EDITORIAL MEMOS - - -

Municipal officials—all over the state—are beating their breasts and shaking their timid fists at the New Jersey State Highway poo-bah, Commissioner Dwight R.G. Palmer, but he hasn't yet trumped his partner's ace or missed a 3-foot putt during any of the hysterical shouting.

Mr. Palmer, who has refused to let any plans for highway construction in New Jersey detour him from any of his personal interests, merely ignores frantic letters from municipal officials and keeps looking out of the window when there are any person-to-person telephone calls.

Commissioner Palmer has established some kind of a record in not acknowledging official letters from Springfield, dating way back to the days of Mayor Albert J. Binder.

When the Democrats took over control of Springfield's administration—residents of the Township fastened their seat belts. "Now we'll see some action", they shouted gleefully. "Mr. Palmer is a Democrat, his job as Highway Commissioner came from a Democratic governor and you know how members of the same political party get quick results."

Springfield begged him to, PLEASE, do something about the exposed trolley rails on Morris Avenue because of the many accidents caused by these tracks. Nothing was done by Mr. Palmer. Telephone calls by Springfield officials were switched to members of Mr. Palmer's staff or engineering department.

The same situation prevails to this day. Not only in Springfield but in, practically, every other municipality except, perhaps, Middlesex County.

Plans and engineering studies on the proposed new federal highway No 78, have been on the drawing board for approximately 10 years. Hundreds and hundreds of thousands of dollars have been given by Highway Commissioner Palmer to outside engineering firms to work out the many details of this federal highway construction program. All this in addition to the work done by the highway department's own engineering department. But the details and problems are still here.

It would be a waste of time and type to discuss the so-called public hearings on the proposed route of the highway as it swished through Springfield. The very same alignment, shown on the 10 year old maps, is now the route for Highway 78.

Mr. Palmer and his engineers WOULD NOT accept a single suggestion on altering the course of the roadway. Springfield officials and engineers submitted an alternate route which would have saved many ratables for the Township but Mr. Palmer didn't want to do any erasing or changing of the pictures drawn by the out of town engineers.

So Springfield was resigned to the alignment even though it cut through one of the finest residential areas. The proposed alternate alignment would have saved these homes.

Last spring Mr. Palmer sent in his boys to warn owners of the properties in the path of the proposed highway that "you have only three months to get out of your homes. Work will start no later than October."

That was last year—1962. Since then Mr. Palmer's highway department has acquired many of the properties needed for the right of way but that's about as far as they have gone.

Today there are many little problems still to be ironed out by Springfield officials. Contact has been made with the Highway Department and some conferences are being held.

BUT the trolley rails in Morris Avenue are still exposed. And the promise of work on the new highway being started is just another promise.

Springfield isn't alone in appraising Mr. Palmer's interest as far as highway building is concerned.

There are shouts of impatience from every community where Mr. Palmer has any highway construction plans.

He is too busy, anyway, with his railroads, getting the taxpayers of New Jersey to pay millions so that the club cars on commuting trains can keep on schedule.

Union County voters, crossing the usual political party lines, are organizing a special effort to elect Mrs. Lorraine Lewis, of Springfield, to the Board of Freeholders in the coming Democratic primaries to make sure that a woman is retained as a member of that important board. Freeholder Mary C. Kanane is, at present, the only woman member of the Freeholder Board. She has decided not to run for re-election and, instead, is the Republican choice to run for the office of Surrogate.

Because there are so many problems to be solved by a woman member of the Board of Freeholders, voters throughout Union County hope to attract support for "Lorrie" Lewis in her candidacy for this important office.

Mrs. Lewis, an active Democrat for many years, is a graduate of Hunter College, New York City, where she earned an A.B. degree and has been an ardent student of civic and political affairs.

Present Freeholder Thomas Dunn is general campaign manager for Mrs. Lewis and other members of the Democratic ticket headed by Assemblyman John J. Wilson, candidate for New Jersey State Senator.

In addition, a group of Springfield residents, appreciating Mrs. Lewis' qualifications and eager to have her elected to the Board of Freeholders as the first Township woman to an important county office, have organized "a local task force, to include Democrats, Independents and people of all political ideals, in behalf of Lorrie Lewis."

Volunteers are offering to help and already more than 30 residents have accepted assignments in various parts of the Township to help the local woman's candidacy.

The group calls itself the "Springfield Citizens For Lorrie Lewis," and many well known names already appear on the assignment lists.

Frank Shimshock, of 184 Pitt Road, and Mrs. Helen Forster, of 4 Craig Road, are designated as co-chairmen of the Springfield campaign.

Other members of this working committee are Mrs. Macy Gooen, former Township Committeeman Daniel Lucy, Shelley Fried, William Savarin, Mrs. Norman Levine, Mrs. Helen Gordon, Mrs. Miriam Gershen, Mrs. Rayna Keane, J. Benj. Sussman, Mrs.

Sonya Dorsky, Mrs. Lucille Weiss, Mrs. Barbara Rothfeld, Mrs. Lillian Cardinal, Anthony Cucuzella, Mrs. Sylvia Bender, Mrs. Rosalie Harris, Mrs. Esther Singer, Milt Marcus and Mrs. B. Katz.

Many others are volunteering to help Mrs. Lewis and the committee will announce the additional names as soon as the work assignments are made.

Mrs. Lewis addressed a group of her volunteer workers, speaking briefly concerning the activities of the freeholders and the history and administration of the John Runnels Hospital.

Letters to The Editor

Springfield Free Public Library
To the Editor:

Dear Sir:
The editorial concerning library expansion was very pleasing to those of us who are actively connected with the library. We hope it will evoke favorable comments and an increase of interest in securing more adequate library facilities for the residents of Springfield.

The Library Board of Trustees for the past several months have been viewing the growth of both the town and the library facilities over the past ten years. In looking ahead, the Board realizes that in order to provide expanded services, serious thought must be given to a new library building.

We also appreciate the series of articles "Know Your Library" which have been featured in the Springfield Sun. Each week there has been a picture and article on different members of the staff and the Board in order that our residents might get to know those, who make the services of the library possible.

Sincerely,
K. R. Hetzel, Jr.
President
Board of Trustees

Chamber of Commerce Year is Shaping Up

The Springfield Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors had much of interest to discuss and act upon at their last regular meeting on March 13, 1963.

Teen-Age Republicans Getting Age Recognition

The Springfield Teen-Age Republican Club will be recognized as a member of the Union County Teen-Age Republican Club at a meeting to be held on Thursday, March 28, 1963. Representing the Springfield Club at the meeting will be the temporary officers: Paul Penard, Tom Speake, Jane Adams, Marty Menkin and Craig Mattice.

At the last regular meeting of the Springfield Teen-Age Republican Club, which was held on Friday, March 15, 1963, at 7:30 p.m., the by-laws were written; thereby completing the Constitution of the Club.

The next meeting will be held on Friday, March 29, 1963 at 7:30 p.m. All members and interested teen-agers are urged to attend. Refreshments will be served.

For further information and location of the meeting, phone either Paul Penard, DR 6-0779, or Craig Mattice, DR 6-3406.

School Board Commended

The Springfield Board of Education was commended in a letter from Edward A. Spare, New Jersey State Consultant of School Plant Planning, regarding plans to put an addition to the Raymond Chisholm School.

Mr. Spare stated: "The approach to the expansion of this school situated on a small site of approximately four acres appears to be an effective and desirable approach to a sound solution. Based on the information available to us we would like to commend the Board on its plan to demolish the existing old wing and replace it with a modern, larger facility".

The School Board seeks public approval in a referendum to be held in early May.

was a report on the very successful Chamber of Commerce Annual Dinner Dance. All reports were that everyone had a wonderful time, and wheels were put in motion to plan for next year's Dinner Dance. Mr. Vincent Bonadies has accepted the chairmanship and thereby success is assured again for next year.

The other committee chairmanships were appointed and they include: Industrial Committee - Joseph Dickey, Merchants Committee - Will Salesky, Professional Committee - James Cawley, Publicity Committee - Harvey Schramm, Membership Committee - Henry Grabarz and Civic Committee - William Koonz and Henry Grabarz.

Also By-laws Committee - James Cawley, Projects Committee - Will Salesky, Urban Renewal Committee - Henry Grabarz and Christmas Lights Committee - Will Salesky.

The Christmas Lights Committee has expressed the feeling that the problems with collection of monies to put on a Christmas display has dictated some major change in policy to be considered. Last year Summit and Millburn had no Christmas lights due to the apathy and reluctance to support them. While Chatham, only through the efforts of the children in town and their work were able to have lights for the Christmas season.

With our knowledge of the many questions raised and the adverse affect on the Yuletide atmosphere in those towns without any decorations, lets hope it doesn't happen here. In order to help assure that Springfield continues to have Christmas lights and that the drain on the Chamber of Commerce's slim funds are kept to a minimum, this year they are going to collect before Christmas instead of soliciting after Christmas.

The Chamber has been invited to attend a Board of Education meeting "Operation up-to-date", March 20th, and they will have representatives there.

At the next Board of Directors meeting an expert from the "United Fund" is to be their guest. The Chamber is hoping to explore the feasibility of a "United Fund" for Springfield.

Local County Committee Slate Unfilled; Lack Of Enthusiasm Here?

The first rung of a political ladder is, usually, membership in the municipal county committee.

This is the local county committee to which a man and woman from both the Republican and Democratic parties are elected in each of the election districts.

Springfield has 13 districts which means that there should be 13 men and the same number of women elected at each primary. These county committee members carry on the mechanics of political activities in each municipality and the work is important in every campaign.

This year, both the Republicans and Democrats have failed to arouse enough enthusiasm to completely fill all the places on the Springfield County Committee in the 13 election districts.

The Republican organization in Springfield has 10 vacancies on this important political machine and the Democrats have 12.

The Republicans were able to fill both places in District No. 1 as were the Democrats. However, the local GOP could get only a woman candidate in District 2 while District No. 4 for both parties but the Democrats have no county committeemen or committee-woman in the 4th, 5th and 6th districts.

The Springfield GOP could find no active workers in the 6th and 7th districts. The Republicans were able to fill both the male and female spots in the 8th, 10th, 12th and 13th districts.

The 10th, one of the strongest districts for the Democrats, will have full strength as will the 8th and 12th, but the other remaining districts either have only one or no representation.

Following is the complete list of candidates for Springfield County Committee with Louis F. Ceithaml, of 3 Surrey Lane, the Democratic candidate for the one place on the Township Committee, and William F. Koons, 110 Baltusrol Way, as the Republican standard bearer for the vacancy on the governing body:

Report From Trenton
By Nelson F. Stumler
State Senator R-Union

Can we help the "Under-achiever" -- the intelligent student who refuses to apply himself and eventually ends up as a drop-out?

This is a critical question for the educational community as well as those concerned with teenage unemployment, juvenile delinquency and an adequate supply of trained new young people.

And, I think an answer has finally been devised by young people themselves. It is an application of the Peace Corps principle to the local school situation -- and it might be called the Tutorial Corps. In essence it works like this:

A college student volunteers to serve two or three hours a week as a combination friend-and-tutor to some student who has the gray matter but because of a poor outlook, perhaps due to an underprivileged environment, refuses to take his education seriously.

They team up and the college student through instruction, discussion and example shows his younger ward that success in Junior High School or High School is his best investment for the future.

All the evidence available to date indicates that the under-achiever is impressed by this interest and help he gets from somebody who perhaps just a few years earlier might have been in his shoes.

Certainly, the under-achiever has the resources to be tapped. This has been demonstrated in the Higher Horizons Programs in New York City and elsewhere. Children from slum backgrounds given proper education and instruction have blossomed into outstanding students.

As for the principles of the helping hand this is successfully embodied in the Boy Scout movement, Big Brother movement, Police Athletic League and Youth Boards everywhere.

Right now in New Jersey a group of Princeton students are serving as tutors for some promising but not persevering students in East Trenton.

It is my feeling that Rutgers students and those at the State Colleges comprise an immense and untapped source for the tutorial approach. Some have already spoken to me. They manifest the same zest and idealism that fuels the Peace Corps. They want to contribute.

Many of these students have had to surmount real obstacles to pursue a higher education themselves and they are especially equipped to help the under-achiever because they know the factors which can turn a constricted view of life into a constructive one.

Perhaps the only other ingredient required is a "roll up our sleeves and let's get started" attitude.

KNOW YOUR LIBRARY Mrs. Helen S. Keller Is In Charge Of Children's Department At Library

Mrs. Helen S. Keller, Children's Librarian at the Springfield Public Library, is in charge of circulation, reference, reading guidance, and all Special Services in connection with the Children's Department.

Mrs. Keller is in charge of the weekly Pre-School Story Hours and the Summer Reading Program. Before launching the latter program she makes visits to all the school classes each year to give book talks. She conducts classes for the schools at the Public Library for Library Orientation and Instruction in the Use of the Library.

The newest service Mrs. Keller has initiated is the Junior Reviewers. This is made up of a representation of fifth grade students from all the elementary public schools and St. James. They meet every third Saturday to report orally or by written evaluation on books for the upper elementary grades. At times books on music, science, poetry and travel will be integrated with the use of audio-visual aids in recordings and slides. At various intervals these reviews appear in the Springfield Sun.

She has also organized a group of younger volunteer helpers in the fifth and sixth grades, known as the "Junior Friends of the Library". They report after school to help stamp books during the rush period and are also helpful in the "tidy-up" shelf work. Many of this group are getting training for work as future pages in the library.

Mrs. Keller wishes to be quoted as saying "Springfield is unusually blessed with healthy, happy, well-adjusted and intellectually curious junior citizens".

Born in Duluth, Minnesota, she received her undergraduate education in Buffalo, New York. She holds a B.A. degree from the University of Buffalo and has done graduate study in Dramatics and Speech at Columbia University.

A very-very-special thank you to all the volunteer workers from Springfield who have given their time and effort for the Blood Bank. Jeanette Lizerman of 5 Lynn Drive, who is the chairman of the Volunteer Registered Nurses, told me of this great response on behalf of the community. Thank you very much.

Best wishes to Mr. Everett Kaufman of Country Club Lane who celebrated his 40th birthday with a surprise party on March 7th at his home. Many returns of the day.

Don't forget the Senior Prom of the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School on Friday night, April 5th at the Martinsville Inn.

WELCOME TO THE WORLD DEPT. A baby boy born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chin of 17 Crescent Road on March 9th, at Overlook Hospital.

Correction; At Jo-Ann Murphy's party reported in this column last week the names should have read Janice and Nancy LaMotta and Ilyse and Susan Prokocimer. Sorry.

If you would like to have a silver dollar, just go up to the Drive-In Window of the National State Bank in the Essex Green Shopping Center and ask for one. Unfortunately, it is an even exchange, you must also give them a dollar.

We can all give a sigh of relief that Spring finally arrived. This past winter has been the coldest it's been in 15 years, and windier than usual. On Dec. 30th, winds blew at 52 m.p.h. with gusts to 81 and the next day at 55 with gusts to 66. Wow!

WELCOME TO THE WORLD: Miss Randy Lee born to Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Feuerstein of 810 South Springfield Ave., on March 17th, at Beth Israel Hospital.

Mr. Edward Ruby, Director of Recreation here in Springfield reports that all contracts have been awarded for the building of the Swimming Pool and they plan on digging very soon. Great!

Bloodmobile Visit on March 18 Produces 122 Pints of Blood

The Bloodmobile visit on Monday, March 18th at the Presbyterian Parish House produced 122 pints of blood from 134 donors reported Henry S. Wright Blood Bank Chairman.

Of this blood given by volunteers, 27 pints were credited to the Red Cross Community bank, and the remainder were donated to the individual group banks as follows: Temple Sharey Sholem, 30 pints; Temple Beth Ahm, 10 pints; The Combined PTA's 26 pints; Saks Fifth Avenue 10 pints; Fire Department, 12 pints; and designated blood for replacement for specific individuals, 7 pints.

Wright stated, "I am pleased with the response given to this bloodmobile visit which should supply sufficient blood to meet the needs of the Township until the next visit. A special feature of this Bloodmobile drive saw the Springfield donors not only building up credits but supplying 17 pints of fresh blood for emergency open heart surgery.

Seven of these went to the Riverdale Hospital in Red Bank, N.J., and 10 pints were picked up by the Presbyterian Hospital in New York City. Blood for open heart surgery must not be over 18 hours old from the time it is received from the donor until used by the patient. As a participating member of the Regional Red Cross Blood Program Springfield was able to provide this blood which may spell the difference between life and death for two patients.

The Springfield Red Cross Bank receives credit for this blood, and the units will be available to use Township whenever we have the need. "This", concluded Wright, "is the true benefit of being a participant in the Regional Blood Program on a replacement basis. Fresh whole blood is always on hand for emergencies, for there is always a Bloodmobile visit scheduled somewhere in the region receiving fresh whole blood from volunteer donors."

Wright expressed appreciation to the many volunteer workers whose time and effort made the Bloodmobile visit a smoothly running and efficient operation and to the volunteer blood donors without whom there could be no Blood Program. A special word of appreciation was expressed to the Presbyterian Church for the use of its excellent facilities, the kitchen, and the nursery room for taking care of children while their parents gave blood.

The Peace Race Topic At Women Voters League

"The Peace Race--New Answers to old Questions" will be the subject of discussion at a public meeting sponsored by the Springfield League of Women Voters Wednesday, March 27, at 8:30 at Gaudineers. The United Nation's role in keeping the peace has been under continuous study by the Foreign Policy Committee of the League for the past year. According to Mrs. Arnold Harlem, Chairman of the Committee,

"Time is running out. Nuclear weapons are getting more destructive. More countries, like France and Red China are capable of producing them. The tensions under which we live today are so great that we must inform ourselves on the peaceful alternatives."

The speakers of the evening will be Dr. Nathan Weiss of Newark State College and Dr. David Frost. They will give the background to the present disarmament negotiations and the audience will participate with questions.

Dr. Nathan Weiss is a native of Newark, N.J. A graduate of Montclair State College, he received his M.A. in government from Rutgers University and PhD in government from N.Y.U.

For 12 years he was a teacher of Social Science at the Fallsburgh Central School, Fallsburg, New York, being appointed Department Head in 1960. He also served as County Historian of Sullivan County for three years, was a member of the Planning Board of the Village of Woodbridge, and one of the originators of the Sullivan and Orange Counties (New York) and in the past year to many groups in New Jersey. A veteran of World War II, he is married and has two children. He is presently an Assistant Professor of Political Science at Newark State College and resides in Cranford, New Jersey.

Dr. David Frost is Chairman of the New Jersey Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy. He is a biologist, medical writer and teacher. Formerly Assistant Professor of Biological Sciences, Rutgers University, he is now a medical writer for the pharmaceutical industry and Adjunct Professor, Science Department, University College, Rutgers University. His research fields are in embryology and genetics. Dr. Frost received his B.S. and M.S. from the College of the City of New York and A PH.D., from New York University in 1960.

Among the questions which will be asked are "What are the main issues between the U.S. and the U.S.S.R. that prevent agreement on steps toward disarmament?" "What are the practical prospects for the realization of genuine peace through universal and complete disarmament and enforceable world law, not in some indefinite future, but within some such period as fifteen years? What is the scope of the United Nations in seeking agreement for arms control and disarmament. Would membership of Red China in the U.N. be desirable from the point of view of trying to get her participation in arms negotiations?

Everyone is urged to attend this challenging meeting next Wednesday, March 27.

Springfield Swim Club Acclaimed By Residents And Business Men Here

The need of a Municipal Swimming Pool in Springfield has been proven without any doubt what so ever by the residents themselves.

Registrations keep pouring in from every section of town. The amount of registrations already received is certainly a vote of confidence by the people of Springfield to those who have toiled these many years to help make this township pool possible.

Now that the Swimming Pool has moved from the discussion stage onto the planning board, and in the very near future will become a reality, these thoughts arose:

1. What affect will it have on the life of the people in Springfield?

2. Will it help to stimulate business locally?

3. Will it increase the value of our present real estate?

4. What influence will it have on our health and social life?

Here are some of the thoughts and opinions to these questions, that were asked of a cross section of the residents of Springfield.

1. FRED BROWN, age 18, Hill-top Court, Springfield

As a teenager, I feel that it will be a wonderful experience to be able to join the other teenagers of Springfield in this type of recreation.

It will aid both the grown ups and teenagers to develop new skills and interest that will help them in future situations.

I refer particularly here to the LIFE SAVING PROGRAM that will be available.

2. JOSEPH SERGI, 111 Briar Hills Circle, Springfield

The Municipal Pool will be an ideal solution to the working man's leisure time.

It will also further good community relationships.

3. MRS. HAROLD D. OGDEN, 111 Baltusrol Way, Springfield

My family was very happy to hear that Springfield would have its own swimming pool this coming summer. Although we reside at our shore bungalow on most weekends and my husband's vacation, we decided to join the Swim Club so that the children and myself could swim during the week too, eliminating long trips to the shore.

The pool will be actually within walking distance of our home.

The future Recreational Program for both children and adults sounds delightful and we are all looking forward to a summer of sun and fun.

4. MR. JOSEPH DIPALMA, Riato Barber Shop, 292 Morris Avenue, Springfield

I feel that the Springfield merchants will surely benefit as a result of the pool. Many people who normally vacation at shore or lake resorts, will remain in town this summer.

I also feel that the pool will not only aid the local merchants but will provide the children of Springfield with the type of recreational facility they need.

5. MR. WILL SALESKY, Reinette Youth Centre, 246 Morris Avenue, Springfield

Why is a Municipal Pool important in Springfield? Because it is a community project where neighbors and friends can enjoy themselves and relax together.

Because in its fruition a positive program, rather than a common disaster was its motivating force

Film "Angry Boy" At Caldwell PTA Session

The regular meeting of the James Caldwell School P.T.A. was held on Monday, March 18, at 8:15 P.M. Mrs. J. Schoch, president, presided. Rabbi Reuben R. Levine of Temple Beth Ahm offered the invocation.

Various committee chairman gave their reports and the 1963-1964 nominees for officers were announced as follows: President, Mrs. D. Martice, Vice President, Mrs. S. Kroeger, Treasurer, Mr. J. Zarrell.

The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. D. Martice, Program Chairman. Under the sponsorship of the Union County Association of Mental Health, a film entitled "Angry Boy" was shown. The film dealt with the problem of hidden hostility in a young boy. Through psychiatric diagnosis and treatment, the basic cause of this emotional disturbance is traced back to the boys mother. This mother, who in trying to prevent her child from having the same unhappy childhood she remembered, "picks" on her son. The boys recovery is soon realized when both mother and son are helped at a child guidance clinic.

Following the film, a discussion was held led by Mrs. L.W. Davis, Psychiatric Social Worker. Mrs. Davis, a resident of Plainfield, New Jersey has had past experiences with Northern New Jersey Mental Hygiene Clinics, New York State Psychiatric Institute and Hospital New York City, and the Bureau of Family Service, Orange, New Jersey. Mrs. Davis, a member of the Academy of Certified Social Workers is a graduate of, or training at the University of Wisconsin, B.A. and Smith College, School for Social Work M.S.S.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. T. J. Straus, Hospitality Chairman and her committee.

Witnesses Minister Cites Bible Knowledge

"We are returning to the Springfield area with more Bible knowledge and zeal to help our neighbors with these good things learned," were the words of Marshall DeCristofaro, president minister of the Springfield Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses. The group returned Sunday evening from the 3-day Metuchen Bible Assembly, March 15-17.

"Who Will Win the Struggle for World Supremacy?" was answered scripturally for a crowd of 2,212 persons including many local residents.

The speaker, Joseph Saia, a traveling District Supervisor of the Watchtower Society, emphasized that "in the struggle for world supremacy earthly governments have a long record of being harsh, without vision, corrupt and breakers of the everlasting covenant by provoking bloody wars. There is, therefore, every good reason why God himself should conquer the world and rule the earth by his Kingdom." He continued by stating that Jehovah God has a right to assert his supremacy over this earth at any time he chooses to do so.

The speaker concluded by encouraging all to take their stand now for God's Kingdom and thus enjoy the paradise conditions prophesied to come to the earth once again. He pointed to Isaiah the 11th Chapter as proof.

"The fact that 36 new ministers were baptized in symbol of their dedication during the Assembly and the excellent attendance for the three days marked the gathering as a fine success," Mr. De Cristofaro explained.

As the convention ended, volunteer workers, both young and old, were seen everywhere cleaning and dusting. "In an hour this place will be spotless," the minister concluded.

REV. W. A. OLSEN, Executive Vice President of Ministerial Department, Northeastern Bible Institute who will conduct Lenten Service at Springfield Methodist Church next Wednesday, at 8 p.m.

Senator Williams Reports Home

Washington, D.C. -- Fifty years ago, when President William Howard Taft signed the bill that created the U.S. Department of Labor, one in every three of America's steel workers was working a 7-day week and half of the steel workers earned less than 18 cents an hour.

Employees in many other industries lived in tiny homes or shacks in company towns, where municipal government was often non-existent and where purchases could be made on high credit terms at the company store.

And, in mines, lofts, and factories, children joined their elders to work long hours for little pay.

A half-century later, as anniversary celebrations begin around the nation -- it's obvious that the Department of Labor has lived up to the hopes its original supporters had for it.

Old abuses have been eliminated for the majority of our citizens. Our scale of human values has gone upwards. Even the most conservative economists now realize that well-paid workers are good consumers and good taxpayers, too.

Encouraging as these gains have been, I think we must recognize in this anniversary year that the Department of Labor and the nation itself are faced today with unprecedented situations of crisis or near-crisis urgency. Life is no longer as simple as it once was, when labor fought for a minimum wage or for the right to bargain collectively. Our problems today are perhaps even more fundamental to the very future of the nation.

There is, for example: A NEW KIND OF UNEMPLOYMENT: We've heard much about "depressed areas" and "pockets of unemployment" in the last few years. It's easy to get the impression that the jobless are found only in certain geographical regions. And it's very true that there are places, including several in New Jersey, where old industries or resources have given out. But now we are faced with several different kinds of unemployment, not just one.

The age group between 16 and 21, for instance, has a jobless rate of 13 per cent (as compared to the national average of 6.1 last month, the highest we've had in 15 months.) Approximately 700,000 of these young Americans are out of school and out of work.

Negroes, facing discrimination and other disadvantages, also have an unemployment rate of about double the national average.

Our older citizens, and many only a few years beyond 40, also have a higher than average rate. Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz, a guest on my television report last week, described them as "the most unattended minority group" in the United States today. He said, "The man or woman who loses his job or her job between the ages of 45 and 62 or 67 has just almost no place to turn today."

What is the cost of unemployment to the United States? President Kennedy gave part of the answer last week in his historic Manpower Report, the first such document ever issued by a President to Congress. He said our continued underuse of human and physical capacity is costing some $30 billion to $40 billion of additional goods and service annually.

Faced by several kinds of unemployment, the Administration is using many new methods of attack, including Are Redevelopment, manpower training, and programs to end discrimination in job-giving. More is necessary, including a major tax cut and programs to train our youth for productive jobs.

The President properly calls unemployment our number one domestic issue, and I think we should recognize this crisis as one of deep meaning to all of us today and in the years ahead. Another danger facing us is:

A MOUNTING FEAR OF STRIKES: Two major strikes within recent months have accelerated a growing wave of concern about major work stoppages. The dock strike cost us an estimated $800 million in lost business and wages, and we still don't know the full cost of the New York newspaper strike.

Such dramatic conflicts have caused many persons to say that collective bargaining is inefficient or even hopeless. I was shocked recently by a poll which showed that a majority of teenagers think collective bargaining is old-fashioned. Sixty-two per cent thought, in fact, that we should have compulsory arbitration.

But when we really look at the record, we find that collective bargaining works amazingly well. Agreements are reached peacefully at least 99 per cent of the time, although we never hear much about such successful agreements. Secretary Wirtz, agreeing that there is good reason to be concerned about major stalemates in a few dramatic cases, said during last week's television report that he is nevertheless encouraged about the prospects of a larger degree of responsibility in emergency disputes.

"I think," he added, "that they (the negotiators) are finding ways which, I hope, will avoid future showdowns of the kind we've had."

In other words, compulsory arbitration and other attempts to force settlements won't work; we have to rely on free labor and free management to find their answers even though the issues sometimes seem to defy settlement. While we work toward that goal, however, we're faced by another clamor against labor:

A CAMPAIGN FOR ANTI-LABOR LAWS: A few years ago, so called "right-to-work" laws were passed in some states because certain groups managed to make legitimate aims of labor appear to be sinister or selfish. Similar efforts are now underway in other directions.

Bills have already been introduced in Congress, for example, to place unions under anti-trust laws. Supporters of such legislation try to make it appear that this would somehow "decentralize" union power. But what are they trying to decentralize? Are they trying to promote "competition" for jobs? Or do they want "competition" to determine how little a union is willing to have its members paid? Unions deal in services performed by human beings. Unions do not manufacture products, and thus they cannot get a stranglehold on any commodity. And yet the "anti-monopoly" forces try to make it appear that they are seeking some sort of reform.

On this issue -- and others that may be thrust forward in the next few months -- I think that we must realize that the last 50 years have given us major, but not imperishable, advances in the labor field. If we endanger collective bargaining with ill-considered anti-strike legislation or restrictive actions, we endanger one of the great forces that keeps our economy free.

This is something to think about during the anniversary celebrations this year. Imperfect as our system is, it is free. Management and labor may often face each other as adversaries, but they have the same basic interest in a strong, growing economy. If we lose sight of this, we lose sight of one of the basic lessons that the last 50 years should have taught us.

receiving high priority treatment this year. Soon after final testimony was taken last Monday before the Senate Subcommittee on Housing, the Subcommittee approved the bill. On Thursday the Full Committee on Banking and Currency reported the bill with several improvements on a few key provisions. Senate Floor action can be expected a week or so after you receive this newsletter.

The 9-6 vote in the full Committee indicates that there was some opposition to the bill, but I think that Senate debate will give supporters a splendid opportunity to reiterate the need for the bill. Its $500 million in grants, spread over a 3-year period, can do more to help us end the rush-hour commuter traffic jam than any other investment this nation could make at this time. Together with necessary highway development in some urban areas, this program should at least end some of the frustration and wastefulness of today's rush hour congestion. If the momentum of past weeks continues, the transit bill may well be the first major Administration legislation to pass in

Naval Reserve Unit At New London Base

Members of the Naval Reserve Training unit, WEPTU-831 stationed in Springfield, visited the U. S. Naval Submarine Base in New London, Conn. for a first-hand look at the training facilities and underwater equipment used in the nation's submarine program.

The group, which is under the command of CDR. George W. Gleim of Springfield, inspected the S. S. Irex, one of the fleet of submarines operating in the Atlantic. The Irex was the first of the World War II submarines to be converted to snorkel for extended submerged operation.

The naval reservists were briefed on the training and operational missions of the submarine base. Demonstrations of some of the specialized training equipment were held including the Skipjack simulator which is used for instruction in control of the new class of submarines.

The reserve officers concluded their tour of the area with a visit to the Coast Guard Academy in New London.

The WEPTU training program is a specialized program to prepare naval reserve officers to take over key positions in the Navy's Bureau of Naval Weapons in the event of enemy attack or mobilization. Regular meetings for WEPTU-831 are usually scheduled for two evenings per month. Special field trips are held periodically to supplement the normal training schedules.

Committee Representing 7th Grade Civics Class Interviews August Caprio

A small committee representing Sister Celine's seventh grade Civics Club had an interview with Mr. August Caprio of the Board of Education. This interview proved very successful and much information was obtained. Some of the information: sixty five cents of every tax dollar is used to support the public schools. Most money used to support the public schools comes from property taxes. Any teachers applying for jobs in Springfield public schools must be approved by the state in order to receive a job. Public school children must attend school at least 180 days. In case school is canceled more than the given days school will be prolonged. The estimated cost for one eighth grade pupil

Art Show March 24-25 Will Benefit Pavilion

As we go to press, over in nearby Westfield, in the Wateunk Room of the Westfield Memorial Library on East Broad Street, a group of Westfield Chapter of Hadassah members, aided by their husbands, are busy hanging the Fifth Annual Art Show and Sale to be held this weekend. Seth Ben-Ari of Mountainside is in charge of the hanging. The Show is open to the public, by admission ticket, Sunday and Monday, March 24 and 25, 1 to 10 p.m.

The preview Reception which takes place Saturday night from 6 to 11 p.m. for Patrons and Sponsors takes on special significance this year because of a historic event in Hadassah's history taking place almost simultaneously in Jerusalem, Israel: the opening of the Hadassah Mother and Child Pavilion of the Hadassah-Hebrew University Medical Center in Jerusalem. This million-dollar 21-story structure is designed not only to take care of the thousands of normal births each year, but will also provide a complete modern diagnostic, consultation, treatment and teaching service for complicated and difficult maternity problems.

Mrs. Herbert Seidel of Mountainside, addressing a full meeting of the Art Show Committee on Monday, at the home of Mrs. Ernest Robinson in Mountainside stated that each year the art collectors and seekers of fine art for decorative purpose anticipate eagerly the annual Show of Westfield Hadassah. They know that the Committee in charge of selections aims to have a wide and varied collection, within the budget of even those with limited funds. With this building of public good will has come increased revenue each year from the Shows for the support of Hadassah projects. This year, with the opening of the new Pavilion, the need has again increased, and Westfield Hadassah hopes to meet this responsibility by even greater success with its current show.

"Good sense and hard work will continue to be paramount in presenting news on television. The equipment is improving all the time but what the newsmen say will probably remain the same. I see no particular revolutionary changes."

So states Chet Huntley, the New York anchor man on the Huntley-Brinkley Report seen Monday through Friday evenings on NBC-TV.

Huntley was asked about getting information through to the Communist world.

"Their curiosity about the outside world, their thirst is just overwhelming. Something's got to give way. They've got to have some answers. And some information is getting through already by radio, they're not jamming it entirely."

On the Huntley-Brinkley Report, Chet writes all the live copy himself. The film copy is done by one of the editors.

"Antique" Show Scheduled For March 26 to 28 In Springfield

When an Antique Show has had twenty one years of experience then it, in itself becomes an antique. So what better exhibition can be produced by any other than an Antique Show? This is the position held by the Springfield Antiques Show and Sale which will celebrate its twenty first anniversary this year on March 26th; 27th; and 28th., in the Parish-House of the Historic Presbyterian Church at 27 Main Street, Springfield. During the first two days it will be open to the public from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m., and on the last day until 6 p.m.

As usual the outstanding dealers of the east have chosen this exhibition as their show case for the presentation of such elderly things as rare furniture from the past; old glassware, china and jewelry that have become valuable with the passage of time and are now scarce treasures. Seen here will be a collection deeply steeped in the tradition of America.

There will be thirty of these dealers to assure a variety of wares that will overflow the two floors of the spacious Parish House.

Continuing the theme there will again be the Colonial Tea Room attended by those charming hostesses dressed in the colorful costumes of that era for that social hour as a spot to relax in the quiet atmosphere of the past. This is "Traditional".

Also there will be the "Home Baked Goods" sale and the sale of Hand Made Aprons.

The event is sponsored, as it has been for twenty one years by the Ladies' Benevolent Society of the church under the experienced guidance of Mrs. Emil Meyers.

READYING FOR SPRINGFIELD Antique Show are Mrs. Robert Potter (left) and Mrs. Emil Meyer, co-chairmen. The 21st Annual Show will be held March 26 thru March 28 under the auspices of the Ladies' Benevolent Society of the Historic Presbyterian Church.

Robert Reid, artist and lecturer from the Newark Museum, was the speaker at the Raymond Chisholm P.T.A. meeting Monday night, March 18. His discussion of Creative Art In Our Children was illustrated with colored slides of held work done at the workshops held daily at the Museum.

During the past two weeks, pictures painted by children from various member nations of the United Nations have been on display in the Raymond Chisholm School. These pictures are part of a collection loaned to the school by the Newark Museum. As an added attraction for last night's meeting, samples of art work of children at the school were displayed in the auditorium. Reid commented on the freedom of creative expression displayed in the art work of the Springfield children.

Reid pointed out to the parents and teachers present that the foundation of creative work is the ability to really see people and objects around us in our daily life. He urged parents to accompany their children on field trips and to help them see art in their surroundings.

The slate of officers for the P.T.A. for 1963-1964 was presented by Mrs. Anthony Herda, Chairman of the Nominating Committee. Those nominated were: Mrs. Byron D. Mid-Eastern Electronics, Inc., of Springfield, today published financial results for the fiscal year ending November 30, 1962. Reviewing the figures, Lawrence C. Oakley, President and Chairman of the Board, pointed out the great improvement compared to the previous year. Sales were $651,547, up 67% from 1961's $388,836. The large increase was due to the introduction of new products in Mid-Eastern's line of solid state power systems, such as inverters, computer supplies and line voltage regulators.

Mr. Oakley went on to point out that these products were the result of further knowledge in the art of engineering highly precise instruments. The primary authority acknowledged in the field, Mr. H. Meyerson, joined Mid-Eastern early in the year. Moreover, a 65% increase in personnel enabled the company to increase sales effectively.

"A Trip to the Sun"

On Tuesday, the 26th of February, at 9:30 A.M. Mrs. Park's homeroom class boarded a bus in front of the Florence M. Gaudinier School to go on an interesting trip to the Springfield Sun.

As the class entered the building on Morris Avenue, the class was greeted by Mr. Fischman, who showed the students around. The class entered a room where the news is typed by women whose typewriters have attachments that punch tape. Later, the tape is fed into an automatic typewriter.

Next in the paste-up on the dummy sheet, the articles are arranged and glued on with rubber cement. After this, plates are made of a low-cost metal, and the articles are arranged for the final time.

The negative is placed on a vacuum machine which burns the imprint into metal. It is then washed with a solution to bring out the imprint.

The metal is now wrapped on the rollers and the paper is ready to be printed. A machine at the end cuts and folds the printed newspapers.

Mrs. Flotteron accompanied the class on the trip along with Mrs. Park. Class members who

"Intellectually retarded children range from the totally helpless to the many more, who are not spectacularly different from normal. The common characteristic for all retarded children is the need for special help during all or part of their lives."

It was upon the above promise that the Union County Auxiliary for the Mentally Retarded, Mount Carmel Guild was formed.

From a handful of parents with problems of similar nature to a group numbering in the eighties today this organization has grown.

Presently, two centers are in operation in Union County, namely in Roselle and Plainfield.

Classes are conducted for the purpose of preparing retarded children for the reception of the sacraments of Holy Eucharist and Confirmation; in addition to religious education a program of socialization is planned for the children, which includes parties, movies, dancing, picnics, sight-seeing tours and physical participation in games and plays.

At present this organization is planning for its fourth annual dance, which is held for the purpose of raising funds to further its activities with the retarded.

Parents and friends are busily engaged in addressing letters, preparing programs, soliciting for advertisements and meeting to discuss the pros and cons of a successful endeavor.

The dance will be held on Saturday evening, May 18, at the Knights of Columbus Hall, Rahway, New Jersey.

CHECK TERMITE DAMAGE

Every year at this time, homeowners find winged insects that suddenly fly out and then drop their wings and crawl all around. These insects are termites and indicate that there are thousands of other termites still eating the house causing further destruction to the wood of the house. The cost of repairs far exceeds the cost of treatment and goes higher with delay.

Call us for free inspection of your home by experienced personnel. Our work, which we guarantee for TEN years is engineered to exceed all existing specifications making us the leaders in the field.

Beta Sigma Phi Sorority Discusses the Opera

Members of Beta Psi of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, under the direction of Mrs. Frank Gagnon of Springfield, N.J., are making various sized bean-bags which are used for physical therapy for the children at the Union County Cerebral Palsy Center in Cranford.

Showing how opera represents the elaborate culminations of vocal and instrumental music, utilizing solo voices, a chorus and orchestra and often a ballet, together with scenery, costume, plot and action, Bizet's "Carmen" will be discussed and analyzed by Mrs. Claude Bettinger of Summit when Beta Psi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority meets on Tuesday, March 26 at 8:15 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Richard Tarashuk of Summit. In addition to the telling of the tragic love story, Mrs. Bettinger will play various recorded selections from the opera to illustrate music and drama as a unit in opera.

At the previous meeting, in addition to viewing the travel films, the group welcomed Jack Clafin of New Providence, senior sales representative of Trans-World Airlines, New York-City, who presented a talk on the function and operations of TWA.

Electronics Sales Up 67 P.C.

Mid-Eastern Electronics, Inc., of Springfield, today published financial results for the fiscal year ending November 30, 1962. Reviewing the figures, Lawrence C. Oakley, President and Chairman of the Board, pointed out the great improvement compared to the previous year. Sales were $651,547, up 67% from 1961's $388,836. The large increase was due to the introduction of new products in Mid-Eastern's line of solid state power systems, such as inverters, computer supplies and line voltage regulators.

Mr. Oakley went on to point out that these products were the result of further knowledge in the art of engineering highly precise instruments. The primary authority acknowledged in the field, Mr. H. Meyerson, joined Mid-Eastern early in the year. Moreover, a 65% increase in personnel enabled the company to increase sales effectively.

Fourth Annual Dance Set By Auxiliary Of Mount Carmel

"Intellectually retarded children range from the totally helpless to the many more, who are not spectacularly different from normal. The common characteristic for all retarded children is the need for special help during all or part of their lives."

It was upon the above promise that the Union County Auxiliary for the Mentally Retarded, Mount Carmel Guild was formed.

From a handful of parents with problems of similar nature, to a group numbering in the eighties today, this organization has grown.

Presently, two centers are in operation in Union County, namely in Roselle and Plainfield.

Classes are conducted for the purpose of preparing retarded children for the reception of the sacraments of Holy Eucharist and Confirmation; in addition to religious education a program of socialization is planned for the children, which includes parties, movies, dancing, picnics, sight-seeing tours and physical participation in games and plays.

At present this organization is planning for its fourth annual dance, which is held for the purpose of raising funds to further its activities with the retarded.

Parents and friends are busily engaged in addressing letters, preparing programs, soliciting for advertisements and meeting to discuss the pros and cons of a successful endeavor.

The dance will be held on Saturday evening, May 18, at the Knights of Columbus Hall, Rahway, New Jersey.

The following committees have been named by Tyson Berkheimer who is president of the organization: Martin L. McGurgan, General Chairman; Frank A. Garland, Co-Chairman; Phyllis Pace-Treasurer; Victor Tums - Tickets; John Sweigert and Elsie Sweigert-Dance Journal; Eugene Mancini-Publicity; Margaret McGurgan, Kay Mitchell and Louise Barile-Prizes.

attended are Arnold Aihens, George Boher, Arthur Buzin, Glen Carson, Marc Denner, Jed Efries, Ira Geeler, Rocky Ienna, and Roy Kallens.

Also, Edward Malinowsky, Wayne Newby, Allen Roy, Brad Smith, Donald Stiles, Lyle Vigil and Stanley Yablansky were present.

Cynthia Baumann, Deborah Braien, Yvonne Bell, Marie Flotteron, Nancy Feldman, Carol Kleinert, Lynn Neidel, Carroll Roncaglio, and Cheryl Roth also attended.

"A Trip to the Sun"

On Tuesday, the 26th of February, at 9:30 A.M. Mrs. Park's homeroom class boarded a bus in front of the Florence M. Gaudin School to go on an interesting trip to the Springfield Sun.

As the class entered the building on Morris Avenue, the class was greeted by Mr. Fischgrum, who showed the students around. The class entered a room where the news is typed by women whose typewriters have attachments that punch tape. Later, the tape is fed into an automatic typewriter.

Next in the paste-up on the dummy sheet, the articles are arranged and glued on with rubber cement. After this, plates are made of a low-cost metal, and the articles are arranged for the final print.

The negative is placed on a vacuum machine which burns the imprint into metal. It is then washed with a solution to bring out the imprint.

The metal is now wrapped on the rollers and the paper is ready to be printed. A machine at the end cuts and folds the printed newspapers.

Mrs. Flotteron, accompanied the class on the trip along with Mrs. Park. Class members who

CHECK TERMITE DAMAGE

Every year at this time, homeowners find winged insects that suddenly fly out and then drop their wings and crawl all around. These insects are termites and indicate that there are thousands of other termites still eating the house causing further destruction to the wood of the house. The cost of repairs far exceeds the cost of treatment and goes higher with delay.

Call us for free inspection of your home by experienced personnel. Our work, which we guarantee for TEN years is engineered to exceed all existing specifications making us the leaders in the field.

Jo Jan Brings Photographic Gem to Springfield

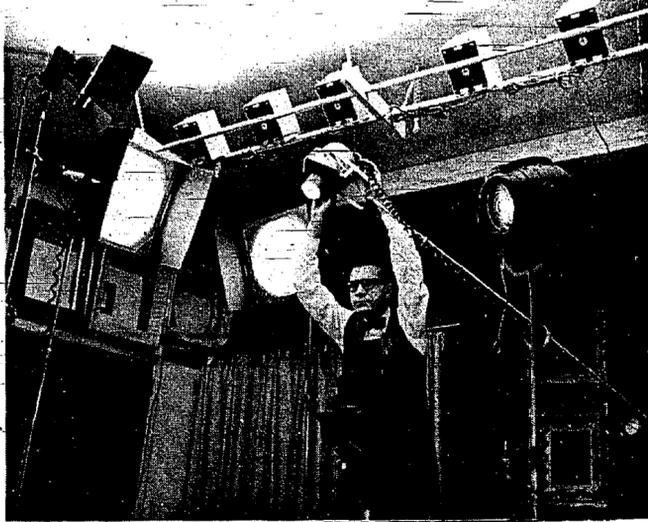

Springfield is proud to have the most beautiful photographic portrait studio on the east coast. The studio is Jo Jan Photographers located at 485 Morris Avenue, at the corner of Short Hills Avenue.

Designed and decorated personally by the owner, Mr. Joseph Jan Merrill, also known as Mr. "Jo Jan", it is one of the best-equipped studios in the world, and its design and layout have been acclaimed as the very finest portrait photography studio in the state. It is also the largest individual studio in metropolitan New Jersey.

used for publicity purposes in connection with various radio programs in the 1940's.

The Jo Jan Studios have had several locations since its beginning in 1944. The original studio started in New York. In 1951 the studio moved to Union, N.J. In 1955 they moved to Cranford, and finally in 1960 Mr. Merrill got tired of moving and working in cramped quarters, and decided to design his own studio, and settled permanently in Springfield.

In New York, Mr. Jo Jan was also president of the Institute of Professional Photographers.

MR. "JO-JAN" MERRILL adjusts spot-light in preparation for taking a photograph. The studio has the very latest in speech strobe lighting equipment. The equipment shown in this photograph can produce an equivalent electrical power of over 100,000 watts, without the discomfort of the heat and glare created by old style lighting systems.

The premises contain three studio camera rooms, arranged in such a manner that they can be varied in size. The larger studio can accommodate as many as fifty people in one group photograph. "The largest family group that we made here in Springfield was for the Briggs family with twenty-six persons in one portrait", says Mr. Merrill. A portrait of the family was presented to the Historical Collection of the Springfield Public Library last month.

Before moving to New Jersey, Mr. Merrill had photographed many famous personalities including Eddie Cantor, Danny Kaye, Ed Wynn, Perry Como, Oscar Levant, Elsa Maxwell, the late James Melton, Raymond Massey, and many other stars. His photographs were frequently

Here in New Jersey he was president for three years of the Professional Photographer's Association of New Jersey, Metropolitan area.

The Jo Jan Studios have won many ribbon awards for their unusual wedding photography, at state photographic conventions.

Known originally for their exceptional wedding photography, the studio has maintained most of their original staff of wedding photographers for over 18 years. They were pioneers in the field of wedding album photography, and made wedding albums even in the good old days when mama and papa never heard of the "following photographer".

Although the Jo Jan Studios have been located within Springfield for only three years, they have been serving Springfield brides with beautiful wedding albums for over fifteen years, and, it was back in 1947 that Jo Jan photographed their first Springfield bride.

In 1951 the Prudential magazine ran a large series of photographs of a wedding that was photographed by the Jo Jan Photographers at the First Presbyterian Church. The wedding was officiated by Reverend Bruce

The activities of the studio go far beyond that of wedding photography. The studio has an equally fine reputation for fine portrait and baby photography, as well as publicity work. "Many people seem to think that just because we have the most elaborate studio available that our prices are high", remarked Mr. Merrill. "Most customers are pleasantly surprised to learn that our prices are as low or lower than the prices of studios with far less experience and reputation".

Governor Hughes Seeking Federal Funds for Tercentenary Commission

Governor Richard J. Hughes today announced that United States Senator A. Willis Robertson of Virginia, a member of the Senate Appropriations Committee, will work to secure an appropriation of $150,000 for the New Jersey Tercentenary Celebration Commission, a Federal Agency established by the 86th Congress. The funds will be used to carry out a program of national participation in the State's 300th anniversary celebration in 1964.

Governor Hughes also announced that New Jersey Congressman Frank Thompson, Jr. is optimistic about Congress appropriating $100,000 to the National Park Service for the construction of a Battle of Trenton Visitor Center in Trenton. Senator Robertson and Congressman Thompson both are members of the Federal Tercentenary Commission.

Governor Hughes said that these were the principle developments of a joint meeting of the Federal and State Tercentenary Commission held last Saturday at Nassau Hall, Princeton University. The two Commissions met in the same room used by the Continental Congress of the United States in 1783.

Sitting beneath the portrait of Woodrow Wilson—41st Governor of New Jersey and 28th President of the United States—Senator Robertson recalled that he had worked in Virginia in 1912 for the nomination of Governor Wilson and that he was "thrilled to be sitting for the first time in this historic New Jersey room." He said that he could think of no more fitting event in the celebration of the State's 300th anniversary than the convening in 1964 at Nassau Hall of representatives of the nation's 13 original states.

Senator Robertson's proposal was adopted by the two Commissions.

Governor Hughes had invited members of both Commissions to attend the joint session to discuss the Federal program for 1964 and the funds needed to carry it out. The New Jersey Tercentenary Celebration Commission was established by the United States Congress in 1960 to formulate and implement plans for national participation in the State's 300th anniversary but the Commission has never received Federal funds to carry out its assignment.

At the meeting, United States Senator Harrison A. Williams, Jr. of New Jersey and United States Senator George D. Aiken of Vermont, both members of the Federal Commission, pledged to support the request for Tercentenary funds. Another Commission member, United States Senator Clifford P. Case, who could not attend the meeting, pledged his Tercentenary support when he joined the group for lunch after the meeting at Morven.

A report on obtaining the United States Navy's permission to use the battleship USS New Jersey for the Tercentenary celebration was given by Congressman William B. Widnall of New Jersey, a member of the Federal Commission. He said that Congressional representatives have worked with Governor Hughes in getting the Secretary of Navy to agree that the USS New Jersey should be brought back to the State in 1964.

Governor Hughes said that other Federal Tercentenary projects discussed at the meeting included a student exchange program for 1963-64 at the secondary level between New Jersey and countries from which the first Jerseymen came; a Tercentenary commemorative stamp; special New Jersey Tercentenary exhibits at the Smithsonian Institute, the Library of Congress, the National Gallery of Art, and

Jerseymen Invited to Join Search for Historic Items

Tercentenary treasure hunts have been started for historic New Jersey materials. Governor Richard J. Hughes has invited all Jerseymen to join in a statewide search for items related to the life and career of Woodrow Wilson and for a piece of non-ferrous metal that can be put into a Tercentenary Medallion commemorating the State's 300th anniversary in 1964.

Hunt For Hidden Original Wilson Material Begins

Governor Hughes said: "Historians say that Wilson was by nature a systematic man but that many of his letters were written in his own hand or on the typewriter he called his 'pen'. According to scholars, there is good reason to believe that hundreds—maybe thousands—of original Wilson materials are hidden in New Jersey and it is fitting that they be located and preserved for the first statewide celebration in 1964. I urge all Jerseymen who have a Wilson item or know where such materials can be found, to report the information to the New Jersey Tercentenary Commission, Trenton."

Valuable Wilson material should be sent directly to the Commission by registered mail. Each item will be copied and returned promptly to the sender, unless the sender desires to contribute it to the State of New Jersey.

Many documents discovered will be published, said Dr. Arthur S. Link, of Princeton University and Editor, The Papers of Woodrow Wilson. Acknowledgment by name will be given. No letter or document written before 1913 should be deemed to be unimportant, however, trivial it might be at first glance, he said.

Members of the State Tercentenary Commission who attended were: Paul L. Troast, Chairman, and President of Mahoney Troast Construction Company; Assemblyman Charles E. Farrington, Vice Chairman, of Mercer County; Assemblywoman Marion West Higgins of Bergen County; State Senator Richard R. Stout of Monmouth County; Mrs. A.R. Green of Elsinboro Township, Salem County; Frederick H. Groel, Vice President Prudential Insurance Company of America, Newark; William A. Wachenfeld of Newark; Dr. Clifford L. Lord, Dean, School of General Studies, Columbia University, and a resident of Ridgewood; and John T. Soja of Elizabeth.

A luncheon for Commission members, their husbands and wives, was given after the meeting at Morven by Governor and Mrs. Hughes.

Needed: Medallion Metal

The Tercentenary Medallion will soon be struck in bronze. To increase its significance, a fragment of some non-ferrous metal will be thrown into the Medallion's melting pot— if Jerseymen will help find an appropriate hunk of zinc, silver, copper or brass. It might be some copper from the Schuyler mine which operated near Belleville in the 18th Century. It could be some zinc refined from the Franklin ore once mined in Sussex County.

Tercentenary Medallions will be available for sale this fall. If you own an item that can be thrown into the Medallion's melting pot, please notify the Tercentenary Commission.

"Youth in Action" Featured At Paper Mill Playhouse

"Preludes to Greatness", a dramatic, musical thrilling re-telling of the early years of three of our great American heroes, will be presented at the Paper Mill Playhouse for young theatregoers from 6 to 16 during the Spring Holiday, April 11, 12, 13.

The three Broadway quality musicals will examine the early years of Lincoln, Edison and Thomas Jefferson. On Thursday, April 11, the sensational production of "Young Abe Lincoln" which won high critical acclaim from New York press during its introductory run, will be presented. Already a classic, "Young Abe Lincoln", has music by Victor Ziskin with special lyrics by Arnold Sundgaard.

"Young Tom Edison" will be introduced on the following morning, Friday, April 12. The inspiring story of his youthful curiosity and the experiments that were to foreshadow many of his inventions will be given an exciting dramatic treatment.

The third in the series, on Saturday, April 13, will be dramatically stirring performance built around the life of "Young Tom Jefferson". Authored by John Allen, who wrote "Young Abe", the play revolves around the decision made by Young Tom Jefferson to study law. This single decision shaped his life and that of our country. The score for this youth musical has been created by Albert Hague, composer of the musical hits "Plain and Fancy" and "Red Head". The presence of a Broadway composer of Mr. Hague's stature is one evidence of the coming of age of Young People's Theatre in New Jersey. Prices for the performances, which will be at 1 p.m., are: $1.50, $1.25, $1.00 and $.75.

"Come Blow Your Horn", starring Menasha Skulnik and featuring Mae Questel is the current adult attraction at the Playhouse. It won rave from all the local critics and audiences and will continue through April

Dorothy Collins Hit In "Most Happy Fella" At Meadowbrook

Dorothy Collins is equally popular with cast and management as well as the packed audiences who have witnessed her dramatic performance as Rosabella, the star of "Most Happy Fella" in the Meadowbrook Dinner Theatre's outstanding hit through March 31st.

Frankly, the response of audiences is equal to that of the critics in a musical show that is as close to opera as the rules of Broadway allow.

Heart throbs mingle with laughter throughout as the star's brilliant supporting cast each take turns in taking over the spotlight.

In addition to the fine work of Gene Hollmann and Stewart Rose, special mention must be made of the portrayals of Dean Dittman and India Adams who are teamed in secondary love interest roles combined with superb comedy and the rendition of

State League Playoffs In Spfld. Recreation

League Playoffs

The Springfield Recreation Commission Small-Fry cage program at the James Caldwell School is in its final week of play, this Saturday the semi-final games will be played, with the Championship final on Monday.

Two games are on tap this Saturday afternoon, with the Aggies and Pistons coming to grips at 1:30 p.m., the Billikens and Knicks tangling in an exhibition game in order to keep the Bills in shape for the big championship finale.

In quarter final games last Saturday the Aggies walloped the Billikens 20-12 as Danny D'Andrea sparked the winners with a fourteen point output, Harlem the best for the Billikens. The Pistons walloped the Knicks 32-18 with Meisel, Campbell and Bucci sparked the victory. Stokes and Chotiner were the standouts for the Knicks.

Raiders trip Browns favorites to capture Sandmeir Small Fry

The stage is set for the Springfield Recreation Commission championship finals of the Sandmeir School Small-Fry Basketball League. Three games were played last Saturday afternoon, with the Raiders continuing to dominate the field.

In the opening game of a triple-header the Raiders tripped the Browns 11-8 as Keith Brownlie sparked the winners with a 6 point effort. Freddie Gold was the top performer for the Browns. The Indians scalped the Giants 10-6 with a new star appearing on the horizon in Bob Zuckerberg of the Giants who tossed home his only goal of the long campaign, although in a losing effort. Steve Grau was the spark for the winning Indians, getting both goals in the first half. Richie Deutsch was the whole works as the Browns sidelined the Indians by a 12-10 score, with Steve Grau again the mainstay for the losing Indians.

This Saturday at 1:10 the Raiders and the Browns come to grips in the championship final, and should the Raiders win the big game they will become the 1963 Champions of the Sandmeir School Small-Fry Basketball League.

The All-Star squad of the Sandmeir School will stage a 1 1/2 hour practice session this Saturday starting at 2 p.m.

Yale & Harvard win Ivy League play offs tilts

The Springfield Recreation Commission Ivy League play-offs narrowed a bit, with Harvard and Yale quintets set to battle it out for the league title. Four other teams are in the running, but hardly have the over-all power and know-how of the Harvard and Yale quintets.

Last Tuesday night in second round play, Yale walloped a good Princeton five 48-31 with Harvard a 42-30 winner over Columbia. Bob Belliveau with a 22 point splurge sparked the Yale bulldogs to an easy victory over Princeton. Ronnie Azarawicz helped with 11 points and controlled the backboards. Cohen, Bucci, and Catapano were the leading players for the losing Minnesota and Oklahoma upheld their rating as the teams to beat for the Springfield Recreation Commission State League Championship. In the opening game of a 4-game card, Minnesota held off a late Texas threat to win 28-26 in a well played Princeton five.

In the second half of the twin bill, a tall Harvard five had too much backboard strength, plus the value of the tap in, as they triumphed over Columbia 42-30 Brian Sheehan with 16 points, got help from Mike Lester and Andy Besch, which made the job easier, with Steve Hirschorn and Larry LaSota the standouts for the Losers.

The championship playoffs continue tonight and Saturday afternoon, with the semi-finals and possibly the finals scheduled for next Wednesday or Thursday.

Schedule of games—(Double elimination tournament)

Tonight (Thursday) 7:10 p.m.—Minnesota v/s California, game #7-winner's bracket-State league; 8:00 p.m.—Winner of Cornell-Dartmouth game v/s winner of Columbia-Princeton game *Note-loser of this game is eliminated.

Saturday afternoon—*Games in both the State league (also) one (1) Ivy league game; 1:10 p.m.—Minnesota-California (winner) v/s Utah-Oklahoma (winner) Game #9 on your 10 team draw sheet; 2:00 p.m.—Texas v/s Florida - Game # 12 loser's bracket; 2:50 p.m.—North Carolina v/s Kentucky - Game #13; 3:45 p.m.—Ivy league playoffs game. Ralph LoSanno, Ted O'Connell, and Steve Wexler were the standouts of this game, with LoSanno's great height advantage proving to be the difference. Little Mike Krautblatt popped in four baskets in the first quarter to rattle the taller Minnesota team, but it was Don Cubberly's top effort of the campaign that all but stopped the gophers. Don scored two baskets in the second quarter, then registered with four in the final period for a 12 point effort. Oklahoma, co-favored with Minnesota, caught Florida on an off day in the shooting department with the result an easy win over the Orange team. Margulies, Kurnos, and Lewis were the sparks for the Cowboys, with Beck and Catapano the best for the losers. North Carolina won easily over an injury riddle West Virginia five, the score 22-13 with Dennis, Kosnett and Danziger the best for the winners, Cohn and Lenchmer the standouts for the Mountaineers.

The final game of the afternoon saw Wyoming sidelined from further play as Kentucky scored a 26-22 win. Spielman, Gash and Poznanski were the mainsprings for the winning Wildcat five, Haydu, Ginsburg, and Sayki the best for the Wyoming cowboys. Most of teams seem wary of the upset bugaboo, and from this corner Minnesota looks like the top team in the playoffs, with Oklahoma the best coached. The playoffs will continue during the weekday nights starting next week.

Table Tennis League
Sees Wind Up of Play

This week saw the wind up of regular New Jersey Table Tennis League play. All postponed matches were played off to the extent that they had a bearing on the standings of the first four teams. The top four teams for the season are the Union, Jrs., Bloomfield, Newark and Irvington, in that order. These four teams will engage in a round-robin play-off over a three week period.

Elias Solomon demonstrated unquestionably his right to the number one individual ranking in the league. He was only beaten once, by Raoul Kamel, in the regular league play.

Next week will be a week off for all league play as many of the players will be in Detroit participating in the National Open Championships on March 22, 23, and 24th. The next succeeding three weeks will be devoted to the league play-off round-robin.

clubs use boys rules and local fans who love to see outstanding cage play are in for a treat.

The Connecticut team features the famed Joan Joyce, generally recognized by many as the best pitcher in the country, who also made All-American honors in basketball at Kansas City, Missouri in the National AAU basketball tournament two years. Miss Joyce is a physical education major in college, has fond hopes to end up as a school teacher, and at 21 years of age, is an exceptional athlete and lady.

Other outstanding players with the Brakette combination are the comely Brenda Reilly, Anne De Luca, Edna Fraser, and newcomer Shirley Topley, all good scorers. Miss Topley is a first baseman in softball, played with the World Champion Orange, California "Lionettes" also the Canadian National Champion. The Raybestos team is undefeated to date, and Coached by the veteran Vin Devitt.

The North Bergen Co-Eds have a fast breaking team, spearheaded by the diminutive Pat Kelly, great set shot artist, plus Tam MacKenzie, and Pat Hopper, great scorers and rebounders. The Co-Eds are active in the strong Metro-New York basketball league, and play a heavy schedule of exhibitions.

This Saturday's fine attraction at the spacious Gaudineer school gym will start at 7:15 p.m. and is sponsored by the Springfield Recreation Commission as a Community project for Springfield residents. No admission will be charged.
