

Mayor Bonadies Grip On Dems Leadership Appears Slipping

The startling Republican victory in Springfield last week not only is taking control of the administration with several fine, succulent plums ready for picking—but it also is building a fire under those dissident and disenchanted Democratic workers of past years who didn't hesitate to declare that they "were taking a walk this year."

Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies, chief architect of the enthusiastic and militant political program which brought the Democrats into complete control of the Springfield administration, "will have to evaluate his chances of re-building and reuniting the organization that enjoyed a short-lived three year majority in the governing body of the Township," stated one of the loyal Democratic workers.

"This is no time for political post mortems," continued the same loyal but a little discouraged Democrat, "but we must close ranks in the Democratic organization in Springfield even if we have to do a complete change in window-dressing. There's a lot of talent among the Democrats here—and, perhaps the machinery is in need of an overhaul job, with some new spark plugs and even a change of technique at the steering wheel."

While there has been no formal gathering of the Democrats since the debacle at the voting machines last week, rumors have been bouncing off every political sounding board that "the question of reorganization for the Springfield Democrats will be thoroughly explored and some changes might be made."

The Democrats, who have been "tolling the political liveyards," insist that "personal gripes and differences" have alienated many of the vigorous party workers and the organization should be rebuilt as soon as possible without regard for what has happened in the past, and no matter whom it offends.

Mayor Bonadies, as the titular head of the Springfield Democrats, lost considerable ground because of Tuesday's rout since there were persistent reports that he was under consideration as the Democratic candidate for State Senator from Union County when and if Senator Robert E. Crane resigns.

With last week's defeat and the apparent fact that he will not have his designation as Mayor after the Falkin, Hardgrove, Del Vecchio Republicans take over January 1, it is hardly likely that Bonadies will have the same degree of acceptance he had among Union County Democrats as he might have taken to the campaign before the November 7 licking.

Not only will Bonadies experience the feeling of having local political leadership slipping through his fingers because he will be reduced to a minority member again on the Township Committee, but raising his sights at the State Senatorial target has become dimmed, at least, very blurred.

Dis-mayed Democrats in Springfield say "Springfield's Democratic Chairman Irwin Weinberg has done an outstanding job and should be urged to accept that leadership again in Springfield but he should be given more power and authority to make decisions."

Bonadies Sends Best Wishes To G. O. P. Victors

Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies has sent a letter of congratulations to all four Republicans who were victorious in last week's election, inviting them to attend all meetings of the Township Committee "for the balance of the year in nonparticipating roles."

He also said that heads of all departments in the Municipal Building have been instructed to make all information available to the newly elected officials "to assist the smooth transition of the government."

Following is a copy of Mayor Bonadies' letter to all four Republican winners:

"May I extend to you my sincere congratulations and best wishes on your election to membership on the Township Committee of the Township of Springfield."

"Membership to the governing body is not only the highest honor one may be bestowed upon him but also carries with it tremendous responsibilities and trust."

"Following custom and tradition the Township Committee invites you and your colleagues to attend all executive meetings of the governing body for the balance of the year in nonparticipating roles."

Attendance will certainly serve to acquaint you with procedure and some of the current problems. The Township Clerk will keep you posted of such meetings.

"To further assist the smooth transition of government, I have this day instructed all department heads to make themselves and/or their personnel available for interview and conference with the newly elected officials and/or their appointees."

Such conferences will serve well to acquaint you and your colleagues with existing departmental procedures and methods.

"Accordingly then I would appreciate notice of any such conferences so that proper records are made available."

"Best of luck to all,

Vincent J. Bonadies

Joint Thanksgiving Services Wed. At Methodist Church

An inspiring interdenominational joint Thanksgiving service will be held on the eve of the holiday, Wednesday, November 22 at 8:00 p.m. sharp. For the 6th consecutive year, this beautiful service will grace the community of Springfield at the Methodist Church.

The evening of prayer has been arranged cooperatively by the

REV. BENJAMIN GILBERT

Presbyterian Church, the Methodist Church, Temple Shalom and Temple Beth Ahm. The Thanksgiving Service will express thoughts common to all faiths at this season.

Each year one Springfield congregation has assumed the responsibility of being the host for the Thanksgiving service. The host for the interdenominational service this year will be the Methodist Church on Main Street.

Sharing in the preparation for the evening are Reverend Bruce Evans, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church; his assistant, Pastor, Reverend Donald Weber; Dr. Benjamin Gilbert of the Methodist Church; Rabbi Israel Dressner of Temple Shalom and Rabbi Reuben Levine of Temple Beth Ahm. Past services have shown how beautiful and satisfying it is to observe this great American holiday in the company of friends and neighbors. Everyone is welcome to share this inspiring experience November 22 at 8:00 p.m. sharp at the Methodist Church.

Jack Stiefelman, chairman of the Springfield drive, announces that "there are still many prospects to be seen and that the campaign would continue until the total is nearer to the target set for Springfield. Those wishing to contribute to the Boy Scouts, those who haven't yet sent in their usual contributions, are urged to send checks as soon as possible."

The special gift committee reported receipts of $646 and the house-to-house solicitations has reached a total of $1388.88. The full total represents contributions from 1207 residents of Springfield.

$359.55 Is Collected For Unicef

Despite the directive from the National Congress of Parents and Teachers ordering the Springfield PTA's not to sponsor the annual Trick of Treat drive for Unicef funds this year, a group of Township mothers organized a last minute campaign which brought in a total of $359.55.

This total was about one third of the more than $1000 realized last year as the result of this popular Halloween eve project but the parents who quickly took over the drive are happy that this $359.55 was received after such a late start.

In a letter to the public, signed by Lucille Weiss, Lorraine Lewis, Helen Sabo and Sonya Dorsky, the group wrote that "we wish to extend to all the people who graciously volunteered to assist us in the Halloween collection for the United Nation's Unicef Fund."

"Our sincerest thanks to Police Chief W. Selander and members of the Police Department for caring for the funds as they were collected, transporting the collection to the bank and for the tedious task of counting all the small change."

"Our thanks and appreciation also go to the following who permitted their homes to become distribution and collection centers for Unicef containers: Mrs. Winifred Yuckman, Mrs. Ruth Gold, Mrs. Sylvia Bender, Mrs. Louis Cunningham, Mrs. Trudy Birch, Mrs. Marion Kunc, Mrs. Selma Gross, Mrs. Jo-Jayne, Mrs. Joan Lowy, Mrs. Dorothy Danzinger, Mrs. Ruth Miller, Mrs. Jean Hass, Mrs. Hazel Hardgrove, Mrs. Ruth Schwartz, Mrs. Cynthia Carter, Mrs. Shirley Harmon, Mrs. Doris Genovese, Mrs. Ramco, Mrs. I. 'Thanks,' Say GOP Victors. Springfield Review-New Faces For 1962

Jubilant GOP Sharpening Ax For January 1st

The jubilant GOP is Springfield, out of control on the municipal level for three years, is "taking it easy" after last week's triumph over the Democrats. The victors will not even talk about their organization meeting on January 1 until "we have had many conferences and thoroughly talked things over."

While this campaign was waged by what is known in Township political circles as "the youth movement" there were several of the so called "old guard" in the front lines during the interesting campaign which resulted in a complete sweep for the Republicans.

The victory celebration at the American Legion Hall, following the election, saw a great number of Republican leaders in the Township who were formerly active in political campaigns but who weren't so much in evidence in this recent campaign.

Conferences of the victors are expected very early so that the agenda for the January 1 organization meeting can be wrapped up without any public discussions or signs of differences.

The selection of one of the three victors to the Township Committee, Arthur M. Falkin, Philip Del Vecchio and Robert Hardgrove, as chairman of the governing body, which carries with it the title of Mayor, is expected to be the first order of business.

ALL ELIGIBLE—While this choice is not the juiciest plum to be handed out at the organization meeting, the prestige of the office and the honor of being Mayor, is very attractive to all members of the governing body.

However, at this writing there is no indication which one of the three will be designated as Mayor despite the many rumors. With the Republican holding a 7 to 2 lead, the ax is expected to drop on several Democrats now holding jobs in various departments of the Township.

The plan is to start the January 1 new Township Authority's office now held by Irwin Weinberg, the Building Inspector, the Municipal Auditor and the Township's insurance. One name prominently mentioned for the office of Township Attorney is James W. Cawley, who managed the victorious campaign for the Springfield GOP.

Township Clerk Eleonore H. Worthington is protected under tenure and that important office in the Township's administration cannot be disturbed no matter what the political campaign results bring to the Township.

Ered L. Braun's overwhelming victory as Tax Collector over the current Democratic incumbent is for a four year term and gives the Republican organization that department without any immediate political hazards.

The Springfield Republican candidates and workers received the congratulations of their many supporters for a campaign well fought and won.

James W. Cawley, who managed the GOP campaign was given special thanks for his efforts. It was he who not only advised and guided the four Republican candidates but, as one of the GOP workers stated, "it was Jim Cawley whose strategy, whose selection of campaign is...sues, whose political experience helped coordinate the ideas of Falkin, Hardgrove, Del Vecchio and Braun. There were many others who played a big part in the Republican victory but these will, probably, be given well deserved praise on the back in the official statement of thanks by the candidates themselves."

Falkin Highest Committeeman—A transposition of names in the published table of election results last week in the Springfield Sun gave the three winning Republican candidates credit for the wrong totals.

The high man for the three GOP winners in the scramble for Township Committee seats was Arthur M. Falkin who attracted a total of 3345 votes. Philip Del Vecchio was next with 3292 and Robert D. Hardgrove followed with 3189 votes.

The Democratic vote totals were as shown in the Page one chart with Richard M. Sullivan receiving 3031, followed by Peter Finnerty with 2916 and John C. Pitney, 2882.

The real leading local vote getter was Fred L. Braun, winner in the contest for Tax Collector, who polled a total of 3443. Only James P. Mitchell, the Republican candidate for governor, and Nelson F. Stamler, single GOP winner for Assembly, received higher votes than the new Springfield Tax Collector.

Mrs. Tess Jones, the Democratic candidate for Tax Collector and present incumbent, polled a total of 2829 in the campaign against Mr. Braun, losing to her Republican candidate by 614 votes.

The victorious Democratic candidate for Governor, Richard J. Hughes, received a total of 2695 votes in Springfield, but the high man on the Democratic ballot, excepting local candidates, was Freeholder John V. Donohue with 2705. Jerome Krueger, Democratic candidate for Assembly, polled 2704 in Springfield to help him in his victory for that office.

Robert D. Hardgrove, Arthur M. Falkin, Philip Del Vecchio and Fred L. Braun, successful Republican candidates for Township Office in a statement commenting on the selection of their entire slate, said, "We, of course, are most gratified with the results of the election and most humbly accept the responsibility given us by the people of Springfield."

"During our term of office, we will, by our actions, endeavor to justify the trust granted us by the electorate."

"We recognize that our position as elected representatives can be truly effective only with the continued interest and participation of the people in their township government."

"With this harmony of purpose, all of us united, will work to construct a better Springfield."

Hardgrove, Falkin, Del Vecchio and Braun concluded by extending their sincere appreciation and thanks to all the people of Springfield who exercised their right to vote in the recent election.

Report On Swim Pool

The report of The Swimming Pool Committee was received by the Springfield Township Committee acts Tuesday night meeting in the Municipal Building.

The report was formally presented by Edward Schwartz, committee chairman, with the recommendation that it be discussed at a meeting of the pool committee, the present Springfield Township Committee, and newly elected township committees.

No action was taken by the Township Committee on this recommendation.

The pool committee was thanked and commended for its work in presenting the study report. Twelve citizens have been serving on the pool committee since September. They held about 30 meetings on the subject including subcommittee meetings exploring all phases of the establishment of a municipal pool.

Contents of the swimming pool report were not announced at the Tuesday Township Committee meeting.

'Just Wait' Till Next Year," Declare Dems

Springfield Democrats, still groggy after the complete sweep of the Republican organization in last week's elections, are already planning to "mend a few fences, rebuild some weak spots and, like the annual cry of the Brooklyn Dodgers, just wait until next year."

Defeat of all four local candidates "came as quite a shock to the Democrats who now face loss of control at the organization meeting this coming January 1 which means a Mayor of their own political party, the Township Attorney's office, the Building Inspector and many other appointments" at the pleasure of the majority.

Those who make a study of election figures and attempt to analyze the results admit they were stunned by last week's vote but top drawer Democrats "see only a one year interruption, a one year hiatus in the program of solidifying the Democratic party in Springfield."

The political lineup in the January 1 organization will be three Republicans, Arthur M. Falkin, Philip Del Vecchio and Robert Hardgrove, against two Democrats, Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies and Russ Stolte.

The victory of Fred L. Braun, Republican, over incumbent Mrs. Tess Jones as Tax Collector is for a four year term which means that Mr. Braun's position in that important Township office will not be subject to any political whims no matter which party is in power during that period.

1245 More Voted Last Election

Searching for political alibis by attempting to compare election results last week with that of 1960 is futile and leaves the pollsters cold.

Last week James P. Mitchell, the Republican candidate for governor, received a total of 3650 votes in Springfield. Richard M. Sullivan, the high man on the Democratic line for Township Committee, was given 3031. Mitchell's total in Springfield was nearly 1,000 higher than Richard J. Hughes, the Democrat.

This means that more than 300 Springfield voters deserted the Mitchell Republican line.

In 1960 Mayor Vincent J. Bonadies rang up a winning total of 4528 which was about 300 less than Congressman Florence P. Case, both Republican winners, last year.

The big difference, however, was that 7,816 Springfield voters cast their ballots last year while 6,571 went to the polls last week. This accounts for a difference of 1245 votes, 1245 more votes cast in the presidential election last year than this year.

Whether these 1245 votes were Democrats or Republicans cannot be determined. The registration this year was practically the same as in 1960, 6376 being eligible last year and 6245 last week. Some observers are of the opinion that if the same number of voters went to the polls last week as in 1960 the election result might have been even more interesting.

Are You Missing Package of New Silverware? A Neighbor Has it

If some resident in the area of Fieldstone Drive and Litchfield Place, Springfield, is missing an unopened container of silverware, it hasn't been stolen. The cardboard package of silverware was mixed in with a load of scrap paper at last collection and one of the alert volunteer American Legionnaires who take care of the job every month, found it.

He turned it over to a resident of Fieldstone Drive since he discovered it just as he collected a load of scrap paper from that home, presuming that it belonged to the last stop.

The husband at that residence accepted the silverware, assuming that it was mixed in with the scrap paper by mistake. But, as it turned out, it did not belong in that home.

If the silverware is yours, telephone Drexel 6-1094, any evening and, with the answers to a question or two, the package will be turned over.

Free Concert

The "Family Sharing Concert" sponsored by various PTA's in Springfield for the benefit of Unicef will be held Sunday, November 19, at 4:00 p.m. at Regional High School in Springfield. Members of the preparation committee would like to remind all persons attending that there will be no reserved seats. Ticket holders must be seated by 3:50 p.m. Those who wish admission and do not have tickets will be admitted after 3:50.

member's elections since two seats will be vacant.

Committeeman-Elect Del Vecchio was winner only for the unexpired one-year term of Democrat Balentine and is expected to stand for election to the full three year term next year.

Present Township Committeeman John C. Pitney who was named by the governing body to fill Balentine's vacancy a few months ago and who lost in last week's election for the one year term, made a good enough showing to be one of the Democratic candidates next year.

The other seat to come up for election next year is that now held by Township Committeeman Sibole. If the Democrats can win these two seats next November, the lineup would then be three Democrats and two Republicans. But the Republicans have their own ideas about next November.

Usually, under Springfield's form of government, two members of the Township Committee are elected two years in succession and then only one vacancy is filled. This year, the resignation of Balentine added a third vacancy and gave the Republicans an opportunity to take over control in a single election despite the fact that the Democrats now hold all five places on the governing body.

The odds would be prohibitive to believe that Mayor Bonadies would retain his rank as chairman of the Township Committee which carries with it the title of Mayor when the new governing body meets. Which means that the current titular head of the Springfield Democratic organization will be just a Township Committeeman after January 1.

Bonadies and Sibole will be the minority next year, after three years of Democratic control. If history repeats itself, the two Democrats should provide interesting and articulate minority representation.

WHAT HAPPENED

Just what happened to the Springfield Democrats in a short span of three years to reduce the party from an aggressive, eager and good party organization to a terrified and scared group of campaign workers, no one seems to know.

"There wasn't the teamwork," said one of the loyal party workers, "We weren't able to call all the plays and, frankly, we didn't seem to have the harmony of those years when we were fighting to oust the Republicans."

Certainly, a lot of the workers of former years said they had been disillusioned, disenchanted but none would be specific. All this means that the Democrats will have to do some serious Spring training, bring up some new recruits, do some re-vamping on the coaching lines and create an easier rapport with the front office.

"The Democrats had the best candidates we have had in any campaign and what or who was responsible for last week's defeat will have to be analyzed by the pollsters. More than 3000 voters cast their ballots for Richard M. Sullivan. With these we should rebuild our party and regain our majority next year."

Red Cross Chapter Gives Answers On Fallout Shelters

Eugene F. Donnelly, Red Cross Disaster Chairman, reports that with Civil Defense and fallout shelters common everyday terms the Springfield Red Cross Chapter has had numerous inquiries asking "What can I do?"

"First the Disaster Committee recommends certain home nursing items be included in all fallout shelters."

Essential would be: first aid kit, Red Cross Home Nursing textbook, thermometer, hot water bottle and ice cap, medicine glass and medicine dropper, tissues, scissors, extra supply of newspapers and cardboard boxes, empty tin cans (for sickroom disposals) and Red Cross First Aid Textbook.

Better preparation for all emergencies would require training in the latest techniques of Home Nursing Care and First Aid, John Gacos, Chapter Chairman, urges residents to participate in the free course offered by the Springfield Chapter in these areas to be capable of handling any situation which may arise in an emergency.

In order to be of help to the entire community should disaster hit, Mr. Donnelly recommends that individuals become acquainted with the Civil Defense plans and practices in Springfield, become trained in standard and advanced First Aid, join Red Cross Canteen workers prepared to handle Mass Feeding situations,

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor, Springfield Sun,

It is obvious that beneath the black and white exterior of your newspaper, there beats a heart of pure sympathy. The plight of poor deserving Lindy Lee's plight was indeed praiseworthy.

In fact, the Springfield Sun has been most helpful in assisting all local worthy causes. This past year the Springfield League of the Children's Asthma Research Institute and Hospital at Denver received outstanding publicity, for which we are very grateful.

Because of your kindness, we were able to help in the saving of many hopeless chronic intractable asthmatic children otherwise doomed.

For the past five years, our members, all volunteers, have devoted their time, efforts and monies to helping these children of all races, creeds and colors. They are our "Lindy Lees" and there are thousands of them. As the local chapter of this National Organization, we run various fund raising activities; such as a Rummage Sale on November 16, 1961, at Elizabethport, and our Paid up membership supper at Temple Beth Ahim on the evening of November 16, 1961.

These activities are news of local interest not only to our ninety seven (97) members, but to the many residents who help support our cause.

In recent months The Sun has not printed our publicity. Whatever the reasons were, we tried to comply with your requirements.

We shall continue to try, because we must have the coverage you can give and have given us in the past.

Yours in Service
"For a Child's Sake"

Mrs. Raymond Efrus
Past President, Springfield League,

Chorus Sings for Air Force in Greenland and Labrador

The JCP&L-NJP&L Combined Chorus departed from McGuire Air Force Base on Friday, November 10, for Greenland, where they have been invited to sing for our servicemen at three major Air Force bases. Performances will be given at Goose Bay in Labrador during refueling periods and at Thule and Sondrestrom in Greenland. A total of eight performances were scheduled.

Mrs. Lorraine Miller, Chorus Director, said that the invitation from the Air Force was extended to the Chorus as a result of its past performances at McGuire Base. She added that the Chorus members and

66,000 Customers Added in Five Years

JCP&L-NJP&L at the end of July was serving 66,194 more customers than they were at the same time just five years ago. Figures recently released show that we are serving a combined total of 403,461 customers compared to the 1956 figure of 337,267.

JCP&L, which was serving 236,361 customers in 1956, now serves 288,373. NJP&L, with 115,088 customers, is up 14,182 over the 1956 total of 100,906.

Sharpest rise in the number of customers served was in Monmouth County in which JCP&L is now serving 117,609 customers, up 16,958 from the 1956 figure of 100,651.

Dark Days Have Silver Lining

If your power and light bill is higher than usual in the next few months, that is normal for the winter time. Longer nights, darker days, colder weather mean you are using more lights and heat, watching more TV and spending more time indoors. And you may have added more electrical conveniences, too.

Yes, your bills may be a little higher but you can be sure electric service is still your greatest bargain. So make full use of it for extra warmth, for hot nourishing meals, for lighting danger spots, inside and out, and to brighten your home during the coming holidays.

Ahead in the Clouds vs. Feet on the Ground

If Americans are ever tempted to envy Russian exploits in the sky, just consider what it would take to balance the living standards of the two countries. We here in the U. S. would have to do the following: Abandon 3/4 of our steel producing capacity. Abandon 9/10 of our petroleum capacity. Eliminate 95% of our electric motor output. Destroy 2 out of 3 hydro-electric plants. Consume 1/10 of our present volume of natural gas. Tear up 14 out of every 15 miles of paved highways. Scrap 2 out of every 3 miles of mainline railroad tracks. Sink 8 out of every 9 ocean-going ships. Scrap 19 out of every 20 autos and trucks. Destroy 40 million TV sets. Destroy 9 out of 10 phones. Raze 7 out of 10 houses. Move 60,000,000 people back to the farm.

WINDOW CLEANING HINT

After washing a window, dry it on the inside with a sideways motion, on the outside with an up-and-down motion. Then if any streaks remain to be removed, you'll know instantly whether they are on the inside or on the outside of the window by the way the streaks run.

SHELF PAPER won't tear so quickly if you secure it with scotch tape instead of thumb-tacks.

How to Carve a Turkey

- Place roast bird before host, with legs to right. Starting at side facing him, host cuts leg from body, bending it back with left hand.
- Next he lifts leg to side plate nearby. While holding leg with left hand, he severs thighbone, from drumstick, just over round bone, as shown above.
- He slices all meat from leg. Then, with fork astride breastbone, he cuts down sharply where wing joins body, severing wing completely.
- Now starting just above joint from which wing was removed, he cuts thin slices of white meat, working upward, always cutting parallel to breastbone.
- After breast has been sliced, it's easy to reach stuffing. For second servings, host turns platter and carves other side of bird. And he doesn't forget that choice bit of dark meat, the oyster, in a cavity near the tail.

Are you interested in a Real Bargain?

How much does it cost you to wash your sheets at home? Let's consider how long it takes you just to iron the sheet, the soap and water, and the wear'n' tear on your machine.

Considering it all, wouldn't it be a real bargain if you could have your sheets done the way you like them for only 25c. That's all we charge for laundering and ironing your sheets, single or double size.

Now don't confuse our "personalized" service with experiences you may have had with some commercial laundries. We wash sheets in small groups under the optimum conditions. The water temperature is not so high it will damage the fibres, nor do we use harsh damaging detergents. The sheets are ironed individually and temperatures carefully controlled.

So if you want to save yourself and your sheets from needless wear and tear, treat yourself to a Real Bargain by sending your sheets and pillow cases to Pan American.

Chubb & Son Celebrate Tenth Anniversary

Chubb & Son Inc., Multiple Line Insurance Underwriters, at River Road and Morris Turnpike, Short Hills, are celebrating this week the Tenth Anniversary of the opening of that office. It is built on land held on long-term lease from the Prudential Insurance Company and was the first development in the Short Hills Mall. Mr. Hendon Chubb, then Senior Partner of Chubb & Son, was for many years on the Board of Directors of the Prudential and Chairman of its Finance Committee. The original holding of 9.2 acres has been enlarged to 14.5 acres, buildings from 88,524 sq. ft. to 117,348 sq. ft., parking space from 172 cars to 558 cars for accommodation of the original of 460 to 800 people. During these ten years, also, the number of Chubb & Son's entire staff has grown from 1,387 to 2,052, branches in Canada and United States from 12 to 35 and the International Division, organized in 1958, has developed underwriting and claims facilities in most parts of the Free World. From the standpoint of Branch Office operations and business development generally it is well recognized that underlying all activities are sound internal functions. The center of these activities for Chubb & Son is the Short Hills Office. Efficiency and organization in such fundamentals as underwriting, loss handling, accounting, policy issuance, statistics, systems, research, and auditing are all important in the development of sound underwriting practices and prompt service to producers, necessary features for continued growth in the insurance industry. The Short Hills Office, therefore, plays an extremely important part in the overall portrait of the organization. Starting in 1882 in ocean marine hull and cargo insurance, the Firm remains a leader in this field, having established a similar position in all classes of risks. The professional staff of Chubb & Son now provide the widest range of underwriting services. Under management contracts with insurance companies, they have managed the American affairs of several British Companies since the Firm was founded and continue to do so. The American Managed Companies are the Federal Insurance Company, with its wholly owned subsidiary the Vigilant Insurance Company. In 1957 the Federal acquired a 97% capital stock control of the Colonial Life Insurance Company of East Orange, and in 1960, 100% of the Great Northern Insurance Company of Minneapolis. The Firm is also Co-Manager of Associated Aviation Underwriters, a group of 24 leading insurance companies. Associated Aviation Underwriters is one of the world's insurance pools formed to provide the tremendous capital funds required to insure today's airlines. For the Managed Companies' Gross Premiums Written have grown from $75,167,408. at December 1951 to $142,309,497. at December 1960. Similarly Gross Losses incurred have gone from $36,266,971 to $74,473,319. An Electronic Data Computer, the 705, began operation in Short Hills Office in May 1956, the ninth to be manufactured by IBM, and the first to be operated by a multiple line insurance organization. The staff then numbered 650. With the staff at 800 for over the past year, the computer was augmented in April 1961, operation of the IBM 7070 and IBM 1401 Computers. During its ten years of existence, the Short Hills Office has been joined by more than 2,000 people, young and older, from the schools and homes of the area. Of these 800 are still working in Short Hills, 60 have been transferred to other offices and many have retired to take up family responsibilities. Those transferred from New York who with their families have become residents of this and adjacent communities now number 80. Their average length of service with Chubb & Son is 22-1/2 years. There are also 65 local people on the original staff who are celebrating their 10th Service Anniversary this year. Pictured are members of these two groups who are residents of our community. In celebrating, the Short Hills Office also paid tribute to staff members who joined upon graduation from High School who are still active in the Firm's office.

founders of the Office. On Tuesday afternoon Percy Chubb II, President of Chubb & Son Inc., his fellow Directors William M. Rees, J.A. Taylor, Jr., and A.C. Wall with Department Heads of both Short Hills and New York Offices were hosts at a reception for invited guests representing various activities of the communities of the area. On Wednesday, the entire staff were guests of the Firm at a special Anniversary Dinner in the Cafeteria. The Ladies and Men's Bowling Leagues on Wednesday and Thursday contested for a special Anniversary Trophy. Throughout the week, contestants also vied for special Anniversary Trophies offered by the Employees Association in a putting contest on the golf tee, and at horseshoe pitching activities on the lawn before the Office. Friday evening the Employees Association will be hosts to the entire staff at a card party in the Cafeteria.

Alumni of our High School are pictured. The present staff are residents of many communities. A circle would have to be drawn around such distant points as Beachwood, Hackettstown, Lake Hiawatha, Caldwell, Newark and Staten Island to include them all! As would be included, the largest groups, totaling over 500, live in the close-by towns; Summit, New Providence, Berkeley Heights, 125; Madison-Florham Park-Hanover, 106; Chatham, 88; Springfield, 62; Short Hills-Millburn-Maplewood, 61; Union, 44; The Oranges, 35; Morristown, 34; Livingston, 26; The Plainfields, 19; and Westfield, 14. At opening time on Monday, November 13th each staff member received a souvenir box of especially imprinted Anniversary Matches and those 142 celebrating ten or more years of service with the Firm were presented with Pompoms or Boutonnieres, pointing them out as

John R. French of 111 Salter Street, Springfield, was one of 40 Union Junior College Political science students who helped to collect and tabulate election returns last week at the Cranford college. The election results were broadcast directly from Union Junior College by New Brunswick radio station WCBC. Students picked up election returns in each of Union County's 21 municipalities and tabulated totals for the gubernatorial, assembly, treasurer, and county clerk races, and for the four statewide referendums. Mr. French collected election returns in Springfield. A sophomore, Mr. French is a liberal arts major in Union Junior College's Day Session. He is a student in Prof. Saul Orkin's political science course.

Rehearse Concert

The Scotch Plains Community Choir will rehearse "Messiah" on Monday, November 13 at 8 P.M. at the Brunner School on Westfield Road. Singers interested in singing with the Community Choir in this "Messiah" Concert are invited to rehearsals. Additional rehearsals will be held on Mondays November 20 and 27. Final rehearsal will be on Friday evening, December 8 at the High School. The concert is under the direction of Harry Gettlein, Music Director, of Scotch Plains. Thomas Kneeshaw, talented pianist of Westfield will again accompany the choir in their eighth concert. Mr. Kneeshaw is also an active member of the Plainfield Choristers, a superb singing group which is directed by Mr. George Cornwell, the noted music critic and director.

Booklet Ready

A revised edition of the Watchung Reservation booklet, available for distribution, was announced today by the Union County Park Commission. The booklet contains a pictorial map of the Watchung Reservation showing the many miles of bridle trails, foot paths, points of interest and a general description of this 2,000-acre area. Copies of the booklet may be obtained by sending a request to the Public Information Department, The Union County Park Commission, Post Office Box 275, Elizabeth, New Jersey.

Behind Clothes Doors

What goes on in a modern dry-cleaning plant? Let's take an imaginary-guided tour now, so you can see how our skill, knowledge, and up-to-date equipment combine to return your clothes to you—spotless and sparkling clean.

As soon as your clothes are received they are sorted first as to color and then for fabric finish, so every piece receives our careful individual attention. Next they are pre-spotted. After that comes the washing. They are placed in the washers where clean pure solvent, changed every thirty seconds, insures completely clean clothes. After a thorough rinse comes the drying process, where warm fresh air circulates through the clothes so they will be dry and sweet smelling. Now your clothes are ready for the spotter. With his wide experience and constant study of chemistry and fabrics, he knows exactly which one of his many bottles, brushes, steam guns or sprays to use on each garment. He must be able to detect the type of spot or soil and know which chemical or re-agent to use so the color or fabric will not be damaged.

Finally, we come to the finishing. This includes pressing or steaming to remove wrinkles and to restore the original lustre and appearance of the garment. And now comes the assembly and inspection department. Here buttons are sewn back on, broken seams mended, sagging linings tacked in place, and your garment bagged and ready for you.

Pistol Squad Wins Trophy

The Springfield police pistol team won a first place trophy the first time in the history of the department when it recently placed first in B Division in the Union County Pistol League. The trophy presentation was made at an annual dinner of the league held November 2 in VFW Hall, Kentilworth, attended by some 400 police officers, municipal dignitaries and officials. Patrolman Robert Maguire won an individual trophy for being the most improved member of the team and Patrolman Howard Thompson, team captain, won second place in B Division for an individual average of 294.6

for 18 matches out of a possible 300. Local officials attending the dinner included Mayor Vincent

"Money-wisdom" is the key to making money travel further.

Do they get more mileage from money than you do?

This is not a matter of more miles per gallon, but of more living per dollar.

Enjoying life fully is a question of attitude—and aptitude. People who make the most of their lives also make the most of their money. And so often behind this money-wisdom stands a full-service commercial bank.

You see, a full-service bank—such as ours—can help you in more ways than others. Only a full-service bank offers you all this: a checking account, a savings account, all kinds of loans, and financial counselling that has depth and thoroughness.

One thing more. As you work with our full-service bank you build a solid reputation. And that, too, is "money in the bank."

RELIGION IN THE NEW AGE

"Only through religion—so it has been revealed—can mankind enter into the New Age. For that which will mark off this coming era from all the eras of the past is that in it the Unity of God will be acknowledged throughout the globe and all mankind conscious of their brotherhood will unite in submission to one universal Revelation."

"This is the Day," wrote Baha'u'llah, "in which God's most excellent favors have been poured out upon men, the Day in which His most mighty grace hath been infused into all created things. First Meeting

The Union County Chapter of St. Peter's College Alumni will hold its first business and social meeting on Wednesday, November 15 in the club rooms of Mc Mahon's Realty Office, 158 Morris Avenue, Union, reports Vincent Flaherty, of 281 Mountain Avenue, Berkeley Heights. Chapter officers are - Richard W. Kracht, president, 334 Douglass Rd., Roselle; John R. Glivens, vice president, 433 Spruce St., Linden; Francis J. Mertz, secretary, 12 Summit Ave., Summit; Edward J. Ayres, treasurer, 108 Paterson Road, Fanwood.

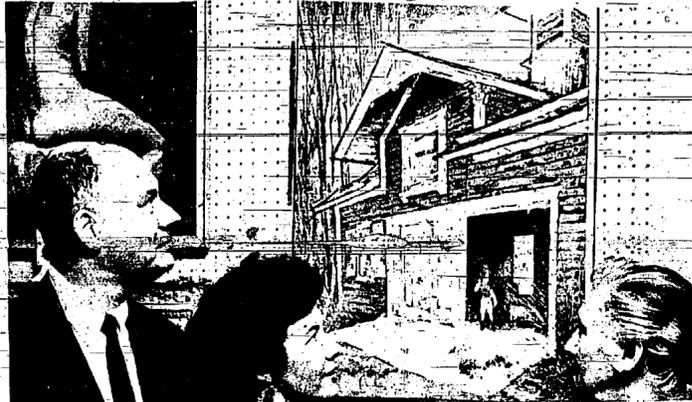

The Worthington Corporation property located in Plainfield, Union County, and Piscataway Township in Middlesex County, has been placed on the market and Lewis Schlesinger Company, Realtors of Newark have been appointed exclusive agents for the sale.

A Real Buy

The buildings have an area in excess of 175,000 square ft. all located on one floor. The buildings are particularly for a one story operation and more than 15 electrically operated cranes are scattered throughout the plant.

The property has all public utilities and excellent fire protection. An inspection of the property is being held by the Schlesinger organization for all the industrial real estate brokers in New Jersey.

The Worthington operation at the Plainfield plant will be moved

THIS WEEK in UNION COUNTY

Governor-elect Richard J. Hughes, Democratic victor in last week's spirited election, said, among many other things, that the most pleasing results to him "were the general good work of Union County Democrats in capturing four of the five Assembly seats and holding down Mitchell's vote."

Which is another way of saying that the wonderful job done by Union County Democratic Chairman James J. Kinneally and his vice chairman, Register James J. Delaney, in the campaign which saw the Democrats elect two out of three Freeholders and four out of five for Assembly.

Both Democratic leaders, Kinneally and Delaney, brushed off the walls of despair when the campaign first started with statements that "the Democrats were in their ascendancy here in Union County and no amount of images would completely rout the Democrats."

In politics, the necessary campaign funds are often not available to all county leaders. Also, there is nothing that will stimulate the workers like a fairly healthy patronage list. Lacking these important political ingredients, the results of last week's election should place Union County far up the list in Democratic conferences.

"The cult of personality may have saved the Union County Republican organization from a complete rout at the poll last week," wrote Bruce Bahrenburg, (an "excellent reporter," in the Newark News.

"Although the Republicans re-elected a county clerk and assemblyman and knocked off one incumbent Democratic freeholder, the Democrats retained control of the Assembly delegation 4-1 and kept down the plurality of James P. Mitchell, the losing GOP candidate for governor, to a disastrous 6,535.

"These results appear to corroborate what has been a fairly-accepted theory on Union County's politics—that strong political personalities can overcome trends in obtaining their own election. Governor Meyner did it, Sen. Harrison A. Williams did it, Mrs. Florence P. Dwyer did it.

"Except in the Westfield and Summit areas where the GOP margins were steadfast the Democrats were able to cut into the Republican vote in the western county suburbs while maintaining their domination of the cities in the eastern part.

"Democrats Kinneally, county chairman, and Delaney, county register, became the party prophets by having predicted this Democratic resurgence several weeks ago when many workers were ready to surrender to the anticipated margins built up by Mitchell, a native son of Elizabeth.

"Delaney said—"I believe Dick Hughes narrowed the gap in Union County and helped the local ticket because of his effective last minute campaign here. But the Democrats have been constantly gaining in the county until we now have a majority."

"What amazed county leaders is that Hughes & Co. did so well without the usual large Democratic majority in Elizabeth, which was about 10,000 for the county candidates and 1,000 less for Hughes.

"The party did extremely well in Rahway, Roselle, Clark, Kenilworth, Hill side, and even Cranford where the traditional Republican majority was less than 2,000.

"The Democrat's big bonus was Linden, where the party rolled up a 6,500 majority with the aid of Linden council president, Jerome Krueger's presence on the Assembly ticket.

"Party leaders had picked Krueger to make a showing against the seemingly invincible Republican Assemblyman Nelson F. Stamler.

"Though Stamler easily won by knocking off Democrat George T. Miller, Krueger was elected to the Assembly and will stay on as council president to boot.

'DO I BELIEVE'

Do I believe... I know not... by Bernard Weiss

Do I believe... I will not...
Can I say you are not there...
When I know my heart seeks everywhere...

Reason and senses I know are naught...
Within my soul the doubt I've fought...
For something inside, tells me that you are...
A feeling of joy, more near than afar...

I want to believe... Oh help me, O Lord...
Yet I watched them all die... by fire and sword...
Doubt has covered all of my soul...
My embers of faith now fast growing cold...

I beseech and implore you... oh Lord up above...
Send to this heart the peace of the dove...
Show us the way of love and compassion...
Take from us... all hate and sick passion...

Those who have loved you... Lie dead and betrayed...
Even as they kneeled to you, oh Lord they prayed...
Children were ripped from their mother's loving arms...
Murdered and done a thousand more harms...

Oh Lord... Oh my God show us the way...
To live with each other every new day...
Teach us your kindness and loving care...
To cover our souls... now cold and bare...

I want to believe... oh my heart cries out...
Dispell all my suspicion... all of my doubt...
Help me to live as I know I should...
Give me a sign... and I know I would...

HELEN SAPS

Mrs. William N. Kornhauser, of 1638 Nottingham Way, Mountaintide, was guest of honor at a surprise birthday party given by her daughter Valerie on Friday evening November 10. Among the twenty guests present were Mr. and Mrs. M. Tronolone and daughter Carol, Mr. and Mrs. E. Pahler and Mrs. F. Petriovelli, all of Mountaintide.

Congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Borenstein, of 11 Eaton Court, Berkeley Heights, on the birth of their daughter Randi Ellen on November 5 at Overlook Hospital in Summit. The new addition, who weighed six pounds, four ounces at birth joins a family that includes sisters Susan and Joyce.

Springfield Councilman elect Robert Hardgrove, Jr. and his wife Lucille entertained members of the family at a birthday party on November 8 at their home at 125 Salter St. Guest of honor was daughter Lucille, who was nine years old that day, although birthday congratulations were also extended to eleven year old Janice and three year old Robert III, who had celebrated their birthdays two weeks previous.

Mr. Adam LaSota, of Country Club Lane, Springfield, was one of the guest speakers last week-end at 751 Rotary District convention in Buck Hill Falls, Pa. Mr. LaSota, who is on the staff of Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, described that school's Diversified Occupation Program, which prepares slow learners for employment after graduation. Also attending the convention with Mr. LaSota and his wife were Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Stark, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Remlinger, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Smith and Mr. Milt Keshen, of Springfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Max Weiss and Mr. and Mrs. Grant Lenox, of Mountaintide.

A daughter, Kimberly Ann, was born November 9 at Overlook Hospital, Summit, to Patrolman and Mrs. Howard Thompson of 14 Cottler Avenue, Springfield. The baby weighed six pounds, fifteen ounces. The couple also have a son, Scott age three. Mrs. Thompson is the former Barbara Bergan of Elizabeth. Patrolman Thompson is with the Springfield Police Department, and is captain of the department's pistol team.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Davis, of 49 Park Lane, Springfield, happily welcomed their first child a boy, on October 30 at Overlook Hospital. The young man, who was named Hal Clayton in honor of his two grandfathers, weighed in at seven pounds, five ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. William O'Brien Sr., of Plainfield Avenue, Berkeley Heights, have returned from a month's vacation in Miami Beach, Fla. A cruise to Nassau was also included in the trip.

A daughter, Jill Anne, was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. William Hummel, of 36 Hobart Place, Springfield, on October 31 at Overlook Hospital. The young lady, who weighed eight pounds, eleven ounces at birth, evened out a family that included brothers Dwight and Mark and sister Gail.

On November 11, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie C. Mortensen of 2154 Galleher Avenue, Scotch Plains, attended an engagement party for their niece, Miss Patricia Reilly of Irvington, at the Hoffman's in Kenilworth. Miss Reilly is engaged to Mr. Vito S. Manno of Budd Lake.

Science Notebook

By Hans Klein

In our last discussion it was stated that science was comprised of three major subdivisions: physics, chemistry, and biology.

While students are not inclined to agree, physics is, in the absolute sense, the simplest of the major sciences, primarily because it is most basic. To the average student, biology seems the easiest of the three because biology is so complex that its superficial aspect makes up a formidable course in itself. Mathematical applications in biology are quite difficult, which is not so for chemistry and physics—especially physics. To be a good physicist means also to be a good mathematician. However, bear in mind that lines of demarcation between the sciences are no sharper than ethnic boundaries. All sciences draw heavily on the techniques of one another.

Dictionaries define physics as the study of material changes which do not involve changes in chemical composition, namely motion; thus, physics is considered the science of matter and motion. Physics is usually subdivided into the related sciences of mechanics, heat, light, sound, electronics, and atomic structure. Since motion looms large in physics we should expect mechanics to involve the effect of motion on all bodies in general. Heat involves the motion of molecules; light is concerned with the transfer of radiant energy as photons, whatever they are. Sound is due to the propagation of waves of compression and rarefaction through matter. Electronics pertains to the motion of electrons; and atomic structure deals with the motion of subatomic particles. Physics is one of the oldest sciences but although it has advanced steadily in the last few hundred years, the great acceleration of the last fifty years has given rise to the frightening technology of the present day.

Science Quiz
Which is;
1. The study of living things: chemistry, physics, biology, electronics?
2. If a liquid turns blue litmus paper to red is it; a base, an acid or none of these?
3. What is air; a mixture, an element, a compound, or not a substance at all?
4. What is the amount of heat to raise one gram of water one degree centigrade; a BTU, a calorie, a Calorie (kilogram calorie), or an erg?

Answers:
1. Biology as every student of life and logic knows, study to Greek will guess since bios means "life" and logos means "study" or "reasoning."
2. A mixture. The components of the air are readily separated by distillation when air is in the liquid state.
3. A calorie, also known as the small calorie or gram calorie. This unit is usually used in the lab, but it is the large calorie which is referred to when you are watching your weight.
4. A calorie (kilogram calorie), or an erg.

Will Review College Plan

A bill to establish county or two-year community colleges in New Jersey will be reviewed today by the Council of Educational Advisors of Union Junior College at a meeting in the college's Alumni Room.
 The county college bill, which was a prominent issue in the recent gubernatorial campaign, has been passed by the State Assembly, but has not yet been acted upon by the State Senate.
 Union Junior College's admissions picture for the 1962-63 academic year will be reviewed by Prof. Saul Orkin, director of admissions.
 Serving on the council with Dr. West are the Rev. John J. Bain, headmaster, Oratory School, Summit; Dr. John Barrett, principal, Linden High School; Dr. Randolph T. Jacobsen, principal, Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, Springfield; Albert S. Peeling, principal, Abraham Clark High School, Roselle; and G. Frank Zimmerman, principal, Cranford High School.

Hiking Club

The members of the Union County Hiking Club will have a choice of hikes over the weekend of Saturday, November 18 and Sunday, November 19.
 On Saturday, November 18, Miss Irma Heyer, Elizabeth, will lead a Saturday morning ramble in the Watchung Reservation. The four or five-mile hike through the reservation will include a stop at the Trailside-Nature and Science Center. The group will return by 12:00 noon.
 On Sunday, November 19, Jack Chard, Westfield, president of the Union County Hiking Club, will lead an eight-mile hike to Bear Mountain in New York. The hikers will climb Bear Mountain and descend to Poplophen Creek with another climb to the rocky top of Poplophen Torne. The hikers will meet at the Administration Building of the Union-County Park Commission, Warnanco Park, Elizabeth, at 8:15 a.m.
 The third hike scheduled for the weekend will be a Sunday morning ramble in the South Mountain Reservation, under the leadership of Miss Jeanette Simpson, Roselle Park. This group

Overlook Kicks Off Annual Fund Drive

"Night and Day" is the theme for Overlook Hospital's Annual Giving Campaign this year. As the hospital's flags proclaim, flying from both the rooftop and at the front entrance, Overlook is "Night and Day" twenty-four hours around the clock.
 "This is the one time each year we ask the community for a return assist," pointed out Sturgis S. Wilson of Summit, President of the Board of Trustees, in opening the campaign.
 "Night and Day is far more than a theme song at Overlook Hospital; it is an actuality," commented Mr. Wilson. "Few people stop to think of the nighttime vigil of a hospital, yet this is often the time of crisis. Unlike other institutions, a hospital can never take 'time off'. Constant vigilance, readiness for any emergency—these are twenty-four hour requirements for us, not just round-the-clock, but round the week, month, and year."
 Mr. Wilson also pointed to the many forward strides made at Overlook in the past year, thanks to community support in last year's Annual Giving Campaign. The Intensive Care Unit for critically ill patients has meant that highly trained nurses, skilled in the use of all types of life-saving equipment, keep seriously ill patients under constant watch.
 Overlook has expanded its clinic facilities to keep pace with growing out-patient needs, as well as emergencies. Its new Electroencephalograph Department will be of vital importance in the tracing of brain disorders—particularly important since more and more brain surgery is being done at the hospital.

Invisible Killer

"Age or sex are not respected when carbon monoxide comes calling. No screeching of brakes, oncoming lights or any other human driving error can forewarn men or women of any age about this insidious killer," according to Dr. Noah H. Sloan, medical director of the Allstate Insurance Companies.
 "This winter there will be many unexplained automobile accidents on roads clear of ice and snow. The real cause could be an odorless lethal gas, carbon monoxide, produced by the incomplete burning of a fuel.
 "Most of us are not aware that when we start our car we are initiating the operation of a complete chemical plant," Dr. Sloan points out. "The motor mixes air and gasoline in proper proportions to propel the auto and also produces deadly acids and gases in the process."
 "Use extra care while driving compact cars with air-cooled engines," the Allstate medical director declares. "In some cars, where a liquid coolant is not present, the passenger compartment is heated with heat from the exhaust system. Extreme caution and immediate inspection should be utilized when any irregularities are noticed in the heating system."
 "Warning cars up in closed garages is almost sure to make you a victim of carbon monoxide," Dr. Sloan adds. "Other likely victims of this lethal gas could be persons who drive with faulty exhaust systems."
 "Warning symptoms that could prevent a tragedy from occurring are a headache, dizziness, faintness, nausea, burning of the eye, watering of the eyes or irritability."
 To avoid carbon monoxide hazards, Allstate urges motorists to observe the following safety rules:
 1. Check your automobile's exhaust system periodically, especially before winter.
 2. Always open garage doors before starting your car.
 3. Open a window if you have to stay in a stationary car with the motor running.
 4. In closely spaced traffic, keep front air vents closed to prevent CO seepage from the exhaust fumes of other automobiles.
 5. Stop, get out and breathe some fresh air if you or any of your passengers feel drowsy.

Youth Consultation Service Aims For Wider Support

WESTFIELD—The Youth Consultation Service, a non-sectarian family-counseling service, on November 20 will send out its annual appeal for financial aid. The aim of the appeal is to gain broader public support for the service.
 "We are trying to make YCS services more widely available," said Mr. Robert Risberg, chairman of the appeal. "Success of the appeal will help the social case work organization provide a larger professional staff in order to aid any troubled person, agency officials say. YCS is the only agency of its kind serving a large number of Union County communities, and referrals are accepted from those parts of Somerset, Middlesex and Monmouth Counties not being served by existing agencies."
 "Citing the public awareness of the need for work among young people and their families, the Rev. Ronald C. Henstock, president of YCS, says: "We should also be aware of the fact that it is impossible to run an agency such as this without the cooperation of our friends and the general public. This work should be the concern of every adult in the nation. Here you have your opportunity to do your bit to help us do this work."
 Chairman of the appeal and also of the agency's public relations committee is Mrs. H. Paul Rutter, Jr., of Westfield. In asking for the increased support of the general public, Mrs. Rutter emphasized that "help is needed for those who really have no place else to turn. Those who do contribute may be sure that their support will help to relieve the distress in many hearts, in many homes."
 This year's appeal is an important factor in the agency's plans to increase its 1962 budget by at least 10%, according to Robert Risberg of Cranford, treasurer of the organization.
 Next year's budget is tentatively set at $25,000, up from $22,365 in 1961. More than 80% of the budget is for salaries.
 "As the case load has developed to a greater extent than was anticipated in recent months, at least one more full-time social worker must be added," Mr. Risberg says. "With experts in this field, more in demand, the salary levels at which they can be hired continue to increase." The agency reports 118 families were served in the August-October period alone.
 "The agency's move last spring to larger quarters at 206 Prospect St. here and the need for more evening counseling hours also have contributed to rising costs," YCS officials say. In order to treat the problems at the source, the family unit, counseling must be available at night for those who work, they add.
 "Whether emotional problems, marital conflicts, unwed motherhood or juvenile delinquency, these problems of the individual really begin at the family level," says Miss Rose Galada, executive secretary.

Because customers have confidence in the high quality of our work, our business is constantly increasing.

Check Trees

Trees sometimes have hangovers, too—and it's the wise homeowner who initiates a safety check on these potential hazards to life and property before winter storms develop.

The hangovers in question are the large limbs and branches of towering trees that frequently project over the family dwelling. These demand more attention at this season than other aspects of the landscape. Every year sudden winter storms cause countless dead and weakened branches, burdened by tons of sleet and ice.

PTA To Meet

The regular meeting of the James Caldwell School PTA will be held on Monday, November 20 at 8:15 p.m. This meeting will be observed as Open House.

After a short business meeting in the auditorium, which will be presided over by Mrs. John A. Schoch, president, the parents will visit the various classrooms meet the teachers, and hear a brief resume of the work to be accomplished during the coming months. The parents will also have an opportunity to observe the work done by their children.

The executive committee of the James Caldwell Scholl PTA met in the library of the Florence M. Gaudineer School on Monday, November 13, at 8:15 p.m., at which time the various chairmen gave their reports.

IN JAMAICA— Recent vacationers at the fashionable Arawak Hotel on the famed mid-north shore of Jamaica, West Indies, were Mr. and Mrs. Saul Marder, 4 Archbridge Lane, left and Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Marder, 74 Kew Drive of Springfield. Saul is an executive with Orange Refrigeration Service, and Seymour, an agent for the Montgomery Engineering Corporation. Both won Jamaica vacations for two in a sale campaign sponsored by Montgomery. They are shown being serenaded by a strolling calypso band in the Arawak's colorful Jippi Jappa Cocktail Lounge.

Baha'is Growing

Dedication of a House of Worship in Kampala, Uganda, and Sydney, Australia, marked unprecedented growth of the Baha' World Faith in the past year, according to Mr. Raymond Rouse of the Springfield Baha' community. He spoke as a public meeting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ios on November 11th, honoring the birthday of the Baha' prophet-founder of the Baha' World Faith.

"It is less than 100 years since Baha'u'llah, (whose name means the Glory of God), announced His station as the Promised One of All Religions," declared the speaker. "Nevertheless, where sought guidance, finding they could no longer live in isolation but were being propelled by scientific advances into an international era."

"Principles offered by Baha'u'llah in the 19th century give mankind this necessary guidance. Baha'is now living in 6,000 centers around the world, and coming from vastly differing religious and racial backgrounds, live and worship God together in harmony."

Each year there are 100,000 visitors to the House of Worship in Wilmette, Illinois, and the recently-completed Temples at Sydney, Australia, and Kampala, Uganda, are attracting many sightseers. "In an age of great racial tensions, the smiling faces of peoples of all colors worshipping together harmoniously surely present a sight worthy of investigation," commented Mr. Rouse. Another House of Worship is nearing completion near Frankfurt, West Germany. Services in these Temples consist of the reading of the sacred scriptures of all the world's great religions, without a sermon or commentary.

"Although 20,000 persons were martyred in the early years of the Faith," said Mr. Rouse, "the number of declared Baha'is has steadily grown until today some five million of the world's inhabitants recognize Baha'u'llah as God's messenger for this age."

Even the present turbulent international situation is viewed with confidence by Baha'is, he continued. "They feel this is the necessary prelude to man's discovery that 'the earth is one country and mankind its citizens'. When enough people accept this teaching, the Kingdom of God on earth will surely be established."

JUST A DECADE AGO

On this, the tenth anniversary of the establishment of our office in Short Hills, we pause to consider both the past and the future.

During these years our business has grown substantially throughout the United States and the rest of the free world. The growth of business, personnel, and facilities has been steady and sound and we expect it to continue in the future. Many of our most important home-office operations are carried on in Short Hills where the increased flow of business has resulted in almost doubling our original staff and substantial additions to our quarters. We are proud to be a part of the community and appreciate the warm and cooperative relations we have enjoyed.

PHONELAND

A world of telephone ideas to make family life easier

Here in a quick trip to "Phoneland"—where people enjoy the best in modern phone services—you'll find more than one idea for your home:

- Phones are always in easy reach. With low cost EXTENSION PHONES wherever needed, the "Phoneland" family can make and take calls without running round the house. And today's phones in color—whether they be table, wall or pretty Princess models—add charm as well as convenience.
- Talking from room to room is as simple as picking up the phone, with today's new HOME INTERPHONE. It ties all home phones together in a complete intercommunicating system—even lets you answer the door from any phone.
- A pleasant musical tone calls you to the phone. The new BELL CHIME replaces regular phone bells. And lets you pick the tone that pleases you—chime, regular or loud ring.
- Calling is so much easier for active folks with a SECOND TELEPHONE LINE. When one line is in use, you can call someone (or receive a call) on the other line. And everyone in the family is easy to find in the phone book, thanks to low-cost EXTRA LISTINGS.

Girl Scouts Discuss Plans

Over 150 Senior Girl Scouts and their leaders attended the 1961 Senior Assembly of the Washington Rock Girl Scout Council last Saturday to discuss future plans for their Senior Troops and to hear Mrs. H.C. Schuckle of Baltimore, member-at-large of the National Board of Girl Scouts of the U.S.A., speak on the role of Girl Scouts as future community leaders.

"We are living in the heart of the greatest drama in history," Mrs. Schuckle declared, "and we have the choice of being either a spectator, a member of the cast or like Rip Van Winkle, sleeping through the whole show. The challenge before you girls today," she added, "is to deepen—in your own lives those values that give stability and meaning to life, those eternal truths that have been forged out of the travail of preceding generations."

Mrs. Schuckle went on to say that we must find a way to life with this awesome paradox which finds us viewing the latest styles in fall hats along with viewing the latest styles for tallco shelters, checking our stock market gains and losses against the statistics on the financial page, along with checking on the next page our chances of survival against the losses our country can take and still survive, whether we as individuals survive is vitally important to each of us. This is natural and human, but far more important for humanity is whether that which must survive lives in those who will survive. The task before us today is to make certain that it does survive.

The registrars for the all day meeting which opened at 10:00 a.m. at Roosevelt Junior High School, Westfield, were: Elizabeth Colford, Elizabeth Mary Grimley, Westfield and Alice Helling, Plainfield. These girls are all members of the Senior Planning Board. The Assembly opened with the Girl Scout Flag Ceremony presented by the 40 girls from the Council area chosen for Round-up training. From these girls 32 delegates will be selected to represent the Council at the National Girl Scout Round-up to be held next July at Button Bay State Park, Lake Champlain, Vermont.

At the afternoon session Miss Penny Corlett of Fanwood reported on her experience as a delegate to the All State Wilderness Encampment in Oregon last summer. Miss Susan Pennekamp of Westfield described her European trip last summer as a member of International Friendship Troop 691.

The Council revealed plans for suggested trips in 1962. Among these are bus tours to Washington, D. C., Williamsburg, Virginia and the Pennsylvania Dutch country, National and international conferences, encampments and trips which are available to Senior Scouts on a selective basis were also discussed.

Mrs. A.C. Patterson of Westfield, a member of the Program Department of the Council, was chairman of the Assembly and presided at the morning session. Mrs. Hollis Leland of Cranford presided at the afternoon session, and Mrs. William Darrow of Union had charge of the Flag Ceremony. Miss Melissa Fouratte of Westfield assisted with arrangements for the Assembly.

Seats at the Assembly represented 45 Senior Troops for girls from 14 through 17 in the Council area.

Named Treasurer

Mrs. Vincent J. Bonadies of Sherwood Rd. in Springfield will be treasurer for the annual Fall Festival, a Christmas bazaar, to be presented by the Mothers' Auxiliary of Oak Knoll School in Summit on Saturday, November 18 from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Homemade gourmet treats, gifts, and handmade Christmas decorations are to be special features of the event. Held in the senior school auditorium on Blackpoint Rd., Summit.

ORT Sabbath

Springfield Chapter of Women's American ORT (Organization for Rehabilitation Through Training) will observe ORT Sabbath on Friday, November 17, 1961 by attending services at Temple Beth Ahm, Baltusrol Way, Springfield.

This night is an annual nationwide occasion and a tribute to the work accomplished by ORT.

Women's American ORT is a membership organization affiliated with the American ORT Federation, which currently receives funds exclusive of membership dues, from the Joint

ORT school in India, so that the thousands of impoverished Jews will be able to learn an industrial trade.

ORT also operates schools in Israel, Europe, North Africa, Iran and the Americas, and now has 608 training units in 19 countries. It will be operating in 20 countries when the Bombay School is opened.

Women's American ORT is a membership organization affiliated with the American ORT Federation, which currently receives funds exclusive of membership dues, from the Joint Distribution Committee, a member agency of the United Jewish Appeal.

Springfield Chapter will be honored to have Rabbi Reuben R. Levine of Temple Beth Ahm, speak about ORT. Several members of the chapter will participate in the religious services, which will be conducted by Rabbi Levine, and then, they will serve as hostesses during the Oneg Shabbat. Mrs. Leonard A. Goldman is ORT Sabbath Chairman and Mrs. Harold Silverman is president of the Springfield Chapter.

PTA Program At High School

Jonathan Dayton Regional High School students will present a program for the PTA tonight (Nov. 16) at 8 p.m. in Halsey Hall. Sybil Shoppingcart

by Geldt Mallay

Sybil Shoppingcart couldn't wait for morning. Finally the store opened. Along came a little girl with her mother.

"Let's try this one!" she cried, taking Sybil's handle.

Sybil spun around out of reach. The little girl had to run to catch her.

"What a joke," thought Sybil.

"nearly got away".

Soon her basket was filled. Clickety-clang rang the register. Then they were outside. The little girl's mother held Sybil too tight to spin her wheels.

Before she knew it another customer pushed Sybil toward the store. Sybil was cross. She wanted to stay outside. At the doorway she stopped her wheels bumping the lady's foot.

"Ouch!" cried the lady. "These new carts are too fast." There were no others so she held Sybil tight not allowing any tricks.

Cheese, butter, eggs went into Sybil's basket. "I'll joggle the eggs," thought Sybil. But the eggs were packed too well. They wouldn't joggle. Soap, detergent, a bottle of ammonia went into the basket. They turned a corner. Sybil's wheels spun around. Over went the bottle breaking against the basket. The ammonia sounded nice and drippy pouring on the floor. Clickety-clang rang the register. Soon she'd be outside again. But Sybil was mistaken.

"I've had enough of this shoppingcart," said the lady. "I'll carry my packages."

Before Sybil knew it a baby was put in her basket. Now Sybil was really angry. The first chance she got she spun her wheels upsetting the baby on the floor. Everybody ran to pick up the baby. The storeman set Sybil hard on her wheels.

"Some of these shoppingcarts cannot be trusted," he said.

"I don't care," said Sybil. "I'm not a baby sitter."

"A man dropped his groceries into Sybil's basket and hurried to the checker. Next minute Sybil was outside. The man put his packages away, pushed Sybil toward the place for shoppingcarts and hurried to his car. He didn't see Sybil turn her wheels and race down the parking lot hill bumping a car on the way.

"How jazzy!" cried Sybil. She whizzed right into the traffic lanes. A trailer truck bumped her into the other side of the highway. Sybil rolled over and over causing cars to collide and frightening everyone. An angry driver tossed Sybil into the ditch.

"I'll tell the storeman where his runaway shoppingcart is," he said. "Lucky nobody was hurt."

Sybil lay in the ditch, her handle bent, one wheel gone and her side dented in where the truck had hit her. She thought of the car she had bumped. She thought of the dreadful things she had done in the store. She felt dreadful. "But the storeman will find me," she sighed.

All afternoon cars went by. No one stopped to help her. She felt sick and lonely. Night came and rain.

Next day Sybil saw the storeman but he could not find the ditch. She tried to call him. She tried to beg for help.

Next day Sybil saw the storeman but he could not find the ditch. She tried to call him. She tried to beg for help.

Next day Sybil saw the storeman but he could not find the ditch. She tried to call him. She tried to beg for help.

Then he saw the ditch and lifted out a soaky, muddy Sybil.

"What a mess!" he cried. "Guess I'll have to junk her."

"Oh, please don't junk me!" begged Sybil. "I'll be good. I promise."

But the storeman did not hear. "I'm not a litterbug. I'll take her to the store-junk pile," he said, putting Sybil into his car trunk.

Poor Sybil! She joggled from fright and cried big tears. The wind blowing in dried Sybil's mud. Her joggling joggled the mud off her sides. Her tears washed most like new.

The storeman parked in the back lot. He lifted Sybil out. There she stood on her three wheels almost as shiny as new.

"I could have an almost new shoppingcart again if I fix her up and polish her," he said. "I wonder if she'll be a good one this time."

"I will!" cried Sybil. "If everybody helps me, will you?"

RAIDER WIN OVER CRANFORD DECIDES WATCHUNG VICTOR

Sports Review

by Dick Schwartz

The letters one receives of a weekly newspaper in answer to signed columns seem to be few and far between. In fact, one often wonders whether anyone save the author ever reads the copy that takes hours and sometimes days to research and write. Therefore, when we do get a letter, it's something special, especially when it is well written and well thought out.

We received just such a letter late last week in reply to a "Sports Review" dealing with the problems of where a coach belongs during a football game, and to sum it up, who should be responsible for calling plays. Without any comment from this corner, we'd like to re-print the letter in its entirety. Unfortunately, the man or woman who wrote it neglected to sign.

The letter follows:

Dear Sir:

Your sports editorial, which appeared in the November 2, 1961 edition of The Springfield Sun, was read by me and I must say it contained some merit.

When you speak of high school football I think we (the Community) must make a decision: 1) Is the high school going to keep the athletic programs within the athletic department? or 2) Is the athletic program going to enter the realm of entertainment and exploitation?

If the first of the above is to be followed let's get our house in order and bear in mind the basic thought behind high school athletics—building of character and all that goes into it—i.e., determination, integrity, obedience, etc.

If, however, we want to follow the second course, then let's go all the way in an effort to ape the pros. Big bands, coaches arguing and putting on a scene with officials, calling plays from the sidelines. I believe there is only one team that does it consistently in the pro ranks and that is Cleveland. However, Mr. Paul Brown, does not call 'em, he has a spotter high up in the stands who calls 'em. As Mr. Brown has said, "I have the worst seat in the house". Once when he was questioned about his calling plays his response was, "We are not building character—this was done in High School and College—we are paid to win".

Getting back to the high school level of football it is my sincere belief that the coach should not be judged on his won and lost record alone. If the team is well drilled on fundamentals and the kids respect the coach, if he has all the deportment and leadership required, then I say Hands-Off—he's doing a good job. The coach represents a symbol to these kids and his conduct both on and off the field is used as a template by these kids. Arguing with officials and waving of hands, shaking heads and flaunting authority is not a good template to use in raising kids. (Leave that to the Pros).

Your article obviously is slanted toward the Monday Morning quarterbacks. Of course we all recognize the freedom of speech classification under which these hecklers put themselves, therefore their remarks should be taken with a grain of salt. They wouldn't know the difference between a flanker and a slot back so let them continue to pay for their admission and make fools of themselves in front of those who know a little better.

I think that if everyone would remember that they are only kids and let the kids play the game it would do more toward building their spirit, morale and character.

Let's give the game back to the kids—let them call their own plays. These are the formative years! Everyone knows that a 35 or 40 year old brain is sharper than a 17 year old brain. Let's make leaders out of our kids—not followers. Let's teach our kids to respect and obey authority. These are things important to America's future!

And last, but not least—I'll bet this letter in its entirety will not be published in your paper! It will probably be used to help burn the leaves!!

Sincerely,
A FAN

For the time being, we have been put in our place by Giant football fans who remember our earlier prediction stating that the Marameen would lose out to the Philadelphia Eagles. Well, we'll still go with the Birds, and just remind Giant rooters that Franklin Field is still a hurdle to be overcome.

Oh Norman, where are you???

Trotters Play Just For Fun

Why are the comedy antics of the famous Harlem Globetrotters, who oppose the Honolulu Surf Riders at the Elizabeth Armory Nov. 27 so refreshing and look so spontaneous even though some have been in the team's repertoire for so many years? The "secret" is explained by Abe Saperstein, the founder, owner and coach of the Trotters.

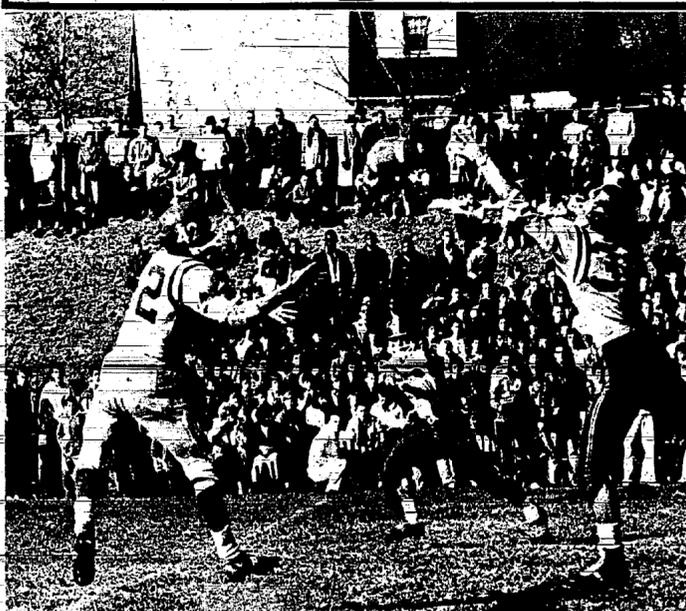

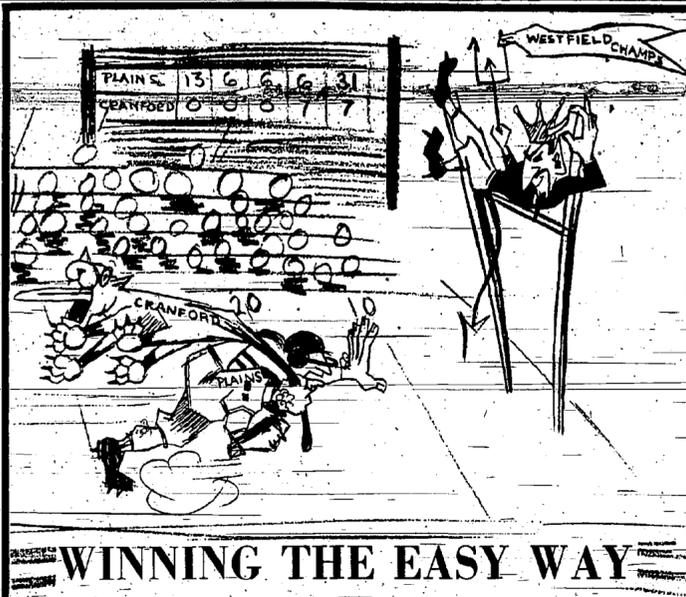

"We still play basketball for the fun of it," Abe says. "My boys get as much fun out of their own show as the spectators do."

Sometimes a sports event packs too much tension, there is too much at stake. You can't relax when you watch that type of performance. We want people to laugh, to enjoy themselves.

When the Trotters and Surf Riders tangle at the Armory in an 8 o'clock game, the program will be spiced by a halftime show of six acts of entertainment. Arrangements for the game were made through Bayway Post 260, American Legion of Elizabeth.

STAR ATTRACTION—Bob "Showboat" Hall, star of the Harlem Globetrotters, displays some of the antics that have made him basketball's number one clown. Trotters will meet the Honolulu Surf Riders on November 27 at the Elizabeth Armory.

COMPLETE—Sal Verini, (42), Scotch Plains, back, pulls in pass thrown by Haywood Gibson goes for nice gain. Cranford defender who can't quite reach the pigskin is Charley Krippendorf. Raiders took game, 31-7.

Needs Boost

The Jonathon Dayton Regional High School Booster Club of Springfield elected a new slate of officers at their last meeting which are as follows:

Mr. Robert Williamson, President; Mr. Jack Goldberg, Vice President; Mrs. Jeanne Haas, Secretary and Mr. William F. Valoris, Treasurer.

The Board of Trustees consist of:

Coach Herb Palmer, Mr. M.C. Carrah, Mr. Bryan Haas, Mr. Ludino, Mr. Edsall, Dr. Greenberg, Mrs. Erskine, Mrs. Hartz and in charge of publicity, Fred Puorro.

Membership for the Booster Club is not at its peak, so won't you please join.

DANCE

The Booster Club is sponsoring their Annual Thanksgiving Dance on November 24 at 8:00 p.m. at the Jonathon Dayton Regional High School for the benefit of student scholarships. Tickets may be obtained from the students, directly from the school or at the door. Dance music by the Semanons and door prizes galore!

Temple Bowl

Most of the top teams in the Temple Beth Ahm League, Springfield, found their matches in the last outing, and now the league is once again bunched together. The leading team, I. Kramerian, took a three game loss but still maintain a slim one game margin over S. Kessler. The first twenty two teams are within nine games of the league leaders, and there seems no indications of a run away league. M. Kurtz led the league for the day with a high 976 series followed by A. Schreiber 567 and L. Seroff 564. M. Zeller started the day slow but came through with a 209 game and finished off with a 206. Other high scorers were: O. Baroff 205, L. Seroff 202 and S. Fox 200.

Phys Ed. Teacher Chairs At Conv.

Mr. Robert Lummer, member of the Physical Education Department of the Jonathon Dayton Regional High School served as chairman of the HEALTH AND SAFETY section meeting at the annual convention of the New Jersey Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation. The Convention was held in conjunction with the New Jersey Education Association Convention in Atlantic City on November 9th and 10th. The program arranged by Mr. Lummer centered around the most effective method of presenting health and safety to high school students with particular emphasis being placed on the relationship between the scheduling plan and the effectiveness of the health and safety program in a high school.

Four teachers prominent in the teaching of health and safety in secondary schools in New Jersey will participate in this meeting as discussants. Included in this group is Mrs. Estera Eames who is also a member of the Physical Education Department of the Jonathon Dayton School.

In addition to his primary responsibility of teaching physical education and health, Mr. Lummer also serves as head coach of the Jonathon Dayton High School track team and as an assistant coach of the football team.

Rocca In Show

Amazing Antonino "Argentina" Rocca, the Italian idol, and Johnny Valentine, the popular Seattle slugger, go out to dethrone The Fabulous Kangaroos, Roy Hefferman and Al Costello of Australia Saturday night (November 18). This match headlines the show when wrestling resumes at the Jersey City Armory.

Rocca, one of the all-time grappling greats, and Valentine will be aiming to decisively defeat The Kangaroos and thus dethrone them as possessors of the television tag team title belts. This stellar attraction is one of matdom's best.

Sailor Art Thomas, the man with the massive muscles, and Sweet Daddy Siki, who form the leading Negro wrestling team, will be spotlighted in the companion feature. Sailor Thomas and Siki will battle Bob Orton, "The Big O," from Coyote, Kansas, and The Great Scott of Hadonfield.

Sailor Thomas, who became an overnight sensation along the east coast last year by his impressive triumphs, will be returning to the Jersey City Armory Saturday night on the heels of important wins on the West Coast. He has zoomed to stardom there, particularly in Hollywood, where he is a favorite with the film colony. These two tag team tussles will be decided over the best two out of three falls route.

Jose Miguel Perez, popular Puerto Rican protégé of Rocca, and Steve Stanlee of Chicago, brother of Gene "Mr. America" Stanlee, will be foes in their return to Jersey City. Other singles events pit Australia's Fred Atkins against Billy Darnell, the pleasing Philadelphian, and Si Si Willie Nieves of Puerto Rico, against Angelo Savoldi of Lake Parsippany.

The show will start at 8:30 p.m. The Jersey City Armory is easily accessible from any part of the Metropolitan New York area.

Tickets will be on sale all day and night Saturday at the Jersey City Armory.

Plainsmen Topple Cougars From League Championship With Brilliant 31-7 Showing

Westfield High School, while putting on a strong gridiron campaign in their own right, should thank a spirited Scotch Plains eleven for making their hopes for a Watchung Conference championship a reality last Saturday. The Raiders, while dethroned from the title, after holding onto it for the last two seasons, thoroughly drubbed Cranford 31-7, thus tying the Cougars for second place honors in the Suburban loop.

Scotch Plains now has a 0-2 record in overall season play, and stand 5-1 in the Watchung Conference as do the Cougars.

The Plains victory was twice as impressive since Coach Chuck Nelson's squad went into the affair at Memorial Park without the services of Tom Rutishauser or Marty Novello, two top-line backs. Haywood Gipson, normally a halfback, moved into the field general position in easy fashion and did a very impressive job directing his club toward their 112th point in the last three games. Dave DiFiore also showed well offensively, scoring three touchdowns for the winners.

Two Scotch Plains touchdowns in the opening frame stunned Cranford beyond repair. DiFiore saw daylight on the first play from scrimmage and streaked 85 yards to pay dirt.

Cranford could go no place after they got their hands on the pigskin and were forced to give the ball up on downs. On the ensuing punt return Gipson showed speed and intelligent running ability as he twisted and turned his way 74 yards for another Raider touchdown.

On the last play of the opening stanza, Stan Scarpati intercepted a Cranford pass and put the Raiders in position for another tally. As the second period began, with the ball on the home team's 29, Bob Stovenken went off tackle for the whole 29 yards and another Raider score. The extra point on this one was scored on a pass, Verini to Gipson.

The Cougars seemed to have something brewing after the second half started, but were scalded once again as Gipson picked off a Dave DeLonge pass

NOT QUITE—Scotch Plains end Bill Loth(82) comes close, but not close enough to snaring aerial in contest against Cranford.

Bulldogs Maul Rams With 47-7 Trouncing

NO COMPETITION??—Reading from left to right, Larry Stickle (70), Tom Venica (49), Archie Wright (43) and with the ball, Harold Bell (28), appear to be doing wind sprints rather than playing a game. Action (or lack of it) took place last Saturday in 47-7 romp against Roselle.

Springfield Regional, surprising no one last Saturday morning, got back on the winning track with a 47-7 romp over the Roselle High Rams at the loser's field. After the contest, it was difficult to decide just whether the Bulldogs won the game, or the Rams lost it. Springfield scored enough points to win just capitalizing in Roselle mistakes, but the offensive-Bulldog punch was obviously there nonetheless.

They turned opposition fumbles and misguided aerials into scoring opportunities. The first tally of the affair came early in the first period when Archie Wright scooped up a Ram fumble—of the 32 and faced to the end-zone for the score. Another first period score came on another Roselle fumble. This time Tuffy Hartz pushed the ball over on a 10 yard gain for the six points. Bill Geoghegan's extra points were good on both occasions.

Marty Sica set up the next Regional tally with a pass interception in the second quarter, with Hartz scoring from the 9. Tuffy picked up his third touchdown of the morning on a 9 yard aerial from quarterback Jack Aggar, and Springfield went to the locker room at halftime leading by the score of 27-0. Regional racked up their fifth score when Harold Bell found a Roselle fumble and galloped 29 yards to the up-rights. Number six touchdown of the morning came on another Sica interception, but this time the Bulldog linebacker was going to do it all by himself as he also raced 29 yards for six points. Geoghegan again converted to make the score an even 40-0, Regional.

Roselle fans began to wonder, until the Rams awoke from their defense and offensive lapses long enough to break into the scoring column. Quarterback Herman Walker tossed a 30 yard pass to John Wactor, and the Ram end met the ball in the end zone for the lone home team score of the day. The extra point was good.

PIPER—Robert C. Harrison of 164 Gallison Dr., Murray Hill, attired in the colors of Clan MacLeod will pipe "Scotland the Brave" more popularly known as "My Bonnie Lassie" on his bagpipes as accompaniment for the cheerleaders and twirlers of Governor Livingston Regional High School of Berkeley Heights when they go into their "Highland Fling" routine during the school Thanksgiving Day Football game with Ridge High School in Basking Ridge. The "Highland Fling" ties in with the nickname of Governor Livingston High's athletic teams, the Highlanders. Harrison, a spare-time "piper" is a supervisor in the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company's General Traffic Supervisor's Office in Newark.

Booters To Enter State Tournament With Win Streak

The Highlanders of Governor Livingston Regional High School will carry a 14-game undefeated streak into the New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association's Group II soccer tournament which was slated to get under way this week. Coach Russ Hunchar's booters wound up their regular season on November 6 with a somewhat unsatisfactory 0 - 0 tie with Thomas Jefferson High School of Elizabeth.

On paper, it was a battle between this season's Union County Conference champions—Governor Livingston—and last year's titlist—Jefferson. But the Tee Jays have experienced one of their poorest seasons in history this year. Jefferson had failed to score in six consecutive games before meeting the Highlanders. This streak was extended to seven by Frank Antonetti, Highlander goalie, but Jefferson's stubborn defense held the Governor Livingston booters scoreless for the first time all season.

Hockey Clinic

With the purpose of developing Ice Hockey, a ten week clinic will be held at The Warinanco Park Ice Skating Center, Roselle, starting Monday, November 20. There will be two sessions: Pee Wee Hockey (ages 9-12) 6-7 p.m. Intermediate Hockey (ages 13-19) 7-8 p.m. The clinic will give all children interested in learning and playing hockey the opportunity to do so under the direction of experienced instructors. The fundamentals of the game will be taught including forward and backward skating, shooting, passing, stick handling and formations. The instructors are: JOSEPH HANNABACK who played on the top teams in Canada. JAMES SULLIVAN an outstanding player in the east. JOHN WARCHOL the most valuable player in the Garden State. Children may register for the Hockey Clinic by filling out an application and returning it to the Ice Skating Center.

On Booter Team

Kenneth F. Ryder, Jr., nephew of Mr. Kenneth Morrison, 18 Brook St., Springfield, and a 1961 graduate of J. Dayton-Reg. H.S. is currently a member of the undefeated Williams College freshman soccer team. Under the direction of Coach Henry Flynt the Eph booters have amassed a win over the Hotchkiss School, while being tied by their counterparts at Dartmouth. In the Dartmouth contest the Purple dominated the game entirely, but were unable to break a 2-2 deadlock. Remaining on the schedule is a home contest with Trinity on Nov. 4, and then the booters enter into the traditional Little Three competition when they travel to Middletown, Conn., on Nov. 11 to take on Wesleyan.

LEADING THE FIELD—Dayton's Marty Sica (33), gobbles in an intercepted pass in the third period of play and races 29 yards for Regional tally. Chasing Sica is Reggie Benjamin of Roselle (34).

Highlanders Find Time To Contemplate Grid Showing

With a weekend off before the Turkey Day tussle with Ridge High School of Basking Ridge next Thursday, Coach Al Brown and his Governor Livingston Regional High School football team have time to contemplate what might have been. Although the Highlanders will go into the season finale with a so-so 4-4 record, it is not inconceivable that Brown's eleven could be preparing for the season's windup with an undefeated record.

In bowing to Hillside, 7-0, last Saturday, Governor Livingston bowed for the fourth time this season by a margin of one touchdown or less. The Highlanders' four losses have come by a total of 25 points so that it is quite obvious that Lady Luck has not smiled on the Highlanders too frequently this season.

Earlier this year, Piscataway High School, like Hillside, took advantage of a Highlander fumble deep in Governor Livingston territory to score the only touchdown of the game. In the Highlanders' only other loss this season—14-7 to Parsippany—Parsippany took advantage of three big breaks to score all its points.

has a 2-5-1 record after bowing to Manville High 14-8 last Saturday. The Highlanders contest with Hillside was a surprise in that what had been billed as a scoring duel developed into a defensive struggle. As usual, the Highlanders defense was top-notch in checking Sheridan, except for his decisive scoring burst. It was Sheridan's 13th touchdown of the season and gave him a total of 80 points for the season. Governor Livingston was blanked for the second time this season and only the third time in its brief football history. Now it's on to Basking Ridge and a final chance for a winning year for the Highlanders.

Nominations Known

Senator Clifford P. Case (NJ) today announced his nomination of candidates for the classes entering the United States Military Naval, Air Force and Merchant Marine Academies in 1962. These candidates were selected on the basis of the Civil Service examination sponsored by Senator Case on July 10, 1961. The number of candidates competing for each appointment is set by the respective academies.

Four candidates for the Military Academy will compete in the College Entrance Examination Board Test to be held throughout the United States and Territories next March, to select the class entering the U.S. Military Academy in July 1962. The Academic Board of the Military Academy will select for admission the best qualified candidate to fill the one vacancy which will exist at the Academy next year.

The six candidates are: Robert M. Nurwell, 23 Chestnut Street, New Providence, N.J. Carl J. Young, 35 West Shore Trail, Sparta, N.J. Thomas J. Gurske, 2276 Mountain Avenue, Scotch Plains, N.J. Robert F. Weir, 45 Simpson Avenue, Mt. Tabor, N.J.

Peter S. Tasker, 232 Thornden Street, South Orange, N.J. Shelly J. Horwitz, 2085 Grand Street, Scotch Plains, N.J. Herbert G. Miller, Jr., 185 Prospect Place, Rutherford, N.J. Frank M. Hock, 1160 Parsippany Blvd., Parsippany, N.J.

Six nominees will compete in the same College Entrance Examination Board Test to select the class entering the U.S. Naval Academy in July 1962. From this group of young men the Academic Board of the Naval Academy will select for admission the best qualified candidate to fill the one vacancy which will exist at the Academy next year.

The six candidates are: Robert M. Nurwell, 23 Chestnut Street, New Providence, N.J. Carl J. Young, 35 West Shore Trail, Sparta, N.J. Thomas J. Gurske, 2276 Mountain Avenue, Scotch Plains, N.J. Robert F. Weir, 45 Simpson Avenue, Mt. Tabor, N.J.

NOTICE OF SPRINGFIELD TAX SALE

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given that the undersigned, the Collector of Taxes of the Township of Springfield, in the County of Union will be on the 12th day of December, 1961 at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day in his Tax Office in the Municipal Building, Springfield, New Jersey, and will expose for sale the following described lands situated in the said Township of Springfield, on which taxes or assessment installments for the year 1960 together with interests and costs, remain unpaid and in arrears.

This sale is made under the provisions of an Act of the legislature concerning unpaid taxes, assessments and other municipal charges on real property approved March 4, 1918, to make the amounts chargeable against said land on the first day of July, 1961 as computed in the Unpaid Tax List for the said Township of Springfield, together with the interest on said amounts from the last day of July, 1961 to the date of sale and the costs of sale.

The said lands, the names of the persons in arrears, the amount due to July 1, 1961 as appears on said Unpaid Tax Sale List, are as follows:

Any of the aforesaid tracts or lots may be redeemed by the payment to the undersigned before the sale of the amount due thereon, including interest at eight percent from July 1, 1961 and the costs of advertising.

Given under my hand this 16th day of November, 1961, Tessa Jones, Collector of Taxes

55 Fieldstone Drive were among 96 Senior Scouts from this area who entered field trials held at Girl Scout Camp Blue Heron last summer for Roundup applicants. Carol and Dianne and the other finalists are now taking special weekend training before final selections are made in December. At that time 32 of the finalists will be chosen as Roundup delegates and the remaining eight will be alternates.

Both girls belong to Senior Troop 564 in Union, a general troop of 50 members. Carol and Dianne belong to the Trailblazer Patrol and are greatly interested in camping. Carol is a junior at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, Springfield and has been in Scouting ever since she became a Brownie in the third grade. As a Senior Scout she has earned bars in office service, program and child care, and is now working towards her hospital aide bar by serving as an aide at Overlook Hospital. Her ambition is to be a nurse. She also teaches a Sunday class of primary school children at First Presbyterian Church, Springfield, and is a member of the Christian Education Board.

Dianne started Scouting in a Intermediate troop when she was in the fifth grade and earned her curved bar in the eighth grade. Camping is her big interest and she attended Washington Rock Council's Camp Blue Heron for one summer and has gone to Camp Lou Henry Hoover for the past four summers. Dianne is a freshman at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, where she is a member of the Girl's Athletic Association and captain of a girls' volleyball team. She also is a member of First Presbyterian Church and belongs to Westminster Fellowship there. About 10,000 Girl Scouts from all over the United States and from foreign countries are expected to attend the Roundup from July 20 to 29, 1962.

Girl Scouts Train For Roundup

Two Springfield girls are among 40 Senior Girl Scouts from the Washington-Rock Girl Scout Council area chosen to train for the 1962 National Girl Scout Roundup to be held in July at Burton Bay State Park on Lake Champlain, Vermont.

Best-Seller Series Proves Successful

The Free Public Library of Springfield is very pleased to report that its recently incorporated plan, the McNaughton Series, has thus far proven a most welcome addition to its services.

This plan was put into operation on July 1st on a temporary experimental basis - its future depending entirely on its reception by library users. If present indications are any criterion, the plan will be with us for some time to come.

For the benefit of anyone as yet unfamiliar with the series, its purpose is as follows. Needless to say it is impossible for a library of this size to immediately accommodate all requests for so-called "best-sellers". Whereas three or four copies of one book are all our library would normally purchase requests for these copies sometimes run in excess of 100 or more. This is where the series serves its purpose - it supplements our supply so that many more requests can be accommodated at one time thereby cutting our waiting lists immeasurably. Additional copies of best-sellers are rented on a monthly basis returnable when requests have been satisfied. Since few of the current books develop into true classics, this service enables us to supply the demand without overstocking our shelves with books for which there is little or no demand in the future. These copies cannot be reserved - they are returned immediately to the shelf - thus making them accessible at any time.

The cost to the reader is 25¢ per week plus 5¢ per each day thereafter. This charge defrays the expense of the rental service only and contributes nothing in the way of additional revenue to the library. The Board would also like to clarify that this procedure does not in any way affect the library's FREE status. Anyone wishing to do so may still request any book listed in the card catalog at absolutely no cost (except overtime charges where necessary). The Board and Staff are very happy to be able to include this series as part of its many services. Any feature that adds to the efficiency of our library operation is and always will be our first consideration.
