Highest School Budget In History Hikes Taxes; Harenberg Not To Move

Springfield School Board President Howard S. Smith says this year's school budget is the highest ever submitted and will boost the local tax rate about 40 points but he insists that he was misquoted in a news story which stated that "Harenberg might move this year."

Harenberg is the owner of the 3 1/2 acres of property purchased by the Springfield Board of Education in South Springfield Ave. with a contract that he might live in his house and use the gas station on the property "as long as he lives."

An item in the new budget asked for $10,000 to renovate the Harenberg property for Board of Education offices as soon as the former property owner leaves and the story in the Newark News quoted Mr. Smith as saying Mr. Harenberg "might move this year."

A telephone call to Mr. Harenberg brought the emphatic denial that he was planning to move. "I have a contract with the School Board to live in this house and keep the gas station as long as I live and that's the way it's going to be. I have no plans to move."

Mr. Smith stated that the $10,000 is in the budget in case the Harenberg home becomes available. "We will then have the money ready to transform the home into School Board offices."

Less than half an acre of 3 1/2 acres of the Harenberg property is being used for the new school according to School Board President Smith.

EVERYBODY IS FOR EDUCATION & SCHOOLS

With five seats to be filled on the Springfield Board of Education only 10 days away—February 9—and 10 candidates in the race for those places—a lot of questions have been bounced around—the answers for which might help voters when they go to the ballot boxes election day.

First—the Springfield Sun, its editors and all members of the staff are ardent supporters of good education for our children. We believe in improving educational facilities and approve of any program looking into the future expansion of our local system.

The fact that we are asking questions—doesn't mean that we are against education, against better schools, against necessary expenditure of the taxpayer's money.

The Board of Education is an autonomous body. It doesn't have to answer to the Township Committee—the Tax Collector—the Mayor—the Planning Board or any other municipal department.

It can plan to spend money for schools and education as needed without any apparent regard for the taxpayer—IF THE VOTERS APPROVE THE BUDGET AT THE BALLOT BOX.

The questions are not intended to help the voter in approving or disapproving the budget February 9. A thorough study of the budget by every taxpayer—every voter should be the only influence for a "yes" or "no" vote.

All Invited To Hear Talk By Drew Girl

The Methodist Church of Springfield invites all to attend a meeting in the sanctuary of the church at 8 o'clock Sunday evening, Jan. 31, to hear a talk on Africa. Speaker will be Miss Florence M. Bain of Sharon, Pa., a student at Drew University, who will illustrate her remarks with slides.

Prior to this program, at 5:30, the youth of the church will gather in the Mundy room for a special Japanese meal to be served in Oriental style.

Following this, beginning at 7:30, Miss Aiko Hiraiwa, also a student at Drew, will direct the youth in a formal Japanese tea.

The speaker at 8 o'clock has been a missionary to Africa, and her experiences will form the basis for her talk. She is a graduate of Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa. She entered Drew in November 1958 on her return from a three-year period in Africa.

Whisper Phone Drive On For School Board

The usual telephone campaign for the coming Board of Education elections in Springfield is already in full swing.

The whispering campaign asking for "support of certain candidates" and "blasting the others as 'tools of a political machine,'" has started.

Those who pretend to shudder at the thought that there is any influence brought to bear on voters in a Board of Education election and those who care to be so naive as to accept the notice that "politics should be kept out of School Board elections" will be shocked to learn this week of the usual well organized telephone campaign seeking support for the "five candidates back by the Board of Education."

The Springfield Sun has received information from two or three sources that such telephone calls have been made by a person representing himself as a friend of the Springfield Board of Education, asking support for five candidates favored by the present members of the School Board.

The Sun has not been able to obtain the names of these five favored candidates. This then follows that there must be five independent candidates seeking places on the Board of Education in the February 9 election; those who have not received the backing of the Springfield School Board.

Springfield has always been jelled into the belief that no effort should be made to help candidates seeking places on the School Board but each election finds the telephones burning up with calls asking that certain candidates be given support so that the "local School Board may carry out its progressive expansion program of education."

Dems Poll 89 Votes In '53; 400 Pack Chanticleer Sat.

Seven years ago—April 23, 1953, to be exact—Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies and Leo J. Moran, running as Springfield Democrats in that year's primary, polled exactly 89 and 84 votes, respectively.

Saturday night, the same Springfield Democrats took over the Chanticleer for their dinner dance which was a complete sell out—under the auspices of the Springfield Democratic Club.

A few years ago the Springfield Democrats were happy to celebrate whatever they had to celebrate at some picnic grove.

Saturday night nearly 400 resplendent in latest evening gowns, newest hairdos, tuxedos, glittering jewels jammed the Chanticleer. Nearly 5 times as many as voted for Bonadies and Moran in the 1953 primary floated through the Chanticleer, nibbling on exotic cocktails and delicacies and pleasant hors d'ouevres, sipped cocktails and varieties of drinks as the waters were their way through the happy groups of Democrats.

Mrs. Earl Lawit, who was referred to during the evening as the Springfield Elsa Maxwell or the Democratic Pearl Mesta, had charge of the arrangement and came in for a great deal of commendation for a job "so well done." There were places for all the diners after the cocktail hour with a full course dinner.

The speech-making was held down to a single-even though sentimental address by Mayor Bonadies who told of the early struggles of the Democratic workers.

He pointed, with pride, to his team (the five Democratic members of the Township Committee) and then introduced as many as he could remember of those who helped bring the Democratic organization into its present position of power in Springfield.

Cy Greene and his orchestra with Lenore Greene, as vocalist, furnished the music and entertainment for the occasion.

Rifles Being Destroyed

If there has been apparent during the past two years a decrease in Springfield in the number of auto and house windows broken by air rifle shot, the police department should be given the credit for the achievement.

According to Chief Wilbur C. Selander, the war on air rifles has been going on steadily in this township, and in the two years ending last week, more than 50 rifles have been confiscated.

The chief points out that the sale, possession and use of air rifles in New Jersey is illegal. Asked how such articles get into the hands of youngsters, chief replied that it is possible that children moving into Springfield from areas where the rifles are not banned may bring them along and that probably some of them are obtained from mail order houses which should know better than to ship them to New Jersey.

Workshops Held By PTA Of Gaudineer

A regular meeting of the Florence M. Gaudineer PTA was held Monday, Jan. 25, in the auditorium of the Gaudineer School. Mrs. J. Frank Jakobsen, president, and the Rev. Bruce Evans gave the invocation.

The meeting was divided into four individual workshops for the purpose of discussing PTA Object 1—"How to promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church and community." The question was divided into four sub-topics. Dr. Jan Tausch, Mrs. H. E. Wilde, Mrs. Philip Lewis, B. F. Newswanger, Mrs. R. E. Purkiser, Ed Ruby, Robert Van Wagner, Mrs. E. P. Yuckman and Mrs. Rupert Humer presided over the four groups.

At the conclusion of the workshop discussions, the membership met again in the auditorium where the findings of the individual workshops were reported by Mrs. Robert Isley, George Wilson, Jack Cowles and Miss Louise Mosczynski.

Mrs. Victor Bracht was instrumental in arranging this evening's program.

The parent family life chairman of the combined Springfield PTAs in co-operation with the League of Women Voters announced that "Candidates Night" will be held Monday evening, Feb. 1, in the auditorium of the Gaudineer School. Everybody is urged to attend.

The Founder's Day luncheon will be held Monday, Feb. 1, in the Elk Auditorium—Union avenue, Elizabeth, promptly at 12:15.

Barricade Use Defended; Truck Here

At a short meeting of the Springfield governing board Tuesday evening, Public Safety Commissioner Russel W. Sibole reported that the 1000-gallon Pumper ordered some months ago for the fire Department has arrived and had been approved by the fire underwriters. He recommended that the apparatus be formally accepted and payment authorized.

This action was taken, but Mayor Vincent J. Bonadis said that one detail remained before the sale could be considered fully consummated. This was a spin around the block on the new truck by the members of the township committee. Commissioner Sibole said he would

B. of E. Candidate States Views on Fire Detection

Joseph A. Bender, of 21 Ann Place, a candidate for Springfield School Board of Education, today issued the following statement in regard to the question of the need of a fire detection system in the school system:

"I thank you for the invitation you extended in your editorial of January 14th to the candidates for the Board of Education to submit a statement telling the voters why he chose to run, how he feels about the issues involved and what he will try to do if elected."

"I have always admired the men and women who have served on the Board of Education and who have given their efforts and time to community life without remuneration, and with little, if any, thanks or glory. Apparently their rewards are the personal satisfaction of achievement of having done their part in serving their community. I sincerely hope that I will also have the opportunity of satisfaction if I have the opportunity to serve on the board."

Admitting Red China To United Nations To Be Debated At H.S. Program In Springfield Feb. 5

A new idea has been born at Dayton Regional H.S., thanks to Miss Pauline Keith, chairman of the Social Studies Dept. and a group of her students, together with the help of some Princeton University graduate students. After much planning the idea will become a fact when a model UN General Assembly will be held Friday Feb. 5, in the council rooms of the Municipal Building in Springfield, starting at 9 a.m.

It all began when Miss Keith and a group of her students attended a meeting about the United Nations at Princeton University early last year. Several college graduate students, including Kenneth Rogers, a Dayton Regional alumnus, also took part in the long discussion. UN meeting of the General Assembly with high school students as principal participants. And, finally, with the help of Henry Doren, a social studies teacher at Dayton Regional, who is in charge of the proceedings, such a model assembly will be held. Already the students who will take part in the program have

Give This Your Close Study

Although it was part of the mimeed budget distributed at the public hearing conducted by Springfield Board of Education last week, no discussion took place during the session of the proposal which will be found on the ballot at the school election here Feb. 9.

The proposal calls for the installation of a "monitored fire-detection system with direct connection with Springfield Fire Dept." in all school buildings at an estimated cost of $22,600. The annual maintenance charge is given as $2,400, and this is added to the first figure to produce the amount to be voted on by the people—$25,000. If approved, this sum will be added to the total in the budget to be raised by taxation.

It was learned that the Board of Education was neutral—that it was not expressing an opinion on the subject one way or the other.

There has been talk in the township that the suggested installation is not needed, that fire-detection can be effected efficiently (and much more cheaply) through the setting up of direct phone lines between the schools and fire headquarters.

While there is little time left before Election Day—Feb. 9—there is time for investigation by the people. They should ask questions of school people and of fire-fighting authorities. They should have a sufficient understanding of the situation to enable them to vote intelligently two weeks hence.

Time Is Getting Short

If you have been reading about what occurred in Southern California recently, you will be impressed (probably more than ever before) with the importance of and need for proper supervision over dogs.

The time is most opportune to dwell on this subject because the end of the month—only three days away—marks the deadline for obtaining dog licenses for this year.

As was pointed out by Union County S.P.C.A. in a paid advertisement in this paper two weeks ago, "the privilege of owning a dog and deserving his affection carries certain legal responsibilities."

Quoting state laws and local ordinances, the S.P.C.A. pointed out—and we underscore—that "DOGS ARE NOT ALLOWED TO RUN AT LARGE IN NEW JERSEY . . . that owners are liable for damage done by their dogs to neighbors' property . . . that you are expected to walk your dog on a leash or give him a fenced-in play area on your own property . . . that owners of dogs found running at large will be given summonses."

The next move is up to you. And this should be to go to the municipal building at once and obtain a 1960 dog tag.

Springfield's four Parent-Teacher Associations; and its unit of the League of Women Voters indicated a keen and commendable interest in education when they issued jointly a list of "suggested qualifications and criteria" to be applied to candidates for the Board of Education.

The points were intended to be used in connection with the election on Feb. 2 of a member of the Regional Board of Education and with the election on Feb. 9 of members of the Springfield Board.

However, consideration of the Regional election may be dismissed as "purely academic" for there is no contest, the term of neither of the two Springfield members expires this year.

In the local election, on the other hand, there are ten candidates seeking five seats, and the measuring stick can be put to good use.

The test for candidates' suitability for office worked out by the organizations contains 12 points. Some of them appear trivial, as though an effort were being made to stretch the list for the sake of being impressive.

For example, the final item, about keeping "all confidential information to themselves." Is this necessary? Is this requirement peculiar to school board candidacy? Is this not a good rule for everyday conduct?

Similarly, item eight could find a resting place in the same category, would it not be well for all residents—particularly parents—to "visit the schools to gain a clearer understanding of school problems"? We believe this should be done by everybody as responsible members of the community—not when one becomes a school board candidate only. And so may some of the other recommendations be passed over.

There is plenty of meat remaining on the examination paper and these may be summed up as follows:

The organizations feel that a school board candidate should be completely independent of all political and pressure groups and determined to look upon his election as a sacred trust, and as a mandate to champion what he considers the best interests of all people in the community; should have the courage of his convictions, and vote as his conscience and common sense dictates; to be aware of the place of the public in the school structure, of the supreme authority of the people, and to be willing to keep his fellow-townsmen fully informed of what is going on through frank cooperation and good public relations; to use all the skill and ability acquired from his education and experiences in life for the benefit of education in Springfield; the welfare of the young folks in our schools and in the best interests of the taxpayers and others who make up our community.

If you find a candidate who measures up to the foregoing, by all means vote for him on Feb. 9—and make sure your neighbor does the same.

If all those elected set high marks in the test provided by the parent-teacher groups and the women voters, Springfield indeed will be fortunate in having an excellent Board of Education and holders of public office of great merit.

It sounded so simple and elementary at the Township Committee meeting last week when Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies recommended that all departments of municipal government be asked to make a sufficient number of their monthly reports and/or meeting minutes to permit each member of the governing board to have a copy.

Surely, we thought, such a fundamental requirement must be common routine in the operation of local government.

Yet, in spite of the simplicity and fundamental importance of the procedure, we believe Springfield to be the only town in a wide area—or, at best, one of the very few—making it a required process.

This plan should make for better understanding among the members of the Township Committee and between these men and the several governmental agencies—and understanding breeds co-operation and confidence and leads to favorable results. It is a good start in the unfolding of the administration's promised introduction of greater efficiency into local government.

SUN Rays

About the nicest part of working on a newspaper is meeting the many people with whom you must have contact if you are to do a satisfactory job. I've been rather slow in getting around, what with one thing and another, to those I want to know. But I have met a few. As might be expected, the first three were the Mayor, the Township Clerk and the Police Chief—all mighty important in my work.

As you know, all of them are very pleasant people, and I have found them exceedingly co-operative and helpful from the start.

Mayor Bonadies (what a handsome specimen of the male of the species!) impressed me first of all with his sincerity—a quality no public official can have too much of. What struck me immediately about Chief Selander was the complete absence of those big brusker characteristics so often found in policemen. Yet I would be loathe to tangle with him. He appeared to be an easy conversationalist, and quiet-spoken. I'll bet he can quote Shakespeare. Mrs. Worthington, than whom there is no one I shall plague more, already has proven herself a fruitful and willing source of information.

Another interesting individual on this week's calling list was Dr. Warren M. Davis, Superintendent of Schools, Union County Regional High School District No. 1. I had a headstart with Dr. Davis, for one of my chief interests is education, and I soon learned that he knows Dr. Allen Campbell and James McNeil, school superintendents in our area. He stated what he was doing and gave me all the time I wanted. The result was a headfull of information about the Regional school system.

There are two items noted in my wanderings which deserve wide distribution: "BRIEF SAYS: WE TRY OUR MEATS, NOT OUR CUSTOMERS" seen in the window at Nessel's Park Store. "INSTEAD OF TALKING ON THE LORD, SOME EXPECT THE LORD TO TALK ON THEIR OWN." The bulletin board of First Presbyterian Church.

How glad are YOUR parents of Christianity? The tragic part of a crime is that almost invariably the harmed most are innocent persons—often unsuspecting members of the family involved. In the case of the airplane crash at B-11, N. C., last week, for example, Julian A. Frank left a wife who could hardly believe her complete ignorance of her husband's intentions, and two children, one four years old and the other aged two, what the resultant publicity might do to them makes the shudder.

The Y.M.C.A. is so much a part of the American scene, and has been for so long, that it is hard to believe it might ever be a matter of course. When we were a "new" building, we hardly give it a second glance. Subsequently, however, a thoughtful little to me through our mind in the effort that this must be a really good thing if it occupies a "new" place. We may know some of the services provided by a Y.M.C.A., particularly in the field of health-building, adult education and religious inspiration, all of which are considered synonymous with the Y.M.C.A. But if one were to pin us down, would doubtless be amazed at our lack of specific knowledge of the background and operations of this once a month for lists of "whitt" and entertainment. More information is obtainable from Mrs. Dorothy Wentz, DR 8-8578, or Mrs. Valerie ara, DR 8-5354.

That was my frame of mind when I attended a public relations luncheon at the "Y" in Summit recently. It was arranged by the secretary, Al Devenney, to bring his organization and the newspapers in the area closer together. It was appreciated that he should have chosen the eve of National Y.M.C.A. Week (Jan. 17-24) for the gathering. It was a pleasant, friendly, pressure free session, with the "Y" people—Stephen W. Ransim, VP of the "Y"; Louis T. Choquette, physical director; Peter L. Christensen, who handles public relations and who is in that field with CIBA, and Mr. Devenney—being most cordial.

I for one learned lots about the "Y"—local, national and international—that I should have known before. I was especially interested in the history and workings of the local unit. Summit "Y" will mark its 75th anniversary in 1931. It should be the occasion for a real barg-up celebration. It has a considerable number of members in Springfield, Berkeley Twp and Mountain Union—communities served by The Sun and its affiliated newspapers—and it carries on a staggering daily schedule starting at 9 or 10 in the morning and running busily to 9 or 10 at night.

SWING SHOW—SUCCESS
The annual dance band assembly took a trip to Summit last Friday to entertain the students there. Richard Van Horn, senior from Mountaineide emceed the show and did a fabulous job. Ruth Tamaroff, senior from Berkeley Heights who helped to manage the show, joined the Summit audience to appreciate the choices of talent. Mrs. Martha Stang, teacher of German at Regional High School went along as a dual personality; as a chaperone and as director of stage crew, consisting of Wayne Schober, senior from Berkeley Heights and Richie Koretz sophomore from Springfield, Carol Marano, senior from Springfield sang Summertime and as usual did an outstanding job. Gail Guenther and Chris Corrigan, seniors from B.H. harmonized to the tune of Scarlet Ribbons; whereas Connie Babsch, freshman from B.H. showed us how well she could play the piano with The Third Man Theme. IMPORTANT NOTICE TO DOG OWNERS!

Residing in Clark, Cranford, Garwood, Kenilworth, Westfield, Scotch Plains, Berkeley Heights, Mountaineide, Roselle, Roselle Park, Springfield, Winfield, and Fanwood.
The privilege of owning a dog and deserving his affection carries certain legal responsibilities. The State Rabies Control Act and local ordinances provide that:
1—All dogs which have attained the age of seven (7) months, or which possess a set of permanent teeth must be licensed during the month of January each year.
2—Dogs CANNOT RUN AT LARGE IN NEW JERSEY. They constitute a menace to public health and property, are liable to serious injury or death and quite often cause serious traffic accidents.
3—You are liable for any damage your dog does to a neighbor's property.
4—If your dog bites someone report it at once to your Police Department and keep the dog under strict quarantine for fourteen (14) days.
5—Walk your dog on a leash or give him a fenced-in play area on your own property.
6—If he is an "outside" dog State Law provides that he must be given a good weather proof dog house and plenty of water. A chain attached to a long wire must be provided for adequate exercise.
7—Fasten your dog's license securely to his collar. It is the only way he can be identified.
8—OWNERS OF DOGS FOUND RUNNING AT LARGE WILL BE GIVEN A SUMMONS!
The program of dog control known as The Regional Animal Control Program, in which your town participates is designed to protect both dog owners and non-dog owners alike. In addition it protects your animal from theft, injury and from damaging a neighbor's property. It further prevents the spread of infectious diseases among our canine friends.
So, be a good citizen, license and control your dog. He deserves this protection.
If he becomes lost or you know cases where dog owners are not meeting the legal requirements or humane standards outlined above, NOTIFY US AT ONCE.

Members Of 2 Debate Clubs At Regional H.S. Do Well In Tournaments

Two of the most active and proud organizations at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School in Springfield are the National Forensic League and Debate Clubs. These clubs are part of the many extra-curricular activities conducted at the school. As Mr. Stauffer, advisor of the club says, the members have many reasons to be proud because they have made the name Jonathan Dayton High School well-known throughout the state and last year started to make it known throughout the nation when their championship debate team traveled to Miami, Florida, to participate in the national tournament.

Recent activities are an example of the excellent work being done by the members of these two clubs. Thursday, Jan. 14, a beginners debate team entered the Pennington High School debate tournament and ended the day with five victories to only three defeats. These novices were matched against some of the best teams in the state. The following day, Friday, was the big day for the local school as it played host to 22 schools from all over the state at its annual debate tournament. At the end of four rounds of a closely fought battle, the Regional varsity debate club, made up of George Seltzer, Ken Ryder, Bruce Goldstein and David Yancey, won the tournament with seven victories to one defeat. Dwight Moore of the N.E.L., Ken Ben-Ari, of Hamilton High School in Trenton to compete in the state finals for dramatic interpretation. Ken won a bronze medal for placing third in the state-wide competition. Ken is a Senior and this was the first time he entered the contest. For most everyone else at school, Friday is the end of the work week but not for these two clubs. Saturday morning, Jan. 16, eight debaters entered the Woodbridge High School's first annual debate tournament. The Dayton team left its mark at Woodbridge as Robert Seltzer, Paul Becker, Ward Kelsey and Robert Cohn brought home a first-place trophy by being the only team in their section of the tournament to win all six of their debates.

Since the opening of school in September these organizations have won several honors, including: Robert Seltzer, honorable mention for placing fourth in the state oratorical contest; Cynthia Brande, a gold medal and trophy for first place in the state humor interpretation contest; the varsity debating team took first place in the Regional debate tournament; Ken Ben-Ari won a bronze medal for third place in the state dramatic contest; George Seltzer was awarded the gavel for being elected Speaker of the House of Representatives in the NFL district congress and the first-place trophy awarded for the debating victory at Woodbridge on Saturday.

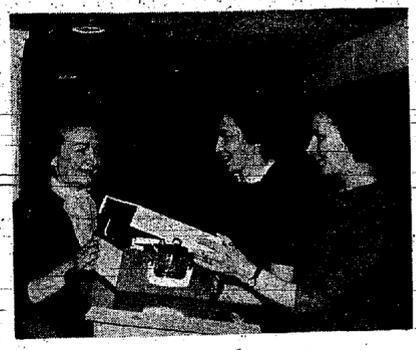

While Mr. Stauffer is pleased with all this as are the members of the clubs, he believes that the forensic program is one of the most important educational activities conducted in the schools today. The tremendous amount of research, study and work required, besides the invaluable experience in public speaking, are worth more than all the awards that can be received, he said.

STUDENTS HONORED FOR CITIZENSHIP

Awards for outstanding service to their high school were presented to two members of the Senior Class. The yearly Outstanding Citizenship award sponsored by the local chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was presented to Kathy Murphy, 36 Princeton Avenue, Berkeley Heights, and Richard Van Horn, 273 Hickory Lane, Mountaineide. Both students are Seniors and honor students at Dayton Regional. The awards are given annually to students who have been chosen by the faculty on the basis of character, scholarship and service to the school. The awards were made by Dr. Randolph T. Jacobsen, school principal, at a recent assembly program.

featuring a group of old wood cuts made from art work in a Newark city directory of the 1830's.

The wood cuts have been made available to Crestmont through New Jersey Historical Society in Newark, according to Loren F. Gardiner, president of Crestmont.

In announcing the new advertising program, Mr. Gardiner said: "We greatly appreciate the cooperation of New Jersey Historical Society in helping us prepare what we believe is an interesting group of newspaper messages built around the theme that the motivations for saving money today are much the same as they were in 1831, when savings associations were founded."

Some of the old wood cuts to be used in the Crestmont series have been seen in "New Jersey Messenger," a publication of New Jersey Historical Society which is edited by Robert M. Lunny, director of the Society.

Baha'i Meeting Is Open To All Youth

Luncheon Fashion Show Of P.-T.A. To Aid 2 Funds

Elaborate is the word for the spring luncheon and fashion show planned by Jonathan Dayton Regional High School P.T.A. This is the "promise" of Mrs. M. A. Passero of Springfield, chairman of the committee on arrangements. The event will be held Saturday, March 19, at 12:30 p.m. in the Audubon Room of the Hotel Suburban in Summit.

Mrs. Passero and Mrs. Joseph Britton, co-chairman, have arranged with Kresge-Newark to present glamorous new spring fashions and a parade of furs. Also featured will be millinery and a college wardrobe, all to be modeled by professionals. The committee promises many delightful surprises.

Tickets, which are limited, may be obtained from Mrs. J. R. Cain, of 130 Meisel Avenue, Springfield, and from Mrs. Passero, of 127 Briar Hill Circle, Springfield, or any other executive board member. Proceeds from this event will augment the Scholarship and Awards Fund of the P.T.A.

Antique Coin Banks Amusing, To Save

Reproductions of 19th Century antique mechanical coin banks are currently being displayed at Suburban Trust Co. These exact reproductions were made from the originals in the collection owned by "The Book of Knowledge."

The authentic reproduction presently on display at each of the Suburban Trust offices is a bank called "Paddy and His Pig." To operate, a coin is placed on the pig's nose which Paddy is holding between his legs.

When you press a lever the pig kicks the coin into Paddy's mouth. Paddy opens his mouth and rolls his eyes—a quaint and most amusing way to save money.

The number of elementary-school days required per year averages 180 in the United States, 184 in Argentina, France Italy and Russia; 209 in Canada, 210 in Great Britain, 230 in Spain, 232 in Norway and 246 in Denmark.

Overlook Fund Now $565,000, Trustees Told

Latest report from the Overlook Hospital-building fund lists a new high of $565,000 raised in the current campaign. This is an increase of $115,000 since the last bulletin was issued.

The number of friends of the Greater Overlook campaign who have contributed currently amounts to 2,468. Their individual gifts add to a total of $315,000. The remaining $250,000 came from foundation grants.

At a meeting of the executive committee of Overlook's board of trustees last Thursday night, Gilbert G. Roessner of Summit, general building fund chairman, commented on the "generous public support and added: "There are still several hundred friends of Overlook to be called upon by campaigners. We hope these calls will be completed as soon as possible and expect a substantial increase again when final results are tallied," he said. Mr. Roessner added that the calling campaign was not townwide in this current drive and that he hoped interested people would mail contributions of their own accord to the building fund.

"Although the results have been excellent—we are particularly pleased by the number of contributors who have participated—we still have $635,000 to reach our $1,200,000 goal for the remaining financing of the new wing," Mr. Roessner pointed out. He emphasized that it is only by foresighted preparation, planning and contribution, that a hospital such as Overlook, with every modern scientific advancement, is ready in time of illness and emergency to give the highest calibre of medical aid.

references in the past which indicated a lack of cooperation between the Township Committee and the School Board. As an outsider to both it is impossible to evaluate the effect of any or the extent of this problem. There undoubtedly must be occasions when the activities of these two groups overlap and cooperative understanding must be achieved and appropriate action taken. Since both of these groups are dedicated to the welfare of the community there is no reason for lack of cooperation so long as one does not usurp the jurisdiction of the other.

"The voters of Springfield are being asked to decide whether it is worth $22,800.00 to install a Central Station Monitored Fire Detection System in our school buildings and thereafter expend a minimum of $2,400.00 year to maintain it. The pros and cons of this have not been presented thoroughly and perhaps my views on this way may help some of the voters decide what is best.

"The proposal covers a Fire

Detection System and not a Fire Prevention System. This type of installation is most frequently used in industrial installations where or it is used primarily for the protection of property. There are a few cases such as in the ventilating systems of vehicular tunnels and in the handling areas of explosives where it also materially adds to the safety of personnel.

"In almost every case the cost of installation and maintenance of a monitored connection in an industrial application is justified by the fact that the insurance savings make the investment self-liquidating. If not for this very few such installations would exist.

"To help clarify my opinions regarding this type of installation, I met with one of the supervisors of the Fire Insurance Rating Organization of N. J. This organization evaluates the risk, the extent of the fire prevention program, the effectiveness of the fire protection equipment and then, in accordance with a standardized procedure, establishes the premium that the insurance companies charge for that particular risk.

"They concurred with the fact that the basic value of a Monitored Fire Detection System for application to a school building lays in the potential saving of property and not in the savings of lives. The possible savings to lives was theoretically present but minimal. They pointed out that they heartily recommend any and all approved installations which save property losses but that in the area over which they have jurisdiction there is only one such installation covering a school district and possibly one other being planned or installed.

"One of these systems is in a community where a school burned during an unattended period and the extent of the damage would have been materially decreased had the Fire Department been notified promptly. The reason for such a small number of installations is that the value which the Fire insurance Rating Organization of N. J. places on the system's effectiveness as a means of decreasing property losses, which is reflected in the decrease in the insurance rate, is so small that in the case of school buildings such as ours the saving does not begin to cover the annual maintenance cost of the installation. In our case after expending $22,800.00 for a Fire Detection System and $2,400.00 per year for maintenance and testing, our annual insurance savings, which reflects the value of all this by the experts, is an amount less than $300.00 per year.

"I am as interested in the safety of our children as is any one else. If our children's safety were at stake the cost of correction would not be of concern.

"I believe the Board of Education with the cooperation of the Fire Chief should institute a thorough study of the fire protection problem before going ahead with this installation. There are available a large variety of systems from which we can choose the one, or combination, to suit our needs best. If any of our school buildings are such that they are a hazard to the safety of our children then a Fire Detection System as proposed is inadequate and we actually need a Fire Protection System.

"On the other hand, if there are no problems concerning the safety of the children and we are trying to protect our property than any proposed Fire Detection System should be viewed without emotion and evaluated on the basis of its efficiency and cost."

Barrier Use

take care of this ceremony. Permission was granted Samuel W. Oliver, Inc., to install a 2000-gallon oil storage tank on its premises at South Springfield and Hillside Avenues.

During the open forum, Mrs. Ruth Hillard asked a question about this transaction and this brought out the information that the township expects a traffic light to be in place at the intersection within a few months.

Joseph A. Horowitz, of 83 Beverly Road, Springfield, and a neighbor, discussed with the governing board the barricade which has been in place in Arthur Street in the neighborhood of Beverly Road.

They could not see any use for the barrier, considered it a nuisance and that it could delay the progress of the fire department were the services of the fire-fighters ever needed in that locality.

Mayor Bonadies explained that the barrier was erected some years ago primarily at the request of the Board of Education. Many children pass through that area on the way to school, he said, and using Arthur Street as a short cut eliminated the necessity of crossing streets with heavy traffic.

OKLAHOMA AND MICHIGAN WIN

Oklahoma remained unbeaten in the State Basketball League by trimming Texas 21-15 Saturday afternoon, Jan. 23 to open a four-game Springfield Recreation basketball program. Siltverman and Ginter were the leaders for the well-balanced winners, with Rosenberg and Muller the standouts for Texas.

Frank Haydu and "Chip" Argyris sparked unbeaten Michigan to a 17-13 victory over West Virginia. The winners blanked West Virginia in the third period, which was the difference in this game.

Kentucky walloped hard-luck Illinois 25-11 as Hansen, Bellveau and Hartz sparked the victory. Seroff and Bob Belliveau were the top hands for the losers.

The finale provided the most exciting play as Minnesota's height was too much for a fighting California quintet. The score of this game was 19-17 as Hittings tossed home the winning basket with less than five seconds remaining in the hard-fought game. Buczeh, Stevens and Hittings were the leaders for Minnesota, with George Garner netting ten points for the Californians. Garner scored three consecutive baskets in the second quarter to narrow the Minnesota lead to a single point.

PLAY IMPROVES IN "SMALL-FRY" BASKETBALL

The highly exciting Springfield Recreation "Small-Fry" basketball league came up with improved play Saturday afternoon, Jan. 23, as the Billikens trimmed the Knicks, the Nats won over the Lakers and the Celtics tripped the Pistons. The closest ball game of the day was the Billikens-Bullet game, with the Billikens outscoring the Bullets 25-23, with a last-quarter surge making the difference.

The aggressive play of Schwartz of the Celtics was the difference as they trimmed the Pistons.

DADS NEEDED IN LEAGUE PLAY

Additional coaches, managers and scorers are needed in the Springfield Recreation Basketball program. Dads of boys who are active in the various leagues who would care to serve as coaches or scorers are requested to attend either of the three schools for assignment.

The State League meets at Florence Gaudineer School. The "Small-Fry" league at either the Raymond Chisholm or James Caldwell School, with activity each Saturday afternoon starting at 1 o'clock.

In 1781 Duncan Phyte, one of the most famous of American furniture makers, set up shop in New York.

Regional's basketball team posted victories in its last two games to run its winning streak to three, and the wrestling squad with a 50 to 5 rout of Jefferson ran its winning streak to three before losing to St. Benedict's 24 to 20.

Linden was the first victim last week for the Regional five, and this marked the third year in a row that the "Tigers" have lost on the Springfield court. The visitors entered the game with a 5-3 record and an upset victory over Cranford the preceding Friday. The "Bulldogs" were decided underdogs, but from the opening basket it was obvious that an upset was in the making. Three quick goals by Jay Gladstone, Bill Franklin, and Stu Chesler pushed the locals into a six to nothing lead. This lead melted early in the second period, when the "Tigers" pulled ahead 24 to 22, but a splurge of Springfield points put the Regionals ahead to stay until 0:53 of the final quarter when Ed Apalinski sank a layup to tie the score at 70-69.

Richie Baker, who had only four points the entire game, made two fouls with forty-two seconds remaining. Linden brought the ball down, and Apalinski was fouled. He missed the free throw, but in the subsequent fracas the ball went out of bounds off Regional hands, and Linden had the ball again with thirty seconds. The ball was stolen, however, and Regional called time with 23 seconds. The "Bulldogs" brought the ball down deliberately, trying to stall out the remaining time, but Reese got clear underneath the basket Baker passed to him, and two more points were added to the Springfield side of the ledger. That was all the scoring and the final score read 74 to 70.

Roselle Park gave the locals a scare as they led for a large part of the contest, but the diversified scoring of the Regionals soon led to the "Parkers" downfall. Not until Gladstone sank a hook at 6:17 of the final period did the Springfield five go ahead to stay. Jay scored 12 points in that period to total 18 and be dinner-up in the Springfield scoring. Chesler was the leading man with 24, while Howie Rudominer scored 14, Reese 10, and Franklin 11.

Jefferson's wrestling squad all most had the "glory" of being whitewashed in their match with the "Bulldog" matmen as the varsity won 58 to 0. The most points both teams can total is 60. So the inferiority of the "Jeifs" is very formidable when you look at the scores in that respect. The varsity game saw nine pins, and the junior varsity players pinned 11 of their twelve opponents.

Mrs. Dwyer Is Candidate for Re-Nominat'n

Mrs. Florence P. Dwyer Two-term Congresswoman Florence P. Dwyer (R-6th Dist. N.J.), New Jersey's only Congresswoman, announced today she will be a candidate for the Republican nomination to succeed herself in the April 19 primary. In a statement accompanying her announcement, Mrs. Dwyer declared she would base her campaign on her record of four years in the House of Representatives and seven years in the New Jersey General Assembly—a record, she said, "which is open to all, which I believe has been in the best interests of the people of my County, my State and my country."

The Union County Representative was first elected to Congress in November, 1956, when she defeated former Congressman Harrison Williams, now the State's junior U. S. Senator.

In 1958, Mrs. Dwyer defeated Col. Jack Dunn, her Democratic opponent, by a sharply increased margin. She was one of only 10 incumbent Republican Congressmen to increase significantly their margins of victory in a year of widespread Democratic successes.

According to Republican National Committee figures and other election studies, Congresswoman Dwyer has accounted for a steady increase in Republican strength in her Congressional district through two successive elections since 1954—a record matched by only two other Republican members.

Congresswoman Dwyer is a member of the banking and currency committee and the government operations committee and is ranking minority member of the intergovernmental relations subcommittee. She was recently appointed a member of the new advisory commission on intergovernmental relations, which is composed of 25 Cabinet officers, Senators, Congressmen, governors, mayors, county officials and private citizens.

Which will we build
...a $9-million dollar SAINT BARNABAS MEDICAL CENTER
...or a $12-million dollar one?

The most advanced Medical Center in the United States is showing gratifying progress. Grading of the 60-acre hospital site in Livingston is completed. Foundation work is well advanced. Seven million dollars are already available and dedicated to the Medical Center's early completion. In addition, the U. S. Government has recently made a grant of $400,000 toward construction of the two underground floors—first of their kind designed to provide essential hospital services to over 1,000 patients in any kind of emergency. To the citizens of 20 northern New Jersey communities, the new Saint Barnabas Medical Center offers the great "hospital bargain" of all time: just $7-million more will assure completion of the basic Medical Center; $5-million will make possible the basic center plus many additional, planner-for, and needed facilities... such as special units devoted to geriatrics, multiple sclerosis, and advanced research.

NOW... the time has come to ask for your help in realizing the remaining funds necessary to complete this great new concept in modern hospitals

Will you give us this help, and do so as generously as possible? Will you raise your sights with us, so that everything Saint Barnabas can be will be? If you will raise your sights with us—toward the realization of a full $5-million in additional funds—you and your family will soon have access to a Medical Center unique in this country, one equipped to provide a complete range of medical services with new standards of efficiency, and at the lowest possible costs.

No general, house-to-house request for financial support is now planned. We hope, instead, that you and your family will decide now how much you can contribute, and make your maximum contribution direct to:

...a challenging description of the remarkably efficient and "patient-oriented" facilities to be offered by the new Saint Barnabas Medical Center: what they are, why they differ from those now available in any other hospital; how they have been planned to reverse the steady upward in hospitalization costs; why they have already gained international recognition and endorsement; funds now available toward their completion; additional facilities available in a $12-million versus a $9-million Medical Center. You may request your copy by mailing the coupon on this page.

Many attractive plans for making your gift to Saint Barnabas are available. Full details on them will be immediately and gladly provided. Simply fill out the coupon on this page and return it to the address given. Ask, also, for the new 24-page brochure described. It gives you full facts on why your support of this new Medical Center is so rewarding an investment on your part.

Saint Barnabas will serve these communities...

If you live in any one of the 20 fast-growing communities listed here, you have a very real and personal interest in the successful and early completion of the new Saint Barnabas Medical Center. Its 60-acre site on Old Short Hills Road, in Livingston, is easily accessible to each of these communities. The Medical Center will provide critically needed additions to the other hospital facilities now available in this area, and will offer many services nowhere else available in New Jersey hospitals.

Two things particularly will be studied: policy formulation by governments and how members work together, and the process of international deliberation on a basic issue—in this case, recognition of credentials of Red China.

Ninety Junior and Senior members of the U.S. History 2 classes will participate. In addition, the two foreign students from the Herald Tribune program who are visiting Dayton Regional this year, also will take part.

Midori Kawagoe from Japan will serve as a delegate of her country and will represent the East, while Eric Dietlin of France will serve as a delegate of his country and will represent the West. In addition, the following students will play major roles: Ken BenArt of Mountside, as leader of the Eastern bloc; Nancy Farar of Springfield as leader of the Afro-Asian-India bloc; Jody Fidel of Springfield, as leader of the Latin-American bloc; Bruce Goldstein of Springfield will serve as president of the Assembly, while Kenneth Rogers of Springfield and Princeton University will serve as Secretary-General.

Joseph Rizzo earned the third prize for an amazing project named "Proving Mendel's Law." Barbara Levy's "Optical Illusions" merited enough credit to win her the fourth prize. "Which Material is Most Resistant to Stains," a project by Ronnie Weinberg, won fifth prize.

All of these five displays will be seen at the Science Fair at the Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School in Clark on March 24 and 25.

The winning projects were judged by the following standards:

1. Creative ability
2. Scientific thought
3. Thoroughness
4. Skill
5. Clarity
6. Dramatic value.

There were other fine projects that deserve mention. Linda Kohn's model skeleton called "Ezekiel" was the center of attention. A lot of work went into making Richard Zegar's electrical hook-up of a model town. Carole Devinsky's project on "Sound and John Schreiber's on atoms, showed the results of intensive research. Some other displays were Larry Forster's research with the effect of eyes on human hair, Pam Blaffer's project dealing with photosynthesis and algae, Steve Hart's undertaking to determine how a mouse learns fifth in a maze and David Devore's study of the crystallization of salts. I couldn't begin to mention all of the other fine displays. Nearly every project had both scientific and artistic value.

In 1953 he was transferred to the RCA "Electron Tube" Division at Harrison as a copywriter in the Advertising Department. Mr. May became administrative manager of the RCA Components and Test Equipment, in 1954. He was promoted to Manager Advertising and Sales Promotion—Semiconductors and Components, in 1957 and during the following year he was transferred to the RCA Semiconductor and Materials Division as Manager, Promotion.

WHAT IS THIS STRANGE POWER REDDY KILOWATT DEALERS HAVE OVER WOMEN?

Call it a strange power if you like. We call it just plain old fashioned common sense. More women shop for electric appliances at their Reddy Kilowatt Dealer's because they know he can't display the seal unless he's a reputable local merchant and meets the rigid standards of quality and service we want for our customers.
