

First Ones Two File For School Board

Springfield Board of Education President August Caprio and Vice President Dr. Benjamin H. Josephson have both filed their petitions for new seats on the school board.

The three-year terms of both board members are expiring in February. They are completing their first terms on the board.

In addition, the term of Board Member Richard E. Werner is also expiring and a one-year, unexpired term, caused by the resignation of Howard S. Smith shortly before his death, will also need filling.

The latter post is being filled until February by Robert T. Jeffery, who was named to the vacant seat by majority vote of the board December 18.

Mr. Caprio had served the past year as vice president of the board until the resignation last month of the late Mr. Smith, who was president. The former was chosen by the board to assume the presidency November 20th and Dr. Josephson was named at the same time to fill the position of vice-president, vacated by Mr. Caprio.

Mr. Caprio, who resides at 12 Berkeley Road, Springfield, is the foreign language co-ordinator of the Union County Regional High School District. A resident of the township for 6-1/2 years, he was graduated from Columbia College with an A.B. degree and from Columbia University Graduate School with a masters degree. His major in both instances was foreign language. Mr. Caprio has also done extensive graduate work at Seton Hall University, concerned with administration and supervisory work. He obtained his supervisory certificate there and is qualified to be a secondary school principal.

The board president has been associated with Regional High School almost 16 years, having started in 1947 as a foreign language teacher at the school, later becoming a department head, and finally assigned as co-ordinator for the district when the additional high schools were added in the system.

Besides his duties on the local school board, Mr. Caprio has many other affiliations in connection with school, teaching, and educational organizations.

He is first vice president of the Union County School Boards Association, is a member of the State Federated District Boards of Education and an alternate delegate representing Union county; secretary of Springfield Lions Club; a member of Columbia Alumni group; a member of Springfield Historical Society; a member of both N.J.E.A. and N.E.A.; also, New Jersey Modern Language Teachers Association; B. Croce Education Society of Newark; New Jersey Department Heads Association, and New Jersey Secondary School Teachers Association.

Mr. Caprio, who is 50, is the husband of Mrs. Ida Salerno Caprio. They have a daughter, Dolores Ann Caprio, 22, who is in her second year of teaching at Deerfield School, Mountaintide, and a son, Vincent, 18, attending Lebanon Valley College, Annville, Pa.

Dr. Josephson, who is a local pediatrician, resides at 201 S. Springfield Avenue, Springfield. He received his undergraduate studies at the University of North Carolina, where he was a Phi Beta Kappa student, and received his medical training at New York Medical College, from which he was graduated in 1952. He served his internship and residency at Flower Fifth Avenue Hospital, New York City, from 1952 to 1955 and opened his pediatrics office in Springfield in 1956. He has lived in the township the past 6-1/2 years.

Dr. Josephson is a pediatric staff member at Overlook Hospital, Summit, and currently secretary of the Pediatrics Department there. He is a member of the Union County Medical So-

Granddaddy That Old Tree Bites The Dust

The stately oak tree standing in front of Chisholm School, Springfield, lost its gracefulness last Friday morning when its limbs were severed on order of Union County Shade Tree Commission.

The tree-edges South Springfield Avenue, a county road. Arthur Golding, a tree climber, employed the past 10 years by Union County Shade Tree Commission, had first-hand information on the oak, which might be one of the oldest if not the oldest living tree in the township.

Mr. Golding said that the tree is getting to the point where it represents a hazard. It is getting "punky" at the top, he said, breaking out in holes, which is an indication that it is dying back. It is essential that it be eliminated, especially with so many school children in the area, he said.

The topping work Friday was done by a private contractor, Asplundh Tree Expert Co. of Scotch Plains. Public Service employees, concerned with the lines in the vicinity, were also on the scene during the operation.

LANDMARK BITES THE DUST—That ancient, weather-beaten tree in front of Chisholm School was finally taken down last week. Many autos have made contact with that old tree, situated on a dangerous corner. (Dick Schwartz)

The tree, long a landmark at the school, has at various times been reported to have existed at the time of the Revolution. A. B. Anderson, secretary of Springfield Board of Education, said that it has been in Springfield ever since he has been here—35 years—and is quite sure it preceded the first section of Chisholm school. That was built in 1921.

Mr. Golding estimated that the tree is at least 100 years old. The tree climber pointed out that it is a pin oak and a "slow grower."

He did not believe that it went back to Revolutionary Days, he said, noting that the only tree in the county dating back that far is a huge, white oak in Marline Avenue, Scotch Plains. That particular tree dates back to before Washington's time, he said. The Union County Shade Tree Commission keeps it in good health by special attention and proper feeding, he explained.

Two Will Be Sworn In Organization Meeting To Be Held Tuesday

Organizational meeting of Springfield Township Committee will be held at 12 noon on Tuesday, January 1st, in the Municipal Building.

At that time the present mayor, Philip Del Vecchio, and Township Committeeman-elect, Carmen Catapano, will be sworn in and seated on Township Committee. Both men were elected to full terms on Township Committee in the last November general election.

Township Committeeman Russell Sibole, the present chairman of the police and fire committee, is retiring from Township Committee.

An important part of the agenda when the new Township Committee organizes will be the election of the new chairman of the Committee, who also assumes the title of "mayor." Committeeman Philip Del Vecchio has been chairman of Township Committee the past year. It is most probable that the one chosen to head the municipal government will be one of the four Republicans to be on the Committee.

They are, in addition to Mayor Del Vecchio and Committeeman-elect Catapano, Arthur Falkin and Robert Hardgrove, only Democrat to remain on the Committee after January 1st will be Committeeman Vincent J. Bonadies. Committeeman Sibole, whose term is expiring December 31st, is also a Democrat.

Also high in importance on the agenda New Year's Day will be the 1963 appointments to various municipal offices and boards. Many positions expire December 31, 1962.

Among the one-year terms which require annual filling are the township attorney post, presently held by James M. Cawley; the treasurer, held by Benedict A. Harter; the building inspector, held by Otto Fessler; the deputy tax collector, held by Marie Smith; court clerk, held by Eugene Donnelly; violations clerk, held by Marie Smith; tax searcher, held by Fred Braun, and searcher for unconfirmed assessments, held by E. H. Worthington.

The term of township engineer, Walter Kozub, is also expiring. This can be a one or a three-year appointment.

A three-year term filled by Jay Bloom on the Board of Adjustment is expiring, and the five year term of Elliott Lichtenstein on the Library Board and the six year term of Angelo Panceri on the Planning Board are also ending. Terms of Mayor Del Vecchio and Township Engineer Kozub are also coming to an end on the Planning Board.

There are no appointments to be made on the Recreation Commission or Shade Tree Commission, where term of office is for five years.

The one-year term of F. J. Stefany, township auditor, is also ending as of December 31st.

Alice Never Better 500 Pupils View Show At School

A rare treat was given to the 500 pupils at Sandmeier School, Springfield, last Thursday, December 20, when the world-famous Nicolo Marionettes portrayed the perennial classic, "Alice in Wonderland," in observance of the holiday season.

The marionette company, which just completed a tour of the United States, was formerly the well-known Sazerac Marionette Company. Starting next year, the puppet organization will be celebrating its silver anniversary in the business. The presentation was given under the direction of three behind-the-scenes performers. Home base of the marionette company is Westbury, Long Island.

Another Tune Is Introduced

Another song, "Tail to New Jersey," was introduced Friday, December 21, at the meeting of Springfield Township Committee in Municipal Building.

The song was presented by Theodore O'Connell, 11, of 132 Pitt Road, Springfield.

The youth appeared before Township Committee to sing the number, written by an aunt, Miss Clothilde Le-Roux, 63 North Seventh Street, Newark. Township Committee was informed that a copyright is being applied for and it suggested that the attention of Senator Nelson Stangler of Union County be called to the song. It was also thought members of the music department at the high school might be able to write the song.

"Young Ted was congratulated for his presentation. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore O'Connell of the Pitt Road address and a sixth grade pupil at Gaudineer School, Springfield. At the December 19th Township Committee meeting, Committeeman Vincent J. Bonadies introduced another song, "I'm from New Jersey," which Township Committee went on record in favor of as the state's song.

IN WONDERMENT—Youngster at Sandmeier School, Springfield, looks on as Sally Armour, playing Alice, rehearses scene from Alice in Wonderland, presented by the Nicolo Marionette Group. The show was P.T.A. sponsored and enjoyed by all. (Dick Schwartz)

On majority vote, Springfield Township Committee Friday, December 21, authorized that the township enter into two agreements, one with Baltusrol Golf Club and the other, a developer's agreement with Clearview Estates, paying the way for the construction of 84 homes on the Springmount tract on Baltusrol Mountain. Thirty-five of the homes will be in Springfield and 19 in Mountaintide. The development will be known as "Clearview Estates."

The developer's agreement stipulates that no certificates of occupancy are to be issued until the completion of all improvements including a retention basin. The vote was three yes and two no with Committeeman Arthur Falkin and Robert Hardgrove and Mayor Philip Del Vecchio voting in the affirmative and Committeeman Vincent J. Bonadies and Russell Sibole voting in the negative.

The agreement with Baltusrol, which passed with a similar vote, will provide the township an easement on Baltusrol Golf Club property consisting of 3.2 acres for retention basin and right-of-way. The basin is to be built by and at the expense of the developer as a storm water improvement.

In both instances the chairman of Township Committee and the township clerk were directed to enter into the agreements.

The motion for the easement agreement was made by Committeeman Falkin and seconded by Committeeman Hardgrove. Committeeman Bonadies contended that the motion was not correct in language—"it is a liability agreement not an easement and was unauthorized," he said. April 10th township committee's minutes were produced and read to show previous action in the matter.

Committeeman Russell Sibole said: "I feel strongly against this thing. It is the wrong way to do it in spite of what engineers have said. If a retention basin became the only thing to do, it would be more palatable to be on Baltusrol (Golf Club) property, but I don't think we need a retention basin. We are setting a precedent. Ultimately this will require piping. The developer should put up enough money to cover his portion of piping if we have to pipe it."

Mayor Del Vecchio reminded him that the agreement concerned the location of the basin on a more favorable site with Committeeman Sibole replying, "Admittedly, but it all ties in with the establishment of a retention basin." Mayor Del Vecchio then told him, "Your objections are with the developer's agreement and not with the township's agreement with Baltusrol."

Committeeman Bonadies pointed out that the basin was "contrary to zoning" and the Township Committee should have gone to the Board of Adjustment in the matter.

Township Attorney James Cawley maintained that any facility such as a storm sewer does not come under the jurisdiction of the Board of Adjustment.

Committeeman Bonadies also stated that the agreement with the golf club puts a "tremendous liability on the township," calling attention to paragraph 7 of the agreement, and demanding to know why these points were omitted from the developer's agreement.

Committeeman Falkin told him: "The township liability insurance covers everything in paragraph 7." Committeeman Falkin continued, "Mr. Bonadies dwells upon the fact the town is giving away its soul, or not much short of it. There is nothing unusual being placed upon the township."

When Committeeman Bonadies referred to the township's obligation to maintain the basin he

Request Is Denied

A request from Lawrence Leone of South Springfield Avenue for a partial payment on the purchase of his property with the intention of extending the sale into 1963 was denied by Springfield Township Committee Friday, December 21st. The township is purchasing part of Mr. Leone's land for municipal purposes.

It was decided by four votes in the affirmative and one abstention that the balance of the money should be given to Mr. Leone at the closing of title. Township Committee has already paid five percent of the $55,000 cost as a down payment. It was reported by Township Attorney James Cawley that Mr. Leone wanted to spread the sale over the two years so that he would have a better income tax picture.

Township Committeeman Arthur Falkin abstained in the vote. Increased street lighting was authorized for Meisel Avenue in the vicinity of the skating pond in the amount of $41 annually to Jersey Central Power & Light Company. It was pointed out that this measure was taken because many people use the street for crossing at this section. Increased lighting in the amount of $197.50 was also authorized for Padon Road and Diamond Road with Committeeman Russell Sibole recommending that residents of Springfield should drive into the Industrial Park and learn first hand of the fine improvement there to the community.

Special Cops Are Named

On the recommendation of Police Chief William C. Selander, Springfield Township Committee appointed the following as special police or school guards for 1963:

- Special police: Ernest Kallems, Sidney Stolz, Edward Kisch, Arthur Bjorstead, Fred Puntigam, Harold Liebskind, Joseph Morris, Russell Stewart, Howard Vaughn, Le Roy Roberts, James Scott, Joseph Siedel, Frank Franzese, Henry Mesker, George Rau, William Pfeiffer, Calvin Ackerman, Herbert Quinton, Richard Moore, Werner Penard, and Lou Madley.

School guards: John Mayer, Carl Flairault, Steve Kwapiszewski, John Cataldo, Emanuel Holms, Edward Galvin, Margaret McClain, Henry Staeger, Clyde Longell, Henry Bok, Richard Barrett, Jennie Kent, Melvin Eden, Daniel Sedlack, and Alex White.

Also on the recommendation of Chief Selander, Second Class Patrolman Rees J. Powell and Donald Schwend were ordered promoted to first class patrolmen with the Springfield Police Department.

On the recommendation of Fire Chief Ormond W. Mesker, Second Class Fireman William R. Schmidt was ordered promoted to first class fireman, effective January 1st, 1963.

Dayton High PTA Will Pursue Goal

The Jonathan Dayton Regional Scholarship Committee, announced this week that it will undertake to achieve its goal of a $50,000 scholarship fund during the current year.

The fund was inaugurated last year under the sponsorship of the Parent-Teacher Association of the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School. Scholarships ranging up to $1,000 have already been awarded to seven 1962 Regional graduates out of funds collected last year.

Awards were made on the basis of ability and need by a committee consisting of the Jonathan Dayton principal and guidance counselors.

Plans for this year's fund include a concentrated drive in February for meaningful gifts from industrial and commercial firms in Springfield and Kenilworth as well as from professional people and civic organizations in the area.

Heading up the committee this year are: for Springfield, Philip Lewis, 385 Milltown Road, DR 6-4502, and Louis Ceitham, 3 Surrey Lane, DR 6-3204; and for Kenilworth, Robert Krueger, 674 Union Ave., CH 5-6566.

Praise Dept. At Meeting

Fireman who fought the recent blaze at Evergreen Lodge, Springfield, were given special praise at the meeting of Springfield Township Committee last Friday, December 21, in Municipal Building.

It was pointed out that if the men had not extended such a fine effort the entire building would have been lost.

It was noted that the men fought the fire in adverse circumstances with freezing weather. As part of a community assistance program, the Union Fire Department and the Westfield Fire Department did an excellent job in responding to the fire. Committeeman Russel Sibole reported. In addition he said that a number of Springfield volunteer firemen also assisted at the fire.

Officers To Be Guests

The naval reserve training unit, WEPTU 831, Springfield, was host for two training officers from the unit's parent station at Floyd Bennett Field during their annual Christmas meeting here. The two officers were Commander George Berg, WEPTU Training Officer.

Departing from their regular schedule of training sessions, WEPTU 831 devoted its regularly scheduled drill to a dinner meeting held at the China Sky Inn. Normally the unit meets at the Recreation Building in Springfield. Although it is organizationally a part of the Naval Reserve attached to the U.S. Naval Air Station in Brooklyn, its training mission permits the unit to be located for the convenience of its members. WEPTU 831 officers come from various towns in northern New Jersey located in Union, Essex, Bergen and Passaic Counties.

The visiting officers reviewed aspects of the new "project plan" training program being instituted for WEPTU's by the Navy. Under this plan, the reserve units will be assigned a current operational problem which exists at a naval installation. The plan is designed to take advantage of the special talents of the reservists to assist regular naval components in the solution of problems that affect their operations. WEPTU members are selected by virtue of their experience and background in the technical and contracting aspects of Naval Aviation, Electronics, Missiles, Weapons and Space programs. WEPTU 831 is able to accommodate a few new members.

and their friends are invited to be present. The Rabbi's sermon that evening, entitled, "What Can a Modern Jew Believe?", will deal with problems of faith for today's young persons. "I do not believe," stated the Rabbi, "that all of today's young people are necessarily the self-centered, superficial individuals many critics make them out to be. The majority of them are seeking something to believe in, and although they may not articulate it, would like to find a way of contributing to the betterment of the world."

"Unless religion gives them a basis for their latent idealism," continued Rabbi Levine, "chances are that they are not going to find it elsewhere. This is a challenge both to religion and to parents."

The homecoming service was inaugurated some years ago by Rabbi Levine and takes place during the annual winter vacation period. Worship will begin at 8:45 p.m. All are welcome to attend.

Day Branch Will Meet January 3rd

Women of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Westfield, will meet on Thursday, January 3rd at 12 o'clock Noon in the Chapel for devotions.

The speaker will be the Reverend Samuel Van Culin, Assistant Secretary of the Episcopal National Council's Overseas Department.

Mr. Van Culin's additional title of "interpretation officer" indicates his special responsibility for strengthening the bond between the Church in the United States and its branches overseas. His task is to interpret to laymen the whole mission of the Church in the world today.

Mr. Van Culin came to this work from a related assignment in Washington, D.C., where from May 1960 to December 1961, he was general secretary of Laymen International and assistant secretary of the Overseas Mission Society of the Church.

Univ. Exchange

Increasingly fruitful exchange between Madison universities continues. Two of the specialists in foreign affairs at Madison campus of Fairleigh Dickinson University are delivering two public lectures on Chinese and Soviet affairs at Drew University under sponsorship of the International Relations Association.

They are Mr. Winberg Chai, assistant professor of social sciences, a specialist on China, and Mrs. Gusta Singer, assistant professor of social sciences, a specialist on Russia.

Professor Chai spoke on Chinese Foreign Policy on December 17. Professor Singer will lecture on The Intellectual Life of the Soviet Bloc on January 28, 1963.

Palsy Association Seeks Volunteers

United Cerebral Palsy Associations of New Jersey Inc. is currently recruiting volunteers to man telephones during a 19 1/2 hour period, at the 12th Annual United Cerebral Palsy Telethon, to be televised on WOR-TV, Channel 9, Saturday, January 5, 10:30 P.M. to Sunday, January 6, 5:30 P.M. During this period, pledges for benefit of New Jersey's Cerebral Palsied, will be received from residents of the State at a message Center located in the Park Hotel Annex, Plainfield, according to Julius R. Pollatschek, President.

Entertainment will be provided by television, radio, and movie stars, including Dennis James, Master of Ceremonies, and Steve Lawrence and Edie Gorme, Host and Hostess. In addition to entertainment, there will be demonstrations of therapy with cerebral palsied boys and girls, including an appearance of Bobby Denniston, 7 year old son of Mr. & Mrs. Robert Denniston, 825 Washington Ave., Linden, and Geraldine Burke, age 8, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Alfred B. Industrial Buildings To Use More Gas

The use of gas for all power functions — heating, cooling and lighting, as well as other energy needs — will probably become a reality in several Central Jersey industrial buildings during 1963, John Kean, vice president of the Elizabethtown Gas Co., said in a year-end statement this week.

The key to this wider use of gas as a basic power supply is the new natural gas turbine. Kean reported that several inquiries have already been received by Elizabethtown Gas concerning applications of the turbine.

First experiments with the turbine in a shopping center in Arkansas have been very successful, Kean said. The turbines supply all the energy needs — including electricity — to some thirty business establishments in the center with costs ranging 30 to 40 percent below purchased power.

The turbines, which operate on the same principle as a jet aircraft engine, drive generators to supply lighting and power, while the heat-exhaust is captured to generate steam for heating and hot water. Cooling by air conditioning is accomplished through a steam absorption system.

Aside from the cost advantage, the natural gas turbines eliminate all need for outside power wires or connections since the sole fuel source is gas supplied through underground pipes.

Kean said the turbine power plants could drastically influence the design of industrial plants. In one instance, a plant making high precision military equipment was able to eliminate all windows and construct a virtually dust-proof building by using the turbine power. Lighting by normal means would have been prohibitively expensive, but the gas turbine provided the needed low cost power.

"The turbines are also being used experimentally in a school building in Texas to provide year-round air conditioning," Kean said. The Elizabethtown Gas executive also predicted an upswing in air conditioning by gas during 1963. "Recent developments in gas air conditioning have greatly improved the prospects of a major change-over to gas for this purpose," Kean said. "The use of gas for air conditioning is applicable to both industrial and to home," he said.

Try powdered sugar instead of granulated in whipped cream. It will be in "peak" condition when ready to serve.

Try a salad dressing with a different taste. Thin mayonnaise with pickle juice.

Cook meats with the fat side up. Then the juices will soak down in the meat keeping it moist and basted.

A lobster-in-the-shell dinner calls for lots of hot water boiling on your kitchen range — and a little fingerbowl of hot water for each diner. To cleanse buttery fingers and remove the fishy odor, add a little soap-suds to each bowl.

A dull painted surface can be brightened if you rub it with a prepared wax-emulsion cream furniture polish.

Table cloths folded lengthwise and hung on hangers with clothespins will have fewer folds. Cover with a plastic garment bag until needed.

Put reflector tape on your children's bicycle pedals to warn motorists when they're traveling after dark.

Anne Sylvester Entertains Guests

One of the highlights of the Christmas season is always the party given by Anne Sylvester, president of the Anne Sylvester Realty Corner. This year was no exception and Mrs. Sylvester entertained at the Rackets Club in Short Hills on Friday, December 21. The guests numbered over 130, including real estate brokers and their sales associates, officers of many banking and mortgage institutions, various builders and other business associates.

Plans For Delaney Fete

Tickets have been distributed and final chairmen named for the James J. Delaney testimonial dinner Saturday, January 12th at the Scotch Plains Country Club. Delaney, Union County Register, is being honored for his long service to civic and political activities and the committee crosses political lines. The affair was initially suggested by Senator Harrison A. Williams, Jr.

Co-chairmen of the ticket committee will be James Kinneally, Union County Democratic County Committee chairman, Lewis J. Grey, Somerset County Republican-committee chairman and Edward Whitten, former Union County Democratic chairman. John Tozzi and George L. Feaster will be co-chairmen of the professional men's committee while Samuel Davidson and Theodore R. Myers head the Fraternal Order Committee. Mayor William J. Ahern, Jr. of Kendallworth is chairman of publicity.

Did you know that Bachelors may enjoy freedom but married Man live longer? In a recent report from the Health Insurance Institute, married people of both sexes experience less illness and fewer and shorter periods of hospital confinement than bachelors, spinsters, widowed persons and even the divorced. They live healthier and longer lives. So, you see Married folk, it's NOT better on the other side.

Local Water Supply Adequate For 1963

Water supplies in Union, Somerset and Middlesex counties should be more than adequate to meet estimated needs in 1963 and in future years, but the cost of water may be higher, depending on the pricing schedule adopted for the Round Valley and Spruce Run reservoir projects, Robert W. Kean, Jr., president of the Elizabethtown Water Co., said in a year-end statement.

Elizabethtown Water serves more than 500,000 customers in the three counties and provides wholesale water to several other systems.

Kean said that the area should not have any problems concerning the availability of water supplies for the next decade. "Raritan River sources will be stabilized and augmented when the Round Valley and Spruce Run projects go into operation in 1964," Kean reported. "A continuing program of development of underground water sources throughout our service territory is bringing these supplies to maximum efficiency," he said.

The Elizabethtown president said he was concerned about future costs of water, however. "In the hearings recently concluded before the Water Policy Commission, certain interests in North Jersey proposed that Central Jersey water users should, in effect, subsidize the cost of providing water from Round Valley reservoir to North Jersey," Kean said.

"On behalf of our customers and municipal officials of the communities we serve, we made a strong protest against this proposal and it is our hope that

Abe Frankel Is Governor

Practice In Evening Night Hoop Sessions Helping Highlanders

By CY JAMES

When Governor Livingston Regional High School's basketball team got off to a slow start against Piscataway High School last week, Coach Don Wodock really shouldn't have been surprised. The game was played in the afternoon, you see, and this year's Highlanders have grown quite accustomed to performing in daylight.

With a new gymnasium now under construction but not ready for use until next month, the Highlanders have been conducting evening practice sessions throughout the fall.

Wodock conceived the idea of holding practice sessions from 6:30 to 8:45 p.m. when it became evident that the Highlanders would be limited to one-sixth of the gymnasium for most of any afternoon practice sessions.

All of the boys on the squad were required to get permission from their parents to participate in the evening practice sessions and all received it without any problem.

The night practice sessions have paid off handsomely, with Coach Wodock's cagers having gotten off to their finest start in three years the school has been playing basketball.

In their early games the Highlanders have been relying pretty much on their five starters, four of whom are holdovers from last season. Lynn Nesbitt, Bob Heuer, John Adamiak and Bob Clarkson, the holdovers, and newcomer Dave Jubanowsky, have been carrying the load thus far.

Meredith Rice is the only reserve who has seen action in all three games. This should not be taken to mean that the Highlanders don't have adequate reserve strength, however.

Several of the reserves, notably Randy Hill, figure to see considerable action as the season wears on. Wodock almost was called upon to go to his bench against Piscataway when Adamiak and Nesbitt both picked up four fouls, after Heuer had fouled out and was replaced by Rice.

When the call goes to the bench, such fine players as Rice, Hill, Tommy Armstrong, Mark Leo, Bob Lynch, Glenn Bilwise and Paul Denman will be ready and waiting.

Schedule Privied Undoing of Scotch Plains Griders
When you come up with your first-undefeated football team in 17 years and have to settle for nothing better than a co-championship of the Watchung Conference, you have good reason to be disappointed.

And players and followers of Fanwood-Scotch Plains High School's football team are disappointed, bitterly disappointed, over a decision by the New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association awarding the Central Jersey, Group 4 football championship to Plainfield High School.

The decision by the NJSIAA, while causing considerable consternation in Fanwood-Scotch Plains, really is not too surprising. When the final Coillon ratings were released, Fanwood-Scotch Plains was ranked no better than fourth in Central Jersey, Group 4.

This is no reflection on the ability of Fanwood-Scotch Plains' football team. It was a great team, quite possibly the best ever turned out by the school, and it deserved a better reward.

The Blue Raiders were victimized by their schedule and there is no intent here to criticize school officials responsible for scheduling.

Seven games on the Fanwood-Scotch Plains schedule are with Watchung Conference rivals. The Blue Raiders are committed to these games annually and it was sheer misfortune that when Fanwood-Scotch Plains came up with one of its strongest teams, perennial powers like Cranford and Rahway produced sub-par teams.

Victories over sub-par teams do not mean much in the Coillon ratings and this is what hurt the Raiders. Roselle had a winless season and Hillside was a disappointment and these victories helped Fanwood-Scotch Plains very little in its state-wide ranking.

This helps accounts for the Raiders fourth place rating among Central Jersey, Group 4 schools. Westfield, which tied Scotch Plains on the field and for Watchung Conference honors, and Thomas Jefferson of Elizabeth trailed Plainfield in the ratings.

Westfield has a scheduling problem similar to Fanwood-Scotch Plains in that it is committed to seven Watchung Conference games annually. But the Blue Devils play a pair of powerful Group 4 rivals, Plainfield and Columbia of South Orange, in its two non-conference games.

THE WAY WE DO IT—Coach Mike Iannelli gives a helping hand to Marc Binstock on the 'Horse' as another member of the Dayton Gymnastic Club stands by, just in case. The 'Horse' is just one of the pieces of apparatus used by the newly formed club.

Boys Will Be Boys Adult Hoopsters Killing League

By DICK SCHWARTZ

What might have turned into a worthwhile basketball league in Springfield is slowly but surely being strangled by the "adults" for whom it was formed.

It seems hard to believe that married men, some with children who look to them for guidance, would trot out on a basketball court for a few hours of exercise and end the evening with brawling and arguing over the calls of volunteer officials who blow whistles in an attempt to make the affair into something more than a race-horse spectacle void of the game's fundamentals.

It just points out once again that some fellows just never grow up. We've heard all that jazz before about how you're supposed to "play the game to win" and, "if you don't play hard then don't bother playing at all," etc., etc., etc.

But who's kidding who? Men 23 years old and up, who sit behind desks during the day shouldn't really come out on the court at night to "kill themselves" and whoever happens to be guarding them. Nor should they don sneakers and shorts with the idea that some amateur official will be out there with the sole purpose of "getting them".

In short, that entire show last Wednesday at Gaudineer School stank and most of the boys there who sent up the stench would do better exercising their minds in the direction of how to become down-to-earth men rather than the boys in men clothing they proved to be on that court.

It really was a farce and we feel sorry for the majority of the boys out there who 'knew what it was all about' and could do nothing to prevent what it was turning into.

Softball went over among the adult male population of Springfield last Summer because of the lack of body contact and the lack of hotheads. It appears that this is the combination that either makes or breaks an organized league, and at this writing it's breaking one.

Caldwell Is Easy For Dayton Five

By ARNOLD MINIMAN

When you hit 13 of 27 field goal attempts in the first half, and hold the opposition to one point in the first period, chances are your team will come out of the game victorious. Such was the case Friday night at Caldwell, as the Dayton Cagers pulled from a 1-0 deficit to a 14-1 lead on the way to a 55-38 victory.

The Bulldogs got off to a slow start, missing their first four shots, but after a Caldwell free throw—consecutive layups by Dave Bonislawski, Jack Aggar, and Denny Francis, dispelled all Caldwell hopes of victory. With Bonislawski hitting 5-7 from the floor, and Aggar shooting at 6-11, Springfield left the court with a 30-13 halftime advantage.

West Point will play Yale in hockey at South Mountain Arena, West Orange, New Jersey on January 3rd. Game time is 8 P.M. and tickets are now available at the arena box office. As both hockey teams are strong and are anticipating outstanding seasons, the game should prove especially exciting. It is being sponsored by the Yale Alumni Association of Montreal and Central New Jersey. Proceeds will be used for scholarships for deserving students at Yale from Northern New Jersey and for the Building Fund at the Military Academy.

Coley Burke is a senior member of the hockey team at Yale and lives in Short Hills.

Gymnastic Club At Regional

If one were to walk into the Girl's Gym at Dayton Regional on a Monday-Wednesday or Friday afternoon after school he would be met by the sound of Coach Mike Iannelli barking instructions to the fifteen boys who make up one of the school's newest clubs, the Gymnastic Club.

While Coach Iannelli envisions his charges as adept gymnasts by the end of the school year, he realizes the need for basic instruction in fundamentals to begin with since many of the boys are new at tumbling, work on the horses, etc.

Right now the Club is working hard on tumbling since Iannelli believes this phase of gymnastics is the basis for all apparatus activity. The apparatus eventually brought into play will include the parallel bars, horizontal bar, the long horse, trampoline and rope climbing.

The boys are all very interested in learning exactly what the sport of gymnastics is all about and according to their mentor, are progressing quite rapidly. "The boys are slowly finding out that gymnastics is a sport which requires a high degree of physical fitness along with mental alertness," says their coach.

At the present time the Gymnastics Club at Dayton is just that, a club. It will see some of the boys to win Varsity letters, but should give the boys a great deal of satisfaction.

In April the Club will present an assembly program for the entire school. Two other possible appearances include public demonstrations, but nothing definite has been decided as of this writing.

The following are boys listed by Iannelli who have shown promise during the Club's first weeks of practice: Marc Binstock, Rich McSartell, Charles Fornaro, Dan Macmillan, Albert Miller, Sandy Schwartz, Charles Sasse, and Gerald Bresmohan.

The Dayton Gymnastic Club is just another indication that there are more and more activities being offered by high school Phys Ed departments in an effort to encompass all members of the male high school community.

Can't Handle Blue Devils

An inexperienced Governor Livingston Regional High School wrestling team proved to be no match for a powerful Westfield High School squad and dropped its opening match, 37-5, last week on the Highlanders' mats.

With only four wrestlers in the 12 matches who had any previous varsity experience, Coach Jim Nedott's boys never had a chance against the Blue Devils. Westfield is expected to be Union County's strongest team this season.

The defeat, which spoiled Nedott's debut as coach of the Highlanders, was the worst suffered by the Highlanders in their three years of wrestling competition.

Frank Christiansen, one of the four experienced wrestlers on the Highlander squad, accounted for all of his team's points when he pinned Westfield's Jim Minno in 2:10 minutes in the 147-pound class.

Several other Highlanders dropped close decisions. Ron Gould (114) lost a 4-3 decision, while Don Funk (135) bowed 1-0. Nick Kleinburg (155) also lost a tough decision, 3-2, while Mike Rendine (129) was beaten by a 4-2 margin.

Hockey At Local Arena

West Point will play Yale in hockey at South Mountain Arena, West Orange, New Jersey on January 3rd. Game time is 8 P.M. and tickets are now available at the arena box office. As both hockey teams are strong and are anticipating outstanding seasons, the game should prove especially exciting. It is being sponsored by the Yale Alumni Association of Montreal and Central New Jersey. Proceeds will be used for scholarships for deserving students at Yale from Northern New Jersey and for the Building Fund at the Military Academy.

Coley Burke is a senior member of the hockey team at Yale and lives in Short Hills.

2 Hoop Winners

George Squires and Mark Dorne topped all scorers in the first event of the Westfield Y.M.C.A. Gra-Y Thousand Point Contest. Squires and Dorne each made 16 baskets for 80 points in the one minute basketball throw for goal. Peter Meyers, Ricky Adelaar and Richard Anderson topped the 5th grade with 13 baskets each. Phillips tied the 4th grade record for the event.

The Sky Divers topped the 4th grade squads with a total of 503 points. The Wildcats topped the 5th grade squads with 508 points, while the Purple Can Openers lead the sixth grade with 912 points.

In the 4th grade Phillips led Class C, Marc Holland - Class A, Peter Brandma - Class B, and Peter Leitch - Class D.

The 5th grade class leaders were Anderson and Meyers in Class A, Ricky Adelaar Class C, Braun DeJong Class B and Andy Graham Class D.

In the 6th grade Squires topped Class A, Dorne Class B and James Locatelli Class C.

Next event in the contest pull-ups will be held on Saturday, December 29th.

Donald Murtz and Mark Ramage topped all scorers in the first event of the junior high age

Will Travel To Vermont

Members of the Madison Ski Club will hold their first trip of the season New Year's week end when they travel to Stowe, Vermont. Planning to make the trip are Roy Chambers of Dover, Arrie DeGroot of Florham Park, Bob Emerson of Syracuse, New York, Buddy Flanagan of Bloomfield, Harry Johnson also of Bloomfield, Janet Kirk of Madison, Frank Meyer of Gillette, Ann and Dan Neynik of Summit, Jean Roddy of Madison, Fran Smith of Chatham, Barbara, Don and Kathy Young of Millington and Marge Young of Tenafly. The group will leave Friday evening, December 28, and will return after skiing on January 1.

BOSTON (UPI) — Don McKenney of the Boston Bruins has scored 20 or more goals in 11 but one of his eight seasons in the National Hockey League.

BALANCED HIGHLANDERS ROLL OVER PISCATAWAY TEAM, 63-53

Flashing well-balanced scoring power, the Governor Livingston Regional High School basketball team rolled to its second straight victory last week, defeating Piscataway High School, 63-53, on the Piscataway Court. In an exceptionally rough contest, the Highlanders of Coach Don Wodock survived a slow start to run up a commanding lead in the two middle periods and then coasted to victory.

Most of the Highlanders' final margin was achieved at the foul line, with Governor Livingston rolling up 21 points on free throws.

Trailing 9-7 at the end of the first period, the Highlanders came to life when Lynn Nesbitt fired in eight quick points on jump shots from the foul circle. With Lynn sweeping the offensive boards, Governor Livingston rolled up 23 points during the second quarter to lead 30-22 at halftime.

John Adamiak took the spotlight in the third period, tossing in seven points as the Highlanders romped to a 19-11 advantage and carried a commanding 49-33 edge into the final period.

Play got wild in the last period, with Piscataway pulling to within five points of the Highlanders before the Braves' excessive fouling led to their ruin. Nesbitt and Bob Clarkson made good on free throws in the final three minutes as the Highlanders boosted their lead to a safe margin.

Nesbitt led the Highlanders' attack for the second straight game, tossing in 22 points on seven goals and eight fouls. He also did a tremendous rebounding job.

But what was particularly pleasing to Wodock was the balanced scoring of his starting five. Adamiak scored 12 points and Bob Heuer added 11 more. Clarkson finished with nine markers, while Dave Jubanowsky contributed eight. Meredith Rice, the only Highlander reserve to see action, accounted for the final point.

Overall, Wodock felt his team was far sharper against Piscataway than in its tension-packed opening win over Summit.

The Governor Livingston junior varsity came up with its first victory in two starts, defeating Piscataway, 63-50. Two sophomores, George Buebrick and Jim Benedict, led the Highlander junior varsity with 17 and 15 points, respectively.

Schuckman's Extend Lead

The Gary Schuckman team extended its lead in the Temple Shalom Brotherhood league Sunday by sweeping three games, putting them three ahead of Bob Bornstein's Banties.

High game for the week was by Adler's 219. Art Glover captured high series 549, and had a high game of 212. Murray Huetz's stalwarts won high team game with 672.

Cards Set For County Golfers

Union County golfers may apply for 1963 identification cards beginning January 1, at the Jalloping Hill Golf Course, Kenilworth and Union, and at the Ash-Brook Golf Course, Scotch Plains, it was announced today by George T. Cron, superintendent of recreation for the Union County Park Commission. At present the golf identification cards are valid from April 1, 1962 to March 31, 1963, however, after January 1, 1963, the new cards will be good from January 1 to December 31.

Present season card holders will be charged $26.25 for an annual card next season instead of the regular $35.00 fee. Golfers applying for season cards for the first time will be charged the normal $35.00 fee. Golfers who have regular identification cards will be charged 75 cents for renewal and new golfers will be charged the regular fee of $1.00.

Winter rates are now in effect at both golf courses and will continue to March 31. Season card holders are entitled to play during this period for a 25-cent green fee on weekdays, and 50-cents on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays. Regular card holders may play daily for a green fee of $1.25.

Mr. Cron advises all golfers to apply early in the season for their identification card to avoid delay later in the season.

Quite A Year On Sports Scene

1962 proved to be an exciting year in area sports. On the football side of the ledger, Scotch Plains came on as a firehouse, tying for Watchung Conference honors. Springfield and Berkeley Heights also has good grid seasons.

Turning away from Varsity sports, there was quite a bit of scholastic extra-curricular activity including President Kennedy's Physical Fitness program at Dayton Regional, a few swimming champions and gymnastic honors for the Scotch Plains YMCA. We of the Sports Department of the Watchung Weeklies Wish all our readers the happiest of New Years.

To View Art Works

For the first time students, faculty, and friends of Fairleigh Dickinson University at all three campuses will have an opportunity to view the work of the three university artists. Works by Tosun Bayrak, Resident Artist at Madison, Paul Ortlip, Resident Artist at Teaneck, and James Kearns, Madison instructor in sculpture and life drawing, are being shown in rotation at each campus.

"These are three individual creative artists whose work presents many contrasts," says Jerome Donson, Director of Art. "Bayrak is an experimenter, Kearns an action painter, and Ortlip a traditionalist."

The work of Bayrak offers an interesting contrast to that of Ortlip. In each case the work is a reversal of what might have been expected from the differing backgrounds of the two resident artists.

County School Budget Adopted

Again reflecting the constantly increasing surge in pupil enrollment, the 1963-1964 budget for the Union County Regional High Schools has been tentatively adopted by the Board and sent to Dr. William H. West, County Superintendent of Schools for his approval.

Painter in the tradition of the past. "The scenes are soft, the scene and the figures are idealized, posed in tranquility."

In all his work Kearns deals with the figure, with people in movement caught at a precise moment of action.

Next year the enrollment in the three Regional High Schools will be more than 4475, an increase of approximately 416 pupils. The student population will increase over 10%; the proposed budget will increase 9%. To provide for this student population, the budget itself totals $3,705,751.25, an increase of $314,420.75 over the 1962-1963 budget. Much of this increase is reflected in salaries, additional teachers, custodians and other personnel required to care for the increase in pupil load. The balance is required for additional transportation, student activities and equipment.

With State funds of $380,255.00 and Federal Funds of $15,700.00 anticipated, and with a balance of $162,500.00 appropriated from unexpended funds, the net amount to be raised by taxation is $3,147,296.25. Each of the six towns in the Regional District will contribute a portion of this total, proportional to the respective adjusted assessed evaluations.

The increase in the 1963-1964 budget includes, also, salary increases and increments for the present staff. The Board has unofficially approved a teachers' guide which is increased by $200 across the board from the current guide. This would give a beginning salary of $5000 with bachelors' degree running to a maximum of $8300, masters' level of $5200 to $8600, and sixth-years levels of $5300 for beginners to $9100.

Museum Gets Modern Work

The acquisition by the Museum of Modern Art, Madison, of a painting by Bedri Rhami Eyuboglu of Istanbul, Turkey, marks the fourth International Artists Summer Seminar artist to be recognized by this leading institution.

The IASS, held annually on the Madison campus of Fairleigh Dickinson University, was opened in 1961. Eyuboglu, who signs himself B. Rhami, was one of this first group.

Two members of the 1962 IASS, Jochen Seidel of Germany and Kazuo Nakamura of Canada, are represented in the Museum of Modern Art. Work done by an artist who will attend the 1963 seminar, Harold Town of Canada, is also represented.

Throughout the world people and nations are imbued with a dedicated urge "to advance". And "to advance" means to achieve higher and higher levels of technological development. And technological development too often means, first of all, automatic weapons and jet planes, and then, cadillacs and modern night-clubs.

Even in countries where technology has progressed farthest we are apt to forget, in our blind plunge forward, that Man's needs and desires are fundamentally and basically those of a biological organism. To eat, to love, to be curious, to be secure, and to have comfortable shelter were as important to our mammalian ancestors as to us. No advantage of technology can substitute for these basic needs. Man, more than any other earth-bound organism, has refined and embellished these essentials according to varied cultural patterns.

Even today, Man has not contrived the cultural ideal. In the past, civilizations with cultural potential could not remain fixed by dogmatism and rigid custom; instead they needed enough flexibility to evolve law and order, yet allow reasonable freedom of action and thought for at least a major segment of its society. With freedom of thought, the minds of men—at least some men—created new needs and desires definitely above and beyond those of Man's mammalian fellows. Whether communication among animals is ever satisfactory to them is hard for us to say, but with Man, we know the demands of the mind set an unachievable goal. Through our mind's desire to communicate, it interweaves multicolored threads of language, music, art, and drama into dynamic designs. Through the intricate medium of language, human minds share their curiosity in literature, science, and philosophy.

To advance, then, begin by refining the basic urges from the bottom up.

SCIENCE QUIZ
Questions sent to Hans Klein care of this newspaper will be answered in the Science Quiz.

1. Do isolated peoples tend to have static cultures?
 2. Isolated South American Indian tribes often acquire manufactured articles, how do they get these without contact with civilized persons?
 3. What is the most widely diffused language?
 4. Can a civilized person be happy without most of the conveniences afforded by modern technology?
 5. Are there different species of humans?
- ANSWERS
1. Usually, Tribals customs develop to meet conditions in a given environment, and change radically only when new circumstances arise.
 2. From the fringes of civilization an article will filter through various tribes in trade. Often the last owner has no knowledge of its use.
 3. English, followed by Spanish. Chinese is spoken by more people but its uniformity is marred by widely differing dialects, and it has no appreciable dispersal.
 4. Some are only contented when living in lands more primitive than their own, and most of us enjoy a rest now and then from the clamor of modern conveniences.
 5. No, however, the few major races are considered subspecies.

Christmas Seals Below Last Year By Almost $20,000

With nearly $20,000 to go to equal last year's contributions to the Christmas Seal campaign, Mrs. W.J. Comar of Roselle, honorary chairman of the 1962 Christmas Seal campaign of the Union County Tuberculosis and Health League, urged county residents to help the fight against tuberculosis.

"Contributions are most welcome at any time," Mrs. Comar explained, "but the League will soon begin its planning of the coming year's work, and the more funds available, the more work can be undertaken to meet the challenge of eradicating this communicable disease."

Mrs. Comar quoted from a letter from a Christmas Seal contributor in Elizabeth: "Not only are the colors attractive but each time I use the Seals I realize the significance to a lot of people. I have been ill and now my family and myself to get along on disability benefits, but I always say, every little bit helps. I sincerely hope that those who can give more will do so."

One person wrote a short note: "Being a TB patient and a veteran of World War I and at the present time am at John E. Runnells Hospital, the enclosed was given to me and I in turn am contributing it to your organization."

A letter written in Hungarian was translated: "With respect friend, I am sending (this) I can send more. For more than 12 years I have been on pension, and it's seven years I have been sick. But I can help this much."

A small envelope containing twenty-five cents had a note on it: "Here's a little help from six children" (one and a half through 17 years of age).

All of these letters, Mrs. Comar commented, show that the senders realize the importance of the fight that is being carried to try to protect Union County citizens from tuberculosis. The 810 cases in the county have thousands of contacts all of whom must have constant supervision to see that they remain well. Hundreds of unknown and potential cases must be located so they can receive medical attention.

Tax Forms Available

District Director Frank S. Turbett, Jr., of the Internal Revenue Service, announced today that copies of 1962 Federal Income Tax forms are now available to tax practitioners and other bulk users. They may be picked up at the District Office at 1060 Broad Street in Newark, N.J., or at any one of the eleven local offices. Bulk shipments are being made to practitioners who requested mail delivery.

Mr. Turbett stated that these forms are being released two weeks later than usual because of the late adjournment of Congress. Printing of the tax forms could not begin until the middle of October because some of the forms are printed on the same presses that print the top-priority Congressional Record. There will be no delay in the delivery of forms to individuals. Taxpayers will receive their forms on January 2 as usual.

Mr. Turbett requests that taxpayers use the preaddressed tax return forms which were sent to them, wherever possible. If it is not possible to use the preaddressed forms, he asks that taxpayers make sure that the name and address are correct and that the proper Social Security or Tax Identification Number is placed in the space provided.

THANKS SANTA—The baby is a Natiello, the youngster receiving the gift is Joe Natiello, Jr. and Santa...well, we'll keep that a secret. That's Howie Cohen of the Legion acting as Santa's helper. (Hank Wright)

Park Commission New Year's Eve To Show Films At Meadowbrook

A film tour of New York State will be shown at The Union County Park Commission's Trailside Nature and Science Center, in the Watchung Reservation, on Sunday, December 30, at 3:00 p.m.

The film takes the viewer from the sky-high towers of Manhattan to Niagara Falls, with visits to Long Island, the Catskills, the Adirondacks, with a stop at Times Square.

At 4:00 p.m., on Monday, December 31, Miss Irma Heyer, educational assistant at Trailside, will conduct a one-half hour nature talk for children. The topic selected for the lecture is "Animals of This Area." Miss Heyer's talk will be illustrated with color slides.

The Trailside Nature and Science Center is open to the public each weekday, except Friday, from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m., and on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. The public is invited to visit the Nature and Science Center, view the thousands of indoor exhibits and participate in the scheduled programs.

Denise Darcel's terrific night club act coupled with the exceptional talented comedy performances of Joe-Ross, Joyce Kerry and other professional talents of dancers—like Vivian Burns and Joy Serio make the Meadowbrook "Fabulous Follies" the finest New Year's Eve bargain obtainable.

The compliments received on the food recently at the famed Cedar Grove Restaurant is causing the Thuman's, John and his wife, Margaritha to take extended bows constantly.

In addition, Gary and Helga McHugh have lined up such an excellent cast to deliver the lines, gags and blackouts with such zip and speed the two hours of constant hilarity is leaving the audiences limp and exhausted from applauding but content and happy on the way out.

Without question Gary McHugh could not have obtained a more suitable vehicle for display at this joyous time of year and lining up the gorgeous group of Miss Americas and contestants from the Miss Universe contests was a stroke of genius.

The entire package is then topped off by the inimitable French beauty and—comedienne Denise Darcel who would be more than worth the price of admission by herself.

This is the Meadowbrook Dinner Theatres finest all around bargain to date.

Skulnik To Star At Paper Mill

Menasha Skulnik, who has been making people laugh and cry for fifty years, will come to the Paper Mill Playhouse in Millburn in "Come Blow Your Horn" this winter.

"Come Blow Your Horn", which was a two year hit on Broadway, will be the final show of the Paper Mill winter season, which opens on December 26 with "South Pacific", starring Betsy Palmer. "Come Blow Your Horn" will play for two weeks beginning Tuesday, March 12 and continuing through March 24.

In recent years Menasha Skulnik has moved from the Yiddish Theatre, where he has spent most of his fifty years in show business, to the Broadway stage. He made his Broadway debut in "The Fifth Season" and was greeted by critical acclaim and a new audience who had never seen him on Second Avenue. For two years he delighted them with his unique and tender comedy, "Fifth Season" was followed by "The Flowering Peach" by Clifford Odets in which he played Noah. Then, in the spring of 1957, he starred in "Uncle Willie".

Mr. Skulnik began his career in the circus and since that time has had every job in the theatre; actor, stage manager, bill-

Nimble-fingered Damsel Catches Capital Talk

By HELEN THOMAS United Press International WASHINGTON (UPI) - It isn't every girl who comes to the nation's capital and within a year is taking down off-the-cuff remarks by President Kennedy, cabinet members, and Pierre Salinger, the White House press secretary.

Such happened to pretty, blue-eyed Gloria Horning of Mobile, Ala. Miss Horning, a blonde, is a stenotypist who goes often to the White House to record the Salinger press briefings.

She said the top men in her office can record 300 words a minute - just about the speed necessary to keep up with Kennedy at his news conferences.

Her initiation at the Pentagon was a harrying one. Arthur Sylvester, Assistant Secretary of Defense, held a press briefing during the Cuban crisis. After fielding a number of fast questions, Sylvester asked her to read back his remarks.

"I was perturbed," she recalled. But she found that she had his statement down word for word. Miss Horning is a graduate of Stephens College and Louisiana State University. She also studied at the Juillard School of Music in New York and as she put it "had hoped to set the world on fire" as a coloratura in opera.

At the White House, she usually works in the west wing - the office side. But recently she went to the mansion to record the remarks of Jacqueline Kennedy who was meeting with the White House Fine Arts Committee.

Krishna Menon by Emil Lengyel

Emil Lengyel (Walker $5): Vengall Krishnan Krishna Menon, until recently India's defense minister and spokesman in the United Nations, has infuriated and puzzled Americans for a decade. This compact biography by Prof. Lengyel of Fairleigh Dickinson University furnishes many answers. The son of a London landlady gave the author the shortest, and perhaps the best, description of Krishna Menon: "He's not matley."
