Letters To Editor William Koonz To Represent Local GOP In Nov.

ED. NOTE: THE FOLLOWING LETTER WAS RECEIVED ON THURSDAY AFTERNOON, APRIL 11, FROM AN INDIVIDUAL WHO WAS TOO ASHAMED TO SIGN HIS OR HER NAME. WE ARE SORRY WE MUST WASTE THIS SPACE IN PRINTING THIS TRIPE BUT OUR EDITORIAL POLICY DICTATES THAT WE WILL PRINT ALL LETTERS TO THE EDITOR, DESPITE THE FACT THAT THIS LETTER IS UNSIGNED, WE FEEL IT SHOULD BE PRINTED ANYWAY. THE ATTACHED TWO PARAGRAPHS ARE REPRINTED FROM THE CALDWELL SCHOOL PTA BULLETIN DISTRIBUTED UNDER THE SUPERVISION OF MRS. BENJAMIN COLONDREA AND MRS. JOSEPH VISOTSKI. WE CHALLENGE THESE LADIES TO SHOW US ANY "WORTHY" NEWS RELEASES WHICH WE DID NOT PRINT.

April 9, 1963
 Dear Sir:

This letter will most likely fall like "rain off a duck's back", but at least I will feel better for having written it.

The enclosed page is part of an annual report presented by the James Caldwell PTA at the regular meeting Monday April 8, 1963, and if I were editor, it would make me feel badly.

To think that this went out to a township that I was trying to sell my paper to, and prove that our paper is really the "voice" of Springfield!

What kind of function do you expect to play in town if you can't even cooperate with the PTA's -- the backbone of our town? These are the parents of our children, and usually the most interested in township affairs.

Frankly, you should apologize to the Caldwell PTA publicly for this oversight on your part.

This is certainly no way to sell the SUN or encourage possible advertisers in town to take out ads. (I am a case in point). I cancelled my subscription after the way you ran that last political campaign in town -- printing all that Democratic junk -- saying Howard Smith was in "great shape" about three weeks before he died when everyone in town knew how sick he was.

When I read your "new policy" editorial, I thought perhaps you had changed, but now after getting this at the meeting, it looks like you are still running on the same track.

Knowing you will never dare who are members of the PTA's all over the country and who have unfortunately been placed in such a ridiculous spotlight by a few status seekers who choose to use the newspapers for their own claim to fame. We heartily urge the Caldwell PTA to take another look at their membership when the next meeting of the Executive Board is held.

William F. Koonz of 110 Baltusrol Way, was chosen as the Republican candidate for Township Committee in Tuesday's primary election.

William Koonz

Koonz who was unopposed in the primary, expressed his appreciation to those who cast their ballots in his behalf. "With the continued support of the people of Springfield", Koonz said, "I am looking forward to a successful election in November."

print a letter like this, I won't bother signing it, since it makes little difference who wrote it.

How about really making the SUN a paper Springfield can be proud of, or should we start a movement to get a really decent paper in town? You are the "official" paper by default only -- how about earning that privilege? An irate PTA member of the JAMES CALDWELL PTA

"Excerpts: Again this year, we encountered quite a bit of difficulty with the printing of the PTA news in the SPRINGFIELD SUN. The school news was completely ignored and kept out of the paper on at least five different occasions. Therefore, in order to keep the parents well informed on school affairs, events and special items of interest news-letters and fliers were brought home by the children.

"In passing, we might add, that the ELIZABETH DAILY JOURNAL, even though an out-of-town newspaper, has been most courteous and helpful throughout the school year and has given us unusually good coverage and co-

TWO ITEMS ON BALLOT

The referendum includes an expansion of the Gaudineer School and Chisholm School as one item on the ballot and the construction of an administration building to relieve needed classroom space at the Caldwell School as the second item on the ballot.

COST TO TAXPAYERS

The total cost of this program to the taxpayer owning a home valued at $20,000 (based on our community's tax base of 40% this home is assessed at $8,000) will be approximately $16.80 during the peak year. This cost will decrease to zero over the ensuing twenty years as the bonds are amortized and the total rates of the township increases.

ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

Of the total, the administration building will cost the taxpayer owning a home valued at $20,000 approximately $1.00 during the peak year.

This building will be of basically simple one story construction. It will provide for partitioned offices for the personnel who require privacy which they do not have now. It will contain a storage vault for the safekeeping of school records, a room to house the duplicating machines and accounting machines whose noise is now a distraction influence and, most important of all, it will make available for use, two classrooms and one special instruction room at the James Caldwell School. One of these rooms is needed for the 1963-64 school year to satisfy the needs of the school population.

The administration building will be located on the property of the Walton School so that it will be served by the same custodian.

The recommendation to construct this as a separate building rather than as an attachment to a school building is strictly a matter of economics. As a separate building it does not come under the jurisdiction of the State Board of Education or the School House Code and therefore it can be of much simpler construction and considerably cheaper.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE CALDWELL SCHOOL PTA

Printed in this week's paper is a letter signed by "An irate PTA member of the JAMES CALDWELL PTA," in which we are asked to apologize to that group for the "oversight" of excluding their news releases, and an excerpt from the publicity release which is distributed to PTA members by Mrs. Jeanne Haas, Mrs. Benjamin Colondrea and Mrs. Joseph Visotski, publicity co-chairmen.

Ladies, We apologize to the Caldwell PTA and you, but not for the exclusion of your news releases.

To begin with, we do not intend to defend our editorial policy nor do we intend to grant space to "Irate PTA Member" who cannot have too much belief in his or her convictions due to the cheap attempt to gain notoriety by the statement that the writer knows we will not print the "UNSIGNED" letter. We merely wish to point out a few things which any intelligent, business-minded and self-respecting, educated person certainly knows.

The content of the letter implies that the governing body and other municipal bodies; the churches; the other PTA groups; the Boy Scouts, Y's, boards of education, high schools, civic clubs and numerous other organizations are innocuous as compared to the Caldwell School PTA. We apologize for our obvious lack of formal education in not recognizing these points.

We also apologize for the fact that the writer of the letter was allowed to become a member of the PTA which we feel is a group which is setting examples for our children.

The reference to our exclusion of your PTA news is without sound basis. Secondly, the PTA group in itself is a good social organization, but not worthy of complete front page news coverage as this letter obviously demands. Thirdly and more serious is the obvious political slanting of the writer who is undoubtedly a cheap, news-monger, willing to capitalize on a political sore at the expense of the entire PTA and a bereaved family. How low can an individual get?

We apologize for the fact that we cannot use every four-page release received from each and every social group in Springfield or throughout the county.

There are many and varied areas in which youth can be served, and many and various areas in which the PTA help would be welcomed. Why not try it, ladies, it would give you something to do besides cry about your own personal loss of publicity.

Incidentally, that story on page 6 of last week's SUN which read OFFICERS ELECTED FOR CALDWELL PTA did not really appear. It was a mirage and is part of the conspiracy in which we have become involved with all the other organizations in town to discriminate against your organization.

We lastly apologize to the sincere people

Mrs. L. Lewis Thanks Many Who Helped

Mrs. Lorraine "Lorrie" Lewis, Springfield's candidate for Freeholder on the "Wilson Line" Democratic slate lost her bid for election against the Organization Dems but polled wins in Springfield, Berkeley Heights and Mountainside.

Mrs. Lewis gained her local margin of victory in Berkeley Heights by one vote, in Mountainside by one vote and in Springfield by 16 votes.

Following the Tuesday night Primary Election results Mrs.

Lewis said, "Ever though I lost in my bid for the Democratic nomination as one of the Freeholders in Union County, I am still very happy."

"I would like to thank my husband Phil and my children for their patience; my Springfield campaign manager, Helen Forster, all my friends in Springfield, Berkeley Heights, Mountainside and the County for their expression of confidence in me and the "Wilson Line" slate of candidates with whom I ran.

"I think they are the finest and most competent group of candidates I have ever met or worked with and I particularly want to thank our campaign manager Freeholder Tomas Dunn for his untiring efforts and I am very happy to have been as-

UC Organization Dems Sweep Mrs. Lewis Wins Locally; Bonadies Gets Assembly Nod

Organization candidates for Union County offices swept to victory in the Springfield primary election on Tuesday except in the case of Mrs. Lorraine (Lorrie) Lewis who won, locally, in her bid for nomination to the Board of Freeholders.

Mrs. Lewis received a total of 295 votes in Springfield, defeating two of the regular organization freeholder candidates, Arthur C. Fried who polled 269 here and Sigmund Swiontkowski with 294; Walter J. Mitchell, the third Democratic organization candidate, received a total of 300 votes in Springfield.

sociated with so many fine people who have worked so hard on my behalf.

"I would like to wish all the Democratic candidates luck in the forthcoming election."

VINCENT J. BONADIES

The remainder of the Springfield Democratic ticket, led by Township Committeeman Vincent J. Bonadies as candidate for Assembly, had little trouble contributing to the defeat of the entire opposing county ticket.

Bonadies polled a total of 391 votes, tops for the Democrats in Springfield primary, with James M. McGowan, the regular Democratic candidate for State Senator, receiving 340.

Mrs. Lewis attracted an unusual number of votes in Springfield, her 295 total (before absentee and veteran votes being counted) reflecting the results of a vigorous campaign waged by her friends.

In the eighth district Mrs. Lewis received a total of 77 votes as compared to 30 for McGowan and 29 for Bonadies.

In Springfield 10th voting district Mrs. Lewis received 50 votes compared to 54 for McGowan and 66 for Bonadies, the regular organization candidates. Mrs. Lewis showed considerable strength in the 11th voting district where she was given 43 votes to 42 for McGowan and 48 for Bonadies.

April 21-27, 1963

The regular Democratic party candidates ran close together in Springfield with Bonadies leading the ticket with his 391 votes.

Louis F. Ceitham, Democratic candidate for Township Committee in the November election, polled a total of 372, considered very strong since there was no contest for that office locally.

The remainder of the Democratic ticket ran about even with Walter J. (Wally) Mitchell being the only organization freeholder candidate to defeat Mrs. Lewis in Springfield, his total being 300.

The Wilson Line candidates, with the exception of the 295 votes for Mrs. Lewis, attracted about the same number of votes. Wilson received a total of 181, all the other candidates polling a few more or less votes in their unsuccessful efforts to win the nominations against the organization ticket.

LIBRARY WEEK AT SPRINGFIELD LIBRARY

THE GREAT BOOKS DISCUSSION GROUP--A group of 25 men and women who have met for the past four years to discuss selections from the thoughts and writings of man throughout the ages. Any adult may participate in this group, which meets every other Tuesday from September through May.

THE JUNIOR REVIEWERS--A new group this year of 5th grade boys and girls chosen by the schools to participate in an extra-curricular activity, meeting in the library to learn about books and book reviewing.

THE PRE-SCHOOL STORY HOUR--A group of 4 year olds enrolled by their parents, meeting every Wednesday in the library, to listen to children's stories and songs.

This is National Library Week, a week in April set aside each year to emphasize library services to the community; to try to reach people who do not know the help and pleasure they can get by using their local library; to point out more varied uses to those who already come to it--children, young people and adults.

This year the Springfield Public Library has extended its hours and is open all day on Mondays and Fridays: 9:30 a.m. - 9:00 p.m. (The Library is closed Sundays.) All other days the hours are: 9:30 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Here are mentioned a few areas of library service of which some people may not be aware.

Did you know, for example, that the Springfield Public Library has the NEW YORK TIMES on microfilm from 1957 till now? Even for the period of the strike there will be microfilm of the West Coast edition. Anyone wanting to read back issues for particular information merely has to ask at the Circulation Desk. The film is put on a microfilm reader and magnified for easy reading.

The Library subscribes to over 130 magazines and keeps back files of the most frequently issues for several years. Each year, the library adds new titles to broaden its subject coverage and drops others which are not popular. There are 6 weekly and daily newspapers in the library and back issues are kept for 3 months.

Did you also know the Adult Department has just added a new encyclopedia to its shelves? The 1963 "Encyclopedia Americana." The Children's Department likewise is getting a new encyclopedia--the 1963 edition of "World Book." Earlier this year the Children's Room purchased a very large atlas, the "School and Library Atlas of the World." It has good-sized maps in bright colors and clear print. Anyone can use the Atlas, even if it is in the Juvenile Department.

For the best-seller fiction reader the library subscribes to MacNaughton Rental Books which enables the library to offer borrowers additional copies of popular titles. There is a rental charge of 25¢ for the first week and 5¢ each day after that. Titles which meet literary standards are also available free of charge among the 7-day and 14-day books. The rental collection is maintained solely as a public service just as a book store would offer a pay collection. With increased publishing costs, the rental collection barely manages to break even.

Would you believe it, that last year the library purchased about 600 adult fiction books? and 2,000 non-fiction in all areas of knowledge? Whenever the library does not own a requested title, it always tries to borrow the book from the N.J. State Library in Trenton.

Did you know that as a service to the local investor the library subscribes to a bi-weekly investment periodical? Also a subscription to Moody's Stock Survey, a weekly bulletin, will begin shortly. Daily financial and stock market quotations are covered by the Wall Street Journal which the library gets and also keeps back files for several months.

Two children's programs are held regularly in the library. One is for the pre-school 4-year old youngsters who come to story hours as their first library experience for 5 weeks at a time.

in the Spring and the Fall. About 100 children participate in the program yearly. The other program is for 5th grade pupils selected by the schools. They meet every 3rd Saturday morning throughout the year to learn about evaluating and reviewing a book.

One of the outstanding services of the library is that offered to high school student. A great deal of time and effort is given to help them with reports and research projects. Frequently, special books are purchased to meet their needs--after, or course, carefully reviewing by the Staff. And very often books are borrowed from the State Library as well as other libraries for them. There is, besides, a large collection of reference books on hand for them to use. As a special service, next to the latest edition of standard reference books is allowed to circulate, including encyclopedias, just as soon as the latest edition has been added to the Reference Section. These older reference books may be found downstairs with an orange band across the spine of each book. Special attention too is given to the purchase of youth fiction and biography. The latest fiction is displayed in their own reading area which has been set aside for young people downstairs in the fiction room.

Then, there is one adult group which has been meeting in the library for 4 years every other Tuesday night, except for the summer months. This is the Great Books Discussion Group made up of 25 or more active men and women participants. Subject matter for discussion is supplied by the Great Books Foundation whose sole purpose is the encouragement of people to read and to meet together to discuss great books. Selections from the writings of philosophers, divines, political scientists, economists, playwrights, rulers, and in fact most anyone who wrote down his thoughts. These writings have been read by men and women in all walks of life, in all parts of the world, for centuries and centuries.

Do you like to cook? The library has all kinds of cook books, for one or many people, for diets or parties, foreign recipes and holiday fare. Cakes and cookies too--how to decorate with design or lots of goo.

And if you are vacation minded, the library has travel books, hotel and shopping guides, road atlases, maps, and camping site data.

Did you also know, the Springfield Public Library has many beautiful art books, small ones and large. How to paint, draw and etch or how to understand the weirdest sketches. Books on interior decorating always in such demand are purchased as soon as off the press.

So, remember this year's motto for National Library Week-- "READ. THE FIFTH FREEDOM... ENJOY IT!"

RE-VIEWING THE PAST

By Don Palmer

The following account is compiled from data furnished the writer, in 1953, by the State Highway Department and from an article written by William S. Quinlan for one of the Springfield Historical Society's bulletins.

NEW ROAD MUCH NEEDED

Prior to 1806, in order to reach Newark, Springfield residents had to travel over Main Street to Millburn (then called "Millville"), down Millburn Avenue to the Vauxhall Road, turning off at its junction with the Newark road, now Springfield Avenue. Otherwise, they could go down

The Act further provided that upon completion of the road, it should be the duty of the Governor of the State to issue a license to permit the said directors to erect gates or "turnpikes" across the road and to demand and receive toll at the same, for each and every mile of the road, according to the following rates: for every carriage, sleigh stones, gates, signs or bridges and for attempts to use the road without paying toll.

CONSTRUCTION DIFFICULTIES

D. Stuart and William Smith were appointed Commissioners, by the Governor, to lay out the Turnpike, which according to the Act, was to be "not more than six nor less than four rods wide". The Commissioners laid it out great amount of fill must have been required in order to provide a solid base for the road. And the name "Seven Bridge Road," which still persists among older residents of Springfield, was derived from the fact that it took many bridges to get the road across all the little streams which came down from the north and west and emptied into the Rahway River.

Nevertheless, the Turnpike got across and, on June 11th, 1807, David Welsh and James Cook, Commissioners appointed by Governor Joseph Bloomfield to inspect the completed road, reported: "We have carefully and attentively inspected the aforesaid road and in our opinion it is executed in a workmanlike manner, according to the true intent and meaning of the Act authorizing the same to be made."

PUBLIC RESISTANCE TO TOLLS

It is a matter of record that the authorities experienced considerable difficulty in collecting tolls; the farmers and others needing to travel invented ingenious ways of avoiding payment. Our Shunpike Road, cut through to by-pass the Morris & Sussex Turnpike, is a monument to those who were determined to "shun the pike". However, it is surprising to find that even after the passage of half a century, certain irreconcilables were still keeping up the fight against the Turnpike Company.

On October 29th, 1860, David W. Baldwin, Justice of the Peace in Newark, issued a summons for one James Jamison, of Clinton Township, Essex County, on complaint of the Springfield and Newark Turnpike Company. The Company charged that the defendant "did willfully break down, destroy and otherwise injure one of the gates or turnpikes erected in pursuance of the Act of March 3, 1806, and did forcibly pass the same without having paid the legal toll...." The plaintiffs demanded the sum of twenty dollars, with costs of suit, plus fourteen dollars and sixty cents due for tolls unpaid between July 1, 1859 and October 1, 1860. It was stated that the defendant passed over two miles of the Turnpike, in Clinton Township, with a carriage drawn by one beast, 730 times during that period.

The defendant demanded a jury trial, and paid $1.84 in advance for the selection and seating of six jurors. After listening to much testimony and argument, the jury rendered a verdict, through their foreman, in favor of the Turnpike Company, in the amount of $3.50, with costs totaling $2.45.

TURNPIKE BECOMES A FREE ROAD

On March 19th, 1857, an Act of the Legislature provided for the cession to the City of Newark of that portion of the Turnpike within the limits of that City, and a few years later, on April 3rd, 1866, another Act called for the cession of the remainder of the Springfield and Newark Turnpike to the Townships of Clinton, South Orange, Union, Springfield and Millburn. These Acts provided that "the same shall thereafter be, to all intents and purposes, a public road or highway". What became of the shares of stock in the Turnpike Company, held by the original subscribers or their heirs, is not stated in the record.

The former Turnpike, other than that portion of the City of Newark, was taken over on January 8th, 1920, by the State Highway Commission, as Route #5 of the State Highway System, and became Route #24 in 1927, which is still its designation.

through Connecticut Farms and over to what is now Irvington. There was great demand for a more direct route.

TURNPIKE COMPANY ESTABLISHED

The construction of the Morris and Sussex Turnpike through Springfield, in 1801, no doubt fostered the idea of a similar highway to Newark, and on March 3rd, 1806, the New Jersey Legislature passed "An Act to Incorporate the Springfield and Newark Turnpike Company". It provided that "Samuel Pennington, Moses N. Combs, Joseph T. Baldwin, Matthias Denman and Abraham Woolley be authorized to receive subscriptions for erecting a turnpike road, not more than six or less than four rods wide, from Springfield to Newark; that such subscriptions should consist of eight hundred shares of twenty-five dollars each; that as soon as four hundred shares should be subscribed, the aforesaid incorporators should call a meeting of the subscribers to choose a President and seven directors, to be known as 'The President and Directors of the Springfield and Newark Turnpike Company'."

or sled drawn by one beast, one cent; for every additional beast, one cent; for every beast exceeding four, two cents. And it was further enacted that before the said company could receive toll for traveling the road, they should cause milestones or posts to be erected and maintained, one for each and every mile, and on each stone or post there should be clearly and legibly marked the distance it is from Newark.

The Turnpike Company was also required to post a printed list of rates at each toll gate and to maintain a board on which should be printed in large letters, "KEEP TO THE RIGHT AS THE LAW DIRECTS". Penalties were provided for damage to mile-four rods (66 feet) wide, thus providing for possible future widening, but the actual width of the artificial road constructed was 30 feet. Even that was decidedly generous for that early time.

Much of the area between the beginning of the new road, at Morris Avenue and the point at which present-day Valley Street branches off was a vast swamp, which accounted for the fact that no road had previously existed, and on occasion the Rahway River had a way of overflowing a huge part of it. In fact, within the past twenty-five years, water has been up to the edge of the road several times and, once or twice, over the pavement. So, it can readily be imagined that a

County Banks Cooperate To Inform Public Of Tax Law Requirement Re SSN

A group of twenty-five commercial banks, savings banks and savings and loan associations in Union County have banded together in a historic cooperative effort to inform the public of a new federal tax law requirement which directly affects all savings customers, it was announced today. The announcement was made by Byron F. West, special committee chairman, and a vice president of National State Bank of Elizabeth.

A special full page advertisement appearing in today's issue of the Sun outlines the new government requirement which compels all financial institutions to use the customer's Social Security Number in reporting all interest, dividends, or earnings paid out to them.

The people are advised to watch their mail for a special government form which they will receive from each financial institution requesting them to fill in their Social Security Number and return it as soon as possible, to the institution from which they received earnings or dividends.

These numbers must then be used by each institution in reporting individual earnings, interest and dividends to the Internal Revenue Service as required by the federal law.

The announcement emphasized the fact this is not an arbitrary request by these financial institutions but rather compliance with a national law affecting every financial institution and taxpayer in America. And the institutions listed as sponsors of the advertisement have voluntarily undertaken this announcement in 15 newspapers at their own expense only as a public service to all citizens in the Union County area.

Residents Being Fined For Unauthorized Fires

Two Springfield residents and one building contractor were fined in court last week for unauthorized fires.

The rash of brush fires caused by the careless burning of leaves and scrap has caused the fire department many headaches within the past few weeks.

According to Fire Chief Mesker, the rash of unsupervised fires, accompanied by high winds, has kept us continually on the go, and the danger to surrounding homes cannot be tolerated.

"There is an ordinance on the books," said Mesker, "that prohibits any leaf burning etc., without a fire permit. Even the permit does not give anyone carte blanche without proper supervision, i.e., a water hose, sand bucket or some fire preventive measure."

"Violators of the law will continue to be fined until the town becomes aware of the potential dangers," Mesker concluded.

Letters To Editor

To The Editor - Sun
Apparently, the Board of Education is bent on a "hard sell" to railroad their "operation update" proposal through to the people of this community. Their latest effort in the form of a luncheon for the women of town even included a note quote "The luncheon is being paid for personally by the members of the Board of Education as a public service."

I wonder who paid for the paper, printing and postage used for the invitation? Please excuse my sarcasm but the board has gone to such ridiculous extremes in promoting this proposal that I have to question their motives.

I am quite flattered because I have been told they are doing all of this partly due to my objections. If this is the case and I, as one individual, can create such a doubt in their minds as to have the board go to extremes, then there must be something wrong with the entire proposal.

I still haven't seen any answers to the questions already asked, however, here are some more that need answering.

1) Why are some members of the board using the "scare psychology" of split-sessions? Our present schools have a normal capacity of 2350 students. Present enrollment is approximately 2200. Does this sound like we are in need of split-sessions?

2) The Chisholm School contains 10 classrooms on a 4.32 acre parcel of land. The Caldwell School contains 17 classrooms on a 1.82 acre parcel of land. Does this mean that the children at Caldwell are not getting the same education?

3) The Gaudineer School, with 25 classrooms, was designed for a normal enrollment of 700 children. Do the additional 24 children presently enrolled call for an expenditure of $894,000.00 or the addition of 10 classrooms? Some modification, yes. $894,000.00, no.

4) What are the enrollment figures of every class in every school in town?

5) Are we going to have a referendum on May 14, 1963?

6) A statement was made by the board that the four classrooms at Chisholm, to be torn down, were in a frame building. Are Caldwell, Walton, Gaudineer and the rest of Chisholm other than frame?

7) When are the people in this community going to be given all of the actual facts?

If the people of this town are satisfied to sit back and let the board try to railroad this proposal across they have only themselves to blame when they get tax bills year after year with increases of $50.00 or more. We may well need some modification of our schools, we do not have to spend $1,471,000.00 to accomplish it. DEFEAT "operation up-date."

Very truly yours,
Edward H. Schwartz

she pursues a time-honored career...

The duties of a hospital nurse take her to people from every level of society. She helps them overcome illness, assists in rehabilitation, teaches disease prevention, and promotes good health as a way of life.

To qualify for her job she graduated from an approved school of nursing and passed a rigid examination to be licensed as a professional-registered nurse.

Besides a technical education she has many other qualifications. She is reliable, for she knows that a patient's life may depend on her faithfulness in carrying out orders.

She is capable of making independent decisions, or working as a highly-skilled and necessary member of a surgical team.

She works hard, putting the needs of patients before her own pleasure. She has a good sense of humor, seeing the ridiculous and not laughing; seeing the heartbreaking and still smiling for the patient's sake.

These and many other qualities of mind, heart, and spirit are inherent in the hospital nurse. She is proud of her profession and proud of the fact that every hour of her working life is devoted to the service of others.

Just Molly and Me by Alvin Jay

What can I tell you about my wife, THE DIRECTOR? As opening night for our play of "It's Only Tuesday!" draws near, so many people wonder and question the phenomenon of an obviously experienced, forceful little lady directing all aspects of a real man-sized theatrical production.

Molly is like a diamond, so many facets. The show has dramatic sequences, love scenes, solo songs, dance ensembles, and full scale production numbers. While directing all these, she confers with the set and costume designers, the stage and lighting crews, and even prods the ticket sellers.

Music has been so much a part of her life since she was a child performer with Jimmy Shearer at radio station WHBI in Newark. During her high school years, she was always a vocalist with some local band, but she turned down an offer to tour with Gene Krupa's orchestra and decided instead to go to Pennsylvania and study music and dancing at the Indiana State Teachers College there.

She started her directing career in Newark, too. While she was at Weequahic High School, she and a friend from Irvington High School used to produce shows for the Nye Avenue Synagogue. Her mother remembers his name very well. More than once she has told me how this Irvington High School boy, Jerry Lewis, used to say, "Mom, I'm gonna marry that girl!"

How many shows! Molly has directed since then! From the college shows she proceeded to directing the Choristers of Newark for eleven years. After we were married she discovered my own promising tenor voice which had previously been singing limited engagements in the show-er, and she promptly incorporated male voices into the Choristers. I like to tease her when we are with Democratic friends about the show she put on for Meyner when he was running for governor the same time Stevenson was running for president. I tell them they really

The children, the children, we mustn't forget the children. Molly is also a producer. We have four sons, and mind you, Molly directed right through each pregnancy. And then, we have school children! Right now they're the children of Avon Avenue School in Newark. One year there were blind children. Another year, the class in music appreciation for adults over sixty-five at the Newark Y. And I remember a year when she produced weekly shows with her private students at the Kessler Rehabilitation Institute in West Orange.

I think the most characteristic thread of all is the hard work. Of course, it always pays off, but my girl is a dynamo who makes everybody else work hard. She does take it a little easier with me, though — married fifteen years and never have I had a solo part.

But "It's Only Tuesday!" If you have difficulty getting your tickets for this wonderful show, call me at Mu. 2-9159. There will be performances Saturday, May 4th, and Sunday, May 5th, and a special afternoon performance Sunday, May 5th. Come on out and see my Molly and me.

SCIENCE NOTEBOOK

by HANS KLEIN

SALAMANDER

TREE FROG

By now the warm spring sun will have roused the amphibians from their winter hibernation. Terrestrial species have headed for ponds and quiet streams to meet for the breeding season.

About 300 million years ago an illustrious ancestor did just the reverse-- it decided to leave its watery home and venture onto land thereby starting the amphibian line of which there are some 2000 species living today. There was a time when the amphibians were the only land vertebrates-- no reptiles, no birds, no mammals. In their heyday fossil remains indicate that amphibians reached 15 feet in length.

The first amphibians were probably voiceless, but when frogs and toads evolved they came up with the first vocal cords. Many frogs and toads are quite vociferous at breeding time. Some of the sounds are sonorous as in bull frogs, others have bell-like tones, and some sing and chirp loudly. Since frogs make sounds with the mouth closed they can sing under water as well as on land.

Frogs are sensitive to sound ranges between 50 and 10,000 cycles per second as compared to the human range of 15 to 15,000 cycles per second.

Although amphibians were the first vertebrates to take to the land, most of them never ventured too far from water and most modern amphibians return to water for breeding. The young are gill-breathing tadpoles and completely aquatic.

Amphibians are less diversified than formerly and only three main types exist today:

1. Caecilians which are worm-like and legless. There are only 55 species of Caecilians. Some are brightly colored, but they are shy and rarely seen.

2. Salamanders which are long, slender bodies and short legs. There are about 150 species ranging from 3 to 8 inches in length, except for the giant Japanese salamander which attains a length of 5 to 6 feet.

3. The Order Salientia (1700 species) includes the frogs and toads of which we are most familiar.

Science Quiz:

1. How does a salamander differ from a lizard?
2. What is a mud puppy?
3. Do all amphibia develop lungs?
4. What do tadpoles eat?

Answers:

1. Salamanders are often called lizards, but they differ from lizards in having no claws, a moist and not a scaly skin. Salamanders have a tadpole stage, lizards never do.

2. It is a relatively large gill-breathing amphibian, similar to salamanders, but wholly aquatic.

3. No. Some keep their gills all their lives. Certain salamanders are lungless and breath through the skin.

4. Tadpoles are strictly vegetarian although when adult they become wholly carnivorous.

Edmund Frey To Retire After 26 Years As Superintendent

Edmund Frey of Mountainside, who was one of the pioneer members of the Union County Regional High School district board will retire June 30 after serving 26 years as superintendent of buildings and ground for the Regional Board. His application was unanimously approved Tuesday night at its meeting in Gov. Livingston Regional High School by the board. Members were unanimous in agreeing that plans should be made to honor Frey for his years of "outstanding service."

In his application to the board for retirement, Frey explained that he had little choice because of the status of the pension. He indicated that he would be penalized financially if he didn't retire at this time. Frey told the board of the many personal rewards he received in his years of service with the board. He "watched with admiration the growth of the school district from 800 students to its present 4,000 enrollment."

As submitted by Director Monroe L. Spivak of the Regional Adult School, the board concurred with a proposed curricula to be offered for the fall term. Offerings of a varied nature will be given at each of the existing regional high schools, the Arthur L. Johnson in Clark; Jonathan Dayton, Springfield, and Governor Livingston, Berkeley Heights.

Spivak said "The Curriculum over-all includes what I consider to be just enough new material to provide for our regular customers and enough 'old' courses to insure success. It should be our biggest term."

Registration at the three schools will be held Sept. 10 and 11. Classes will start the week of Sept. 16 and continue through Nov. 21. There are no Tuesday or Wednesday holidays during this 10-week period. Brochures will be in the mail Aug. 23.

The board approved requests for printing personnel for six weeks next summer to print material for school use. Stanley Grossman of the industrial department, Jonathan Dayton School, will be paid $840 and his assistant, Roy Abram of Springfield, $560 for the same period. Abram, a graduate of Jonathan Dayton, is now a college senior.

The board approved by a 6-1 vote a list of requests by 44 of its personnel to attend conventions during the 1963-64 school year: Funds have been provided in the budget. Board members W. Robert Powers of Berkeley Heights "dissented. He termed the requests "excessive" as compared with the practice in industry. Assistant Superintendent Dr. Randolph T. Jacobsen reported that those attending conventions would mostly be coordinators or others with administrative positions. He said few classroom teachers are included in the list. Dr. Minor C. K. Jones, Mountainside member, termed attendance at conventions as "in service training."

FROM

SENATOR HARRISON A. WILLIAMS, JR. A PROGRAM FOR AMERICANS TO HELP AMERICANS

Washington, D.C. —Congress last week received one of the most stirring proposals ever put before legislators of this nation. President Kennedy called for a National Service Corps which will help us combat, as the President phrased it, the paradox of poverty in the midst of plenty. Just as the overseas Peace Corps has given the world its first real understanding of some of the basic problems facing those who yearn for a better life despite staggering deficiencies abroad, so will this new corps give thoughtful citizens of this nation a better understanding of the difficulties of so many fellow citizens who exist, perhaps, in nearby, unnoticed neighborhoods.

The new corps will send out volunteers --well trained, carefully selected men and women who know that idealism is often best expressed in practical ways. They will go to our slums, rural and urban. They will help overburdened school teachers. They will work with others who know the problems of our migratory farm workers, the mentally ill and mentally retarded, the elderly, the disabled, the delinquent and dependent children, and other Americans who now face poverty, neglect or deprivation.

At least 32 million fellow citizens fall into one or more of the groups above. They have become the "invisible poor" of a generally comfortable nation. We think of them, if we think of them at all, only in sociological or statistical terms. But little can be done about their difficulties until more Americans stir themselves and demand that the progress of man in each century be of benefit to all men, not merely to an affluent majority.

It is here that I think the National Service Corps will perform one of its greatest services. It will help reduce "social problems" to understandable terms. It will show that citizens have it in their power to change their communities for the better, if they really know what is happening in those communities.

This is asking a lot of a small number of volunteers-- perhaps 150 to 300 men and women to begin this fall, with a gradual built-up to about 5,000 by the third year. But although the number of corpsmen will be small when compared to national need, these few volunteers can set a real example. They will make us wonder how we could have tolerated for so long the neglect of so many. The very existence of such a corps would, I am sure, encourage many other Americans to take a long, responsive look at some of the problems that might exist very close to home.

For these reasons I was proud to introduce the Administration bill when it reached Congress last week. Another New Jersey legislator, Representative Frank Thompson, is chief sponsor in the House of Representatives. It seems to me that the bill has an excellent chance in both houses, but it would be very easy for opponents to confuse some of the basic issues.

CHECK TERMITE DAMAGE

Every year at this time, homeowners find winged insects that suddenly fly out and then drop their wings and crawl all around. These insects are termites and indicate that there are thousands of other termites still eating the house causing further destruction to the wood of the house. The cost of repairs far exceeds the cost of treatment and goes higher with delay.

Call us for free inspection of your home by experienced personnel. Our work, which we guarantee for TEN years is engineered to exceed all existing specifications making us the leaders in the field.

The answer to Crabgrass--before you see it!

Agrico Pre-Emergence Crabgrass Control

Now is the time for effective action against Crabgrass. An application of granular Agrico Pre-Emergence Crabgrass Control sets up a barrier in the soil that kills Crabgrass, Goosegrass, Foxtail and similar seedlings as they sprout. The dry granules of this preventive can be effectively applied right up to the two-leaf stage (when Crabgrass is about 1-inch high). So safe to use, it can be applied on flower and shrub beds. In fact, it's beneficial to mature lawn grasses. Spread yours today.

"Peace Marchers" Hike To UN Plaza

"PEACEM IN TERRIS" read the signs carried aloft by the Peace Marchers down South Orange Avenue on Saturday, April 13. The saying referred to the Pope's recent encyclical calling for "peace on Earth" with equal disarmament and a strengthened United Nations.

More than 300 persons participated in the walk which began at Meadowbrook Park in South Orange and ended at the United Nations Plaza. The "March for Peace" was initiated by the New Jersey Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy because the Spring Easter-Passover season is a special time of hope and faith that renews man's aspiration to live at peace with all other men...and that the alternative to peace is total destruction by thermonuclear war...and "we believe nuclear war will come if the arms race is not stopped." So read the circulars being distributed along the line of march and the appeal to on-lookers to join in the line.

Children carried bunches of flowers and brightly colored balloons and adults carried signs in support of the U.N.; an end to nuclear testing, for disarmament with inspection, and planning now by government, industry, and labor for a smooth conversion to a peace-time economy.

Three Union County groups were represented in the March (Plainfield, Elizabeth and the Springfield-Summit area) which is held yearly. Two years ago the marchers came through Springfield on their way from McGuire Air Force Base to the United Nations. Last year, the March began at the Raritan Arsenal and went through Elizabeth to Newark and the U.N.

Among the sponsors and participants were the N.J. Council Americans for Democratic Action Fellowship of Reconciliation, Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, Ridgewood Society of Friends, Essex, Union and Morris County Women for Peace, American Jewish Congress Greater Newark Women's Division.

Baha'i 100th Congress To Be Held In London

The Baha'is of Springfield along with Baha'is in every part of the world will observe the 100th anniversary of the declaration of Baha'u'llah, prophet-founder of the Baha'i World Faith.

It was just one hundred years ago in Baghdad, Iraq, the Baha'u'llah publicly announced to his followers that he was the Messenger of God foretold in the Holy Books of all of the world's major religions. This was the actual beginning of the Baha'i World Faith which has now spread to 256 countries, islands and dependencies of the world, with several million followers located in over 11,000 centers.

Over 6,000 Baha'is from every part of the world will gather in London April 28-May 2 to participate in the world observance of Baha'u'llah's public declaration Eskimos from the Arctic, Indians from North and South America, Pygmy tribesmen from the Congo, former "untouchables" from India, aborigines from Australia, Viet-Nameese, Philipinos, Chinese, Japanese and Europeans.

In an age when thinking is largely dominated by the somber threat of nuclear destruction, the Baha'i World Congress in London strikes a hopeful, reassuring note, for it will symbolize in fact and demonstrate in devotion the essential oneness of religion.

The new world envisaged by Baha'is is already clearly blue-printed. Its basic principles will be logical and will include the harmonization of religion and science, equal status for men and women, abolition of the extremes of wealth and poverty and the adoption of auxiliary world language.

Baha'is believe that in this age the time has come to break down the cultural and geographic barriers which have for so long divided the peoples of the earth. This is the moment in history, they say, when the force of circumstances will bring mankind together in one human family. The Baha'is hope to demonstrate the reality of this Principle at the world Congress in London by bringing together representatives of all of the world's major racial and ethnic groups, people with varying religious and cultural backgrounds and who speak in many different tongues.

Springfield residents who will be attending the Baha'i World Congress in London are: Mr. & Mrs. Raymond C. Rouse, daughters Diana and Gloria and son Raymond; Charyl Ioas, and Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Rutstein.

Why the NEW Flameless Electric Range Cooks Rings Around the Rest

No range heats faster, no range controls heat so accurately as the NEW flameless electric range. And, of course, nothing compares with electricity for cleaner, cooler, more dependable cooking. Check these eight points of superiority, and then visit your Reddy Kilowatt Appliance Dealer during the March and April Range Sale to choose from single oven, double oven, free-standing, built-in or high-oven models — you're sure to find the range to fit your needs.

Flameless—no open flame, no burners to get out of adjustment, no pilot to be blown out.

Economical—cost of cooking electrically is low—the average for a family of four is only $2.00 per month.

Dresner To Speak On Warsaw Ghetto At Commemoration

Rabbi Israel Dresner, spiritual leader of Temple Sharey Shalom of Springfield, will be the main speaker at the greater Essex County Memorial Commemoration of the Warsaw Ghetto uprising to be held Sunday, April 21, at 7:00 p.m., in the Weequahic High School Auditorium in Newark.

The Memorial meeting sponsored by all the Synagogues and Jewish organizations in the greater Essex County Area which includes Springfield, will commemorate the 20th Anniversary of the heroic struggle of the Jews in the Warsaw Ghetto against Nazi barbarism.

President Kennedy's proclamation designating April 21st as Warsaw Ghetto Memorial Day stated, "The result was known by the Jews to be foredoomed, yet, though they lacked both military resources and military leaders they were able to conduct their struggle against the overwhelming forces of the Nazi occupiers for more than three weeks, thereby providing a chapter in the annals of human heroism, an inspiration to the peace loving people of the world and a warning to would-be oppressors which will long be remembered."

Well over a thousand people are expected to attend the Memorial meeting at Weequahic High School.

Springfield residents will include Norman Salsitz of 9 Craig Road, who is a survivor of the struggle of the Jewish partisans against the Nazis.

Rabbi Dresner's address is entitled "The lesson on the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising for us today."

Runaway Horse Corraled Following 5 Hour Romp

A runaway horse (brown mare) was "corraled" on Mountain Avenue shortly before noon Monday after having made her way from Westfield through Mountainside and finally into Springfield.

Police said the brown mare had been boarded in Westfield and apparently broke loose or wandered away from her stable early Monday morning.

The mare was first spotted in Westfield near Central Avenue and was reported at various times to have been heading up North Chestnut before finally being tracked down as she crossed Route 22 in Mountainside (a major accomplishment in itself).

The horse continued up into the mountain area before being spotted again as she headed down Possum Pass onto Wentz Avenue, up Hillside and finally arriving on Mountain Avenue just at the end of the Baltusrol Golf Course where she was cornered.

Springfield Patrolmen John Lombardi and Howie Thompson assisted an unidentified passerby who finally corraled the runaway mare.

Sgt. John Wentz of the Springfield police and Union County SPCA Warden Frank Hible gave them all in the attempts to round-up the mare as did police from surrounding communities who were alerted.

Ptl. Lombardi, a horse fancier, supplied the horse with hay and oats while she awaited transportation to the Circle R Boarding Stable in Westfield where the animal was held pending claims of ownership.

The only comment available from the horse was a snicker as she was loaded into a truck and hauled away. An unidentified youth translated the snicker into "peoplese" and claimed the animal really said "This is one way to get into the newspapers."

THE LAST ROUND-UP is effected with the help of (l to r) Union County S.P.C.A. Warden Frank Hible, Springfield Ptl. John Lombardi, Circle R Ranch's Joe Reale and Springfield Ptl. Howie Thompson. Oh yes, the horse was involved too. Scene was on Mountain Avenue near the Walton School. (staff photo)

Collins To Address Springfield Lions

Loree "Rip" Collins of Summit, Navy football scout, will be the guest speaker as the Springfield Lions Club honors outstanding senior athletes of Jonathan Dayton Regional High School tomorrow at 7 p.m. in the Mountainside Inn, Mountainside.

President Jay Longfield said

that Dayton Regional coaches would take part in the proceedings, in which each senior athlete would receive Lions Club certificates of achievement.

Collins, a former linebacker at Annapolis, will speak on "What Champions are Made Of". He will emphasize how clean sports can help mold young men into better and more useful citizens.

Discuss United Fund At CC's Directors Meeting

On April 10, 1963 the Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors held their monthly meeting. The chamber had two guests Grant Zachary Manager of United Funds in Summit, and Rod Smith, an official of the Boy Scouts of America. The chamber invited these two men to the meeting to discuss fund raising. Both gentlemen reiterated the fact that if a United Fund were a possibility for Springfield it would not mean that all fund seeking organizations would be in it or that hard working volunteer fund workers would not be required. There are certain of the present national funds that do not join in the United Fund Appeal and there are some others which the fund directors, due to certain limitations may not be able to include. A prime requisite for the workers in a United Fund would be that they are instructed very carefully on actually what they are soliciting for and that the workers be intelligent and diligent. The Chamber is going to study this matter over the next months and as public opinion is gathered the possibility of fostering a United Fund may ensue.

Suburban Deborah To Hold Meeting

The regular meeting of Suburban Deborah will meet April 23, 8:30 P.M. at Temple Beth Ahm, Springfield. Mrs. Milton Friedman, Pres. will conduct the business meeting.

Mrs. David Brecker, Program VP will introduce a representative from the Eve Nelson Cosmetics as guest speaker. A demonstration and question and answer session will follow.

The next board meeting will be held May 13.

Sandmeier PTA Plans Meeting

Two main topics will be presented at the general meeting of the Thelma L. Sandmeier PTA, Springfield, which will be held on Monday, April 22 at 8:15 p.m.

Stewart Mulvihill, science teacher at the Florence M. Gaudineer School will discuss "Science from Kindergarten Through the Eighth Grade," and in addition will demonstrate a few simple scientific experiments. Mulvihill, a member of the Springfield School System for three years, also conducts advanced evening classes for eighth graders at the Gaudineer School.

The second topic, "Operation Up-Date", the school expansion program of the Springfield Board of Education, will be explained by Board Members Mrs. Lawrence Dorsky and Joseph Bender. Questions from the audience will be answered.

Election of PTA officers for the 1963-64 season will also take place at the meeting.

O'Brien Begins Basic Training

NEW Tax Number LAW

Requires Taxpayer Identification by Social Security Number

A FEDERAL LAW REQUIRES ALL FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS... INSURANCE COMPANIES... CORPORATIONS TO "USE" YOUR SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER IN REPORTING INTEREST, DIVIDENDS, EARNINGS!

Of vital importance to you, is a new Government law that requires all savings and loan associations, banks, insurance companies and corporations to report to the Internal Revenue Service any earnings of $10 or more paid or credited to every saver or stockholder each calendar year. To keep proper records it also specifies that each person receiving such income be identified by the use of that person's Social Security Number.

WATCH YOUR MAIL FOR THIS FORM

Although the first transmittal to the Treasury of the record of the earnings you receive will not be made until January of 1964, we must have a record of your Social Security Number this year. To comply with this law a form of gathering our savers' Social Security Numbers will be placed in the mail during the months ahead. Since you may have other savings accounts or investments elsewhere, you will receive this form from these organizations also. A form must be completed and returned to each institution from which you receive earnings or dividends. If you have no Social Security Number, provision has been made to supply an identification number. An application for this purpose is a part of the form being sent you.

ALL ORGANIZATIONS PAYING INCOME TO YOU MUST HAVE THIS INFORMATION

When you receive forms in the mail the law requires you to complete and return them. Please don't consider this an arbitrary request on the part of the financial institutions listed below. We are only acting in compliance with Public Law 87-397. However, you can appreciate the task of recording on our part will be monumental and will require the cooperation of every citizen.

Happy Birthday to Judith Hope Morris of 9 Woodside Road, Springfield who celebrated her birthday with a party on April 6th. Attending besides her parents Larry and Rhoda Morris were her brother Keith Scott, sister Robin Beth and Larry and Bruce Harper, Ted and Marci Silver, Jo-Ann and Paul Sadimes, and Ruth Lorber. Judith will be hosting her tap and acrobatic dance class at Fra-bell's Dancing School on April 20th with a party. Congratulations!

Don't forget the Rummage Sale at the Methodist Church on Main Street, this Thursday April 18th from 9:30 to 4:00 p.m.

If you want to know what those birds are that catch your eye, drop into the Springfield Library. They have some beautiful photographs of birds in this area and they are quite lovely. It's too bad the birds don't pause long enough for us to see them close by.

WELCOME TO THE WORLD DEPT: From Beth Isreal Hospital in Newark; HARRIS BENNETT KIRSCH born on April 7th to Linda and Jack Kirsch of 23 Tudor Ct., Springfield. On March 26th, ROBIN JOY DVORIN born to Doris and Sanford Dvorin of 24 Troy Drive, Springfield.

Have you heard this one: It was early afternoon. At the movie house the box-office girl asked the boy, "Why aren't you in school?"

"Oh, it's all right," said he. "I've got measles."

See you.

Pool Committee Announces Openings For Summer Jobs

Edward Schwartz, Chairman of the Springfield Swim Pool Committee, announced today that applications are still being accepted for summer employment.

There are several vacancies for young men who have the necessary qualifications to serve as life guards. As Schwartz pointed out, those individuals who are qualified, will be accepted on a first come first serve basis. He urged all those interested to contact Edward Ruby, Director of Recreation, at the Municipal Building, so that interviews can be arranged as soon as possible.

The Pool Committee is now open for suggestions from the members as to what recreational activities they would like to have provided during the coming season. There has been a great deal of interest displayed in regard to the possibility of a day camp for the children. This is just one of the many additional facilities which are being considered.

The committee will be pleased to receive any ideas that the members care to submit. All suggestions received will be given careful consideration by Schwartz and his committee.

Please address all correspondence to Edward Ruby, Director of Recreation, Municipal Building, Springfield.

Schwartz again expressed his appreciation to the members of his committee, and also to the many residents who have taken an active part in making the Springfield Swim Pool a reality. If the members will now give us their thoughts regarding the social events they desire, we can complete another important phase of the swim pool operation.

Hadassah Chapter Having Elections

The Springfield Chapter of Hadassah will hold its regular monthly meeting on Thursday evening, April 25 at Temple Beth Ahm promptly at 8:30 p.m. Mrs. David Schwartz will preside.

Mrs. Ben Katz, raffle chairman, will hold the drawing that evening for the 12-place setting Lenox china dinner service which has been part of fund-raising by Hadassah women for several months.

Election of officers for the next season will be held by Mrs. Irwin Gershen, who heads the nominations committee.

The program planned for this meeting is a most unusual one, as it is the first time that a sister group will entertain. The Yiddish Group of the Livingston chapter will perform their production of "Little Red Riding Hood". This original script written by Marian Erlbaum, a member of the Livingston chapter, promises to be one of the outstanding programs of the Hadassah year.

Tercentenary Tales

JUET'S JOURNAL: DIARY OR ALIBI?

By John T. Cunningham

Robert Juet of Limehouse, England, ship's officer aboard the Dutch ship HALF MOON, began scribbling in a journal shortly after the ship left Amsterdam on April 4, 1609, with Captain Henry Hudson at the wheel.

Day after day, Juet recorded details of what he saw. Most important to New Jersey, Robert Juet kept exceptionally careful notations as the ship sailed northward in late August and early September along today's Jersey Shore, into Sandy Hook Bay and up the river past the Palisades.

Yet, strangely, Robert Juet carefully avoided any mention of happenings between May 5 and May 19. Other accounts of the voyage of the HALF MOON insist that Hudson's crew, Juet among them, mutinied in the cold North Atlantic in those two weeks and forced Hudson to sail west rather than east in his quest for a water passage to the Indies.

The HALF MOON continued around Sandy Hook and into the bay to fish and to get fresh water. There, on September 4, "the people of the Countrey came aboard of us, seeming very glad of our coming."

Crewman John Colman was killed by Indians in Sandy Hook as the sad beginning of strife.

the ship's side in an open shallop, to die in the open seas of the North.

Juet, the "evil genius" stayed aboard, but the mutineers did not choose him as their leader. He died, broken and ignored, as the troubled voyage neared its end on September, 1611, within sight of home.

HENRY HUDSON'S "Half Moon" on the Hudson River with the Palisades in background. Small size of ship can be seen by comparing with height of men.

Henry Hudson undoubtedly chose Juet as a ship's officer, and Juet's jottings gave the captain's name to the river, and, of course, to Hudson County.

On the other hand, one writer has called Juet "an evil genius," who preserved his careful notes to protect himself in case the mutineers came to trial when the HALF MOON reached home.

More important than Juet's character is his JOURNAL, reprinted in 1959 by the New Jersey Historical Society to commemorate the 350th anniversary of Hudson's exploration.

The HALF MOON sailed toward North America after the May mutiny, reached present-day Cape Charles before tacking sharply to the north on August 26. Two days later Juet observed a "great bay", unfortunately so "full of shoals" that the HALF MOON could not proceed up Delaware Bay (as it came to be called).

Northward—the little ship sailed, with Juet at the "top-mast head" on the lookout for "shoals." He saw "broken lands" (the coast between present day Atlantic City and Little Egg Inlet.) He noted "a great lake of water, as we could judge it to be... which was in length ten leagues" (Barnegat Bay, surely).

"The mouth of that lake hath many shoals, and the Sea breaketh upon them as it is cast out of the mouth of it," Juet wrote—and is there a better way to describe Barnegat Inlet, even today?

Now the HALF MOON found that the currents streamed northward and on September 2 Juet saw "high Hills" (which were either the Navesink Highlands or Staten Island's hills).

Regardless of Juet's character, Jersey Shore publicists ever since have loved him for what he wrote on the night of September 2:

"This is a very good Land to fall with, and a pleasant land to see."

The crew buried him and the HALF MOON weighed anchor, went northward through the narrows, then sailed up the great river which bears Hudson's name until the river narrowed in proof that this was no waterway to the Indies.

On October 2, on a "faire" day as the ship sailed homeward, Juet noted "a Chiffe, that looked the colour of white greene, as though it was either a Copper or Silver Myne" (but was more likely the serpentine rock of Hoboken.)

Hudson, his mutinous crew, and Robert Juet made it home on November 7. They would sail again a year later, with Juet as mate, despite his record of dissension.

This time Hudson hauled Juet before him in September, 1610, and charged him with leading a mutiny. Juet pleaded innocent and was returned to duty. The following June, Hudson, his son, and eight others were set over

Union Concert Association Selects Three Attractions

The Union Community Concert Association has selected the three attractions which it will present in Union for the 1963-1964 season. The selection was made by Board Members at a meeting held last Sunday at the home of Mr. & Mrs. Nils Sandberg, 1045 Burnet Avenue, Union. The concert group will present Theodore Lettvin, pianist, in October; the Zurich Chamber Orchestra in January; and the Revelers Male Quartet in the spring.

Theodore Lettvin is a young pianist who has been attracting wide attention for his fine playing throughout the country and in Europe.

The Zurich Chamber Orchestra, an ensemble of 28 musicians, made its first American tour in the season 1955-1956 and created such excitement among the cognoscenti that demands for a return to these shores were immediately forthcoming. However, demands overseas have kept the organization so busily engaged that the ensemble's return could not be arranged before the 1963-1964 season. Under the perceptive direction of Edmond de Stoutz, who has served as conductor since the organization's inception, the program to be offered here promises to be one of the most stimulating and distinguished occasions in a number of seasons.

The Revelers are a popular foursome who have been delighting concert audiences throughout the Americas and who present a varied program of songs from Schubert to Broadway musicals. Each member of the quartet is a soloist in his own right and frequently appears in solo recitals.

Board members who attended the meeting to select next season's artists were Mrs. Luther Berry, president; Robert Hearn, first vice-president; Miss Estelle Segall, second vice-president; Mrs. R.F. Hartjen, recording secretary; Mrs. Gerald Batchelder; Mrs. Abe Benhamin, campaign co-chairman; Mrs. John Gould, Mr. Hans Lindner, Mrs. Jules Lozowick, Mrs. Frank Seelock and Mrs. George Suess.

Mrs. Sandberg, who is co-chairman, stated that a few subscriptions are available for those who may not have been contacted during the association's recent membership drive. Membership fees for the three, Members in Union are $8.00 for adults and $4.00 for students and entitle the holders to attend other concerts of famous artists in Elizabeth, Clark, Cranford, Woodbridge, Plainfield and Morristown. Seats are not sold to individual performances. Those wishing to join should contact Mrs. Sandberg (MU 7-0417) or Mrs. R. Liebling, 29 Cottage Lane, Springfield (DR 9-4973) immediately.

"Star Was Born" In Dayton Track Victory Tuesday

As the saying goes, "a star was born" Tuesday in the Dayton Regional track victory over Cranford High. Freshman Danny Ginter, participating in his first varsity meet, took first place in the 220 yard dash and tied for second in the 100, as Springfield downed the Cougars by a 77 1/3 - 39 2/3 score.

Ginter, who started for the Regional Frosh football team, never trailed in the long sprint, beating teammate Mike Tabakin by five yards. He also tied sophomore Tabakin in the 100 yard dash. Springfield did poorly in the 440 yard sprint, as Hank Sobolak could only manage third for the Bulldogs.

In the hurdle events, Don Calabrese grabbed first in the highs in 17.5 seconds time and Pete Creede took a tie for second. Creede gained a tie in the 180 yard lows, while Calabrese ran third. The half mile run went to Pete Gonstancia, who edged teammate Jack Moore in 2:10.3 time. Glen Thomas took second in the mile run, and Dave Macmillan captured third.

Dayton showed its power in the field events, taking a first and second in all but one of the six events. The javelin throw was Springfield's weak point, as

Urquhart Slam Tops Hillside 9

A grand slam homer by outfielder Ronnie Urquhart last Thursday, gave Bill Kretzer and the Springfield diamond nine a comfortable first inning lead at Hillside, and paved the way for a 9-1 victory over the Comets. Urquhart, the fleet right fielder, blasted the area's first bases filled homer off Chuck Ostrawsky, after two Hillside errors and a single by Bob Rahnenfuher had loaded the bases.

Kretzer, in-chalking up his second straight win of the campaign, had no trouble mowing down the Comets after he had been given a 6-0 lead by the third frame. He struck out seven batters, while walking two and the lone tally off him was unearned. Hillside managed four hits in all.

Urquhart, with two safeties in three trips, had his best varsity output, but center fielder Rahnenfuher collected three blows in four trips, including a triple to up his season's output to six for 10. The other extra base hit for Dayton was a double by Steve Berger.

Comet Cindermen Crush Springfield

A powerful Hillside track team delt Dayton Regional its first track defeat of the young season by a 71 1/2 - 45 1/2. The Comets captured nine of the thirteen firsts in gaining its margin.

Sophomore Bob Zika captured second in the 100 yard dash for Dayton and Hank Sobolak gained the same position for Regional in the 220 yard dash. A beautiful comeback by Glen Thomas gave him a first in the mile, and Jack Moore took second for Regional in the half. Don Calabrese took second in the low hurdles.

Les Davis captured first in the broad jump at 17' 10", and Sobolak tied for second. Charlie Roll's shot put throw of 50' 10" was good enough for the first, and Drew Wuestman took second in the discus throw.

There were 19 games over 200, featured by T. Lombardi 232; B. Bruder 226, L. Cohen 225, L. Seroff 222, S. Bruder 215, S. Dorfman 214, B. Cole 211, and M. Kurtz 210.

Volunteer Umpires Needed For Little League Games

The Springfield Youth Minor League practice sessions are in full swing as the team's prepare for opening day, April 29. The boys are as enthusiastic about getting in shape as are the Major League players with one big difference. The Major League players and the Babe Ruth League players do not have to worry about umpires for their games - they have paid regularly-scheduled umpires. The youngsters in the Youth Minors, most of them in their first year of Little League Baseball, must depend upon volunteer help to umpire the games. So far this season we have not gotten the help we need to make the season a success. There is nothing more disheartening to these boys than to go through a training program of 3 to 4 weeks then to find that they must play regulation games without official umpires.

Therefore, we now appeal to the men of Springfield to help the Youth Minor Leagues when it needs your services. We are looking for 5 to 10 men to work one or two nights a week as official umpires. It will really boost the moral and enliven the play of these boys to see an official man in blue at their ball games. Mr. Bob Isley is the umpire-in-chief for the Youth Minors. He has a group of young men who will help officiate the game, but needs the help of you men of Springfield to cover all the games for the season. Anyone who would like to help, please contact Mr. Bob Isley of 379-4977 or Mr. Bob Bevan at DR 9-5634.

Sharey Shalom Keglers Take 3 In Bumper Games

The Gary Schuckman team catapulted itself above the rest of the field again in the Sharey Shalom Bowling League bumper games last Sunday by taking three games from the Otto Granick team with which it had been tied for first place.

Bob Bernstein, with a dazzling 606 series, which included 225 and 210 games, in turn spurred his team to three wins to tie with Granick's team in second place.

The other high scorers were: Gary Schuckman, 223, 203, Howard Roth, 215; Hy Adler, 207, 204; Murry Hurwitz 206; Art Clover, 204.
