EDITORIAL MEMOS - - -

.....We know winter's severe storms have taken heavy chunks and bites out of paving- but we doubt if there's anything to match the axle-breaking craters and holes every autoist has found in the General Greene Shopping Center lot.

"If you want to hear some brand new curse words, just stand near that so-called entrance and exit at the China Sky Restaurant or at the other confusing roadway, leading in from and out to Mountain avenue.

"The sorry mess will probably be patched up with some tar-like substance as a temporary solution- but those customers who risked their car springs all winter are still wondering why nobody seems to care....."

"What has happened to State Highway Commissioner Dwight R. C. Palmer?" asks another.

"Early last year--in the Spring- Mr. Palmer's engineers told us the bulldozers and road building equipment would be kicking up a lot of dust--surely by October.

"Many property owners- in the path of the new Federal Highway No. 78, were told to get ready to move out--by July- surely by August.

"Here- it is close to Spring of another year-1963- but Mr. Palmer has been too busy with getting the railroads straightened out at the expense of the taxpayers.

"What has happened to Mr. Palmer's engineering schedule for Springfield and Route 78?"

The article in last week's SUN concerning the need of a new library on a more centrally located site in Springfield has stimulated considerable interest and many letters--all of them enthusiastically favoring such a project.

The first suggestions for a site include Township or School Board owned property.

One resident argues that there is enough room on the Raymond Chisholm School land for a new library building. This is that part of the School Board land bounded by South Springfield avenue and Fieldstone Drive.

A small baseball field takes up part of this property in the Summer time- but this activity could be moved to another part of the property- where the local leagues played up to a few years ago.

This would leave a large enough piece of ground for any kind of a library with sufficient parking space- within walking distance of the more densely settled sections of Springfield.

The move for a charter change in Springfield has been stalled- because the supporters were faced with time limitations- but "it is very much alive," according to the sponsors.

It is understood that the petitions for a change now have sufficient signatures and the question will probably be put on the ballot this November for a referendum.

Even the Urban Renewal Development plan for the revitalization of Morris avenue is not "dead". However, it will take many shots of civic adrenalin to bring it back to active life. There are several who still think such a long range plan is the only hope for Morris avenue business.

Many people have taken to "telephone" discussions with this department primarily concerning things of a political nature and "civic problems". While we appreciate and encourage anything of a newsworthy nature we would like to point out that time and factual accounts are of prime importance to the newspaper in order to enable objective reporting to all.

Personal feelings and "slanted" accounts of happenings belong under the heading of letters to the editor. Writing to us is much more acceptable under those conditions than time consuming telephone conversations, and further it enhances the writer's chances of getting his or her opinion known to those concerned.

Letters to the Editor is "YOUR DEPARTMENT". Use it to have your opinions expressed. Just sign the letter and we will endeavor to "voice" your opinion. Thanks for your co-operation.

Letters to The Editor

Dear Sir:

On February 28th the shockingly expensive $16 million county budget was adopted, highlighted by apparent apathy on the part of the people and of the mayors of the towns in the county. But is it apathy as much as lack of proper organization procedure and conflicts? Roselle Park, for example, had a council meeting the same night so obviously the mayor could not be present.

In any event, it is too much to expect the mayors and councilmen of the 21 communities to be able to analyze the county budget carefully when they are so fully occupied with their own budgets at the same time.

This writer suggests that an informal committee of laymen be established each year which will represent the 21 communities. The mayors and/or councils of each town would designate a toughminded citizen who knows how to say No to be on the committee. The committee would serve without pay as a public service. With 21 members, the budget could be divided among them so that each section could be thoroughly studied by a few, after which the committee as a whole could coordinate their recommendations. These could then be presented to the towns as well as to the Freeholders. (If 21

Board Seeks Okay Of Three School Improvement Plan

Voters will be asked to approve a $1,471,000 referendum in May for "Operation Up-date", according to the Chairman of the School Advisory Committee, Mr. Joseph Bender.

The modernization program will call for a $984,000 addition to the Florence M. Gaudineer School, $498,000 to build a new two-story, twelve-classroom addition on Raymond Chisholm School, and $79,000 for an administration building, freeing two badly needed classrooms for the James Caldwell School.

Financed by a 20 year bond issue, bearing interest at an estimated 3.7%, the peak cost to taxpayers will be in 1965, resulting in an approximate tax increase of $16.80 on a house assessed at $8,000.

In preparing the school referendum, the Board of Education has attempted to view the school system's facilities needs for the next five years with full consideration given to the effects of the expanding curriculum, the normal increase in our school population, and the probable areas of population growth. The recommended sites of the additional facilities will provide the Board of Education with the utmost in flexibility with a minimum of redistricting.

GAUDINEER LACKS FIVE CLASSROOMS

At present, the Gaudineer School student body numbers 724. By September 1966 this will increase to 829 as a result of the present lower grades advancing to this school, as well as the normal increase in Springfield school population.

is unwieldy, one representative for two contiguous towns would reduce it to 10.)

With the tremendous pressure being brought on the Freeholders by county empire building bureaucrats and private pressure groups seeking special favors, such a committee would enable the Freeholders to hold the line. The county budget has doubled within the past ten years. Isn't it worthwhile to give this committee a trial as a first step to prevent the budget from zooming still higher?

Sincerely,
 O.B. Johannsen

The following copy of a letter to the Springfield First Aid Squad was received for publication by The Sun:

Gentlemen:

Enclosed herewith please find a check in the amount of $47.94 as a donation to your fine work.

As the treasurer of the Garden Oval Civic Association, we had accumulated a fund of monies from our association. At various times, worthy causes were given sums of monies for their various appeals. In view of the fact that the association has disbanded and it would be extremely difficult to try to reimburse each individual contributor, I have been authorized to make the above disbursement which can be used as you deem necessary.

I have recently moved from 16 Garden Oval, my former place of residence at the time of the collection funds, and now reside at 27 Norwood Road, Springfield.

Our best wishes are extended to you for your efforts on behalf of the citizens of Springfield.

Very truly yours,
 Joseph Fleishman

The proposed expansion is planned on this basis. The Gaudineer School at present lacks five classrooms. Since September 1962, five groups have been designated as "floating classes". One of these has utilized the library, hampering the operation of that important school facility that should be available for students and class use at all times. The Developmental Reading room is shared by two teachers. Another class uses the sewing room. Two classes occupy space in the school cafeteria. This arrangement is substandard and not conducive to the learning processes.

The Gaudineer School was planned and constructed for a student population of 600 children. With enrollment now 724, the special service rooms and facilities can no longer accommodate the present student body. The all-purpose room designed for a student body of less than 600 is inadequate as an auditorium and when separated into two units, is much too small for units, programing for boys' and girls' physical education. The locker rooms will not accommodate 150 additional students.

CHISHOLM SHORT CLASSROOM

The Chisholm School is now short one classroom. Permission has been granted by the State for the temporary use of one of the basement rooms to fill this need. This is definitely a substandard arrangement and must be corrected as soon as possible.

This is also the smallest school in Springfield (only 10 rooms including a kindergarten), and provides the least flexibility in the grouping of grades. The geographic location of this school would dictate a facility of greater capacity. Many children now living nearby are required to go to school further away.

The expansion of this location will permit a redistricting that will relieve some of the load at the Sandrieger School and thereby make available facilities there to absorb the increase in student population which will take place in that area. It will also make available several rooms that can be used for special services, such as the library, remedial reading, instrumental music, and the advanced enrichment programs.

PUBLIC MEETING MARCH 20th

A public meeting will be held at the Florence M. Gaudineer School Cafeteria, March 20th, at 8:00 P.M. at which time the Board will explain in full detail the proposed referendum. The public is urged to attend.

Township Committee Approves Budget; Pool Bids Received

At a well attended regular meeting of the Springfield Township Committee held Tuesday evening March 12th, the 1963 Municipal Budget was adopted. The budget, estimated at $3,515,536, represents a total increase of $393,681 over 1962, a rise of 49 points.

Bids for the construction of the Municipal Swimming Pool were received and it is expected that contracts for this purpose will be awarded later this week. Formalizing the progress made by the swimming pool committee, an ordinance was introduced to establish "a swimming pool utility" final hearing concerning which is set for the next Township meeting on March 26th.

Also introduced was the 1963 salary ordinance, final hearing to be at the next session. A resolution to regulate and control traffic speed limits and traffic signs on Baltusrol Road was also introduced.

The Committee approved a recommendation of the Board of Adjustment for a variance for a sign proposed by the Springfield Diner, 593 Morris Avenue. A Use Variance for Neil P. Anderson for a new car showroom and parts service at 2 Edison Place was approved.

The town fathers authorized Township Attorney James M. Cawley to defend the suit of Zucker v/s the Board of Adjustment.

Other actions by the Committee confirmed Fireman Charles W. Bishop, third class, promoted to second class as of March 16, as set by ordinance. A similar move-up in grade was approved for patrolman Daniel Halsey, formerly third class, now in second class grade.

Mayor Arthur Falkin appointed Fred W. Compton as Chairman of the Municipal Tercentenary Committee working closely with the State of New Jersey Tercentenary Commission, 1664-1964.

Mayor Proclaims Next Week As Local "Blood Donor Week"

The week of Monday, March 18th has been proclaimed Blood Donor Week by Springfield Mayor Arthur M. Falkin in recognition of the volunteers who donate their life-saving blood for the needs of the community. More Blood Donors are sought for the Bloodmobile visit on Monday, March 18th from 1-7:00 p.m. at the Presbyterian Parish House on Main Street if the drive is to supply sufficient blood credits for Springfield needs.

Call DR 6-1676 or DR 9-2562 today to register as a donor for the March 18th Bloodmobile visit. Refer to the March 7th issue of the SPRINGFIELD SUN for full particulars of requirements for blood donors.

A volunteer staff of receptionists, registrars, bottle labellers, and Canteen are making final preparations for the busy schedule set for Monday's Bloodmobile. A group of volunteer Registered Nurses and Nurses Aides will also be on hand to administer their special duties. There is still a need for more qualified Nurses Aides to serve with this group. If you are a Nurses Aide and can give a few hours of service to the Springfield Red Cross Blood Program and thus your neighbors, Call the Springfield Red Cross headquarters DR 6-1676 immediately. Your help is needed.

Local doctors working as a medical corp under Dr. Luth,

Chairman of the medical committee have volunteered their time on a rotating basis to be in attendance throughout the Bloodmobile visit.

In addition two baby sitters will be in attendance during the hours of 1-7:00 p.m. of the Bloodmobile visit to take care of children in the church nursery. This service is an added convenience to enable mother's with small children to become blood donors.

Henry S. Wright, Blood Program Chairman, urges full support of the March 18th Bloodmobile. "We need YOUR help as donors and volunteer staff if the Springfield Blood Bank is to be effective with sufficient blood to meet the needs of the Township. Our theme BLOOD BUYS TIME states clearly the value of the liquid pint that can save your life or that of your neighbor when emergency strikes. Be a donor on March 18th! Sign up today!"

Lorrie Lewis Selected As Dem "Lady" Freeholder Candidate In County

For the first time in local political history, a Springfield woman has been selected to run for an important elective office in Union County.

Mrs. Philip L. Lewis, of 385 Milltown Road, Springfield, better known as "Lorrie Lewis" is one of the Township's more articulate and active Democrats, and has agreed to become a candidate for one of the three freeholder spots in the coming primary election.

Springfield has given Union County many officials but this is the first time that a Township woman has been honored with a place on the Freeholder ticket.

Current Freeholder Mary C. Kanane, the only woman member of the Union County Board of Freeholders, is not running for re-election this year, choosing to become a candidate for the office of Surrogate.

With the present woman member of the Freeholders deciding not to seek that job again, a special appeal will be made to all voters in Union County to support Lorrie Lewis so that "this important Board may continue to have women's representation in the conduct of the county's business," according to sponsors of the Springfield woman's candidacy.

Mrs. Lewis, mother of two boys, has been very active in Democratic political affairs and one of the most energetic workers

Baha'is Dinner

The Baha'is of Springfield will meet for dinner at the Chu Dynasty on Wednesday, March 20 in observance of the Baha'i New Year. A program of entertainment and fellowship will follow.

According to the Baha'i calendar sundown on Wednesday March 20th marks the beginning of the year 120 B.E. (Baha'i Era.) The Baha'i New Year (Naw-Ruz) always falls on the Spring solstice. Mrs. Carol Rutstein of Springfield remarked that it seemed much more reasonable to think of a new year beginning with the springtime than in the middle of winter.

"This year" continued Mrs. Rutstein, "is especially significant because it also marks the one-hundredth anniversary of the declaration of Baha'u'llah, prophet-founder of the Baha'i World Faith. For the first time in the history of the Faith the Baha'is will hold a World Congress. About 8,000 members from 256 countries are expected to gather in London, England, April 28-May 2 for the event. At least 1,500 will attend from the United States." Among them will be Mr. & Mrs. Raymond C. Rouse, Gloria, Diana and Raymond Jr. Rouse, Charyl Ioas, Paul Ioas, and Mr. & Mrs. Nathan Rutstein, all of Springfield, N.J.

Real Estate Boards Against State Bills

Determine opposition to a bill which would permit municipalities to enter the real estate business in competition with private enterprises through granting Industrial Commissions the right of condemnation was voiced today by the New Jersey Association of Real Estate Boards.

John A. Rogge, president of NJAREB, said letters have been sent to all members of the State Legislature asking defeat of the measures (A-159 and S-67) which would in essence enable Industrial Commissions "to remove valuable lands from the already shrinking tax rolls for use in industrial sites and locations with no mention in the bill about paying taxes."

Rogge continued, "We feel very strongly about these bills which would, if enacted into law, allow each municipality in the state to compete with private enterprise in an area (industrial plant and site location) which has been serviced by the real estate brokers and salesmen so ably over the past generations."

League of Women Voters Schedules Two Speakers

"...not an arms race but to a peace race...to advance together step by step, stage by stage, until general and complete disarmament has been achieved," said President Kennedy, in address before the United Nations Assembly, September 25, 1961.

What is the United States Plan for disarmament? Can the U.N. bring world security through disarmament? What progress, if any has been made at the 17-nations Disarmament Conference at Geneva? What alternatives exist for nations in a nuclear age? These questions any many others will be considered at the public meeting sponsored by the Springfield League of Women Voters on the subject of "The Peace Race—New Answers to Old Questions" on Wednesday, March 27, 8:30 p.m. at the Gaudineer School.

Dr. David Frost, medical writer, Assistant Professor of Life Science at Rutgers University, will speak on the background to disarmament.

Dr. Nathan Weiss, Professor of Political Science at Newark State College will present a differing point of view, bringing out the role of the United Nations past and present in keeping the peace during the nuclear era.

Topics which will be explored include Cuba, Berlin and the role of the neutral and underdeveloped nations with particular reference to the change in the Secretary-General's office.

This meeting which is open to the public is part of the Springfield League of Women Voters continuing study on the role of the United Nations in today's world.

Springfield Industrial Fair Begins to Shape Up

Last Wednesday March 6th the Mayor's Industrial Committee held its regular monthly meeting. The major piece of business was the reaction to the announcement of an Industrial Fair to be held June 13 and 14 in the evening and Saturday June 15 all day. A letter of invitation went out to all in our Industrial Community on Monday the 4th of March and by the 6th, the day of the meeting, 6 Industrialists had answered in the affirmative and one at the meeting signified approval. They included Universal Cyllops, Powers Regulator, Lumax Manufacturing, Elkay Products, E.J. Sargent & Co., Commonwealth Water Co., and Springfield Tool and Die. At this date four more have indicated a keen desire to participate: Best Pencil Co., Murray Construction Co., A. R. Meeker Co., Jersey Central Power & Light Co.

Problems of the Industrialists relating to transportation into the various industrial areas was discussed and a card questionnaire on the problem and possible solution is to be sent out shortly.

Mayor Falkin has appointed two other townsfolk to the committee: M. Schlanger of 200 Lak Avenue and W. Jayne of 52 Pitt Road.

One point brought up was the question of whether rail service, that is free pick up and delivery, might be available for our industrial people. As more information, questions and answers arise on the Industrial Fair they will be fully answered.

B'nai B'rith Women Present at Installation of New Q President

A group of local women, members of the Springfield chapter, will look on as Mrs. Joseph Taller of Elizabeth will be installed as president of B'nai B'rith Women, Northern New Jersey Council, at special ceremonies to be held in the Hotel Essex House, Newark, on the evening of March 14 at 8:15. Invitations have already been extended to all Council members and to the 35 Chapters which make up the Northern New Jersey Council. Refreshments will be served.

B'nai B'rith Women, part of the world's oldest and largest Jewish service organization, boasts a membership of 135,000 in the United States and Canada alone. The Northern New Jersey Council, with 35 Chapters, claims close to 6,000 members. There are 60 Chapters functioning abroad in 19 different countries of the free world. B'nai B'rith is basically a patriotic, educational and philanthropic organization whose membership includes orthodox, conservative, reformed, Zionist and non-Zionist Jews. The new Council slate for the 1963-64 season includes, besides Mrs. Taller, Mrs. Louis Weintraub of Maplewood, first vice-president; Mrs. Alvin Krevsky of Hillside, second vice president; Mrs. Victor Miller of Hazlet, third vice president; Mrs. Lewis Schwartz of Irvington, financial secretary; Mrs. Louis Frankel of Newark, Secretary of the Treasury; Mrs. Bernard Uhrman of Newark, treasurer; Mrs. Sol Sherman of West Orange, recording secretary; Mrs. Harry Schwind of Newark, auditor; Mrs. Sidney Janowsky of Newark, counsellor.

Mrs. Gerald Freeman of West Orange will act as installation chairman. The installing officer will be Mrs. Herbert Hausman of Union. In charge of the program for the evening will be Mrs. Melville Shapiro of Elizabeth, representing incoming officers, and Mrs. Peter Barlow of Newark, representing outgoing officers.

Incoming president Mrs. Taller has been a member of B'nai B'rith Women for the past 16 years. She is a past president of the Mairon Rapoport Chapter in Elizabeth and has served in all major chairmanships of the organization. Mrs. Taller is a member of the general committee of B'nai B'rith Women of District 3, serving as a deputy. She is also a member of B'nai B'rith's Youth Organization, regional board of New Jersey; the Vocational Service Bureau, regional board; and the Anti-Defamation League, regional board. A mother of two children, the incoming president is active in PTA work in Elizabeth, serving as ways and means chairman of the Thomas Jefferson High School PTA. She is also a member of the PTA at Madison Monroe School and the JWV in Elizabeth. She participated in the Mothers March on Polio, the United Fund and the Building Fund campaign for the YMHA of Eastern Union County. Her son Herbert will be entering college in the Fall and daughter Rhonda is a 3rd grade student.

One of the highlights of the installation program will be the selection of a winner in the Council's center piece contest. Each Chapter will have created an original center piece designed on the theme of Council's 25th anniversary. Judging will be based on two categories: overall B'nai B'rith theme and one specific B'nai B'rith project. Mrs. Marvin Pauer of West Orange is Council chairman of the center piece contest. The winning center piece will be sent to national headquarters in the B'nai B'rith building in Washington, D.C. to be displayed during the national B'nai B'rith Art Exhibit from March 31 to April 4.

Another feature of the evening's program will include the presentation of the Bas B'rith Academy Awards to individual Chapters for the following achievements: 1- The Chapter that reached 100% paid up membership by March 1. 2- The Chapter that enrolled the most new members by March 1. 3- The first Chapter reaching 90% re-enrollment by November 1. 4- The Chapter that reached a 25% net gain by March 1. This prize will be a silver award in honor of Council's 25th anniversary.

CUBAN REFUGEE FAMILY COMES TO SPRINGFIELD

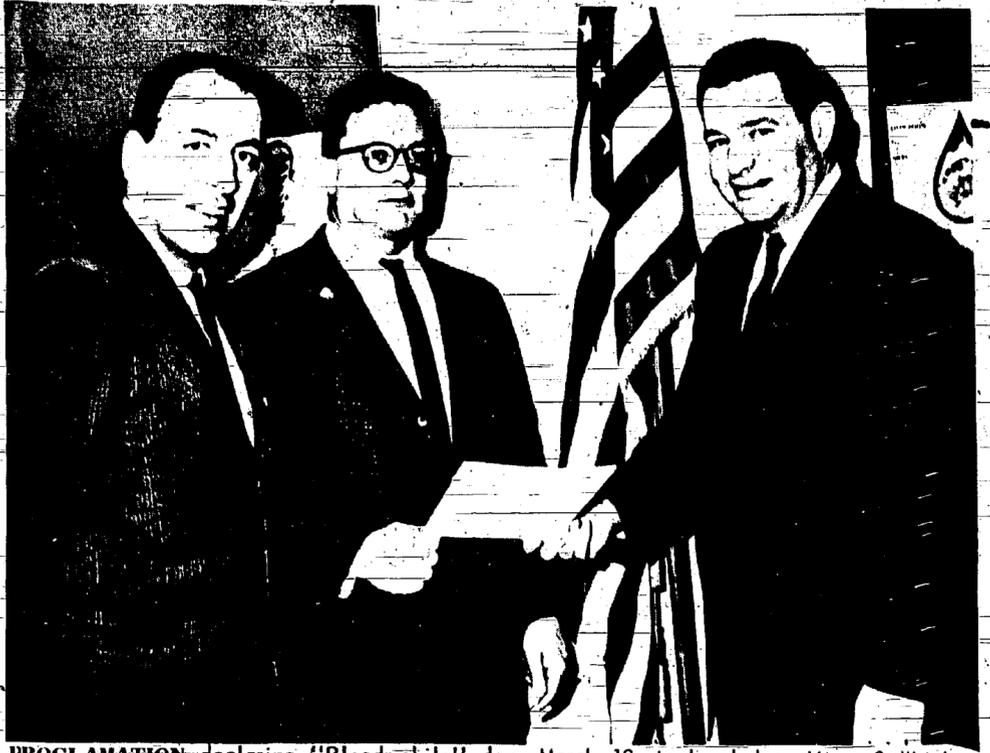

The First Presbyterian Church welcomed the Emeterio Rueda family to Springfield in their effort to make a new beginning as one of many Cuban refugee families relocated through the Protestant Church Agency, Church World Service. The picture shows (left to right) Rev. Donald C. Weber, Associate Pastor, Mrs. Rueda, Emeterio Jr., Mr. Rueda, and Rev. Bruce W. Evans, Pastor. A daughter, Yolande, was able to leave Cuba last August and has been living in Chicago with her aunt. She will join the family here shortly. They were met at the Newark Airport and on coming to Springfield were greeted by a welcoming committee at the apartment which had been prepared for them.

The arrival of the Rueda family marked the climax of a week's concentrated work on the part of the Church Deacons under the presidency of Robert T. Southward as used furniture was gathered to furnish an apartment. Ladies of the church spent many hours in polishing and putting the finishing touches on making the apartment livable. Children in the Church School brought foodstuffs as their welcoming present.

The Rueda family feels it is quite fortunate to be living in the United States although the price they paid for their freedom was high. They left the land of their birth with only the clothes on their backs. Members of their families are still in Cuba. In a brief interview, Mr. Rueda said, "There are things in this world more important than material possessions -- they are spiritual values and freedom."

Those Who Serve

THE RED CROSS GRAY LADY a warm, kindhearted friend...

The Red Cross Gray Lady is more than just a volunteer hospital companion.

To lonely patients she is a warm, kindhearted friend who reads and writes letters, brings them newspapers and magazines, runs shopping errands, challenges them to a game of checkers, or just visits.

She serves as receptionist, teaches handicrafts, is a guide to visitors, provides tutoring, acts as translator and interpreter.

To qualify as a Gray Lady she has undergone a detailed training course and promised to serve a minimum of 150 hours each year in her community hospital. She has been taught to recognize the fears that often accompany an illness and help a patient overcome them. She has learned the value of friendship and gives it willingly.

The Gray Lady is intelligent, capable, and has a sincerity of purpose. She receives no pay for her services. Her only reward is the satisfaction that comes from being useful to others. She wears her uniform with pride, knowing she is a member of a vast organization dedicated to comforting the sick, the injured, and the handicapped.

Swim Pool Committee Extends Charter Membership Deadline

There is good news this week for those families who have not as yet returned their membership applications for the Springfield Municipal Swim Pool. The membership Committee has decided to extend the deadline for a limited amount of time so that those people who did not receive membership applications will still have the opportunity to join the pool for the coming season as charter members.

Edward Schwartz, Chairman of the swim pool committee, is pleased with the progress being made on the pool site, as well as with the response from the local residents for charter membership. Schwartz pointed out that there are now over 900 applicants for charter membership. This, he added, makes the program a complete success and far surpasses initial estimates.

The residents who have submitted their applications have assured themselves and their families many happy and healthy hours during the hot summer months ahead. Not only will the swim pool be available, but plans are also formulated for tennis courts, basketball courts and other recreational facilities. There is little question that some 900 charter members are going to enjoy their leisure hours during the warm months ahead without venturing out on the crowded and dangerous highways.

Marvin Strauss and Mrs. Lee Beno, the leaders of the membership committee, are now confronted with a problem of excessive charter membership. The received to date are far greater than what had been initially estimated. Since charter membership will be limited, those families who would like to join the pool, are urged to do so immediately. Applications for charter membership are still available at the Springfield Sun Office, the Springfield Post Office and the National State Branch of Elizabeth, Springfield branch.

Schwartz expressed his personal thanks to the many people and organizations who have been instrumental in the success of the Springfield Swim Pool. As he pointed out, there has been a great effort put forth to provide Springfield with a complete recreational facility. Schwartz continued, it is always gratifying to see a group of people join forces to make their community a better place in which to live. The residents who have been so prompt in returning their applications have proven that they want to take part in community affairs. They have clearly indicated that the Springfield Swim Pool will be the local community center for many years to come.

As was mentioned above, charter membership will be limited. If you have not returned your application as yet, do so as soon as possible. Be certain that you and your family will be IN THE SWIM FOR '63.

Cooks Rings Around the Rest

The NEW Electric Range

Automatically better because everything's under control

The NEW electric range guarantees precision control of every cooking function—boiling, broiling, baking, braising, frying and roasting—and does it automatically. On the new electric range, you simply set the dials to the right time and temperature and relax knowing that your meal will be done cookbook perfect, on time, just as you planned it.

Automatic—simply set the automatic timer and forget it—your oven meal will be ready on time as planned.

Controlled—electric cooking provides exact temperature control, from low heat to high, for perfect cooking results time after time.

Modern—beautiful, functional and streamlined in design.

Cool—there's no open flame to heat up your kitchen. Electric cooking puts all the heat where it's needed—into the bottom of pots and pans. Ovens are insulated on all six sides to retain heat.

Automatic control means better food, too, because roasts won't shrink, cakes won't fall and since much less water is needed for surface cooking, vegetables retain their nourishing goodness and appetizing colors.

Check these eight points of superiority with your Reddy Killowatt Dealer during the March and April Range Sale.

Clean—no soot, grime or fumes to dirty up your kitchen. Pots and pans stay bright and shining; walls stay cleaner.

Fast—surface units heat up instantly—broilers and ovens heat up as fast as you can set the controls.

Flameless—no open flame, no burners to get out of adjustment, no pilot to be blown out.

Economical—cost of cooking electrically is low—the average for a family of four is only $2.00 per month.

Merchant of the Week Donan & Co., Inc. Brings Wall Street to Morris Avenue

Just a little over a year ago, the stock brokerage firm of Donan & Co., Inc. opened an office in Springfield at 262 Morris Avenue -- the premises formerly occupied by the Springfield Sun. In the short time since then, a large number of local residents have found that quality investment advice and service is now available right here in the community.

Donan & Co. is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., and their account executives are all thoroughly trained and registered with the Association. As an N.A.S.D. member, the firm sells all stocks and bonds, including those traded on the New York and American Stock Exchanges, as well as over-the-counter securities. This means that an average day's transactions may run the gamut from American Telephone & Telegraph and General Motors shares to the more speculative lower priced securities.

A very large portion of the firm's activities arises from their specialization in the fields of mutual funds and financial planning. Thus, a visit to the tastefully decorated wood paneled office discloses a display of literature from well over 100 different mutual funds. Full information is available on all of the better known funds such as Dreyfus (the window currently features as illuminated Dreyfus lion as seen on television) and Wellington, as well as many lesser known funds specializing in life insurance or utilities stocks, tax exempt bonds, etc.

Donald H. Shafarman, the President of Donan & Co., Inc., has already become well known to many Springfield area residents and business people either through business contacts or as an active member of the Millburn - Springfield Kiwanis Club. Many Springfield Sun readers who don't know him personally read his column, Money Matters, which periodically appears in this paper.

Don, who lives in Westfield and is the father of four children, is a graduate of Cornell Law School and also has a B.A. in economics from Cornell. After leaving college and being admitted to the New York and District of Columbia Bars, he practiced law in New York City where he specialized in tax law and estate planning. In 1956, he gave up his practice to become vice-president in charge of financial planning for an investment firm.

In that capacity, Don lectured in many parts of the country on pension and profit-sharing plans, and helped develop many new concepts and innovations combining mutual fund and life insurance programs for family financial planning. Many of these practices are just now coming into common use and are incorporated in the financial plans of individuals in all social and economic brackets. These plans allow them to protect themselves and their families in the event of disability or premature death while accumulating education and retirement funds through a carefully charted investment program.

A local resident, Oscar Baroff of 2 Chrym Lane, Springfield, is a key man in the Donan organization. Oscar joined the firm after several years with other stock brokerage houses. Although he originally devoted himself almost exclusively to the sale of securities, Oscar is now branching out into other areas of financial planning. Rounding out the Donan family of account executives are Hy Hamerling, Joe Infante, Erwin Milstein, Anthony Saddler, and Jack Schait. The rapid growth of the firm has necessitated the addition of more personnel, and several well-qualified men are now enrolled in the Donan training program.

An important avenue of the Donan & Co. activities lies in the field of pension and profit-sharing plans for business firms, as well as self-employed and professional men under the recently enacted Keogh Law. Mr. Shafarman's personal services are always available without charge in consultations regarding these plans -- as well as individual family financial planning -- and many area people and business are taking advantage of this service.

In most investment and insurance firms, a client is the exclusive "property" of his particular account executive or agent. This is not so with Donan & Co. where a client may find himself self-referred to someone else in the firm whose specialty may better qualify him for handling a specific problem. In the same vein, although advising clients on life insurance matters is an important aspect of the Donan business, they do not limit themselves to placing insurance with a particular company. Instead, they represent many companies so that they can recommend the best policies available.

People frequently comment upon the Donan representative's sincere interest and desire to serve regardless of the size of the account. The buyer of one share of Public Service stock is treated exactly the same as the most active account. Furthermore, since the firm works in all areas of financial planning, clients are assured of impartial advice. Thus, an individual planning to accumulate a portfolio of common stocks may be advised to invest instead in a real estate syndication or an out-of-state insured savings and loan association yielding 4.8%. Alternatively, the suggestion might be made that he acquire additional life insurance protection.

The average person is invariably surprised at the many factors which should be considered in planning his financial affairs. Regardless of the size of the budget, the development of a financial plan is a rewarding experience which pays off in a great deal of peace of mind. A discussion with a Donan representative involves an exchange of ideas rather than an effort to sell. They are confident that their ideas are sound and that a client relationship in either insurance or investments will usually develop in time.

Beth-Ahm Honors "Minyanaires" Friday Night

Over sixty men will receive special honors at Temple Beth-Ahm's Friday Night Service on March 15th, according to Rabbi Reuben R. Levine.

The Temple annually recognizes those men through whose efforts the two Daily Services are maintained. The program was started four years ago and has been carried on faithfully ever since.

Regular participants have come to be called "Minyanaires" because they constitute the Minyan, or quorum of ten men required for formal worship. Each man has accepted the responsibility of being present on certain morning or of acting as "captain" in gathering the minyan on his assigned night.

At this special service the congregation will be addressed by Mr. Murray Biddelman, representing the Religious Affairs Committee of the United Synagogue, New Jersey Region. He is the brother of Meyer Biddelman, President of Temple Beth-Ahm. Awards will be made to the men by Mr. Louis Spigel, Religious Affairs Chairman, Seymour Bohan, past chairman, and Sidney and Sam Piller who are active on the committee.

The Service will be preceded by a Community Sabbath Supper in which many of the Minyanaires and other members are participating.

Rabbi Levine expressed his great pride in the loyalty and devotion these men have shown in making so important a thing as a regular twice daily Service available to the membership and to the community.

The Service which begins at 8:45 is open to all.

Mama feels a definite calling to become a minister's wife. But Papa is not the marrying kind, so it takes her five years to convince him. "Minute Meditations"

At First Presbyterian

An extended ministry for the First Presbyterian Church of Springfield is anticipated through the recently initiated "Minute Meditations" sponsored by the Session of the Church. Brief moments of inspirational thought and prayer are now available around the clock by dialing DRexel 9-3487.

The meditations are recorded daily by the Church Staff with a different thought given each day. A special installation was made by the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company, patterned after that used by the Protestant Council of Churches in Livingston which first instituted the Minute Meditation idea.

Reactions to this daily service have been most favorable and it is hoped that all residents of the community might make use of this means of strengthening faith in difficult times.

Junior League Will Stage a Musical

The Childrens Theatre Committee of the Junior League of the Oranges and Short Hills will present an original musical production, "Well Done Dudley", by Helen Flynn, Saturday, March 30th at 11 A.M. at the Papermill Playhouse in Millburn, N.J.

The play is a gay and colorful modern story of the adventures of a young boy who has won an essay contest and as his prize wins a trip on a polaris submarine. His friend Dudley, a talking dolphin, brings humor to the scenes as he sends messages to the crew throughout the trip. When the sonar system picks up Dudley's danger signal the Captain disregards the warning and what excitement follows! Catchy light tunes are sung by the cast during the play which all add to the plot. The moral of the play is highlighted in the tune, "It Pays Off to be a Bright Guy".

Mrs. John G. Lord of Short Hills is chairman of the Childrens Theatre Committee and Mrs. Guy A. Martz of Springfield is working on the committee. Mrs. Mario Siletti, who is associated with the Cricket Playhouse in New York is the director. Tickets from 75¢ to $1.25 are available by calling Mrs. Cyril C. Baldwin Jr., of Summit, CR 3-5626.

Husband, Wife Bring Joy to Many

Anne and Saul Gladstone live at 124 Shunpike Road and have made many people happy for a long time. Saul Gladstone is a practicing dentist and Anne is a housewife; but Saul was a "Top Banana" comic, and Anne is a concert violinist. They still perform and continue to bring joy to many.

Saul Gladstone starred in the Catskills from 1934 to 1941. He started as "Third Banana" at the White Roe Hotel in 1934 and became "Top Banana" in 1941. He worked with Danny Kaye "in fact I think the tux I am wearing here in this picture is his. I don't think I owned any then." "I admired him greatly then and still do. I try to see him when he appears in New York and he always remembers those days."

"In the mountains," Saul recalls, "you didn't have one job. You did everything; acted, sang, danced, etc., and I worked with many famous people." He worked with Phil Silvers, Beatrice Kaye and Henny Youngman in 1936. In 1937, he worked with Gene Baylos and Mimi Benzell; in 1938 with Imogene Coca at Taminent Hotel in 1939 with Jules Munshin at White Roe. In 1940 "I worked with June Havoc and in 1941 as "First Banana" with Billy Sands.

Anne met Saul at the White Roe Hotel when she performed there as a violinist, both as a soloist and as an accompanist.

SAUL GLADSTONE with ukelele "behind the flowers".

She worked there for two seasons. Since then she has appeared with several symphonic groups. Presently Anne is playing with the Suburban Symphony Orchestra and will appear at the Mosque Theatre on March 15.

Saul Gladstone's background has majored in entertainment. When he was 13 he was in the Newark Evening News Harmonica Band and performed over radio stations WHOM, WCCP and WAAT. At their public appearances, he did an original dance in addition to playing the harmonica.

In 1936 he appeared on the "Major Bowes Amateur Hour" which resulted in an offer to work on a Mississippi Show Boat "I called my mother and asked her what to do. She said, 'Come Home'".

He then appeared on the "Feen-a-mint Program" which starred Benny Rubin and then had his own program on Station WAAT for 10 weeks. He played the harmonica, ukelele and kazoo and sang specialty songs.

While attending college in the winters, he worked the summer resorts during vacations. He appeared as Duke Lester in "Tobacco Road", "Three Men On a Horse", "Waiting for Lefty" and "The Milky Way". At a drop of a hat, Dr. Gladstone will take out his harmonica and perform, bringing joy to all who hear him.

Saul appeared at the Newark, YMHA in the "Bits of Hits" for many years, singing and playing. He worked club dates, had his own three piece orchestra and entertained at college fraternity parties. "Because of my entertaining, I was elected into all their honor societies. They wanted me to perform at their annual banquets."

In 1943, he went into the Army as a Lieutenant. He became a Major in 1946. Besides his dental duties, he served as a Special Service (entertainment) officer, was a Finance Officer and a Trial Judge Advocate. He was in New Guinea for two years, then the Philippines and served in the Army of Occupation in Japan from October 1945 to March 1946. "I had a lucky assignment. I enjoyed my Army experience but missed my wife. I wish she could have shared it with me."

Throughout his Army career he entertained continuously. He did two shows a day for 43 days aboard ship, going overseas, sang, acted and entertained. After his discharge, he concentrated on his profession and entertaining became his avocation.

The Gladstones moved to Springfield in 1950. "This is my second mortgaged home in Springfield." He wrote shows for Temple Beth Ahm. Here is a sample from a bowling show he worked on "Once we taught a client how to make the 7-10. It took three balls to do it, so he would up in the pen."

He has also appeared in many shows; highlights were at the Temple Beth Ahm, "Guys and Dolls" and "Damn Yankees." Now he entertains at the Dental Testimonial functions and is known as "The Dentist Who Entertains."

In Springfield Saul helped to organize the Little League and Babe Ruth League and was in their Public Relations Dept. for three years. He was Treasurer of the Edward V. Walton PTA for three years. He finds it amusing that he has taken jobs that were meant for women. He was den mother with his son's cub scout group in Union. He was the only other male, besides the principal, Mr. Murray, in the Walton PTA. And he was the only man in a class of 23 girls in a secretarial course he took. He has a secretarial certificate.

The Gladstones have two sons, Jay Robert and Mark Allen, and have been married for 23 years. He says "My wife's hobby: she loves to eat out. She is very good at shovelling snow, cutting grass and picking out crabgrass. She is the best picker of crab grass in town."

Anne Gladstone was born in Manhattan and was the first child accepted at the Julliard School of Music as a student. She played for Frank Damrosch, the Dean of the School and was accepted as a student, with a scholarship. From then on, Julliard organized a center for gifted children at the school.

Mrs. Gladstone studied in Julliard for ten years. She tutored children on the violin; and performed in quartets with her teacher at the Woodstock, N.Y. concerts. Anne has appeared at many Waldorf luncheons for women's groups, "Milk Fund" functions and played solo pieces at the Union Temple in Brooklyn for services. She also played at the Educational Alliance in New York on programs with singers, as well as doing solo pieces. She appeared with a String Group "Mozart Symphonietta" in New York, giving concerts.

In New Jersey she has performed with the Union Symphony Orchestra. With the Suburban Symphony Orchestra she appeared at the New Brunswick Hungarian Social Club and the Children's Concert for Children in Cranford. Recently she appeared with the orchestra of the Jonathan Regional High School's production of "Once Upon a Matress."

She is in rehearsal for the Mosque Theatre Concert for the Union Junior College Benefit this Friday, March 15th.

Anne says that living with a comic "comes in handy." "His sense of humor is a life-savor." Saul has a great deal of patience and she says she is his best audience. "I still find the same jokes funny that I laughed at twenty years ago."

Diary of Colonel Angell Found

On February 24th, a celebration was held at the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School to commemorate the Battle of Springfield and in the ceremonies, much honor was paid to Colonel Israel Angell and his Second Rhode Island Infantry Regiment for their resistance to the British advance, at the Rahway River.

A few days later, quite unexpectedly, the writer came into possession of a book entitled, "Diary of Colonel Israel Angell, Commanding the Second Rhode Island Continental Regiment during the American Revolution". It was published in Providence, R.I., in 1899, by Edward Field, Historian of the R.I. Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, who states that it was compiled from six original manuscript "journals", in Col. Angell's hand, loaned by descendants of the Colonel. The period covered is from August 20th, 1778 to April 1st, 1781, with some omissions, the most important of which is the first seven months of 1780. It appears that at least one more section of the diary may have existed originally, but failed to survive with the six that did. Although it is definitely disappointing not to have Col. Angell's own account of the Battle of Springfield, there is much of interest in his record of the movements of his regiment and of himself. Also, Mr. Field has furnished, in the book, a comprehensive biography of the Colonel, which is likewise most interesting.

He says, in part: "Israel Angell was a descendant in the fifth generation of Thomas Angell, who came to Providence with Roger Williams; he was the son of Oliver and Naomi (Smith) Angell, and was born in the part of the town of Providence now included in North Providence, in 1740. He had three brothers and two sisters. He received more than the usual education of the youth of that period, for his mother had been a teacher in one of the country schools and was thus able to give her children many advantages of learning. At the time of the Revolution, Israel Angell's home was on a farm at Johnston, on the South Scituate road, not far from Providence, and he was by trade a cooper (maker of barrels, casks, etc.). He was married three times and is said to have contemplated a fourth venture when death terminated his life, in his ninety-second year, on May 31, 1832. He had seventeen children, eleven by his first wife and six by the second. (Their names and dates of birth are given in the biography). No adequate history of his life has ever been written, but articles have, from time to time, appeared in various publications in which his services have been briefly told. Some years ago a descendant (Hon. Anson Burlingame) secured from various sources most of his private papers, the service sword which he carried so honorably through the War, and many other relics and mementoes, for the purpose of using them in preparing a proper record for publication. They were all taken outside of the country, but before they could be put to this purpose, the person in whose custody they were died, and all this valuable material has been lost. No portrait exists to preserve the features and appearance of this striking personage in the history of the War for Independence, but he was described by one who remembered him as: "of medium height, light complexion, auburn hair surmounted by a wig, blue eyes, a strong Roman nose, and straight as a ramrod."

Israel Angell's military career began in 1775, when the "Army of Observation" was ordered raised by the General Assembly of Rhode Island and he was commissioned Major of the regiment commanded by Col. Daniel Hitchcock. This regiment formed a part of the American army laying siege to Boston and bore its part in the events which followed. Upon the formation of the Second Rhode Island Regiment, Daniel Hitchcock was elected Col. and Israel Angell Lieutenant-Colonel, and the regiment was despatched to join the Continental Army, under Washington. Upon the death of Colonel Hitchcock, the command of the regiment was given to Angell, his commission being dated January 13, 1777. This position he held until he retired, in March 1781.

Colonel Angell participated in the battles of Brandywine and Red Bank and was with the army during the terrible winter of 1777-78, at Valley Forge. (He was also with the army during most of the still more terrible winter at Morristown, prior to the Battle of Springfield.)

His regiment bore a conspicuous part in the Battle of Monmouth, and soon after this engagement he, with his regiment, was detached from the main army and sent to Rhode Island to unite with General Sullivan in the operations against the enemy, during the British occupation of Newport. For distinguished services at the Battle of Springfield, June 23, 1780, he was the subject of special mention by General Washington in a letter to Governor Greene of Rhode Island.

By Act of Congress, October 3, 1780, the two Rhode Island regiments were consolidated into one and the command was given to Col. Christopher Greene, who was a cousin to General Nathaniel Greene and had commanded the First Rhode Island Regiment since February, 1777. The consolidation was to be effective January 1, 1781 and Col. Angell planned to retire from the service on that date, but it was not until March 25th that his long journey home from West Point ended and he wrote in his diary:

"Clear and Cold. My wagon Come up this Morning (with his baggage). After breakfast I set forward after having hired Capt. Cacon to help me on as far as Dorrances in Vollen town where I arrived and dined, then went on to my own house, found my family well. Left my wagon to come on as fast as possible and thus Ends the Service with me."

After his retirement from military life, Colonel Angell carried on his farm and followed his trade as a cooper; at the same time he was granted license to keep a public house and his tavern was a popular place of resort and was widely known for its excellence and hospitality. Late in life, he moved into the town of Smithfield, where he died.

Following is an extract from Col. Angell's diary, made while his regiment was encamped at Tiverton R.I., and formed a part of the army under Gen. John Sullivan, then engaged in operations against the British forces on Rhode Island. In spite of his "better than average education", the Colonel's punctuation, or rather, lack of it, and his novel use of capitals, more or less common in writings of the period, make for rather difficult reading and a few periods and commas have been inserted to help clarify the meaning. The spelling, however, is as originally written.

AUGUST 29th, 1778 A Clear morning and Very Cool. the Reg't Recd orders last evening to Strike their tents and march to the north end of the Island. the advanced piquet was to come off at 12 o'clock. the enemy finding that we had left our ground, pursued with all possible speed. Come up with our piquet about sunrise and a smart firing begun, the piquet repulsed the British troops 2 or 3 times but was finally obliged to retreat as the Enemy brought a number of field pieces against them. the Enemy was soon check'd by our Cannon in coming up to our main body and they formed on Quaker Hill and we took possession of Buttses Hill. the left wing of the british army was Composed of the Hessians who Attack our right wing and a Sevear engagement Ensued in which the Hessians was put to flight and beat off the ground with a Considerable loss. our loss was not very great but I cannot ascertain the number. I was ordered with my Reg't to a Redoubt on a Small hill which the Enemy was a trying for and it was with Difficulty that we got there before the Enemy. I had 3 or 4 men kill'd and wounded today. at night I ordered with my Reg't to lie on the lines. I had not Slept then in two night more than two or three hours. the Reg't had eat nothing during the whole Day. this was our situation to go on guard, but we marched off Cheartfully and took our post.

Following the evacuation of Newport by the British, in October 1779, all the Continental troops in Rhode Island, which included several other regiments beside Col. Angell's, were ordered to join the main army at Morristown, N.J., and they set off, a regiment or two at a time, on the long march across New England. The Second Rhode Island didn't get under way until about November 11th, as Col. Angell was making every effort to get adequate supplies of clothing, blankets and provisions for his men. They finally reached Morristown on December 13th, after doing 16-20 miles a day through snow storms, mud and water. The last day's entry in the Colonel's diary gives a good example of the conditions with which they had to contend:

13th DECEMBER, 1779 This morning it Rained but broak away and was Clear about Eleven o'clock and the Brigade Marched for Morristown. my Reg't went about 16 miles, a great part of the way over Shoe in mud and. Some places up to the mens' knees in water. we marched very fast untill Some time in the Evening before we got to the place of our Distination.

In August, 1780, they were still at Morristown; in his entry for the 15th Col. Angell says, "This is thought to be the Hottest Day ever known, no Circumstances Relative to the Army worth Mentioning."

A few days later, he was informed by some of his officers that reports were being spread "very prejuditious to my Character" relative to his conduct at Springfield (to the effect that he was absent from his regiment and did not take part in the battle) and he was urged to do something about it. Accordingly, he consulted General Greene about the proper procedure and was advised to ask for a Court of Enquiry to clear it up. The following entries in his diary give the subsequent developments:

Sept. 11th, 1780 This day I applyd to the Commander In Chief (Washington) for a Court of Enquiry which he was pleased to order.

September 14th, 1780 Clear and Cool. this Morning the Court of Enquiry met and proceeded to Enquire into my Conduct on the 23rd of June and Examined all Evidences against me and adjourned.....

17th Sepr., 1780 Pleasant weather. the Court of Enquiry was out this day and finished the Business.

18th Sepr., 1780 Fine weather and Nothing Remarkable this day, till the Orders of the day Come out, when the proceedings of the Court of Enquiry come to light in the following words. "At a Court of Enquiry Calld by desire of Col. Angell to Enquire into a Report Relative to his being absent from his Regiment in the Action at Springfield the 23rd of June last, Col. Nixon President. The Court having heard and duly Considered the Evidences, are unanimously of Opinion that Col. Angell was in the Action of Springfield on the 23rd of June last, with his Regiment and in the Execution of his duty, and Behaved like a Brave and Good officer." Thus ends the day.

Hahne & Co. Opens New Westfield Store

Westfield area residents took a first admiring look at the new Hahne & Company store last Tuesday, when the 2-story white brick and mica fieldstone store opened to a most enthusiastic public.

The store, which is located on North Avenue in Westfield, extending Westward from the Plaza as far as Charles Street, is a 2-story white brick structure of 100,000 square feet. It's Georgian Colonial in design, surrounded by parking space for 500 cars.

The building consists of approximately 100,000 square feet of floor space with two selling floors, surrounded by spacious parking facilities. Designed with the architectural beauty of famous ancestral America, it has three tall wood pillared entrances, and is constructed of white brick and gray mica fieldstone panels.

The new Hahne & Company Westfield has been built to serve as a complete entity independent of its older sisters in Newark and Montclair. It is actually a complete store, not a branch—pleasingly spacious and providing a most complete selection of merchandise.

The huge storage areas located immediately beyond the selling areas enable the store to maintain very large stock reserves.

At the main entrance centered on North Avenue, one enters the store through beautiful glass doors into the heart of the Street Floor. To the right is a dramatic blue and chartreuse art mural focusing attention on the delicate decor of soft lovely pastels and white, which is the decorating theme everywhere. Each department is highlighted with its own coordinated colors that blend into a harmonious whole. The immediate impression is one of wonderful spaciousness, luxuriously carpeted floors, artistic arrangement of merchandise, elegant accents of specially finished walnut wood, and hand painted art murals.

Colonial style chandeliers designed exclusively for the building are strategically placed throughout this floor—made of carved wood, finished in exquisite Williamsburg aqua-blue with matching shades on candlestick holders.

The escalator well between the two floors features a large shimmering tear drop shaped chandelier of Williamsburg gray with cut crystal balls that sparkle and glow in a fascinating manner.

The lighting was planned to make the most effective use of fluorescent and incandescent lighting creating marvelous visibility in a gracious manner.

The entire store has been planned and executed so that there is an even flow of traffic from department to department. Each of the floors has been designed for a great depth of merchandise selection, and related departments are grouped together for ease of shopping. The most modern, effective equipment for the display of merchandise has been selected—walnut parquet platforms and movable cases highlight dress departments, easily arranged in attractive positions for display purposes. Walls are recessed and painted in soft lovely colors for hanging merchandise—above them are wall panels beautifully hand painted with flower and leaf designs—springlike and refreshing.

The First Floor is devoted to men and women's apparel, accessories, an amazing variety of party decorations, stationery, as well as food and candy delicacies.

One of the significant locations on the first floor is the Designers' Room in soft muted shades of gold and off white. Suspended from the ceiling is a strikingly beautiful antiques gold and cut crystal chandelier. Walls are accented with hand painted ethereal leaf clusters—and marble topped tables, gold velvet chairs, and mirrors are arranged for comfortable viewing of American designers' originals for every hour of the day and evening.

Mrs. W.B. Bohannon of 172 N. Euclid Ave., Westfield, a member of the staff of this department says she "loves the relaxing atmosphere, so lovely and luxurious, and the large beautiful collections of regular and custom size designers' fashions, especially the knits—suits—after five—and special occasion dresses."

Another spot on the first floor is the section devoted to "The Junior Miss Shops". It is decorated in off white with young, gay pastel flowers and butterfly murals. Miss Jeanne Dlouhy, 839 Embree Crescent, Westfield and Miss Gale Aurand, 712 Willow Grove Rd., Westfield are starting their retail careers here, and both say "We have here—just everything! The girls in Westfield just love it! We never saw so many gorgeous things we want!"

Another area is devoted to sportswear and town-country apparel for suburban living. Then there are the Fine Furs, Coats, Suits and Dress Departments, each highlighted with their own beautiful colorful decor.

Adjacent to the West side entrance from the parking area is the section devoted to the Men's Store and University Shop. Here is an array of merchandise for men and students including everything from formal attire to sportswear. Mr. Alexander Anthony of 149 Elmer St., Westfield—department manager of the Men's Store says "This is the most complete collection of men's wear I have ever seen in a department store."

Behind the scenes is a continuing system of fitting rooms—over a hundred—spanning the first floor departments. Decorated in soft yellow and beige to blend with their respective departments—all with carpeted floors and louvered doors.

Escalators built to Hahne & Company specifications move smoothly to the upper floor—colored to achieve a feminine appearance and to blend gracefully into the store's decor.

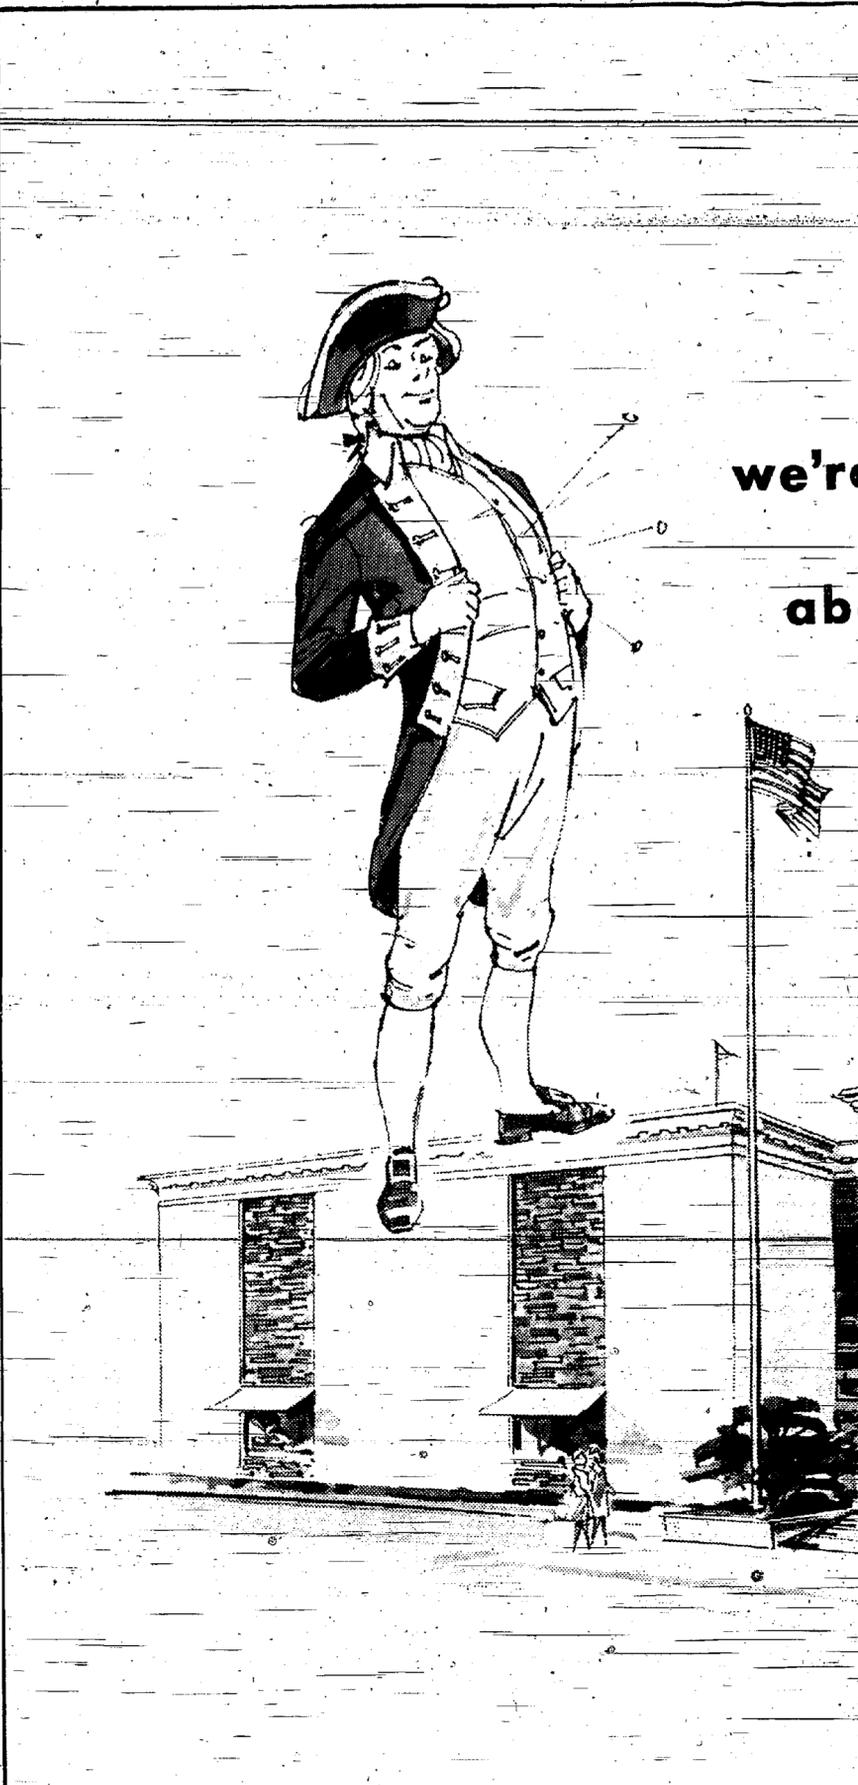

An outstanding feature, not only of this floor but of the entire store, is the "Georgian Room"—a tea room created with a beautiful atmosphere for calm, leisurely dining. It is decorated in antiqued ash gray wall panels outlined in gold and aqua—highlighted with original paintings of the Colonial period and exquisite chandeliers and sconces of gold and aqua—furnished in beautiful walnut. Picture windows looking out over the Plaza are dramatically accented with elegant striped draperies.

Visitors now have the opportunity to inspect the dining area and the all-steel, most modernly equipped kitchen, which is designed with great precision for utmost efficiency.

Miss Lillian Loud of Duncan Hill, Westfield, one of the executives in the store, is enthusiastic in her praise of the dining room, saying "Westfield has long needed a beautiful store where people can shop and dine and find their every need under one roof." She also said "Wall to wall carpeting throughout the entire selling areas is such an improvement."

The Second Floor is devoted to home furnishings and children's departments. Each cor-

Springfield Children Set Hiking Example

The new fad of hiking prompted two Springfield children to successfully prove their fitness. On Sunday, the children of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Losanno of 21 Mapes Ave. set out to slush their way through melting snow to their grandparents' home in Plainfield.

Ralph, who is 11 years old and a 6th grader at Florence M. Guadineer School, started from his home, walking along Broad St., Westfield, where he was joined in the walk by his 8 year old sister Loretta, who is a 2nd grader at Walton School.

Ralph walked a total of 7 miles-Loretta 5. This was done without resting along the way. Both said they felt as though they could easily walk another 7 miles, if they could first take time to dry out their wet feet!

CHRISTIAN F. FRITZ, Chief of Police of Mountainside, who is Chairman of Police Chiefs Radio Network Program is shown with Peter J. McDonough, Union County Freeholder and Thomas Walsh, Deputy County Disaster Control co-ordinator.

Regional's "Once Upon A Mattress" Acclaimed First Rate Performance

by Arnold Miniman

On March 8th and 9th, the music and drama departments of Jonathan Dayton Regional High School presented "Once Upon A Mattress". This riotous-musical version of the Princess and the Pea proved to be superb-entertainment for the crowds that gathered in Halsey Hall at 8:15 p.m. of the mentioned dates.

Mardia Melroy and Joseph Trinity, the musical and stage directors managed to get first rate performances from the talented teenagers, who expressed their parts clearly and faultlessly.

Briefly, the play is about young prince Dauntless (Alan Yablonsky), who is anxious to marry, but is forced to wait until his mother, the Queen (Barbara Myhrberg) finds a suitable princess for him. Many candidates are turned down, but Sir Harry (Don Calabrese) searched the country until he found a real, though-wild, princess named Winnifred (Sue Rivkind).

Winnifred, or "Fred" as she was called, won the admiration of all by swimming the palace moat, but the haughty Queen was set upon keeping her meek son a bachelor. The King (Richard Freedman) was impressed with "Fred's" swimming, and, although he could not speak until "the mouse devoured the hawk" he assisted the minstrel (Paul Biddleman) and the court jester (Steve Rosenthal), who were trying to discover the test that "Fred" would have to pass to marry Dauntless.

The test was sensitivity, which "Fred" passed since she was, after all, a true princess. Dauntless stood up for his rights, and everyone lived happily ever after, except the Queen, who lost her voice as the King regained his.

The play itself was good, though choppy in certain spots, with Yablonsky and Rivkind excelling in their comical roles. Miss Rivkind was also captivating in her singing, although Yablonsky's fine voice was not used to full advantage.

The vocal highlights of the play were the duets that Don Calabrese and Helene Rau sang. Miss Myhrberg, the Queen with aches and pains, and Freedman, the King who spent the balance of the play chasing pretty maidens around the castle, helped make the show a success through their excellent performances.

Every castle has its magician, and Marty Menkin portrayed the vain wizard of the kingdom capably. Marty, along with Biddleman and Rosenthal, helped capture the attention of the audience during the sustaining scenes.

Walton School PTA Plans Next Meeting March 18

The next regular meeting of the Edward V. Walton Parent-Teacher Association will be held Monday evening, March 18th at 8:15 p.m. in the school auditorium.

The program for the evening, "Science and Mathematics in the Grades" will be presented by the Messrs. Stewart S. Mulvihill and Robert Oldehoff, Jr., presently serving as Teacher-Consultants for the Springfield School System.

Mr. Mulvihill graduated in 1956 from the Clifford J. Scott High School and received his B.A. in chemistry from Montclair State College in June, 1960. His practice teaching was done at the F.M. Gaudineer School under the supervision of Miss Helene Kosloski. During college, his favorite hobby was "aqua-lunging" in the Atlantic. His summer work included two years as an industrial chemist and, in that capacity spent some time in Huntsville, Ala. working for N.A.S.A. at the Marshall Space Flight Center. He married last June and is now residing in Springfield.

Mr. Oldehoff graduated from Roselle Park High School where he was active on the varsity football and baseball teams. After High School he enlisted in the U.S. Navy for two years and served on the destroyer U.S.S. Joseph P. Kennedy, Jr. as a 3rd class Petty Officer, Radar Operator. After service he went to Montclair State Teachers College and graduated in 1952 with a B.A. degree. He majored in mathematics and minored in both physical science and elementary education. He was also active on the varsity football team at this time. After graduation, he continued at Montclair at night classes and received an M.A. degree in 1956 in Supervision and Administration of Elementary and Secondary Schools. Before coming to Springfield, he taught in Roselle Park High School, Maplewood Jr. High School, and Ramapo Regional High School. He is teaching 7th and 8th grade mathematics in Gaudineer School. He recently represented Springfield as a member of a group from the sending districts to the Regional High School system. This group met for two years with members of the State Dept. of Education and studied modern mathematics programs in use in other systems in the state and country. As a result of this committee's work, the sending districts have adopted the "School Mathematics Study Group" program of mathematics.

He is presently a Teacher-Consultant for the Springfield School System, working with lower grades in various areas of mathematics and was formerly a treasurer of the F.M. Gaudineer PTA. He is married and has two boys: Bobby 4 1/2 and Stevie 2 1/2.

With the age of Science and Mathematics at hand, the enthusiasm of these men has served as a stimulus for our children and this program will help to enlighten the parents with their informal and natural approach. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Howard Bernstein and her able committee.

Two Hikers Claim New Record

This is a special note to the Chisholm Chickens and all others concerned, according to the sources of this article. Recently, Feb. 22 to be exact, four youthful juniors at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School made the 50 mile jaunt to Mt. Freedom and return in what was claimed to be the record time of 9 hours 10 minutes. Well, the record has fallen, and the new record goes to two seniors at Regional. Their time, 8 hours 6 minutes.

Jack Everett of 539-A Morris Avenue and Don Stewart of 137 Salter Street, both 18 and members of the Black Horde Athletic Club made the journey over the same route on Sunday, March 10 and returned home to claim the new record with an added claim of resting only 35 minutes. To substantiate their claim, the duo said they left Springfield at 5:50 A.M. and returned home at 2:40 p.m. on the same day.

WIDOWS' INCREASE
NEW YORK (UPI) - Widows in the population have been outnumbering widowers by a continuously increasing margin, statisticians at the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. report. The reasons: the higher mortality among men and the higher remarriage rate among widowers. At present, the ratio of widows to widowers is four to one. Fifty years ago, it was a little more than two to one.

Three bankers from Union County are attending the first annual Data Processing School of the New Jersey Bankers Association Sunday through Friday, March 10-15, at Princeton. The school, which is the first state-wide school of its kind in the country, has been designed by the NIBA Electronics Committee to provide New Jersey banks with information and training on automation subjects.

Bankers from Union County registered for the new school are: John J. Noll and Richard O. Woodfield, Union County Trust Co., Elizabeth, and Herbert C. Brooke, Plainfield Trust State National Bank.

The curriculum of the Data Processing School includes courses on Principles of Data Processing, Commercially Available Data Processing

AGING IN KENTUCKY
WASHINGTON (UPI) - Old age, retirement and life after 60 has its problem wherever you live. But a recent survey by the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the University of Kentucky shows there are differences between old age in the country and old age in the city.

For example, men in Casey County, Kentucky, reported substantially smaller annual incomes than those living in Lexington, an urban area. The country dwellers had annual incomes of $815 compared with $2,256 for the city dwellers. But the income of Lexington's older men dropped more sharply with age than did that of farm residents.

A record in donations to religious and charitable organizations has been set by this year's Channel Times Co. fundraiser, according to B. R. Charin, vice-president. This was the fifth year that Channel has marked Brotherhood Week-by-donating 10 percent of the retail price of each purchase during that week to the religious group or charity specified by the customer. Donations were made in the name of the patron.

Charin said that checks were sent to more than 200 organizations. All Channel stores, in Newark, Springfield, Sayreville, Clinton and Livingston took part.

TEEN TALK

By EDIE BELL

Two very receptive audiences viewed the musical "Once Upon A Mattress" given by the music and drama departments of Dayton Regional on Friday and Saturday nights, March 8 and 9. Everyone agreed that it was a truly enjoyable evening of acting, singing, dancing, and several curtain calls.

I am happy to announce that the Black Horde Athletic Club, represented by Don Stewart and Jack Everett, has broken the record for the fifty-mile trek from Springfield to Mt. Freedom set by the Chisholm Chickens on Washington's Birthday. The two boys left from the Presbyterian Church at 5:50 A.M. on Sunday and returned at about 2:40 P.M. Their walking time was a little over eight hours; they spent only about 35 minutes

Freeholders Plan Law Enforcement Radio Link

A plan to link law enforcement units throughout Union County to provide swift handling of disasters or crime was accepted here today by the Board of Chosen Freeholders. The plan is keyed to radio transmitters and receiving equipment to be located in twenty three county locations, it was explained by Freeholder Peter J. McDonough, who will be responsible for implementing the program.

resting. The new champions have issued a challenge to anyone (especially the Chisholm Chickens) to bet their new, outstanding record.

Be sure to come out to the Dayton News Dance which will be held at Regional on Friday night, March 22. The highlight of the evening will be the announcements of the four class queens.

Don't forget that tomorrow is the last day to buy bids for this year's Senior Ball, "Moonlight and Roses," which will be held on April 5 at the Martinsville Inn.

At 3:30 P.M. tomorrow, the annual Student-Faculty Basketball game will be held in the boys gym at Regional Sponsored by the Key Club, this event is one you will not want to miss; be sure to come see the students romp on the faculty!

If you have any news, please call me at Dr 9-2919.

McDonough explained that each municipality as well as the County Park Police, the Sheriff Department, and the Department of Civil Defense will have transmitting and receiving facilities. A Freeholder Committee under McDonough's direction will begin examining bids today.

The equipment consists of a base station with remote control or telephone line remote control and a tower of at least ninety five feet above the ground.

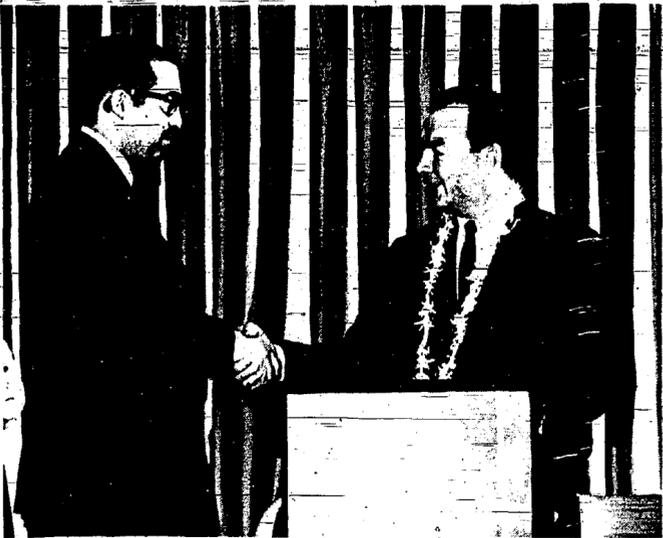

When the entire system is completed, McDonough said it will be used to blanket the County in times of emergency such as the recent Clark Township explosion. With this system, police could have routed traffic around the area.

A police network can also be thrown up with extreme speed to handle the chase of criminals, like those involved in last year's Plainfield murders, McDonough explained.

McDonough explained that many towers now exist and in many cases will need only a mast or antenna. "We are excited about both the law enforcement possibilities and the control of problems arising from natural disasters that this plan makes possible," he said.

Winds Up First Mill Winter Season

"Come Blow Your Horn," starring Menasha Skulnik, which opened at the Paper Mill Playhouse in Millburn, Tuesday evening winds up the first winter season in 10 years at the theatre.

The comedy, which ran for two years on Broadway, has been extended to six weeks instead of the announced two because of the heavy demand for tickets. It will continue through Sunday evening, April 7. Sunday evening performances, incidentally, begin at 8 rather than 8:30.

Frank Carrington and Laurence Feldman, producers of the Paper Mill Playhouse, expressed pleasurer today that the season had been so successful, and plan to continue the policy next winter.

Spring will begin at the Paper Mill on Tuesday evening, April 16, when French star Genevieve opens in "Irma La Douce", the musical which ran in Paris for four years, London for two and Broadway for a year and a half. After the four week run of "Irma", Betsy Palmer and William Chapman will return in "The King and I" on May 14 for a four week run.

The kiddies, however, are never forgotten at the Mill. "Pinocchio" will be presented at the Playhouse this Saturday morning, March 16 at 11 A.M.

American Mothers have been chosen from all walks of life and many races and creeds. The 1962 New Jersey Mother was Mrs. Beatrice Augusta Lawson Johnson of Andover.

Recreation Commission State League Playoffs

STATE LEAGUE PLAY-OFFS
TEXAS, CALIFORNIA
UTAH AND FLORIDA WIN

The Springfield Recreation Commission State League play-offs got under way last Saturday, with three of the four contests exceptionally well-matched and very close. In the opening contest of the 4-game card, Texas came up with an excellent team effort to post an easy 28-15 win over North Carolina. Mike Krautblatt's 14 point effort was the season's high for the mighty mite, getting help from Don Cubberly and Bob Toll. Danziger and May the top performers for the losing North Carolina five. The second game was a low scoring game as both clubs were extremely tight, and just couldn't find the basket. California triumphed after a very slow first half, with Richmond, Zabelski, and Tedres the standouts. Spielman and Schoch the top men for the losing Wildcats.

The third game of the afternoon was easily the best contest of the day as Utah scored an overtime 20-18 win over West Virginia. Joel Schwartz was the hero for Utah, scoring on a short layup after 45 seconds of play of the sudden death overtime period. Howie Tiss played exceptionally well for the West Virginians, with Mark Edelstein carrying most of the scoring Utah burden during the contest. In the finale Florida nipped Wyoming 21-20, with Bobby Catapano sparking the win, Gary Ginsburg, Pete Sayki and Gary Haydu the best for the losing Wyoming cowboys.

JR. MINUTEMEN TRIM HILLSIDE, LOSE TO UNION P.A.L.
The Springfield Recreation Junior Minutemen split two assignments last week, winning against the Hillside P.A.L., then losing 48-39 to the strong Union P.A.L. on Saturday morning.

Wednesday the locals had too much savvy for the Hillside, with LaSota, Belliveau and Sheehan the standouts.

Saturday morning the Jr. Minutemen came acropper to a bunch of jumping jacks from the Union P.A.L., losing 48-39, although rallying from a halftime deficit of 23-15 to force a tie, with two minutes to play, but Union won easily with a flurry of baskets in the final minute of play.

Bobby Belliveau, Mike Lester and Brian Sheehan were the standouts for the junior Minutemen, with Pete Hayes of the Union five the top scorer for the winners.

SENIOR BASKETBALL LEAGUE
MOUNTAINEERS AND DEVRONS
WIN SENIOR CAGE LEAGUE GAMES

The Mountaineers and the Devrons looked impressive in posting easy victories last Wednesday night at the Florence Gaudineer School gym. In the opening half of the twin bill the Meekers jumped off to a 17-13 lead at halftime, but couldn't withstand the heavy bombardment of the Mountaineers in the last half. The game was rather tame in the first half as the undermanned Meekers tossed in several timely goals, with the Mountaineers experiencing difficulty in finding the basket. In the second half the Conlin brothers came thru with 22 points, which proved too much for the tiring Meeker five.

In the bottom half of the double-header the Devrons trimmed the Blackhawks 36-23 in a rather shabby exhibition, with Teddie Schuss, Freddie Wolf and Ronnie Golcher the leading lights for the winners, Monk Meincke the top performer for the losers.

CONTINUE AT SANDMEIR

The Raiders, Browns, and Giants were the victorious teams last Saturday afternoon at the Sandmeir School gym, with the Lions and Pirates losing their second games of the double-elimination tournament.

The Raiders by winning 15-10 over the Indians is now in the all-winning bracket and will face the winner of the Brown-Giants game, who have already sustained single losses. A team must lose twice in order to be eliminated from the double knockout tournament.

Ricki Williams, Jeff Morris, and Keith Browple were the sparks for the Raiders, with George Ackerbrook the top performer for the losers. The Lions were stopped by the Browns as Fred Gold and Richie Deutsch collaborated for an easy win, the loss eliminated the Browns from further play. The last game of the afternoon was a real thriller as the Giants won in overtime over the Pirates, the score 13-7, with Alan LeBouef and Henry Zachau tossing home the winning goals. The Pirates by losing were forced to the sidelines.

JAMES CALDWELL SMALL-FRY - PLAYOFFS IN HIGH GEAR
The Aggies, Billikens and Knicks are still in the thick of the double-elimination Small-Fry championship playoffs, with the Nats and the Bullets on the sidelines. In the only one sided contest of the afternoon the Aggies posted an easy 21-7 win over the Nats and will face the Billikens this Saturday in the big battle of the "crucial" playoff series. The second game of the afternoon will find the Pistons and Knicks clashing, with the loser facing elimination.

The Knicks forced the Bullets to the sidelines by winning 17-15 in a real battle. Chotiner and Stokes were the sparks for the winners, with Gacos, Fox and Sarokin the standouts for the losing Bullets.

The Billikens and the Pistons battled to the final whistle, with the Bills winning by a single tally to remain unbeaten in the playoffs. Zabelski and Janukowicz teamed up to provide the scoring punch for the Bills, with Bucci the best for the Pistons.

Jonathan Dayton Regional Is Fifth

High School track does not get into full swing until the outdoor season starts next month, but an important phase of competition, the indoor track season, ended last Saturday with the Union County Relays.

Springfield has little to do with the indoor season, but teams were sent to the Relays and Regional garnered five points to place sixth in the meet.

The Jonathan Dayton distance medley team placed second to Thomas Jefferson High of Elizabeth, in 8:43 time, collecting four points. The team consisted of Glen Thomas, Miller; Rich Eckert, 880; Drew Waestman, 440 and Hand Sabolak, who ran the 220.

The Bulldog shuttle hurdle team placed fifth, with a time of 37.5 seconds to gain the final Regional point. Rich Moore, Jim Mullin, Pete Creede and Don Calabrese comprised the foursome.

Charles Roll placed sixth for Springfield in the 16 pound shot put throw, with a toss of 42 feet, one-half inch.

Jefferson and Plainfield tied for the team title with 17 points.

Anyone who would like to assist in this program but cannot attend the meeting should contact Del Tompkins at DR 9-2490. He will take names and areas of interest from anyone who calls.

Another topic for discussion will be the try-out system. Any suggestions or ideas along this line will be received and discussed during the meeting. Try-outs will be held on Saturday, March 30 at the Meisel Avenue Field starting at 9 a.m.

Anyone having an interest in boys or baseball is urged to attend the meeting on March 21. Without the help of more men, the baseball program may not be as successful as it has been in the past. Cooperation from interested parties is urged to help make the 1963 season a major success.
