More New Faces Found in Local Elementary Schools

Springfield's youngsters are learning many new names this year in their grammar schools classes. B. F. Newswanger, Superintendent of Schools, appointed numerous new teachers to teach in the local elementary schools.

Miss Irene Shapiro is the physical education instructor for the Raymond Chisholm School and the new Thelma L. Sandmeier School. A graduate of the University of Michigan, Miss Shapiro received a Bachelor of Science. She majored in physical education and health and minored in social studies.

Miss Shapiro was a waterfront director at a private summer camp for the past three years.

Teaching fifth grade at the Edward V. Walton School is Mrs. Bruce A. Geiger. She graduated from Montclair State Teachers College with a Bachelor of Arts degree.

also a graduate of Montclair State Teachers College, is teaching fifth grade at The James Caldwell School.

Previous to her Springfield assignment, Mrs. Birnbaum taught for three years in the Berkeley Hills School, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

A 1960 graduate of Newark State Teachers College, Mrs. Michael Jay is teaching fourth grade at the new Thelma L. Sandmeier School. This is her first teaching assignment.

The lucky sixth graders at the Florence M. Gaudineer School have Miss Annette Palazzolo for their science teacher.

Another graduate of Montclair State Teachers College, Miss Palazzolo taught for one year in the East Orange School System.

Murphy's Silence Not Justifiable Charges Bonadies

Doubletalk Won't Fool People

Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies last night strongly attacked "political opportunist" candidate Paul T. Murphy's defense of the past rejected administrations here "who were turned out of office for failing to meet the problem of continuous spiraling taxes and for failing to provide responsive local government."

Moving ahead in his bid for re-election, Bonadies told a meeting of Republican and Democratic campaign workers that Murphy's silence on this issue "does nothing to justify the fact that Murphy has firmly dedicated himself to a drive to bring back into political power the very same group that gave Springfield years of arrogant leadership and runaway taxes."

Bonadies declared, "The people of Springfield cannot be deceived by such silence nor fooled by irresponsible doubletalk into forgetting the political forces which handpicked Murphy to run for our local governing body."

"The fact that Republicans and Democrats have joined together in fighting the return to public office of this past rejected administration clearly reflects in the overwhelming indictment against Murphy's political backers, regardless of political affiliation, the statement declares.

"Murphy continues in silence when we ask him point blank why Springfield had to wait until his political backers were voted out of office before we could put a halt to runaway taxes.

when we ask him to name a single constructive program he could offer our community and why has he kept such a program a secret until election time if it could possibly benefit our community."

"Murphy has no answer for why our citizens had to march on the town hall in protest to arrogant leadership under his political backers.

"In short, Murphy has no comment on anything except his personal drive to restore to power those rejected political forces under who Springfield's tax rate climbed to the highest rate in its history."

"Concluding, Bonadies declared that the residents of Springfield are determined to move ahead, not backward in defeating Murphy and his campaign of sneers and distortions.

"We will fight every inch of the way, Bonadies declared, to keep our progress going through one of the finest administrations ever to serve the people of Springfield and not to destroy this progress through the empty political promises of Murphy and his rejected political backers."

Murphy Cites Activities; Bonadies Accused of Lies

LWV Start Finance Campaign

From Sept. 26 to Oct. 3 the Springfield League of Women Voters will solicit public support for their 1960 Finance Drive. The League of Women Voters is a non-partisan organization working constantly to strengthen the foundation of self-government through intelligent use of the precious right to vote. Once in a year the League invites public spirited citizens of Springfield to show through participation in the Drive, their interest, understanding, and sympathy for this community service.

While members give freely of their time, talents, and personal funds in support of this work without outside help they could barely scratch the surface of many problems which they study relating to our town, state and nation. The League of Women Voters believes that the public shares with it the conviction that efficient self-government in the United States is possible only through persistent effort by informed citizens.

The functions of the League include supplying to the public objective, non-partisan information about candidates and issues prior to an election. While the League itself practices political impartiality, it encourages the public to play an active part in the political party of their own choice. By interviews with town officials and attendance at local civic meetings the League provides first-hand information on how the town is being run. On important issues relating to the future growth of the community they stimulate public discussion and run extensive surveys whose results are made available to the public.

Contributions to the Drive may be sent to Mrs. Herbert Kayne 66 Keeler St., Springfield, Telephone DR 9-5235.

Lewandowski's Hold Reunion

The Wesley Lewandowski family of Springfield held a family reunion recently in honor of Mr. Lewandowski's brother, Witold of Poland whose visit to the USA terminated last Tuesday.

The highlight of Witold Lewandowski's visit was a trip to Washington where the two brothers saw Congress and Senate in action. Memorable too was a visit with Congresswoman Mrs. Florence P. Dwyer, in District of New Jersey.

"Dear Vince" Letter Charges "Lies" In Mayor's Challenge

Hon. Vincent J. Bonadies
12 Sherwood Road,
Springfield, N. J.

Dear Vince:
"It is distressing to me to be forced to write this letter to you. I do so only because I hope that it may bring you to realize that no political office is worth the price you will pay in loss of dignity and honor if you continue to campaign in your present fashion."

"Each and every attack I have leveled against you has been political not personal. Last week, you attacked me personally and put your name to lies."

You lied in the following respects:
"1. You stated I attacked the Police Department. I did not. I quoted your attack on them several years ago and deplored it."

"2. You stated I did not know the name of the Chief of Police (for whatever significance that has). I was present when the Chief was sworn in and congratulated him."

"3. You stated I did not attend the Highway meeting. I attended with my neighbors. I spoke to both Mr. Sibole and Mr. Ballantine, and my neighbors have expressed amazement at your statement."

"4. You stated I never attended any Township Committee meetings. I attended a meeting less than a month before you made that statement. I was greeted by Mr. Flammer, Mr. Lucy, and Mrs. Worthington."

"I attended your organization meeting in January. I attended the meetings on the Henshaw-Hawthorn storm sewer as counsel to the Township Committee. I attended meetings representing the Henshaw-Hawthorn group. I attended budget meetings and other meetings."

"I have no intention of leveling any personal attack on you; I have no intention of making any statements concerning you. I am prepared to debate with you any statement I have made. I will retract any statement that you establish is false."

"Each of us will enjoy victory or suffer defeat better for having waged a fair fight. Let's do it."

Very truly yours
Paul T. Murphy

PO Bid to Michigan Concern

A. A. Vertelis, regional real estate officer of the Post Office Department announced Tuesday that Michael Chernick of Detroit was the lowest of three bidders to provide, under lease, new post-office facilities for Springfield township.

Mr. Chernick's bid of $20,470 a year for 10 years with three five-year lease renewal options at $17,922 a year and the bids of Dean Widmer of 210 Mountain Ave. $21,850 a year, and Capital Properties Inc., Washington, $21,999 a year, will be forwarded with Mr. Vertelis' recommendations to the Post Office Department.

The department will enter into the lease contract after reviewing the bids and recommendations, it was said.

The successful bidder is to construct a colonial-type, one-story building at 205-210 Mountain Ave. It is to have net floor space of 7,470 square feet, with driveway, parking and maneuvering area of 16,682 square feet and platform space of 986 square feet. It is to be erected on a plot containing 27,118 square feet.

The present office is at 333 Morris Ave. It has a working area of 2,700 square feet which, it is said, is insufficient to meet the needs of the township's population.

The lease on the present quarters has expired but the Post Office Department is continuing rental under an extension agreement until such time as new quarters are ready, according to Postmaster A. V. Del Vecchio.

This is the second time bids have been taken. There were nine bidders when bids initially were received last month. Capital Properties then was low at $22,850 but all bids were rejected because they were considered too high, Mr. Vertelis said. He said the new bids appear more in line with estimates.

Jaycee Movement Gains Momentum

Young men of Springfield met September 14th to organize a Junior Chamber of Commerce here in Springfield.

At a special meeting in the Cannonball House, attended by about ten men, it was decided to go ahead with further organization plan for the new group.

The new junior civic citizens, not to be confused with the regular Chamber of Commerce, will meet for the purpose of formation of the group on Monday, September 26th at the Crest, 2204 Springfield Ave., Vauchall Section of Union.

This is the former "Gids" at the corner of Springfield Ave. and Vauchall Road. The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. and refreshments will be served.

Hank Wright, Chairman of the extension committee, explained the purposes of having more chapters.

Other members attending the get together were Jim Ward, Secretary and Past President, Bob Gartland, Members of Oranges and Maplewood Jaycees (140 strong) present were Bob Schenkle, Don Carol and Jerry Rockland.

Fanwood-Scotch Plains, the extending chapter's President Bob Dunseath concluded the meeting with an outline of activities conducted by his chapter (70 strong) during the past year. He mentioned that his chapter completed over forty major projects, most of which were in the fields of Youth Welfare and Community Development. Chairman of the extension committee, Mel Penta explained the purposes of having more chapters.

Accepts Challenge And Recites Many Services in Town

With election day more than six weeks off, Springfield's political scramble has already reached the exploding "so are you" stage in the sizzling contest between incumbent Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies, the Democratic standard bearer, and his opponent, Paul T. Murphy, GOP candidate, for the one vacancy on the Township Committee.

In a blistering statement and an accompanying open letter to Mayor Bonadies, Murphy fires a full broadside against his Democratic opponent's charges that "Murphy has never engaged in any civic activity in Springfield."

The letter from Mr. Murphy, addressed personally to Mayor Bonadies, appearing on this page, charges that the "you (Mayor Bonadies) attacked me personally and put your name to lies."

Following is Mr. Murphy's statement:

"Mr. Bonadies stated last week that I have never engaged in any civic activity and challenged me to contradict him. At the outset, I must concede that his record of attendance at Arbor Day ceremonies and clambakes is far superior to mine."

"While three years voluntary service in the United States Navy may not constitute civic activity it should certainly excuse my failure to join Mr. Bonadies at those affairs from 1943 to 1946."

"Thereafter I contributed my legal services to the Henshaw-Hawthorn Civic Association in preparing its certificate of incorporation and joined with my neighbors in attending Township Committee meetings to secure flood relief."

"At that time the Township Committee ran the government from Town Hall. Presently there is little to be gained from attendance at Committee Meetings. Our government is being run by Mr. Weinberg and Mr. Bonadies from the law office of Mr. Weinberg, the Little White House on Morris Avenue."

"Since Mr. Bonadies dislikes reading back issues of the paper, I will not ask him to recall that I criticized conflicts of interest long before his administration made them commonplace. Nor will I ask him to recall that I defended him when he was running on the two-party representation theme."

"I could list in some detail my membership and contribution to numerous other civic activities. Perhaps this will suffice to demonstrate the falsity of Mr. Bonadies' intentional misstatement."

"It would be interesting to see Mr. Bonadies record of accomplishments as distinguished from his promises. Perhaps he could start with the Highway."

"During the Henshaw-Hawthorn dispute over the storm sewer, I was retained as special counsel by the Township Committee. At that time, both Mr. Donnelly and Mr. Bonadies told me they had recommended me."

"I attended meetings of the Township Committee and drafted the agreement between the Township and the builder which provided for the conveyance to the Township of two lots to be added to the inadequate playground in that area. These lots were obtained by virtue of the hard work of Murray Mitterhof and Paul Beck, residents of that area."

"After election, Mayor Bonadies gave the lots back to the builder so that he would have a higher settlement in his lawsuit."

"I would list in some detail my membership and contribution to numerous other civic activities. Perhaps this will suffice to demonstrate the falsity of Mr. Bonadies' intentional misstatement."

Crestmont Marks 18th Anniversary

On September 18 Crestmont Savings and Loan Association with main office at 1886 Springfield Avenue, marked the 18th anniversary of its founding. According to J. Herbert Woolley, chairman of the board, the association, thru foresight and planning on the part of the directors and officers and courteous and efficient service to members by the staff, has experienced unusual and rapid growth since it was established in a merger of six building and loan associations.

Crestmont opened its doors in 1942 at the corner of Springfield Avenue and Prospect Street in a converted pharmacy with two full time employees, 900 members, and assets of $900,000. Now, the association serving 18,000 members out of three offices has thirty employees and over $30,000,000 in assets.

During this period, Crestmont's physical growth, of necessity, has kept pace with its growth in business, membership and employees. This is evident in the construction now underway on the expansion of its main office building, the third alteration in its 18 year history. No longer confined to the corner operation, Crestmont's main office facilities will encompass the entire block along Springfield Ave. between Prospect Street and Park Ave. When completed within the next few weeks, the facility will include an enlarged parking lot, a drive-in window, additional teller windows, tremendous lobby, modern accounting room, second floor rental space, and a "community room" available for civic and organization meetings.

Crestmont, extending service through branch operations, has an attractive building located in Springfield at 175 Morris Avenue which opened in 1954. The Tuscan branch, acquired last June through merger with the Tuscan Savings and Loan Association, is now located temporarily at 1634 Springfield Ave. in Maplewood. Construction for a permanent branch office at the corner of Springfield and Chancellor Aves. will be announced shortly.

Read & Discuss Classics By Registering for Great Books Course at Library

Readers of the Springfield Sun will remember the series of articles which appeared last fall telling about the Great Book discussions held in the Springfield Public Library on Tuesday evenings.

In the final count twenty-three people registered, attendance varied from twelve to eighteen with fourteen or fifteen people coming most evenings. (One meeting held on the evening of a terrible snow storm is not counted. Even then six people came.)

This year the Regional Adult School is a co-sponsor of the series. Persons registering there are being directed to the Public Library where the first meeting will take place at 7:30 on Tuesday, September 27. After that the group will meet every other week.

NO FEE
There is no registration fee and no expense except to buy a set of little text books. These cost nine dollars and are prepared by the Great Books Foundation. They are selected from world renowned classics.

If only enough people register to form one group the second series of text books will be used. This will give those who took part last year fresh material, and the newcomers will not be handicapped because each reading and discussion is centered around one title complete in itself.

BOOKS EASY TO HANDLE
The little books are clearly printed, paper bound, handy to carry in the pocket or handbag and, also, have wide margins for jotting down thoughts as one goes along.

As indicated, these Great Book

Library Defends Fines Policy

In response to many inquiries and comments regarding the new fines policy, the Springfield Library wishes to state once again its purpose in making the adjustment.

Although the practice of fines is neither new or unusual, it was not until recently that the Springfield Public Library deemed its use necessary in order for it to continue operating in the same efficient manner to which its readers have become accustomed.

Prior to the adoption of the fines policy the incidences of overdue books had steadily risen to the point where it was necessary to mail approximately 699 overdue notices monthly in addition to telephone calls and personal visits to pick up books. The fact that such negligence is an inconvenience to the library itself is relatively unimportant compared to the inconvenience it imposes on those readers waiting to use the idle books. It was only after much careful consideration that the Library Board decided to increase its fines in an effort to curtail the practice. Since fines collected by the Library cannot be appropriated for its own use, the adjustment cannot be considered an effort to increase its yearly revenue but rather an attempt to hasten the return of its books to the shelves so as to make them more readily available to everyone.

Library Defends Fines Policy

Interested persons may register at the Regional Adult School, at the Library (30 Main Street, Springfield), or come to the first meeting.

Rome wasn't built in a day... neither was our town

In America, up and coming communities are the result of the interest and vision of free citizens, plus the day-to-day hard work of translating dreams into reality.

In our town and in 1000 other communities across the nation THE LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS—a nonpartisan organization—works constantly to strengthen the foundations of self-government, to build a better place in which to live.

Will you invest in the work of TODAY to build a better TOMORROW?

IN OUR TOWN we do this by:

- Supplying objective information about candidates' qualifications and voting records.
- Distributing simple basic facts on important issues.
- Encouraging more people to take responsibility in political parties.
- Observing firsthand the way in which our town is run and sharing what we learn.
- Informing our representatives locally, in the state capitals and in Washington, on action we would like to have them take in the public interest.

WHY do we do it?
Because of our deep conviction that self-government is not only worth talking about, it is worth doing something about.

You, as a public-spirited citizen interested in this community, will want to assist in these worthwhile activities.

Historical Group Plans Book Sale

A meeting of the Executive Council of the Springfield Historical Society was held at the Society's headquarters in the Cannonball House on Thursday evening, September 15th.

Members present were: William S. Quinlan, Henry C. McMullen, Mrs. Alexander W. Keller, Charles F. Heard, Stewart C. Fulton, Howard W. Wiseman and Donald B. Palmer.

Final arrangements were made for the Society's annual book sale, scheduled for September 29, 30 and October 1st. The sale will be held, as usual, in the barn at the rear of the Cannonball House, with a tent erected in front of the barn for additional space. A large supply of books of all types has already been received and more are expected before the beginning of the sale. Miss Helen C. Reyner, Director of the Springfield Public Library, a member of the Historical Society, has spent much time in sorting and pricing the books. Prices will be at the usual low level.

Judge McMullen reported that the banner announcing the dates of the sale has been repaired and reinforced and will be attached to the front of the Cannonball House in a few days. He also reported that containers for contributions of books have been placed in the lobbies of the National State Bank and the Creighton Savings & Loan Association.

People wishing to have someone pick up donations of books at their homes, may arrange for this by calling the Public Library: DR 6-4264.

Need Fire Inspections, Rotarians Told By Oxen

Inspector Frederick Oxen, of Tavern-On-The-Hill, Westfield, the Westfield Fire Department, on the purposes of fire inspection spoke to the Farwood-Scotch Plains Rotary Club at Wally's most obvious reason for having inspection of buildings is to prevent fires. Beyond that simple fact, he noted that there were many other factors involved in the inspections. For instance, inspection makes it possible for the fire department to know the best methods and avenues of escape from buildings if a fire occurs. Blind alleys, elevator shafts, trap doors, areas of greatest danger, etc. are all things which aid the department in trying to rescue people and in trying to locate themselves while putting out a blaze.

Knowing the locations of materials, the kinds of construction materials in a building, and the adequacy of fire escapes and their ladders can make a world of difference in the efficiency of the fire department in coping with a fire, he said.

Minimizing the loss of materials and the building itself he said is greatly aided by a knowledge of the building, its contents, the storing procedures of materials, etc.

Inspection of property by the fire department, he indicated, was a most important service which is not often recognized by the public.

President Charles Campbell thanked the speaker for his talk. President Campbell reported on the plans for a club sponsored 'Hole In One' golf contest for the benefit of the building fund of the Farwood-Scotch Plains Y.M.C.A. The contest will carry on from September 14 through October 14 at the Windmill Driving Range which is located on Route 22 at Terril Road in Scotch Plains. Both men and women may enter the contest which is open to the general public, he said. Rotarians will run the contest and man the range each day of the event. Lawrence Andrews will be chairman of the project, the first of several to be run for the benefit of the 'Y' new building fund. Devotions were led by Dr. William McGinn and singing was directed by Russell Scott.

United Rotarians Theme Of Di Giovanni Speech

"Rotary clubs in 116 countries are united in these difficult times of international tensions in an endeavor to promote understanding, good will and peace throughout the world." That was the message Marco Di Giovanni of Union, governor of district 751 of Rotary International, brought to the Rotarians of Springfield, Tuesday, following a conference with local Rotary Officials.

In addition to the activities of the more than 10,600 Rotary clubs within their own communities to promote this objective, Mr. Di Giovanni explained, Rotary International has awarded grants of more than $3,300,000 in the past 13 years through its program of student fellowships, which enable outstanding college graduates to study for one year in countries other than their own, as Rotary ambassadors of good will.

Since 1947, when this program was established, 1,322 Rotary Foundations Fellowships have been awarded to students in 68 countries for study in 45 countries with grants averaging $2,500.

"With fellowship and service to others as its keynote, Rotary provides a common ground for nearly 500,000 business and professional executives throughout the world, regardless of differing nationalities or customs or languages or political and religious beliefs," the Rotary district governor emphasized.

In addition to the promotion of international understanding, "Mr. Di Giovanni continued, special emphasis is being placed by Rotary clubs in this district, which includes 42 Rotary clubs in Central New Jersey, on community service especially youth activity."

Mr. Di Giovanni urged all local Rotarians to attend the Rotary district conference to be held at Buckhill Falls, Pa., in November, and to make plans for the club to be represented at the 52nd annual convention of Rotary International, which will be held in Tokyo, Japan, next May.

Temple Sharey Shalom announces the commissioning of Donald Rotwein and Edward Blake as architects for the Temple and building to be erected on the site which the congregation now owns at the corner of South Springfield Avenue and Shunpike Road in Springfield.

Joseph Bender—chairman of the Plans and Specifications subcommittee of the Temple,—has scheduled a series of meetings with various Temple committees, such as ritual, religious school and the women's group, so that the architects can obtain first hand information as to the needs and desires of the congregation. Selwyn Schnechter is chairman of the Building Fund Committee.

Sharey Shalom, which is a reform congregation, has been in existence for the past three years and has members living in Union, Westfield, Berkeley Heights, Maplewood, South-Orange, Mountaineer, Newark and Springfield. Rabbi Israel S. Dresner is spiritual leader of the congregation.

The architects, Donald Rotwein of Springfield, and Edward Blake of Livingston have their offices at 1018 Stuyvesant Avenue in Union. These famous architects have designed many well known and outstanding buildings, among them, the World of Tile on Route 22 and the Woodside Home Development in Springfield, an elite Four Seasons Bowling Lanes in Union.

Red Cross Launches Drive for Recruits

A joint drive to recruit 5,000 new volunteers will be launched October 3 by twelve Red Cross chapters in New York and twenty-four chapters in New Jersey.

The week-long recruitment campaign—largest of its kind in the nation—will get underway October 3. The Westfield-Mountainside Red Cross chapter in Westfield are seeking volunteers in all categories to maintain services and meet the growing needs of the community.

The thirty-six chapters in the drive serve a population of more than 12,500,000 and represent one of the largest concentrations of Red Cross service in the nation. Currently, over 33,000 volunteers are serving their communities through these chapters. Last year they gave over 2,000,000 hours of service. Additional thousands aided in the annual Red Cross campaign for members and funds.

Jobs diverse enough to suit almost any talent or interest are open: arts and skills workers teach crafts to hospital patients; fifteen volunteers serve with the blood program—and during disasters; a Gray Lady or a Gray Man brings cheer to the sick and convalescent in hospitals, clinics and other institutions; among other duties the Motor Service driver transports the handicapped; answers calls for emergency blood delivery, and carries eyes from eye bank to air terminals; nurse's aides assist registered nurses in the blood program and serve in hospitals; as a volunteer a registered nurse teaches Red Cross courses and fills assignments in the blood program; production and supply volunteers make disaster garments, hospital dressings, layettes for servicemen's babies; social welfare aides help servicemen and their families to solve their personal

Also on hand will be Charles A. Swain, who is also a Trustee of Kiwanis. Mr. Swain, a Cape May businessman, is a resident of the New Jersey District of Kiwanis International.

Delegates from 184 clubs representing more than 700 business and professional leaders will participate in the various sessions. Committee conferences, a discussion of plans for the coming year, development of community service ideas, and the election of officers will highlight the convention program, Davis said.

Presiding officer will be Leon McKeivey of Lakewood, Governor of the New Jersey District of Kiwanis International.

Car Victims Trapped In Watchung

Dieter Zipp, 20, of 25 Nelson Place, Maplewood, and George Schmidt, 21, of 265 Lincoln Place, Irvington, were trapped for eight hours in the wrecked car before they were rescued by Mountainside police, were reported in satisfactory condition in Overlook Hospital, Summit.

Boro police said the two men were unable to get out of the car after it veered off Tracy Drive in the Watchung Reservation, near Lake Surprise, at about 11:30 p.m. last Wednesday evening, September 14. The car struck a clump of trees.

The Union County Park Police said there is nothing to substantiate the men's story that they were trapped for 8 hours. Tracy Drive is a main thoroughfare and it is highly improbable they were trapped for that length of time, U.C. Park Police stated.

A passing motorist spotted the wreckage shortly after 7 a.m. September 15 and notified police. The youths were taken to the hospital by the Mountainside and Scotch Plains rescue squads. Mr. Zipp suffered fractures of three fingers, rib fractures, a knee injury and laceration of the chin and nose.

His companion suffered a dislocation of the right wrist, fracture of the right forearm and laceration of the mouth, according to Sgt. Albert Macaulay and Patrolman Reider Vetland of the Union County Park Police. Mr. Zipp told police he ripped pieces of the upholstery and burned them to keep warm while he and Mr. Schmidt yelled for help and pounded on the inside of the car.

Mr. Schmidt, the driver, told police he was heading down-hill on Tracy Dr. when the car failed to make a turn and hurtled into a clump of trees about 15 feet off the road. The doors were smashed shut.

Police said they had to chop down four trees to reach the car.

Faculty Day Confab Opens School Year

Personnel of the Springfield Public Schools participated in a Faculty Day Program to begin the school year on September 7, 1960. The program was the result of the joint efforts of the school administration and the Springfield Teachers Association and focused on the work of the New Jersey School Development Council.

After opening remarks by Mrs. Anne McGeehan, teacher and chairman of the Teachers Association Opening Day Committee, the staff and guests were greeted by E. F. Newsinger, Superintendent of Schools and Robert F. X. Van Wagner, President of the Springfield Teachers Association.

Speaking about the work of the New Jersey School Development Council were Dr. Frank Scherer, Executive Secretary of the Council, Daniel R. Murray, Principal of the Walton School and Chairman of the Local Division of Research for the Council, and Mrs. Marilyn Perkins, member of an Evaluation Team to Glen Rock and former President of the Springfield Teachers Association.

Other features of the Faculty Day Program were an orientation bus trip for new teachers, a reception and coffee hour, a luncheon following the morning speakers, and principal's meetings with teachers in the afternoon.

Overlook Starts Campaign For Nursing Recruitment

Calling All Nurses! That's the bulletin going out from Overlook Hospital in Summit, New Jersey, as a concentrate, Nurses' Recruitment Program swung into action today, according to an announcement by Robert E. Heinlein, Director.

"New positions are opening up every day with the expanded facilities of Overlook's new $4,000,000 air-conditioned nine-story wing. Interior renovations in the 1953 wing are also nearing completion, paving the way for Overlook's Progressive Care plan and expanded capacity of 319 beds," Mr. Heinlein pointed out.

"Never has there been such an opportune time for women in the nursing field—choice of service, fine pay scale and congenial working conditions," Mr. Heinlein continued. "There is also the inner satisfaction of performing a service vital to the health of the community."

A refresher course, with pay, is being planned for registered nurses who have not been active in their field recently and would like to return to nursing service. Details on this course will be announced in the near future. Overlook's personnel policy, includes a beginning salary commensurate with experience. Its Nurses' Residence is an attractive, modern building adjacent to the hospital and convenient to railroad and bus transportation, shopping and churches, etc. The new Staff Cafeteria offers music with meals, as well as streamlined food service.

Within commuting distance of New York, Overlook's high and scenic location also offers proximity to many recreational opportunities in the town of Summit.

An In-Service Education Program keeps Overlook's nurses informed of latest medical techniques and advances. Mrs. Edna W. Dover, Director of Nursing, is available for appointments with interested nurses by calling CRestview 3-8100.

VIVE LA DIFFERENCE

One of our customers recently returned from a trip to Europe and reported on the Dry Cleaning situation in many of the countries. In some the service was highly unsatisfactory due to poor quality or slow delivery . . . and in one country he paid $4.00 to have his suit cleaned and pressed.

We were surprised to hear his observations, because we thought that with their low labor costs, no effort would be spared to provide optimum service. However, it appears that our techniques and skilled labor are still unmatched in both quality and service.

Perhaps, it may not be long before our American know-how becomes common to the Common Market countries, but we feel that Pan American's "personalized" service will remain unique, both here and overseas for a long, long time.

Princeton U. to Present
Fall Comedy Series
With Pro Acting Group

Princeton this year becomes the first University in the United States to have in residence an acting company of professional calibre, who will present at the McCarter Theatre the Fall Drama Series, "Comedy in the Theatre," opening on October 6th with Christopher Fry's The Lady's Not For Burning. This company, each of whose members has an impressive list of credits in theatre, television, and other media, will include the following players: Tucker Ashworth, Keene Curtis, Thayer David, John Dodson, Richard Easton, Edward Grover, Rosemary Harris, Ellis Rabb, Eve Roberts, Paul Spärer, and Dorothy (Dee) Victor. All of these, except Mr. Ashworth, will also appear in the pre-season presentation of the Association of Producing Artists Repertory, consisting of Shaw's Man and Superman and an original musical version by Tom Jones (co-author of the current off-Broadway hit The Fantasticks) of Schmitzler's Anatol. Other actors, including guests who will appear in individual productions, will be announced at a future date.

It is interesting to note that the original performances of both Man and Superman and the first English version of Anatol were given by the actor-manager Granville Barker, with his wife, Lillah McCarthy, playing opposite him. The casts of the productions to be seen at McCarter will include a distinguished husband-and-wife team of our own time, Ellis Rabb and Rosemary Harris. Miss Harris appeared recently on Broadway opposite Charlton Heston in Laurence Olivier's production of The Tumbler, and earlier opposite Jason Robards Jr. in The Disenchanted, while Mr. Rabb was seen in the Broadway production of Noel Coward's Look After Lulu. Mr. Rabb is the founder of AFA and will direct some of the plays to be given this season, including Anatol.

Richard Easton is also listed as a director as well as a leading player; he is the only actor to have appeared at all three Stratford Shakespeare Festivals. His Broadway credits include the revival of The Country Wife with Julie Harris, and the New York version of the British musical Salad Days. Other directors for the McCarter season will include Stephen Porter and Allen Fletcher, who staged Man and Superman for APA and will direct, among others, George M. Cohan's burlesque, The Tavern. Sets for the season will be designed by Hugh Hardy, who is also responsible for the structural renovation of the McCarter stage and the redecoration of the interior, currently taking place.

INSIDE... UNION COUNTY

In Case You Missed This News

The Daily Journal of Elizabeth is for the election of Senator John F. Kennedy, the Democratic candidate, as president of the United States.

Announcement that this leading and influential daily newspaper is asking its readers to vote for Senator Kennedy came in the head editorial a week ago Monday.

Such an editorial supporting a Democrat for this high office is politically startling—since the Journal, as long as any one can remember, has never crossed over into the Democratic column on the national level.

However, this forthright and courageous editorial stand in the Kennedy-Nixon presidential contest does not follow that the Journal has suddenly and irrevocably switched allegiance to the Democratic cause. On the next day following the "we-are-for-Kennedy" editorial, the Journal pointed with pride to the "genuine ability and intense devotion of U. S. Senator Clifford P. Case and Rep. Florence F. Dwyer, "the Republican candidates for re-election to their respective offices."

Congresswoman Dwyer, Union County's finest salesman and best campaigner, has, as the Journal editorial stated, displayed devotion to the requirements of her office and a diligence for the wishes and views of her constituents. In other words, Rep. Dwyer represents Union County, the Sixth District, by running errands and opening doors in Washington, regardless of politics, which makes her difficult to beat for one of the 1960 gold medals.

The public announcement that the Elizabeth Journal has "come out" for Sen. Kennedy should give even greater impetus to the campaign of the Democratic forces in Union County. Democratic Chairman James J. Kinneally and his lieutenants have been predicting full slate victory in the November elections and this added editorial assistance might very well be the clincher.

While the Democrats are aiming their campaign towards Democratic success in every contest, the major objective is to retain working control in the Board of Freeholders. The record of the present Democratic administration is going to be the campaign material used in seeking the reelection of all three incumbent Democratic Freeholders.

Special spotlight and emphasis will be aimed at the work of the Democrats in the field of Public Welfare and the "clearing up of affairs" at the Runnells Hospital. Dr. Edward J. Carlin has been leading the work in this area and his supporters believe that his efforts should assure re-election for him and his Democratic colleagues as Freeholders.

In press material, Dr. Carlin is described as "experienced and capable." In 1957, Dr. Carlin scored in a county wide bid when he was elected to the County Board of Freeholders. This was no mean feat considering the Republicans had held sway for 40 years.

For the past 2 1/2 years, Dr. Carlin's main interest has been the county's welfare program. Last year when he became Chairman of the Welfare Committee, he undertook to overhaul and upgrade the status of the County's Runnells Hospital which treats chest diseases and the chronically ill.

The unique manner in which Dr. Carlin has undertaken this project is certainly worth recounting. Having found Rose Hall, a home-built for nurses quarters, at a cost of nearly 1 million dollars, only one-half occupied, Dr. Carlin went to work.

Experts agreed this unused portion of Rose Hall could be converted for use by the chronic ill at 1/10th the price of a new construction. In order to build a wing which would house 110 patients, now being farmed out to nursing homes, it would cost Union County Taxpayers $1,100,000 or $10,000 per bed.

Under the Carlin plan, the conversion of Rose Hall to accommodate 110 patients will cost the taxpayers approximately $75,000. For the remodeling of this building for the care of the chronically ill.

Considering the County pays an average of $200 per month per patient to privately-owned nursing homes, the conversion of Rose Hall to accommodate 110 patients would represent a payment to the County Treasurer of $220,000 per month which is now paid to private nursing homes from County funds.

Dr. Carlin has also raised the question of a county-run blood bank and has pledged cooperation to various social and charitable agencies in the County which were distasteful to the County.

He is currently chairman of a committee which is working towards the establishment of an Industrial Planning and Real Estate Development Commission. The new county agency would cooperate with local Chambers of Commerce and realtors in a concerted drive to attract industrial rateables to the County.

The county's immediate major projects in the future should be according to Dr. Carlin:

1. Use of county facilities, via expansion of the County for the elderly who are now being sent out of the County to nursing homes.
2. More aid and assistance to the local mental health agencies and more public discussion of the subject to increase the citizenry's willingness to support such efforts.
3. New facilities for juvenile offenders now housed in a portion of the County Jail.
4. The establishment of a Vocational School to provide the technical training which the County's high schools do not offer in the industrial arts courses.

Ethical Culture Sunday School Starts Fall Term

The fall term of the Ethical Culture Sunday School begins 11:00 a.m., September 25 at the Ethical Society Building, 516 Prospect Street, Maplewood, New Jersey.

Tuition fee is nominal and membership in the society is not required.

The director of the Sunday School explains that, "We place special emphasis on the development of ethical attitudes through a carefully planned curriculum which includes the study of all religions and comparative civilizations."

They are a religious fellowship which leaves its members free in theological matters and concentrates instead upon the study of human relations in the conviction that they can be made increasingly better.

As ministers, Ethical Culture leaders are empowered to officiate at marriages, funerals, etc. Complete information about the Ethical Culture Society School can be obtained by mail or phone.

Loews To Show Science Drama

A remarkable excursion into the fourth dimension—TIME is depicted in "The Time Machine," George Pal's new science adventure drama for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer starting Wednesday at Loew's Theatre in Newark.

Filmed in wide screen and color against both realistic and strikingly imaginative settings, and with the unique photographic effects for which five-time Academy Award-winner Pal is noted, the picture is based on H. G. Wells' famed novel concerning an Englishman who invents a machine which takes him into the future.

The Time Traveler is played by Rod Taylor, with other top rolls enacted by Alan Young (who starred in Pal's previous production, Tom Thumb), Sebastian Cabot, Tom Helmore and MGM's new find, blonde Yvette Minnoux. The latter plays a girl depicted as living in the year 802,701 A.D., and one of the fascinating aspects of "The Time Machine" is its view of what people look like, dress like, and behave like 800,000 years from now.

The screen play of "The Time Machine" was written by David Duncan. The picture was produced and directed by George Pal, whose unusual science fiction film successes include "War of the Worlds" (also based on an H. G. Wells novel), "Destination Moon" and "When Worlds Collide."

Also being shown on the same program is an hilarious comedy, "90 Foot Bride of Candy Rock" featuring Lou Costello, Dorothy Provine and Gale Gordon.

TAKING CARE OF YOUR GARDEN

By Edward A. Cardinal

The recent hurricane has done untold damage in this area. As chairman of the Shade Tree Commission much of the damage is diverted to my attention. I was deluged with calls every hour of the day—and night, and apparently everyone's problem was much more urgent than his neighbor's. Unfortunately, prime consideration had to go to clearing the streets for traffic, and clearing power lines. We then had to consider clearing sidewalks and replanting young trees which had uprooted, yet could be saved by prompt replanting. Then came straight-

Symposium Discusses Children

"Children in a Changing World" will be under consideration at a Symposium to discuss the findings of the 190 White House Conference on Children & Youth.

Mrs. Peter C. Rung of Roselle, County Council Chairman of Parent and Family Life Education announces that the Annual Conference for Parent & Family Life Education will be held on September 27 at the Ram Hills Inn on Royle 202, Somerville, N.J. at 10:00 a.m. These sessions are jointly sponsored by the N.J. Cooperative Extension Service of Rutgers, The State University and the N.J. Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Presiding will be Mrs. Herbert Brower chairman of the Parent Family Life Education Committee for the State Congress and Mrs. C. Lester Greer, extension specialist in human relations, Rutgers.

The Symposium consultants will be Mrs. William Raiman, III president of the N.J. Welfare Council; Samuel Witchell, associate professor of sociology, Glassboro State College; and Sampson Smith, superintendent of schools, Franklin Township.

ing every tree that could be supported, and a general cleanup of the town—which by the way was greatly multiplied by homeowners dumping their uprooted trees and branches in the streets.

I wish to publicly thank Temple Tree Service, Faucher Tree Service and N. Chornen for the splendid cooperation in working in driving rain among high voltage power lines and falling trees. By nightfall all roads were clear and hazardous trees were felled or cleared. Naturally, I was accused of playing politics, favoring friends, etc., but while I was busy expediting emergency work I failed to notice damage to the roof of my warehouse, and much material was destroyed by driving rain.

There is much work left to be done, so I urge everyone to be patient for the Shade Tree Commission has no paid help, and must depend upon outside contractors to do the work—and when they are available.

Q: I have a young tree that was uprooted. Shall I force it back in position?
A: First, remove the soil below the uprooted portion of the tree to allow room for the roots to go in. Next straighten the tree and refill the hole with good soil and humus or manure, if available. Tramp soil firmly around the roots and restake the tree firmly. It would also be wise to cut back the branches, or thin out some branches so that the damaged root system will have less to support.

Q: Why were so many young trees uprooted, yet comparatively few large trees felled?
A: Most young trees were planted in developments where the topsoil was removed. This caused the roots to remain in a small, clay pocket which was insufficient support for the large tops. The excess rain, prior to the winds, saturated the soil so that the roots were no longer firmly imbedded, and the tree was an easy victim to Donna.

Q: Our tree was partially uprooted so that the sidewalk was raised ten inches. Is it safe to cut off this foot to get the walk to the right level?
A: This condition could only be determined by an expert. However, I would feel that a foot of this size might not be removed without the danger of the next hurricane toppling the tree, unless supporting wires could be fastened to the tree.

Q: Would you advise fertilizing trees after the storm?
A: Feeding the trees would help to encourage new roots, which would in turn help support the trees. I would also advise thinning out trees that have dense foliage, for this allows the winds to go through a tree more readily and prevents uprooting.

PLAINS FACES TOUGH TASK - HEIGHTS IN DEBUT

By Z. SPOUTER

A Certain Something

Grotesquely decorated hotrods exceeding their capacity by at least 5 or 6 passengers—the sometimes-out of step and out of tune band—the shrieks of the girl friend cheering her "Idiot"—the rhythmic chant of the student body—the shrill of the official's whistle—singularly they mean nothing—collectively, it is the living part of an autumn afternoon. But not just any autumn afternoon, it is an afternoon with 22 youngsters "knocking heads." It is high school football.

You can watch the All-Americans on TV Saturdays—you can watch the pros on TV Sundays, but no matter how superior the talent, they lack something that high school football doesn't.

There is the short pudgy guard, that moves at a slow-pace; there is the tall gangly end, not too well coordinated, tripping over the white markers; there is the 140-pound back with nothing but guts and the desire to compensate for his size—this is high school football.

There are the shouts from the stands, that the "22" like to hear; there are the variegated colors of the cheerleaders and band; there is the seemingly-impossible endurance of shouting and pleading from the cheerleaders. This is high school football.

There is the tense, finger-nail biting mother, sitting on the edge of her seat as her "baby" plays a "man's" game, there is the proud, outwardly insouciant father prodding up and down the sidelines; snapping pictures of "the chip of the old block;" there is the kid brother boasting, "that's my big brother playing." This is high school football.

FOR THE GOOD OF THE TEAM

Chuck Nelson has his work cut out for him at Scotch Plains this year, but it's not going to be beyond reproach. Anytime a coach is defending a championship, the pressure is on him. The fans expect a winner every year. This can't be, as the Yankees fell from their customary World Series cloud.

Maybe his team won't go to the winners circle, but we think he'll be in the money. Aside from Nelson's coaching capabilities, the players' ability, the spirit Nelson has instilled in the squad, there is an end-turned quarterback. He is not just an end—he is an All-County end from 1959.

It must be difficult for the coach to tell an outstanding youngster, "you will be playing a new position this year." In most cases it would be equally as difficult for the youngster to accept the new assignment. I said in most cases—but not when dealing with Bruce Springer.

While Bruce was making the headlines catching passes last year—Nelson was breaking in on throwing passes in junior varsity games. Nelson is confident Bruce will be successful at throwing rather than catching this year.

Naturally, no one can tell just how successful any team or individual will be until the season ends. Many pre-season predictions and forecasts have gone by the boards due to this "unexpected" in sports. Keeping this in mind, I won't say Springer will be an All-County quarterback, and that Scotch Plains will come in the money. I'll just think it!!!

THE SPOUTER SEZ:

SPRINGFIELD OVER HILLSIDE—Hillside is about two weeks away from reaching their peak. Fortunately for Herb Palmer his boys are ready right now. They have just about all that is needed for a successful season. Herb Etzold and Tom Marino will pose to big a problem for the Hillside boys to stem.

ROSELLE OVER SCOTCH PLAINS—We hate to do this to the likable Chuck Nelson at Scotch Plains, but Roselle is loaded. They have too much of everything—size, experience, and a potent offense. If Bruce Springer is as successful at quarterback as he was at end last year, this will be a close affair.

PARSIPPANY OVER BERKELEY HEIGHTS—This will be a battle of two young teams. Parsippany did win a game last year in their second season of competition. This probably is the only difference in the two teams, and we think it will be the deciding factor.

Springfield "11" Lone Favorite

HERE THEY COME — This is just a warning as to how the Springfield Bull Dogs are going to appear to Hillside Saturday in the lid-lifter. If they live up to pre-season expectations they will be just as voracious as they appear in this picture. This group is considered by Coach Herb Palmer as his "starting 11." The linemen in their 4-point stance are—Fred Unglaub, John Buckley, Bill Geoghgan, Ed Erskine, Frank, Bervelli, Monty Sica and John Lies. The backs coming at you are: Carl Kirchberger, Phil Rittersbacher, Tom Marino, Mike Greenberg, Tuffy Hartz, and Herb Etzold. (Photo by Fred Keesing)

READY TO MOVE ON — Tuffy Hartz (L) and Tom Marino (R) are just two of the many backs that will be giving Hillside fits Saturday. Hartz can perform at quarterback and fullback while Palmer is counting on Marino to fill the air with his aerials. Along with Herb Etzold, Springfield should prove too much for the Hillside bunch. Grid Coach Nelson Cops Bat Title, 483

The Scotch Plains grid coach, Nelson, showed that his athletic talents do not end on the grid iron. He walloped the little round sphere at a 483 clip which was better than 60 points over his nearest rival, Chuck, who will guide his football charges against Roselle Saturday, connected for 28 safeties in 58 at-bats.

Nelson's big stick helped carry his club, the Plainfield Dreiers to the Union County Baseball League championship.

"What was Nelson's comment on winning the UCL bat title? "I'm getting too old for that stuff."

"We Want Hillside" Chant Means That Springfield Is Ready

If spirit alone can win ball games, Springfield's opponents may just as well stay home on Saturday afternoons. "We had to chase them home the other day," boasted first-year coach Herb Palmer.

The boys gathered in front of the school, and started a rhythmic chant, "We Want Hillside," "We Want Hillside." It doesn't score—points for Palmer's kids, but it gives them an edge over their opposition. Did you ever see a team lose because they had too much spirit?

"Good Little Team"

Few coaches are optimistic in pre-season drills. For obvious reasons they prefer to look on the dark side. It was surprising to hear Coach Palmer say, "We have a good little team. I just how far we will go . . . I don't know."

He has nine men that lettered at Regional or Clark. He has Herb Etzold back with three years experience and eight touchdowns to his credit from last year. He has Tuffy Hartz his best all round back. He has Art Gerber his best lineman. He has Fred Unglaub, end, with 3 years experience. He has John Lies, his best pass receiver with 2 years experience. He has Tom Marino, second team all state at prep school, at quarterback.

Can you question his slight tinge of optimism?

Palmer can look to the following personnel if he needs reserves. On the line he will have Frank Ferrilli, John Campanella, Frank Parente, and Tom Venice. For my backfield assistance he will look to a group headed by Mike Greenberg.

With all their spirit—with all their experience—with all their potential—it may be a very successful year for freshman coach, Herb Palmer.

TOP BANANA—From the grin on Hal Burdette's face, you can well imagine that he has just completed a pretty fair evening of bowling. Those signs in the background must have had an effect on Hal. He kept coming in with a hot net and has upped his average to 190. He took high honors in the Springfield Sports League last year with an average of 187.

Two Scotch Plains residents now attending Lehigh University, Bethlehem Pa., will be performing for the University's freshman squad—they are John R. DeNoia, quarterback, who attended Seton Hall Prep; and Edwin J. Holt II, halfback, Scotch Plains-Fahwood High School.

The rookies will go against five opponents during the season. The schedule

Opt. 7, at Delaware; 21, at Rutgers; 28, at Columbia; Nov. 5 Bucknell, home; Nov. 11, Lafayette, home.

Coach George F. Haffner was greeted by 32 candidates for the squad, when practice commenced, Sept. 16.

DeNoia and Holt On Lehigh Frsh.

She made a 7-10 split—Do you think you are a pretty hot-shot bowler? If you do come down off your high horse and take notice of 18-year-old Kathleen Fineran, Summit. She made the impossible 7-10 split at The Echo Lanes Alleys on Rt. 22. Her mother, Mrs. Edna Fineran seems more joyful at her daughter's achievement than Kathleen. (Photo by Fred Keesing)

Both Underdogs In 2:00 Opener

Three area teams, Berkeley Heights, Scotch Plains & Berkeley go into action this Saturday at 2:00 p.m. Scotch Plains will be the only one of the three playing on their home grounds, against a big-tough, experienced Roselle contingent.

Springfield will be going against Hillside, and rounding out the tri-team schedule will be the spanking new Berkeley Heights squad journeying up to Parsippany for their inaugural ONLY SPRINGFIELD FAVORED

Only one team can rated as the favorite, that being Springfield. Coach Herb Palmer in his first season at the helm in Springfield, has inherited a wealthy supply of talent.

With Art Gerber leading the front line charge and supposedly two of the county's finer backs, Herb Etzold and quarterback Tom Marino handling the scoring, Palmer should not only be in for an enjoyable afternoon Saturday, but an entire season. ROSELLE TO BE PLENTY TOUGH

A real thriller should be the Scotch Plains-Roselle battle. Roselle will field an exceptionally big, strong, experienced team. They have lost one starter from last year's team, George Land, but his loss will not be felt as much as Nelson's losses from last year.

Nelson has lost the entire team barring Bruce Springer, who will be performing at a new position this year. This is Nelson's prime concern—trying to get his offense to "jell." He feels that his defense is adequate, but his offense has been slow meeting his expectations.

After their stunning 13-6 defeat last year to Plains, Roselle will be seeking revenge. Whether Nelson can get his comparatively inexperienced group ready for this veteran Roselle squad remains to be seen.

NEITHER HAS MUCH

The Parsippany-Berkeley Heights contest will be pitting two schools that will have rough going throughout most of the season.

Parsippany is not quite as inexperienced as Berkeley Heights, since this will be their third season of competition. They managed to win the eight last year.

Their new coach this year, Mike Merola, is as pessimistic as Art Brown at Berkeley Heights. Merola jestingly said, "We will be the decided underdog in every game with the exception of the Berkeley Heights game. We only have 22 men on the varsity and no experience to speak of."

URNS GRAPPLER

Ricki Starr, darling of the hal-let, who is also a top professional wrestler, meets Larry Simon of Irvington in one of the two featured bouts on the wrestling card to be held at the Elizabeth Elks Auditorium this Friday night. In the other feature, Bruno Salamartino, Italian strong boy, meets Dr. Jerry Graham.

PLENTY TO TALK ABOUT—These four gentlemen have plenty to talk about and most of their conversation is probably centered around the problem of their new Berkeley Heights football team. They will see Saturday if they have made any progress as Berkeley Heights travels to Parsippany for their very first game. Offering a possible panacea to Coach Al Brown are his three assistants, L-R Boyd Sands, Chris Wade, Brown and Mike Suchena. (Photo by Fred Kessing)

Olympics Indicate U.S. Holding Own, But Gymnastics Lag Fanwood-Plains Y Steps Up Program

The results of the recent Olympic Games, in Rome, were related, today, to the new emphasis in program being presented in the Fanwood-Scotch Plains Y.M.C.A. General Secretary, Duncan R. Smith, of the local 'Y' pointed out that the Olympics prove that American physical education is doing well in the field of major and team sports but that it is not offering enough training in individual skills and in such activities as gymnastics.

In this latter field the newspapers, radio and TV reports neglected to give more than a quick flashing look at the gymnastic side of the picture as the American contingent, small and lacking in historical experience lost many points. European and Asiatic representatives piled up many points in this field because in many countries a great deal of training in such programs is carried on.

SHOW GOOD IN STATE—Last winter's New Jersey State Developmental Gymnastics contest for boys and girls, sponsored by the Y.M.C.A. and the NAY proved that two Scotch Plains 'Y' boys, age seven were second and third place competitors in tumbling in a state wide field which included boys up to 12 years of age.

The Fanwood-Scotch Plains 'Y's Scotch Plains for boys has, for three years been working on a program of progressive skills training in gymnastics. This year the program has been expanded to include fourth grade boys and a program for girls has also been introduced. And, this year, a skills program for junior high and high school boys will be carried on for the first time.

Last year the Fanwood-Scotch Plains 'Y' physical education team for demonstration purposes, composed of both boys and girls from ages 7 through 17. These dozen enthusiastic gymnastic students put in one hour a week of special practice and performed several demonstrations before groups, much to the amazement of their audiences. They also came out of the state gymnastic meet with four medals, after less than a year of the program.

PRE-SCHOOL TEACHING

Even in the pre-school groups and the kindergarten classes being carried on this fall by the local 'Y' physical development is being emphasized with coordination as a basic objective in the program known as 'Gym Jams' being taught by Mrs. Agnes Roberts and prepared by the entire 'Y' staff as a joint effort to devise more effective physical education program.

General Secretary Smith said that he hopes that the trend toward more emphasis on the individual skills and especially gymnastic training will spread throughout the country and that in future Olympics America will be as proud of her competitors in this field as they are in team sports and other major athletics.

'Slimnastics' at Y

'Slimnastics' classes for women begin at the Fanwood-Scotch Plains Y.M.C.A. on Wednesday, Sept. 21st at 9:30 a.m., it was announced today by 'Y' physical director George W. Hoffman. One feature of the program as offered by the 'Y' is a baby sitting service on the premises for mother of young children who do not have a place to leave them that day.

The program, this year, will consist of exercises, badminton, volleyball, and, periodically, the use of certain types of gym apparatus. Bowling after the gym period is available to those who wish to spend the extra time. Beginners are welcome and are taught the games with which they are not familiar.

The class, which lasts for eight weeks is one of four series to be run during the program year. Registration is limited to 25 women per class so that those who are interested are urged to inquire at the LMCA offices immediately about the course to begin on September 21.

With the inauguration of the point system of scoring we can see many big series in the offing in the Springfield Sports League. One point for a winning game, plus an extra point for the four teams showing the highest three game score will undoubtedly bring out the best in every bowler. This week's score of the "big gun" started opening up with five men posting series over 500. Colburn with a high game of 223 and a 571 series led the field, with Ed Cardinal's 207 and 565

Fioroni 265, 649 In West Essex Major At Livingston Lanes

The newly fortified West Essex Major League, which is in their first season, and bowls at Livingston Lanes, Livingston, N.J., on Tuesday nights at 9:15 p.m., has started off with a bang. At the end of two weeks there are six teams tied for first place at 4-2, they are, Livingston Lanes, Bowlers Acm, Trophy Cocktail Lounge, Jaydee Bowl Supply, Storey's, and B&K Market.

The first week saw Lewellyn Edison Savings & Loan top team game at 1,001, and then in two weeks saw Jay & Benish Insurance roll two 1,000 games, as they rolled 1,026, and 1,022. Twins Restaurant also rolled a 1,000 game as they had 1,000 even. Team high series was rolled by Livingston Lanes the first night at 2,980, and their opp. Johnny's Snack Bar roll 2,945 and lose all three games to Livingston Lanes.

series close upon his heels. Phil Conte with 201 and 561 helped save the Conte team from a complete rout by the F.B.A., with Del Tompkins pacing the Cops with 202 and 553 for the series.

Hal Burdette, top scorer in the Sports League during the 1959 season with a 182 average, came through for the second week in a row as high man on his team with 202 and 560 net. Hal is currently averaging 196 and going strong. He is truly one of the "Big Guns" in local competition, and rates as Springfield's best bowler. Always a dangerous man in the 10th frame, his competition can never count on winning a game until the last pin has fallen, and rarely has there been a tournament without Hal being in the money.

Church League Goes Into Action

The Springfield Church League opened its new season at the "spruced up" local alleys Friday night, with the same number of teams entered, with just about the same personnel, as last year. Apparently the long summer lay-off tarnished the sharpness of the bowlers, as only two was able to surpass the 200 mark. Simon of team No. 16 with a 213, and Flecko subbing for team No. 7 came in with 203.

Last year's champs, Andrews No. 5, picked up where they left off last year and took three from Lindeman No. 1. Also involved in the three-way tie for first place are Douglas No. 11, Larsen No. 4 and Tice No. 7.

Andrews Tops Church League

In the second week of the Church League bowling, in Springfield, Andrews No. 5 won all three games from LaSota No. 1 and now maintains a one game lead over Schmidt No. 11, who also won three from Stewart No. 12.

Andrew of team No. 5 was high for the night with games of 244-203-191 for a 605 series. The single high game of the night went to Al Johnson with a 224. Herman followed with a 204 and Slight a 201.

Beth Ahm Starts 4th Alley Season

Temple Beth Ahm, Springfield, started the 4th season of League Bowling at the Star Bowling Alley's in Watchung in a very quiet way. It being the first week of bowling and on new alleys might of had something to do with it. But once the league gets rolling the scores will reach proportionate heights. The big man for the day was Lee Sarokin with a 574 series, and Syd Faber came in with the high game for the day with a 212. Other high games were A. Green 208, E. Meyer 200 and A. Weinberg 203.

The league and all the members should feel very proud of itself as they've grown from pick up teams of a few men to a well organized 24 team league. Of course the high light of the entire season of bowling is the Award Dinner and Dance held at the end of the season.
