Three Alternates For Route 78 Described By State Department

The Mayors of Union, Maplewood, Hillside and Irvington met in Trenton on March 28 with top State Highway Department officials for a review of Departmental studies of Interstate Route 78 alignment alternatives that might affect their home municipalities.

According to a State Highway Department spokesman, the review centered on the location, building displacements, right-of-way features and the effect on tax ratables involved in three alternate alignments under study between the Springfield-Union line and Shaw Street, Newark.

The Department spokesman said the session was aimed at acquainting the municipal officials with all facets of the alignment studies in order that they might be in a position to offer suggestions or local proposals for review and possible incorporation before the alignment is finally decided.

County Council of P.T.A.s Tells Views On Vocational School Referendum Plan

From Union County Council of Parent-Teacher Associations has come a copy of the letter sent by the Council to each member of the Union County Board of Freeholders Jan. 29 as a result of action taken by the Freeholders on Jan. 29 to obtain permission from the State Legislature to conduct a referendum on the financing of the proposed county vocational school.

The Freeholder letter, signed by Mrs. W. H. Baumer of Westfield as the Council's legislative chairman, was accompanied by a letter from Mrs. Albert Koehler of Plainfield, publicity chairman for the Council. This letter, too, was submitted for publication.

Both letters are printed here in full, the publicity chairman's letter being given first because of its explanatory features.

MRS. KOEHLER'S LETTER

The Union County Council of P.T.A.s voted March 23 at its board meeting to send to all the county newspapers a copy of the letter written Jan. 29, 1960, to each of the county Freeholders, explaining their position on the question of an enlarged vocational-technical training system for the county.

In subsequent news articles there seems to have been some misunderstanding of the views of the P.T.A.s, which they are anxious to correct. Their main objective is an enlarged vocational-technical training system in Union County, which they feel can be realized only by a

Shown in the lower left corner is the barrier erected at the parking lot end of Walnut Court, Springfield, to discourage motorists from using the street as an exit into Morris Avenue. The building in the lower right corner is the fallout shelter in Springfield which was dedicated at a ceremony in Town Hall Sunday afternoon, April 3. Federal Aid For Education Wants

The executive committee of the James Caldwell School Parent-Teacher Association met in the library of the Florence M. Gaudin School in Springfield Monday, April 11, at 8:15 p.m. Mrs. George Kunc presided.

The various chairmen gave their reports: Among them, the chairman of the by-laws and legislation committee, Mrs. Alan Cunningham, reported that the State P.T.A. legislative chairman had issued a bulletin asking all P.T.A. members to write to their U. S. Congressman and Senators urging Federal aid to education. There is a great need for Federal support for school construction and teachers' salaries, the P.T.A. believes.

A regular meeting of the P.T.A. will be held Tuesday, April 12, in the school auditorium. This meeting will provide an evening of merriment for the teachers and parents. An old-fashioned melodrama will be presented, followed by a fashion show of costumes of years gone by. These costumes will be modeled by members of the Association.

R. C. Drive Nears Goal; Help Sought

Success is in sight. This was the feeling of the board of directors of Springfield Chapter of the American Red Cross after its monthly meeting Monday evening, April 11, Cunningham, chairman of the annual fund drive, reported to the gathering at the Cannon Ball House that the residential drive has netted to date $4,197.24. An additional $87.34 was received from business and professional solicitations. This brought the total to $5,024.58, just slightly below the 1959 goal of $5,456.00.

Kenneth J. Brando and Dr. J. E. Eckle noted, however, that the business and professional total did not give a clear picture of those solicitations as a majority of the persons in this area are also local residents and prefer to contribute to the Red Cross drive from their homes.

Mr. Cunningham added that there still are three districts not yet covered and several areas whose reports have not been completed. When these returns are final, he forecast

Road Details Are Expected

There were several citizens in the audience at the meeting of Springfield Township Committee Tuesday evening, April 12—more than have been noted at recent sessions. A number of questions were asked. One by William Wenzel, representing Shunpike Civic Assn., gave Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies an opportunity to declare that there should be issued soon a statement explaining in detail how the proposed Route 78 will affect Springfield.

Mayor Bonadies said that the day before, Committee member William H. Baumer and Township Attorney Irwin Weinberg had gone to Trenton for a conference with State Highway Commissioner Dwight Palmer.

The result of the discussion was said by the Mayor, that the Springfield visitors were promised a formal presentation in the near future of all details concerning the proposed road as they relate to this Township.

Other inquiries had to do with the effect of the new sanitary sewer system to be constructed might have on the Irwin Street playground. Mayor Bonadies

The League of Women Voters of Springfield this week issued the following appeal to the voters to vote on April 19:

"The League of Women Voters of Springfield reminds you to vote Tuesday, April 19, in the Primary Elections. The polls will be open from 7 A.M. to 8 P.M.

"To acquaint you with the candidates running for the Board of Freeholders, the League of Women Voters of Union County has prepared a sheet containing biographical information and these following questions accompanied with the candidates' answers:

1. What do you consider the most urgent problems facing Union County and what solutions do you suggest? 2. What plans do you have for our increasing numbers of aged and chronically ill?

"Further election information about candidates for the House of Representatives and the Senate is included.

"If you have not already received one of these sheets, they are available at Springfield Library."

'Weaker Sex' Does Not Apply To Girl Science Students, Fair Proves

A Mountainide girl showed that the "weaker sex" doesn't have to take a back seat in the age of science.

Barbara Jean Jones, 17, of Fair View Drive, Mountainide, was awarded one of two top honors at the seventh annual Greater Newark Science Fair held at Newark College of Engineering.

Victory For Dystan

Barbara's performance also was another victory for Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, where she is a junior. Last year, the school, in the person of Louis H. Caruso and Alan H. Chait, took both top prizes.

Alan took an honorable mention in the latest contest.

Barbara is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Minor C. K. Jones. Dr. Jones is a member of the Regional Board of Education—Her winning exhibit was a mathematical study, "The Geometry of Bubbles and Liquid Films." It consisted of an outline of the laws governing the formation of bubbles and liquid films with accompanying color photographs and illustrative diagrams.

To Complete in May

Her sponsoring teacher was Walter A. Hohn. Barbara will compete May 11-14 in Indianapolis in the 11th National Science Fair. She will face tough competition from some 160 regional finalists.

Some 250 students contended for the top prize in the Newark science show.

Peter A. Alsberg, 16, another Jonathan Dayton student, won the Youth Conference on Atoms award for his project "Studies of Acetylene in the Field Emission Microscope."

Berkeley Girl Wins

Chief earned an honorable mention award in chemistry for "New Methods for Separating Amino Acids." Roy A. Westberg of Dayton took first prize in the physical sciences for his exhibit on "Nebular Variable Stars in the M-42 nebula."

A grammar school youngster, Terry W. Roberts of Columbia School, Berkeley Heights, was awarded an honorable mention in Eighth and Ninth Grade sciences for her project, "A Study of Benzidine," Using White Mice."

Town Turns Down Offer For Property

Formal notification has been received by Springfield Township of the allocation of $20,000 by the State Highway Dept. for the improvement of that portion of the Milltown Road which is not already improved. This is the section leading to the bridge which connects this township and Union Township.

Receipt of this notification was reported at the Township Committee meeting Tuesday evening, April 12. Also reported was acknowledgment by the County Board of Freeholders of the receipt of Springfield's request that the bridge on Milltown Road be replaced. The matter has been referred to a committee, the governing board was informed.

At the request of Township Engineer Alfred H. Swenson it was voted to advertise for bids for street maintenance material; the bids to be opened April 26.

It was voted to send the volunteer fire department $500 as the township's annual contribution toward the expense of the Memorial Day celebration—a project Springfield carries out in cooperation with Millburn.

Once again the township's reluctance to dispose of town-owned property was demonstrated. When an offer of $1000 for a plot on Ruby Street was made, Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies declined the offer.

Tiller, Pizzi, Matthews Getting Fine Support And Appear Winners In G.O.P. Freeholder Primary

Union County's Republican primary next Tuesday to select three freeholder candidates is attracting solid support from all sections of the county in behalf of Edward H. Tiller, Edward A. Pizzi and Phillip B. Matthews.

These three names appear first on the list of ten men trying for the three places as GOP freeholder nominees.

Political observers and the "man on the street" have noticed the groundswell of support for the Tiller, Pizzi, Matthews G.O.P. group and much of this swing in their favor, they say, is because of the "experience and capability of the three men at the top of the freeholder ticket."

The Tiller, Pizzi, Matthews supporters are asking voters to use the same standards at the polls next Tuesday as if they were personally selecting men to be officers of a multi-million dollar corporation... Business men and taxpayers realize that the freeholders administer millions of taxpayers dollars and these positions demand experience in government work, in the ability to carry out the wishes of the people. These three men, Tiller, Pizzi and Matthews, have that experience and ability.

Tiller, Pizzi and Matthews are grouped on the ballot under the ORGANIZATION REPUBLICANS, COUNTY AND MUNICIPAL EXPERIENCE, slogan and are the first three names on the ballot under "freeholders."

"The best chance the Republican party has this November against the Democratic candidates is the selection of Tiller, Pizzi and Matthews as the GOP freeholder running team. "Today," said one who has made a careful study of the situation, "the taxpayer insists on efficiency of operation. This can best be achieved by electing men who have already accomplished such efficiencies on the municipal level. In this way, the taxpayer receives capable and economical operation of his county government."

Very Experienced

Running on a platform emphasizing experience in government, Tiller, Pizzi and Matthews have a long record of experience on the municipal and county level. Mr. Tiller is mayor of Garwood and has been on the Garwood council for many years. He has served in executive capacities with the Inter-Municipal Group for Better Rail Service and the Union County Advisory Water Committee.

Mr. Pizzi is a Summit attorney who has been township attorney, board of education counsel, counsel for the Union County Welfare Board and the State Association of Chosen Freeholders. He has been executive committee chairman of the County GOP Committee.

Mr. Matthews, a renowned engineer and inventor has served on the Plainfield Council, Board of Adjustment, Planning Board and Police Board, and has been cited by the U. S. Army for his contributions to the national defense.

Mayor Loman Asks Election Of Pizzi Group

Mayor George T. Loman of Berkeley Heights, has issued a plea to all Republicans in Union County urging the selection of Garwood Mayor Tiller, Plainfield Councilman Matthews and Berkeley Heights Township Attorney Edward A. Pizzi as the three GOP Freeholder nominees to oppose the Democrats in November.

Following is Mayor Loman's letter to the Berkeley Heights Beacon recommending the Tiller, Pizzi, Matthews group:

"Next Tuesday, April 19, we Republicans will select 3 Union County Freeholder nominees to run in November. We have 10 able candidates from whom to select.

During the past few years as an official in Berkeley Heights, I have had an opportunity to better understand their functions in relation to the municipalities in the County. It is my opinion that the needs of the County and the fulfillment of the County's responsibilities in the 21 municipalities of Union County can be best served by nominating men having recent active experience on the municipal level from communities both large and small.

In addition, to this necessary experience, Berkeley

Recently Opened, Wing At Hospital Already Nearing Its Capacity

The recently opened 36-bed wing at the John E. Rannels Hospital, Berkeley Heights, is rapidly filling to capacity.

In other hospital news, John patients had moved in and there were applicants enough to fill the facilities according to Dr. Eugene P. Nargiello, acting medical director.

Dr. Nargiello said that the wing would be filled to capacity in about two weeks. It is designed for use by the chronically ill and brought the hospital's quota to 92 beds for patients in that category.

The plan, announced when the wing opened, called for admitting about nine patients weekly. Dr. Nargiello said that before admittance, the patients were at home or in nursing homes or hospitals outside the county, boarded by the county's Welfare Board.

Wants New Building

In other hospital news, John Memorial, a member of the board of managers, has called for the construction of a new building to house the children's ward.

Additional expansion was urged by Richard P. Muscatello of Elizabeth and Charles A. Doerr of Westfield, Republican candidates for Freeholder nominations.

The men urged that facilities be built to care for more chronically ill. According to the two men, more than $400,000 is spent by the county to maintain many is chronically ill.

 Heights and the other municipalities in the Western end of the County need more direct representation, which is now lacking. In this way these most familiar with our local problems.

This year we Republicans can have such men to serve as if you will join with me in casting your ballot for Mayor Edward H. Tiller of Garwood, Councilman Philip E. Matthews of Plainfield, and Edward A. Fissel of Summit, representing Berkeley Heights as Township Attorney.

Unhesitatingly, I recommend these men to you, to serve all of Union County without any motivation for further personal political ambitions.

 assured the questioners that this situation would be watched and that there should be little to fear.

What was described as "normalizing action" was taken at the meeting in the Smithfield development. Union County Park Commission Township of Springfield negotiations. According to the transactions, brought about through co-operation of the Park Commission, there should one day be a road (to be maintained by the township) bordering the proposed Smithfield development and connecting Milltown Road with Evergreen Avenue, and a three-acre playground opposite the projected development. The playground site will remain as Park Commission property but it will be cleared and filled by the Smithfield people and the developer will contribute $5,000 toward equipping the facility.

 The goal would be reached. Persons who have not yet been solicited are asked to mail their contributions to Red Cross Headquarters, 13 South Trivet Street, Springfield.

Volunteers Needed
 The second phase of the double-barreled campaign for funds and members needs more working member volunteers.

Especially needed are Motor Corps members. Men and women interested are urged to contact Red Cross headquarters. Junior and senior volunteers for Gray Lady work are needed and urged to sign up by April 22 to take advantage of the training course to be offered April 30.

Senior Gray Ladies will be contributing their services throughout the year and the junior volunteers will concentrate their work during the summer months of school vacation.

Other business before the board of directors included Springfield Chapter's acceptance as a member of the East Orange-Veterans Administration Hospital Council. Motor Corps and Gray Ladies will be actively involved in Red Cross work at the VA hospital. As added training for Escort Service, the Motor Corps will participate in a convoy training course and maneuvers on May 7. This is in preparation for emergency mass movements.

 Mrs. S. Bryant Haas, 53 Park Lane, presented to the board plans for a regional adult school to begin next Fall at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School. The board voted to offer a course in first aid as part of the adult school curriculum. It also voted to offer courses in mother and baby care for the school if sufficient interest is indicated.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO BE A MEAT SHRINKER

EVERYTHING'S UNDER CONTROL WITH A FLAMELESS ELECTRIC RANGE

When you broil or roast with exactly controlled electric heat there's no need to sear or baste. Shrinkage is kept to an unnoticeable minimum. You actually save on meats because they go much further. And electric heat pampers the flavor and vitamins. Brings the meat gently and quickly to just the point of "done-ness" that suits your taste. It's a simple matter of setting the dial for perfect results every time.

Dayton Students Do Well In Talk Competition, Fair At Johnson School, Clark

SCORE IN SPEECH FESTIVAL

Nine members of Jonathan Dayton Regional High School Forensic Club competed in the annual high school speech festival conducted by Temple University, Philadelphia, Friday, April 1. As in past years, the group, headed by Mr. Stauffer, left for the competition with high hopes of winning the big first-place trophy.

However, shadows were cast on these hopes in the form of the Senior Ball, which was held the same week-end, which meant that the Senior members of the club were not able to attend the tournament.

After two days of intensive competition, the following individual certificates were awarded: Robert Seltzer, 32 Sherwood Drive, Springfield, for being outstanding in extempore speaking superior in discussion and excellent in debate; Cynthia Brande, 54 Kiewiter Street, Springfield, for superiority in poetry reading and dramatics; David Yancey, 807 Mountain Avenue, Springfield, for superiority in extempore speaking and debate.

Ker Ryder, 18 Brook Street, Springfield, for excellence in public speaking and debate; Judy Bartow, 686 Mountain Avenue, Berkeley Heights, for excellence in dramatics; Robert Kirk, 12 Alvin Terrace, Springfield, for excellence in public speaking and debate; Ward Kelsey, for excellence in discussion.

A separate certificate was presented to the debate team of R. Seltzer, R. Kirk, K. Ryder, D. Yancey for their superior rating as a debate team.

In the final tabulation for the tournament trophy, given to the school which accumulates the highest total point score, the Dayton Regional debaters tied for first place with Ewing High School, each having 94 of a possible 120 points. This is the first time that a Dayton Regional team reached first place in this tournament.

350 AT SENIOR BALL

Dayton Regional High School Senior Class held its annual ball at Martinsville Inn on April 1. An evening of dinner and dancing was attended by 350 students. Music was supplied by Joe Dahn and his orchestra.

Sue Keen of H. Crest Place, Springfield, was elected "Senior Sweetheart" with Carolyn Castro, Fairlane Avenue, Kenilworth, and Lois Wilson, Mountain Avenue, Berkeley Heights, as her attendants.

In charge of the whole operation were: Hope Blivise, Barbara Boyle and Ginger Ryan, of Mountainside; Irene Zidonik of Springfield; Ginny Reichelt of Kenilworth.

Mrs. Alice Leschik and Tom McCabe, class advisors, supervised with the help of the class officers: Bill Franklin, Kathy Murphiv, Muriel Stone and Eugene Becker. The theme of the dance was "Senonara".

SENIORS HEAR SCIENTISTS

Some Dayton Regional High School Seniors were honored by visits and lectures given by scientists from Bell Telephone Laboratories and Esso Research and Engineering Company March 29, 30 or 31.

While Mr. Hohn, chairman of the high school Science Dept., was attending the science teachers convention in Kansas City, his classes were conducted by various members of local scientific research companies.

From Bell Telephone Laboratories came Drs. Kohlman, McInnes, Winstow and Galagher, while from Esso Research Laboratories came Dr. C. W. Faust and Dr. Robert E. Long.

The speakers gave interesting talks on various phases of research being conducted at their respective laboratories.

STUDENTS SCORE AT SCIENCE FAIR

The Science Fair held recently at Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School in Clark

Township saw all-but the two Ninth Grade first-place awards presented to Dayton Regional students. Some 170 students participated in the fair, representing the two high schools and elementary schools in the district.

First place in chemistry was won by Allan Chate, 33 Cypress Terrace, Springfield, winner also at last year's fair. His project was "New Methods for Separation of Amino Acids."

The biology first place was won by Ted Hohn, 60 Severna Avenue, Springfield. His work was "Pigmentation in Molds." Ted won first place in chemistry last year.

The physics first place was awarded to Larry Alkin, 43 Kew Drive, Springfield, for his project, "Face of the Moon."

The first place award for group performance went to Robert Smith, 23 Colfax Road, Springfield, and Paul Stock, 48 North 14th Street, Kenilworth, for a project entitled "Atomic Vapor Trails."

Bill Blair, 283 McName Avenue, Berkeley Heights, a Sophomore, placed first in the mathematics engineering section with his project entitled "Heat Pumps."

DISTRIBUTIVE - ED STUDENTS TAKE TRIP

As a result of recent publicity received by the distributive education classes of Dayton Regional High School, Hoffman-La Roche Pharmacuticals of Nutley extended an invitation to the entire group to visit its facilities and get a first-hand look at the operations and procedures of a modern factory. All 23 students, Seniors, are enrolled in a course designed to prepare young people for a career in sales. The group visited Hoffman-La Roche accompanied by their teacher, Mr. Franchino.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS STUDENTS HONORED

Number of Dayton Regional High School students were awarded certificates of merit at the New Jersey Arts Association Convention in Asbury Park March 17, 18, 19. Student exhibits of a variety of industrial arts materials from all over the state were displayed. Regional students displayed in drafting (Mr. Rothbard's classes) and graphic arts (Mr. Grossman's classes).

Approximately 50 students took part in the exhibition. The object of the convention was to learn of the overall activity in industrial arts education in New Jersey. From what was seen at the exhibits, much is being accomplished. Perhaps it was the presence of three clergymen on the dais...perhaps it was the time—Sunday-afternoon...perhaps it was the purpose of the gathering. Whatever the reason, the ceremony of dedicating Springfield's model fallout shelter in Town Hall last Sunday was a solemn affair.

Solemn, that is, in the sense of serious, earnest, sobering. There was little applause in response to the talks delivered. Perhaps those taking part in the program and those in the audience were thinking thoughts that maybe some day such shelters would have to be used for real.

It was the right kind of program for the occasion, me-thinks, and the two co-operating organizations—Springfield-Civil Defense-Disaster Control Council and Springfield Woman's Club—have earned the plaudits of their community and have demonstrated what working together can do.

The turnout of the citizenry—in the face of the down-right nasty weather—was splendid. Apparently there is civic interest and pride in this township.

There has been much in the papers recently about the proposed site for a proposed new Post Office in Springfield. First the Zoning Board of Adjustment approved a petition for a variance which would allow the projected structure to go up on the Widmer property on Springfield Avenue, near the Railway R.R. tracks.

Then the Township Committee put an obstacle in the path by calling for a traffic survey and returning the request to the Zoning Board with the recommendation that it be given a new hearing in the light of suggestions resulting from the survey.

In all probability further action on the variance was taken at this week's meeting of the Township Committee—this comment having been written several days prior to Tuesday.

All this is good, of course, if there are to be traffic hazards. If school children are to be endangered by the erection of a new postal facility, it certainly is better to recognize the peril in advance of building operations rather than wait until the job is done and it is too late to manipulate parking and traffic regulations.

One thought keeps protruding while these words are being tapped out: what about the public? Is convenience of the people who are to use the place taken into consideration when a new P.O. is planned? What do YOU think of the location?

Mention of Quincy, Ill., in news dispatches telling about the over-flowing of its banks by the Mississippi River brings back memories. It was in Quincy, several decades ago, that this writer began his newspaper career on the afternoon daily there. I arrived at the office to start work on a Monday morning in March and Old Man River was misbehaving...just beginning to go over the banks. My first taste of Mid-West reporting was telling about sandbagging measures. What puzzles me is that no progress has been made in 10, these many years toward eliminating this annual threat to life and property.

More nostalgia. When word came over the radio that the Hudson River was kicking up, I was reminded of my very early days in Troy. Floods reaching a hundred yards or so from the bank of the river were common Spring occurrences. One year, however, the water spread inland several blocks and I recall sitting on a flight of stairs extending upward from the first floor of my home and retreating step by step as the water rose. There actually were rowboats in the street. I do not think it ever had happened at that point before that year nor do I recall it ever happening since.

This must be recorded for the eyes of posterity: SNOW fell this seventh day of April in the year 1960; anno Domini—ten days before EASTER SUNDAY!

Posthumous note on Library Week: Just finished reading LCL and FTT, both of which were banned under the most favorable publicity circumstances, and a third book, a delightful tale, heart-warming, with nary a cuss word and no sex to lean on, called "Pioneer, Go Home!" by Richard Powell. Now that some weeks have passed since I laid down the last of the three, which one do you think lingers in my mind? How right you are!

Will someone please tell me the story behind the building I pass when I come to and return from work via the Garden State? It is located just north of the Union Plaza and looks like a house from which some giant took a huge bite.

In case you've forgotten, this is "Hot Dog (without Mustard) Week" in all states north of the border and "Hot Dog (With Mustard and Tamales) Week" elsewhere.

And it also is Send—An-Item-To: SUN RAYS Week. S.E.L.

FRANKLIN P. ADAMS, COLUMNIST, 75, DIES
This headline in my morning newspaper—Thursday, March 24, shocked me—and brought back memories. Perhaps there are other oldtimers who remember Franklin P. Adams—F.P.A.—as columnist in the old New York Tribune and New York Morning World. I confess I had lost track of him in recent years. There was a time, however, especially when the "Coming Power" was a feature in the World, when I could not start the day without reading what F.P.A. had to say. It was more important than my morning "maker" of coffee.

From Sam Sarokin, quite a well-known newspaperman in these parts, came a clipping this week of Leon H. Keyserling's comparative study of the salaries of patrolmen in New York City and 12 other cities. What S. had in mind in sending the item, and what is of interest to us here in Springfield, is how the pay of local patrolmen compares with Keyserling's figures. The salary of a first class patrolman in Springfield is exceeded by only San Francisco among the 13 cities listed. The salaries of second and third class patrolmen and probationary officers are higher than those cited for such places as St. Louis, Seattle, Detroit, Chicago, etc.

Candidate Finds Trades School Is Not Popular

A Republican candidate for the Freeholder nomination on April 19 has found that Mountside residents are concerned over the establishment of the proposed Union County Vocational and Technical School. Albert S. Kopf of Elizabeth said he arrived at his conclusion after discussing the situation with commuters, West Mountside residents, including its Board of Education, have been against the idea since it was first revived. "Question Need" Kopf said that the residents here "questioned the need for such a facility and believe they should have a greater voice in deciding the issue. Many indicated to me that they think the plan has been established in an arbitrary manner, and indicates poor planning." Kopf also said he found opposition to the proposed location of the new Route 22. In other vocational school news, a survey by the County

Vocational School Board of Education has indicated that the county needs about 300 more mechanics and auto body workers this year. The school board polled small industry and business to check the needs for trades skills. Sees Need Franklin Connolly, supervisor of occupational information and guidance for the State Department of Information, indicated that the survey "points up the need for a formal training program beyond what is offered at Thomas A. Edison Vocational and Technical High School in Elizabeth. He did not mention facilities at any other high schools in the county. School districts in the Regional School District have maintained that the vocational school needs of pupils are adequately cared for in the regional schools. The study showed that some 200 workers are needed to handle expansion of business each year and another 100 are needed to replace those who leave the business. The county trade school board has been involved in studies in several areas which are designed to reveal the need for additional vocational school facilities.

Stamler Claims Demos Killed Chance For 5th Union Assembly Post

Assemblyman Nelson F. Stamler said, "in their party, Stamler, Union Township Republican caucus room it is a different public charged last week that story. They do as they are Union County's fight for a fifth seat was sabotaged by its three Democratic Assembly members.

Stamler challenged the Democrats to explain their stand. "How can they pretend to act in behalf of Union County's 500,000 citizens when they listen to the dictates of Boss Carey and Boss Kenny," Stamler said, referring to the Democratic party machine leaders in Essex and Hudson counties.

The three Democrats voted to kill the only chance the Assembly had to vote on a reapportionment measure which would have given Union County a fifth seat, Stamler said.

Total Remains 69

The bill would take two seats away from the powerful Hudson Democratic Hudson delegation and two from the split 12-member Essex Assembly.

group. It holds the number of seats in the House at 69. The four seats would be redistributed among the smaller counties which have grown since the last re-apportionment in 1940.

The Democratic controlled Assembly, voting on a strict party line, quashed a chance in the House rules which would have permitted consideration of the measure, A-165.

Hts Early G.O.P. Stamler, in a prepared statement, was also critical of GOP dominated Legislatures in the early fifties which failed to enact re-apportionment legislation after the 1950 census.

"The Republicans who were in office then must accept their share of the blame for this situation also," he said.

He labeled as "farical" the Democratic Assembly's current consideration of bills which would boost the number of lower house seats from 69 to 67 or 68.

"These bills would dilute the strength of our elected officials. This was not the intention of those who redrafted our state Constitution in 1947," he said.

Stamler predicted that even if such a bill passed the Assembly it would die in the Senate. "They will not tolerate this tampering with the traditions and efficiency of the Assembly," he said.

Sees More Delay

He predicted if no action is taken this year on re-apportionment that another long delay is in store.

"Once the 1960-census figures are reported, another round of politicking and pressure will begin," he said. One solution, said the legislator, who is also a lawyer, would be for the counties who are being denied representation to seek redress through the courts.

Union Mayor To Fight Rt. 78 Layouts

State plans to get the proposed Route 78 within a year from June may meet with a setback in the person of Mayor Edward Biertuempfel of Union.

The state has proposed several alternatives to the highway in Union. Mayor Biertuempfel has announced that he is against the alternatives and will fight them.

The Union Mayor is an experienced politician and is seasoned in battling the state in matters which he feels would be harmful to Union.

Other Objections

However, what he can accomplish remains to be seen as strong protests from residents of Springfield and other communities have thus far failed to deter state plans in these areas.

None of the alternatives will have any effect on the Route 78 layout in Springfield. The road would still enter Springfield through Springfield avenue at the Union-Milburn line.

Dwight Palmer, State Highway Commissioner, has said that there will be a public hearing on the alternate proposals. Mayor Biertuempfel indicated that he thought the new routes greatly reduce the effect on Essex County communities and that "Union is faced with much more adverse effect than the original proposal would entail."

There have been rumors that the proposed superhighway is a tie-in with the Port of New York Authority's plan to construct a new jetport in Morris County. However, there has been nothing approaching official recognition of that possibility.

Lack Of Registrations Hurt Drivers

Seven drivers were fined a total of $55 by Springfield Municipal Court Magistrate Henry C. McMullen at Monday night's, April 11, session of court for failing to have their registrations renewed.

Fines of $5 were paid by Middle Wholesale Company, of Middlesex; Eugene Kastner, of Bloomfield; Frank Barton of Summit; James O. Anzini of Brooklyn, N. Y.; William H. Shand, of Gillette and Ken Kastner of Chatham.

Others paying higher fines for the same violation were Abbey Contractor Company, Inc., of Orange, $12; and Albert Bender of Newark, $7.

Six drivers were fined $10 each for failing to get their vehicles inspected — on time. They were: Robert Parrella, of Kentworth; Duvalcraft Builders Inc. of Livingston; Mary C. Batt of Summit; Rosetta Mack of Cedar Knolls; Joseph Scaleri of Newark; and Francis Rybak of Union.

Walker D. Wied of Murray Hill was fined $10 for driving with a bad muffler. Robert Stiefel of Irvington was fined $10 and William J. Waldron Jr. of Newark was fined $7 for failing to display their license plates.

Charles Gashi of Newark was fined $8 for making an illegal left turn.

Nick Melchione of Union was fined $12 and Tullio Starone of Newark $8 for operating a vehicle without a license. Edward T. Lack of Sparta was fined $8 for not having a registration in possession.

A $10 fine was imposed on Barry C. Gottlieb of Union for careless driving; a $25 fine on James A. Petric of Summit for speeding.

Calvin Alexander of Newark was fined $10 for carrying an over load on his truck.

Civic Group To Meet

The Shunpike Association announces its next meeting will be held Tuesday, April 19, at 8:30 p.m., at Baltusrol Golf Club. Issues of local interest and community matters will be discussed.

Reservations for the Association's dinner-dance at the Club Diana Sat. evening, April 23, will be received at the meeting. Reservations may be made also by calling Mrs. Frances Cooperman, DR 8-4089. Final plans for the annual picnic will be made at the coming session.

All residents of Warwick Circle, Shunpike Road and Kew Drive are invited to attend the meeting. Further information about the gathering is available from Mrs. Mickey Doros, DR 6-5362.

Morris Jetport Plan Appears To Be Losing Ground

With the dust settling from the original storm over the proposed Morris County jetport, it has become clear that the chances of the airport becoming a reality seem rather slim unless there is a big switch in public opinion.

In both houses of the New Jersey Legislature have gone on record as being against the plan. In addition, committees have been organized in the communities which would be affected, designed to unite public action against the plan.

Opposition Greater

Indications are that the depth of opposition against the port apparently exceeded the estimates of the Port Authority, sponsor of the plan. The authority seemingly has backed off slightly from its original firm stand and is now considering more strongly other possible sites for the airport.

A survey of items appearing in metropolitan newspapers fails to reveal very many which indicate that the plan will come to fruition.

Last week Salvatore A. Bonomo, State Commissioner of Conservation and Economic Development, a powerful state position, indicated that he felt that the chances of a Morris County jetport being built were pretty slim.

On the other side of the ledger, there are indications that Burlington County is gaining strength in its battle to get the airport.

FAA More Interested

The Federal Aviation Agency has stepped up its investigation of the possibilities of the Burlington jet site. The agency previously rejected the county's request for the jetport on the grounds that it would conflict with existing air-traffic patterns.

However, the FAA is reviewing the plan reportedly to "see if Burlington officials have anything new to show us we want our record to be up-to-date."

The FAA has agreed to start a 20-year forecast of air traffic patterns over Burlington County to see whether any foreseeable change might remove objections to the site.

Continue Battle

Meanwhile, residents of the Berkeley Heights-Mountainside area who are opposed to the Morris County Port are continuing their battle. Several leaders in the fight have expressed fear that the plan will be "shoved through" if public opinion diminishes.

As one person said: "The Port Authority has a lot of time and money. It can afford to wait awhile to see if the people forget about the jetport. We can't allow a jetport to be built here if we want to protect this wonderful suburban atmosphere."

Playwright Clyde Fitch, had five plays on Broadway at the same time in 1901. They were "Sapho," "Lover's Lane," "The Climbers," "Barbara Fricke," and "Captain Jinks of the Horse Marines."

DiBuono Visits With Town Voters

Mayor William DiBuono of Hillside, candidate for Union County's Democratic Congressional nomination, arrived at 8:30 a.m. in the Morris Avenue shopping area to begin a rigorous day of hand-shaking, house-visiting and informal speaking, escorted by Mayor Banadies, Mrs. Harry Hillard and Al Kempler. DiBuono displayed his quiet charm to many surprised shoppers and commuters — who were drawn outdoors by the bright Spring sunshine.

Union County political observers rate DiBuono a close favorite for a majority of the district's Democratic ballots.

The 37-year old DiBuono, Hillside Township Committeeman for the past seven years and Mayor of that municipality since 1957, emphasized his experience in "direct service to the people as an elected official" in his many informal chats with local residents. At house receptions, including one by Mrs. Lucy Leonardis of Baltusrol Way, DiBuono found keen interest in his support for federal aid to education, extension of Social Security coverage to include medical assistance to elderly citizens, and abolition

The Meaning of Easter

By DONALD C. WEBER

Assistant Minister, First Presbyterian Church

his weekend the corner will be turned and Easter day will be celebrated by Christians throughout the world. Centuries ago Easter was originally a Spring festival honoring the Teutonic gods of light and Spring. During the Eighth Century the Anglo-Saxons transferred the name of this Spring festival to the Christian festival celebrating the same season of the year.

Gives New Meaning

In somewhat the same manner Jesus, at the close of His life, sought to give a new meaning to the religious thoughts of his people. He had come to proclaim the Word of God to them, and to revive their awareness of God. It was during the season of Passover that Jesus died. To the Jew, Passover was the commemoration of God's great act of delivering His people from bondage.

And so it was in this season that Jesus attempted to interpret His life and death as part of God's eternal plan to save men from sin and death. At the time of the yearly sacrifices to God for the removal of sin, and the hopeful restoration with God, Jesus offered himself as a sacrifice for man to use in his approach to God. The cross became the symbol of the Love of God that sought to save men.

The followers of Jesus were in depths of despair following the crucifixion of their Master. Their expectations that Jesus would establish God's Kingdom and the New Age were shattered. With the sealing of the tomb, the disciples considered Jesus' work finished.

In the midst of their disillusionment Jesus appeared to them. He had risen from the dead. He had returned to convince his followers that the defeat of the cross had been overcome.

come by the victory of the empty tomb. God had saved His Son in His resurrection to save men, and the resurrection became the divine approval of that sacrifice. Jesus appeared to Mary Magdalene, His disciples and others to show that God had proven Himself victorious over death.

Resurrection Significant

The resurrection is significant to the Christian because here he has seen the power of God actively at work to convey hope and new meaning to the life of the man-in-the-street. God had really overcome the forces and powers that overwhelmed man, and man's faith could focus itself on the God of Salvation as He had revealed Himself in the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus.

The Day Resurrection, or, as we call it today, Easter Sunday, is the day of the year set apart to particularly remember the events of the first resurrection day, and to commemorate God's great act of deliverance from the past. But as each man and woman considers the work of Jesus, the resurrected Christ comes and reveals Himself that He is risen indeed! The presence of the living Lord leads to new hopes and new strength in the community of faith.

Case Has Had Active Career In Senate; Is Rated High By Papers

Clifford P. Case, senior United States Senator from New Jersey, has traveled the length and breadth of New Jersey. He has made innumerable public appearances, in person and on television and radio, both local and national.

In 1937 he was elected a member of the Common Council in his home town of Rahway, and he served on it for five years. From there he went on to become a member of the New Jersey Assembly for two terms. Then he served nine years in the House of Representatives.

News reporters, chroniclers, activities and editorial writers and columnists frequently add their comments. Senator Case is known in every part of New Jersey. Everywhere he is highly respected for the statesmanship he has shown in representing Sen. Case graduated from Rutgers University, where he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. He received his law degree from Columbia University. His adult life was spent as a lawyer, an associate, and then a member of one of New York City's oldest and most prominent firms. He is also a member of the Subcommittee on Railroad Retirement.

Sen. Case has been appointed to three important committees. He is a member of the new Senate Committee on Aeronautical and Space Sciences established to consider aeronautical and space activities under the National Aeronautics and Space Act. The committee also has jurisdiction to review and report on activities in this field of all agencies, including the Defense Department.

Senator Case has also been active in seeking solutions to the growing problems of mass transportation, especially those confronting commuters and metropolitan areas. He is a member of the Senate Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce and serves on the Subcommittee on Surface Transportation and the Subcommittee on Communications. He has fought hard for fair play for commuters.

Senator Case is also a member of the Senate Committee on Labor and Public Welfare. The work of this committee embraces two fields, education and health, which have long been of primary concern to him. A member of the Subcommittee on Education, Senator Case is the author of bills to provide emergency Federal aid for school construction and to assist the States in planning and establishing community colleges. The ranking minority member on the Health Subcommittee, he has sponsored legislation designed to make possible expansion of coverage and improvement in the benefits provided by private health insurance programs. He is also a member of the Subcommittee on Railroad Retirement.

Liked By Editors

Newspaper editors have recognized him as an outstanding public servant. The Long Branch Record described him as "one of the most able legislators in the East." Express termed him "a thinking moderate who has compiled a most outstanding record." The New York Herald Tribune said here is "an up-to-date Republican of individual conscience and liberal outlook." The Philadelphia Inquirer rates him "one of the ablest men in Congress." The Plainfield Courier-News "recognized in him an honest and fearless Senator." The Ridgewood Herald-News said he is a "hard-working, straight-thinking, vigorous representative of his State."

Girl Scout Council Gives 1959 Activities Report

In an annual report to the community for the year 1959, the Girl Scout Council of Westfield, N. J., reported a membership of 19,785. This included 15,615 Girl Scouts and 4,170 adult volunteers. The report was made up of 6,074 Brownies, age 7, to 10; 7,036 Intermediate Scouts, age 10 to 13; and 505 Seniors, age 14 and 17. The Scouts are organized into 807 troops located in 26 communities throughout Union County and parts of Somerset and Middlesex counties.

Describing 11 phases of general interest in Scouting, the report dealt with the special activities of the three classes of Scouts, stating that these activities "give young girls in their 'growing-up years' experience which helps them in later life to become happy and responsible women, useful and Dealing with camp activities, the report indicated that 5,535 youngsters, or 40.3 per cent of the Scout membership, enjoyed the benefits of life in the outdoors in 1959. During the year, the Council maintained two well-equipped residential camps, one in Sparta, N. J., the other in Middleville, N. J. In addition, the Council operated seven day camps in six communities and a primitive troop camp site in Clinton, N. J.

Model RR Club Is Being Formed

A new model railroad club is being formed to serve the Springfield area. D. W. Rice, 30-B Troy drive, Springfield, one of the club's organizers, states its purpose as twofold: to permit model railroaders lacking time or space for home layout to become active in the hobby, to build and operate a much larger and more realistic layout than is possible by a single individual and to enjoy fellowship in the hobby.

This is an unusual opportunity, as most new clubs must first find suitable quarters then start building from scratch. This club will take over an existing 30-foot by 38-foot HO layout with 875 feet of track and 98 turnouts already laid.

An organization meeting will be held at Wednesday, April 20, at 8 p.m. at 84 Oakwood drive, Murray Hill. Those interested who are still in school are requested to attend on April 27 rather than April 20. For further information, contact Don Rice, DR. 6-6128.

On Dean's List

Judy P. Vance, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Vance, of 37 Evergreen Avenue, Springfield, has been named on the Dean's List at Colby College, Waterville, Maine.

A Freshman at Colby, Miss Vance was graduated from Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, Springfield, and she is one of nine New Jersey students at the college to achieve Dean's List distinction.

illus. income. One per cent increase came from miscellaneous sources. The report stated, however, because the various chests and funds, as well as the Council's independent campaigns, fell short of their 1959 goals, $15,000, or 10 per cent of the total income, had to be supplied by transferring this amount from capital funds.

Out of its income for the year the report indicated that 46 per cent was disbursed for camping services and outdoor troop program, 25 per cent for activities to Scout troops, 11 per cent for administration costs, 2 per cent for fundraising programs, and 3 per cent for public information.

The report, which was in the form of a simple eight-page folder, is being distributed to the girls' parents and to community leaders throughout the Council's area, as well as to its entire adult membership.

Anyone interested in receiving a copy of the full report is invited to telephone or write the Council office, 201 Gray Street, East Westfield, Adams 2-3240.

FANWOODIAN IN EUROPE

Life Abroad as Seen by a Resident of Fanwood. MRS. DONALD FARLEY, JR. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Towle 58 Russell Road, Fanwood

Helping Refugees Last week, an American friend of mine here in Cambridge got a nice surprise. She received an engraved invitation from the Mayoress inviting her to a morning coffee hour to be held at the Cambridge Guildhall for the benefit of the World Refugee Year.

She presented herself at the Guildhall, paid her fee of three shillings (42c), and was ushered into the crowded room.

She was startled to hear her name boomed out by a resplendent attendant.

She was about to say, "What?" when it came to her that she was being announced.

Nobody could hear above the chatter, anyway. She went through a receiving line, shook hands with various dignitaries of the town and was introduced to the party.

As she made her way home, my friend mused that it had been an expensive cup of coffee. Three shillings for admission and another three shillings for the baby-sitter at home.

"Never mind," she thought. Perhaps her tiny contribution would help somebody, somewhere in the world, who was in a strange country far from home.

France has just put into effect a requirement that all automobiles entering the country must be covered by a least $100,000 liability insurance.

Dr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Gross, of 372 Meisel Avenue, have returned from a four-week trip to Israel and Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weber, of 600 So. Springfield Avenue, were host and hostesses on April 3 at a christening party of their grandson, Casey Stanek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Stanek, of 20 Laying Terrace.

MAYOR DIBUONO VISITS SPRINGFIELD

Union County Democrats have been spared the wear and tear of a primary scrap on a county wide basis this year except for the contest between Hillsdale Mayor V. William DiBuono and Westfield's Jack B. Dunn.

These two are battling the dubious distinction of facing Congressman Florence P. Dwyer this November for the Sixth congressional District seat.

Mr. Dunn has had a taste of Flo Dwyer's well prepared political atomic power in a previous November election and the fact that he is battling Mayor DiBuono for the right to test his strength again proves all the things they say about politics.

Mayor DiBuono, however, has another approach to this business of trying to beat the Congressman Dwyer.

He and his many boosters throughout the county believe a few faces in the county political picture, a new personality with considerable experience on a municipal basis, and a thorough study of the needs of the entire Sixth Congressional District, all these may be the ammunition necessary to upset the present incumbent.

Mayor DiBuono has been carrying his campaign to the people just as Jack Dunn has been doing—Monday through the end of the week in Springfield, speaking to business men, making hands with housewives and asking support in next Tuesday's primary from everyone on the basis of his qualifications and capability.

The DiBuono-Dunn scrap has been in the best tradition of Democratic politics all of which speaks well for the leadership of County Chairman "Jim" Kinneally, who manages to keep primary disputes down to a minimum.

It goes without saying that everybody, with ambitions for some office, wanted to have a place on the ticket but Mr. Kinneally kept it a happy family for the November elections.

DIFFICULT JOB FOR GOP VOTERS

With 10 names on the Republican freeholder ticket, it isn't going to be easy for political prophets to pick the three men who will win in next Tuesday's "battle royal" at the primaries.

This is the only real contest in the Republican primaries Tuesday on the Union County ticket—although there appears to be just as much interest in making sure Senator Clifford P. Case is re-nominated which shouldn't be a very difficult political trick.

The G.O.P. freeholder scramble, with 10 men seeking support, was the usual lukewarm campaign until about a week or 10 days ago.

Then there began to emerge certain signs of emphasis on the Pizzi, Pizzi, Matthews group which soon crystallized into "jump on the bandwagon" dimensions.

These three men represent a section of Union County—our part of Union County—which doesn't often have the consideration of the King-makers in politics.

Edward A. Pizzi is from Summit and is Township attorney in Berkeley Heights. Edward H. Pizzi is Mayor of Garwood and Philip E. Matthews is Councilman in Plainfield and an engineer with considerable know-how.

Or, perhaps, it is because these 3 names are on top of the freeholder list of the freeholder candidates on the Republican ballot. Whatever it is—the "Pizzi, Pizzi, Matthews" group has "caught fire."

Pastor Tells Easter Meaning

By Pastor L. Messerschmidt

Holy Cross Lutheran Church—The Christian, Christ's resurrection gives four blessed assurances.

First, the resurrection proves that Jesus is God. Only the Almighty could raise Himself from the dead, as our Lord did. Because He defeated the last enemy, death, by His resurrection, the New Testament asserts Him "to be the Son of God, with power," the Lord of heaven and earth; with the limitless source of help, guidance, comfort, courage you need.

Second, Easter proves that Christ is our Savior. Because Scripture triumphantly records, "Jesus . . . was delivered for our offenses, and was raised again for our justification," we have a living Savior whose self-sacrifice for the sins of the world has been accepted and acknowledged by His Father as the one, the only, the completely sufficient, the ever-valid, the all-embracing, the non-exclusive, the never-changing redemption of the race.

Third, the open grave proves that Christ keeps His Word. He promised to defeat death, and he did! Therefore, the Easter victory strengthens us with the assurance that when Jesus promises: "I will not leave you comfortless," "I will give you peace," "Ask, and it shall be given you," "Your sorrow shall be turned into joy," the sun will lose its light, the stars fall from heaven, and the earth dissolve beneath our feet—before one word of His divine pledges fails in its fulfillment.

Fourth, the Savior's return to life proves that those who cling to Christ shall likewise be resurrected from the dead. This is the plain yet profound promise, "If we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them which sleep in Jesus will also be raised, namely, to life with Christ."

On Easter eve, 19 centuries ago, the fear of death rested like an immense rock upon the great heart of humanity, but on Easter morn that weight of fear and dread was rolled away, and a risen Savior proclaimed to the world "the glorious fact of an immortal existence."
