Heart Fund In Windup Feb. 28

An army of more than 1,000 volunteers will visit neighbors throughout Union County Sunday, Feb. 28, in the windup of the annual Heart Fund Month campaign throughout the state and nation.

The Heart Sunday climax to the drive by Union County Heart Association will give all residents an opportunity to join the fight against the heart and blood vessel diseases, the nation's Number One health enemy.

Several Union County communities already have made their appeals, either with direct home visits or through a mail drive. Residents in these communities who have not already done so can still contribute to the fight by mailing gifts directly to the Heart Fund, c/o their Postmaster.

Heart Sunday will be observed in a majority of towns. Each volunteer will carry an official identification and present individual envelopes for contributions.

The drive here is doubly important this year. Contributions, in addition to supporting the regular services of the Union County Heart Association, will be applied to the establishment of county's first cardiac diagnostic center at St. Elizabeth Hospital, which will provide vitally necessary treatment previously unavailable here.

Temple Signs Contract For New Building

At a special meeting of the executive board of Temple Beth Ahm, Springfield, Monday, Feb. 22, the contract for the construction of the new temple building was awarded to Essex Contractors of Newark.

Leonard Garber, chairman of the temple's building committee, indicated that work would start immediately. The building was designed by Percival Goodman and J. Stanley Goldstein, architects, and represents a forward step in the growth of the congregation under the spiritual leadership of Rabbi Reuben Levine.

The building will include an eight-room school wing, a sanctuary, a social hall, a large youth lounge, a modern kitchen and administrative offices.

Mr. Deutsch, president of Essex Contractors, said that it is anticipated that services for the High Holy Days in September would be held in the new sanctuary.

Mr. Kappstatter, president of the congregation, congratulated the architect and architect's committees on the progress made in the development and implementation of the work schedule and said, "It is with deep pride that I look forward to an early occupancy and use of our new facilities."

Channel Unit Repeats Plan Aiding Groups

In conjunction with Brotherhood Week, sponsored throughout the country by the National Conference of Christians and Jews, Channel Lumber Company, with stores in Newark, Springfield, Sayre-Neptune and Neptune, again is sponsoring Brotherhood Week.

The event was inaugurated last year. Aware of the increasing need for funds by churches, synagogues and charities, officials of Channel Lumber Company organized a unique fund-raising plan to benefit these groups.

Whenever a purchase was made by a customer at any Channel store, 10% of the amount of each sale was set aside to be donated to the church, synagogue or charity designated by the customer.

All donations were made by Channel Lumber Company in the name of the customer.

The plan received such widespread support, and many organizations benefited so substantially, that it is being repeated this year. Brotherhood Week is officially designated as Feb. 21 through Feb. 27, through Saturday, Feb. 27, the 10% Tithe Donation Plan will be in effect at all Channel stores.

Ben Charin, vice-president of Channel Lumber Company, pointed out that the adequate income has curtailed the plan.

When a purchase was made by a customer at any Channel store, 10% of the amount of each sale was set aside to be donated to the church, synagogue or charity designated by the customer.

Paul T. Murphy, 33, of 11 Park Lane, Springfield, last week announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for election to the Township Committee "with the support of prominent local Republicans."

Springfield Tax Rate Is 5.54; Increase Held To .19 By Committee

Springfield will have a tax rate in 1960 of $5.54 per $100 of valuation—an increase of 19 points over the 1959 rate of $5.35.

In introducing the municipal budget at its meeting Tuesday evening, the Township Committee pointed out that this was a small rise in view of the increases in local and regional school taxes and the county's take, that the jump over last year was held down by careful budgeting on the part of the governing board and that no services were sacrificed in the Township Committee's zeal to hold the rate to as low a figure as it felt could be reached.

The Committee said that the primary problem facing it in the preparation of the 1960 budget was the large increase in the county (local) school and regional (school) tax levies.

3 Levies Are Higher
The Committee pointed to the following figures to illustrate what it meant: The county tax in 1960 is figured at $327,000, an increase of $52,500 over last year's levy of $274,500.

The levy for local school purposes for this year is $1,055,800, as compared with 1959's $836,000—an increase of $219,800.

Regional school costs, this year are $550,500, an increase of $83,000 over the 1959 figure of $467,500.

The total increase for the three categories is $365,200. This is an increase of 23% over last year and a rate increase of 66 points.

"The 1960 county preliminary equalization table," said the Township Committee, "shows a decrease in the true value ratio of the township which, when added to the county tax rate increase, produces an increase in the total rate of 12 points."

By adding to this figure (12 points) the rate increase for local schools—40 points, and the increase for regional school purposes—14 points—the total increase of 66 points is arrived at.

A Thorough Study Needed

It is highly possible that the Board of Education of Union County Regional High School District No. 1 may be spearheading a revolution against the vocational school being organized by Union County Board of Freeholders.

Members of the Board—notably Dr. Minor C. K. Jones of Mountainside and William J. Melick Jr. of Springfield, Board president—have hit out against the proposal as individuals. Last week the position of these members was embraced by the Board as a whole and the position of the education body was made clear.

Neither the two members mentioned nor the Board as a unit has argued against a county vocational school as such. The opposition is to the method chosen by the Freeholders to pay for the operation of the school.

The Regional Board—which serves Springfield, Mountainside, Berkeley Heights, Clark, Kenilworth and Garwood, six of Union County's 21 municipalities with a considerable population—objects to the general taxation plan for payment.

The argument of the regional trustees is that the regional school system has an excellent vocational department and in all probability would send no, or very few, students to the new school.

Under these circumstances, the Board feels that the towns in its jurisdiction should not be called upon to pay vocational school costs according to the same formula applied to the rest of the county.

The argument seems reasonable. Now that the matter has been catapulted onto the front pages, let us have a thorough discussion of the situation, from top to bottom, as it were.

For example, it would be interesting to know why the Board of Freeholders is so determined to have a county vocational school and why it is immovably set on the general taxation plan.

For example, it would be interesting to know how the County Council of Parent-Teacher Associations got itself involved in a manner which leaves it open to criticism.

At its meeting Feb. 16 the Regional Board of Education took notice of a published report of the Council's attitude and activities and authorized a letter in reply. The letter was sent out two days later, copies going to the Council and to all Parent-Teacher Associations in the Regional District.

We quote from the letter: "So far as the Board of Education . . . knows, the P.T.A.s of the Regional High Schools and of the constituent elementary schools have not been approached by the (Council) to consider these matters."

The letter "requests information as to the basis of such (Council) action."

A good question. We, too, ask it. We ask another question: "How do Boards of Education other than that of the Regional District . . . how do municipalities other than those in the Regional District area . . . how do the people feel about the proposed vocational school and its financing arrangement?"

No. 1 Enemy, No. 1 Defense

"The Heart Diseases are the nation's Number One health enemy. The Heart Fund is the nation's Number One Defense." This has been the slogan of the Heart Association's campaign here and throughout the country during the current Heart Fund drive, which climaxes this Sunday.

The facts prove both statements. Most of us thoroughly aware by now that heart diseases kill more Americans each year than all other causes of death combined.

We know from day-to-day observation that heart diseases aren't just a problem of old age; heart deaths among the leaders of our community—men and women in the prime of their lives—are all too frequent. And who can forget the children—more than a half million of them—who are affected by rheumatic fever, rheumatic heart disease and inborn heart defects.

We needn't belabor these facts here. Our obituary pages, unhappily, remind us of them day after day. But we do need to be reminded that, if this Number One enemy of our nation's health is to be fought successfully, it is up to us, its real and potential victims, to join the fight.

The Heart Fund gives us both the opportunity and the inspiration to do so. On the strength of the record, to believe that the Heart Fund is truly the Number One defense against our Number One health enemy, and that the American people—physicians, scientists and laymen alike—may well be proud of having created it.

Our residents on Heart Fund Sunday will give it the We earnestly hope that, through the present drive, increased support it needs to relieve human suffering and save countless lives.

The speaker made a strong plea for maintaining high grades in scholastic studies, saying that this was the true goal of a student and must never be allowed to become secondary to athletic prowess.

As for the coach, said Regan, he is a lonely man in many instances, for he must make decisions without anyone's help. A coach cannot plan his last-minute decisions while a game is under way, nor can he hesitate or experiment. He must reach a conclusion in a split second and abide by the results. He must be thick-skinned and able to take the criticism thrown at him by the armchair experts after the game has been lost.

Plans were set afoot at last week's meeting for the Lions Club's annual fund-raising vaudeville show at Jonathan Dayton High School. Ads for the directory issued in conjunction with this project are being solicited.

Announcement was made that the program at this week's session, Friday, Feb. 26, 6:30, Mountainside Inn, would be presented by Howard Casselman of the club's Citizenship Award.

"What is this thing called Housepower?"

It's how to get your watts' worth!

Full Housepower is the adequate wiring you need to run all of your electric appliances the way they were made to run. Without it, appliances work sluggishly, and there are not enough outlets to plug them all in. Lights dim. Fuses blow. Even your TV picture shrinks. If you have any of these symptoms in your home, you're not getting your money's worth out of the electricity you're using.

As vice-president of the Springfield Organization for Charter Study, Mr. Murphy served as chairman when the president resigned to run for a seat on the Township Committee. He opposed the recommendation of the Commission, which favored a council-manager form of government. Mr. Murphy preferred a strong Mayor or Council form.

Served in Navy
An honor graduate of Seton Hall University, Mr. Murphy attended Princeton and Northwestern Universities while serving in the U.S. Navy. He saw service in Guam, the Philippines, on Okinawa and in China before being released to inactive status as a lieutenant (jg) in 1946.

Mr. Murphy obtained his Bachelor of Laws degree after four years of study in the evening school of Rutgers University's School of Law. He was a member of the Board of Editors of the Rutgers Law Review, an honor society.

Admitted to the practice of law in the District of Columbia, Mr. Murphy became a New Jersey attorney in 1953 and a counselor-at-law in 1956. He is a partner in a Newark law firm and holds civil and criminal litigation in state and federal courts.

Mr. Murphy's wife is the former Mrs. Mary Cecelia, 1, and Paul, a month old. Mrs. Murphy, a graduate of Notre Dame College at Baltimore, Md., studied at the Università per Estantieri, Perugia, Italy, speaking Italian fluently. Ms. Murphy was active in the TV and motion picture industries in Rome, appearing in several pictures.

A former reporter for the Newark Evening News, she has written poetry and short stories. She has taught art appreciation on the elementary school level.

Mr. Murphy has been a guest lecturer on federal taxation at the School of Law of Seton Hall University. He is a member of American Bar Association, New Jersey State Bar Association, Essex County Bar Association, Essex County Bar Association, Essex County Bar Association, Essex County Bar Association.

This is his first venture into politics, and he has promised a statement regarding his candidacy in the near future.

Channel Units

The 1959 total general appropriations amount to $1,122,321, as compared with the 1958 total of $1,161,973.

An increase is indicated in the anticipated revenues other than the property tax, the figure for 1959 being $584,971. In 1958 this revenue figure was $419,821.

This means that the amount to be raised by taxes on property this year is somewhat less than in 1958 — $567,350 in 1958 and $742,152 in 1959.

Tax Rate

points from the 1958 figure and an over-all tax rate which lowered the school (local) regional and county increase to only 19 points."

The committee went on to say that it was clearly indicated that the amount reserved for uncollected taxes has been reduced this year to $189,800 from last year's $214,570.

Lauds Committee
Commenting on the budget—which was approved on introduction and a public hearing on the figures set for Tuesday evening, March 22—Mayor Vincent J. Benades said that the members of the Township Committee, particularly the finance committee, had done the community a "tremendous service" and were entitled to the gratitude of the people. He pointed out that the budget was providing for new schools, enlarged teaching staffs, more money for the county, and no curtailment of municipal services with a comparatively small increase in the tax rate.

Joint Meetings
A letter from the Board of Education was read in which the Board informed the Township Committee of its decision at its re-organization meeting on Feb. 15 to ask the Township Committee to attend school board meetings or to send a representative.

Committee member Russell Sibole moved that the invitation be accepted, that someone be assigned to attend the meetings reminded of an earlier suggestion by the Township Committee. This was that the Committee and school board hold periodic, informal meetings to discuss matters of mutual interest.

Robert Planer, of Short Hills Avenue, was appointed to the township's insurance committee.

Saying that he always was happy to see men join the volunteer fire department, Commissioner Sibole recommended approval of two applications for membership in the department. This action was taken by the board and Charles Walter Bishop, 31 S. Saker Street, and Nicholas Vincent Pollicarpo, 23 So. Trivet Avenue, are now members of the fire-fighting organization.

How to Buy Men's Shirts

A correctly dressed man will tell you that a shirt is not just a shirt. It's a symbol of good taste and efficiency.

To recognize marks of quality in a shirt you should examine it closely, read the label and ask questions of the salesperson when necessary.

Nothing is more uncomfortable than an ill-fitting shirt, so be certain to ask for the correct neckband size and sleeve length. The shirt should be long and smooth fitting over the torso, flat on the chest, yet roomy enough for comfort.

Examine the back yoke and cuffs to see that fullness has been gathered properly. Stitching is a good indication of workmanship. Seams on a good shirt will have 18 to 20 stitches to the inch.

Collar points should be sharply stitched and lie flat. Buttonholes should be evenly and closely stitched. Well-made buttonholes will not fray out. They should slip easily and securely over the button.

Don't overlook the buttons. Lustrous pearl buttons of uniform thickness with four holes, securely sewn on, are very satisfactory for a good business shirt.

Even a full-cut shirt with good workmanship will do you little good if the fabric quality is not there. The label should guarantee there will be no more than 1 percent shrinkage, and the guarantee should cover the whole shirt, not just the collar. Colored shirts should be fast to light, washing and perspiration.

Good Rule to Paint Ceiling First

When painting a room, give the ceiling priority over walls and woodwork. Otherwise you will have to take extra precautions to keep from spoiling the work you've already done. And don't start the ceiling until you have time to do the whole job at once. Since re-starting is certain to leave some trace even with nonlapping paints.

Dip only an inch or two of the brush into the paint. Flow the paint on with just enough pressure for uniform spreading. When using a roller, avoid overloading—move—along—in even strokes, and have a small brush handy for tight spots.

Remove as much furniture as possible and cover the remainder with drop cloths. Don't get tangled up trying to paint around a ceiling fixture—take out its screws to lower it a little and you'll have an easier and neater job.

Child's Room Must Change With Needs

Flexibility is second only to comfort and convenience in a child's room, which must change to meet his requirements throughout his formative years.

During the early "writing" age, part of the wall area can be converted into a blackboard by covering the existing lower wall with Masonite Tempered Preswood, sealing it and applying chalkboard paint. Later, this panel can be turned into an attractive wainscot by painting over the chalkboard surface.

GETTING THE MOST FROM YOUR GARDEN

by Dr. Peter Asgrow
PLAN YOUR FLOWER GARDEN

Too often packets of flower seeds are selected on impulse, spurred by the bright pictures. Then the seeds are sown without much imagination as to the ultimate results. A little study of the prospect, which everyone enjoys, will make a great and pleasing difference to the flower bed or border, for which a sketch plan, no matter how rough, should be outlined. This will allow you to make satisfying combinations and contrasts of color, to have flowers at all parts of the season, and to grade the plants so that the Two boys who had stopped to talk on Meisel Avenue, Springfield, were fined $10 each by Municipal Court Judge Richard H. Thiele. The boys were driving cars in opposite directions when they decided to stop and chat. They were ticketed for blocking traffic.

Thiele fined Anthony F. Carlo, 19, of Maplewood $10 and Edmund F. Wolfe, 18, Summit, $15, because the latter started the conversation.

Michele Cerrachio, of 2155 Springfield Avenue, Union, was fined $25 for speeding. Fifteen dollar fines were imposed on Mary M. Smith of South Plainfield, Adam Zelazny of Verona, Margaret E. Humphrey of Westfield and Herbert Mandell of Westfield. All had violated speeding regulations.

Others fined included: Samuel Anderson, Summit, $10, no inspection tag; Gregory W. Hurquail, Morris Plains, $10, no registration; James P. Murphy, Watchung, $8, improper turn; and Frank J. Zurawski of Springfield, $8, no registration.

Most people eat as though they were fattening themselves for market.—E. W. Howe.

Soften Rinse Water For Best Washing

Women who use packaged softeners to counteract water hardness in the clothes washer often are at a loss to understand why white things dry with a tattle-tale gray look, prima facie evidence of hard water soap curd.

The reason for this is the failure to soften both wash and rinse water.

Soap remaining in clothing and linens after a soft water wash is converted to soap scum when hard water is drawn into the washer for rinsing.

It is the clinging soap curd, containing particles of redeposited soil, that gives a dingy look to clothing washed in soft and rinsed in hard water. The remedy is using soft water for rinsing as well as washing.

Band robberies increased 10 per cent in 1959, according to FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover. Embezzlement were 9 per cent greater in the past year and auto thefts rolled along at a clip of more than 20,000 a month.

In the United States there is more space where nobody is than where anybody is. This is what makes America what it is.—Gertrude Stein.

Who hath not known ill fortune, never knew himself, or his own virtue.—David Mallet.

National Parks Topic of Next Trailside Talk

"Our National Parks," a travelogue which offers a pictorial visit to 26 of our national parks and monuments, will be conducted by Dr. Harold N. Moldenke, supervisor of nature activities for the Union County Park Commission, at Trailside Museum, Watchung Reservation this Sunday.

According to Dr. Moldenke, the collection of color slides he will use during the program includes many scenes of breathtaking beauty. Admission to the museum and this special program is free.

Dr. Moldenke points out that Trailside Museum has acquired many unusual exhibits. One of these is a mounted specimen of a Cassowary, an ostrich-like bird from New Guinea. This large-ratite is known to be so powerful it can kick a man to death.

Another exhibit worth seeing is a mounted passenger pigeon, a bird which is now extinct.

A collection of 380 different kinds of bird eggs, that range in size from an ostrich egg down to one laid by a hummingbird, excites special interest. This collection also includes 123 different types of bird nests among which is a chimney's nest, a nest that is pasted on the inside walls of a chimney by the mother bird.

Trailside Museum is open to the public every Saturday, Sunday, and holiday, from 1 to 5 p.m., and from 3 to 5 p.m. every weekday, except Friday, with special Nature programs conducted every Monday at 10 a.m. and every weekday, except Friday, at 4 p.m.

Tent Caterpillar Can Be Checked By Action Now

Tent caterpillars are due to break out in many areas this spring. They have been building up in population for the past few years, surging in some sections—one year, then bursting forth in other neighborhoods the next.

Edward J. Duda, entomologist of the Bartlett Tree Research Laboratories, says control of these tree pests can begin now. He recommends two measures: First, collecting and destroying overwintering egg masses. These egg clusters, oval shaped and dark brown in color, encircle twigs of wild cherry and apple. With a sharp knife cut off the twig tips to which the eggs adhere, then burn them before the first of April. For every 10 egg masses destroyed, there should be 1,500 to 2,500 fewer tent caterpillars next spring.

Second, eradicate all wild cherry trees growing on vacant lots or in marginal areas. Wild cherry and apple trees are the preferred hosts of the tent caterpillar. But in abundance they may feed on a wide variety of other deciduous trees nearby. They build unsightly gray tents or nests in forks of trees.

These are bases from which caterpillars operate as they foliage. The feeding season lasts from six to seven weeks and begins in April.

Timely spraying soon after the eggs hatch and until the tents reach the size of a tennis ball will kill the young caterpillars within before they become destructive.

New Jersey in 1958 had a average cash income per farm acre of $195, highest in the nation. Connecticut was second with $148.

Try Broiled Grapefruit Soon

Broiled Florida grapefruit halves play an important role in smart hostess' brunches and family breakfasts during the cold weather months. Served with sausage, toast, eggs, milk and coffee, the result is a nutritious and hearty meal.

Broiled Grapefruit

Sprinkle each half with 1 tablespoon sugar and a dash of cinnamon, mace or nutmeg. If desired, dot each half with 1 teaspoon butter. Place grapefruit on broiler rack 3 inches from heat. Broil slowly 15 to 20 minutes, or until grapefruit is slightly brown and heated through. Grapefruit may be also baked in a moderately hot oven, (400° F.). 15 to 20 minutes. HARRY S. HART

Harry Scott Hart, former resident of Springfield who was active in Democratic Party circles here in the 1940s and 1950s, whose late wife was a member of the James Caldwell School faculty here and one of whose sons, David M. of Mountaintop, is assistant principal of the Central Avenue School in that borough, died Saturday, Feb. 13, at the age of 74.

Services were held Wednesday, Feb. 17, with a High Mass of Requiem at St. James R. C. Church, Springfield. Burial followed in Gate of Heaven Cemetery, Hanover, with Smith and Smith Suburban Funeral Home of Springfield in charge.

Born in Brooklyn, the late Mr. Hart was a veteran of the Mexican Border incident, having served in Cavalry Troop "C". He came to Springfield in 1931 and lived here until 1955. His wife, Alice McNamara Hart, died in 1959. At the time of his death, Mr. Hart was living in Union.

Surviving in addition to the son mentioned are two daughters: Mrs. Joseph Schout of Fanwood and Mrs. Samuel Robinson of Hazlet, and another son, Harry Scott Jr. of North Arlington.

The day Mr. Hart died was the date 34 years ago he and the late Mrs. Hart were married in Passaic. While in business in Passaic the late Mr. Hart was one of the organizers of the Kiwanis Club there.

In Springfield the late Mr. Hart was Democratic County Committeeman in the old Second District, active in the Holy Name Society of St. James Church and active in numerous fund drives, particularly the March of Dimes.

WILLIAM A. WURSTER

A Solemn Mass of Requiem was celebrated at St. James R. C. Church, Springfield, Saturday morning, Feb. 20, with the Rev. Edward R. Oehling officiating, for the late William A. Wurster. Burial followed in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Newark.

The late Mr. Wurster died Wednesday, Feb. 17, at Overlook Hospital at the age of 79.

Born in Newark, and a resident there all his life until ten years ago, Mr. Wurster was a widower and he had made his home with a daughter, Mrs. Michael Genovese, of 72 Briar Hill Circle, Springfield, since leaving Newark. Engaged in manufacturing leather goods all his working life, Mr. Wurster retired ten years ago. Mrs. Wurster died in 1948.

At one time he was an officer of an Elks Lodge in Newark and he was a member of the Holy Name Society of St. James Church.

Surviving Mr. Wurster in addition to the daughter named above are another daughter, Mrs. John Lawless, and two sons; William F. and Francis A. Wurster. George L. Wurster, another son, died in 1935.

She was a member of the Methodist Church of Springfield.

Safety Tips for New Home Owners

Don't wax stair treads.

Don't use gasoline or naphtha for home cleaning.

Clean leaves and twigs from gutters for drainage.

Store flammables in labeled red cans.

Empty dust from vacuum before storing.

Don't throw dust on an open fire, it may explode.

Don't start fireplace without opening damper.

Don't throw flammables, including greens from Christmas trees, on an open fire.

Don't overload your electrical circuits or substitute pennies for fuses. A fire may result.

Warn children that electric and gas outlets are "off limits."

After power or fuel has been cut off, follow directions on each appliance to restart pilot lights.

Keep at least one fire extinguisher in operating condition.

Avoid accumulation of rags, papers, or other combustibles, especially if stored in an unventilated flammable container.

Matches should be stored out of the reach of children, as should all medicines and drugs, which should be in clearly labeled containers.

Don't drink and drive yourself. Shut off all flames and call the gas company. Install chains on all exterior doors to prevent them opening more than a few inches to unwanted prowlers.

One house key should be kept hidden in a safe place outside your home for emergency use. A key which will open the bathroom door from the outside should be kept handy in case children lock themselves in.

If you use overhead garage doors, place controls high enough to prevent small children from reaching them.

Put plenty of flashing around chimneys and vent pipes.

Equip a fireplace with a damper and wind shield.

Place light switches in bathroom out of reach of tub and shower.

Keep closet locks or bolts above reach of small children.

Test your fireplace by building a fire and placing both hands on the outer wall of the chimney. If it is not comfortable to the touch, your fireplace might not be insulated properly.

Locate the fuse box in your house. Mark circuits for each fuse.

Find out if the house is adequately wired where you start loading the circuits with a lot of extra electrical appliances.

Check to see that stair treads are secure. Remove metal edges if likely to cause accidents. Replace slippy surfaces with rubber treads. If cellar steps have no hand rails, have some put on at once.

Make sure the cellar light can be switched on from upstairs. If you can have the door open away from rather than into the cellar another hazard has been overcome.

When choosing furnishings, remember that area rugs come with nonskid backings, and that sheets or pads may be purchased to use beneath them if they do not.

When placing furnishings be sure that no area rug is put at the top of the stairs unless it is anchored to the floor; do not wax stairs unless you use a runner.

Disconnect all electric gadgets before you clean them. If you use soap on the kitchen floor be sure to rinse it off before it dries.

A total of 469 students received degrees in mining engineering in the U.S. in 1959. Last year, the total dropped to 208.

Painted Furniture Adds Interest To Room

Wallpaper. Keep in mind that interest, variety and contrast are developed in color combinations if large areas of muted colors are used with small areas of intense colors. Use some light colors, some dark, some dull and some bright for accents.

If it is desirable that the piece of furniture be inconspicuous, select a color like the background or closely blended with it.

A light tint of color will appear stronger against a light or medium gray wall. Colors will appear brighter against a white background and lighter against a dark background.

The piece should not be conspicuous in itself but should belong to the color plan for the room. The inside of bookshelves and drawers can be painted with accent colors.

The finish should be smooth, satin-like and durable. You can achieve this desired finish if you follow these precautions:

Removing all old finish if surface is chipped, scaled, cracked or rough.

Carefully smoothing wood until the surface is smooth.

Filling all holes, cracks, nail head indentations, and grain and irregularities with spack and sandpaper.

Having the surface smooth, clean and dry with no wax, dirt or grease.

Using good painting techniques to prevent brush marks, runs and dust spots.

Reducing high gloss of final coat to a satin finish with pumice and oil.

How to Free Stuck Windows

The most common cause of a stuck window is hardened paint between the sash and frame, and the first remedy to bring into use is a wide bladed putty knife forced into the crack to break the paint seal.

If necessary, a wide, flat chisel may be worked carefully along the line of hardened paint, tapping gently with a mallet. In more severe cases, hold a small block of wood against the sash, tap with the mallet, move it a couple of inches, and continue tapping until the entire sash is covered.

When all else fails, pry off the mauling around the window frame and sandpaper the edges that meet the sash. If this much work is necessary, it would be wise to go a step further, check the sash cord, and replace it if it shows signs of imminent breakage. Paraffin rubbed onto the sash and channel will make the window easier to open and close.

Sorting Table For Laundry

A sorting table for the laundry is an easy project for the home handyman. The most space saving type fits right over the laundry tubs, is easy to remove when the tubs are to be used, and provides that much needed flat surface for counting and sorting.

Simply cut a panel of 3/4 inch hardboard to fit over the tops of the tubs with a slight overlap all around. If the pipes at the faucets interfere, make a cut out for them.

Then measure the inside width of the tub openings and cut four pieces of 1 by 3 inch lumber to fit loosely inside. Attach these to the bottom of the tabletop with small flat-head screws or brads. Counter-sink the heads. This frame will prevent the panel from slipping out of position.

Finish this tabletop with enamel undercoating and glossy enamel of any color desired.

Poor Lighting Linked To Accidents in Home

There is a definite relationship between poor lighting and home accidents. Falls, for instance, account for more than half of all fatal home accidents, killing 14,000 persons annually. Many of these fatal falls involve poor lighting in stairways, halls, and especially bedrooms and kitchens, where most accidents occur.

Diners in a recently completed restaurant in Rotterdam will enjoy their meals atop columns 350 feet above ground. The 240-ton restaurant required five days to rise atop the Euro-tower (Dutch column). The restaurant will accommodate 800 people and is to be opened in March as a feature of the city's giant horticultural show, Florida.

A view with a 60-mile radius is a bonus for customers.

The Driver's Seat

The driver who drinks even one drink and then takes his car down the highway should be called "The Life and Death of the Party."

Alcohol slows down reflexes the way efficient brakes slow down a car—with this difference: a driver controls his brakes, but alcohol controls the driver.

Take a look, for a moment, at some figures that show what reflexes really mean. They mean, of course, the difference between life and death, but these National Safety Council data on "stopping distances" give a new sharpness to this meaning:

A car going 20 miles per hour travels 52 feet between the time a driver sees the danger, applies the brakes; and brings it to a stop. A driver's "thinking distance" at 60 mph—that is, the time it takes him to see danger and apply brakes—is 66 feet, and the car itself, going at a mile-a-minute speed, will travel 336 feet before being stopped by average brakes.

At 70 miles an hour—the speed at which so many reflex-fuzzy drivers travel after bending an elbow—the "thinking distance" is 77 feet, and the stopping distance 332 feet, with good brakes, and 445 with "passable" brakes. There is no way to laugh off these facts. Nor is there any way to laugh off the tragic results caused by ignoring them.

Put it this way: If you're going 70 miles an hour, you will cover more ground than the length of a football field before you can stop your car. And this holds true only when your reflexes are normally keen and efficient.

A driver whose mind is fuzzy with alcohol will take far more time to see danger and stop his car—if, indeed, he stops it at all before hitting a train, an embankment, or another car.

Danger signals—such as a pedestrian suddenly stepping into the street, or an automobile cutting a-kissly out of its proper traffic lane—don't register automatically in a befuddled brain. There must be a dual process of recognition and transmission. This may take only a few seconds, but these few seconds are generally the difference between life and death on the highway.

Obviously, the ritual of "one for the road" can be a prelude to disaster. It is often the choice between taking a drink and taking a life.

The worst jolt most of us ever get is when we fall back on our own resources. — Kin Hubbard.

IRKED BY SEEDING, BULLDOGS DOWN PLAINSMEN

Regional's basketball five concluded its regular season play with a convincing 73 to 59 victory over Bound Brook. Then it received a co-seed for eighth place with Scotch Plains in the Union County tournament. In an attempt to show the seeders that they were wrong, the locals proceeded to edge the "Red Raiders" from Scotch Plains 62 to 60 in the first round of play in the tournament.

Bound Brook proved to be a worthy opponent in the first half of its contest with the Springfield representatives, but in the second portion the superior skill of the "Bulldogs" began to show. Leading 33 to 31 at the halftime break, the locals slowly built up a six-point lead, which eventually melted about midway in the fourth period. A 12-point spree at the end of the contest sealed the victory. Bill Franklin turned in another fine performance and topped the scorers with 23 points. Jay Gladstone had 14, and Ed Reese and Howie Rudominer also hit in double figures, with 12 and 10 respectively.

Nobody at Springfield considered the seedings of the entrants in the tournament to be half-way decent once they got out of the first four. The four teams which were seeded high deserved it, but did Westfield 12-7, Jefferson 12-6, and Union 10-9 deserve to be placed above Regional, which is now 13-6?

Union already has been "upset" by Clark Regional. Westfield lost to Springfield during the regular season and also Somerville, whom the "Bulldogs" knocked out of the unbeaten circle.

Irked at their low seeding, the local five went into the contest with uncommon vigor and and put on a somewhat spasmodic display—being great at points but the players looking poor and when they became tired. The poor play was, however, overshadowed by the superb passing and rebounding during their better moments. The Regionals quickly gained an 11 to 5 lead and built it up to 15 to 10 at the end of the first quarter. At the beginning of the next period, they outscored the "Bulldogs" 15 to 6 to lengthen the lead to 30 to 16. Then, with four minutes to play in the half, they hit a cold spell which they didn't break out of until six minutes had passed. During that period of time the Scotch Plains five scored 16 points in a row to grab a temporary 32 to 30 lead.

But the "Bulldogs" rose to the occasion, and suddenly found the range on their shots and pushed themselves back into a lead which they never relinquished, although the Plainsmen put on a valiant rally the closing moments. Richie Baker sparked the third-period rally and played his best game of the year. He also scored 11 points.

Franklin did an excellent job off the backcourt as despite a noticeable height disadvantage and contributed 33 points to the Regional cause.

Gladstone, whose ball-manuevering was almost equal to Baker's, had to top the runner-up honors. Rudominer had 9, Stu Chester & Larry Rouse 5 and Reese 4 in a truly great team effort.

Crane Aiding Drive To Form Public Garden

State Senator Robert C. Crane of Westfield (R-Union) will serve as honorary chairman for the campaign to raise $25,000 for a rhododendron display garden in the Wachung Reservation of the Union County Park Commission. His appointment was announced today by Mrs. Charles R. Haag of Cranford, chairman of the Union County Rhododendron Display Garden Committee, which is conducting the campaign. A site on both sides of W. R. Tracey Drive in the Wachung Reservation, Mountainside, has been made available by the Park Commission, which will plant the rhododendron and maintain the garden. Senator Crane lauded the effort as a worthwhile community project which will enhance the beauty of the area and promote an interest in and appreciation for rhododendron and gardening in general. Plans outlined by the development plans for the display garden calls for blending the natural woodlands of the area with rhododendron and azalea beds. Plantings are planned near the roadway for view by motorists; footpaths will be provided for those in-rhododendron. A campaign committee is now being formed in all communities in Union County, Mrs. Haag said. All persons interested in gardening and in the project who wish to work on the campaign should contact her at 711 High Street, Cranford. The committee will arrange to send speakers to be better-informed on the project. Brochures Mailed The committee will mail 5,000 brochures to Union County residents next week as part of its campaign to raise $25,000 for the display garden. The brochures are being stuffed and mailed by garden club volunteers and junior gardeners. "This garden has been planned as the most complete rhododendron display garden in Northeastern United States," Mrs. Haag said. "The garden is designed to show the full beauty of rhododendron in its many varieties and will incorporate companion plants to more beautify the garden. Plants will be labeled and recorded for either casual observation or more serious study of this superb plant family." Francis Whitaker of Mountainside is a member of Mrs. Haag's committee.

Self-Help for Survival

A series of articles issued by Springfield CD-DC Council. Third in a Series When the first atom-bomb struck Hiroshima in 1945, it destroyed or maimed nearly everyone within reach of its terrible destructive might. Two weeks later another bomb hit Nagasaki in Japan. But this time the casualty rate was reduced by 30 per cent. That comparison is the most heartening news in the history of man's dread of the atomic bomb, according to Saul Freeman, Springfield's Civil Defense Director. For it is proof that knowledge and planning can produce degree of safety—even from the mighty atom, and its lethal stepchild, gamma radiation. So Freeman believes firmly that the families that think of shelter now, and take steps to prepare for an academic attack, will live through it. Responsibility for lives in an industrial plant or an office building rests with the executives in charge, Freeman says. He adds that most industries are diligently preparing to safeguard those lives. Responsibility for the general public in central sections who need shelter, he says, is in the hands of government. But the sole responsibility for the safety of the family is borne by the head of that family. And Freeman says that the typical Springfield father has given little thought, and done less in preparation, to provide the shelter to keep his wife and children alive in an atomic emergency. Freeman advises that every home should have a shelter of some type, prepared now. The major requirement of a home shelter is that the top and sides be covered with enough dense material (concrete, earth, or several stories of building) to shield the occupants from penetrating gamma rays of radioactive fallout. Other requirements include proper entrance design, ventilation, ample space (at five square feet of floor space per person), emergency exit, sanitation facilities. Those who have not prepared shelter before the attack comes, Freeman says, will find it most difficult, if not impossible, to improvise shelter that will provide sufficient protection. This is particularly true if fallout becomes heavy here. Suggested Location On suggested location for a home shelter for residents of Springfield is in the northeast corner of the basement, Freeman says. He also suggests an inner hallway, or foyer, which can be shut off from outside walls and relatively free from fallout. To the extent that time permits, he says, (it may take an hour or more for fallout to reach Springfield if the explosion is at some distance), fallout protection can be increased by improvisation, by placing dense materials which may be at hand between the shelter and the outside walls and ceiling. More elaborate measures may be taken, if circumstances allow. Here and there are families that have prepared costly and comfortable well-stocked shelters. Many Civil Defense volunteers have understood the gravity of the situation enough to work out improvised shelters for their families' safety. Some Union County contractors have offered to build shelters for families, in a $700 to $1,000 price range and upward. Civil Defense officials have shown that home-made, do-it-yourself home shelters can be improvised for as little as $200. Detailed information on home shelters may be obtained through Civil Defense headquarters in the Municipal Building. But Freeman is not so much concerned with the problems of those who want better shelters as he is with the problem of those who don't know they need any family shelters at all. ### County League To Go-International

Union County Tuberculosis and Health League will become a member of the International Union against Tuberculosis, according to action taken at its board meeting Monday night, Feb. 15, in the Court House, Elizabeth, with Mrs. Edward Sierks of Fanwood presiding. The International Union is an organization of voluntary tuberculosis associations throughout the world. The National Tuberculosis Association is a member and recommends that local tuberculosis leagues join, in order to lend greater support and receive more direct information on the international tuberculosis problem. "The Union County League will join because, according to the board of directors, 'the problem of tuberculosis is not confined by national boundaries. With the mobility of people today, progress against the disease in one area of the world can be offset by a serious situation in another. We cannot be complacent because the United States has a lower tuberculosis rate than many other countries. Our country has approximately 150,000 persons with active disease, while some countries abroad number them in the millions. Tuberculosis is a universal problem.'"

Dr. Friedman was formerly chairman of the Committee on Jewish Law of the Rabbinical Assembly of America. He is managing editor of 'Judaism', one of the leading scholarly journals on Jewish religion, philosophy and ethics. It will be followed by a question and answer period. Hostess for the evening will be Mrs. George Schilssel, Mrs. Morton Ashman and Mrs. Harry R. Karp. One half of our best society is always telling the other half what it does not wish to know, but the two halves take turns and this establishes the conversation, usually on a peaceful basis — Frank M. ### Springfield Recreation Sports

TEXAS, KENTUCKY, MICHIGAN, CALIFORNIA WIN

The Springfield Recreation Commission "State League" cagers have completed their regular season schedule, with the league playoffs to start Saturday afternoon, Feb. 27, at the Florence Gaudineer School gym.

In the opening game of the four-game card last Saturday, Texas posted a 33-27 win over Minnesota as Bobby Ricks scored 18 points to spark the win. Hittings and Bucek, with 13 and 10 points respectively, were top scorers for the tall Minnesota dribblers.

Michigan trimmed Oklahoma Chadwick sparked the winners. 22-12 as Chip Argyris and Ben Kentucky defeated West Virginia 26-15 with Hansen, Bellevue and Hartz the scoring leaders. Garland was high man for West Virginia, with Terry scoring two goals in the third period.

The finale produced the most excitement as Illinois battled back to a tie with California at the final whistle, only to lose by two points in a hectic "sudden death" extra period.

Little George Garner came through with three goals in the final period, adding the game-winning score in the extra period on a lay-up.

The league playoffs will decide the champions, with the special tournament conducted on a double elimination basis. The playoff will start Saturday afternoon with all eight teams competing. The winners and losers will clash the following Saturday. A team must suffer two losses in order to be eliminated.

LINDEN P.A.L. CAGERS TRIP JR. MINUTEMEN

The talented and high scoring Linden P.A.L. cagers tripped the Springfield Recreation Jr. Feb. 18, at the Gaudineer School Minutemen Thursday evening, gym, 51-41.

Linden came to town with a ton, plus the know-how that is acquired by playing a formidable schedule. The visitors jumped off to a 21-11 first-quarter advantage, with the locals fighting back to within five points at one period, but could not overcome the Linden five.

Gary Faucher and Keith Neigel were top scorers for the Minutemen, with Daniels and Irwin the high scoring duo for Linden. The Linden zone defense was the downfall of the locals, plus a poor scoring average in the first half.

Springfield returns to action once Gaudineer School, facing tonight, Thursday, at the Florida all-star combination of the Millburn Recreation basketball league. Game time is at 7:15, with Coach Don Wodack's dribblers anxious to get back to winning ways. The public is invited; no admission is charged.

CELTICS, PISTONS, AGGIES, BULLETS WIN

The Celtics, Pistons, Aggies and Bullets posted victories in the Caldwell School "Small-Fry" cage league, Saturday, Feb. 20, and complete their regular campaign this week. The league playoffs will start the following week, with the East-West games to follow.

In the opening game of the four-game card, the Celtics trimmed the Nats 27-10 as Don Cobby, Don Buehner and Cave Hinchings provided the scoring power. The Pistons walked the Knicks behind the 12-point scoring effort of Sam Josephs, with Jeff Bell chipping in with 7 points.

Willis Rutz was high man for the losing Knickerbockers. The Aggies and the Billikens engaged in the top battle of the afternoon with the Aggies the winners by a 19-18 score. Brian Sheehan and Ken Ozvath were the scoring leaders for the winners, with Kertz and Bass netting all of the 18 points for the losing Billikens.

In the mitecap, the Bullets scored an easy win over the Lakers, with Ronnie Azarewicz tossing home 10 points.

PIRATES, GENERALS, BULLDOGS, INDIANS WIN

Closer scores prevailed at the Raymond Chisholm school gym Saturday afternoon, Feb. 20, at the Pirates, Generals, Bulldogs and Indians posted victories.

Spelman sparked the Generals to a close win over the Browns, Vollbest and Buccel being the top players for their respective teams in the Bulldog. Game with Miniman and Goldhammer the leaders in the Indian-Raider game.

Zorn scored 9 points to spark the Pirates to a 20-18, with Sommer scoring 13 for the Lions.

STATE LEAGUE PLAYOFFS START SATURDAY

The Springfield Recreation Commission "State League" playoffs start Saturday afternoon, Feb. 27, with the championship up for grabs. All teams will compete, with Kentucky and Michigan the favorites to go all the way. The playoffs will be conducted on a double knockout basis, which will require about three to four weeks of play.

This Saturday the four-game card will open with Michigan facing West Virginia, followed by Kentucky-Illinois, Texas-California and Minnesota-Oklahoma in the mitecap.

The tournament will continue the following Saturday, the losers clashing in the early games, with the winners playing in the last half of the program. Any team losing two games will be eliminated from the playoffs.

To the Editor:
Now that the election is over, we can comment on safety in our schools without the possible intrusion of irrelevancies. Entering into the discussion before the referendum may have prejudiced this writer's basic premise, which is that, with or without the proposed alarm system, our schools are NOT SAFE.

A safe school is one from which the youngest pupil can walk outdoors, without assistance if necessary. In Kindergarten classrooms we see quite readily that there must be immediate access to the outside. The logic of placing the mantle of maturity on children only a few years beyond Kindergarten age quite escapes us. Most classrooms are located on the periphery of the school building; it is high time that the commonly accepted practice of evacuating children into the interior of a building in order to get them out of the fire drills and real emergencies have little in common.

There is one way, and one way only, to ensure maximum safety for school children; that is a door from each classroom to the outside. It is 15-21 years since we had this simplest, yet most effective, idea accepted by a Board of Education, but only after a neighboring school burned completely.

A new school embodying this design is within half an hour's ride of Springfield. A mile from it is a so-called "modern" school, erected at a cost of $3,000,000. To facilitate the evacuation of students, the architect specified special windows, a whole wall of them, to be opened quickly by the use of a hand crank. We asked: "Where is the crank?" Answer: "The children were playing with it, so the janitor keeps it locked up." We didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

It is unwise for the parents of any community to assume that others will automatically do the right things merely because they are elected or appointed to do so. Parents must exert themselves, be eternally vigilant.

Every school child has the right to the best and cheapest safety equipment known—an exit directly from his classroom to the open air. It is his parents' duty to get it for him.

An Open Letter to All Churches, Synagogues & Charities

Throughout the year, we at Channel Lumber receive many hundreds of requests from worthy charities, churches and synagogues. To these we are happy to respond to the limit of our abilities. However, there are many that we know we have not reached. We therefore feel it fitting to commemorate National Brotherhood Week by giving material assistance to this movement of brotherly love and to the community.

For this purpose, we have set aside five days—today thru Saturday—as CHANNEL BROTHERHOOD TITHE DAYS. On our receipts from sales, and our check for 10% of each purchase will be sent to the church, synagogue or charity designated by the purchaser, and made in the name of the donor. We like to think that perhaps this may set a worthy example of community participation in Brotherhood Week.

Sincerely,

Right Color Important When Staining Wood

When staining natural wood, choose a color of stain appropriate for the wood and style of the piece of furniture.

So much is said about a natural finish for wood these days that one might well wonder about when stain should be used.

A stain may be used to freshen the color of the wood appears faded or grayed, but it should not be evident that stain has been used.

If a piece of furniture has been previously stained or has several colors or types of wood in it, it is usually desirable to stain it.

Woods that have no natural beauty, such as bass wood, poplar and gum, usually need staining. Woods with natural beauty in grain and color, such as mahogany, walnut, cherry pine and maple, usually do not need staining.

If you decide that a stain is desired, observe colors of stained wood to find the right color for the piece in mind. Then apply it only after the surface is smoothed and before a finish coat is put on.

Surfaces must have a satin-smoothness before staining. Wood whiskers left on absorb more stain than a flat surface and cause a coarse, cloudy appearance. Stain in the day-time when the light is good.

Solvent Great Aid When Repainting

Preparing the surface of a piece of furniture for repainting usually takes time and elbow grease. But if the surface is smooth, there's an easier way.

If the surface of painted trim or furniture is smooth—not cracked, peeled or alligatored—rag or brush off a solvent cleaner. There are a number of brands available.

A solvent cleaner cuts the glossy surface and makes "tooth" for the next coat, eliminating the need for using abrasive paper, steel wool or an undercoat. It also removes any wax applied to the surface.

Solvent cleaner dries instantly and the coat of paint may be applied immediately after using it.
