried, letter from the State Highway Commission dated Feb. 20, 1930, advising that an investigation would be made in connection with filling of the crevice in the trolley tracks on Morris Avenue, was received and ordered placed on file.

Minutes Feb. 26, 1930
On motion of Mr. Leslie, seconded by Mr. Macarney, and carried, letter from the State Highway Commission dated Feb. 20, 1930, advising that an investigation would be made in connection with filling of the crevice in the trolley tracks on Morris Avenue, was received and ordered placed on file.

Rev. Weber Talks At Union Service

Springfield Union Summer Services in conjunction with the Methodist Church and the First Presbyterian Church, will be observed at the Methodist Church during the month of August and the first Sunday in September.

The newly appointed assistant minister of the First Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Donald C. Weber, will be the minister at these services and will be in charge of all pastoral needs. Mr. Weber's sermon for this Sunday will be entitled "The Price Tag on Life."

Rev. Weber has served five years as an instructor in the Department of Religion at Lafayette College. He is a graduate of Bloomfield Seminary and has taken graduate work at Harvard Divinity School and Union Theological Seminary.

Speeding Case Reversal Here Changes Laws

A reversal of a $5 speeding fine against a Summit industrialist charged with traveling over legal number of miles per hour on a Springfield street, has become the basis on which certain speeding charges may be dismissed.

Ten motorists, caught in a radar speed trap in South Orange, were free because of the opinion of a Union County court. The defendants won their case because Louis Cohen of Short Hills, an attorney, contested the legality of a 25-mile-an-hour speed zone.

Mr. Cohen, given tickets on Feb. 9 and 11, was accused of driving at 40 miles an hour in a 25-mile-an-hour zone in South Orange.

Mr. Cohen's counsel contended that the speed limit was illegal because the area in question was not residential under state law.

In dismissing the charges against the 10 motorists, South Orange Magistrate Herman B. Licks said he was relying on a decision given June 29 by Union County Judge John E. Barger.

In that case, Judge Barger upset a Springfield speeding conviction against William

Greeting Card Firm Move Here; Headed By Woman

Fravessi Lamont, Inc., nationally known greeting card publishers, has moved its facilities to Edison Place, Springfield, located in Springfield Ave., just off Morris Avenue and employing more than 50.

A long term lease for a new building was negotiated for the Springfield Realty Corporation.

The new building was constructed by the Murray Construction Company, Inc. from plans by D. S. Rotwein and Edward Blake, associated architects of Union.

Fravessi Lamont manufactures of Everyday greeting cards, Christmas cards, Valentines and other seasonal cards; and owners and distributors of the Manville Christmas cards and notes is following the trend from crowded urban to spacious-suburban locale.

Fravessi Lamont was located at 55 Boulevard Street, Newark in the former Clark Thread Mill. Fravessi Lamont, Inc. moved to New Jersey from New York.

The new plant is a one story modern brick and steel industrial unit having an area in excess of 24,000 square feet and is set in a campus-like atmosphere with a large parking area.

Fravessi Lamont was founded in 1931 and the present president, Agnes C. Govetti (in private life Mrs. R. A. Bingham-Spencer, of Madison, New Jersey) is the only one of the original founders of the company still in active management.

Miss Govetti stated, "More than a decade ago when we moved from New York to Newark we experienced the same thrill of moving as we do now in our move to Springfield.

"Most of our executives live in and around Madison and Springfield; and we will save many hours each week in commuting time.

"Our new 24,000 square foot unit has been designed and engineered to produce our product, not only better, but at a lower cost. Our New York showroom will continue at 220 Fifth Avenue.

"An interesting facet of this company's operation is that from its inception most of the key positions have been held by women.

"Our slogan, 'A Pleasure to send, a Joy to receive' is recognized throughout the greeting card industry as a pace setter and experimenters in new ideas."

In this transaction, Fravessi Lamont Inc. was represented by James Ozias of the Newark law firm of McCarter, English & Sluder.

Financing for the new building was arranged through the Equitable Life Assurance Society.

The Springridge Realty Corporation was represented by Frank D. Cardinal of Springfield.

Many Approve Cultural Plan For Township

Springfield's projected programs (1) "To Improve Aesthetically, Culturally and Historically and (2) "To Explore the Adequacy of Our Recreational Facilities" have aroused considerable and favorable interest throughout the Township.

"Such a program definitely has a place in such a community as ours," said one of Springfield's leading citizens.

"With our place in history," said this same civic-minded resident, "Springfield should everybody join in this plan to bring more culture, more art, more appreciation of music, more of the cultural side of living to our community."

While the interview quoted above on this subject was with a well known resident of the Township, he requested that his name be omitted until the plan had crystallized and all citizens be given an opportunity to further explore the plan.

Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies and members of the Township Committee discussed this program at a recent caucus meeting and the plan was enthusiastically approved.

The cost of each ticket is $3 for adults, $2.50 for children between the ages of 6 to 15, and children under the age of 6 will be admitted free of any charge. This gala event is open to the public, you do not have to be a member of the local Elks to attend.

There will be contests of various kinds such as egg-throwing, horseshoes, hoops, etc., etc. Valuable prizes will be given to winners of these contests.

Members of the picnic committee who include the Honorary Chairman Herbert Fay, E. R., Chairman Harry Monroe, Co-Chairman Sam DeFino, Vincent J. Bonadies, P.E.R., Richard Blake, P.E.R., Robert Lucio, Gil Anthony, Art Dausser, Tom Brogan, Herbert Kelly, John Grio John Luciano Bert Layng, Tony LaBraco and Joe Oldroyd, are all working hard to make this picnic a huge success.

There will be pony rides for the children, a whip and a merry-go-round all under the supervision of Tom Brogan and Joe Oldroyd, and these attractions will operate from 2 p. m. until 6 p. m. Delicious food will be served at no additional cost. So come out and enjoy a wonderful afternoon amidst all the fun of the fair.

Rotary Listens To N. Stampler

The former Deputy Attorney General of the State of New Jersey, Nelson Stampler of Union, spoke to Rotarians on the subject "The Duties of a Citizen." He cited specific instances both unusual and interesting.

Mr. Stampler expressed apprehension with the disrespect for government which is most apparent among younger citizens, and feels that this roots back in an earlier attitude in the older adult population. Mr. Stampler suggested that this disrespect probably grew out of disinterest and that possibly this was the way to cure it—by again, as citizens in general, becoming vitally interested in local, county and state government.

The Bureau of Local Government that came into existence with the adoption of the new State constitution has helped to curtail several political abuses in New Jersey Communities, he said.

"The average citizen refuses to get involved in politics. The average citizen complains but will not take an active part in the politics of his community." Thus the percentage of voting citizens in small making corruption, crime, inefficiency, and tyranny to come into being.

Mr. Stampler urges citizens to keep interested in politics and above all to know what the issues are and then exercise their right to vote.

Town Rejects State Highway 'Dump' Request

The plan of the New Jersey State Highway Department to install one of their "maintenance dumps" in Springfield has been denied by the Board of Adjustment.

The Highway Department's application asked for such a yard in a single-family residence zone in Route 22 and considerable opposition developed throughout Springfield. A public hearing was held June 25 and the Board reserved decision.

The request was submitted for the state agency by the Ern Realty Co. The firm said it was planned to erect several storage buildings and to establish a parking lot for trucks.

The board voted to refer favorably to Township Committee the application by Albert Schatz of 197 Hillside Ave. for a special exception use to conduct a plumbing shop at 763 Mountain Ave., which is zoned for general business.

The V. J. Corp. received approval of its application for a variance to build a one-family dwelling at S. Springfield and Hillside Ave. The lot upon which it is proposed to erect the house is one of a subdivision of 15 lots being developed by Vincent J. Beva.

The board held for further consideration the firm's application for variances to build four single-family dwellings at 627, 631, 635 and 639 S. Springfield Ave.

Other Plans Approved
Louis H. Monetti, a Union building contractor, was given permission to erect a roof over a patio at 50 Country Club Lane.

Also approved was the application of Echo Plaza Inc. a shopping center in Route 22, for a large sign. The board, however reduced the height of the sign to 30 feet. The height submitted for approval was 40 feet.

Decision on the application of Joseph A. Pinkava for permission to raise his present garage at Morris Ave. and Caldwell Pl. and to construct a modern Colonial style service station was reserved until Sept. 24.

Summer School Promises Rewards for 380 Students

The 1959 session of the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School just completed would probably not be recognized by a summer school student of by-gone years. Gone are the days when "having to go to summer school" was the result of a failing experience in the regular session. Gone are the dreary repeater groups laboring to pass a subject they didn't like the first time they took it. Instead, over three-quarters of the 380 students attending the 1959 summer session came because they wanted to; because there was an opportunity to learn something they wanted to learn.

Seventy-eight students were enrolled in a "How to Study" course that taught them the techniques of library research and cutting work to be done; taught them the value of planning a work schedule for themselves and provided them with an opportunity to develop tools of learning that will enable them to spend future study time most efficiently.

Most of these students studied and practiced the techniques of developing increased reading speed and understanding. To keep these two units as a long way toward making studying

Gas Station "Eyesore" To Open Again

When the gas station at the corner of Morris Avenue and Main Street went out of business for the umpteenth time, many Springfield residents hoped it would mean the end of that "eyesore" for the Township.

But—no such good luck. The traffic jammer at Springfield's busiest corner is going to have another go at it with a large distributor renting the station to some manager.

The station has been closed for some time and rumors had it that those who have the lease on this property were having some difficulty getting another man to man the place. This week the report came that it would again be opened as a gas service station.

Springfield cannot do much about eliminating this service station since permits for new installation are impossible to get at this time with so many of them already in the Township.

Because of its location at a traffic light and near bus stops, any cars being serviced at this busy corner have caused considerable congestion.

The Township is said to own approximately 8 to 9 feet of property which is now part of the service station. It is the thought of many residents that if the Township were to take away this strip of property it would make the gas station practically useless. Cutting off even eight feet would hardly leave room for many cars and this might discourage any more service stations.

Under The Citadel's rank system since Gen. Mark W. Clark became president in 1954, all cadet ranks from sergeant upward are reserved for Seniors, in order to give them maximum chance for training in leadership and command prior to their graduation, when most become regular or reserve officers in the Army, Air Force or Marines.

Cadet Gallini is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Gallini of Convent Station, N. J., and a 1958 graduate of Springfield Regional High School. He is majoring in Business Administration, is in the Army ROTC, and is a member of The Citadel's crack drill team, the Summerall Guards.

Saturday Program Enters 2nd Year

Jonathan Dayton Regional High School will again sponsor its special Saturday Program when classes resume at the high school this fall.

The Saturday Program, held for the first time last year, met with enthusiastic response from 125 students who participated and prompted the continuance of the courses, said George King, assistant principal.

The semester-long sessions, held on Saturday mornings, are designed to develop better study habits. The program was planned primarily for high school seniors to prepare them to take the transition from high school to college in their stride. Study habits improvement, college composition, accelerated reading and a special course in science are the courses to be offered this year.

The new course in college composition will endeavor to bring students to work closely with a coordinator who has had wide experience in college composition. Persons from industry will conduct seminars for the special science course. "We have a reservoir of top-flight people in the field of science right in this area," Mr. King explained.

The Saturday Program is expected to start two weeks after the beginning of the regular school term in September. The classes for each course will be 1½ hours long. Although no credit toward graduation is given for participation in the program, the fact of attendance does appear on students' transcripts. (Continued on Page 2)

Multiple Sclerosis Hits Local Postal Employee

This 33-year-old, six-foot, 175-pound man, Ralph G. Swanson of 446 Morris Avenue, Springfield, is well known to practically all residents of the Township.

"Hunk of man" has met most of the people in Springfield at the local post office where he was in charge of a variety of responsible jobs.

If not at the post office—everybody has seen Ralph as organizer and mayor of the Springfield Squadron, Civil Air Patrol, his military bearing and general enthusiasm attracting considerable attention at all times.

Now—Ralph Swanson is home—crippled by Multiple Sclerosis—cut down in the prime of youth to spend the rest of his life battling this dread disease.

Joseph Gallini Made S/Sergeant

The Citadel, the Military College of South Carolina, has designated a rising Senior, Cadet Joseph G. Gallini, Jr. as a Staff Sergeant in the 2,000-man Corps of Cadets during the 1958-59 academic year.

Under The Citadel's rank system since Gen. Mark W. Clark became president in 1954, all cadet ranks from sergeant upward are reserved for Seniors, in order to give them maximum chance for training in leadership and command prior to their graduation, when most become regular or reserve officers in the Army, Air Force or Marines.

Cadet Gallini is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Gallini of Convent Station, N. J., and a 1958 graduate of Springfield Regional High School. He is majoring in Business Administration, is in the Army ROTC, and is a member of The Citadel's crack drill team, the Summerall Guards.

Mayor Bonadies has been authorized to name two citizens' committees to thoroughly explore the possibilities, study similar programs in other communities and report to the Township Committee. Names of the residents to make up these two committees will be recommended for appointment by members of the Township Committee and other Township officials.

To Name Members
While no names have as yet been mentioned for either one of these two committees, it is understood that the Township officials hope to have each represented by a cross-section of the community.

Names are being suggested from the membership of the Springfield Historical Society, the Woman's Club, the various churches, the service clubs such as Lions, Rotary, Kiwanis; the Chamber of Commerce, the veteran organizations, and other groups as well as individuals not affiliated with any particular group.

"There are many things Springfield can do along these cultural lines," said another resident who has also requested that his name be withheld even though he would gladly serve on such a committee.

"I think the Township has the people who would not only support such a program but would be willing to help launch such a project. Even though most of such programs are not always financial successes, I would like to see Springfield mentioned in the same topic of conversation as 'Tanglewood' at ate Festival, the Lewisohn Stadium Concert program, the Griffith Foundation series, the art exhibitions, the garden club presentations, the literary meetings — the many other various types of culture."

Many others have expressed themselves as being very much interested in working for such a program. "Better architecture for our business places," said one of those who favor the plan, "would help Springfield consider. I hope some acceptable design for new stores can be worked out."

"As it is now, our business thoroughfare doesn't look anything like a stranger would expect to find in a community where the Battle of Springfield, the Cannon-ball House, the First Presbyterian Church, the 1744 Tallau Home are pointed to with considerable pride."

ADVERTISMENT Building Planned For Millburn

The new medical arts building now under construction in Millburn is actually a building designed especially to serve 31 doctors and dentists.

Each suite is designed for their particular use and laid out in the most efficient manner. All modern equipment is built in and advantage is taken of all modern facilities. A special public relations firm, well-known in the field, has been chosen to acquaint the public with the facilities which will be available.

Instead of looking around for a doctor or perhaps a specialist, the public will automatically come to this center of modern medicine. Parking will be no problem as the large parking lot will have access from both Millburn Avenue and Vaux Hall Road. Patients will not be inconvenienced by wandering far afield to find the specialist they need, and also the specialist will be able to retain the privacy of his home.

The new Allied Medical Center should be particularly appealing to new residents, who would normally have difficulty in locating the specialist they desire.

The Allied Medical Center with its 24,000 square feet of suite-space will be one of the largest in the area and will be the first in a series of medical buildings erected by the same company. Information concerning rentals can be obtained by calling ELainfield 5-0563 or ESsex 3-4300.

Margaret Truman Next Guest Star At Grist Mill

The Grist Mill Playhouse at Andover will have one of its most gala weeks on stage and in the audience, with the presentation, beginning Monday, August 10, of the only New Jersey appearance of Margaret Truman, daughter of former President Harry S. Truman, in the riotous comedy hit "The Happy Time." The engagement will be for one week only.

Although Miss Truman has appeared in stage engagements in a number of cities this will mark her first and only engagement in

New Jersey and will be her first appearance as star of "The Happy Time" which had a two-year Broadway run and was voted best comedy of the year. It will also mark Miss Truman's first return to professional work since the birth of her second child two months ago. Her husband, Clifford Daniel, of the New York Times, will also be a guest at Andover during the entire engagement.

There will be performances at the Grist Mill Playhouse Monday through Saturday with a matinee on Wednesday at 2:40 and two performances Saturday evening, one at 6 and other at 9 p. m.

Concluding a week's engagement at the Grist Mill this Saturday evening, August 8, will be Larry Parks and Betty Garrett in the hilarious comedy hit "Who Was That Lady I Saw You With," by Norman Krasna.

Joan's Daughter Wins TV Prizes

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Joas residing at 141 Salter St., Springfield, were made very happy when their daughter, Mrs. Joan Varellos, and her two children spent the past month with them. Mrs. Varellos lives in San Jose, California.

While visiting her parents, Joan was successful in appearing on the T.V. program "Concentration". She appeared on it three days in succession. She took her sister Cheryl Joas, a senior in Regional High School, behind the scenes with her. It must have been Cheryl's cheering her on, that resulted in Mrs. Varellos winning the following items: a mink shawl, valued at $750.00, an upright Frigidaire freezer, a year's supply of frozen food, a $1,500 diamond bracelet, seven dresses, $100.00 in cash and a nightcap.

Mrs. Varellos returned to California by Jet this week, a happy and profitable vacation behind her.

NEWS AND TIDBITS ABOUT YOUR FRIENDS & NEIGHBORS IN BERKELEY HEIGHTS.
If You Have Any News Call
EA 2-7027

There are a variety of worthwhile summer activities going on now in Berkeley Heights and it appears that some of the young adults are setting the pace.

The Berkeley Heights Library always welcomes volunteers and now has three young ladies who are regular employees during the summer season and after school during the school term.

The head librarian Mrs. Wratall stated that these girls are in Berkeley Heights and that the library depends upon them very much.

Miss Pratt is 18, and lives at 1088 Mountain Ave. She just graduated from Regional High School with honors and also won the Berkeley Heights Woman's Club Scholarship. The scholarship can be used at any college.

Miss Leanna Del Duca is 19, and lives at 45 Locust Drive in Summit. Leanna volunteered for library work when she was in the 8th grade and has been at it ever since. She will be going to Montclair State Teachers College in the fall where she will major English and Speech.

Another active young lady this summer is Miss Ruth Tamaroff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Tamaroff, 66 Beechwood Road. She joined a group of young people of the Metropolitan New York Council of American Youths to go cycling across the state of Massachusetts and the Massachusetts Islands. The group and their adult leader started July 7 at Pittsfield, Mass., and have been to Springfield, Gloucester, Provincetown, Cape Cod and last week were in Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket. The group is having a wonderful time and will have covered approximately 1000 miles by the time they get home.

Miss Clare Cohen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Meyer Cohen, Cedar Lane, is spending her summer as a volunteer nurse at the John E. Rumlund Hospital. Clare started in the Children's Ward and is now assisting in the Rehabilitation and Library Room. She is a senior at Abraham Lincoln High School in Brooklyn during the fall and comes to Berkeley Heights for the summer. The hospital appreciates any amount of time given by volunteers and Clare spends 4 days a week from 8-30

Priscilla's choice is Wheaton College at Wheaton, Illinois. She intends to major in languages.

Miss Ellen Cunningham, 16, lives at 53 Orion Road, Ellen is a Junior at Regional High School and not only works in the library in the summer but after school during the school term.

Joan Furie to 4:30 at the hospital.

Allen Runfeldt, Emerson Lane went to Maywood N. J., for a few weeks to visit his Aunt and Uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Walter McDowell and family. He was especially looking forward to seeing his cousin Gary there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Napolitano and their sons Richard and Wayne of Cedar Lane, just returned from a short vacation. They first spent a weekend at Trenton, then went on to Seaside to join Mrs. Napolitano's mother Mrs. N. Pone. While at Seaside the Napolitano family enjoyed swimming in the ocean and long walks on the boardwalks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Benner, the newlyweds, are at home since their return from their honeymoon trip. The couple were married on June 20th. Mr. Benner (Larry) who is a patrolman with our police department, informed us that they spent their honeymoon in Canada. Mrs. Benner (Nancy) will be teaching in Mountain Park School this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Seley, Beechwood Road drove to Chicago with their daughters Sheryl and Carol Jean and Mrs. Seley's mother Mrs. Ora Wood. While in Chicago the Seley family joined Mrs. Seley's sister from Arkansas City, Kansas and they all went to Sandwich, Illinois to spend a week with Mr. Dwin Wood, Mrs. Seley's brother. The Seley family arrived home yesterday and informed us that they had a wonderful time.

HAPPY HOME COMING Marc Wallmann of Cedar Lane! We were so happy to hear that you came home from the hospital.

YOUR FRIENDS & NEIGHBORS.
IN SPRINGFIELD
DREXEL 6-4502

There was double fun at the Colony Swim Club last Saturday eve when Mrs. Irene Weiss and Seymour Cohen joined festive forces with their spouses and friends to mark their respective birthdays.

As we passed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Boehm of 440 Meisel avenue on Sunday evening, August 3, we couldn't help but note the gay goings-on complete with lovely multicolored Japanese lanterns. Seems the merriment was a party in honor of the birthdays of Mrs. Boehm and daughter Dorothy Ann. About 30 guests attended the celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Rynhard of 92D Troy drive have returned home after a business trip to the South which took them to the states of Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia. Mr. Rynhard is territorial manager of Merle Norman cosmetics.

After visiting their 10-year-old son—David at Camp Mendota, Casco, Maine, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Rich of 25 Kew drive spent seven days touring New England. They were fascinated by the rocky coast of Maine, spending two days in Ogunquit. The art colony at Rockport, Mass., was impressive too and Mystic, Conn., now restored with countless treasures of seafaring, seemed just the place to take their son upon his return.

Greg Bataille, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bataille of 26 Oakland avenue, celebrated his 6th birthday on July 24 with a luncheon party. Greg's guests were Cindy Madison, Kathy Atollo, David Baron, Robin Ries, Barry Baldwin and Bonnie Baldwin.

Birthday was also the byword on July 30 for John Scudi, son of Dr. and Mrs. Scudi of 141 Laurel drive, John, who was 9 years old, parted with his friends.

Among the newer residents are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pezzuto of 375 Meisel avenue, formerly of Irvington. Their son, Mark, is 21 months of age. Mr. Pezzuto is associated with the L. J. Frehel Co.

Syracuse, N. Y., is the former hometown of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Boyle of 83 Colfax road. The Boyles have two children, Judy and Michael.

Mr. Boyle is with the Minneapolis-Honeywell Co.

Younger members of the rock 'n' roll set had a big evening last Thursday at the preteen dance at Spring Garden Country Club. Among those present from Springfield were Billy Gold, Nancy Hillard, Wess Nelson, Maxine Fried, Lauren Blaustein and Barbara Blaustein.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Field of 102 Salter street had an unforgettable 25th anniversary celebration. The happy couple sailed aboard the "Queen of Bermuda" on a week's cruise to Bermuda.

The male pipefish incubates its young in a brood pouch in which the female has deposited the eggs. Its relative, the sea horse, follows the same procedure. For many years pipefish males were thought to be females, and even after the sexes were distinguished in 1831 a controversy over the matter raged for decades.

MY REPORT TO THE PEOPLE

By Congresswoman FLORENCE P. DWYER

By the time you read this, the House may have voted on the most controversial legislation of recent years, a labor reform bill.

Since I have been in Congress, I have received more mail on this issue than on any other. It has come from all parts of Union County and from all economic groups, including a great many union members themselves. All have demanded that effective action be taken to protect the rights of unions, their members and the general public from the violence and corruption and gangsterism that have threatened organized labor and the country.

But as I write this report, the situation is still not clear. It is impossible to predict with certainty either the order in which several different labor bills will be considered or the amendments that may be offered to them. In such a situation, due to the involved legislative procedure in the House, it is often impossible even to obtain consideration of particular amendments or provisions. As a result, legislation here is frequently processed on an all-or-nothing-at-all basis. In this respect House procedure differs from Senate procedure. In the Senate, there are virtually no limitations to the number or kind of amendments which any member may offer.

This fact is extremely important in cases of legislation so complicated as the labor reform bill. Each version of this legislation—and there are at least five major ones—contains hundreds of provisions. It is safe to assume that no two members of the House, if given an opportunity to write their own legislation, would agree on exactly the same provisions.

Time for Decision

Nevertheless, when it comes time to vote this week, every member will be required either (1) to accept certain provisions he personally opposes in order to get others he considers more important, or (2) to reject provisions he favors in order to defeat others he believes would be unwise.

Because this take-it-or-leave-it procedure sometimes makes compromise impossible, it has sometimes resulted in the total defeat of worthwhile legislation. Last year, for instance, a labor reform bill was brought to the House floor which some members considered too weak and others too strong. Both these groups combined, for opposite reasons, to defeat it, though the bill itself was a moderate and in many ways an effective reform measure.

In Spain, June 13 is set aside as the day for single girls looking for a husband to contemplate their problem. That date is the feast of St. Anthony, patron of spouse hunters.
