Magistrate Argyris Stresses Court's Function in Fighting JD

Thomas Argyris sat in the Township's magistrate chair for the first time last January 9. In his brief speech before fulfilling his duties as Magistrate, Judge Argyris very pointedly discussed and explained his views on the importance of local Municipal Courts.

Referring to the late Chief Justice Vanderbilt's statement that the Municipal Court is the most important court in New Jersey, Magistrate Argyris said "It is the court that is closest to the people since it come in direct contact with thousands whereas the other courts only reach hundreds."

In his talk, he also emphasized the court's work in dealing with juvenile delinquency through the Municipal Juvenile Delinquency Committee. One of Magistrate Argyris's chief aims while serving the Township will be to instill into the youth of today a greater "respect for the law" and to help them realize their important function that of "preserving a well-ordered society."

He went on to say "I have, and I am sure you too have, unfortunately witnessed that some of our young offenders of the law, in sheer bravado stemming from resentment and disrespect for law and order, appear before our courts and in an insolent manner go as far as they can to insult and antagonize the police with little regard, if any, for the dignity of the court.

"The black leather jacket, long hair and general all-around sloppiness, attributable to immaturity rather than to material lack of want, coupled with a scornful and contemptuous attitude which a small portion of the youth presently consider as marks of distinction, are undesirable manifestations, and have no rightful place in a community like Springfield. If the 'don't care' attitude is not curbed, this deliberate flaunting of law and order may lead through the milder forms of dissipation and law violation to a life of crime, with prison doors yawning at the end of the road.

"We live in a community which we can all be justly proud of and it is the duty of each and everyone of us to strive to improve it. Both young and old should assist and cooperate with our excellent police force

Chief Engineer At Newark Backs Fire Referendum

To add credence to the Springfield Board of Education stand on the proposed fire safety referendum, the Board today received a letter of endorsement from the Chief Engineer for the City of Newark, Fred Waideck.

Here is the text of his letter: "I noticed an article in the 'Newark Evening News' of December 21st, 1960, in which you propose a referendum for approval of an expenditure of $38,150 for sprinkler protection in your schools.

"There has been a rapidly increasing appreciation of the value of automatic sprinkler systems, particularly in connection with safety to life in existing buildings.

"It is generally known that water from an operating sprinkler system is delivered to the seat of a fire more effectively than by any other method.

"Fire records show that a very high percentage of fires in sprinklered buildings are extinguished or controlled by the sprinklers.

"The greatest danger to the lives of school children does not always come from simple negligence or carelessness in fire safety. It may come from the hesitancy on the part of responsible persons to spend the necessary money for needed fire protection.

"Mr. Joseph Bender and his committee are to be commended on their foresight and understanding of the dangers which exist in our schools.

"I hope your referendum for $38,150, a minor amount where children are concerned, is accepted by the voters."

First Aid Squad Will Purchase New Ambulance

As a result of a survey made by a special committee of the Springfield First Aid Squad, members, at the monthly business meeting held this Thursday, voted to purchase a new Miller Meteor Emergency Ambulance.

It is expected that delivery of the new vehicle will be made as soon as the necessary equipment is installed by the manufacturer.

The new ambulance, a Cadillac chassis, will include oxygenators, automatic resuscitators, room for 4 patients, a 2-way short-wave radio and many extra features designed for greater efficiency.

The older of the two ambulances now being used will be traded as part of the transaction.

According to squad officials, the age of the older rig was making constant repairs necessary thereby taking it out of service for several days at a time and in order to offer Springfield residents the most reliable service possible, it was decided that a replacement was required.

"Only through the generous response to our annual fund drive by Springfield residents," said one official, "is it possible for us to replace our equipment when necessary."

"Those who have donated so unflatteringly each year can take a personal pride in every piece of equipment we own. We are constantly striving to keep such equipment at peak efficiency."

A formal dedication of the new ambulance will take place in the near future.

Werner Disputes Mayor's Message On School Budget

Richard E. Werner, Chairman of the Public Relations Committee of the Springfield Board of Education, takes issue with the statement released last week in the SPRINGFIELD SUN by Mayor Vincent Bonadies concerning the effect of the school tax on local budget. Following is Mr. Werner's rebuttal:

"The Public Relations Committee of the Springfield Board of Education feels that the release of last week's SPRINGFIELD SUN concerning the effect of the school budget on the local tax was inaccurate.

"It would seem that Mayor Vincent Bonadies in stating that the Springfield Elementary Schools would cause a 26 point tax increase, plus 9 additional points for the fire detection system, was basing his information assuming only a $600,000 dollar increase in the tax rate structure. However, as certified by the County Tax Official within a few days of the Mayor's release, the actual tax rate increase is $2,600,000.00. This two million dollar difference will change the Mayor's figures considerably.

12 POINT TAX INCREASE
The Committee estimates that the actual tax increase for the new budget will be nearer 12 points, and the fire detection system will add 8 points. The following figures will indicate why:

"The 1961 Net Ratables are $17,673,000.00, so by dividing $2,600,000.00 into the amount to be raised by taxation, namely $1,767,000, the tax rate figure is $2.48. Last year's amount was $2.34, making a 12 point difference. Furthermore, by dividing $476,730 into the $38,000 for the fire detection proposal, we find .08 as the tax factor.

MAYOR'S STATEMENT
"The Public Relations Committee also feels that the following quotation by the Mayor was slanted: 'This means that over 70 per cent of your tax dollar

Higher Education Topic Board For LWV General Meeting

A timely and provocative subject, "The State of Higher Education in New Jersey" will be the feature of the January 21 general meeting of the Springfield League of Women Voters.

Letters to The Editor

Editor, SUN:

On behalf of the United Nations Children's Fund, we would like to express our deep appreciation to the Schools, churches, temples and local officials and agencies of Springfield who sponsored the 1960 Trick or Treat program and the young people who participated. The results of your efforts reflect careful planning and cooperation so necessary for a successful UNICEF Halloween.

Your contribution will enable UNICEF to expand its vital work which this year will benefit more than 55,000,000 children and their mothers in over 100 countries. By helping governments to control mass diseases, combat malnutrition, and establish facilities for proper child care, many more children will be able to lead a healthy life today and contribute constructively to the welfare of their countries and the world tomorrow. Will you please extend our gratitude to the young people and leaders whose interest and enthusiasm symbolize their concern for the needs of children in the world today.

Enclosed is a certificate of appreciation, a token from the children who would want to thank you for your wonderful support of UNICEF.

Sincerely,
 C. Lloyd Bailey
 Executive Director

Editor, SUN:

Once again the people of Union County are hearing a great deal about Assembly reapportionment and about that "fifth" Assembly seat, to which we are so clearly entitled, but which seems to keep eluding us. Do we face another year of frustration?

Admittedly, reapportionment is a tough nut to crack, but the equal representation, but the chief obstacle to correction is

The local league is fortunate in having a distinguished speaker, Mrs. William E. Fairbanks, who in addition to being LWV, state board chairman of the higher education committee, has a wide and varied service as an educator, community leader, and public servant. This included holding teaching posts at Swarthmore and Barnard Colleges and administrative posts in U.S. Housing Authority and Civil Service Commission.

Mrs. Fairbanks will attempt to summarize the facts on the structure and operation of public institutions for higher learning presently in existence in New Jersey. This will lead to group discussion of the future of higher education in New Jersey.

Another prominent visitor to this meeting will be Joseph Bender of the Springfield Board of Education. Mr. Bender will explain the proposed fire protection system which is on a referendum to be voted upon February 14.

The meeting will be at the home of Mrs. A. E. Comen, 33 Hemlock Terrace at 8:15 P.M.

net one of mechanics, it is simply the absence of fair play. Why should Union County have only one Assembly vote for every 126,000 people while Hudson County has one for every 68,000? Why should Atlantic City, with 28% fewer people than Burlington County, have double the Assembly voice of Burlington?

Our present Union County Assembly members are to be commended for their persistent and energetic efforts. It is also up to us, their constituents, to raise our voices and to demand an end to this gross injustice.

Any party that continues to condone unequal representation may well suffer in future elections. The legislators in all 21 counties should bear this fact in mind.

Sincerely,
 Robert Kadrt

goes for schools, and about 22 per cent is left for Municipal Services. Even the debt service reflects the same unbalance — recent local school debt is $2,341,000 compared to the Municipal Debt of $775,990.

The Local School System and the Regional School System employ hundreds of professional people and maintain large facilities to carry on their work on behalf of the interest of our community. Isn't it normal and logical that this be the largest part of the community's expenses?

Meadowbrook to Offer Two Porter Classics in Spring

Hope to Have Porter at "Anything Goes"

Cole Porter, a legend during his own musical lifetime, will be honored twice this spring at the fabulous Meadowbrook Dinner Theatre, Route 22.

Two of the four early 1961 Broadway musical comedy hits planned by Meadowbrook producers Helga & Gary McHigh and Carl Sawyer are the Porter classics: "Anything Goes" and "Silk Stockings". The former will be the year's inaugural production commencing February 24, and will be followed by "Silk Stockings" on April 4.

Since its conversion to a dinner-theatre in April, 1959, the Meadowbrook has produced 20 musicals, but only one Cole Porter show. This was "Can-Can", a Barbara Ashley-Robert Goss hit of a summer ago.

Porter has never visited the Meadowbrook, but plans are under way to have him attend the "Anything Goes" production which will feature an all-star cast. This is the production which brought Ethel Merman added fame when first produced on Broadway in 1934.

One of the world's three unrivalled composers of both words and music (the only others who rank with him are Frank Loesser and Irving Berlin), Porter has written 22 Broadway successes, seven motion picture scores, and such songs as "Begin the Beguine" and "I Love Paris". He has contributed some of his most memorable music in "Anything Goes", including: "How, Gabriel, Blow," "You're the Tops".

McCarter Theater Offers Shakespeare in Repertory

Present Five Plays On Permanent Stage

An unique form of presentation is promised for the forthcoming season of Shakespeare in Repertory at Princeton's McCarter Theatre, opening on February 28 and running through March 25th. Ellis Rabb, artistic director of the Association of Producing Artists, believes that "the play's the thing," and has accordingly devised a form of presentation that stresses simplicity and unity of style, without "gimmicks" and spectacular effects.

The five plays — King Lear, A Midsummer-Night's Dream, Twelfth Night, As You Like It, and Hamlet — will be given on a permanent stage designed by Hugh Hardy that can be adapted for any setting required by the plays, from the battlements at Elsinore, to a wood near Athens. Ann Roth has designed costumes that are similarly versatile.

The directors for the season are Stephen Porter, Allen Fletcher, David Wheeler, and Mr. Rabb. Mr. Porter, remembered for his brilliant direction of "Right You Are and Scapin in the Fall Comedy Series," will be responsible for both Lear and Twelfth Night, while Mr. Fletcher, director of APA's Man and Superman and The Importance of Being Earnest, and the recent off-Broadway production Borak, will stage As You Like It, which he directed with great success last summer at the San Diego Shakespeare Festival.

A Midsummer-Night's Dream will be in the hands of David Wheeler, who staged Yeats' Cat and The Moon at McCarter last fall. Mr. Rabb will undertake the formidable task of putting Hamlet on the stage — this in addition to appearing as Lear and in other roles during the season. Other members of the company will be announced shortly.

VAN CLIBURN AT MOSQUE—The widely acclaimed pianist, Van Cliburn, will appear at the Mosque Theater, Newark, on Saturday evening, January 28. The concert is sponsored by the Ruth Estrin Goldberg Memorial for Cancer Research. Tickets for the performance may be secured through Mrs. S. Goldman, 13 Sycamore Terrace, Springfield, Call MU 2-9423.

You may be "all wet" about Dry cleaning!

Two disputants recently called us to help them resolve an argument—Was drycleaning really dry? We informed them that Drycleaning is a generic term, not a descriptive one... since the solvents used are liquids and steam is used in spot removal and finishing.

What about "French Drycleaning"? We believe that this terminology has some historical credence. The first known drycleaning plant was opened in Paris before 1855. The improvement must have been so outstanding that drycleaners in this country tried emulating them. We hope that our "personalized" service also becomes a criterion of quality for you... and one which others will try to copy.

Mitchell Throws His Hat Into Ring

Strives for Sound Tax Policy, Plus Educational Improvements

James P. Mitchell, Secretary of Labor under Dwight D. Eisenhower, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for governor of New Jersey.

Before his appointment to the Labor position in 1953, Mr. Mitchell was in the field industrial relations and personnel. During the seven years he served under "Ike", Mr. Mitchell was coordinator of all labor activities of the Federal Government. In June, 1960 all trade union leaders gathered in Washington to pay a unique tribute to Mr. Mitchell who has been uniformly acclaimed as "the greatest Secretary of Labor in our history." On this particular occasion President Eisenhower stated "If I live in history it will be because of the wisdom I had in selecting Jim Mitchell as the Secretary of Labor."

Born in Elizabeth, Mr. Mitchell was educated in parochial grade schools and a public high school in Elizabeth. In 1923 he married the former Isabelle Nulton of Roselle Park. They have one daughter, Elizabeth, who is married to Ensign Francis Natchez and they are stationed in the Azores with the U.S. Navy. They have one child, Carla Ann, 9 months.

Following is James P. Mitchell statement:

"I am a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor of the State of New Jersey.

"My family has lived in New Jersey for nearly one hundred years. I was born in this State and I have lived here for most of my life. I want to help improve the quality of administration of our State Government so that it may become a more effective instrument for service to our people.

"New Jersey is one of the most highly industrialized States in the Nation and at the same time enjoys a sound agricultural economy. As Governor I would use to the fullest the powers of the office to achieve an accelerated rate of economic growth, industrial stability and a higher standard of living for all our citizens.

"New Jersey faces some difficult problems—the attainment of equal opportunity, the development of a sound tax policy, more classroom facilities and well paid teaching staffs, improved housing and transportation, urban renewal, larger agricultural markets, adequate medical facilities, and an essential water supply for industrial and residential use.

"I have learned from over fifteen years of experience in public office, both at the county and Federal level, that if we are to maintain the integrity and stature of our State Government we must prove that we can, within the appropriate sphere of State action, meet the needs of our citizens.

"I shall not offer any pleasant sounding cure-alls, however fashionable such panaceas have become in political campaigns. Our problems must be met with drive, imagination, ideas, skill, and hard work. These I am prepared to offer because I am convinced that the best politics is to do a good job.

"A strong united Republican Party in our State will bring about a Republican victory in November. I ask that all citizens who want New Jersey to be the best place in which to live, work, and raise their children, support me in my candidacy for Governor."

"I Get a Kick Out of You" and the title tune. Born with a golden spoon in his mouth to a family of multimillionaires, Porter had a distinguished career at Yale and fought in France during World War One. He wrote songs purely for fun, since in his youth he inherited several millions from his grandfather and didn't need the money.

Finally, in 1928, Porter was persuaded to abandon a gay life to write a musical show. It clicked and was followed by numerous other successes. However, at the peak of his career the handsome songwriter nearly lost both his legs as the result of a horseback riding accident. He spent two years in hospital, underwent 30 painful operations but recovered and today walks with only a slight limp. During his ordeal he wrote many songs that the nations sang joyously and that will live for years to come. Today at age 63, Cole Porter has one excellent movie on Broadway and within several weeks he's going to have two of his finest musicals playing at the show-place-of-the-East, the Meadowbrook Dinner Theatre.

This is the eleventh successive semester of Union Adult School which has one of the highest ratings in the field of New Jersey Adult Schools.

Fifty-two subjects are being offered this semester, all of which have been tested and selected for both quality and popularity by the Executive Committee of the Union Adult School. The fifty-two subjects cover a wide range of topics in six major fields: (1) The Arts, (2) Business & Vocational, (3) Homemaking, (4) Language skills, (5) Music; (6) Recreation.

There has been considerable pressure to expand to another day but the Executive Committee feels that the one day a week and on Wednesday has proven most popular. Further the Committee strongly believes in an expansion of courses with a wider range of subjects in the cultural and vocational fields.

Registry is now open by mail School during the school day and in person at the Union High will continue so until the first session on February 1st. A special 'register in person evening' will permit those who would prefer to call in the evening for registering, on Wednesday evening January 25th at Union High School from 7:30 to 9:30 P.M. ECHO OF SEMINAR — Dr. John R. Pierce of Berkeley Heights, who is credited with the idea behind the communications satellite Echo I, meets four students from Gov. Livingston Regional High School in his hometown following a recent lecture in the Union Junior College Science Seminar for academically talented high school students.

Dr. J. R. Pierce Discusses Satellite Program With Gifted H. S. Students

CRAWFORD — Project Echo may well trace its beginnings to science fiction. Dr. John R. Pierce of Berkeley Heights, who is credited with the idea behind the communication satellite, told 120 academically talented students from 50 North and Central Jersey high schools recently at the Union Junior College Science Seminar.

In a lecture on the topic "Satellites As An Example of Electrical Communications," Dr. Pierce related how he became interested in satellites as a result of reading and writing science fiction. He said he seriously began thinking about the possibilities of using satellites in communications when he was invited in 1954 to speak on the subject for the Princeton Chapter of the Institute of Radio Engineers.

"I was astonished to determine they might be good for something," he said.

Dr. Pierce reported that the Bell Telephone Laboratories is now developing a satellite to handle trans-oceanic telephone and television signals. It would carry its own radio receiver and transmitter rather than reflect microwaves as is being done with Echo I, Dr. Pierce explained. Such a satellite would have the potentiality for commercial trans-oceanic telephone communications, he added.

"Project Echo gives us the opportunity to explore and to face new problems," Dr. Pierce said.

The "father of Echo," who is director of research in communications principles for Bell Telephone Laboratories, Murray Hill, discussed with the high school students some of the major problems faced in the experimental project. Among these were: How could the satellite be launched? What kind of satellite should be used? How would the signal be received from the satellite? How much power and what frequencies should be used to transmit the signals? How much interference would the atmosphere provide? And how would the satellite be tracked?

Dr. Pierce was the second speaker in the ten-lecture series, which is being offered by Union Junior College under grant from the Merck Company Foundation. The lecture-discussion seminar is designed to challenge the high school students intellectually and to create an interest in science and mathematics.

Following Dr. Pierce's lecture, the students broke up into five groups for discussions of the topic. The discussion leaders were: Dr. Pierce; Dr. Kenneth W. Iversen, UJC dean; James Potter, chairman of the electrical engineering department at Rutgers University, New Brunswick; and John L. Blach and Ernst Michel, son, both of the UJC faculty.

Adult Sculpture Class Exhibits Work at Library

There is an exhibition of sculpture at the Springfield Public Library. This is not a professional show. It is instead, unashamedly, the result of a 10-session course at the Regional Adult School, in Springfield. The exhibits shown were all done by men and women who have had little or no previous experience. Here is a list of the artists and Materials published, who never know what you can do until you try. Each student in the class determined his own project, and selected his choice of material. Some worked with moist clay, others with plaster, while some preferred direct carving out of plaster blocks or wood. The Spring session starts next week, January 24 and 25. There are two classes scheduled, Tuesday nights, 7:30 to 9:30. The instructor of the Sculpture classes, is Lillian Johnson of Springfield. She recently had a book "Sculpture, the Basic Meth-

Highlander Cagers To Meet Finishes Radio New Providence Pioneers Relay Training

BERKELEY HEIGHTS — If you're a basketball fan of Governor Livingston Regional High School, circle Jan. 27 on your favorite calendar.

That's a night that the Highlander basketball team is anxiously awaiting for that's when they get another crack at the powerful Pioneers of neighboring New Providence High.

The Pioneers made the Highlanders their fifth straight victim last Friday before an overflow crowd at New Providence. The Highlanders are sure things will be different when they meet at Berkeley Heights.

It's highly unlikely that the Pioneers will find the Highlanders as easy next time. Only Howie Rudominer was his usual effective self in Friday's contest with the Pioneers, accounting for half of his team's points (24). Leaphr Lynn Nesbitt, the Highlanders' No. 2 scorer, had his poorest night of the season, scoring only six points.

Lynn had averaged 19.3 points per game before the New Providence contest. The Highlanders had averaged 65.3 points per game in their first six contests and 68 points per contest in winning three straight games before meeting the Pioneers.

Despite their scoring difficulties, the Highlanders battled the undefeated Pioneers on even terms through most of the first half, trailing only 21-27 at intermission. The Pioneers widened the gap in the third period and clinched the decision with a 17-point outburst in the final quarter.

Rich Kester tossed in 26 points for New Providence and is the man the Highlanders will have to check in their bid for an upset in the return meeting. Richie Klein and Jack Weiss lived up to their season averages with 8-point showings against New Providence, with Jerry DiPasquale accounting for the other two points.

The Highlanders had raised Coach Don Wodock's hopes for an upset of New Providence by posting their straight win, 70-68, over Middlesex High on Jan. 10 at Middlesex. Nesbitt and Rudominer, as usual, paced the Highlander attack with 20 and 19 points, respectively.

The Governor Livingston attack was well balanced though with Klein scoring 12 points, Weiss, nine and DiPasquale eight. Neubaer rounded out the Highlander offensive with two foul points.

A rousing second period rally in which Nesbitt accounted for nine points carried the Highlanders to a 36-22 halftime edge. Middlesex never threatened seriously in the second half.

Governor Livingston was hopeful of its squaring its season's record at 1-1 on its played host to strong Highland Park High last Tuesday. The Parkers, highly regarded in pre-season ratings, have been something of a disappointment.

Highland Park bowed to Rahway, 62-56, last week. This raised the Highlanders' hopes of whipping the Middlesex County cagers since Rahway was one of the Highlanders' three victims this season. Highland Park, however, flashed its expected form last Friday in crushing Manville, 76-29.

Revenge for a December defeat will be the Highlanders' motive at 8 p.m. tomorrow when they travel to play Watchung Hills Regional High. Watchung Hills defeated Governor Livingston, 51-51, on Dec. 23 at Berkeley Heights, with the Highlanders losing an eight-point lead in the final period.

Wodock's team has vastly improved since the first meeting, but so has Watchung Hills off its 55-29 romp over Dunellen, a small school power. Last week it should be a ding-dong battle with Rudominer and Nesbitt carrying the Highlanders' hopes.

The Highlanders return home next Tuesday to meet Bridgewater-Raritan High at 3:45 p.m. Governor Livingston will be favored in that test since South Plainfield, upset by the Highlanders, routed Bridgewater-Raritan, 78-16, last Friday.

With 150 points in seven games for a 21.4 average, Rudominer is among Union County's top scorers. Nesbitt lost ground against New Providence and now is averaging 15.8 points per game. The Highlanders other regulars and their game averages are: Weiss, 8.6; Klein, 8.0 and DiPasquale, 6.5. These boys have accounted for all but one of the Highlanders' goals through seven games. Bill Sawyer scored the other.

stand-by calls or assists for other squads. A total of 762 miles were logged by the 2 rigs and 262 hours of time were volunteered by the members.

A breakdown of the calls includes 4 auto accidents, 9 home accidents (mostly due to snow and ice), 1 school accident, 5 in business concerns, 9 heart cases, 1 mugging, 1 fire call, 35 illnesses, and 2 stand-by calls.

December calls were responded to 42 times by one ambulance and 27 by the second owned by the Squad. As a matter of fact, on 5 occasions, both ambulances were operated simultaneously by 2 crews. There were 36 emergencies, 28 transportations and 9

Accounting Firm Expands Takes in 3 More CPA's

BIDDLEMAN, SUSSMAN & COMPANY STARTED PARTNERSHIP IN 1949

In fact most progressive CPA's are certified public accountants. As they like to be called, offer their services as Management Consultants. He has been practicing accounting since his graduation from Newark University—Rutgers—in 1938. He is active with Consultants in many phases of business. No stranger to that field is Meyer A. Biddleman, partner of Biddleman, Sussman & Co., Certified Public Accountants with offices at 1154 Route No. 22, Mountainside.

"Mickey" as he is known to his friends and associates, just recently returned from some extensive traveling in the West coast in behalf of a client for whom he made a series of product consumption analysis re-motivating factor that made J. Benjamin Sussman and Meyer Biddleman purchase and completely renovate an impressive office building on Route 22. Their partnership which started in 1949 was just recently expanded by the admission of Richard Kossin, Kenneth Berman and Edward Rosenkrantz, all Certified Public Accountants. "Ben" Sussman was graduated from Newark University at the same time with Mickey Biddleman in 1938. Sussman, a resident of Springfield, has been active with the Temple Beth Ahm in many finance committee duties. He is active with the Multiple Sclerosis League. He is a member of the N.J. C.P.A. Society and the A.I.A.

Kenneth A. Berman is graduate of the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania. He is presently attending New York University Graduate School of Business for a Masters Degree in Taxation. He is Treasurer of Temple Beth El, Rutherford and an active member of the Passaic County Chapter of the N.J. C.P.A. Society and the American Institute of Accountants. Although his specialty is Federal Income Taxes, he has installed several I.B.M. installations.

MEYER A. BIDDLEMAN

Richard A. Kossin is a graduate of Rutgers University. He conducted his own practice in Passaic before becoming a member of the Biddleman, Sussman & Co. firm. Prior to that, he was with the U.S. Government in the Army Audit Agency. An efficient auditor, he loves to work on mergers and consolidations. He is a member of the American Institute of Accountants and the N.J. C.P.A. Society.

Edward Rosenkrantz is also a graduate of Rutgers University. His experience has led him into systems and system development work. He also is a member of the State and National C.P.A. Societies. The firm has been serving many local business in the field of wholesale, manufacturing, service and utility fields. They also have clients in New York and Pennsylvania. DATES FOR CAMP WAWAYANDA

The 1961 season at the YMCA's Camp Wawayanda will begin on July 2nd according to Frank A. Hydorn, Associate Secretary of the Summit YMCA. Four two week periods will be offered to Summit Area boys who may stay for one or more periods. Registrations are now being accepted at the Summit YMCA.

Camp Wawayanda, located in the Catskill Mountains of New York, is the second oldest YMCA camp in the country, and well known in camping circles throughout the nation. "A wide range of camping programs is offered the 216 campers that can be accommodated at any one period," said Mr. Hydorn. Besides the normal activities one associates with camping, Wawayanda offers individual instruction in riflery, archery, riding and over night camping. For the older boy a special Wilderness Camping program is provided in the Trail Blazer Unit.

Eight boys, together with their counselor, live in each cabin and form the primary unit for the camper during his stay at camp. A registered nurse gives attention to the health needs of all. Wawayanda is under the supervision of Mr. Richard M. Carey a professional YMCA Camp Director with 18 years of experience. Since only a limited number of spaces are reserved for boys from the Summit Area, interested youngsters are encouraged to register early. Complete information on Wawayanda may be obtained by contacting Mr. Hydorn at the Summit YMCA, 67 Maple Street, Summit or by calling CR 3-3330.
