Safeway Blaze Starts in Attie; Equipment Ignited

Air Conditioning Motor Cause of $400,000 Fire

The dramatic $400,000 blaze which completely destroyed the Safeway supermarket at 727 Morris Turnpike, Springfield, last September 2, started in the motor of air circulating equipment located in an attic room, Fire Chief O. W. Mesker stated.

Chief Mesker stated that the equipment is part of the air conditioning system, but the cooling unit was turned off at the time the fire broke out. Only the fans were working.

He added that at least three fire calls were placed in the nine years the store was in operation, reporting fires in the refrigerators' freezers and iceboxes.

These fires were detected before they got a good start because the smoke drifted quickly down stairs to the main floor. But the air conditioning equipment is located in a closed room and by the time smoke and flames broke out of there, the fire was blazing fiercely, Chief Mesker said.

The blaze was reported at 7:41 p.m. when several persons saw smoke coming from the roof. Shortly after, 100-foot-high flames erupted from the roof and by eight o'clock, it had fallen in.

Chief Mesker said the fire must have started at least 90 minutes before the roof caved in because it would take that long for flames to eat through the 12-inch beams holding up the doomed structure.

Safeway officials were reported, unofficially, to be seeking the exact location of a new highway which will cut through the area, in order to permit them to start plans for rebuilding.

Officially, there was no statement from Philip Agosta, store manager, on plans for rebuilding. He said the store's 30 employees have been placed with other Safeway stores in the area. None is out of work.

Pick Dorsky For Managerial Post

LAWRENCE DORSKY

Lawrence R. Dorsky has been named to the newly created post of manager of quality control for the Remington Rand Systems division of Sperry Rand.

Mr. Dorsky, a native of New Jersey, now lives in Springfield, with his wife and two sons. He was graduated from the Newark College of Engineering with a degree in electrical engineering, following service during and after World War II as a member of the citizen's advisory committee to the Board of Education in Springfield and active in several trade associations, including the American Society for Quality Control.

Remington Rand products manufactured at the division's ten plants include the famed Kardex and other visible records systems, vertical filing equipment and supplies, wood and steel office furniture, printed forms, fire-resistant record keeping equipment, and furniture and equipment for public and private libraries.

Bonadies Slams Murphy's Mud-Slinging Campaign

Town Challenged

A letter was received by the Springfield Township Committee from the Mayor of Springfield, Missouri. The letter issued a challenge to Mayor Vincent Bonadies.

The mayor from the other "Springfield" challenges "this Springfield" to compete with other "Springfields" (gets confusing) all over the nation to see which town can increase its 1955 voting turn out.

Mayor Bonadies accepted the challenge, but said that Springfield always has a good voting turnout. He further said that 82 per cent of the eligible voters voted in 1958. It would be pretty hard to beat that record.

Springfield is never one to turn down a challenge, though, and this one was accepted enthusiastically by the Committee.

Bonadies Promises To Hold Down Taxes

A campaign rally of Republicans and Democrats heard Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies formally launch his campaign for re-election last night by branding Paul T. Murphy "a political opportunist candidate who has been handpicked by the past political administration here, the same political forces that were rejected at the polls for years of indifference to runaway taxes, and arrogant leadership."

Bonadies pledged his dedication to continue the present administration's progress in holding down municipal taxes and challenged Murphy to compare this record with the years of spiraling taxes under Murphy's political backers.

The mayor stated: "Springfield's new administration represents the vigorous and spirited leadership that we fought for to replace the arrogance and indifference that Murphy's political organization would like to bring back to our town hall. But he won't succeed. Springfield wants to keep progress going — not to destroy it."

Murphy has finally admitted the only reason he is running for political office is to give political representation to this past rejected administration. However, the people of Springfield demand more than political priority representation.

"Without a single issue upon which to conduct this campaign, Murphy continues to dodge the principal issue — namely, his complete failure to reveal a single constructive program he has ever placed before the community or why he has never shown sufficient interest in our community to attend any meetings of the governing body."

Attorney Heads Kenny Appeal

IRWIN WEINBERG

Irwin Weinberg, a practicing attorney for ten years and member of the firm of Cohen & Weinberg, 26 Morris Avenue, Springfield, is serving as Springfield chairman for the current Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation fund appeal, which continues through September 30.

"Kenny patients in New Jersey, those unfortunate with polio and other crippling disabilities, are facing a crisis," Mr. Weinberg said. "The present Kenny facilities in Jersey City Medical Center may be curtailed or even cancelled unless this fund appeal is successful. That would change the future of all patients now being treated there. Certainly we don't want that to happen."

Mr. Weinberg resides at 190 Lelak Avenue, Springfield, and is the father of three children.

Issues Challenge Based on Service To Springfield

Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies declared today that "political opportunist candidate Paul T. Murphy's campaign of smears and mud-slinging against anyone and everyone whose name he can cram into print carries the mark of those inexperienced and unqualified office seekers who have been rejected at the polls each year for offering Springfield nothing while promising everything."

Bonadies described Murphy's campaign of mud-slinging as creating widespread and mounting indignation throughout Springfield and reflecting in a pattern of invective that uses personal attacks as its chief weapon.

"To date," Bonadies stated, "we have seen these personal attacks and mud-slinging by Murphy against our police department, our Board of Adjustment, our Planning Board and numerous other municipal personnel and residents of Springfield who have become targets of a man driven by his ambitions for public office."

Bonadies added: "While Republicans and Democrats have joined in our community in a bipartisan fight against the threat of the Federal Highway, Murphy was so busy exploiting the highway to gain votes, he did not even attend the two public hearings on the highway; while Murphy continues to politically exploit our police department, he does not even know the name of our Police Chief; while Murphy attacks municipal progress and everyone and anyone who challenges his qualifications to serve in public office, he offers nothing but lip-service to our community."

"Where is Murphy's record of civic participation? He has failed to mention it only because he (Continued on Page 2)

Scavenger Contract To EO Firm

The James Petrozello Company of East Orange will receive the scavenger contract which will be awarded by the Springfield Township Committee, it was announced at the Committee's meeting Tuesday evening.

Mayor Vincent Bonadies stated that "It was evident from the two bids submitted that James Petrozello was the lowest and best qualified bidder." The other concern to submit a bid was the LaFera Contracting Company of Newark.

The Petrozello Company offered $337,777.77 for the contract in addition to $2,000 for every 100 new residences in the town after the contract becomes effective.

The contract to the Petrozello Company was not official because the complete township committee wishes to study further the bid and determine what categories should be awarded. The scavenging company was offered seven different proposals that covered periods from one to five years, including alternatives for Clean Up Week.

Grabarz Sues For Building Permit Here

Springfield's Township Building Inspector Robert J. Pellegrino and the Township Committee are named in a suit to force the granting of a building permit to Henry and Elizabeth Grabarz of 381 Baltusrol Avenue, for the construction of a restaurant in Morris Avenue, Springfield.

According to the suit, Building Inspector Pellegrino denied a permit to Grabarz on the grounds that the plans submitted were for a diner. This, the building inspector said, is not permitted in Springfield. This action was taken August 26.

Mr. Grabarz contends that his plans for building on the property at 188-200 Morris Avenue, Springfield, is not in violation of any zoning or building codes of the township. The property in Morris Avenue, according to Mr. Grabarz, is leased to the Union Queen, Inc. of Park Square Building, Morristown.

Township To Hire Planners

The final hearing on the sidewalk ordinance, providing for the installation of a sidewalk on the east side of Springfield Avenue, from Evergreen Avenue to New Brook, was held at the Springfield Township meeting Tuesday evening.

The sidewalk is to be installed prior to the opening of the new Shelma L. Sandmeier School. The money appropriated for the construction is $25,000. Bids will be received on September 27.

The Planning Board sent a recommendation to the Township Committee that the Candeb, Fleissig, and Associates of Newark be hired as master planners for the Township of Springfield.

The Board and Committee think that if and when the highway program comes, the town will need help with zoning and planning.

This concern will comprehensively study populated density, school problems, economic growth, traffic, adequacy of municipal facilities, etc.

Springfield will receive 50% of the necessary funds needed to employ the Candeb firm the State and Federal government; the remaining 50% will be paid by Springfield.

Kids Raise Money For 1st Aid Squad

The Springfield First Aid Squad fund-raising campaign is now on and two local youngsters wanted to do their share in contributing money to this worthwhile organization.

What better way to raise money than to have all-purpose stand set up in front of a house. This is exactly what Susan Lanes and Toni Kalem did. They made lemonade, gathered up all their comic books and found some small knick-knacks and proceeded to sell.

The children collected $1.04 for their efforts. The money was then promptly turned over to Toni's father, Mr. Daniel Kalem, who is president of the Springfield group.

Both Susan and Toni are fifth grade students at the Raymond Chisholm School. Susan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jules Lanes, 205 Hawthorne Avenue, and Toni is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Kalem, 174 Henshaw Avenue.

Reservists Sworn in

On Monday night in the Springfield Municipal Building, five members of the Springfield Police Reserve were officially sworn in as reserve patrolmen by Magistrate Henry C. McMullen.

The newly-sworn reservists are Harold Liebeskind, Fred Punigam, Anton Bremez, Herbert Meisel, and John Slohoda.

After the ceremony the new men, with other members of the unit, observed the Municipal Court in action.

The Springfield Police Reserve of which the new men are members, is an adjunct of the Springfield Civil Defense Corps and its members are attached for training purposes to the Springfield Police Department.

Any residents of the Township over the age of 21 years interested in joining the unit are asked to call Captain Seidel, at DR-1067, or they may attend any monthly meeting of the group. The group meets the first Tuesday of each month at 8 p.m. in the basement of the Municipal Building.

New Deadline

We are making a few changes, that we hope will benefit you, as well as the staff of the Watchung Weeklies.

The deadline in the past for submitting articles in our field offices has been noon, Tuesday. This has been changed — the new deadline will now be, Tuesday, 11:00 A.M.

There will be an exception to the new deadline. Clubs holding meetings on Monday, may not be able to meet the earlier deadline, articles will then be accepted under the noon deadline. This usually involves Church service schedules, and PTA news.

We also request that all articles be typewritten, not long hand. The staff hopes that the new time will not inconvenience you, and that we will continue to give you organization coverage that is expected of us.

Building Permits Over $1,213,000

Springfield has had a total value of $1,213,100 in new building permits for this year which includes $110,000 for the month of August, according to a report filed by Building Inspector D. Pellegrino.

The report shows a total of 26 permits for the month of August and 198 so far for 1960.

There was also a total value of $13,510, for alterations which brought the total for the year to $1,226,610. Oil burners were installed in August amounting to $11,100, bringing the year's total for this operation to $70,147.

One item in the list of permits issued for the month of August was a sign permit for the Rayco Seat Covers for its new location on Route 22, the value of which is shown as $16,000. The American Oil Company is shown as having a permit for a gas station at the S.W. corner of Morris and Meisel Avenues valued at $20,000.

Murphy Denounces Mayor's Changing Face and Memory

Forgets Issues After Election

Paul T. Murphy, Republican candidate for the one vacancy on the Springfield Township Committee, aimed another barrage against his opponent, Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies, in a statement released yesterday.

Mr. Murphy confines his latest statement to Mayor Bonadies' personal activities in Springfield's affairs, as follows:

"It is impossible to follow the twists and turns of Mr. Bonadies in an election year.

"This year, he is the elder statesman after two terms of office. The previous two terms, he was the 'New Look' and the 'bipartisan' and 'anything goes, if it produces votes.' This is nothing new in a Bonadies campaign. One year, it was his distasteful duty as a public-spirited citizen to fear for the health of our children.

"In 1958, our Mayor said: 'I don't like to introduce such a forward looking health program during a political campaign . . . but there is nothing more important to Springfield . . . Such a health project will cost approximately $6000 a year but both Moran and I will turn over our full salaries as Township Committeemen to help meet the cost until the Township provides for maintenance in the budget.' "With this dramatic announcement, our Mayor launched his Baby Keep Well Station. Seven years later, he has yet to turn over his salary or any part thereof for this purpose. The statement was designed to grab a few votes and then be forgotten.

"Last week, he expressed concern for my lack of experience. He knew this statement was false. He hoped it would garner a few votes. Mr. Bonadies knows that my experience is far superior to that which he offered when he first sought public office. He knows that each member of the Township Committee is serving his first term and that prior thereto they had not served on the Committee.

"He knows that the next Mayor will be Mr. Lucy, Mr. Flammer, or Mr. Spole, or Mr. Ballentine, not me.

"Knowing all of these things, our Mayor expresses concern for the welfare of the community if left in the hands of his four colleagues and one minority member. This demonstrates a shocking lack of confidence in his fellow (Continued on Page 3)

The book was published in 1959 by The Education Publishing Corporation which also publishes "The Grade Teacher" magazine. Camp counselor for 5 years Miss Gilmartin also taught Sunday School for three years and was a Brownie troop leader for two.

Town Cleans Up After "Donna"

The Shade Tree Commission had three full crews working on Monday evening, clearing the "Donna" damage.

Their work will continue throughout the week, for there is no wrath such as a woman's wrath. The Commission reported that over 55 trees were downed by the storm and over 100 trees were partially down. Many of these trees will be able to be saved, for they can be replanted.

There were few power line failures.

Many residents called the Commission to take care of downed trees on their property. And many residents were annoyed when told that the tree was not the concern of the municipality. This is the story. If the tree fell towards the street, away from private property, the Commission will clear it. But if the tree fell onto private property, it is up to the private homeowner to clear it. On the other hand, if the downed tree was planned by the boro along the curb, the Commission would again come to the resident's aid.

So, get some elbow grease, borrow an axe or saw and get to work. "Donna" gone for good.

More Than Dancing Taught At Miss Bunny's School

Most children are born performers; they enjoy being the center of attention and receiving applause for their achievements.

Parents usually wish to direct their children's talents into the proper channels—which means "Dancing School." But there are dancing schools and there are dancing schools. Many school may quench a youngster's desire to dance and to have fun by treating him as a robot. Other schools treat their pupils as human beings, teach them dancing as an art form, and help make ladies and gentlemen of them.

Learn An Art Form

Miss Bunny's School of Dance, 549 Mountain Av., Springfield, falls into the latter category. The school's main aim is teaching the dance as an art form. But the children learn more than dancing; they learn proper social graces and how to act as "little ladies and gentlemen."

Approximately 140 children, starting at age four, are annually enrolled in the school. Since Miss Bunny believes that small classes are essential in order to properly instruct each individual, there is a long waiting list of youngsters every year.

Miss Bunny recommends that all pupils take the standard class upon entering her school. In the standard class the children receive instruction in ballet and tap. The children are grouped according to their ability, not necessarily age. Of course, the instructors do try to place approximate age groups together. A child may be transferred two or three times until the best place class is found for him. If a child excels within a group, he may be placed in a more advanced group where he will have to strive more. Switching children from group to group eliminates swelled heads and literally keeps a child "on his toes."

Everyone Dances

Every child participates in recitals. There is just one actual recital in June. At Christmas, the children perform in an informal manner, wearing leotards. Throughout the year they perform for benefits and donate their services and talent to numerous charitable organizations. They are contracted four times a year at the East Orange Veterans Hospital to entertain the patients. The children are also registered on the paid entertainment list.

Once a month the school has Visitor's Day when parents are allowed to come and watch classes in session. In the under seven class, the children learn something special for their parents. In the other classes, the children go through their regular exercises.

Learn French

Each child keeps a French notebook in which he writes down the French terminology for his dance steps. The children fill in their own explanations of the steps and Miss Bunny and Miss Carol, another instructor who happens to be a former pupil of Miss Bunny's, correct the notebooks periodically. Since all the ballet classes are conducted in French, the notebook is invaluable to the child in refreshing his memory. The children also learn a song "I'm taking Ballet Lessons" which demonstrates what they are learning. While singing the song, the children act out the various terms.

Many Awards

Miss Bunny presents awards annually to the children. The biggest award is the "Honey Cup" which is given for ballet and tap. It carries with it a one-year scholarship to the school. There are two divisions: one for those under 10 and one for those over 10. The children who compete for this award must have completed at least two years of instruction under Miss Bunny. This cup is not given for talent; it is a reward for effort, drive, conscientiousness, and accomplishments and incentive.

The "Talent Trophy," given for genuine talent and outstanding achievement, is not presented annually. Two children receive this award only when Miss Bunny feels they deserve meritorious recognition.

The "Annual Honorable Mention Award" is presented to a pupil in recognition of progress and effort. It consists of a gift certificate donated by a dancing equipment outlet store.

Acrobatic and twirling charms are given for noteworthy accomplishments in these fields.

Miss Bunny has four junior assistants, selected from the Starlets Group, who receive partial tuition to the school in exchange for their services. These girls are carefully selected on the basis of their ability and work hand-in-hand with Miss Bunny and Miss Carol.

In addition to having fun, attending dancing school has great therapeutic value. Dancing has changed the lives of retarded children and disabled children. Through dancing they gain confidence in their ability and are able to overcome many anxious moments.

The "Starlets," a small group of children chosen from the school, perform many times for benefits. They select their own soloists six weeks prior to a show, and the soloists are chosen solely on the basis of merit.

Joyce Field and Ellen D'Andrea, both Springfield girls and former pupils of Miss Bunny, toured the country and Canada in 1957 with the Roxy Troupe. Judy Jourdan of Hillside has appeared at the Latin Quarter and "Flora" Miss Kelly, Director of the Roxyettes, has repeatedly told Miss Bunny to bring her students any time. She marvels at the children's behavior, their meticulous dress, and above all, their preparedness.

The students never want to disappoint Miss Bunny or Miss Carol; pride keeps the children working constantly harder. Miss Bunny and Miss Carol just have to say they "we are not or we are proud of you" and that accomplishes everything.

Achievement is important, of course, but the school stresses that it is the over-all knowledge that is most important. Miss Bunny School of Dance teaches dancing, but the pupils learn so much more that is not included in the tuition. The children learn proper dress, respect for themselves and others, and how to behave as "little ladies and gentlemen." Miss Bunny and Miss Carol deserve a trophy themselves.

Husband, Wife Team Bring Culinary Art To Dinner Theater

It's hardly likely, but if ever the producers at the Meadowbrook Dinner Theatre decide to resurrect "Come Out of the Kitchen," they have two ideal persons for the leading roles. The candidates: John and Margrethe Thumann. This husband and wife duo has never applied grease-paint to their pleasant features, but they certainly are among the leading restaurateurs in the Metropolitan Area.

Although the Thumann name has never appeared on the marquee at the Route 28 show-palace, they have played a mighty important role in the success of the Meadowbrook Dinner Theatre. "It's our intention to give people the very best cuisine and make them feel at home," said John Thumann.

Gary—helga McHugh and Carl—Sawyer take very good care of producing the best in musical comedies and we take care of the other important phase, food." There were many skeptics when the dinner-theatre came into existence in April, 1959. The question most frequently posed was: "How can they give you food and a show for such low prices? This is a secret—Meadowbrook formula which during the past 17 months has convinced skeptics that they're getting top grade food and entertainment. The Thumanns, like the Broadway actors who perform on the Meadowbrook stage, are real pros. They have outstanding reputations for having operated some of the finest places in Bergen and Hudson Counties, including the Skyline Inn in No. Bergen.

"Weddings were our specialty at Skyline," said Mr. Thumann. "Now we find many people are enjoying our Wedding and Anniversary and Birthday party. Serving 1,000 a la carte meals is no easy task, but the Thumann's efficient staff does the job flawlessly—several times each week. Another culinary bright spot at the Meadowbrook is the chef's weekly special. In addition to the five basic meals on the menu, there's a weekly special. Seafood specialties are available on Fridays. In the fall dinner-theatre season Friday, September 1 with the great favorite "The Student Prince". For the gala re-opening the Thumanns have new-table

DAUNTLESS DONNA DOWNS DECKER DUO

Not once—but twice the Decker's home, 182 Linden Ave., Springfield, felt the power of the very "muscular" Donna.

What look Mrs. John Decker, seven years to grow, and served as a sun shelter for her porch; Donna in one mighty huff toppled a 35 foot tree from her backyard.

Very philosophically Mrs. Decker sighed, "My husband never did like that tree, but we never expected to get rid of it like this."

TWO DOWN IN FIVE MINUTES

Her seven-year prize was not the first tree succumb to Donna. About five minutes before, her child called her attention to the massive object covering her front lawn. Little did she know—this was just the beginning of her troubles.

SAW THE LIGHT

When asked if she became frightened by the sound of the tumbling trees, she calmly said, "I never heard a thing. I noticed that there was a great deal more light coming into the back of the house. This made me look out the back window. The tree kept the sun off our porch."

Did You Know...? Soaking your comb and brush in a solution of warm water and soap for ten minutes removes dirt particles quickly and effectively.

Night Registration Set At Millburn Adult School

Registration for almost fifty courses in the Millburn Adult School may be accomplished on either of two evenings next week.

The office of the Senior High School on Millburn Avenue will be open between the hours of 7:30 and 9:00 p.m. on Monday, September 19, and Thursday, September 22. Registrations may also be sent by mail to the adult school office. Brochures describing all courses may be secured at the Springfield Public Library or by telephoning the adult school office (DR 6-1743).

The director of the Millburn Adult School reminds Springfield residents and those in neighboring communities that everyone is welcome and fees are the same regardless of residence.

As in the past years the school is open on Mondays and Thursdays for ten consecutive weeks beginning Thursday, September 29, and Monday, October 3.

Many New Courses Added Among the new courses on Mondays are those that may improve one's Human Relations, Cakes, Memory, Shape, Travel, Experience, Beauty and Charm. Those who want the cultural side of beauty and philosophy will find it in Masterpieces of Literature.

Twelve great American writers of the nineteenth century who established and developed our literary traditions will be discussed in an inspiring way for adults by Dr. Frederick T. McGill, Jr., a Professor of English and Director of the Division of Humanities, Newark Branch of Rutgers, The State University. The brochure indicates that Dr. McGill is a specialist in this field with teaching experiences that include radio and television classes. He has taught the course in Masterpieces of Literature on many other occasions.

Human Relations and Effective Speaking will be presented by Nicholas J. Minaya, described in the brochure as having taught over 1,100 adult education classes in this field and having served as executive director of prominent adult education groups. The enrollment in this course is limited. Mr. Minaya promises to direct the course to the special qualifications and aptitudes of those who enroll.

Two courses to retain and enhance the beauty of the face are expected to be popular. Tone, Trim, and Shape is promised for those who feel that the fall of the year is a wonderful time to take firming measures by losing inches through proven slimming techniques. The class will include exercises for shaping, toning, posture, grace, and rhythm with discussion on diet and weight. Beauty and Charm, to be taught by Miss Grayce, will include cosmetics, modeling techniques, figure analysis, hair styling and wardrobe selection.

Improve Your Memory Memory improvement is part of the course in Creative Thinking and Idea Development. Beaton, Times Sun Echo Through Memory Exercises. Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Dauer, the instructors, have taught the Osborn system for a number of years. This system of creative thinking and imagination was developed by Alex. F. Osborn, one of the founders of Balton, Barton, Durstine and Osborn, and used extensively in the Harvard Business School.

Cake and Food Decorating is for those who wish to learn how to decorate cakes with a variety of sugar flowers or who wish to trim canapes, hors d'oeuvres, garnishes, sandwich loaves, picnics and planked foods.

Travel Course '60 Travel-Around the World in Twenty Years will be taught by Mrs. Matthew (Ted) Smith who has literally lived all over the world as a professional camera man and photographer for movie producers. In addition to her own professional moving pictures Mrs. Smith will describe her exciting experiences in taking pictures as a prisoner of war in a Japanese prison camp, as a traveler deep in the jungles of Africa, as a visitor deep in a diamond mine, as a hunter in the wilds of Australia.

Other Monday courses include Antique Pottery and Other Collectors' Items, Ceramics, Contract Bridge for Beginners, Italian for Intermediates, Law for the Layman, Photography, Piano or Organ for Beginners, Sketching and Painting for Beginners, Sketching and Painting for Intermediates, and Typing for Beginners.

Successful Summer Program at Library

The Summer Reading Program for children at the Springfield Public Library terminated its various activities and projects on Friday, September 2.

From the library point of view, it was not only a highly successful but an immensely interesting and diverting program. Library routines were constantly and skilfully varied while the selected presidents were being chosen in five different colors, following the reading of many, many written reviews. It is hoped that parents and children feel that they have derived some benefit as well as pleasure from this two month's project.

Schools Well Represented

All schools represented good collective effort in their faithful reading adventures. Walton and Caldwell brought forth close to one hundred constant readers. Chisholm, Gaudineer, and St. James had close to sixty who kept up their charts. These latter schools have a smaller school enrollment so their lower representation is readily comprehensible. St. James should be judged on the basis of its Springfield pupils only. Considering this factor and also the fact that many of these children attended summer school, they did quite well.

The Children's Librarian was pleased with the good quality of reading and reviewing which was apparent. Children seemed to be reading widely and with more purpose, both in fiction and non-fiction. The yearly circulation statistics have been revealing that more reading was done in the early grades (1-4). Thus, it was with greatest surprise and gratification to realize that during this summer the children in the 5th, 6th, and 7th grades were reading as much, if not more, than their younger sisters and brothers.

The following individual reading results will support this statement. The first chart was completed by Daniel Ginter, seventh grade, Gaudineer School. This represented the reviewing of 88 books. Second place was taken by Janice Lillen, seventh grade, Gaudineer School. Third place was won by Michael Ng, fifth grade, Caldwell School; fourth place by Ira Rutkow, seventh grade, Gaudineer School, and fifth place by Kenneth Hausman, seventh grade, Gaudineer School. Others came quite close to completion.

Many young people used books from the Youth Corner downstairs, but put forth the effort to come upstairs to report. This is unusual since it is natural for the adolescent to avoid the Children's Room once his reading has become more sophisticated.

A Reading Family

The family which deserves the greatest credit for their constant reading and reviewing are the Fingerhuts, who reside at 26 North Derby Rd. They are Linda, fifth grade; Donna, third grade; Gail, second grade; and Rayna, first grade. Accompanied by their mother and six-month old brother Kenneth, they appeared bi-weekly to exchange books, choose presidents, and select books. Mother always waited with timeless patience while brother dozed in her arms.

Kennedy Wins

The extra incentive this summer was the opportunity given the children to vote for their favorite candidate—Nixon or Kennedy. They watched the conventions with the greatest interest, talked it over with others, then filled in the black sticker. Sometimes a brother would vote for Nixon while a sister thought she would prefer Kennedy. This was a free democratic exercise and the parents made no attempt to intervene. The reasons for their choice brought forth many a chuckle from the librarians in charge. It was in fun, and Kennedy won!

Next year the presidential charts may be continued. They will be stored in the library. This will give the child an opportunity to complete his learning of the 35 presidents, for by next year we will really know "who is the 35th." The program was, generally speaking, worth the time and effort spent by the staff members to keep it rolling until day.

Temples Unite & Organize Hebrew High School Union

For a number of years, this community has felt the need for a Hebrew program which will go beyond the Bar Mitzvah year and which would also be the confirmation curriculum.

Recognizing the problem, Rabbi Reuben R. Levine, of Temple Beth Ahm, and a number of spiritual leaders from neighboring United-Synagogue Congregations have been meeting during the past year to organize a joint Hebrew High School which eligible students from the various synagogues could attend.

Temple Beth Ahm's executive board is to be commended for sharing in the financial underwriting of this program which is now a reality and is to hold classes at Temple Beth Shalom, in Union.

There are now five Beth Ahm students enrolled in the joint Hebrew High School with the possibility of more joining. They

TAKING CARE OF YOUR GARDEN

By Edward A. Cardinal

Last week we discussed the control of crabgrass prior to renovating a lawn. There is still time to treat crabgrass, but where it is not too thick it might be better to proceed with fertilizing and reseeding and use the pre-emergence method of crabgrass control next spring.

QUESTION: I moved into a new home and the soil is like concrete. Can I scratch it up and expect a good lawn?

ANSWER: No. Subsoil is infertile and must be tilled and fertilized to a depth of five or six inches. To each 1,000-square-foot add the following materials and re-til. Forty pounds of fertilizer, 40 pounds lime, 100 pounds agricultural gypsum and three bales of peat moss, or its equivalent of humus or manure. This should cost less than $20.00 per thousand sq. ft.

QUESTION: I cannot afford to spend too much at this time. Is there a cheaper way of making a lawn?

ANSWER: Add the following material to the surface and scratch in as deeply as possible. Forty pounds fertilizer, 40 pounds lime, 80 pounds gypsum and one bale of peat, or its equivalent. Rake smoothly and seed with a deep-rooted utility seed mixture. Some clover added to the mixture will help the lawn survive. By fertilizing often a fair lawn can be kept going, but don't expect perfection.

QUESTION: How often shall I water my newly seeded lawn?

ANSWER: As often as necessary to keep the surface damp. A good, steady, windy day can kill the germination of seed in a matter of hours.

QUESTION: What seed grows best in the shade?

ANSWER: The rescuees do best in a dry shade, but will not tolerate wet locations. Pen Trivalis (rough-stalked bluegrass) does best in damp spots. A mixture predominating with rescuee and Pen Trivalis is usually preferred in most shady locations.

QUESTION: Does Merion Bluegrass make a good lawn?

ANSWER: Yes, but use Merion only if there is a good thick layer of topsoil. Seed it immediately and don't expect it to germinate rapidly. After it is established, lime and fertilize heavily.

Kennedy Arrives Today

A speech from the steps of Elizabeth City Hall will mark the opening of Sen. John F. Kennedy's bid for New Jersey's electoral vote in Union County this week.

The Democratic nominee for President will make his appearance about 12:30 P.M. today (Thursday, Sept. 15). With him will be Gov. Robert B. Meyner, Thorm-Lord, Democratic nominee for U.S. Senator, and Jack B. Dunn, Democratic candidate for Congress in the Sixth District.

The Massachusetts Senator and his party will arrive in Elizabeth by motor caravan from Newark. The itinerary: Newark Ave. to North Broad St., to Broad St., left on East Jersey St., to Jefferson Ave., and City Hall.

On departing, the group will proceed to New Brunswick via Jefferson Ave., Elizabeth Ave., Broad St., South Broad St., and Route 1 to New Brunswick.

Jack Dunn Opens Campaign Office

The opening of the headquarters will be held along with the arrival of Elizabeth of Democratic Presidential candidate John F. Kennedy.

Kennedy will speak on the steps of Elizabeth City Hall at approximately 12:30 p.m. in honor of the Presidential candidate, the headquarters for Kennedy, Senatorial candidate Thorm Lord and Dunn will be host to an official open house from 1 to 10 p.m. The affair will give Democratic committeemen, committee women and campaign volunteers the opportunity to meet

GOP Freeholders Know Your Government Start Campaign

Walter Baldwin, Municipal Chairman of Springfield, today called for the election of the three Republican candidates for Freeholders in November—as "Union County citizens' only hope of financial salvation."

The election of Peter J. McDonough of Plainfield, Harry V. Osborne, Jr. of Cranford and Edward H. Tiller of Garwood, said Mr. Baldwin, would return majority control on the Freeholder board to the Republicans and "bring relief from the fiscal policy of the Democrat majority of the last two years."

Mr. Baldwin called attention to a report made public yesterday by McDonough, Osborne and Tiller, which they said "that the Democratic control led Board of Freeholders has unleashed the most frightening wave of borrowing in 103 years of Union County history. The debt incurred in the last six months totals almost $2,000,000, representing a borrowing pace of $10,000 a day, or $7 more debt for county taxpayers every minute around the clock.

"Two years of management by the Democrat majority on the Board of Freeholders has failed to provide either the common sense judgment of how to handle public funds, or the decency and propriety of what to spend for," McDonough, Osborne and Tiller charged.

"The Republican minority on the county governing body again and again has tried to stem the tide," they declared, "only to be overruled. This, combined with bad budgeting and free spending, has left the county without the necessary funds to operate functionally without borrowing. The $2,000,000 in debts incurred by the Democrats will mean tens of thousands of dollars in interest to be paid needlessly through taxes for years to come. And the taxpaying public, both this generation and the next, will pay the piper."

CAP Needs Teachers

Springfield Squadron, Civil Air Patrol is looking for adults interested in aviation and young people.

The local unit has openings for instructors in aviation subjects, teaching young people from 14 to 18 years of age, in the National Civil Air Patrol program.

The CAP aviation education program consists of seven booklets on phases of aviation, the National Chaplain's program and actual training on summer encampments and field missions. Interested adults are always needed to carry on this varied program, as CAP continues to educate our teenagers in the exciting Aerospace Age.

Civil Air Patrol, an auxiliary of the United States Air Force is a volunteer organization dedicated to aviation education, assistance to its "older brother", the U.S. Air Force, and aid to the community in times of need or disaster.

Springfield Squadron, under the command of Captain Gladys E. Hansen, CAP meets every Wednesday evening 7-10 P.M. at the Florence Gaudineer School in Springfield. If you have experience in aviation, teaching or just plain interest in teenagers, come and visit the squadron and volunteer your assistance.

INSIDE... UNION COUNTY

By S.-O. Sarokin

A Tribute To Leadership

Any person who can jam pack a place as large as the Elizabeth Armory for a testimonial dinner in his honor — that person must certainly be beloved, highly respected, worthy — an unusual guy.

That's exactly what brought out more than 1200 diners — governors, senators, state and county officials, mayors and just friends — to pay homage to James J. Kinneally last Saturday night.

"Jim" Kinneally is not only the Chairman of the Union County Democratic Committee but he is also the leader of his party and the chief architect of a series of well planned and well executed political campaigns which resulted in control of the county for his organization.

Being county chairman and acknowledged leader of his party at the same time is an unusual political combination. County chairmen are usually the political pipe line through which policy, recommendations and campaign strategy are channeled.

But "Jim" Kinneally was never just a rubber-stamp in politics and, from the minute he took over as Democratic chairman in Union County, the team began making first downs with "Jim" calling the signals. "Jim" Kinneally doesn't sit still after his victories at the election. He and his team insist on performance, carrying out campaign promises and complete service to the county and the taxpayers.

Saturday night's guest list was studded with page one names from both sides of the political aisle. The dais included such V.I.P.'s as Gov. and Mrs. Robert B. Meyner, Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan, Senator Harrison A. Williams, former Mayor of Jersey City John V. Kenny, all of whom paid tribute to "Jim" Kinneally for his leadership in Union County.

Naturally, with such an array of talent and nationally known spell binders, the speakers couldn't and didn't resist the temptation to ask those present "to support the entire Democratic ticket, from Kennedy-Johnston on the national scale down to the County Freeholders, seeking re-election."

Good News for Taxpayers
The strongest political argument and almost certain vote getter is the one that will save the taxpayer money.

Springfield's Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies, seeking re-election to the Township committee in November, announced last week that "Springfield will have to pay only $20,000, or less for the construction of the much needed $295,000 sanitary sewer."

Mayor Bonadies and his administration are preparing to do a lot of "pointing with pride" during the campaign for his re-election, based on "a job well done."

But — saving the taxpayer money does more to influence the voter than anything the politicians have yet discovered.

Paul T. Murphy, the Republican candidate for the one vacancy on the Springfield Township Committee, is a very formidable, ingenious and hard working opponent. He has been busy digging into the files and his supporters say he has come up with "facts and figures." As an attorney, Mr. Murphy calls it "research" instead of "digging."

Mr. Murphy and his GOP followers in Springfield appreciate that they have quite a job dislodging Mayor Bonadies from his high position of personal popularity and leader of an experienced administration. But Paul Murphy says he won't stop pitching. Springfield should have a very interesting local contest.

Business Methods In Office
James J. Delaney, a resident of Scotch Plains and Union County's business-like register, manages to find time for so many other after hour jobs that his many friends wonder where he gets the e

He has undertaken the important chairmanship in Union County for the annual March of Dimes drive; he is managing the campaign for re-election of the 8 Democratic Freeholders and is the dynamo getting the entire Union County Democratic show on the tracks as one of County Chairman James J. Delaney's chief of staff.

Mr. Delaney, as the Elizabeth Journal editorialized not too long ago, is the "same man who startled political experts at the courthouse earlier this year when he brought in a budget that was smaller last year's and yet included provisions for staff salary increases."

"And it's the same Mr. Delaney," the editorial continued, "who has maintained the reputation for service in office of the register second to none in the state. His emphasis on economy and service in government should be emulated widely."

Attorneys and law offices all over know they can get the fastest services in the Union County register's office. Mr. Delaney is always busy but never too busy to see a friend, talk to a resident of the county, head up some important committee or even run an errand.

Spoutin' Sports

BY Z. SPOUTER

This is the first of what I hope to be many meetings. Judging from the name of our column—we talk about sports. Before we get too chummy, I better give you a sample of what to expect in this little literary gem.

Sometimes you'll agree with me—sometimes you'll differ with me.

Sometimes I'll be complimentary—sometimes I'll be derogatory.

Sometimes I'll spout about football—sometimes about basketball.

Sometimes I'll spout baseball—sometimes ping pong.

Sometimes I'll be right—sometimes I'll be wrong.

Sometimes I'll be very interesting—sometimes a real bore.

Sometimes I'll talk about Springfield—sometimes about Scotch Plains.

Sometimes I'll talk about Berkeley Heights, Fanwood or Mountainside.

Now that you know what to expect, don't toss the paper into the trash can, but stay with it just a little bit more.

BEFORE IT'S TOO LATE

One thing we won't be in this column is a second guesser, or a "I told you so" character. If I opine it will be before the event, not after.

So if I'm going to question the sagaciousness of officials responsible for the premature varsity schedule planned for the Berkeley Heights football team—I'd better do it right now.

I hope the Spouter is submerged with mail from irate fans at the conclusion of the season, showing what a boob he was thinking that Berkeley wouldn't make a good showing against its opponents. But I don't think this will happen, unless the opposition is more premature than Berkeley.

It seems that a junior varsity schedule would have been more a suitable, than throwing this eager but inexperienced players to the wolves. They have been without football this long, one more year would've made very little difference.

For the sake of the players, coaches and fans that will support this new team—I hope my face will be red, not the officials that made the schedule.

EVILS OF THE PRESS

You may not be aware of it, but newspapers are the underlying agent in many cases in helping you reach an opinion, or to create an image or figure.

It is known fact that many papers are pro or con to a party. It is impossible to get a true report by reading such a paper, but yet they still mold public opinion. It is rare to read an unbiased paper. That is one evil, but not the one that ignited me to write this piece.

The disgraceful conduct of the press covering the olympics did.

We won't go into the question of the authenticity of the reports. Because it is not just a question of "wine, women and song" in Rome. It goes to. It stems from the cold war tactics employed by countries. This is no longer an athletic event, but a battlefield pitting vitamins for propaganda against each other. Every gold medal won serves to quench the Kremlin's hunger.

Getting back to the press. They must have a slew of "Peter Gunns" on their payrolls, working around the clock. It seems every American reporter over there, knew the exact whereabouts of our star performers, especially the ones that have not won gold medals. It's unfortunate we don't know the whereabouts of all the Russian spies in our country, like we do of our athletes.

Once again the press has succeeded in creating an image. Most people feel that our stars did nothing but specialize with the Sophia Loren's in Rome. If they did, where were their coaches and officials that are supposed to look after their performers. Many of these stars are still in their teens. Do you think it shows weak character to be tempted, if they were at all? I think we are all tempted sometimes, regardless of what our virtuous press corps think in Rome.

Jimmy Cannon summed it up when he said, "They're our own, and they're running second behind their country's enemies. They should know we are for them, no matter what the result. The Olympics are tough enough. Our kids shouldn't compete under the delusion that their neighbors have turned against them."

It encourages youngsters to develop an interest in the game in the proper manner, under reasonable supervision as to conduct and environment, with a uniformly recognized program for making the sport more enjoyable.

It gives awards to winning teams in each league and special awards for high scores.

Heights, Scotch Plains Prep For Openers

that Coach Brown has switched to new positions. L-R: Richard Haas, Tony Rinaldi, John DeLuca, John Foster, Lynn Nesbitt, Bill Mengert, and Len Semon. Bottom right: These four mammoth tackles are one of the bright spots for freshmen coach Al Brown. Walt K. Knot, Walt Rice, Ken Stanton, and Roy Calligari will provide

Breaststroke Records Fall Under Siebert

Greg Brings Home Many Swim Medals

While our outstanding girl swimmers were winning with record-breaking performances in Rome, a Scotch Plains eighth grader was establishing himself as a future national swimming star.

Greg Siebert, representing the Highland Pool, and the Westfield YMCA has been the class of his competition throughout the summer. His record breaking time of 39.8 in the 50 meter breast stroke event was probably his outstanding feat of the summer.

Siebert, participating in the Highland-Echo Lake Interclub meet at the Highland Pool, Scotch Plains set the record. Siebert's time is only 1.5 seconds off the winning time established in the National event.

WINS SILVER MEDAL — On August 27, Siebert demonstrated extraordinary stamina for his age by competing in events in the morning and afternoon of the same day.

The A.M. saw him capture 5 medals in the Highland Pool Championship Meet.

Siebert then traveled to the Lake Mohawk Marine Pool, to compete in the 50 meter breast stroke event. His time of 41.2 good for a second and a silver medal, equivalent to fifth place in the 1959 National AAU meet.

The final event for Greg on the day was the freestyle race. Siebert tied for third in this competition.

Senators Gop Title

The Scotch Plains Recreation Midget League played its final playoff game Saturday with the Washington Senators taking a 1-0 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Although the Senators pitcher Ken Leahy gave up 6 hits to Peter Sanlos one hit, the Pirates couldn't bring in a run. The Senators were the American League champs, while the Pirates set the pace in the National League.

A large crowd turned out to enjoy a well-played game that brought many thrills to the spectators.

Gene Hendling managed the Pirates club which was sponsored by the Fanwood Fire Company. The Senators were led to the championship under the hand of Art Bardostal, sponsored by the Fanwood Recreation.

Local Man Wins At Lavallette

Mr. Fred Slovak of 178 Baltusrol Ave., has walked off with three prizes at the Lavallette Yacht Club. It was a good year for the club in all aspects and now that the season has closed Mr. Slovak's has received honors.

Past Commodore Fred Winkelman presented the Sunday Championship Trophies, one of which was won by Mr. Slovak in the Lightnings class. His boat is called the Stardust Too.

The Club's special Awards were also presented; That for care and Maintenance, awarded by vote of Skippers, was given to Mr. Slovak.

Plains Title Repeat Seems Remote; Nelson Pulls Switches For Wins

All County End Bruce Springer To Perform At Quarterback Slot

Scotch Plains coach, Chuck Nelson has lost 10 starters from last year's championship team. His only returning starter is Bruce Springer, who was an All-County end. One thing is certain—Springer will not be an All-County end this year. Coach Nelson has relegated the versatile youngster to quarterback, a move he feels will pay more dividends than keeping him at end.

About switching—Springer to the signal calling slot, Nelson confidently said, "Bruce is the one guy to get the job done for us. He is heady ball player—he throws well—and is a leader. I'm sure of this move."

MASSIVE REBUILDING TASK — A lot of the 10 starters that graduated, 7 have gone on to college to play football. Nelson realizes that a repeat of the championship this year is not too probable. "This will probably be our rebuilding year, with us using as many sophomores and juniors as possible," Nelson said.

Aside from Springer, Nelson has 40 returning lettermen, but with little varsity experience. Most of the youngsters have not experienced that actual tension of competition.

SLOW GETTING INTO SHAPE — Aside from trying to select his starting 11, Nelson has irated by the condition of his players. "We asked them to keep in condition through the summer, so we could get right into business. Blisters, stiff-necks, and charley horses have slowed us up a little."

MORE SWITCHING — Springer will not be the only player trying a new spot. Co-captain, Curt Callhaun, a center last year will be starting at a tackle slot this year. Callhaun will be the beef of the line at 180 pounds. Nelson figures to average 165 up front and 145 in the backfield. Bob Bellamy 100 and sophomore Walt Burgess are in midst of heated struggle for starting center spot. Burgess has impressed Nelson, thus far, which has been a pleasant surprise.

Probable Starting Lineup
Ends—Bill Lott, 165
—John Torbin, 175
Tackles—Willis Jones, 170
Curt Callhaun, 180 (co-capt.)
Guards—Dick Merrifield, 155
Rick Capone, 155

Center—Bob Bellamy, 190, or Walt Burgess, 170
Halfbacks—Dave DeFlore, 150
Sal Verini, 150
Fullback—Bob Stoveben, 145
Quarterback—Bruce Springer, 165 (co-captain)
Nelson hopes to go to his bench frequently. He has some sophomores that can help him. Haywood Gipson and Tom Rurtshauer will be fortifying the backs. John Reynolds a guard and Nick Donovan a tackle will also be called upon.
Tony Novello, may possibly replace Springer at quarterback, although Novello, a junior, has no experience.
Nelson has three seniors that he can choose from: Frank Singer, tackle, Doug Aldinger, end, and Will Stevens an end who transferred from Massachusetts.
Tony Inzana, back and Pete Holtje end have also been fighting for a starting berth.

GOLFERS CROWNED — Stephen A. Kalugki, 177-Baltusrol Rd., Springfield, presents second-place low average trophy to Edward J. Hett, 34 Ashwood Ave., Summit, during banquet held by Jersey Central Power & Light Company central division employees' golf league.
Kalugki was secretary of the eight-team, 64-match league which began last June. Hett has been a consistent winner during past three seasons. Both are veteran layout men at the JCP&L Summit office.

Gerber Headed For '64' Olympics?? Brown Has Found Challenge

Adds NJAAU Senior Title To List of Diving Wins

"The Olympics in '64" is what Leslie Gerber, Springfield's contribution to diving circles, is aiming.

And from looking at the record book there is no reason why 16-year-old Les won't be Olympic-bound in four years. In the short space of two years, Les has captured innumerable diving crowns and has received unstinting praise from swim coaches.

He lost all the Y meets that first year, but he continued to work at his form and learned all he could from Mrs. Bassett. And then his star started soaring. In December, 1959, he won the New Jersey AAU Diving Championship in the 14-year-old and under division. Then he went on to win the New Jersey Interscholastic Athletic Association Diving phenomically high total of 234.20 points, and also won the Metropolitan Area diving championship.

This was only the beginning for Les. He also holds the state's indoor one-meter crown and was runner-up in the senior men's one-meter outdoor event. And just a few weeks ago he won the N.J. Amateur Athletic Union senior men's three-meter springboard title at the Colonia Swim Club.

Les does not only compete with boys his own age, but has competed against college-aged men and has come through with flying colors.

Ted Christakos, New York University's diving instructor, is now coaching Les and is quite enthused about the youngster's future. He compares Les to Bob Clotworthy, all-time Union County standout and presently the Princeton University swimming coach. Clotworthy says of Les, "He shows great promise." And Christakos adds that Les is much further advanced at his age than most divers a few years older. Les is not one to sit on his hands; he is not content to do merely singles as most teen-age divers, according to Christakos.

Constant Practice Les, in an admiring tone, said that the NYU coach started him immediately on the high board in addition to coaching him on the hard low board dives. He works continually on the forward 2 1/2, and 3 1/2, somersaults; the forward 1 1/2, somersault with full and double twist, and the inward 2 1/2 twist. During winter Les practices from 2 to 3 hours daily and travels to the NYU pool on Sundays for his coaching from Christakos.

Quite a lot of ambition and quite a lot of crowns for a youngster who has been diving only two years.

Before any competition Les works out as usual, gets to bed early, and eats the perogish, steak and orange juice for breakfast. Then he goes out to do another lurch to his already diverging crown.

Diving, of course, is his first love, but being a normal 1-year-old he has other interests. Girls, sports cars, drums, rock n' roll and college are high on his "interest list." In the immediate future Les expresses a desire to get high grades at Jonathan Dayton in order to qualify for a scholarship to LaSalleville Prep. He would be able to do more diving there since the school has a pool and he feels he would have a good chance to make the Olympics. He also expresses a desire to get a scholarship to either Michigan State or Ohio State. At college he wants to train as a diving instructor.

With all these things on his mind, Les still finds time to collect American coins and to guard at local swim clubs.

He lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerber at 111 Claremont Place, Springfield. Mr. Gerber is affiliated with the American Cyanamid Company in Linden.

Leslie Gerber, 16-years-old, shows title winning diving form.

Wisniewski Wins Over Goodman By 624-601 On TV

Big John Wisniewski made his "Major League Bowling" TV debut a successful one, defeating Bert Goodman of Brooklyn, 624-601, in a hard-fought duel at Neptune Lanes, Brooklyn, last Saturday night.

The Floral Park, N. Y., kegler who had been pre-designated to represent the Western Division, won the finale, 212-186, to take the verdict, which enabled him to take possession of fourth place. By double-striking in the sixth and seventh frames of the third game, Wisniewski took the lead for the first time and maintained this advantage until the final ball zoomed down the lanes.

Goodman, started like a house afire in the first game, stringing together five strikes in succession. Bert was leading by three pins at the two-thirds mark. It was Bert's third TV stint and his first 600 set, which placed him in fifth place in the Eastern Division standing.

Leagues Start Rolling

Rehberg's 226 High Game

The bowling season officially opened when Rocco Giannattasio, sports league president, threw the first ball Wednesday night. "Rock" holding an average of 178, and sporting his usual "big cigar," helped his teammates on Conte Deli, win a close victory over Drexel Cleaners. Conte and Drexel finished first and second last season with only a half game separating them, but the fine bowling of "Rock" and Mark Conte was too much for the slow starting Drexel team on opening night.

Hal Burdette, with a series of 877, and games of 222 and 204, led the league in individual honors and helped the Colontone team shut out Bond Electronics by winning all three games. Sams Friendly Service were not too friendly with the local gearner and held the strong PBA team to a 177 game split. Carol Stamping won two games from Milton's Liquor to wind up in sixth place.

High scorers for the evening were: Art Rehberg 226, Hal Burdette 222 and 204, Ralph Marrucci 215, Scott Donnington 215 and 210, Mark Conte 209 and 207, Ed Cardinal 207, Harry Gregory 207, John Pasquale 204, Dave Monroe 204 and Jack Weber 201.

Cuzzolino, Ehrhardt Win The Springfield Municipal Bowling League kicked off their league season at the Springfield-Alley Monday night with Cuzzolino Pura and Ehrhardt Electronics jumping into a first week lead with 3-game sweeps.

15 men started the season in a big way with healthy "over 200" games. A. Mutchler lead the pack with a 225; S. Burdett had a 223; B. Moyer 221; R. Maguire 213; A. L. Scott 213; E. Cardinal 213; R. Anderson 211; W. Pieper 204; P. Koenig 204; S. Sperduto 202; R. Brunell 201; B. Colandrea 201 and E. Brunner 200.

The League also announced the following officers for the season: M. D'Andrea, President; H. Woinston, Vice President; M. Lattella, Treasurer and N. Selander, Secretary.

Rocco Giannattasio preparing to open Springfield Bowling League.

He came to Berkeley Heights looking for a challenge—it hasn't taken time long to realize that he has come to the right place. The him is Coach Al Brown of the neophyte Berkeley Heights eleven. Trying to win some ball games will be his challenge.

If Casey Stengel left the Yankees to manage the Phillies he would be not faced with the challenge that confronts Coach Brown. Will one victory mean he has met the challenge—or must it be an undefeated season like he had in Pennsylvania? Regardless of his barometer of success, Brown is faced with an arduous task.

GREEN-GREEN-GREEN How bad is the situation in Berkeley Heights? If you can visualize a team as green as a St. Patrick's Day parade, you can visualize the Berkeley team.

"They want to learn—they are eager to learn, and they work very hard, but it's going to take a long time," Coach Brown said.

It's as simple as that when you have only two men on your squad that has played varsity ball, and very little at that.

RICE AND HAMILTON In most cases, a coach looks at his returning lettermen and builds around them. If Brown goes this way, he is building around Walt Rice and Ken Hamilton his two lettermen from Regional High. Hamilton will probably go at quarterback and Rice at tackle.

But after these two veterans—it is a case of "Whose on first—whats on seconds."

TOO EARLY! This reporter promiscuously asked Brown if he had some picture of what his starting lineup would be. "Your asking pregame questions not pre-season questions. I don't even know all the ballplayers names, let alone name a starting lineup. Give me time."

Here is the best Brown could do in giving some evaluation of his squad.

Ends: Tom Foster, Bill Menzert, Bill Moritz, and John Thies.

Tackles: Bob O'Gosian, Ron Caligari, Walt Knot, and Walt Rice.

Guards: John DeDuca, Rich Haas, Lynn Nesbitt, and Tony Rinaldi.

Centers: John Carvellas and Ken Stanton.

Quarterbacks: Ken Hamilton and Bill Woolston.

Halfbacks: Jerry DiPasquale, Frank Fish, Mel Flint, and Pete Suchena.

Fullbacks: Jim Fish and Len Semon.

LINE TO AVERAGE 170 With the surrounding dark clouds, Brown can see one ray of light. This year he will field a line that will average over 170 pounds. That's more than Brown has ever had for a front wall. The backs will average around 150.

What kind of an attack will Brown employ with the personnel on hand? "We'll use anything that can will ball game for us. We'll use a wide-open type attack. It will be a precise attack that will take time to learn."

Brown has 45 men and 8 days to prepare for the challenge.

WHAT IS CUSTOMIZED DRY CLEANING?

Customized dry cleaning is essential a "personalized" service that enables you to specify how you want your garments cleaned and pressed... and get them done to your specifications. Unfortunately, in this day of high-volume and chain operations, this service is fast disappearing or frequently unsatisfactory.

It requires that the garments be specially tagged and marked. It also requires special handling by expert operators capable of understanding and satisfying the customer's requirements. We at Pan American are proud to be able to offer this service — and guarantee satisfaction.

What are the charges for "customized" drying cleaning? Nothing — only your regular dry cleaning charges. We know that there are others who do charge extra, but we feel it is part of regular "personalized" service and we have absorbed the added costs. Since we, the owners and operators, supervise every phase of cleaning and inspection we are certain of your complete satisfaction.

Donna Does Her Duty - Unladylike

They're Not Growing Trees Like They Used To — Donna was rough on trees in the Watchung area, when she decided to do the town up, Monday. Here you see just a few of the once upright trees. Size meant very little to the masculine Donna who challenged big or small. Wires, cars, houses also fell to the prowess of Donna, who wasn't in town long, but made her presence felt.

Group Named For Dr. Carlin Drive

James J. Delaney, Chairman of the Campaign Committee for the re-election of Dr. Edward J. Carlin, Freeholder, made an impassioned plea to the organizational committee to get out the story of the job Dr. Carlin has done for the people of Union County during the past three years.

"Get our people out to work," Mr. Delaney said. "This must be a rock bottom, basic, hard work campaign to tell and spread the information of the issue at stake in the Freeholder race."

"In short, if necessary we buttonhole people on the street, knock on their doors, visit their offices and clubs to tell the story of Dr. Carlin, Freeholder," Mr. Delaney said.

Dr. Carlin thanked Mr. Delaney and the campaign committee for the enthusiasm and support evinced at the initial meeting.

The Freeholder stated he would lend himself wholly to a vigorous grass roots campaign the next two months.

At the meeting Mr. Delaney appointed Mrs. Lillian W. Egolf, 1034 Midwood Drive, Rahway, Chairman of Women's Activities, and George L. Feaster, 631 Sheridan Avenue, Plainfield, as Senior Area Coordinator. Other Area Coordinators appointed were: George Miller, 2260 Elizabeth Avenue, Scotch Plains, and Adolph Kapkowski, 640 Button Street, Elizabeth.

Mrs. Ann Donnelly, 227 Hawthorne Street, Scotch Plains, will function as Publicity Chairman during the campaign.

All scheduling will be coordinated by James H. Carlin, 1040B Monroe Avenue, Elizabeth, N.J. John Kowal, Elm Street, Rahway, was appointed Finance Chairman.

Mrs. Lida Perselay of Berkeley Heights, was designated secretary.

Tropical Butterflies At Trailside Museum

Currently on exhibit at The Union County Park Commission's Trailside Museum, in the Watchung Reservation, is a spectacularly beautiful display of tropical butterflies.

The specimens, from the tropical jungles of South America and the Congo area of Africa, feature many vivid colored insects, some of which actually change colors.

The exhibit, a gift of the friends of Miss Florence Durow of Westfield, was presented to the Trailside Museum as a lasting memorial to Miss Durow's father, Mr. William Durow, recently deceased, who also resided in Westfield.

The public is invited to view the display at the Museum Monday through Thursday, from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m., and on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m.

The Trailside Museum Association, Inc., also presented the Museum with a gift of 10 glass exhibit cases which were urgently needed at the Museum.

FANWOODIAN IN EUROPE

One afternoon of our last trip seemed tediously long. Donald was getting tired of negotiating the narrow British roads in Yorkshire. I was groggy from riding so long and thoroughly sick of trying to decipher the map. You have to buy road maps in this country — no free gifts at "petrol" stations. When you do pay a sixpence or a shilling for one, you find it is too detailed to be useful. Does that sound odd? Imagine yourself trying to plan a sensible route from Boston to New York across a map that is big enough to show Wiloughby Road in Fanwood clearly. Suffice it to say that I was folding and juggling a huge, wall-chart-size monster every few minutes. But our major problem that afternoon was the baby. She seemed out to annoy. It seemed as though we were stopping every while while to change her drawers or retrieve her toys or craft her up a drink or poke around for a snack for her. I decided we were very brave to attempt long trips with a baby. Very brave pioneers. Then we saw another family.

Many cyclists have two small passengers — one in front, one in back. Why did they smile? Because I treated her like such a baby. Claire was a great big girl of one and I was still tying her on with a bathrobe sash. It seemed only wise. I knew my own unsteadiness and I didn't trust her balance a bit more. British kids may get the hang-on-for-dear-life idea at six months. But she didn't.

As I say, cycling is serious business. Cyclists are part (in Cambridge, a main part) of the main traffic. They are obliged to obey traffic lights, use hand signals, to stop at striped "zebra-crossing" to let pedestrians go by, to use lights after dark (or pay 10 shillings fine), and to have proper bicycle bells that ring. They do observe the law, and as a result they get full to ride in the middle of the road. And often do.

That afternoon in Yorkshire, we pulled over to watch this remarkable family go by. They went single-file, all the legs pumped together up the hill, the babies' heads bobbed over the bump, and they disappeared. We three got out and stretched, had a drink of tea from our jug, and started out again. Before we'd gone a mile, Claire had fallen asleep in her crib in the back. She wasn't awake when we passed the cycling family again and couldn't wave back to them. I refolded the map, having decided that we were definitely on the right road for at least the next 25 miles, and sank back to enjoy the scenery. We didn't feel like such brave pioneers anymore.

They were cycling along through the East Riding of green Yorkshire, this family. The mother and father and two children were on a remarkable bicycle built for four — a sort of double tandem. And they had a trailer attached to the back. The trailer, which was a cross between a miniature U-Haul and a baby carriage, contained a smiling baby. A few feet behind them was a teen-aged girl who had a side-car attached to her bicycle with another baby in it. Finally, two medium-sized children on single bicycles formed the rear guard.

I learned that this arrangement is carefully planned. The big major cycle is in front so that the mother and father can navigate for the whole entourage; the two single riders in back are each detailed to keep an eye on one of the babies riding in front of them.

Cycling is a popular, serious method of transportation in Britain. I know that well enough. Seeing me sail forth in the afternoon, my neighbors in Cambridge would always laugh. Because I was cycling? Hardly. Everybody from grandmothers to priests to bowler-hatted civil servants, rides. Because I had Claire riding on a little seat in front? Nothing remarkable about
