Murphy Lashes Out At "Undercover Activities" Of Mayor Bonadies

Who's Who Filled With County Info

"What's going on" and "Who's doing what" in Union County public life can be found in the 1960 orange-covered Who's Who directory issued this week by the county clerk's office.

Some 2,000 of these county digests have been published. They contain vital statistics, taxpayers in addition to pictures and biographies of nine freeholders who set county government policy.

This year's directory goes further than last year's in explaining the rising county budget over the 12 million dollar mark. It provides both a breakdown of expenditures and a page explaining the cost of running county affairs.

New census figures showing Union County's population jump of 26 per cent in the last decade to more than half million residents, and a table of municipal tax rates are among the directory's statistics.

Copies of the directory are available at the freeholder's office, according to Walter J. Mitchell, clerk to the board.

Douglass Honors Local Students

Douglass College has honored 218 of its students for scholastic excellence during the past school year by placing their names on the annual Dean's List. Dean Ruth M. Adams announced today.

Students from this area on the Dean's List are: Beverly A. Domacki, 1482 Fox Terrace, Mountainside, class of 1961; Judith Bodner, 52 Briar Hills Circle, class of 1965; and Barbara M. Buckalov, 36 Denham Road, class of 1961; both of Springfield.

To be named to the Dean's List, a student must maintain a high grade average. The exact marks required vary with the class year.

Two Ensigns on Cruise

Ensign John A. Remline of 2309 Mountain Ave., Scotch Plains, and Ensign John C. Thompson of 232 Linden Ave., Westfield, are serving aboard the tactical command ship USS Northampton in the Atlantic.

The Northampton is the flagship for the commander of the U. S. Second Fleet and Striking Fleet in the Atlantic. The cruise is part of the midshipman summer training program.

SCRAP DRIVE

The American Legion of Springfield announces that Sunday, August 7, will be the regular monthly Paper Scrap Drive.

Starting at 10 A. M. this Sunday morning, the Legion will go house-to-house in Springfield to pick up all scrap paper, newspapers and magazines.

Residents are requested to neatly in bundles at the curb in front of their homes.

Paul Murphy, Republican aspirant to the Springfield Township Committee, continued his sharply campaigning against Democratic Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies in a statement issued to the SUN, in which Murphy hits at what he terms, Bonadies' "undercover activities" on Board of Education elections, the Smith site for an elementary school and his (Bonadies) tax saving election campaign. Below is the statement:

"Election of a Republican candidate will eliminate partisan interference in Board of Education elections. By law the Board is non-partisan. The reason is to insure that political considerations never given preference over the educational needs of our children."

"Mr. Bonadies has a long record of undercover activity in school board elections and promises of school board action which he cannot deliver. The recent protest vote by the Woodside section is a result of one of his promises. He led those parents to believe that there would be no double sessions, and no hardship to their children, if the Smith site was defeated. The results speak for themselves. The resentment of these voters is completely understandable even though the referendum itself was for a good purpose."

"When the Smith site was originally chosen, there were bona fide disputes concerning the wisdom of the selection. It was primarily a matter that should have been left to the parents themselves. It was not the Mayor seized upon it as a means to delay school construction and thus create a fictitious tax saving."

"He became the undercover leader of a campaign to keep the old folks down on the farm, and save our children from the river. He successfully defeated a referendum. Immediately thereafter the old folks farm became a housing development. Presently, over thirty-seven homes have been sold on the unsafe location."

Harold Weber Answers Ad And Ends Up On The High Wire 60 Feet In The Air

"Wanted—Man to learn trapeze act. Strong, young, and free to travel." An ad which appeared in a Miami, Florida newspaper.

Ad Paves Way to Career "Who hasn't thrilled to the exploits of the men on the flying trapeze who fly through the air with the greatest of ease?" Harold Weber of Springfield was one of the many men who had watched with wide-eyed wonder those daring men and women who risked their lives nightly on the high wire.

He went one step further than most, though, he answered the ad which appeared in a Miami newspaper in March 1959. Now he too is a member of the select group of birdmen.

Harold, son of well-known local musician, Max Weber, was always interested in show business. He performed as a tap dancer, drummer, and singer in numerous night clubs, but the vision of the high wire was always before him.

This was the seventh time that the Goldbergs visited the Seville, Jack's two sons, Norman and Harvey, also came down for the sun and fun. Norman is all state football tackle and was given a four-year athletic scholarship to the University of Richmond. Harvey is a star pitcher of the Babe Ruth League. He pitched a one hit game to win the world series in Springfield.

Mr. Goldberg is sales manager of Venus Knitting Mill of New York City (Athletic Clothing for Champions) and is also director of sales Pitt-Bro, Inc.

Life guard, Thomas Doherty, 34 Washington Avenue, Springfield, brought the unconscious body of David Danner to the surface after the swimmer had lost his grip on the diving rope in the Rahway Park pool. After bringing the boy to the surface, Dr. James Dooley, 605 Inman Avenue, began artificial respiration. He was joined by a resuscitator crew consisting of Union County Park Patrolmen Frank Capale, Frank Meagher, John Casey and Edward Fitzgerald.

The boy was revived after 20 minutes of administration. He was taken to the Rahway Memorial Hospital where he was placed in an oxygen tent. His condition was reported good that same day, July 28.

The youth lives at 525 Terrill Road, Scotch Plains.

The Rahway First Aid Squad took the boy to the hospital after he had been revived.

The Scotch Plains boy was accompanied to the pool by two sisters, Mrs. Corrie Nichols, 45-40 E. Front St., Plainfield, and Sylvia Danner, 12, of the Scotch Plains address.

Swinging From Rope "Police said the youth, who could not swim, had been swinging from the shallow to the deep side of the pool shortly before losing his grip on the rope. The pool was crowded with teenagers and a sprinkling of adults at the time."

A pupil at Hubbard Grammar School, David is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Danner. His father is a real estate salesman.

Named "Mayor Of The Week"

July has been a big election-eering month and Springfield's Jack Goldberg was not caught napping.

While staying at the Seville Hotel in Miami Beach, Jack was elected "Mayor of the Week." The gentlemen selected are those of outstanding personalities and willingness to participate in all the activities available at the hotel.

This was the seventh time that the Goldbergs visited the Seville, Jack's two sons, Norman and Harvey, also came down for the sun and fun. Norman is all state football tackle and was given a four-year athletic scholarship to the University of Richmond. Harvey is a star pitcher of the Babe Ruth League. No Widening—Track Removal On Morris Ave. Until State Clarifies Position

Mrs. Speicher, Ex-Silent Screen Queen, Rules Life By Love And Fellowship

In this day of materialism, conformity, and the warped philosophic attitude of "everyone out for themselves," it is refreshing and heartwarming to meet someone who thoroughly enjoys giving; someone who lives each day to the fullest and anxiously looks forward to tomorrow.

The woman who reaffirms one's faith in the goodness of mankind is Mrs. Harry Speicher of Springfield. One could easily and quite truthfully say that her philosophy is echoed by Emanuel Swedenborg's statement, "True charity is the desire to be useful to others without thought of recompense."

Silent Screen Movie Queen "Many of the old-time residents probably remember this kind-hearted woman as "Anne Drew," silent screen queen. In those days leading ladies were known as "queens," not "stars."

Anne Drew traveled from New York City to California; from the New York stage to the world of celluloid in just two short years. Interspersed with the stage were modeling assignments with Montgomery Flagg and Arthur William Brown. Her lovely face and expressive hands adorned numerous candy boxes.

Wine Beauty Contest Her career started with the "Evening World" beauty contest held in New York City. The winner was to receive a year's contract with Charles Froman and the privilege of appearing in "Dollar Princess" with Donald Brian. Mrs. Speicher (Anne Drew) won the contest, latched onto a soaring star and was on her way to a sparkling career.

Becomes "Anne Drew" From New York, studio agents contacted Mrs. Speicher, changed her name to "Anne Drew," and brought her to Springfield.

Chuck started his career with the Cadillac division 22 years ago, after a short stay with the Graham Paige organization and, until he purchased Central Cadillac in July, 1957, had served as comptroller of the Cadillac division of General Motors and the Cadillac Tank Plant in Cleveland; general manager of the Cadillac division, Detroit branch; and assistant sales manager of the Cadillac division of General Motors.

Under Chuck's dynamic leadership, Central Cadillac sales of new Cadillacs have averaged

Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies today strongly insisted, definitely a part of their overall program. "Even on the subject of taking four feet from each side of the street," the Mayor stated, "four feet may be entirely impractical. We cannot honestly judge the merits without making a careful survey of the entire problem, which we plan to do."

However, continued the Mayor, "we cannot honestly accept the State's proposal until we get from Mr. Palmer a complete survey and a formal plan outlining the breakdown of costs and an accurate picture of just what the Highway Department plans to do."

The Mayor also made it quite clear that the governing body already indicated that it will take no official action until a formal public hearing is held and the public is given an opportunity to express its desires in this matter.

As part of the state's original proposal, they (the state) had asked that the town assume the responsibility of replacing the sidewalks. Mayor Bonadies stated to this point "In my estimation, the town should not bear the costs of replacing sidewalks; this is the complete responsibility of the state and commercial development of Morris Avenue.

Local Man Leads Central Cadillac To Success

In the short span of two and a half years, Springfield's Charles H. "Chuck" Smith has made Central Cadillac in Newark one of America's largest Cadillac dealers. This achievement was not difficult for the genial, hard-driving corporate executive with a solid background in the automobile business.

Chuck started his career with the Cadillac division 22 years ago, after a short stay with the Graham Paige organization and, until he purchased Central Cadillac in July, 1957, had served as comptroller of the Cadillac division of General Motors and the Cadillac Tank Plant in Cleveland; general manager of the Cadillac division, Detroit branch; and assistant sales manager of the Cadillac division of General Motors.

Kids Enjoy Scavenger Hunt; Irwin Indians Lead League

With all the preparations and excitement at the Springfield Playgrounds for last week's team championships, it is a wonder that the kids still had time and energy for the regular events.

The kids and the directors had a lot of stamina, though, and played their usual games and had lots of fun. More champs were named and more games were won by the various playgrounds.

IRWIN PLAYGROUND Spanky LaMotta's kick ball team was victorious over all other teams this week. Missy Sheehan, minus her arm cast, organized a winning prison dodge ball team. Brad Smith and Richie Falkin combined to win the Horseshoe Doubles Championship at Irwin Playground. Alan Gerber, Glen LeBeau, and Bobby Arnold have been outstanding boys for the Irwin baseball team this year.

Irwin Indians, Irwin Playground's league baseball team, went to the top of the standings this week as they beat the Henshaw Hurricanes. The big blow of the game was Stuart Falkin's game-winning home run.

Irwin Playground had four winners at the Playground Championships last week. The winners and Springfield Champions from Irwin are: Jimmy Cannon, boy's checkers; Kevin Sheehan, broad jumping; Butch Arnold, foul shooting; and Steven Siegel, boy's chess.

Irwin accounted well at the Championships finishing second in the final standings.

CALDWELL PLAYGROUND A scavenger hunt was held at Caldwell Playground last week. Teams were sent out to hunt for 10 items. The winning team of Gregg Anderson, Nino DelMauro, Roger Naumann, and Judy Smith returned first with all the articles to be found.

Craig and Nicola Mason placed second. Third place went to Bill Bosco, Chrissy Jo Landrigan, Tom Beer, Bill Schwab, Dorothy Quinle, and Joe Pepe. Caldwell Playground produced three champions at the Springfield Playground Championships. These winners representing Caldwell Playground are: Chrissy Jo Landrigan, girl's chess; Janice Hardgrove, hopscotch; and Linda Smith.

Henshaw Wins Playground Championship With 42 Points; Irwin Second and Walton Third

County Championship Next

Henshaw Playground won the Playground Team Championship this year with 43 points. Its nearest rival, Irwin Playground, had 36 1/2 points.

Regional Playground was the site of this year's Playground Championships. Each of the eight Springfield playgrounds sent representatives as a team to compete in all the playground events. The boys and girls, representing their playgrounds, competed for individual honors as well as a team championship. The winners in each event are to be cited as Springfield Champion and will travel to Elizabeth as a team to compete in the County Championships on August 10.

Champions were picked in the following events: broad jumping, tether ball, jacks, washers, paddle tennis, ring tennis, horseshoes, foul shooting, chess, checkers, and hopscotch.

Points were awarded on a basis of 5, 3, 2, and 1 for first, second, third and fourth place finishes.

Walton Playground had a total of 28 points and finished third. Last year's champion Regional Playground, gained 27 points and a fourth-place finish. Other playgrounds and point accumulation were: Caldwell, 20 points; Riverside, 16 1/2 points; Woodside, 13 points; and Denham Playground, 8 points.

Janice Hardgrove First Winner Janice Hardgrove of Caldwell Playground was the first winner of the day, as she captured the Hopscotch event. Robin Geiger of Regional was second in this event. Gerry Breeden of Walton and Perry Creede of Woodside finished third and fourth.

Jimmy Cannon, of Irwin Playground, returned a winner in the Boys' Checker Championship. Bob Schubert of Henshaw, Barry Wolf of Caldwell, and John Distefano of Woodside finished in that order after Jimmy.

Girls' Chess was won by Chrissy Jo Landrigan representing Caldwell. Ellen Nielsen of Regional placed second. Henshaw's Pat Feeny was third and Cynthia Sergi of Irwin finished fourth.

Don Buehrer, of Henshaw Playground, won the Washer Event for boys. John Brennen of Irwin, Craig Mattice of Caldwell, and John Shoeb of Riverside were the other finishers.

Sandy Geiger gave Regional Playground a championship in its quest to defend last year's championship. Sandy won the Jacks Championship. Betty Watkins of Walton Playground finished second to Sandy. Judy Genovese of Irwin placed third. The fourth place finisher was Rosemary Carter, representative of Denham Playground.

Tetherball Contests Exciting Frank "Chit-ehi" Monticello of Riverside Playground and Mark Muller of Henshaw put on an exciting finish in the Boys' Tether Ball event. "Chit-ehi" Monticello was the winner. Jim-

Mike Johnson of Irwin for third place.

The Girls' Tetherball event was just as exciting as the boys' event, as Debbie Garner of Walton Playground and Patti Monticello of Riverside fought for the championship. Debbie was the victor and Patti was second. Sharon Remlinger of Woodside and Diane Dreher placed third and fourth in the competition.

Kevin Sheehan of Irwin Playground won the Broad Jumping Championship with a winning jump of 7'3". Gary Remyler of Riverside took second place. Gary jumped an inch shorter at 7'2". Denny Leis of Henshaw out-jumped Regional's representative, Kerry Tympanis to gain third place.

Brother-Sister Act Win A brother and sister, Dale and Judy Leis, combined to give Henshaw Playground both the girls' and boys' championships in Ring Tennis. Dale Leis defeated Steve Piller of Irwin, who placed second and John Pike of Regional, who placed third. Fourth place finisher was Dennis Dreher of Denham. Marion Metron of Irwin and girls' Ring Tennis Championship. Linda Smith, representing Caldwell Playground, won the Checker Championship for girls. Linda defeated Mary Garner of Walton to gain the championship. Debbie Murry of Regional placed third and Leslie Herman of Woodside finished in fourth place.

"Butch" Arnold of Irwin Playground and Mary Franklin of Walton Playground were the winners of the foul shooting event. Butch and Mary both sank a good percentage of their shots and stand a good chance to gain victory in Elizabeth.

This year's Girls' Horseshoe Champion is Betty Walsh of Henshaw. Betty defeated Sherri Baldwin of Walton and Karen Fitzgerald of the Regional Playground representative.

Mary Fitzsimmons of Regional placed behind Judy Leis in the side in a very lengthy game for the championship. Jay Rosenberg of Henshaw topped Lee Stevens of Regional for third place honors.

 This concern with children in just another way in which Mrs. Speicher has shown her thoughtfulness. Both she and her husband are wonderful with children and want to share their village with them. When one realizes that the village was built by Mr. Speicher who has a paralyzed left hand, one is amazed by what he has accomplished. Mrs. Speicher is convinced that if he hadn't lost the use of his hand, he would have been a great artist.

 In addition to helping with the village, Mrs. Speicher is active member of the Country Oaks, a charter member of the Springfield Women's Club, and the Women's Auxiliary of the New York Society of the Panama Canal. Naturally she is a member of the Drama Department of the Women's Club. She has appeared in many plays and laughingly says that she always plays the mother or grandmother. But she loves this feature, because she gains many children and grandchildren in the town by playing these roles.

 Last year the Drama Group presented the "Silken Searf" at the Millburn Papermill Playhouse. And recently, the group entertained the Veteran's Hospital in Orange by presenting the "Powder Room" by Edith Sikorski. It was a great success and everyone enjoyed watching it and acting in it.
 "Spare Time" Filled
 With all of these activities, one wonders at the amazing stamina Mrs. Speicher has. She always has a spare moment in which to do someone a favor. If she isn't bringing baked peaches to an invalid, visiting and cheering up an old friend, or helping with the village, she is working on another pet project.
 Currently, she is collecting white sheets and white material for "Happiness Exchange," sponsored by "Big Joe," who is on WABC at 12 midnight. There are many ill people living on Turtle Island who desperately need bandages, so Mrs. Speicher is doing her part. She is also collecting clothing for orphaned children up to six years old and pencils for schoolchildren both on Port Au Prince.
 In between charitable acts, Mrs. Speicher took art lessons from "Russell" Post. She received so many ideas from Mr. Post that she will always be grateful to him. She also sculpts in her "free moments."

Summer in Spain—
 As we drove from Cadiz down the coast, I kept humming the song that goes, "Gibraltar may crumble, the Rocks may crumble..." Or was it "Gibraltar may tumble...?" Once we had glimpsed the Rock of Gibraltar, neither possibility seemed very likely. It rises sharply out of the water, looking forbidding, sheer, solid and precipitous as only an island of rock can. It is, of course, a British Crown Colony, entirely separate from Spain on one side of the Straits and Africa, on the other.
 As we drove through Spain toward it, we noticed that there were no road signs saying "So many kilometers to Gibraltar."
 that she has lived a full, varied and happy life. She has done all she could ever want to do and wants to spend the rest of her life helping anyone who needs her. A deep, abiding faith in God rules her life. Sir Thomas Browne's statement, "For this I think charity, to love God for himself, and our neighbor for God," describes Mrs. Harry Speicher appropriately.
 The former "Anne Drew" thoroughly enjoys helping people in any way possible. Her first thoughts in any situation are "What I can do for them," not "What can he do for me." She expectantly looks forward to tomorrow and enjoys today. No wonder she has the look of eternal youth.

that Queen Elizabeth had watched the apes from here. But we didn't see any until we stopped the car. Then they appeared from somewhere and looked at us curiously. They are tiny, bright-eyed monkeys about the size of cats—not the huge lumbering things I was somehow expecting. They leap around the trees, agilely, hitching rides on the roofs of passing cars. One hopped on Donald and tried to snatch his camera; another picked up some tidbits from the leaves and tossed a few to his friend.
 We watched them for half an hour and they watched us. Finally, we got back in the car and began down the rock again. There, beside the road, we saw two apes, huddled together. After a moment they parted and we saw a tiny, unsteady, spindly, furry new monkey between them. When the mother saw us, she whipped her baby up in her arms. Our baby called out delightedly and the father moved closer to them and put his arm protectively about them. He looked at us menacingly, so our family left his family alone on the Rock of Gibraltar.

Town Library Filled With Political Books

July 1960 — Presidential nominations of 1960 are synonymous. During the coming month the decisions made in Los Angeles and Chicago will be cited again and again.

To keep the public informed and to present the various points of view, books and magazine articles are pouring from the presses. As usual the Free Library of Springfield has a large collection of these books old and new. Beside the biographies of the leading individuals such as Stevenson, Nixon, Rockefeller, and Kennedy, there are many other books about politics and the history of politics in the United States.

"The Businessman's Guide to Practical Politics" by J. J. Wepthner, Jr. "Politics is Your Business" by W. H. Baumer and D. G. Herzberg. "The Politics of National Party Conventions" by P. T. David, R. M. Goldman, and R. C. Bain, and "Political Man" by S. M. Lipset are examples.

Other interesting titles are "The American Presidency", "Ordeal of the Presidency", "Hail to the Chief", "The Man in the White House", "Our Presidents", and "They Also Ran".

All of these books and many more are part of a special display prepared by Patricia Durr and for the exhibit hall in the library. This includes current magazines NEWSWEEK and TIME and a special report from CONGRESSIONAL QUARTERLY.

Davis Cup Aspirants Taught Art of Game

For the past five weeks on Wednesday and Friday mornings the Springfield Recreation Commission supervises two groups of interested boys and girls gathered for tennis lessons.

These youngsters were given a description, objective and history of the game. Also, the pupils became familiar with the various areas of the court and the various parts of the racket. Next the forehand and backhand drives were learned, followed by the service and volley. Then after receiving and drilling on the components, the pupils were put into actual game situations.

Those who showed outstanding potential were David Cohen, David May, Robert Smith, David Hitchings, Larry Johnson, Constance Soraka, Janet Sangler, Sharon Remlinger, Eileen Evans, Sandy Geiger and Bruce Jones. Peggy Kirby, Cathryn Evans, Jean and Bette Herman, Greg Jones, Ellen Nielson, Nancy Mumford, Marilyn German, Marge Bandrowsky, David Gibbons, Richard Johnson, Elaine Perlman, Carole Vortlangiere, Barbara Habian, Richard Johnson and Barbara Porter made fine progress in putting the skills into practice. Others who did well were Robert Shuberl, Linda Abrahamson, David Garcia, Rosemary Carton, Patricia Pfanner, David Gibbons, Mindy Schneider, Elaine Perlman, Richard Johnson and Linda Kalel.

With practice the above children should become fairly good tennis players in time to come — Happy playing!

In Case of Fire — An Escape Plan

Fire strikes without warning. Every two minutes fire damages or destroys a home somewhere in the United States. Would you know what to do if fire broke out in your home tonight?

There are definite steps you can take to be prepared, the National Board of Fire Underwriters reminds. To know how to escape could save your life and those of members of your family.

First, work out an escape plan. Be sure everyone in the house is familiar with it. And keep this procedure up to date.

If fire strikes your home, first get everyone out of the house. Then call the fire department. If the fire has gotten headway, the first two or three minutes after you discover it may be the most important minutes of your life.

Reunion For Lt. Col. Ambruster Unites Clan

Lt. Col. Watson Ambruster II, USAFR, his wife, the former Miss Helen Hutchins of Westfield, and their youngest son, Howard C. Ambruster, have concluded a monthlong reunion with the officer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Ambruster of 158 Forest Rd., former of Westfield.

Several family celebrations were held during the reunion. The lieutenant colonel and his wife, graduates of Westfield High School, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary. They were married in the chapel of Lehigh University on the day of his graduation with an engineering degree.

Also celebrated was the golden wedding anniversary of his parents. The elder Mr. Ambruster and his wife, the former Ursula Fawcett, were married in a suburb of Chicago in 1910.

Reunion For Lt. Col. Ambruster Unites Clan

The officer holds the rank of major while on active duty as an Air Force engineer. He has slightly more than two years to serve to complete 20 years of active duty. Stationed for the past several years at the Research and Development Command of the Special Weapons Center, Kirland Air Base, Albuquerque, N. M., he now is assigned to the Air Force Research Center at Hanscomb Field, Bedford, Mass.

He is co-holder of a U. S. patent for a purifying mechanism for gasoline and kerosene which he devised while on a special mission in 1951 at the Army Chemical Center, Edgewood, Md. It is in use, it is said, by the Air Force, Marine Corps and Army and purifies gasoline used in jelled gas and flame throwers.

During World War II, the officer served in Burma and China

and again was stationed in China after the war as a member of an Air Force instruction team assigned to the Chinese Nationalist forces. The family was in Hankow until the Red Army took over in 1948.

Lt. Col. and Mrs. Ambruster's older children, Watson III and Peggy, were unable to attend the reunion. Watson and his wife, the former Mary Powers of Albuquerque, recently became parents of a daughter, Leah Susannah, the first of five living generations of the family.

Peggy, who spent four years with her grandparents and was graduated in 1958 from Scotch Plains-Fairwood High School, was married April 30 to William Edward Walden of Pontiac, Mich. He is serving in the Army at Sandia Base, Albuquerque. His wife is continuing studies at the nearby University of New Mexico where she is an honor student.

Howard W. Ambruster, author, newspaper columnist, lecturer and former industrialist, also is an inventor. He assigned one of his patents to the government in World War II to relieve a shortage in arsenic for production of poison gas. Stockpiles of the gas were made and held for use in the event Hitler or the Japanese resorted to gas warfare.

Mr. Ambruster's career is recorded in the current volume of the National Cyclopaedia of American Biography.

The marriage of Miss Debra Ann Glenn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Glenn, Bryn Athyn, Pennsylvania, and Peter Owen Ridgway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Ridgway, 751 Belvidere Avenue, Plainfield (formerly of Glenside Avenue, Scotch Plains), was solemnized by the Right Reverend William Danbridge Pendleton in Bryn Athyn Cathedral on Friday evening, June 17.

The bride, given away by her father, wore a white taffeta gown, with chapel train, a finger-tip veil and pearl coronet and carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis, looped with strands of tiny pearls.

Miss Janice Glenn, sister of the bride, was the honor attendant. She wore a ballet length silk organza gown of larkspur blue. Shopping Centers Pull $ $ From Cities to Suburbs

In figures released this week by Drs. Lois and Samuel Pratt of Fairleigh Dickinson University, it was shown that suburban shoppers have undergone some fundamental changes in their shopping habits since the establishment of regional shopping centers, such as Garden State Plaza and Bergen Mall.

Using figures gathered in a three-year study of Bergen County residents, under the sponsorship of the Institute of Research of Fairleigh Dickinson University, the Drs. Pratt noted that in each year about 60 per cent of those interviewed said that their downtown shopping was reduced in some degree by patronizing of the shopping centers.

An index of use of the shopping centers was constructed on the basis of number of purchases, amount of dollars spent, and frequency of use of shopping centers. Using this index, respondents were classified into three groups: no use or little use, moderate use, and major use.

The minor users dropped from 47 per cent in 1958 to 33 per cent in 1959; the moderate users dropped from 40 per cent to 34 per cent, and the major users increased from 12 per cent to 33 per cent, thereby showing a clear trend toward greater use of shopping centers. Women shoppers also became more mobile in their shopping habits since the centers were established. Before the advent of the shopping centers they went to four different towns per week; on an average, whereas since the shopping centers opened, they go to five different towns or centers per week, to shop.

New York City experienced an even greater loss of suburban shoppers than suburban downtowns: Two thirds of those who had formerly used the city for most of their purchases, changed to some other place for most of their shopping after the opening of the shopping centers.

The Drs. Pratt observed that these former New York City shoppers did not necessarily change wholly to the shopping centers, however, but also used suburban downtown stores. "It is clear," said Dr. Samuel Pratt, "that the new shopping centers have generated a consistent back-to-the-suburbs trend in buying, whether in shopping centers, or older established downtown sections."

Dr. Samuel Pratt is dean of the Florham-Madison campus of Fairleigh Dickinson University, and was formerly chairman of the graduate department of business management of the University. Dr. Lois Pratt is an associate professor of sociology at Fairleigh Dickinson University.

TAKING CARE OF YOUR GARDEN

By Edward A. Cardinal

Now that the annual flowers are in full bloom many of our customers express regret that they didn't plant them when they had the chance. If you happen to be one of those unfortunate folk, now would be the time to scan the neighborhood for planting ideas. Note some of the beautiful arrangements as well as the color schemes. Note the fact that what you may feel as color clashes in wearing apparel is quite harmonious in nature. Note the various arrangements for edging as well as background planting. Make notes now, and file them away for use next spring. Remember, tulip planting time is only two months away, so don't procrastinate the way you did with the annuals.

Q: I noted the beautiful peonies this summer and want to plant some. What is the proper time?

A: Late September or October is a good time to plant because the roots develop rapidly at this time. Plant in well drained, fertile topsoil. Bone meal should be added to the soil, as well as lime if the soil is acid. Plants should not possess more than five eyes, or growth buds, and they should be planted so that the eyes are less than two inches below the soil surface to prevent chances of bud-rot. Peonies already established can lessen chances of bud-rot if the foliage is removed just below soil surface in the fall, and then buried or removed.

Q: When shall I start repairs on my lawn?

A: Two weeks either side of Labor Day is ideal. Merion bluegrass should be seeded in August if possible. If crabgrass is a problem—lose no time in applying, for usually two applications or more are needed.

Q: My azaleas have many pale green leaves growing at the top. Green veins show prominently. Is this chlorosis?

A: Most likely it is chlorosis. Add iron chelate, or an acid fertilizer.

Brown Loans Olympic Collection To Springfield Public Library; Includes Paavo Nurmi Autograph

With the arrival of the month of August, the attention of the athletic world and many of people not actively associated with athletics, will be focused on the 17th modern Olympiad, to be held in Rome, Italy, where representatives of many nations will compete for honors in track and field events, beginning on August 25th.

The first Olympic Games were held at Olympia, in Greece, in 776 B.C. and were repeated every four years until about 393 A.D., when they were terminated by the decree of a Roman Emperor. In 1896, the Olympic Games were resumed through the efforts of a Frenchman, Baron Pierre de Coubertin, and the first of the modern series was held at Athens. Although there were no organized teams at that time, the United States was well represented and the Americans carried off most of the honors. Since then, athletes representing this country have won many of the gold medals and have set many new records in the Olympics.

Through the courtesy of David Brown, 22 Redwood road, Springfield, the Museum of the Springfield Library is privileged to exhibit autographs and pictures of some of the gold medal winners in past Olympics, two of them from the first of the modern games in 1896. These items are part of a collection of 305 autographs assembled by Mr. Brown over a period of more than 25 years. Among the most highly prized are the signatures of Paavo Nurmi, the world famous "Flying Finn," whose phenomenal record of Olympic victories began at Antwerp in 1920, and of Jesse Owens, the great Negro sprinter from Ohio State University who won three events for the U.S.A. in the presence of Herr Hitler, in Berlin in 1936.

Probably because he was a track man himself, beginning at high school in Wildwood and later running at Rutgers University and in A.A.U. events, Brown's interest has been more or less concentrated on Olympic track and field winners. He has made a hobby of gathering data on the Olympic Games and is something of a walking encyclopedia on the subject.

For those not so well informed, the Library offers a book, "The Story of the Olympic Games - 776 B.C. to 1956 A.D." by John Kieran and Arthur Daley, which gives an interesting account of each of the modern Olympiads and includes the records of all winners. There is only one copy - first come, first served.

The Director of the Free Public Library, Springfield, wishes to point out that the above article was written by Mr. Donald Palmer, Curator of the Library. Mr. Palmer is well known for his splendid exhibits and this one located in the special museum room on the second floor of the library is up to his usual standard.

Minutemen Win 12 to 7; Beat Mountainside Team

The Springfield Minutemen beat the Mountainside Suburban Recreation League team 12 to 7 last Tuesday evening.

An eight run fifth inning clinched the game for the Springfielders. Minutemen "Butch" Bellon, Mike Pissano, and Dick Oakrazinski contributed solid hitting and helped lead the team to victory. Jack Appgar's triple with the bases loaded started the spark. Another outstanding hitter was Barry Becker with three hits.

Harvey Goldberg was the starting pitcher, but he was pulled from the game when Mountainside scored four runs in the third inning. Steve Berger pitched scoreless three innings, to get the Minutemen out of the jam.

Mountainside players who excelled included Huehn, four hits; Nako and Blythe, both triples; and Sauerberger, one hit.

The starting line-up for Mountainside was third base, Huehn; first base, Nako; pitcher, Rico; centerfield, Blythe; short stop, Doyle; second base, Sauerberger; right field, Mandey; and catcher, Schaffer.

The Minutemen had 12 hits and scored 12 runs. Mountainside accumulated 9 hits to score 7 runs.

After winning this game, the Springfield Minutemen are now in third place in the Suburban Recreation League.

Suburb Life Kills Trees

Backyard trees may be backward because of you. Your intentions may be good but your actions harmful to your woody pets. Among the things that cause tree casualties in casual suburban living are automobiles, moving, or parked, says H. I. Spelacy, field representative of the Davey Tree Expert Co.

The gasoline and oil that keep cars running are a great menace. Carelessly spilled over root areas, petroleum products spell immediate and long time repercussions. As a powerful herbicide, petroleum will kill plants almost on contact. Even worse, petroleum saturated soil may remain sterile for months or even years. Careless driving that scrapes or bumps driveway trees also takes a big toll. Bark breaks are open invitations for invasion by insects and diseases. And trees se-

It's The Law

DRIVER VS. MECHANIC.

After many accidents, especially where one car strikes the other in the rear while stopped, there is a phrase which is often used but not fully appreciated. One asks, "What happened?" The other answers, "My brakes failed." In many of these situations, a dealer can be held liable as to bodily injury or property damage suffered by third parties. Of course, the time element is important in this type of case. A garageman who undertakes to repair the brakes of a car for his owner can be held accountable for negligence caused by a failure of the brakes soon after repair, so long as proof can be shown that the owner of the car did nothing out of the ordinary in the handling of his car which could be attributed to a breakdown. Courts have held that a garageman making repairs is duty-bound to exercise reasonable care not to cause damage to persons or property likely to be endangered by the use of a defective vehicle. Aside from the fact that a garageman can be held liable for the negligent act, he can also be held on the theory of breach of a contract to repair. Naturally, a case where soon after the repairs the owner leaves the garage and on his way home strikes the rear of another car or the side of a building, causing damage to third parties as well as himself, is much stronger than one where after a lapse of time the same facts occur. It is usually for a jury and the testimony of experts in the field of mechanics to spell out liability based on all the factors mentioned.
