Naming Of Zurav Was Legal, Town Attorney States

Township Attorney James M. Cawley submitted a written opinion to members of the Township Committee Tuesday evening stating that the appointment of David Zurav of 1 Archbridge Lane, Springfield, as attorney to the Springfield Planning Board, was legal.

Mr. Zurav was named attorney at the last regular meeting of the Planning Board but when the Township Committee was notified that the appointment had been made and salary set, Township Committee members Vincent J. Bonadies and Russel Sibole contended that "it was an illegal appointment."

The members of the governing body discussed Mr. Cawley's opinion at Tuesday evening's meeting and the matter of salary for the Planning Board's attorney will probably be included in the new salary budget.

Mr. Cawley's opinion on the Zurav matter said in part that "Since the temporary budget for 1962 represents 25% of the total of all appropriations for all purposes for 1961 as per R.S.40A:19, and since I am assuming that it has been correctly stated that the appropriation for the position of Planning Board attorney is not in the temporary budget, the necessary appropriation as to the amount, if any, must be placed in the 1962 budget and at the discretion of the Township Committee."

"This opinion applies to all employees of the Planning Board and their salaries, if any, should have been shown in the budget under the Planning Board, in the past, as required by law. The fact that this was not done has not the colour of Custom, which however has no force and effect in comparison with the above stated statutory authorities."

"The conclusion is that the appointment of an attorney to the Planning Board by the Planning Board is a duly authorized appointment; permitted by statute and cannot be overturned by any act of the Township Committee. The payment of a salary for said Planning Board attorney, by statute, depends on the budget appropriation and salary ordinance promulgated by the Township Committee and whether there is an appropriation in the temporary or regular budget for 1962 does not affect the legality of the appointment but only affects the amount of money, if any, which said attorney would receive for 1962."

Local Assessment Commission

The appointment of members to serve on the Local Assessment Commission for 1962 was made at the meeting of Springfield Township Committee Tuesday night in the Municipal Building.

Those named to the commission are Richard Stockinger, Fred W. Compton, and Elmer W. Andrew.

Increased lighting in Maple Avenue between Springfield Avenue and Morris Avenue at an annual billing of $97.50 was approved.

Township Attorney James M. Cawley was authorized to file a claim against Fidler's Cleaners, formerly in Main Street, in bankruptcy court in the amount of $2,374 in business taxes due. A letter to Mayor Philip DeVecchio from Rita H. Brownie, secretary of Gaudineer P.T.A., concerning obscene literature was referred to the Springfield Police Department.

The usual contribution was authorized to be given to the Fourth of July Committee.

A communication was received from Eugene F. Dunton, district scout executive, asking for a Boy Scout Day in the township as part of the organization's 52nd anniversary celebration in February.

It was suggested that the youths appoint themselves as counterparts to the township committee and attend a regular meeting. Committeeman Arthur Falkin was designated as co-ordinator.

Rotary Sponsors Concert Of U.S. Air Force Band, April 1

The Rotary Club of Springfield announced yesterday that it will sponsor a matinee and evening concert featuring the U. S. Air Force Band, internationally acclaimed body of musicians, on Sunday, April 1 at the Regional High School auditorium.

This represents the first fund-raising project on such a scale for the Rotary Club, which was organized in 1948. Proceeds will be used for youth activities and scholarships. The afternoon performance will be held at 3 o'clock and the evening session at 8.

Springfield is honored in having the first appearance of the 1962 Spring tour for the Air Force Band which will be heard in thirteen Mid-Atlantic States.

Last year the band made 45 appearances in its Fall-concert tour through the Pacific Coast section of the country. It is under the direction of Colonel George S. Howard, one of the Nation's most distinguished conductors.

It had been featured on the current "Serenade in Blue" carried by 2706 independent radio stations. In addition, the Band features their universally famous choral group, the "Singing Sergeants."

Heading arrangements for the local club is Dan Murray, general co-chairman, along with Jerry Goldstein. Others on the general committee include: Bernard Burrus, Max Rappaport, Judge Felix Forlenza and Harry Boughner.

Tickets at $1.50 for the afternoon and $2.50 for the evening show will be on sale shortly. It is expected that efforts will be made by Mr. Murray to approach all local organizations to participate by attendance, and to stimulate interest among musical groups in the Regional school district.

First Presbyterian Church Holds 216th Annual Meeting

The 216th annual congregational and corporation meeting of First Presbyterian Church of Springfield was held Tuesday night when the following officers were elected for three-year terms:

Elders: Henry J. Brucker, George W. Gleim, Kenneth Hertz, Jr., and Harold Jones; Deacons: Charles Beardsley, Richard C. Bishop, Howard Heerwagen, Richard E. Jarman and Mrs. Max Kuehn.

Trustees: Robert J. Kennedy, Raymond G. Pierson, and Dean Widmer.

These officers will be ordained and installed at the Worship Services on Sunday morning.

Shortly thereafter there will be reorganization meetings of all the official boards when officers within the organizations will be elected.

The following persons were also elected members of the church nominating committee, to serve for one year: S. Bryant Haas, William Green, Arthur R. Schramm, Mrs. Richard T. Bunell and Miss Alice Rieg.

The report of last year's nominating committee was given by the Chairman, Duncan A. Douglas. All officers whose terms of office had expired were commended for "their faithful service."

Reports of all organizations and official boards were received and high-lighted by the Moderator, the Rev. Bruce W. Evans, with proper recognition and commendations.

"All groups have done a fine job in worship and work this past year, especially the Westminster Fellowship," said Rev.

Evans, "and the High School group under the leadership of Miss Sharon Tompkins. This group is doing a tremendous benevolent work which ranges from the support of a twelve year old blind Iranian orphan girl to repairing hundreds of used toys for children in our own country at Christmas time."

The Christian Education report given by Warren W. Helsey indicated "an awareness of the work that is being done in this vast field together with constructive plans for an even greater work."

The Ladies' Societies show "an extended activity, and an increased concern for the worldwide activity of the Church while the Church School, with an expanded staff under James Stewart, Superintendent, emphasized the educational ministry of the Church in all its aspects."

The Men's Club was commended for its task of "serving the Washington's Breakfast for the men of Elizabeth Presbytery and the Fireside Group for its contributions for the life of the Church."

Of special interest in the Scouting report was the attainment of Eagle rank by five boys in Troop 70 sponsored by the Church. All organizations showed a varied church-centered program designed to give fullest expression to Christian fellowship and service.

A report on the new federal highway No. 78 and its possible effect on the church property was given by Harold Bishop, President of the Board of Trustees. In addition to the budget for current operating expenses for 1962, the Benevolence Budget for missions was received and adopted. This is designed for the support of missions at home and abroad.

Of particular interest was the increased support allocated to the Synod of New Jersey Capital Funds wherein monies will be earmarked for the purchase of new sites for churches throughout New Jersey, securing and improving the Synod Summer Camp at Johnsonburg, and the erection of a science building and dormitory at Bloomfield College.

These last projects are the priorities assigned for the combined support of all Presbyterians in the Synod of New Jersey.

Chamber Organizes Committees

A meeting of the Board of Directors of the Springfield Chamber of Commerce was held on Wednesday January 17 at the office of the Crestmont Savings and Loan.

President Henry Grabarz welcomed the new Board members to their first meeting in the new year, and several working committees were formed.

Three separate groups were brought into being: (1) Professional Group (2) Merchants Group (3) Industrial Group, with each to give special emphasis on problems which interest each particular group.

Chairmen of each committee named are as follows: Professional, Carl Becker; Industrial, Max Weiss; Merchants, Will Salesky.

An additional committee will be formed to work closely with the Township Authorities, on matters which affect parking and the attendant difficulties that this problem brings.

A number of suggestions were discussed in relation to the merchants of Springfield and a strong

Leones Sue To Build On Their Land

Township Attorney James M. Cawley was authorized at Tuesday night's regular meeting of the Township Committee to defend a suit filed against the Township of Springfield by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Leones of 596 So. Springfield Avenue, Springfield.

The suit was filed in Superior Court last week against the Township Committee and the township clerk in their effort to obtain a subdivision of a 4.9 acre plot of land for the proposed construction of, at least, 11 new homes in S. Springfield Avenue.

Township officials have considered taking over the tract for use as a park either through purchase or condemnation. The lot adjoins the property on which the Leones' home is built.

Mr. and Mrs. Leone contend that they applied to the Springfield Planning Board last May 4 for classification of the proposed subdivision.

After a hearing on September 7, the board referred the application to the Township Committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Leone charge that the committee has not acted on the application within a period allowed by law.

According to the plaintiffs demanded on December 26 that the township clerk, Mr. S. Eleonore Worthington, certify the date the Leones submitted the plan for approval and that she certify that the planning board and township committee had failed to act on the application within the time required by law.

The plaintiffs are asking the court to require the defendants to issue the certification, which they would use in lieu of a written indorsement or other evidence of favorable approval.

Letters have been sent to all Township organizations urging them to send representatives and the public is invited to attend this important meeting.

"What the Blood Program is and what it will mean to Springfield and the organizations and individuals participating will be fully explained," said Miss Florence Gaudineer, Chairman of the

Finnerty Names Three To Assist in March of Dimes Campaign Here

Local Man Drowns As Tug Sinks

A Springfield resident, Patrick Kenny, 46, of 93 Forest Drive, was one of three men whose bodies were recovered last Saturday when a tug capsized and sank in Seneca Lake, N.Y.

The tug sank about 150 feet off shore from the old Sampson Air Force Base which is being converted into a state park.

All four were employed by the Spinelli Construction Co. of Orange, N.J., installing a water intake system for the Finger Lakes State Parks Commission.

Patrick Kenny, field supervisor for the Spinelli Construction Co., who was drowned Saturday when a tug capsized in Seneca Lake, N.Y., resided at Short Hills Village here for five years. He formerly lived on the West Coast.

A graduate of St. Peter's Preparatory School, Jersey City, he held a Civil engineering degree from Villanova College.

Contes Withdraw Variance Request

It was reported at the Tuesday night meeting of Springfield Township Committee in Municipal Building that the application of Vinmarphil Holding Corp. for a variance use for property in Henshaw Avenue has been withdrawn.

The application had been recommended by Springfield Board of Adjustment to the Township Blood Program. Miss Irene Haas, Director of New Jersey Expansion of the New York Regional Blood Program will be the guest speaker.

Miss Haas will describe the Blood Program in detail and answer all questions concerning the new program.

"Prescription for Life" and "From Heart of Your Town", two brief films, will be shown to further illustrate the blood program.

The Blood Program made available to the Township through the Springfield Chapter of the American Red Cross is a vital new project which will be of benefit to the entire community and thus it demands community-wide response and participation," said Miss Gaudineer.

At the January 9 meeting of the Township Committee, the application had been remanded to the Board of Adjustment for further consideration and possible changes.

It was agreed that inasmuch as the board had advertised and held a public hearing on the request, the money would not be refunded.

A building permit already issued for the variance was ordered revoked and the fee of $143 required in this regard was ordered returned to the applicant.

Conte's Delicatessen in Mountain Avenue operates under the Vinmarphil Holding Corp. name.

Parking Rules Passed Again

Springfield Township Committee, Tuesday night in Municipal Building, adopted a snow removal ordinance banning parking on stipulated streets during snow storms. The ordinance was reintroduced because of an incorrect description of the streets

Peter Finnerty, Springfield Chairman of the 1962 March of Dimes campaign, has announced that the following have accepted the role of chairmen in the drive:

Russell Lyons will head the drive directed to shoppers and has already delivered the containers to all retail merchants, and urges "shoppers to be generous." He is the owner of Russell's Men's Shop and has been active in this town for many years. He feels the town will respond favorably to such a worthy cause.

Jay Bloom, as chairman of the drive to solicit the merchants and business firms of the town, is an old hand at "coming to the aid of the needy in this town". Mr. Bloom has enlisted the aid of the Jaycee Chapter in Springfield to assist him in contacting the "affluent society in the town."

Drew Morrison, a prominent citizen of Springfield for many years, has accepted the chairmanship of the drive for clubs and other organizations. Mr. Morrison who heads the firm of Andrew Wilson, Inc. has been active in the affairs of most of the clubs here for some time, and should be most effective at this job.

Mr. Finnerty is pleased to announce that the National State Bank has once again, graciously granted use of its facilities for the night of Jan. 31, when the Mothers' March from 7 to 8 will be terminated at the bank. Arthur J. (Pete) Smith, vice-president, has assured Mr. Finnerty that the usual hospitality will prevail with coffee and cake served to all the march participants.

"This creates a great spirit for a town as well as aiding the needy. It is a most edifying sight to see a large number of mothers, happily running to make their deposits for a worthy cause. I urge all to give serious thought to this campaign, and if after you have made your contribution, can get to town to see the posting of the returns, I urge you to do so," said Mr. Finnerty.

A recommendation was made for the signing of two contracts with the Visiting Nurse Association of Eastern Union County.

They will provide public health nurse service for St. James School for a payment of $2,200 and a township Board of Health nurse for $8,600 for 1962.

Committeeman Arthur M. Falkin announced that he has contacted the Union County Park Commission which has agreed to furnish a policeman at the Meisel Avenue ice skating area for four hours at night with the understanding that his services will be reimbursed by the Springfield Recreation Commission.

Springfield First Aid Squad Has Busiest Year

Springfield's active 28-man first aid squad had the busiest year in 1961 since the squad's inception 12 years ago. This activity is the basis for an ANNUAL REPORT DISPLAY NOW BEING SHOWN IN THE FRONT WINDOW OF NEWBERRY'S DEPARTMENT STORE in the General Greene Shopping Center, Morris Avenue, Springfield.

The display demonstrates visually how the squad, working in 14 teams around-the-clock, operates 24 fully equipped ambulances on many varied calls. The calls range from minor mishaps to hospital emergency cases. In pursuing this service last year the squad totaled 560 calls requiring 7,562 road miles and 2,036 man hours of actual working time—not counting thousands of hours spent in standing by and making ready for these calls.

Broken down further, these totals represent 75 hours of working time per member for the year and an average of 15 road miles per call. Throughout the year, 296 calls of an emergency nature were answered, 231 calls were made transporting patients from hospitals to their homes or other hospitals in every part of the state and to many out of state medical centers.

Another 33 calls were made to stand by or assist the police and fire departments of Springfield and neighboring communities. All of these calls were made at no charge to patients or their families.

The report emphasizes only the facts and figures about this vital community service. It cannot show the faithfulness with which each volunteer member performed his duty to the community.

This fact was best summed up by squad president Edward Street when he said, "More important than the factual report the display shows, are the dedicated and unselfish efforts of our members who faithfully serve without pay, sacrificing their leisure time for the community, as well as our neighbors in surrounding communities."

Due to the overwhelming increase in calls for aid, the squad is in need of additional members. Those interested in joining the squad may contact either Mrs. Helen Bowles at DR 9-6316, or Mr. Robert Voorhees at DR 9-4677.

Complete first aid training is given to all members as well as regular training in new or revised methods and procedures.

Springfield Red Cross Reports Active Schedule

The chairmen of the various committees of the Springfield Chapter of the American Red Cross reported an active schedule during November and December at the January meeting of the Board of Directors.

John Gacos, Chapter Chairman, announced the appointment of Daniel R. Murray, 80 Linden Avenue, assistant superintendent of schools, to head the Springfield annual Red Cross drive for funds and members.

Mrs. Harry Quinzel, 13 South Trivett Avenue, Home Service Chairman, reported on the local Red Cross work for servicemen and women and their families.

Four requests for emergency leave due to family illness, or death in the family and one leave extension to allow a serviceman to settle his mother's estate were requested, investigated and the leaves granted.

Request for information about a serviceman on duty aboard the U.S.S. Constellation when it caught fire was filled and the family relieved to learn that the serviceman was all right.

Two requests from families were filled notifying servicemen of the arrival of their wives at London, England, and Athens, Greece, respectively.

Mrs. Quinzel reported also that with the increased number of young men and women from Springfield now in service, the duties of the Home Service Committee in acquainting the personnel and their families with Red Cross services had increased considerably.

Mrs. Henry B. George, 184 Milltown Road, Motor Service chairman, reported an active period for Motor Corp drivers. Seventeen drivers participated making thirty-three trips.

The Canteen Committee under Mrs. George Watson gave a birthday party for one of the patients at the E.O.V.A. Hospital.

Miss Florence Gaudineer, Blood Program Chairman, announced that letters have been sent to over 90 Township organizations requesting their par-

Cannonball House Once Occupied By Declaration of Independence Signer

By RICHARD E. WERNER

Member of Board of Governors of Springfield Historical Society

Springfield is proud to house one of the truly great landmarks in New Jersey—our own Cannonball House on Morris Avenue. This is now in the possession of the Springfield Historical Society, after being the home for various families for almost two hundred and fifty years.

One little known fact is that one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, Jonathan Dayton, lived in this home in its early formative years. From all available records, the original owners were people known as the "Hutchings", and the area became known as "The Hutchings Homestead" in the early 1740's.

It had a frontage on Morris Avenue of "Six chains and eighty seven links"—(453.42') and extended as far back as the Rahway River.

The real romance of the home, of course, comes from the days of the famous "Battle of Springfield". One story has it that it was one of four buildings left standing in town (you will recall the famous "Give them Watts, Boys" at the Presbyterian Church), and the reason that it was left standing was due to the fact that the British were using it as a hospital for their troops.

The home was called "Cannonball House" because it was struck by a volley on its left side, which has been marked by the Historical Society for interested sightseers.

In Book A of the Essex County Surrogate's Vault, which is the first record book in that office, there is a notation of administration on the estate of Abraham Hutchings, stating that he died in 1813, and that Margaret Hutchings and John Smith were appointed as administrators.

He was survived by his wife and three infant children, and they apparently continued to live in the Cannonball House until about 1827.

From this point down to date, the history of the house is clearly defined as a matter of record.

Board of Health Declares War On Non-Curbed Dogs

At the meeting of Springfield Board of Health, January 17, in the Municipal Building, it was reported that a number of complaints have been received about dogs committing nuisances throughout the township.

It was explained that it is not so much a problem of dogs running at large as it is a problem of residents not walking their dogs in the proper manner. Majority of complaints have been concerning the property along Baltusrol Golf Club in Hillside and Mountain Avenues.

On a motion made by Committeeman Vincent J. Bonadies and seconded by Committeeman Russell Sibole, Township Attorney James M. Cawley was instructed to obtain model ordinances for curbing of dogs in the community, and report back to the board.

Committeeman Arthur M. Falckin requested information on a rat situation in "Meisel Avenue" and Linden Avenue. He was assured by Health Officer Dr. Robert S. Milligan and Sanitarian Arthur L. Marshall that the matter is being carefully followed and that there will be continued investigations.

The board agreed to recommend to the Township Committee the awarding of two contracts for 1962 for nursing services to the Visiting Nurse Association in the community-wide blood program made available through the efforts of the Springfield Red Cross.

Miss Gaudineer reported on numerous volunteers who have agreed to help at the bloodmobile's first visit on March 26.

Robert Laurencelle, Chapter Vice chairman, again volunteered his services as photographer. Mrs. Oliver O. Deane, Jr., Publicity Director set Sunday, January 21 as "picture day."

All Red Cross volunteers and Board members are to be at the Chapter Headquarters at the Cannonball House at 1:00 p.m. to participate in the pictures essential to telling the story of the Springfield Red Cross.

Gacos complimented all of the volunteers on their active work for the chapter and reminded the Board of Directors of the responsibility ahead with the annual Fund drive and the Chapter's first Blood Drive under the regional program.

of Eastern Union County. The contracts will provide municipal services for $8,600 and public health nurse services for St. James School for $2,200. Services are the same as last year.

Township Clerk Mrs. Eleanor H. Worthington administered the oath of office to the newly appointed physician member of the board, Dr. Ralph I. Mond.

The report of the secretary, Mrs. Eleanor H. Worthington, noted one case of hepatitis and two cases of measles as communicable diseases during the month of December, 1961.

Board of Health meetings are scheduled for the third Wednesday of the month with Committeeman Robert D. Hardgrove, as president.

Defense Discussion

Members of the Springfield Republican Club will hear Saul Freeman, Springfield Civil Defense Director, talk on "The Need For Civil Defense" at the regular meeting to be held Monday evening, January 29, at the American Legion Hall.

George Hutchings, son of Abraham, occupied the house until 1840, and September 17, 1840 it was sold under a writ issued out of the Circuit Court after the end of World War two. C. Harry Casperson purchased from the Silkes on May 20, 1954, and then, upon Mr. Casperson's death, the title to the Cannonball House finally passed to the Springfield Historical Society in 1955, through his will.

It is open to the public for inspection every Sunday afternoon, starting at three o'clock, and there is no admission charge.

People have come from all over the state to marvel at the home. It is reputed to be one of the best examples to be found in many respects.

Gene Donnelly To Head Salesmen

Eugene F. Donnelly, an Associate Member of the Board of Realtors of the Oranges and Maplewood, has been elected Chairman of the Salesmen's Division of the Board.

to satisfy a debt due to a family named Bonnet of $800.00.

The Bonnets conveyed the entire nine and one-quarter acres to Israel A. Morehouse who lived there until 1848, and sold it to Eugene Jobs.

A series of owners followed until Ida S. Heard came into ownership in 1896. She held it until her death in 1930, and William N. Heard, her son, sold it to Celia and Gloria Silke shortly

Budget Approved After Public Hearing

Mountainside Board of Education, following a public hearing attended by about 150 persons, Tuesday night in Deerfield School by majority vote approved the 1962-63 school budget, calling for a total expenditure of $885,050.50 as compared to the 1961-62 budget of $824,015.78. This is an increase of $61,034.77 over last year.

The only member of the board who voted in the negative was James Noste, who contended that the budget could be reduced some $20,000 to $25,000 without affecting school efficiency. The budget is subject to public vote February 13 when the expenditure of $608,143.00 for current expense and $6,438.11 for capital outlay will be presented for approval. At that time, the public will also vote for three members to serve full three-year terms on the Board of Education. The election will be held in Deerfield School from 2 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Funds for the budget boost are expected to be raised by using $9,000 in increased State Aid and $52,000 from additional taxes for the school year 1962-63.

This will mean a $38,000 increase for the 1962 tax year and a maximum 17.3 point hike for local school purposes in the 1962 tax year according to Board President Frederick Wilhelm, Jr.

Getting down to specifics, he further indicated that the local school tax in the 1962 tax year will cost $5 more to a person with a $25,000 home.

The budget increase is said to provide $34,500 for salary increments for 60 teachers and for the employment of two additional teachers. It will permit an over-all change in the teaching scale with the minimum salary for a teacher with a bachelor of arts degree to be raised $100 to $4,800 and the maximum after 16 years' service raised $200 to $7,900.

The master degree minimum will be up $200 to $5,100 and the maximum after 16 years' service will be $400 more at $8,300. The six years of education training scale will range from $5,400 up to $8,600 for those with 16 or more years of service.

Total amount for teacher salary increments and improvements is listed at $22,500 and two allocations of $6,000 each are made for two new teachers. One of these teachers is a language teacher whose employment would be subject to a Temple University recommendation for the establishment of a foreign language program in the school system in conjunction with the other communities in the regional system.

The sum of $408,270 is the total amount allocated for teacher salaries in the 1962-63 budget. Also, $10,000 is provided for substitute teaching and $2,000 for bedside teaching. The total amount for principals is $29,700 and the sum of $16,000 is set for the salary of the superintendent of schools.

The budget rise is also attributed to $18,000 allocated for debt service. Funds are also provided for the hiring of an additional custodian. School improvements will include black-top sidewalks and improved parking facilities. Transportation is listed at $22,500 an increase of $2,835.00 over last year.

President Wilhelm reported that an expenditure of $7,800 for library books for classroom reference work is included in the budget. He explained that

$2,711.55 was permitted for books for 1961-62, $7,200 for books in 1960-61, and $5,399 for books in 1959-60. (Cont. on page 6)

On the Teen age "seen"

Have you noticed that more and more of the youngsters are taking pride in their appearance? There seems to be a healthy trend away from the "disheveled baggy look" to neater, more flattering attire. We wish to compliment the youngsters on their good taste.

To the parents who are concerned with their youngsters' appearance, we offer a professional suggestion. Your children usually have one or two favorite items of clothing that get repeated wear. And since we know that the teenagers are preoccupied with many day-to-day problems, they are prone to neglect the care of their clothing.

We therefore suggest that you periodically check their clothing and see that they are cleaned when necessary. Otherwise dirt and stains, that can be cleaned, will become permanently embedded in the fabric.

Our same day cleaning service will get those garments back to them, before they know they're gone. So won't you let Pan American help you improve the teen age seen!

BPW Meeting Held

The Westfield Business and Professional Women's Club held its regular dinner meeting on Tuesday, January 16 at Navak's Restaurant in Scotch Plains.

The chairman of the International Relations Committee, Mrs. Mary Murphy, introduced Dr. Estelle Milheiser of Westfield who spoke about her three-week guided tour sponsored by B.P.W. in early September. Dr. Milheiser, left New York -- landed in England -- crossed the Channel to Holland -- saw the Castles on the River Rhine -- visited Heidelberg via the Brenner Pass -- crossed into Italy, where they enjoyed a gondola-ride in Venice -- on to Florence and Rome and finally arrived in Paris.

Docot was most impressed by the beautiful flowers which grow in front yards and in the window boxes and in all the markets where fresh cut flowers are sold every day. Doctor recommends that one's first trip abroad should be by guided tour because everything has been planned for you. And Doctor recommends that you go in the Spring or Fall and avoid the crowds.

Our second speaker of the evening was Miss Emma C. McGall of the Westfield B.P.W. and State Federation President. On Nov. 23 through Nov. 26, Miss McGall was privileged to join Na-

Budget

Additional books are necessary, he said, because both the need and the prices for books go up. Children can no longer use just one or two textbooks but must refer to other books as well, he explained.

When the salary of Dr. Levin B. Hanigan was asked to be compared with other superintendents, it was reported that the average salary of superintendents in the six districts of the region is $12,400. However, it was pointed out that Dr. Hanigan is the only one to hold a doctorate degree and is one of only nine throughout Union county to have this degree.

It was further explained that the average salary on a county comparison for superintendents is $15,147 and the average salary of those with doctorate degrees is $17,311, with Dr. Hanigan the lowest of the nine in the county holding this degree.

Borough Clerk Elmer A. Hoffarth said from the audience that he objected to Dr. Hanigan receiving a salary increase of $1,000 and Mr. Noste contended that Dr. Hanigan was paid the highest in the county and possibly in the state taking into consideration the number of schools and the number of children involved in Mountinside.

Board Member W. Peter Metz indicated that it would not matter to him whether he had few or many children in his family, he would still want them under a man with high qualifications.

One member of the audience claimed that Dr. Hanigan has brought more improvement into the school system than was introduced during the last 50 years.

Mr. Noste told the audience that "the only thing I am guilty of on this board is to make you mindful of the tax dollars being spent by the Board of Education."

He contended that no matter how much money is spent, only so much yield comes from the mind of a child on the six to 14 year age level. A solid base should be given with emphasis placed on the three R's until he matures mentally, emotionally, and physically, he said.

The emphasis on technical skills should be made on the university level, Mr. Noste said. Contending at one point that Mr. Noste inferred that he had not been invited to all the budget meetings, Mr. Wilhelms advised Mr. Noste: "I will not stand for any more insults from you, Jim Noste. You were advised of all meetings. Don't tell me the work was done at 'Koffeeklatches.'" It was done in Mr. McDonough's office.

President Wilhelms also informed Mr. Noste that observations were made of the latter's absences and lateness at meetings.

When Dr. Hanigan was asked from the audience for his opinion of the new budget, the superintendent of schools said that there are short-comings in the salary area and that he would like it to be more competitive.

However, he said that it is a "sound budget after long hours planning" and indicated that he did not see any so-called "fat" in it.

TIME FOR THOUGHT

Start the new year with one of the soundest moves you can make - by assuring a good measure of security for your loved ones. Just a few moments thought will convince you how important it is... yet, providing for your family, exactly as you wish, takes so little time. Here's another thought: when you include The National State Bank in your estate plans, you have a skillfully trained staff, complete facilities, and a bank with a century and a half of experience working as your executor or trustee. We'll gladly talk to you and your attorney, at your convenience, about the peace of mind our trust services can bring you, in '62.

DICK SCHWARTZ

.....And the epitaph will read: "Here lies Baseball, lived a rich life, died a natural death....a Victim of sociological progress."
From Caribou, Maine, to Oxnard, California, the question of whether or not Baseball has had it as our National Sport, has begun to lift its ominous head above the dust and debris of grocery store cracker barrels and the dust and debris of editorial desks.
Is baseball our National Sport?
We'll say NO, baseball is no longer our National Sport, and try to justify our reasoning.
Perhaps if America ever did have a National Pastime, it was baseball. From commercials, dated movies, and history books, it seems to us that there was a period early in the Twentieth Century when every excuse for an outing spelled baseball, and baseball spelled the shrieks of ladies and zealous pursuits of side-burned gentlemen.

This was the time when plots of land from rectangular garbage dumps to handball courts were converted into baseball diamonds with chalk lines and folded coats. It was the time when the last guy gripping the handle had the honor of twirling the bat (usually a cracked one with a nail in its gut) around his head three times before grabbing the tall kid with the only glove for his team.

And then these games, from Caribou to Oxnard, would last far into the darkness until the ball began looking like less than an aspirin tablet to would-be hitters and fielders.

Find a free-lance baseball game these days. Sure, kids are forming nines during the summer, but these kids are "Little Leagues," all decked out in pin-stripe and using only the best of facilities and equipment.

When was the last time you've seen a spontaneous contest among the hordes who are not 'sponsored' or expertly coached? Isn't the answer a long time ago?

While baseball is still going 'strong' among the organized athletic elements, it seems to us that it has lost its natural appeal to those kids who wake up on July mornings with nothing to do. Twenty-five years ago these kids probably would have marched out to a field for a quick nine innings. Not today, we'd reckon.

As far as the professional blanket covers....The frazzled ends of the cloth barely touch half our broad country. The Majors don't even account for two dozen metropolitan areas, and the Minors are sinking in seas of indifference.

This is why we feel baseball is dying a slow death.

Why???

It boils down to the people, the sport itself, and the lay of the economic land. In the final analysis, people make a sport National by playing it and watching it. Baseball is too strenuous for the older folks and a little too slow to draw the youngsters of our Space Age.

And what probably is the most important fact of all, is that people have begun to watch less and 'do' more.

Sitting in the bleachers or in front of the electronic tube has given way to getting outdoors and following the pursuits higher wages and more free time have given to the American people.

Look at the pastime of boating. The figures on outboard motors sold and boats bought within the last ten years are fantastic. Look at golf. The public links are overflowing with lines of golfers, all anticipating hotter eighteens than the day before.

Look at skiing. Vermont is being discovered by the salesman as well as the gentry from Newport.

Naturally when the new emerges, the old suffers. It is our contention that baseball will have to bear the burden of being outdated in a more streamlined world than from whence it sprang. We feel that the diamond sport will eventually vanish, not as a sport, but as a 'way of life,' a NATIONAL Pastime.

We also feel that all this is a healthy sign, and a truly American one. In a nation where creeds, beliefs and mores have melted together to form the greatest country in the world, it figures that there be no stereotyped sport either.

Pro football you say. Well, it's fast, there's less than twenty of them a season, and the bone-crushers are perfect balm for a week spent in concrete jungles.

But even pro football takes a back seat when there's a break in the weather on Sunday and an opportunity to get out and 'do' for ourselves.

And there's no two ways about it. We Americans are doing more in the way of athletics than ever before in our history.

New Providence Avenges Earlier RHS Defeat, 58-52

New Providence, smarting under a defeat, their only defeat, at the hands of Springfield Regional earlier in the season, bounced back at their home court Tuesday and downed the Bulldogs 58-52 to avenge the loss.

Regional had numerous scoring opportunities in the opening seconds of play, but two free throws by Dennis Francis was all the visitors could muster for a 2-0 lead. After 1:50 had elapsed, Ted Schuss hit on a rebound to make it 4-2, Springfield. Both teams were having their troubles on the hardwood, but a layup by Dave Bonislowski made the count 6-2 with 3:52 remaining in the opening period. New Providence then went ahead 7-6 but another Bonislowski shot made it 8-7, RHS, and a foul conversion by Schuss pushed the margin to 9-7.

With fine hustling on the part of Schuss, Springfield made up for poor shooting with a quantity of chances and a shot at the buzzer by Dennis Francis brought the score to 12-9, Springfield, at the quarter.

In the second period, another Bonislowski layup made it 14-11, Springfield, but when New Providence surged ahead 15-14 before Bonislowski put the visitors back on top 16-15. A steal converted into a field goal by Schuss and another 'Bono' basket made it 20-15, RHS. New Providence came back to knot the count at 20, but a set by Jack Aggar and two more long sets by Dennis Francis made it 26-22, Springfield at the half.

After falling in two attempts, Schuss hit on a jump shot to up the total to 28-24. With 4:32 left, in the quarter a New Providence tap-in made it 28 all, then with the home forces ahead 30-28, Schuss hit on a foul to put Springfield within one.

New Providence managed to hold onto the lead but hot hands by Dave Bonislowski kept the Bulldogs within striking distance. Springfield was beginning to feel the bite of too many personal fouls and New Providence pulled to a 39-33 lead before Francis hit a jumper, and Kretzer sunk a foul, but

Heights Matmen Keep Coach Higgins Guessing

It's getting so Coach Ray Higgins simply doesn't know just what to expect from his unpredictable Governor Livingston Regional High School wrestling team.

Take last week, for instance. Higgins' top three grapplers—all undefeated—scored victories, but the Highlanders dropped a heart-breaking 20-20 decision to undefeated Piscataway High School at Piscataway.

Then Governor Livingston bounced back to defeat Seton Hall High School in a match which saw two of the Highlanders' "Big Three" drop their first bouts of the season. With the lighter wrestlers coming through in fine style for the first time, Governor Livingston chalked up a 27-17 victory over the Pony Pirates here.

As a result of initial defeats for Len Semon and "Chuck" Whitford in the Seton-Hall match, John Wadas, 129-pounder boasted the only undefeated record on the Highlander squad going into last Tuesday's meet with Bridgewater-Raritan High School in Bridgewater Township. The Highlanders also will be on the road tomorrow afternoon, traveling to Elizabeth to take on Thomas Jefferson High School. Governor Livingston resumes action on its own mats at 8:30 p.m. next Tuesday, January 30, playing host to Hanover Park Regional High School.

Even Wadas had his troubles maintaining his perfect mark against Seton Hall. John eked out a 5-4 decision in his closest match of the season.

They key to the victory was a quick 13-0 lead provided by Phil Hof, John Farrar and Bob Buckley in the first three bouts. Hof, only a freshman, continued his rapid improvement by scoring his first victory in four bouts. He pinned Jack Rodgers of Seton Hall.

Then Farrar scored his second win, both on pins, putting down Seton Hall's Tom Burroughs in just 54 seconds. It is believed to be a school record for the fastest victory by a Highlander wrestler.

Bob Buckley, 114-pounder, padded the lead with his first victory of the season. Mike Rendine, 136, made his debut with a decision victory, while Bud Conte boosted his record to 4-1 with a quick pin victory. Frank Fish accounted for the Highlanders' other points with a one-sided decision victory.

Governor Livingston overcame a 13-0 Piscataway lead to carry a 20-19 edge into the final match of the day, inexperienced John Carvellas, however, dropped a 6-0 decision and the Highlanders dropped their second straight two point verdict. The win over Seton Hall gave the Highlanders a 2-3 record.

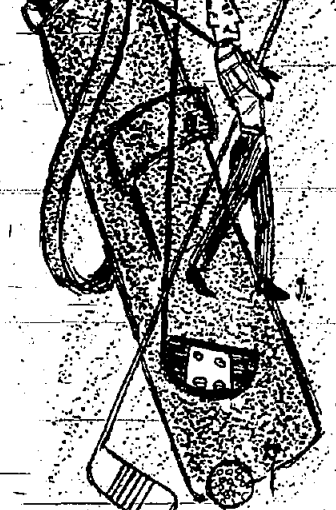

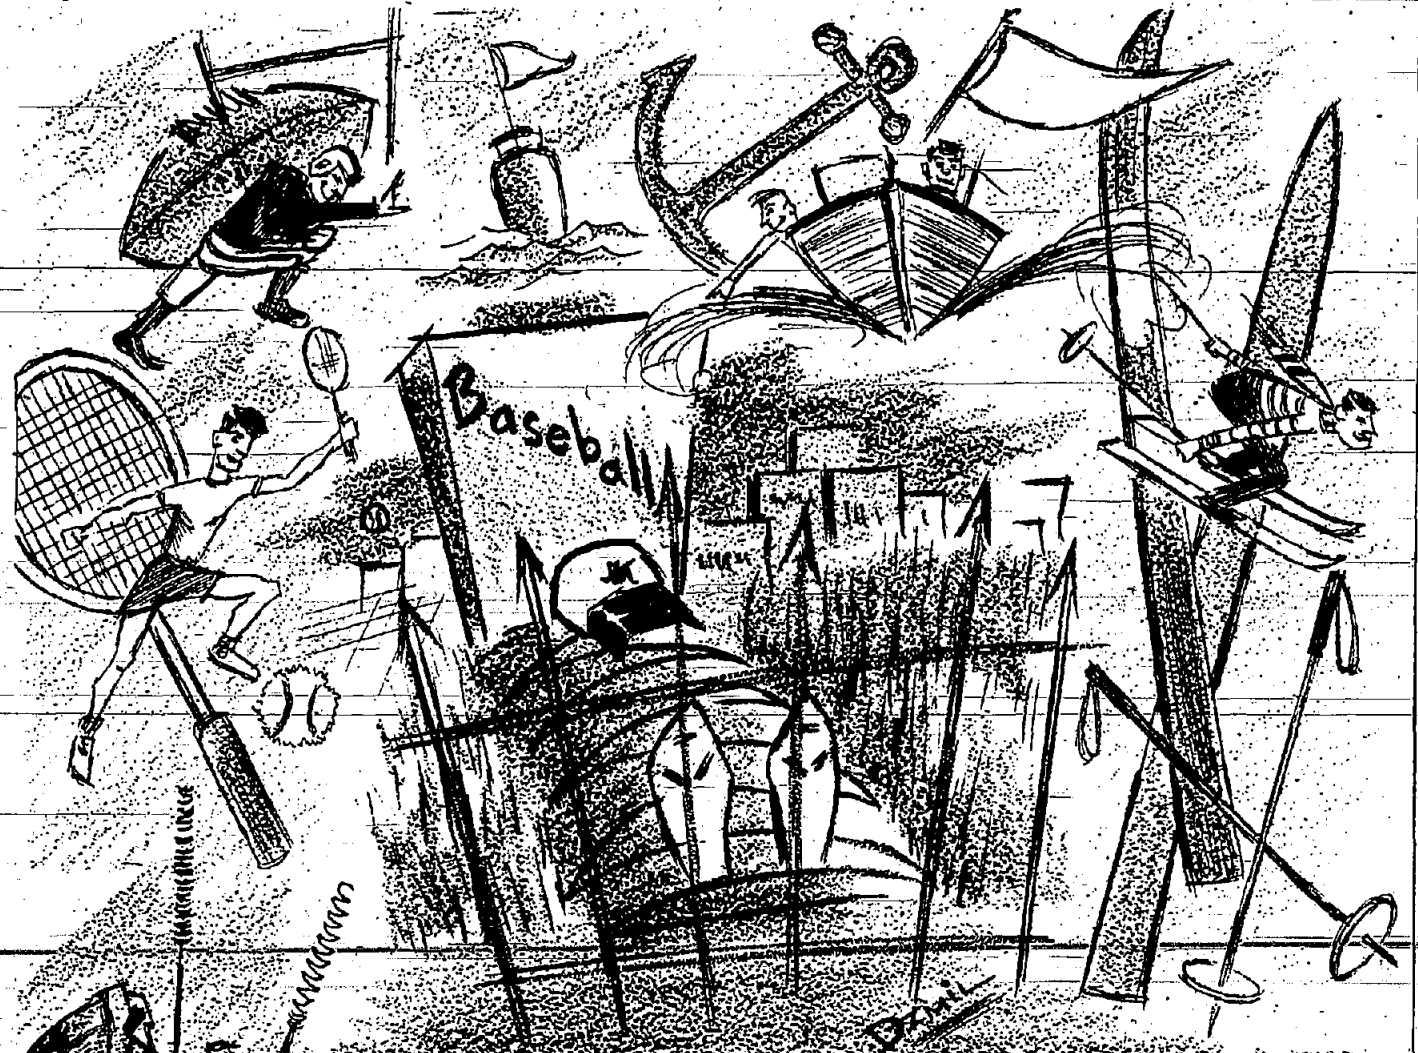

Semon scored the Highlanders' only pin victory, his second of the season. Decision victories were scored by Sam Testa, Wadas, Conte, Fish and Whitford. Each team won six bouts, but Piscataway scored two pin triumphs to one for the Highlanders to give the Indians their winning margin.

Close Short Ends Spell Trouble For Highlander Cagers

A matter of only seven points that have represented the difference between three defeats and three victories have given Governor Livingston Regional High School's basketball team an imposing task if it is to fulfill Coach Don Wodock's pre-season forecast of a winning season.

As the Highlanders reached the halfway mark of their regular-season schedule, their record was an unimpressive 3-6. Three of the losses were by one, two and four points, all games in which the Governor Livingston had an opportunity to win but just missed. Victory in those three close contests would have given the Highlanders a 6-3 mark at this juncture of the season.

There still is time for Wodock's cagers to perk up and start fulfilling the coach's expectations, but the road ahead is a rocky one. The Highlanders were favored to defeat Chatham High School, one of the less formidable teams in the Suburban Conference, here last Tuesday.

Tomorrow night, however, Governor Livingston has to take on the once-beaten Pioneers of New Providence High School on the Pioneers' court. The Pioneers whipped the Highlanders, 61-52, here two weeks ago and figure to be even tougher in the friendly confines of their own gym.

The Highlanders will be on the road again next Tuesday afternoon when they travel to Basking Ridge to open a new series with Rids High School.

The latest blow to the Highlanders' hopes for a successful season occurred on Jan. 19 when Watchung Hills Regional High School nipped Governor Livingston, 59-58, staying off a desperate last-minute rally.

This was a game Wodock's cagers had figured to win as they handed Watchung Hills a 64-53 lacing in December on the Warriors' court.

The loss was the third in a row for Governor Livingston as powerful Highland Park High School had manhandled the Highlanders, 59-43, on Jan. 16 at Highland Park. The Owls of Highland Park, however, have a 10-1 record and this loss was pretty much anticipated.

Wodock's cagers declined to run with the speedy Owls who are famed for their fast-breaking attack and for three periods managed to stay in contention, trail-

RHS Grapplers Slaughter Hillside Whip Clark Crew

On January 19th before a full house crowd the Varsity Wrestlers of Dayton Regional crushed their Hillside opponents 39-9. This marked the third straight triumph for the Grapplers. The record now stands at 4-1.

Undefeated Rich Luceriello began the festivities with a 4:37 pin over Hillside's Rich Gitzleb. Lou Scelfo followed up with a 6-1 decision over Marty Levine as Regional jumped to an early 8-0 lead. Barry Becker of Regional was outscored 3-1 by Rich D'Agostino. 122 pound Ron Puorro pinned Phil Jajovsky of Hillside at 2:51 for five points and Tom Baker added another one over Barry Goldberg at 5:15. This ran the score up to 18-3 when Rich Muller was decided by Mitch Kaufman 5-0 and Joe Scelfo was decided by Mike High 4-0 of Hillside for their last wins.

The other undefeated wrestler on the club Tufty Hartz continued his line of victories by pinning Allan Friedman at 2:15. Tufty had control all the way and there was little doubt that the pin would eventually come. Tom Venice, 156 pounds, nipped Tom Perkoskie 2-1 on a takedown, 157 pound Carmen Rica decided Hillside's Allan Calandrillo 4-3 and Bill Geoghegan pinned Harold Bass at 1:22. Heavy weight Marty Sica put an appropriate ending to the match when he also pinned Steve Quigley at 2:45. The final score was Regional 39 and Hillside 9.

Beacon on Sports

BY CY JAMES

Ray Higgins, coach of Governor Livingston Regional High School's wrestling team, has a few extra gray hairs this week and the antics of his highlander wrestlers must bear most of the responsibility. Ray thought he had a strong team this season. He had eight lettermen in a turnout of 80 candidates and high hopes of improving on last year's mediocre 2-5-1 record.

Higgins, however, also was a realist. He was fully aware that many of the teams on the Highlander schedule also had powerful squads. So what has happened? The wrestlers of Governor Livingston are at the one-third point of the season with a disappointing 1-3 record. It doesn't sound very impressive but it easily could be!

Two of Governor Livingston's setbacks have been by two-point margins, with both matches being decided in the final bout of the meet. You can't shave it much closer than that.

Just to make matters worse for Higgins, the Highlanders were leading in both meets going into the final match. They led Middlesex by three points and Piscataway by one point. In each case, their heavyweight grappler was beaten.

Higgins, however, has no complaint with his heavyweight. John Carvellas is new to the sport of wrestling and the mat sport is not one you become expert at in a few months. Higgins also is a realist. He knows that his team has been weak in the lighter weights, too, and this has hurt the Highlanders.

In the first four meets, the Highlanders won only one bout in the three lightest-weight classes. This has been giving Governor Livingston-opponents a big early lead which the Highlanders' classy middleweight wrestlers have been overcoming.

Any way you cut the cake, however, two consecutive down-to-the-end wrestling meets like those with Middlesex and Piscataway—especially when you lose both of them—are not very conducive to a coach's retaining his hair, even gray ones! There is a strong temptation for the coach to pull it out by the handful.

And that isn't all! One of the Highlanders' triumphs was a three-point win over Clark Regional. That also was decided in the final bout of the day. "Chuck" Whitford, Governor Livingston's undefeated 177-pounder, wrestled as a heavyweight that day and won a decision from his heavier opponent to break a 17-17 tie and give the Highlanders the victory.

How much tension can a coach take? It's enough to give anyone ulcers!

It's quite obvious that in place of its unimpressive 1-3 record, Governor Livingston's wrestlers could just as easily have a fine 3-1 mark. Just shows you what a difference a few points—or one more top-notch wrestler—can make.

The situation has been a little disheartening for Higgins' grapplers but there has been a bright side to the situation, too. With the season one-third over, the Highlanders have three undefeated wrestlers and two others who have been beaten only once. All of these boys must be considered leading contenders for district tournament honors next month.

Here's a rundown on the Highlanders' standouts:

Len Semon, 167, a football standout last fall who Higgins predicted great things for this season due to his newly acquired skill in leg wrestling. Len boasts the top record on the team with a 4-0 record, two pin victories and two decisions. Semon is the only Highlander wrestler with as many as two pins. He has permitted only one of his first-four opponents to score on him.

"Chuck" Whitford, a 177-pounder, is a candidate for the best won-loss record on the team for the second consecutive year. In one bout as a heavyweight and two in his own class, "Chuck" has scored three decisions without permitting any opponent to score a point against him.

John Wadas, 129, the school's all-county and all-state soccer star, who is rated by Higgins as probably the best all-around grappler on the team. Wadas has won three straight decisions, outscoring his rivals by a total of 16 points to five.

Tony Conte, 147, has won three decisions in a row since losing his first match to Westfield by a one-point margin. Tony planned one rival and outscored two other opponents by a 13-6 margin.

Frank Christiansen, 140, in four matches has done just about everything a wrestler can do. He has pinned one opponent, decided another, drew with a third and lost a decision. The only thing left for Frank is to lose by a fall and he doesn't care if that never happens to him.

Three other Highlanders have split their first four matches and Higgins is hopeful they will win more regularly during the rest of the season. All are veterans of last season. Ron Cote, Sam Testa, and Frank Fish, the Highlanders' crackerjack football quarterback last season, all have 2-2 records.

Springfield Recreation Round Up

BY GARY FALKIN

After three weeks of Recreation Basketball, the Small-Fry, Ivy and State League players continue to show improvement, not only in their scoring but also their ball handling.

In the Small-Fry League at the Sandmeier School the Raiders edged the Giants by a score of 11-7. Mal Eaton, Sal Mucario, Jeff Morris, Ricky William and Keith Brownlie combined for the win. Ralph LoSanno scored six points for the losing Giants.

In the second game the Pirates nipped the Lions 8-6 with Bruce Gerstein and Richie Ustian providing the scoring punch for the victors. Ted O'Connell, Warren Danziger and Bobby Arnold paced the losers. In the finale, the Indians doubled the Browns scoring by winning 16-8 as Richie Falkin and Gary Ginsberg sparked the winners. Bob Sternlich and Vic Sarokin were the top performers for the Browns.

At the James Caldwell School in the opening game of a four-game card the Knicks gained a top-sided 39-11 victory over the Pistons. Stokes and Schwartz were the top performers for the Knicks while Gontive and Richman topped the Pistons. In the second game the Bullets scored a 32-9 victory over the Billikens. Reichman scored 20 for the winners with Bucci and Campbell the best for the Billikens.

In the third game the Nats tripped the Aggies 16-6 as Lewis and May showed to advantage for the winners, the losing Aggies had D'Andrea and Weiss as their top performers. In the final game of the afternoon the Lakers sparked by Don Pierson and Rick Cotroneo had an easy time winning over the Celtics. Charlie Meyer was the high man for the losing Celts.

In the Ivy League on Tuesday and Thursday nights at the Gaudineer School much improved play sparked the games. Dartmouth kept its hopes alive by taking Harvard 25-17 as Seigel, Belliveau, Lawrence and Frank sparked the victory. Gregg Paulses, Stevie Hartz, and Andy Besch were the best for the Crimson.

In the second half of the twin bill, Yale remained unbeaten by posting its third straight win over Princeton, the score 27-22. Ira Rukow, Glenn Cole and Ernie Erskine were the scoring leaders for Princeton, with Dan Ginter, Harold Hansen and Jay Rosenberg were the spark for the blues.

In a single encounter on Thursday night, Columbia won 48-42 in a good scoring exhibition. Jimmy Belliveau with an 18 point effort paced the winning Columbia five, getting help from Ron Hasselmann and Bob Gartland. Lou Clark, Ed Larzleer and Wissie Nemerson paced the losers.

Five well-played games featured play in the Recreation State League last Saturday afternoon at Gaudineer. In the opening game of the five game card, Minnesota nipped Utah 18-14 after falling behind in the earlier quarters. Howard Spellman and Richard Capbell spearheaded the Minnesota victory with Don Bueher, Ken Braverman and Dick Murray the best for the losing five. Wyoming had too many scoring guns to easily beat Kentucky. Gary Kurtz and Timmy Sommer sparked the win. Fred Title was the top performer for the Wildcats.

In the finale North Carolina won 24-13 over Florida as Mike Catapano, Bob Krathblatt and Howard Goldhammer sparked the winners. Fred Voltherst and Bill Appar were the best for the losing Florida cagers.

SUNSHINE LEAGUE: Hurricanes 1 - Marlins 0; Smokes 5 - Flamings 3.

The Hawks - Knicks game was the feature of the National League. Mike Swingle and Johnny Maragini scored 14 and 10 points each for the Royals and Lakers. Tommy LeStrange dunked 6 points in the Nats win over the Stags.

QUICK ONE—Springfield Regional's Barry Becker puts the finishing touches on Don Scott of Caldwell in match Tuesday. Becker pinned Scott in 38 seconds and Springfield took the contest, 40-8. (Dick Schwartz)

Slow Start Helps Union Take RHS

Union High, sporting two big offensive guns in Gunther Forst and Bill Aicher, downed a Springfield Regional five last week, 70-44 on the Union court.

Union jumped out to a quick 7-0 lead in the first quarter before Bill Kretzer could hit on a jump shot for the first RHS tally, with 4:36 left in the period. Union ripped off 5 more before Springfield could hit again. Jack Appar connected with a long set and Ted Schuss a jumper for a 12-7 Union lead. The home team led at the quarter, 17-7.

In the second period the Bulldogs fell behind by 14 but managed to move the ball fairly well and buckets again by Schuss and Appar made it 21-13 with 4:41 left in the half.

However, Forst of Union kept the Farmers well ahead, 33-20 at intermission. Springfield failed to hit a field goal in the third quarter until 4:32 was left when Larry Strickler got the initial bucket. A shot at the buzzer by Appar made the count 48-33 at the close of the third stanza.

The Bulldogs hustled in the last period but could never overcome the big Union lead. Schuss had 16 for the losers, and Aicher had 27 for the victorious Farmers.

Hooter's Surprise

by Geldt Mallay

Hooter Owl peered down at the ground. Not one telltale track showed in the snow. He gave his hooting night cry.

"What's all the noise about?" asked a sharp voice at the foot of the tree.

Hooter looked again. "Oh, it's you, Rip Raccoon!" he said. "If you were as starved as I you'd do more than hoot!"

"I sure would," answered Rip. "I'd stop sitting on my feet and find something to eat."

"Very clever," said Hooter. "With you stalking around I'll never find a thing! He spread his wings and flew across the field.

"Suit yourself," called Rip, starting for the orchard. "It's tough to be hungry," he added, to himself.

Hooter stopped at the big oak by the pond. A shadow moved below, then another. Hooter's feathers ruffled excitedly. Quietly he coasted down across the frozen pond right into the middle of Mrs. Muskrat's dining table. Her babies ran for shelter.

"Oh, it's you!" grumbled Hooter. "Don't you ever do anything but eat!"

"Come back, children," she called. "It's only that old crank, Hooter."

"You'd be cranky, too, if you were as starved as I," snorted the owl.

"Too bad," said Mrs. Muskrat. "I'd invite you to stay but there's only enough for us."

"I must say you look fat enough to spare some!" snapped Hooter, taking of again toward the woods.

Another shadow moved below. Hooter swooped down a second too late. Wigglenose, the brown rabbit scrambled to safety beneath a tangled barberry.

Hooter preened his feathers to hide his anger. "You're just the one I want to see, Wigglenose," he said sweetly. "Get you could help me out."

"Is—that—so?" said Wigglenose. "What could I do besides make a meal?"

"I wouldn't eat you, even if you were smaller," answered Hooter. "Thought you might tell me where a tasty mouse would be."

"I couldn't do that, Hooter. They're my friends."

"One mouse more or less wouldn't be missed and I'm so starved!" sighed Hooter.

Wigglenose twitched his ears. "It's no fun being hungry, Hooter. Maybe I can find you something." And off he went through the back of the briar bush.

Science Notebook

In discussing the periodic table we said the atomic weight of an element was approximately equivalent to the sum of the protons and neutrons in its atom.

Since atomic weights are not whole numbers and fractional protons and neutrons do not exist, this appears to be an inconsistency. This inconsistency in fractional atomic weights is accounted for by the existence of ISOTOPES, a term associated with atomic energy.

Isotopes of a given element always have the same number of protons in the atom, but differ in the number of neutrons. Let us use hydrogen as an example. Most hydrogen atoms are composed of one proton and one electron. A few hydrogen atoms, very few, are made up of one proton, one neutron, and one electron. This heavy hydrogen is known as DEUTERIUM, which is an isotope having an atomic weight of three. An atom of tritium would have one proton and two neutrons. No hydrogen atom could have two protons since it would then no longer by hydrogen.

Thus hydrogen has an atomic number of one, but its atomic weight is 1.008 due to the average presence of small numbers of DEUTERIUM and still fewer numbers of tritium atoms.

In any given element the number of protons must remain constant, for any change in protons would necessitate a similar electron change if the atom is to remain electrically neutral. Variation in the number of neutrons does not disturb the electrical equilibrium of the atom because the neutron has no electrical charge. The range of neutron variation is limited, as there are other electrical forces binding the particles of the atomic nucleus. In radioactive isotopes the ratio of protons and neutrons is such that loosely held neutrons escape, or the binding forces are reduced so as to allow the nucleus itself to disintegrate.

Radioactive elements whose atoms lose protons obviously change into other elements. The energies involved in binding protons and neutrons together are extremely high as compared to those holding electrons. This is the reason that the energy released in nuclear reactions is "fantastic" in comparison to that released by electron displacement in chemical reactions.

SCIENCE QUIZ

1. If carbon 14 is an isotope of carbon, is its atomic weight the same as that of carbon, silicon, nitrogen, or boron?
2. Sodium, potassium, and lithium are in group 1 of the periodic table. Are their chemical properties similar because they have similar: atomic weights, atomic numbers, outer electron configuration, numbers of neutrons?

ANSWERS:
1. Nitrogen, atomic weight of 14.0075, is a soft, silvery metal and is lighter than water, but has little use as a metal because it is too light for most active, too rare for soft, too active, too rare for use as a metal.
2. Outer electron configuration.

The visiting Youth Group was in Springfield as Sharey Shalom's guests two years ago. Last winter, Sharey Shalom's Youth Group were guests of the Congregationalist Church in Massachusetts.

The Youth Group of the Unitarian Church of West Upton, Massachusetts, will be visiting the local group at the same time with their leader, Rev. Lawrence McInty.

The Sun Knows why your electric bill varies!

The sun shines less on your home in the fall and winter than it does in the spring and summer. This, of course, means more electric light, more heat, more hot meals, more hot water and a general step-up in electric use as the sun moves into the winter solstice, as it did December 22nd. This is a slow transition—as slow as the change of seasons—but it is reflected in most everyone's electric bills.

So if you happen to compare January with June or February with July, don't be surprised if those for the winter months are larger. Electricity is working harder for you then to make up for less light and warmth from old Sol.

Your electric bill is only as large as your benefit from electricity!
