ROUTE 78 REALIGNMENT was discussed by Congresswoman Florence P. Dwyer (R-6th Dist., N.J.) and Springfield Township officials at a meeting in Mrs. Dwyer's office Thursday prior to the group's appeal to Bureau of Public Roads Deputy Commissioner Francis C. Turner. Turner agreed that Springfield's case for shifting the present alignment of Rt. 78 and its interchange with Rt. 24 to a less-developed area of the Township deserved study by the Federal agency. Shown here, from left to right, are: Irwin Weinberg, Township Attorney; Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies, Mrs. Dwyer, Township Committeeman Howard A. Flammer, and Township Committeeman Russel W. Sibole.

Washington Promises To Help Town Fight Rt. 78-24 Alignments

AN EDITORIAL
No News from Trenton
The bureaucratic, public-be-damned state highway department in Trenton has built another out-of-reach section to its iron-curtain policy of giving out as little information as possible.
Springfield officials had gone to Washington last Thursday to ask the Bureau of Public Roads for some aid in moving the interchange of Route 78 and 24 which now slice through the Township's finest residential area.
Deputy Commissioner Francis C. Turner and chief engineer said Springfield's protests were reasonable. He promised to put in a telephone call immediately for State Highway Commissioner Palmer.
Rep. Florence P. Dwyer, who opened the important doors and made last Thursday's conference possible, also sent a telegram to Mr. Palmer requesting further consideration of Springfield's objections to the present alignment.
Monday a Springfield Sun representative tried to reach some official at the Highway Department offices in Trenton who could give information of whether or not the telephone call had been made; whether Congresswoman Dwyer's telegram had been received and what, if anything, is being planned as the result of Thursday's conference in Washington.
We finally did reach the publicity department. "There is no news here," we were told.
"Has Deputy Commissioner Turner telephoned New Jersey's Highway Commissioner Palmer?" we asked.
"We have no news in this department," was the reply. You will have to get any information regarding Rep. Dwyer's telegram from Mrs. Dwyer.
It could be that Commissioner Palmer is still personally busy with the Route 35 highway job to help traffic for the Monmouth Park racing season—and he wasn't available when the Washington call came through.
But the telegram from Mrs. Dwyer must certainly have been delivered.
Or, it could be, that State Highway Commissioner Palmer doesn't have time for matters pertaining to the Springfield Township officials have taken their case against being sliced up into so many pieces of highway pie to Washington.

The Bureau of Public Roads, through the deputy commissioner and chief engineer, has promised to do something about the present proposed alignment of the new highway Rt. 78 and its interchange with the new Rt. 24 right in the center of one of Springfield's fine residential sections.
Rep. Florence P. Dwyer, (R-6th District) not only helped open some doors and arrange for the meeting with Deputy Commissioner Turner but she sent a telegram to the New Jersey Highway Commissioner Dwight R. G. Palmer "urging delay" in any planned condemnation or construction of property in Springfield until a thorough review can be made.
Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies, Township Committeeman Howard A. Flammer and Russel W. Sibole, and Township Attorney Irwin Weinberg, along with Springfield Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies, went to a conference with the Bureau of Public Roads.
The Springfield officials presented their protests, pointing out that the State Highway Department, according to most recent alignments, has ignored all considerations of alternate routes and that a great deal of the residential area would be wiped out.
Deputy Commissioner Turner agreed that the Springfield protests deserved study and that he would immediately ask the New Jersey Highway Department to postpone any action until the matter was given careful consideration. Mr. Turner stated that these matters will be discussed with the New Jersey Highway Department but that the Washington Department would request the alignment change.
The Springfield officials pointed out that the alignment should be moved north of the Railroad Valley Railway near the Springfield Summit line in an area not too densely populated.
Two years ago, when the proposal for the new highway was first made public, the Springfield Township officials suggested an alternate route which would have taken Route 78 along the outskirts of Springfield, through part of Millburn, thus avoiding residential areas.

Rep. Dwyer Urges Road Boss To Make Full Study Of Springfield's Protest

Rep. Florence P. Dwyer is going all-out in her aid to Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies and members of the Township Committee in Springfield's battle against the proposed alignment of the new federal highway.
Mrs. Dwyer helped in arranging last week's conference with the Deputy Commissioner Francis C. Turner of the Bureau of Public Roads and followed it with a telegram addressed to New Jersey Highway Commissioner Dwight R. G. Palmer requesting "consideration" for Springfield's protests against the present alignment.
Monday, of this week, Mrs. Dwyer followed that telegram with a very comprehensive letter to Federal Highway Commissioner Bertram D. Tallamy of the Bureau of Public Roads "asking for a full study of Springfield's demands."
Dear Mr. Tallamy:
I want to express my appreciation to you, as Administrator, for the courtesy and cooperation with which Deputy Commissioner Francis C. Turner last week received a delegation from Springfield, New Jersey, headed by Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies.
I also want to offer this formal expression of my support of the alternative plan suggested by Springfield for the realignment of Rt. 78 as it crosses Springfield and intersects there with Route 24 as a major interchange. I have reviewed the Springfield situation at some length and it seems to me the Township's plan is an intelligent and reasonable and practicable means of avoiding serious harm to the Township. At the same time, it offers advantages to the Federal Government and the State of New Jersey in the form of estimated lower costs of acquisition and construction.

Local Red Cross Chapter Elects Eckle Chairman

The Springfield Chapter of the American Red Cross at the annual meeting of the Board of Directors elected Dr. Leonard R. Eckle as its 1960-61 chairman.
Dr. Eckle, 263 Northview Terrace, Springfield, has been active in the Red Cross work in Springfield for several years. This past year he served as vice-chairman of the Board of Directors and he has headed the Professional Division in the local fund drive for the past two years.
Other officers elected by the board are: Vice-chairman, Mrs. Carl F. Ledig, 138 Milltown Road; Secretary, Mrs. Harry T. Quinzel, 13 South Trivett Avenue; and Treasurer, Mrs. Charles Frey, 86 Salter.
The following Directors were also elected to serve three-year terms on the Board: Mrs. Henry McMullen, Mr. B. F. Newby, Mr. Walter MacCauley, and Mrs. Charles E. Dwyer.
Mr. Saul Freeman, chairman of the Springfield Civil Defense committee, requested that the Red Cross cooperate with the Civil Defense by providing a new shelter.
Mrs. Thomas Doherty reported that the Water Safety Committee was about to begin another busy season of work with the "Swimming Safety" activities. Mrs. George Bower announced that this had been a most successful and busy season for the First Aid committee. In addition to the First Aid courses reported in March, 63 high school students passed the requirements of the standard course in two sections taught by Mrs. E. E. Eames, Health Instructor at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School. Fourteen students from the Springfield police department and the Hot Rod Club received instruction in the standard course taught by George Bower and David Weinstein. Karl Schneck also taught two Junior First Aid courses to graduate 34 Juniors.
Mrs. Harry Quinzel gave the Home Service report. She stated that although the local Chapter has urged interested persons to contribute clothing to Chilian Relief through the local churches funds in the amount of $20 have been received. The Springfield Chapter further has purchased five children's jackets for the clothing drive as its contribution to the National clothing quota.
It was announced that the following Juniors are to be (Continued on page 12)

Board Reports On Zone Suggestions; Parents To Charter Buses?

The Board of Education investigated the Woodside residents' suggestion that the Sandmeier School be designated a junior-high school.
Leonard Lieberman had previously recommended this change on the grounds that this would save the town from the expense of another upper grade school or the conversion of the Sandmeier School in a few years.
This suggestion was studied in detail. The Board felt that first a need must exist for a second junior high school. According to available figures in 1964 the Florence Gaudinier School will have approximately 677 students. These figures did not take into consideration school population growth. The Board predicted a 25% growth in the next four to five years. Even with this predicted increase, the Gaudinier School will not be filled to capacity. In light of these facts, the Board decided there was no need for an additional junior high school in Springfield.
As for the conversion of the Sandmeier School to a junior high school, this would cost $375,000. The Board did not approve this suggestion.
The representatives of the Woodside area who were present at the meeting were quite concerned with the lack of lunchroom and bus facilities available to the children.
The special committee with the Board's concurrence stated that all children living over a mile from the school, and special exceptions, will be allowed to bring their lunch and eat in the school.
"Those children living 3/4 to 1 mile away from the school, and wish to eat in school, will be considered after a conference with principal and parents. The parents must show why the child should eat in school and not go home.
All children living within a mile from the school, with no reason for eating lunch in school, will go home.
As matters stand now, the teachers use part of their lunch time to supervise the lunch rooms. Some parents at the meeting asked if the parents in (Continued on page 9)

Officials Ask More Details On Widening

The Township Committee is awaiting some clarification on what the New Jersey State Highway Department plans to do in the proposed widening of Morris avenue and the elimination of the exposed trolley tracks through the business center.
Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies and other members of the governing body recently held a conference with Commissioner Palmer in Trenton at which time the Highway Commissioner agreed to having the State of New Jersey widen Morris avenue by cutting four feet from each side of the sidewalks and repave the entire roadway.
The resurfacing would cover up the exposed rails which have been responsible for a great many accidents.
At last week's regular meeting of the Township Committee a letter was received from Highway Commissioner Palmer relating to the proposed widening of Morris avenue but the information wasn't sufficient to have the governing body take any official action.
Under date of June 17 a letter was dispatched to Commissioner Palmer requesting "more details." The letter stated that "before official action is taken on the Highway Department's proposal, a complete study of the State's plans and financial arrangements is to be made by the Township Committee so that a public hearing can be arranged to present all the facts to the public."
Mayor Bonadies and the other Springfield representatives agreed with the terms of the proposal made by Commissioner Palmer during the Trenton conference but the Township officials want the details spelled out in writing by the Highway Department.
The understanding of the Springfield officials was that the State Highway Department would pay for practically the entire cost of widening and repaving except that the Township would have to be responsible for the repair of sidewalks along the stretch of highway.
Commissioner Palmer's letter to the Township Committee, dated June 3, and introduced at the last regular meeting, gave no specific information on what share of the costs Springfield would have to assume. The letter does say that "the sidewalk replacement would be included in the contract" to be made by the Highway Department with the contractor and provisions to be made for reimbursing the State by an agreement with the Township of Springfield.
Following is the complete text of Commissioner Palmer's letter to Springfield:
"This is related to the proposed widening of Morris Avenue through Springfield.
"Our forces have been authorized to commence preparation of plans for this work which will be brought to the construction phase using the next fiscal year.
"In order that you may have a picture of timetabling, we would like you to know that we are short-handed. Our forces will have to prepare the plans (Continued on page 2)

Takes Care Of 3 Rabbits

The only girl agricultural student at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School is the recipient of three small rabbits which were found in a fuz-and-straw nest. When they grow up, the rabbits will owe their nourishment and upbringing to attractive 14-year-old Beverly Johnson, 333 Milltown Road, Springfield.
Beverly already shares with a sister and three brothers a full-grown rabbit, a canary, parakeet, and an aquarium of tropical fish. The baby rabbits certainly won't be lonely.
After calling on her instructor, Adam LaSota, for advice, Beverly set up a feeding schedule consisting of milk, water, and Vitamin C dispensed from doll-size bottles. She plans to feed the rabbits until they are old enough to feed themselves; then Beverly will release them.

An Editorial

state highways. Bailing out the mis-managed and curious bookkeeping commuter railroads in New Jersey may be taking up all his time.

Mr. Palmer hasn't been present at any of the public hearings in this area when the new proposed highways were discussed. It is very possible he doesn't know that he hasn't any information regarding the many proposed alignments for the new highways.

Or, he just may be allergic to all highway engineering maps.
What Mr. Palmer and his highway department are attempting to do with Springfield's residential section could hardly be the result of any good planning or even fair engineering.

However, Mr. Palmer has succeeded in aligning Route 78 without going through his own Millburn—or even touching Mechanic street ratables.

Springfield has suggested an alternate route which would have saved some of the Township's fine homes by moving it along the border of Millburn.

Praise from the Press

The Daily Journal of Elizabeth printed an editorial in its issue of Monday under the heading "Re-examination of Route 78. As follows:

"Springfield may never move the projected alignment of Route 78, but it has been able to budge sundry highway officials of their established positions: That is more than numerous other communities have been able to do in kindred impasses.

"Route 78 is experiencing a stormy career across two-thirds of the Garden State. Despite its basic function in the 41,000-mile federal network and its importance to road-hungry New Jersey, its welcome has ranged from the snobbish to the bellicose. It still has Springfield, Union, Irvington, and Newark to traverse and storm signals are up all along the way.

"When expostulations to Commissioner Palmer and Trenton were futile, municipal officials sought official ears in Washington. Aided by Rep. Dwyer, the Springfield people won a hearing in the bureau of roads and a concession for a fresh exploration of the possibilities of a slightly different path.

"The burden of proof now rests on Springfield. If its concept of a more expedient course for Route 78 is convincing, the township doubtless will prevail. That is not a point to be determined by snap judgment; exact engineering facts and a comparative appraisal of property costs will be required.

"Any community rent asunder by a similar project will sympathize with Springfield—or Union, or Irvington, or Newark. Nevertheless the road must go through—especially 78—and it already has been retarded by design details, the opposition encountered in nearly every community bisected, and the delays that always haunt major jobs.

Springfield's desperate visit to Washington wasn't for publicity purposes. It wasn't a frivolous trip. Township officials have been knocking on the highway department doors for months and months. They have pounded on tables, begged, pleaded and demanded more information on the highway alignments. The public hearing on Rt. 24 was announced to Springfield with about 10 days to go.

Anyone who has taken a good look at the proposed alignments of the new highways as they slice through Springfield, cannot help feeling sorry for those home owners who will be uprooted by the projects.

Aside from the loss of ratables and the aesthetic possibility of cutting up Springfield into a highway pie, there appears to be no engineering consideration for the many vacant pieces of land available in the Township.

Even though the highway Department says "This map alignment is only preliminary, legal moves have already been made for condemnation and acquisition of property in Springfield. Perhaps, this is the answer. Could some "in-the-know" condemnation boys be active already?"

Commissioner Palmer and the highway engineers have ignored the suggested alternate route which could have saved a great deal of money to the State in condemnation and property acquisition.

Following is Mrs. Dwyer's telegram to New Jersey Highway Commissioner Dwight E. G. Palmer.

"In view of Springfield Township's serious problem with present alignment of Rte. 78 and proposed interchange with Route 24 in heart of commercial and residential area, I respectfully urge you to give fullest possible consideration to Township's plan for realignment of Rt. 78 and interchange closer to Springfield Summit line. I have been impressed with willingness of Springfield to accept the highways and interchange and with the apparent soundness and greater economy of their plan to relocate highway in less developed area of the Township. It is extremely important, I know you will agree, to spare any unnecessary disruption or destruction in the Township. I urge you also to delay any planned condemnation or destruction of property in Springfield until thorough review can be made."

"The local Springfield committee of the 'New Jersey Committee for a Safe Nuclear Policy' urges all persons interested in this vital question to attend the next meeting, June 28, at 8:30 p.m., to be held at the home of Mr. Zimmerman, 6 Pittsfield Street, Cranford."

"When plans are in the preliminary stage we will permit you to see them. When we know to what extent sidewalk replacement will be necessary we will give you that information."

"We are planning to include the sidewalk replacement in the contract under an agreement with Springfield providing for the reimbursement to the State of the sidewalk contract, a separate sidewalk contract may very well cost Springfield more."

CLASS NIGHT HELD
Senior Class night was a roaring success this year. Bill Franklin, Class president was the emcee and did a fabulous job. Entertainment-wise a success also. Eugene Becker was an absolute scream with his Shelley-Berman renditions and the Carusel Skit was well done. Harry Harth portraying Mr. Scoeca (Regional History teacher) led a group of senior boys in a bongo session. Ted Soriente was outstanding in his take off on Mr. Kropnicki, Bob Perrelli and Bob Wilson portrayed Bert and Harry Piel and were good also. Lenny Kappa read the class will and left all sorts of things to all sorts of people. For Mr. Klig we left an air plane, for Ralph Longo a bus window to make up for the one he broke on the class trip. For Mr. Harth an invitation. For get his hair cut and for Robert Williamson a free course at V.I.C. Tany's. And so the night wore on. Dancing was also part of the evening's entertainment and music was provided by the Starlighters, friends of V.I. Franklin's Fun was had by all. Yearbooks were given out that afternoon so they provided a source of interest.

GRADUATION
As a graduating Senior I feel quite differently about things than underclassmen. Right now I'm sorry about leaving and wish that I could have at least another month. I'll remember most, my English classes with Mr. Kaplan, Mathews, Kropnicki and last but far from least, Mr. Druckman. My math classes were a total loss and I'll be relieved to forget them. My German classes with Mrs. ... though I only took two years, I can still remember the grammar as well as the vocabulary. My gym classes were something to remember, with Mrs. Conley for four years, and my Senior Health class, who could forget. I'm sure all you seniors remember certain things too and maybe their similar to mine or exactly opposite. It doesn't matter, as long as there fund memories are as well as sad ones. This will be my last column and I want to thank all you readers who have given me encouragement and news to put in the article. I would like to especially

The Rev. Thomas J. McCann officiated. Mrs. Marie Losavio was soloist and Anthony Rustako, organist. A reception in the Park Hotel, Plainfield, followed the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, John A. Galloway of Rumsion. Her gown, of silk, was fashioned with bodice of Chantilly lace, was fastened with a tiered back ending in a chapel train. She wore a veil of French silk illusion attached to a crown of seed pearls, and carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Nancy Dow was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a gown and matching bow hat of pink silk organza. Bridesmaids were Miss Lois DeCunzio, of Scotch Plains and Miss Barbara Osborn, sister of the bridegroom. They wore similar gowns and hats, in-hue with the flower girls. Miss Mary Jo Dow and Miss Diane Osborn, wore gowns of pale lavender and headbands of fresh flowers. All the attendants carried colonial bouquets.

Best Man Robert H. Osborn served as best man for his brother. Ushers were William F. Austin of Fair Lawn and Lieut. Edward D. Roderick of Baltimore.

Mrs. Osborn is a graduate of Mount St. Mary's Academy, Watchung, and attended the College of New Rochelle, New Rochelle, N.Y. She was graduated from Katharine Gibbs School, New York.

Mr. Osborn, a graduate of Scotch Plains High School, received his B.S. and M.S. degrees in engineering from Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Report to the People

By FLORENCE DWYER

Despite the extreme provocation of the communist-led violence in Tokyo last week which resulted in the cancellation of President Eisenhower's visit to Japan, nothing will be gained by partisan recriminations, intemperate language or rash action.

Now is the time for patience, determination and the "long view."
The Japanese disturbances, I believe, point up three important facts. The communist world has stepped up its efforts to exploit local troubles and break up the free world alliance.

This alliance, supported by strong defenses and mutual security agreements, is more important today than ever. Nevertheless, there are inevitable limits to the effectiveness of any foreign policy. We influence our partners—and our opponents—by our own policies; but we cannot control them.

Since the end of the American occupation of Japan after World War II, we have followed a policy of close military and economic ties with our former enemy. As a result of this cooperation, Japan has become a key military bastion of the free world in the far Pacific.

Communist Exploitation
A minority of the Japanese people, however, fearing their country will be caught in a mutual security program needs, both economic and military. Instead of acting courageously and responsibly, the House simply passed the problem on to the Senate.

The State appears to be equal to the challenge. In the re-approval of defense appropriations, it acted decisively last week to restore a number of reductions earlier made by the House.

at such key defense posts as McGuire Air Force Base. I took the opportunity to visit McGuire-APB recently, shortly after the Bomarc missile accident there. While an official report on the accident has not yet been made, I was impressed with the determination of the base commanders to learn from the experience, to perfect the already detailed and precise techniques and procedures that keep the big missiles ready for instant use and yet safe in case of mechanical failure.

The entire briefing, in fact, re-enforced my great respect for the people who day-by-day accomplish the tremendous job of keeping the tremendous potential of the fighting potential of our bases.

There is a long road, however, between Congressional approval of appropriations and delivery of actual weapons to our bases. In the event of an emergency, we shall be only as ready as the men and planes and missiles actually located

Checchio Heads Group Supporting Flo Dwyer

An Independent Citizens Committee for Flo Dwyer is now being organized to help re-elect the Union County Congresswoman, it was announced today by Mauro Checchio, former Mayor of Scotch Plains and chairman of the group.

Among the officers of the organization are: Sam Levenson, Hillsdale, finance chairman; Mrs. Mary Montsko of Elizabeth, vice chairman for women; and Edward T. Kenyon of Summit, vice chairman.

Along with the announcement, Mr. Checchio extended an invitation "to all interested and concerned citizens of Union County—Republicans, Democrats and independents alike—to join a truly voluntary and independent campaign to keep our Congresswoman in Washington."

He continued: "Mrs. Dwyer has compiled a remarkable record of service to our people, of enlightened leadership on behalf of our County, and of effective work in the best interests of our country during her four years in Washington. Although she has achieved an enviable reputation as a Republican, she has done so by representing all our people equally, without regard to party affiliation or wealth or race or religion. She belongs truly to all of Union County."

Checchio, who is Assistant to the President of Personal Products Corp., a subsidiary of Johnson and Johnson, is serving his second 3-year term as Township Committeeman in Scotch Plains. A graduate of the University of Iowa, he also did graduate work at Rutgers and New York University.

Checchio has been active in the United Fund and the annual Hospital Appeal in the New Brunswick area and the YMCA building fund in Scotch Plains. He has also been active in sound government movements and has lectured to various communities concerning the need for good grass-roots politics. In 1957, he received the Junior Chamber of Commerce award as young man of the year.

Schaffernoth Busy With Chicago

Joe Schaffernoth, former Jonathan Dayton Regional High School baseball star and now a resident of Berkeley Heights, had his return to big league baseball spoiled when he was charged with a 10-7 loss to the Milwaukee Braves on his first appearance as pitcher for the Chicago Cubs.

Schaffernoth, recalled only a week ago Monday from Houston where he had compiled an 8-2 record, was sent in to replace Mark Freeman in the sixth inning and gave up five runs in two and two thirds innings. Although he was nicked for five hits, Schaffernoth struck out four men.

The Cubs' double header Sunday but in very short relief assignments. In the first game Schaffernoth pitched only one inning, struck out one man and allowed no hits or runs. In the second game, both defeats for Chicago, Joe was sent in as relief pitcher and hurled 2 and one third innings, allowing 3 hits, one run and one base on balls. He struck out 2 men.

Hogan Wins Unique Prize Lobster and Clam Bake

As a result of bringing in more new accounts from the North New Jersey area, Michael Hogan, 172 Mill Lane, Mountinside, has won the Fleetlite Lobster Bake Contest, sponsored by Fleet of America, Inc., Buffalo.

During the past month, Fleet of America, manufacturer of Fleetlite aluminum windows and sliding glass doors conducted the sales contest. The sales contest, itself, is not new, but the award—a lobster and clam bake for the winner and his guests—is unusual. In addition to supplying the food, the company executives handled all the cooking, dish washing, KP and even baby sitting chores. Quite a novel approach.

Each of the salesmen started with a handicap which was decided by their length of service as salesmen. Mr. Hogan started with more of a handicap than most of the salesmen, though. He just joined the company in March of this year. His obstacles did not thwart him as results show.

The Lobster Bake was held this past Saturday, June 18 at the Hogan home. The festivities began at 3 p.m., with approximately thirty guests, including Mr. Hogan's family and business associates in attendance. Working company executives included Robert M. James, Jr., General Sales Manager; Charles B. Hall, Regional Sales Manager; and J. W. Owens, Commercial Division Sales Manager.

Mr. Hogan was born in Newark, N.J. and was educated at Connecticut University. He previously worked for Fleet, he was employed by Ceco Products of New Jersey.

Gaudineer PTA Members Attend Training Program

The Union County School of Instruction presented a four-day training program sponsored by the New Jersey Congress on June 2. This course was designed to instruct, inform and inspire all P.T.A. members in meaning, policies, procedures, and implementation of the Parent-Teacher program as a whole.

Those who attended from Gaudineer School were: Mrs. Robert B. Jackson, president; Mrs. Norman Gierman, vice-president; Mrs. Henry Wilson, Budget and Finance chairman; and Mrs. Frank D. Biase, music chairman.

A program committee meeting was held on Tuesday, June 13. Present at this planning session were: Mrs. Robert B. Jackson, Mrs. Norman Gierman, Victor Bracht, Founder's Day chairman; Mrs. William R. Hillard, hospitality chairman; Mrs. Jerome W. Kraemer, publicity chairman; Mrs. Henry T. Gaudineer, chairman; and Mrs. J. Frank Jakobsen and Mrs. Jack Cowles, room representative chairmen.

AAUW Awards $600 In Aid & Scholarships

The American Association of University Women proudly announces that their first Scholarship Award winner is Nancy Farrar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Prescott S. Farrar of 706 Mountain Avenue, Berkeley Heights.

Nancy plans to attend Trenton State College with the $500 Scholarship awarded her. She ranks in the top 3% of her graduating class of almost 500 students at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School.

Nancy has participated in many activities thru out her high school career, some of which are: National Honor Society, Citizenship Institute, National Forensic League, Girls Athletic Association, Student Council, and she was class vice president in her junior year.

Carole Wywrot was given a grant of $100 by the American Association of University Women. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wywrot of 100 Mountain Avenue, Berkeley Heights.

Carole ranks in the top 7% of her graduating class at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, and has been active in the Slide Rule Club, Girls Athletic Association, Latin Club and the Future Teachers of America. Montclair State College is Carole's choice for her future education.

Scholarship Grants were the result of two major fund-raising activities of the Scholarship Committee of the American Association of University Women. They were a Barbershop Concert held April 1st and a Round Robin Bridge Tournament ending last week.

Kids, How About a Swim?

Swimming time has again come to Springfield and the "Learn to Swim" program is in full swing. Last week's children of Springfield patiently waited to sign up for the beginners and intermediate classes; the beginners class is now full with 125 aspiring young Buster Crabbes and Esther Williams. The intermediate class is still open and will remain open until July 1 when the swimming and playfield registration officially closes. Each swimming group will have more than 20-25 ment has been found to be the most satisfactory. The chilaren become acquainted with their instructor and place their confidence and trust in him. This feeling would not be possible if the groups were larger. If your child has passed his beginner's test, he may still register for the intermediate swimming group. Take advantage of this opportunity; children should know how to swim. There are a few tips that parents should remember before sending their children to the pool. The child should have a good breakfast. There is a stand at the pool that sells hot dogs, milk, soda pop, etc.; so parents do not need to pack lunch for their children. An apple, orange or other piece of fruit might be given to the kids to tide them over, but giving them thermos bottles or other containers might only result in their loss. It is not wise to give the child too much money before he leaves for the pool; it is often difficult to lure the child away from the stand, and the buses must leave promptly or else there is an extra charge for bus service.

connection with the P.T.A. could supervise the lunchrooms. The Board said that this plan had been tried prior to 1952 at the Chisholm School. The plan worked for a while, but towards the end of each year, the parents would lose their enthusiasm and the teachers again had to sacrifice part of the lunch time to supervise the children. In connection with the lack of proper bus facilities available, the Board, answering some parents, said there was no reason why the parents could not charter their own buses. For the town to have school buses, the bus transportation costs must be incorporated into the School Board budget for approval. The townspeople must be willing to pay for the costs. Those parents who will be driving their children, they will be able to pull into the driveway to get their children out of the car. Their will be proper police protection and adequate sidewalk facilities. The Township Committee, working on the Board's recommendation, said that the sidewalks will be ready when the school opens. The Board's consensus was that this zoning plan is the best for the town as a whole. The Building and Grounds Committee reported on the construction progress of the Sandrier School. The report stated that the school would be ready on time in September, even though construction is two months behind schedule. The following teaching appointments for the fall were approved by the Board: Miss Annette Palazzola at $4800; Miss Rose Marie Costallucci at $4800; Miss Jeanette Alfano at $4800; Miss Dorothy at $4600; Miss Carolyn Gilmartin at $4600. Robert Micali was hired as school psychiatrist at a salary of $8000. The Board approved the appointment of Miss Helene Kosloski as assistant principal of the Florence Gaudineer Junior High School. August Belotti and Jerome Roth, as a result of receiving their Master's Degree were entitled to a $200 increment, according to the Superintendent's report. This action was approved by the Board, raising their salaries to $5800. The Superintendent also announced that the annual Orientation Day for all school personnel plus individual building faculty is in the planning stage for September 18. The general session in the morning will center around a kick-off presentation for our 1960-1961 project self-evaluation of our school system. Robert Multhaup, Board member, is moving away from Springfield July 27; his letter of resignation was read.

 and have access to the details of the situation, I should like to point up a number of facts of the matter which convince me that the Bureau of Public Roads has sound grounds for requiring the New Jersey State Highway Department to revise its plans along the lines suggested by Springfield.

The Township of Springfield is a relatively small community, composed of approximately five square miles of territory. Most of this area is intensely developed and the Township has little or no room for expansion. The proposed location of routes 78 and 24, however, place Springfield in the unique position of being cut into three parts and thereby, from a community standpoint, disintegrated.

Moreover, the proposed location of E.A.I. 78 and its interchange with Route 24 will cost the Township an estimated $20 million in present and potential ratables, since the highways will force the condemnation of the Township's best residential and commercial property. Springfield's total present ratables are about $105 million, so that prospective loss would be great.

Similarly, the presently proposed location will mean that costs of acquisition of property will be extremely high. In addition, since this location would require a 30-foot elevation for the highway in addition to a number of bridges, construction costs will also be high.

Under the most recent plan advanced by Springfield officials both the Township and the State and Federal governments would save money. Springfield proposes that E.A.I. 78 be shifted by approximately 100 feet as it passes through the community. While this would lengthen the highway slightly, it would also shorten the length of Route 24. By this shift in the path of the highway and the area of the interchange, Township officials estimate about $15 million on present and potential ratables would be saved. Acquisition costs, accordingly, would be lower. Fewer bridges would be required and other construction savings would probably be possible.

I am sure you will agree that both the estimated savings from the Springfield alternative and the prospective cost to the Township of the present location would justify the immediate review of the situation by the Bureau of Public Roads. Furthermore, it is my understanding that the requirements of the law respecting the right of local communities to be heard in public hearing on their views about Federal-aid highway location have never met. While public hearings have been held in Springfield in 1958 and in 1960, State Highway Department officials insisted on limiting the hearings to the two highways individually. They refused to permit the Township to present its case against the impact of the integrated routes 78 and 24, and the interchange. In fact, it was only recently that the Township discovered an interchange was even planned.

I should emphasize that the Township is not seeking to avoid these two highways. They accept the need for them both as well as for the interchange. They recognize that the highways will have to be built through their community. All they ask is that the State and the Federal Government give serious consideration to the harmful impact of the present location and to the alternative location proposed by them.

Although I have been informed that, under its present plans, the State does not plan to begin general right-of-way acquisition for another three years, it does propose within the next few days to seek to condemn a major piece of property along the F.A.I. 78 route. The Township believes that if the State acquires this property it will have invested so much in the present route that it will refuse to reconsider the Township's alternative location.

Consequently, if serious study is to be given the Springfield alternative, it is vital that the Bureau of Public Roads this week request the State Highway Department to postpone property acquisition and any other similar activities until the study has been completed and a determination made as to the best location for E.A.I. 78 and the interchange with Route 24.

In view of the seriousness of the Springfield problem and the very little time available for action, I urge you most respectfully to institute an immediate review and, if, as I believe they do, the facts warrant a full study, to request the State Highway Department to postpone further action on this segment of E.A.I. 78.

Please accept my appreciation for your cooperation in this regard.

With kindest regards and best wishes, I am,
 Sincerely yours,
 FLORENCE P. DWYER,
 Member of Congress

New Field of Cancer Diagnosis Opened by Junior League Gift... A whole new method of cancer diagnosis, faster and more accurate, is beginning in the new 'quick section' tissue laboratory at Overlook Hospital as the result of a gift from the Junior League of the Oranges and Short Hills, Inc. The new diagnostic technique is called fluorescence microscopy. In layman's terms, it is a method whereby suspected dye-stained cancer cells fluoresce, or give off light, in a particular way, when viewed through a microscope with an ultra-violet light source. The League's gift of $550 to purchase the equipment needed for this new cancer detection method, was presented this week by Mrs. Edna H. Warren, president and Mrs. Charles B. Eddy Jr., treasurer, both of Short Hills, and Mrs. Guy Gabrielson Jr. of Summit, Board Member. Fluorescence microscopy is of particular value in a cytological examination for cancer of the cervix, according to Dr. John L. Tullis of Short Hills, Overlook Pathologist and associate director of laboratories. Overlook's statistics show the growing need for accurate and faster testing methods. In 1950 there were only 62 such cytological smears made. In 1959 there were 1,961 such tests performed. In the first six months of 1960, there have already been 1,690 such tests, indicating a 100% increase in a year's time.
